Here sorrow is spoken of as if it tasted bitter, and "soul" refers to the whole man. Alternate translation: "with anger and resentment" or "after living a sad life" has never experienced anything good

This can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: "has experienced only bad things"

Job 21:26

They lie down alike in the dust

This is a polite way to say that they died. Alternate translation: "They both die and people bury them"

the worms cover them both

Worms are associated with decay of dead bodies. Alternate translation: "the worms in the dirt eat their dead bodies"

Job 21:27

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking to his friends.

See

Job uses this phrase to call attention to the statement that follows. Alternate translation: "Listen"

Job 21:28

Where now is the house of the prince? Where is the tent in which the wicked man once lived?

Job believes his friends will ask these question to scold him. Both questions mean the same thing. Alternate translation: "See, the house of the evil ruler is gone. The tent of the wicked man has disappeared."

Job 21:29

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking to his friends.

Have you never asked traveling people?

Job uses these questions to rebuke his friends for not learning from people who travel. Alternate translation: "You should listen to those who have traveled to distant places."

Job 21:30

Connecting Statement:

Job finishes asking a rhetorical question that begins with the words "Do you not know" in verse 29.

the wicked man is kept ... from the day of wrath?

Job uses these questions to rebuke his friends for not learning from people who travel. "Those who have traveled to distant places will tell you ... from the day of wrath."

the wicked man is kept from the day of calamity ... he is led away from the day of wrath

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"God keeps the wicked man from the day of calamity ... God leads him away from the day of wrath"

Job 21:31

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking to his friends.

Who will condemn the wicked man's way to his face?

Job uses this question to contradict his friends' belief that the wicked are always judged. Alternate translation: "No one condemns the wicked man to his face."

to his face

This means no one will go directly to the wicked person and condemn him personally.

Who will repay him for what he has done?

Job uses this question to contradict his friends' belief that the wicked are always judged. Alternate translation: "No one repays him for the bad things that he has done."

Job 21:32

he will be borne

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "people will carry him"

Job 21:33

The clods of the valley will be sweet to him

Job imagines that the dead person will even enjoy the dirt that is put on him. This means the wicked person will even have a good death and a nice burial after a fulfilling life. "Clods" refer to the earth that covers the grave. Alternate translation: "He will enjoy being covered with the dirt of the valley" or "He will enjoy being buried in the dirt of the valley"

all people will follow after him, as there were innumerable people before him

Job emphasizes that a large crowd of people will be in the funeral procession of this imaginary wicked man to honor him. Alternate translation: "a huge number of people go to the grave site; some go in front of the procession and some come behind"

Job 21:34

Connecting Statement:

This concludes Job's speech to his friends.

How then do you comfort me with nonsense, since in your answers there is nothing but falsehood?

Job uses a question to scold his friends. Alternate translation: "You cannot comfort me with nonsense. All of your answers are false."

Chapter 22

¹Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

² "Can a man be useful to God?

Can a wise man be useful to him?

³ Is it any pleasure to the Almighty if you are righteous?

Is it gain to him if you make your ways blameless?

⁴ Is it because of your reverence for him that he rebukes you and takes you to judgment?

⁵ Is not your wickedness great?
Is there no end to your iniquities?

⁶ For you have demanded guarantee of a loan from your brother for no reason, and you have stripped away clothing from the naked.

⁷ You have not given water to weary people to drink;
you have withheld bread from hungry people

⁸ although you, a mighty man, possessed the earth, although you, an honored man, lived in it.

⁹ You have sent widows away empty;
the arms of the fatherless have been crushed.

¹⁰ Therefore, snares are all around you,
and sudden fear troubles you.

¹¹ There is darkness, so that you cannot see;
an abundance of waters covers you.

¹² Is not God in the heights of heaven?
Look at the height of the stars, how high they are!

¹³ You say, 'What does God know?
Can he judge through the thick darkness?

¹⁴ Thick clouds are a covering to him, so that he does not see us;
he walks on the vault of heaven.'

¹⁵ Will you keep the old way that wicked men have walked—

¹⁶ those who were snatched away before their time,
those whose foundations have washed away like a river,

¹⁷ those who said to God, 'Depart from us';
those who said, 'What can the Almighty do to us?'

¹⁸ Yet he filled their houses with good things;
the plans of wicked people are far from me.

¹⁹ Righteous people see their fate and are glad;
innocent people mock them.

²⁰ They say, 'Surely those who rose up against us are cut off; fire has consumed their possessions.'

- ²¹ Now agree with God and be at peace with him;
in that way, good will come to you.
- ²² Receive, I beg you, instruction from his mouth;
store up his words in your heart.
- ²³ If you return to the Almighty, you will be built up,
if you put unrighteousness far away from your tents.
- ²⁴ Lay your treasure down in the dust,
the gold of Ophir among the stones of the brooks,
- ²⁵ and the Almighty will be your treasure, precious silver to you.
- ²⁶ For then you will take pleasure in the Almighty;
you will lift up your face to God.
- ²⁷ You will make your prayer to him, and he will hear you;
you will pay your vows to him.
- ²⁸ You will also decree anything, and it will be confirmed for you;
light will shine on your paths.
- ²⁹ God humbles a proud man,
and he saves the one with humble eyes.
- ³⁰ He will rescue even the man who is not innocent;
who will be rescued through the cleanness of your hands."

Job 22 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULB sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is a continuation of the advice of Job's friend, Eliphaz. His words in this chapter are much stronger than when he previously spoke.

Special concepts in this chapter

Repentance

Eliphaz tries to get Job to repent in this chapter. Eliphaz assumes that he is righteous, while assuming Job is not. (See: repent and righteous)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

Eliphaz uses many different rhetorical questions in this chapter in order to try to convince Job that he is wrong. These questions help to build Eliphaz's argument.

Links:

Job 22:1 Notes

Job 22:1

Eliphaz the Temanite

See how you translated this man's name in [Job 2:11]

Job 22:2

Can a man be useful to God? Can a wise man be useful to him?

Both questions mean basically the same thing. Eliphaz uses questions to emphasize that a person's actions and wisdom do not benefit God. Alternate translation: "A man cannot be useful to God. A wise man cannot be useful to him."

Job 22:3

Is it any pleasure to the Almighty if you are righteous? Is it gain to him if you make your ways blameless?

Both of these statements mean the same thing. Eliphaz uses questions to emphasize that Job's actions do not help God. Alternate translation: "The Almighty does not receive any pleasure if you are righteous. He does not gain anything if you make your ways blameless."

Job 22:4

Connecting Statement:

Eliphaz continues speaking to Job.

Is it because of your reverence for him that he rebukes you and takes you to judgment?

Eliphaz uses questions to scold Job and accuse him of committing terrible sins. Alternate translation: "It is certainly not because you have been devoted to him that God rebukes you and takes you to judgment!"

Job 22:5

Is not your wickedness great? Is there no end to your iniquities?

Eliphaz uses questions to scold Job and accuse him of committing terrible sins. Alternate translation: "As you know, he judges you because your wickedness is great and you keep on sinning!"

Job 22:6

Connecting Statement:

Eliphaz continues speaking to Job.

you have demanded guarantee of a loan

This refers to a lender taking something from the borrower to ensure that the borrower pays him back.

you have stripped away clothing from the naked

Eliphaz is accusing Job of taking clothes as security from poor people who borrowed from him.

Job 22:7

withheld bread

Here "bread" refers to food in general. Alternate translation: "withheld food"

Job 22:8

possessed the earth ... lived in it

Eliphaz is accusing Job of taking land from poor people and not allowing them to live on it. He is emphasizing this point by restating it twice.

possessed the earth

Eliphaz is exaggerating the amount of land that Job owned in order to portray Job as greedy. Alternate translation: "possessed a great amount of land"

Job 22:9

Connecting Statement:

Eliphaz continues speaking to Job.

You have sent widows away empty

"You made widows go away with nothing"

widows

women whose husbands have died

the arms of the fatherless have been crushed

Here "arms" refer to power. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "you even oppressed the fatherless" snares are all around you ... sudden fear troubles you

Job 22:10

These are metaphors for trouble and danger. Alternate translation: "you are always in danger ... you become afraid for no reason"

Job 22:11

There is darkness ... an abundance of waters covers you

Each of these metaphors means troubles and dangers are all around Job because of his sin.

an abundance of waters

"a flood"

Job 22:12

Connecting Statement:

Eliphaz continues speaking to Job.

Is not God in the heights of heaven?

Eliphaz uses this question to say that God sees Job's sin and will judge him. Alternate translation: "God is in the heights of heaven and sees everything that happens on earth."

Look at the height of the stars, how high they are!

Eliphaz implies that God is higher than the stars. This can be made explicit. Alternate translation: "Look at how high the stars are. God is even higher than the stars!"

Job 22:13

What does God know? Can he judge through the thick darkness?

Eliphaz uses these questions to imply that Job has said these things against God. Alternate translation: "God does not know what happens on earth. He sits in dark clouds and cannot see to judge us."

Job 22:14

he walks on the vault of heaven

Here "vault" refers to the barrier that ancient people believed separated the earth from heaven. Alternate translation: "he lives too far away in heaven to see what happens here"

Job 22:15

Connecting Statement:

Eliphaz continues speaking to Job.

Job 22:16

those who were snatched away

Dying is compared to God snatching them away. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "those who died" or "those whom God took away"

those whose foundations have washed away like a river

The death of wicked people is compared to buildings that had their foundations washed away by a flood.

Job 22:17

What can the Almighty do to us?

Eliphaz quotes a question wicked people use to mock God. Alternate translation: "The Almighty cannot do anything to us!"

Job 22:18

Connecting Statement:

Eliphaz continues speaking to Job.

Yet he filled

"Yet God filled"

the plans of wicked people are far from me

The idiom "far from me" means Eliphaz rejects them.

Alternate translation: "but I will not listen to their wicked plans"

Job 22:19

see their fate

"know what will happen to the wicked"

Job 22:20

They say

"The righteous say"

Surely those who rose up against us are cut off

Here "those who rose up" refers to the wicked people. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Surely God has destroyed the wicked people who harmed us"

Job 22:21

Connecting Statement:

Eliphaz continues speaking to Job.

Now

Eliphaz uses this word to introduce something important he is about to say.

Job 22:22

instruction from his mouth

Here "from his mouth" represents what God has spoken.

Alternate translation: "the instruction that God has spoken"

store up his words

God's words are compared to treasures that Job could keep in a storeroom. Alternate translation: "treasure his commands"

your heart

Here "heart" refers to Job's thoughts. Alternate translation: "your mind"

Job 22:23

Connecting Statement:

Eliphaz continues speaking to Job.

you will be built up

Eliphaz compares Job's restoration to the rebuilding of a house that has fallen. This can be stated in active form.

Alternate translation: "he will heal you and make you prosper again"

if you put unrighteousness far away from your tents

Unrighteousness is pictured as a person who is living in Job's tent who must be removed. Alternate translation: "if you and everyone in your house stops sinning"

Job 22:24

Lay your treasure down in the dust

To lay a treasure in the dust is to treat it as unimportant.

Alternate translation: "Consider your riches as unimportant as dust"

the gold of Ophir among the stones of the brooks

To put gold in the stream is to treat it as no more valuable than stones. Alternate translation: "the gold of Ophir is as worthless as stones in a stream"

Ophir

This is the name of a region famous for its gold.

Job 22:25

the Almighty will be your treasure, precious silver to you

This means God will be more valuable to Job than any treasure.

Job 22:26

Connecting Statement:

Eliphaz continues speaking to Job.

you will lift up your face to God

This means Job will no longer be ashamed but will trust in God. Alternate translation: "you will be able to approach God confidently"

Job 22:27

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 22:28

it will be confirmed for you

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"God will cause you to succeed"

light will shine on your paths

God's blessing is compared to a light on all of Job's paths.

Alternate translation: "it will be like a light shining on the road in front of you"

Job 22:29

Connecting Statement:

This concludes Eliphaz's speech to Job.

the one with humble eyes

Here the word "eyes" is a synecdoche for the whole person or a metonym for the way the person thinks and acts.

Alternate translation: "the humble person"

humble eyes

"lowered eyes," eyes that look at the ground and not at the person with whom their owner is conversing

Job 22:30

He will rescue even the man who is not innocent; who will be rescued through the cleanness of your hands

Job being innocent is spoken of as if his hands were physically clean. The phrase "who will be rescued" can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Yahweh will rescue even the person who is not innocent because you do what is right"

He will rescue even the man who is not innocent; who will be rescued through the cleanness of your hands

Some versions of the Bible read, "He rescues the innocent person; so he will rescue you when your hands are clean"

Chapter 23

¹Then Job answered and said,

² "Even today my complaint is rebellion; ¹
my hand ² is heavy because of my groaning.

³ Oh, that I knew where I might find him!
Oh, that I might come to his place!

⁴ I would lay my case in order before him and fill my mouth with arguments.

⁵ I would learn the words with which he would answer me and would understand what he would say to me.

⁶ Would he argue against me in the greatness of his power?

No, he would pay attention to me.

⁷ There the upright person might argue with him.
In this way I would be acquitted forever by my judge.

⁸ See, I go eastward, but he is not there, and westward, but I cannot find him.

⁹ To the north, where he is at work, but I cannot see him, and to the south, where he hides himself so that I cannot see him.

¹⁰ But he knows the way that I take;
when he has tested me, I will come out like gold.

¹¹ My foot has held fast to his steps;
I have kept to his way and turned not aside.

¹² I have not gone back from the commandment of his lips;
I have treasured the words of his mouth more than my portion of food.

¹³ But he is one of a kind, who can turn him back?
What he desires, he does.

¹⁴ For he carries out his decree against me;
there are many like them.

¹⁵ Therefore, I am terrified in his presence;
when I think about him, I am afraid of him.

¹⁶ For God has made my heart weak;
the Almighty has terrified me.

¹⁷ I have not been brought to an end by darkness, because of the thick darkness that covers the gloom of my face.

¹Some ancient translations and many English translations have: bitter .

²Some copies have: his hand .

Job 23 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULB sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is Job's response to Eliphaz.

Special concepts in this chapter

Court

This chapter uses an extended metaphor of a court case to describe Job's "case," which he seeks to bring to Yahweh, who is a judge. Cultures without a legal system will have difficulty translating this chapter.

Links:

Job 23:1 Notes

Job 23:1

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 23:2

Even today my complaint is rebellion

Here "Even today" emphasizes that his friends arguments have not changed Job's situation at all. Alternate translation: "In spite of what you have said, my complaint is rebellion"

my complaint is rebellion

That is, God continues to afflict Job, but Job will not stop claiming that he has done no wrong.

my hand ... heavy because of my groaning

Possible meanings are 1) "I can barely lift my hand because of my groaning" or 2) "God's hand continues to make me suffer in spite of my groaning" where "hand" refers to God's power to punish.

Job 23:3

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

Oh, that I knew where ... Oh, that I might come

These two lines mean the same thing and emphasize Job's desire to meet with God.

I might find him

"I might find God"

Job 23:4

lay my case ... fill my mouth

These two lines mean the same thing and emphasize Job's desire to explain his situation to God.

fill my mouth with arguments

Here "fill my mouth" refers to speaking. Alternate translation: "I would speak all of my arguments"

Job 23:5

I would learn the words ... would understand

These two lines mean basically the same thing and emphasize Job's desire to hear God's answer.

the words with which he would answer me

"the answer that he would give me"

Job 23:6

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

Would he

"Would God"

Job 23:7

There

This refers to the place where God is.

I would be acquitted forever by my judge

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "my judge would acquit me forever" or "God, who is my judge, would say that I am innocent once and for all"

Job 23:8

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking. He begins using a merism to say that he has looked everywhere.

Job 23:9

north ... south

This is the end of the merism that begins with the words "eastward ... westward" in verse 8. By mentioning these four directions, Job emphasizes that he has looked everywhere.

where he hides himself

Job speaks of God as if he is a person who hides.

Job 23:10

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

he knows the way that I take

Job's actions are spoken of as if he is walking on a path.

Alternate translation: "God knows what I do"

I will come out like gold

Job believes that the test will prove that he is as pure as refined gold. Alternate translation: "he will see that I am as pure as gold when anything not pure has been burned away"

Job 23:11

My foot has held fast to his steps

Here "My foot" refers to Job. Alternate translation: "I have followed the path he has shown me"

I have kept to his way

Job's obedience is spoken of as if he is walking in a path that God showed him. Alternate translation: "I have done what he told me to do"

turned not aside

This can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: "followed it exactly"

Job 23:12

I have not gone back from

This can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: "I have always obeyed" of his lips

This phrase refers to the message that God spoke. Alternate translation: "that he spoke"

the words of his mouth

Here God is represented by his "mouth." Alternate translation: "what he said"

Job 23:13

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

But he is one of a kind, who can turn him back?

Job uses this question to emphasize that there is no one like God and no one can force him to change. Alternate translation: "But there is no one like him, and nobody can make him change his mind." or "But he alone is God, and no one can influence him."

What he desires, he does

"He does whatever he wants to do"

Job 23:14

he carries out his decree against me

"he is doing to me what he said he would do"

there are many like them

"he has many similar plans for me"

Job 23:15

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

Job 23:16

For God has made my heart weak; the Almighty has terrified me

These two lines mean basically the same thing and emphasize that Job is very afraid of God.

made my heart weak

A person whose heart is weak is a person who is timid or fearful. Alternate translation: "made me afraid"

Job 23:17

I have not been brought to an end by darkness

Chapter 24

This can be stated in active form. Possible meanings are 1) the gloom of my face
"The thick darkness in front of me has not made me silent" Here Job refers to himself by his "face." Alternate or 2) "Darkness has not stopped me" or "God has stopped translation: "my sadness" me, not the darkness."

Chapter 24

¹ Why are times for judging wicked people not set by the Almighty?
Why do not those who are faithful to God see his days of judgment come?

² There are wicked people who remove boundary markers;
there are wicked people who take away flocks by force and put them in their own pastures.

³ They drive away the donkey of those without fathers;
they take the widow's ox as a pledge.

⁴ They force needy people out of their path;
poor people of the earth all hide themselves from them.

⁵ See, these poor people go out to their work like wild donkeys in the wilderness, looking carefully for food;
perhaps the Arabah will provide them food for their children.

⁶ They reap fodder in the field;
they glean the vineyard of the wicked.

⁷ They lie naked all night without clothing;
they have no covering in the cold.

⁸ They are wet with the showers of the mountains;
they lie next to large rocks because they have no shelter.

⁹ The fatherless is seized from the breast, and they take a pledge against the poor.

¹⁰ But the poor people go about naked without clothing;
although they go hungry,
they carry bundles of grain belonging to other people.

¹¹ The poor people make oil within the walls of those wicked men;
they tread the wicked men's winepresses,
but they themselves suffer thirst.

¹² From out of the city the dying groan, and the throat of the wounded cries out for help.
But God does not charge anyone with wrongdoing.

¹³ Some of these wicked people rebel against the light;
they know not its ways,
nor do they stay in its paths.

¹⁴ Before daylight the murderer rises and he kills the poor and the needy;
in the night he is like a thief.

¹⁵ Also, the eye of the adulterer waits for the twilight;

he says, 'No eye will see me.'
He disguises his face.

- ¹⁶ In the darkness they dig into houses;
but they shut themselves up in the daytime;
they do not care for the light.
- ¹⁷ For all of them, thick darkness is like the morning;
for they are friends with the terrors of thick darkness.
- ¹⁸ Swiftly they pass away, however, like foam on the surface of the waters;
their portion of the land is cursed;
no one goes to work in their vineyards.
- ¹⁹ As drought and heat melt away the snow into waters,
so Sheol takes away those who have sinned.
- ²⁰ The womb that bore him will forget him;
the worm will feed sweetly on him;
he will be remembered no more;
in this way, wickedness will be broken like a tree.
- ²¹ The wicked one devours the barren women who have not borne children;
he does no good to the widow.
- ²² Yet God drags away the mighty by his power;
he rises up and does not strengthen him in life.
- ²³ God gives him what he needs for security, and he is supported,
but his eyes are on his ways.
- ²⁴ These people are exalted; still, in only a little while, they will be gone;
indeed, they will be brought low; they will be gathered up like all the others;
they will be cut off like the tops of ears of grain.
- ²⁵ If it is not so, who can prove me to be a liar;
who can make my speech worth nothing?"

Job 24 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULB sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is Job's response to Eliphaz. It is a continuation of the previous chapter.

Special concepts in this chapter

Court

This chapter uses an extended metaphor of a court case to describe Job's "case," which he seeks to bring to Yahweh, who is a judge. Cultures without a legal system will have difficulty translating this chapter.

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

Job uses many different rhetorical questions in this chapter in order to try to convince Eliphaz that he is wrong. These questions help to build Job's argument.

Links:

Job 24:1 Notes

Job 24:1

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

Why are times for judging wicked people not set by the Almighty?

Job uses this question to express his frustration that God has not judged evil. This can be stated in active form.

Alternate translation: "I do not understand why God does not set a time when he will judge wicked people." or "The Almighty should set a time when he will judge wicked people."

Why do not those who are faithful to God see his days of judgment come?

Job uses this question to express his frustration that the righteous have not seen God judge evil. Alternate translation: "It seems that those who obey him never get to see him judge the wicked." or "God should show the day he will judge the wicked to those who know him."

Job 24:2

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

boundary markers

These are stones or other objects to mark the boundary between the lands owned by different people.

pastures

land with grass for animals to eat

Job 24:3

They drive away

"They steal"

those without fathers

"orphans" or "children whose parents have died"

they take the widow's ox as a pledge

"they take widows' oxen to guarantee that the widows will pay back the money that they loaned to those widows"

widow

a woman whose husband has died

as a pledge

A lender would take something from a borrower to ensure that the borrower pays him back.

Job 24:4

out of their path

"out of their way" or "off the road"

poor people of the earth all hide themselves

The word "all" is an exaggeration to show that many poor people are afraid of these wicked people.

Job 24:5

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

these poor people go out to their work like wild donkeys in the wilderness, looking carefully for food

These poor people are spoken of as if they are wild donkeys who do not know where they will find food. Alternate translation: "these poor people go out to search for food as if they were wild donkeys in the wilderness"

wild donkeys

"donkeys that no one owns or cares for"

Job 24:6

General Information:

This verse is a synecdoche that describes the misery and hard work of the poor. They harvest food for rich people's animals to eat, and they get the last grapes of crops that the wicked enjoy in luxury.

They reap fodder in the field

The words in this line are not clear. Other possible meanings are that they reap at night or that they reap in fields not their own.

reap ... glean

Reaping is the work of hired hands, while gleaning is the work of the landless poor. Taken together, this is a description of poor people who must work in fields belonging to other people, including the wicked.

fodder

food for animals

Job 24:7

They lie naked ... they have no covering

These two lines describe the same thing and are used together to emphasize that these people do not have enough clothing to keep warm.

Job 24:8

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

They are wet with the showers of the mountains

"They become wet when it rains in the mountains"

Job 24:9

The fatherless is seized from the breast, and they take a pledge against the poor

You may need to make explicit that the word "they" refers to the understood actors who seize the fatherless. "They seize the fatherless from the breast and take a pledge against the poor" or "The fatherless are seized from the breast of the poor as a pledge"

The fatherless is seized from the breast

Here "breast" is a synecdoche for the mother. This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "The wicked seize the fatherless from their mothers"

The fatherless is

"Fatherless children are" or "The orphan is" or "Orphans are"

Job 24:10

go about

"walk around"

naked without clothing

The words "without clothing" mean the same thing as "naked." Alternate translation: "completely naked" or "naked because they have no clothing"

they carry bundles of grain belonging to other people

This means their work will provide food for others but not for themselves.

Job 24:11

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

The poor people make oil

they squeezed olives in order to extract olive oil from them within the walls of those wicked men

Here "walls" refers to the whole house. Alternate translation: "in the houses of those evil men"

they tread the wicked men's winepresses

It may be helpful to state that they do this to produce juice to make wine. Alternate translation: "they tread on grapes to make juice for wine"

they themselves suffer thirst

"they suffer from thirst" or "they are thirsty"

Job 24:12

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 24:13

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

rebel against the light

Possible meanings of "light" are 1) visible light or 2) spiritual light, which refers to God or living righteously.

Alternate translation: "hate the daylight" or "do not want to do things openly" or "rebel against God"

they know not its ways, nor do they stay in its paths

These two lines describe the same thing, and are used together to emphasize that they do not want to follow the ways of the light. Alternate translation: "they do not know how to live a moral life; they stay far away from living a righteous life"

Job 24:14

the poor and the needy

The words "poor" and "needy" refer to the same group of people and emphasize that these are people who are unable to help themselves.

he is like a thief

The murderer kills in secret just like a thief steals without anyone seeing what he does. Alternate translation: "he kills people secretly, just like a thief steals secretly"

Job 24:15

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

the eye of the adulterer

Here "eye" refers to the whole person. Alternate translation: "the adulterer" for the twilight

"for the sunset"

No eye will see me

Here "eye" refers to the whole person. Alternate translation: "No one will see me"

Job 24:16

they dig into houses

They dig into the houses in order to steal what is in them. This can be stated explicitly. Alternate translation: "wicked people dig into houses to steal what is in them"

they shut themselves up

"they hide inside"

Job 24:17

For all of them, thick darkness is like the morning

The thick darkness is as comfortable for the wicked as light of the morning is for normal people.

the terrors of thick darkness

"the scary things that happen at night"

Job 24:18

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

like foam on the surface of the waters

Foam lasts only a short time. This emphasizes how quickly God will cause the wicked to disappear.

their portion of the land is cursed

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"God curses the part of the land that they own"

Job 24:19

As drought and heat melt away ... those who have sinned

Job says that sinners will disappear in Sheol in the same way as snow melts and disappears when it becomes warm. drought and heat

These two words describe essentially the same weather and are used together to describe it fully.

Job 24:20

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

The womb

This refers to the mother. Alternate translation: "The mother"

the worm will feed sweetly on him

This means that he will die and worms will eat his body.

Alternate translation: "the worm will enjoy eating his dead body" or "he will die and then his body will be eaten by worms"

he will be remembered no more

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "no one will remember him anymore" wickedness will be broken like a tree

God's destruction of the wicked man is describes as if he were cutting down a tree. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "God will destroy the wicked as if he were a tree"

Job 24:21

The wicked one devours

This metaphor emphasizes how ruthless the wicked man is. Alternate translation: "Just like a wild animal kills its prey, so the wicked person harms"

the barren women who have not borne children

The people of that day considered that a woman who was barren was cursed by God. Therefore, this represents the most unfortunate women.

widow

a woman whose husband has died

Job 24:22

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking.

by his power

"by using his power" or "because he is powerful"

he rises up and does not strengthen him in life

Here "does not strengthen him in life" means God does not keep the mmighty alive. Alternate translation: "God rises up and does not give the mighty the strength to live" or "God rises up and causes them to die"

the mighty

"mighty people" or, by implication, "the wicked" or "wicked people"

Job 24:23

gives him what he needs ... he is supported

"gives to the mighty what the mighty needs ... he is supported" or "gives to mighty people what they need ... they are supported"

he is supported

"he is safe" or "he has what he needs"

but his eyes are on his ways

Here "eyes" are a synecdoche for God, whose eyes they are.

Alternate translation: "but God is always watching what they do"

Job 24:24

Connecting Statement:

This concludes Job's speech.

they will be brought low

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"God will bring them low" or "God will destroy them"

they will be gathered up like all the others

Some translations are based on a different early text, which says "they wither and fade like weeds."

they will be gathered up like all the others

This can be stated in active form. What "the others" refers to can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "God will gather them up as he gathered up the other wicked people"

they will be cut off like the tops of ears of grain

These wicked people will be cut off in the same way heads of grain are cut off during harvest. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "God will cut them off like a farmer cuts off the top of a stalk of grain"

Job 24:25

If it is not so, who can prove me to be a liar; who can make my speech worth nothing?

Job uses this question to express the certainty of his argument. The implicit answer is: "no one." Alternate translation: "This is true, and no one can prove that I am a liar; no one can prove me wrong."

make my speech worth nothing

"prove what I say is wrong"

Chapter 25

¹Then Bildad the Shuhite answered and said,

² "Dominion and fear are with him;

he makes order in his high places of heaven.

³ Is there any end to the number of his armies?

Upon whom does his light not shine?

⁴ How then can man be righteous with God?

How can he who is born of a woman be clean, acceptable to him?

⁵ See, even the moon has no brightness to him;

the stars are not pure in his sight.

⁶ How much less man, who is a worm—

a son of man, who is a worm!"

Job 25 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULB sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is a continuation of the advice of Job's friend, Bildad. His words in this chapter are much stronger than when he previously spoke.

Special concepts in this chapter

God's holiness and man's sin

Bildad describes the holiness of Yahweh and the universal nature of man's sinfulness. While his points are accurate, they are not convincing for Job because he has been righteous. (See: holy and sin and righteous)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

Bildad uses many different rhetorical questions in this chapter in order to try to convince Job that he is wrong. These questions help to build Bildad's argument.

Links:

Job 25:1 Notes

Job 25:1

Bildad the Shuhite

See how you translated this man's name in Job 2:11.

Job 25:2

Dominion and fear are with him

Here "him" refers to God. The abstract nouns "dominion" and "fear" can be stated as verbs. Alternate translation:

"God rules over all and people should fear only him"

he makes order in his high places of heaven

"he makes peace in the high heaven"

Job 25:3

Is there any end to the number of his armies?

Bildad uses this question to emphasize how great God is.
The implicit answer is "no." This refers to the armies of God's angels. Alternate translation: "There is no end to the number of angels in his army." or "His armies are so big that no one can count them."

Upon whom does his light not shine?

Bildad uses this question to emphasize that God gives light to every person. Alternate translation: "There is no one upon whom his light does not shine." or "God makes his light shine over everyone."

Job 25:4

Connecting Statement:

Bildad continues speaking.

How then can man ... God? How can he who is born ... him?

These two questions are used together to emphasize that it is impossible for a man to be good enough before God.

How then can man be righteous with God?

The implicit reaction is that he cannot. Alternate translation: "A man can never be righteous before God."

How can he who is born ... acceptable to him?

The implicit reaction is that he cannot. Alternate translation: "He who is born of a woman cannot be clean or acceptable to him."

he who is born of a woman

This idiom includes everyone. Alternate translation: "any person"

Job 25:5

See

The word "See" here adds emphasis to what follows.

Alternate translation: "Indeed"

the moon has no brightness to him

The abstract noun "brightness" can be stated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "the moon is not bright enough for God"

the stars are not pure in his sight

Here "pure" means "perfect." Alternate translation: "he does not think even the stars are perfect"

Job 25:6

How much less man ... a son of man, who is a worm

These two lines say the same thing and are used together to emphasize that man is not perfect.

who is a worm

Bildad states that human beings are as worthless as worms.

Alternate translation: "who is as worthless as a worm"

a son of man

This is another way of referring to a person. Alternate translation: "a person"

Chapter 26

¹Then Job answered and said,

² "How you have helped one who has no power!
How you have saved the arm that has no strength!

³ How you have advised one who has no wisdom and announced to him sound wisdom!

⁴ With whose help have you spoken these words?
Whose spirit was it that came out from you?

⁵ The dead are made to tremble, those who are beneath the waters
and all who dwell in them.

⁶ Sheol is naked before God; destruction itself has no covering against him.

⁷ He stretches out the northern skies over the empty space, and he hangs the earth over nothing.

⁸ He binds up the waters in his thick clouds,
but the clouds are not torn under them.

⁹ He covers the surface of the moon and spreads his clouds on it.

- ¹⁰ He has engraved a circular boundary on the surface of the waters as the line between light and darkness.
- ¹¹ The pillars of heaven tremble and are astonished at his rebuke.
- ¹² He calmed the sea with his power;
by his understanding he shattered Rahab.
- ¹³ By his breath he made the skies clear;
his hand pierced the fleeing serpent.
- ¹⁴ See, these are but the fringes of his ways;
how small a whisper do we hear of him!
Who can understand the thunder of his power?"

Job 26 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULB sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is Job's response to Bildad.

This chapter begins a section continuing through chapter 31.

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's power

While Bildad describes Yahweh's power as being so much greater than Job's, Job understands the true extent of Yahweh's power. It is not just over Job's life, but over all of creation.

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

Sarcasm

Job uses sarcasm in this chapter. This is the use of irony to insult Bildad.

Links:

Job 26:1 Notes

Job 26:1

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 26:2

How you have helped one ... the arm that has no strength

In these statements, Job is accusing Bildad. The word "one" refers to Job. And, the word "arm" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "I am powerless and have no strength, but you act like you have helped me; but really, you have not helped me at all"

Job 26:3

How you have advised one who has no wisdom and announced to him sound wisdom

Job is saying that Bildad has not provided him with good advice and knowledge. Alternate translation: "You act like I have no wisdom and that you have advised me, that you have given me good advice" announced to him sound wisdom

"given him good advice"

Job 26:4

With whose help have you spoken these words? Whose spirit was it ... you?

In these questions Job continues to mock Bildad. They are both rhetorical questions and have basically the same meaning. They are used together to strengthen each other. Alternate translation: "You must have had help speaking these words. Perhaps some spirit helped you speak them!"

Job 26:5

The dead

This refers to dead people. Alternate translation: "Those who are dead" or "The spirits of the dead"

tremble

They tremble because they are afraid of God. This can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "tremble in fear" or "tremble in fear of God"

those who are beneath the waters

This refers to the dead people who tremble.

all who dwell in them

This refers to the dead people who dwell in the waters.

Job 26:6

Sheol is naked before God; destruction itself has no covering

Sheol is spoken of as if it were a person. These two phrases have the same meaning. To be "naked" or have "no covering" is to be completely exposed and not able to hide anything. Alternate translation: "It is like sheol is naked before God, for nothing in sheol, the place of destruction, is hidden from God"

destruction

This is another name for sheol. Alternate translation: "the place of destruction"

Job 26:7

He stretches out the northern skies over the empty space

The northern skies represent heaven, the place where God dwells with the beings he created to dwell there.

Job 26:8

He binds up the waters in his thick clouds

The clouds are compared to a large blanket in which God wraps the rainwater. Alternate translation: "He wraps up the water in his thick clouds"

but the clouds are not torn under them

This can be stated actively. The word "them" refers to the waters. Alternate translation: "but the weight of the waters does not tear the clouds"

Job 26:9

and spreads his clouds on it

This phrase tells how he covers the surface of the moon. Alternate translation: "by spreading his clouds in front of it"

Job 26:10

He has engraved a circular boundary on the surface of the waters

This speaks of the horizon, where the earth appears to meet the sky, as if God has marked a boundary on the ocean.

Job 26:11

The pillars of heaven tremble and are astonished at his rebuke

People thought of heaven or the sky as resting on pillars.

Job speaks as though the pillars are humans that shake in fear when God is angry. Alternate translation: "The pillars that hold up heaven shake in fear when God rebukes them" or "The pillars that hold up the sky shake like people who are afraid when God rebukes them"

Job 26:12

he shattered Rahab

"he destroyed Rahab"

Rahab

This is the name of a frightening monster that lived in the sea. See how you translated this in [Job 9:13]

Job 26:13

By his breath he made the skies clear

The noun "breath" can be translated with the verb "breathe" or "blow." This image represents God causing the wind to blow away the clouds. Alternate translation: "God blew away the clouds so that the skies were clear"

his hand pierced the fleeing serpent

It is implied that God is holding a sword, and here "his hand" represents that sword. Also, "pierced" represents killing. Alternate translation: "With his sword he pierced the fleeing serpent"

the fleeing serpent

"the serpent as it was trying to escape from him." This refers to Rahab, the monster in the sea. See Job 26:12.

Job 26:14

See, these are but the fringes of his ways

Here "fringes" represents a small part that we can see of something that is much bigger. Alternate translation: "See, these things that God has done show only a small part of his great power"

how small a whisper do we hear of him!

This is an exclamation that expresses Job's amazement of all the great things that God does that we do not even know about. Seeing what God does is spoken of as hearing God's voice. Alternate translation: "it is as if we heard only his quiet whisper!"

Who can understand the thunder of his power?

The "thunder of his power" represents God's greatness. Job uses this question to emphasize that God's power is so great that no one can understand it. Alternate translation: "The thunder displays the greatness of his power which no one can understand!"

Chapter 27

¹Job continued his discourse, and he said,

² "As surely as God lives, who has taken away my justice,
the Almighty, who made my life bitter,

³ while my life is yet in me,
and the breath from God is in my nostrils,
this is what I will do.

⁴ My lips will not speak wickedness, neither will my tongue speak deceit;

⁵ I will never admit that you are right;
until I die I will never deny my integrity.

⁶ I hold fast to my righteousness and will not let it go;
my conscience will not accuse me so long as I live.

⁷ Let my enemy be like a wicked man;
let him who rises up against me be like an unrighteous man.

- ⁸ For what is the hope of a godless man when God cuts him off, when God takes away his life?
- ⁹ Will God hear his cry
when trouble comes upon him?
- ¹⁰ Will he delight himself in the Almighty and call upon God at all times?
- ¹¹ I will teach you concerning the hand of God;
I will not conceal the thoughts of the Almighty.
- ¹² See, all of you have seen this yourselves;
why then have you become completely useless?
- ¹³ This is the portion of a wicked man with God,
the inheritance of the oppressor that he receives from the Almighty:
- ¹⁴ If his children multiply, it is for the sword;
his offspring will never have enough food.
- ¹⁵ Those who survive him will be buried by plague, and their widows will make no lament for them.
- ¹⁶ Though the wicked man heaps up silver like the dust, and heaps up clothing like clay,
- ¹⁷ he may heap up clothing, but righteous people will put it on,
and innocent people will divide up the silver among themselves.
- ¹⁸ He builds his house like a spider,
like a hut that a guard makes.
- ¹⁹ He lies down in bed rich, but he will not keep doing so;
he opens his eyes, and everything is gone.
- ²⁰ Terrors overtake him like waters;
a storm takes him away in the night.
- ²¹ The east wind carries him away, and he leaves;
it sweeps him out of his place.
- ²² It throws itself at him and does not stop;
he tries to flee out of its hand.
- ²³ It claps its hands at him and hisses him from his place.

Job 27 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULB sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is a continuation of Job's response to Bildad.

Special concepts in this chapter

Job's righteousness

Despite being upset about his circumstances, Job does not curse God. Instead, he recognizes Yahweh's authority. (See: curse)

Links:

Job 27:1 Notes

Job 27:1

continued his discourse

Or "continued speaking." If your language has a word for a series of proverbs or short teachings, you might want to use it for "discourse" here.

Job 27:2

As surely as God lives

This phrase shows that Job is taking an oath. Job compares the certainty that God is alive to the certainty of what he is saying. This is a way of making a solemn promise. Alternate translation: "I swear by God" has taken away my justice

Justice is spoken of as if it were an object that could be taken away or given. Taking it away represents refusing to treat Job with justice. Alternate translation: "has refused to treat me justly"

made my life bitter

Job's "life" being bitter represents Job feeling resentful toward God. Alternate translation: "has caused me to become resentful" or "has made me feel angry because of the unfair way he has treated me"

Job 27:3

while my life is yet in me

This refers to the duration of the rest of his life. Alternate translation: "during the whole time that my life is yet in me" or "as long as my life is yet in me"

while my life is yet in me

The abstract noun "life" can be expressed with the adjective "alive" or the verb "live." Alternate translation: "as long as I am still alive" or "while I still live"

the breath from God is in my nostrils

"Breath ... in my nostrils" represents being able to breathe.

"Breath from God" represents God making him able to breathe. Alternate translation: "God enables me to breathe"

nostrils

"nose"

Job 27:4

My lips will not speak wickedness, neither will my tongue speak deceit

These two phrases have basically the same meaning and are used together to emphasize that he will not speak in such ways. The phrases "My lips" and "my tongue" represent Job himself. Alternate translation: "I will not speak wickedness or deceit"

speak wickedness ... speak deceit

The abstract nouns "wickedness" and "deceit" can be expressed with "wickedly" and "deceitfully." Alternate translation: "speak wickedly ... speak deceitfully"

Job 27:5

I will never admit that you are right

"I will never agree with you and say that you three are right"

that you are right

The word "you" here is plural. It refers to Job's friends.

I will never deny my integrity

"I will never say that I am not innocent" or "I will always say that I am innocent"

Job 27:6

I hold fast to my righteousness

Here "hold fast" is a metaphor that represents being determined to continue to say something. The abstract noun "righteousness" can be expressed with "righteous." Alternate translation: "I am determined to continue saying that I am righteous" will not let it go

Here "will not let it go" is a metaphor that represents not stopping saying something. Alternate translation: "will not stop saying that I am righteous" or "will not stop saying so" my conscience will not accuse me so long as I live

Here the phrase "my conscience" represents Job. Alternate translation: "even in my thoughts, I will not accuse myself"

Job 27:7

Let my enemy be ... let him who rises up against me be

The two clauses that start with these words share the same meaning. They are used together to emphasize Job's strong desire that this should happen.

Let my enemy be like a wicked man

How he wants his enemy to be like a wicked person can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "Let my enemy be punished like a wicked man" or "Let God punish my enemy as he punishes wicked people"

let him who rises up against me be like an unrighteous man

How he wants this person to be like an unrighteous man can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "let him who rises up against me be punished like an unrighteous man"

him who rises up against me

Here "rises up against me" is a metaphor meaning "opposes me." The whole phrase refers to Job's adversary. Alternate translation: "him who opposes me" or "my adversary"

Job 27:8

For what is the hope of a godless man when ... when God takes away his life?

Job uses this question to say that such a man has no hope.

This question can be translated as a simple statement.

Alternate translation: "There is no hope for the godless when God ... takes away his soul."

when God cuts him off, when God takes away his life

These two phrases have the same meaning. Alternate translation: "when God cuts him off and takes away his life" or "when God causes him to die"

cuts him off

This is a metaphor meaning "kills him" or "causes him to die"

takes away his life

This is a metaphor meaning "kills him" or "makes him stop living"

Job 27:9

Will God hear his cry when trouble comes upon him?

Job uses this question to say that God will not help that person. This question can be translated as a simple statement. Alternate translation: "God will not hear his cry when trouble comes upon him." or "When trouble comes upon him and he cries out for help, God will not hear him."

Will God hear his cry

Here "hear his cry" represents responding to the godless man's cry and helping him. Alternate translation: "Will God respond to his cry"

Job 27:10

Will he delight himself in the Almighty and call upon God at all times?

Job uses this question to say that the godless man will not do these things. This question can be translated as a simple statement. Alternate translation: "He will not delight himself in the Almighty and call upon God at all times." or "He will not be happy about what the Almighty does and he will not pray to God often."

Job 27:11

I will teach you

Each occurrence of "you" in these verses is plural and refers to Job's three friends.

the hand of God

God's "hand" represents his power. Alternate translation: "the power of God"

I will not conceal the thoughts of the Almighty

The abstract noun "thoughts" can be expressed with the verb "think." Alternate translation: I will not hide from you what the Almighty thinks"

Job 27:12

why then have you become completely useless?

Job uses this question to rebuke his friends for saying such foolish things. To become useless here is hyperbole for speaking useless words. This question can be translated as a simple statement. Alternate translation: "you should not have spoken so foolishly!"

Job 27:13

This is the portion of a wicked man with God

"This is what God has planned for the wicked man"

the inheritance of the oppressor that he receives from the Almighty

Here "the inheritance of the oppressor" is a metaphor representing what will happen to the oppressor. What God will do to him is spoken of as if it were an inheritance that God will give him. Alternate translation: "what the Almighty will do to the oppressor"

Job 27:14

it is for the sword

Here "the sword" represents dying in battle. Alternate translation: "they will die in battle"

Job 27:15

Those who survive him

This refers to the wicked man's children. This can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "Those who continue to live after their wicked father dies"

will be buried by plague

Here "be buried" represents dying. Alternate translation: "will die by plague" their widows ... them

The words "their" and "them" refer to "Those who survive him," that is, the children of the wicked man.

Job 27:16

heaps up silver like the dust

Here "heaps up" is a metonym meaning "gathers much." Job speaks as if the silver were as easy to get as dust. Alternate translation: "gathers large piles of silver" or "gathers silver as easily as he could gather dust"

heaps up clothing like clay

Here "heaps up" is a metonym meaning "gathers much." Job speaks as if the clothing were as easy to get as clay. Alternate translation: "gathers large piles of clothing" or "gathers clothing as easily as he could gather clay"

Job 27:17

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 27:18

He builds his house like a spider

After "spider," the phrase "builds its web" is understood information. It can be made clear. Alternate translation: "He builds his house as a spider builds its web"

He builds his house like a spider

A spider web is fragile and easily destroyed. Alternate translation: "He builds his house as fragile as a spider builds its web" or "He builds his house as fragile as a spider's web"

like a hut

A hut is a temporary house that is also not very strong.

Alternate translation: "like a temporary hut"

Job 27:19

He lies down in bed rich

"He is wealthy when he lies down in bed." This refers to his lying down in bed at night and sleeping.

but he will not keep doing so

"but he will not keep lying down in bed rich" or "but he will not continue to be wealthy when he lies down in bed"

he opens his eyes

Opening his eyes represents waking up in the morning.

Alternate translation: "he wakes up"

everything is gone

"all of his riches are gone" or "everything has vanished"

Job 27:20

Terrors overtake him

Here "overtake him" represents suddenly happening to him. Possible meanings are that "terrors" is a metonym for 1) things that cause people to be afraid. Alternate translation: "Terrifying things suddenly happen to him" or 2) fear. Alternate translation: "He suddenly becomes terrified"

like waters

The word "waters" refers to a flood. Floods can happen very suddenly when people do not expect them, and they are dangerous and frightening. Alternate translation: "like a flood" or "like waters that rise up suddenly"

Chapter 28

a storm takes him away

"a violent wind blows him away"

Job 27:21

it sweeps him out of his place

Job speaks of the wind blowing the wicked man out of his house as if the wind were a person sweeping dust out of a house with a broom. Alternate translation: "the wind sweeps him out of his place like a woman who sweeps dirt out of a house" or "the wind easily blows him out of his place"

his place

"his home"

Job 27:22

General Information:

In verses 22-23 Job speaks of the wind as if it were a person attacking the wicked person.

It throws itself at him

Here the phrase "throws itself at him" represents the wind blowing strong against him like an attacker. Alternate translation: "It blows strong against him like someone attacking him"

he tries to flee out of its hand

Here "hand" represents the power or control that the wind has over the wicked man. Alternate translation: "he tries to flee out of its control"

Job 27:23

It claps its hands at him

Clapping the hands is a way of mocking someone. Here it represents the wind making loud noises. Alternate translation: "It makes loud noises like someone clapping his hands to mock him"

hisses him from his place

The wind makes a noise as it blows him out of his place, and the noise is like the hissing sound that people make to mock someone. Alternate translation: "it makes a hissing noise as it causes him to leave his home" or "it blows him out of his place and makes a hissing noise like someone who hisses at him to mock him"

Chapter 28

¹ Surely there is a mine for silver,
a place where they refine gold.

² Iron is taken out of the earth;
copper is smelted out of the stone.

³ A man sets an end to darkness and searches out to the farthest limit the stones in the blackest darkness.

⁴ He breaks open a shaft away from where people live,
places that are forgotten by anyone's foot.
He hangs far away from people; he swings to and fro.

⁵ As for the earth, out of which comes bread,
it is turned up below as if by fire.

⁶ Its stones are the place where sapphires are found,
and its dust contains gold.

⁷ No bird of prey knows the path to it, nor has the falcon's eye seen it.

⁸ The proud animals have not walked such a path, nor has the fierce lion passed there.

⁹ A man lays his hand on the flinty rock;
he overturns mountains by their roots.

¹⁰ He cuts out channels among the rocks;
his eye sees every valuable thing there.

¹¹ He ties up the streams so they do not run;
what is hidden there he brings out to the light.

- ¹² Where will wisdom be found?
Where is the place of understanding?
- ¹³ Man does not know its price;
neither is it found in the land of the living.
- ¹⁴ The deep waters under the earth say, 'It is not in me';
the sea says, 'It is not with me.'
- ¹⁵ It cannot be gotten for gold;
neither can silver be weighed as its price.
- ¹⁶ It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with precious onyx or sapphire.
- ¹⁷ Gold and crystal cannot equal it in worth;
neither can it be exchanged for jewels of fine gold.
- ¹⁸ No mention is worth making of coral or jasper;
indeed, the price of wisdom is more than rubies.
- ¹⁹ The topaz of Cush does not equal it;
neither can it be valued in terms of pure gold.
- ²⁰ From where, then, comes wisdom?
Where is the place of understanding?
- ²¹ Wisdom is hidden from the eyes of all living things and is kept hidden from the birds of the heavens.
- ²² Destruction and Death say,
'We have heard just a rumor about it with our ears.'
- ²³ God understands the way to it;
he knows its place.
- ²⁴ For he looks to the very ends of the earth and sees under all the heavens.
- ²⁵ He made the force of the wind and parceled out the waters by measure.
- ²⁶ He made a decree for the rain and a path for the thunder.
- ²⁷ Then he saw wisdom and announced it;
he established it, indeed, and he examined it.
- ²⁸ To people he said,
'See, the fear of the Lord—that is wisdom;
to depart from evil is understanding.'"

Job 28 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULB sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is a continuation of Job's response to Bildad.

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's wisdom

Despite being upset about his circumstances, Job does not curse God. Instead, he recognizes Yahweh's wisdom and authority. This chapter especially focuses on Yahweh's wisdom as he controls the circumstances of Job's life. Men cannot understand because they do not have Yahweh's wisdom. (See: curse and wise)

Links:

Job 28:1 Notes

Job 28:1

mine

This is a place where people dig rocks out of the earth.

These rocks have metal in them.

refine

This is the process of heating a metal to remove all of the impurities that are in it.

Job 28:2

Iron is taken out of the earth

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"People take iron out of the earth"

copper is smelted out of the stone

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"people smelt copper out of the stone" or "people heat stone to melt copper out of it"

copper

an important red-brown colored metal smelted

This is a process of heating rocks to melt the metal in them in order to get the metal out of the rocks.

Job 28:3

A man sets an end to darkness

Here "sets an end to darkness" represents shining a light in the darkness. People used a lantern or a torch for light.

Alternate translation: "A man carries light into dark places" to the farthest limit

"to the farthest parts of the mine" shaft

Job 28:4

a deep narrow hole dug into the ground or rock. People go down into the hole to mine it.

places that are forgotten by anyone's foot

The foot is spoken of as if it is a person who can remember. Alternate translation: "places where people no longer walk" or "where no one ever walks"

He hangs far away from people

How and where he hangs can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "Far away from people, he hangs from a rope in the shaft"

Job 28:5

the earth, out of which comes bread

Here "bread" represents food in general. Food coming out of the ground is a metaphor for food growing out of the ground. Alternate translation: "the earth, where food grows"

it is turned up below as if by fire

Possible meanings are that 1) people made fires under the ground to break apart the rock. Alternate translation: "it is broken up below by the fires that the miners make" or 2)

"turned" is a metaphor for changed. Alternate translation:

"it is broken up below so much that it appears that it was destroyed by fire"

it is turned

The word "it" refers to the earth.

Job 28:6

Its stones ... its dust

The word "its" refers to the earth.

sapphires

a rare and valuable blue gemstone

Job 28:7

No bird of prey knows the path to it ... nor has the falcon's eye seen it

These clauses express a similar meaning. Alternate translation: "No bird of prey or falcon knows or has ever seen the path that goes to the mine" bird of prey

a bird that eats other animals

falcon

This may also be translated "hawk." Both are birds that hunt and eat other animals. You may translate this with a similar bird from your culture.

Job 28:8

The proud animals have not walked such a path ... nor has the fierce lion passed there

These clauses also express similar meaning.

The proud animals

This refers to very strong, wild animals.

Job 28:9

lays his hand on the flinty rock

This represents breaking up the rock. Alternate translation: "digs into the flinty rock" flinty rock

"hard rock"

he overturns mountains by their roots

Digging up the mountains and the ground underneath them is a metaphor from digging out weeds or trees, an exaggeration that represents digging minerals out of the ground. Alternate translation: "he turns the mountains upside down by pulling out their roots"

Job 28:10

his eye sees

Here "his eye" represents him. Alternate translation: "he sees"

Job 28:11

He ties up the streams so they do not run

Here "ties up the streams" means damming or blocking the streams. Alternate translation: "He blocks the streams so they do not flow"

what is hidden there

This refers to things that people normally do not see because they are in the ground or underwater.

Job 28:12

General Information:

In 28:12-28, wisdom and understanding are spoken of as if they were precious objects that are in some place and people want to find them. Finding wisdom and understanding represents becoming wise and learning to understand things well.

Where will wisdom be found? Where is the place of understanding?

These questions mean the same thing and are used to show that it is very difficult to find wisdom and understanding.

Alternate translation: "It is very difficult to find wisdom and understanding."

Where will wisdom be found? Where is the place of understanding?

Becoming wise and understanding is spoken of as finding wisdom and understanding. Alternate translation: "How do people become wise? How do people learn to understand things well?"

Job 28:13

Man does not know its price

Possible meanings are 1) wisdom is spoken of as if it were something that people can buy. Alternate translation:

"People do not know what it is worth" or 2) the word translated as "price" means "place." Alternate translation: "People do not know where it is"

neither is it found in the land of the living

"and it is not found in the land of the living." The "land of the living" refers to this world where people live. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "and no one can find wisdom in this world"

Job 28:14

The deep waters ... say, 'It is not in me'; the sea says, 'It is not with me.'

The deep waters and the sea are presented as if they are people that can speak. Alternate translation: "Wisdom is not in the deep waters under the earth, nor is it in the sea"

Job 28:15

It cannot be gotten for gold

This can be stated in active form. This implies that wisdom is worth much more than gold. Alternate translation:

"People cannot pay for wisdom with gold"

neither can silver be weighed as its price

This implies that wisdom is worth much more than silver.

It can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "and people cannot weigh out enough silver to pay for wisdom"

Job 28:16

It cannot be valued with ... sapphire

This implies that wisdom is much more valuable than the gold of Ophir, precious onyx and sapphire.

Ophir

This is the name of a land where there was fine gold.

onyx

a valuable black gemstone sapphire

a valuable blue gemstone

Job 28:17

Gold and crystal cannot equal it in worth

This implies that wisdom is much more valuable than gold and crystal.

crystal

a valuable gemstone that is clear or lightly colored

neither can it be exchanged for jewels of fine gold

"and it cannot be exchanged for jewels of fine gold." This implies that wisdom is much more valuable than jewels of fine gold.

exchanged

"traded"

Job 28:18

No mention is worth making of coral or jasper

"It is not worth making mention of coral and jasper." This implies that wisdom is worth so much more than coral and jasper that there is no need for Job to say anything about them. Alternate translation: "I will not bother to mention coral or jasper" or "Coral and jasper are worthless compared to wisdom"

coral

This is a beautiful, hard substance that grows on ocean reefs.

jasper ... rubies

These are valuable gemstones.

Job 28:19

The topaz of Cush does not equal it

This implies that wisdom is much more valuable than the finest topaz.

topaz

This is a valuable gemstone.

neither can it be valued in terms of pure gold

"and wisdom cannot be valued in terms of pure gold." This implies that wisdom is much more valuable than pure gold.

Job 28:20

From where, then, comes wisdom? Where is the place of understanding?

Job uses these questions to introduce how people get wisdom and understanding. Alternate translation: "I will tell you where wisdom comes from and where understanding is." or "I will tell you how to become wise and how to learn to understand things."

From where, then, comes wisdom

Wisdom is spoken of as if it were in a place and comes to people. Its coming represents people becoming wise.

Where is the place of understanding

Understanding is spoken of as if it were in a place.

Job 28:21

Wisdom is hidden from the eyes of all living things

This means that living things are unable to see wisdom. It can be expressed in active form. Alternate translation: "No living thing can see wisdom" is kept hidden from the birds of the heavens

This means that the birds are unable to see wisdom. This can be expressed in active form. Alternate translation:

"even the birds that fly in the skies cannot see wisdom"

Job 28:22

Destruction and Death say

Here "Destruction" and "Death" are spoken of as if they are living things who can speak.

Job 28:23

God understands the way to it; he knows its place

Wisdom is spoken of as if it were in a certain place.

Alternate translation: "God knows how to find wisdom. He knows where it is"

Job 28:24

the very ends of the earth

"the farthest places on the earth"

Job 28:25

parceled out the waters by measure

This describes God deciding how much water should be in each place. Possible meanings are that this refers to deciding 1) how much rain should be in each cloud or 2) how much water should be in each sea. Alternate translation: "decided how much water should be in each place"

Job 28:26

a path for the thunder

"he decided how the thunder can be heard" or "he decided the path of the thunderstorm"

Job 28:27

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 28:28

See, the fear of the Lord—that is wisdom

The abstract noun "fear" can be expressed with the verbs "fear" or "respect." The abstract noun "wisdom" can be expressed with the word "wise." Alternate translation: "Listen, if you fear the Lord, you will be wise"

to depart from evil is understanding

Here "depart from evil" means refusing to do evil things.

The abstract noun "understanding" can be expressed with the verb "understand." Alternate translation: "if you refuse to do evil, then you will understand many things"

Chapter 29

¹Job resumed speaking and said,

² "Oh, that I were as I was in the past months
when God cared for me,

³ when his lamp shined on my head,
and when I walked through darkness by his light.

⁴ Oh, that I were as I was in the ripeness of my days
when the friendship of God was on my tent,

⁵ when the Almighty was yet with me,
and my children were around me,

⁶ when my way was covered with cream,
and the rock poured out for me streams of oil!

⁷ When I went out to the city gate,
when I sat in my place in the city square,

⁸ the young men saw me and kept their distance from me in respect, and the aged people rose and stood for me.

⁹ The princes used to refrain from talking when I came;
they would lay their hand on their mouths.

¹⁰ The voices of the noblemen were hushed,
and their tongue clung to the roof of their mouths.

¹¹ For after their ears heard me, they would then bless me;
after their eyes saw me, they would then give witness to me and approve of me

¹² because I rescued the one who was poor when he cried out, and the one who had no father when he had no one to help him.

¹³ The blessing of him who was about to perish came on me;
I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.

¹⁴ I put on righteousness, and it clothed me;

my justice was like a robe and a turban.

¹⁵ I was eyes to blind people;
I was feet to lame people.

¹⁶ I was a father to needy people;
I would investigate the case even of one whom I did not know.

¹⁷ I broke the jaws of the unrighteous man;
I plucked the victim out from between his teeth.

¹⁸ Then I said, 'I will die in my nest;
I will multiply my days like the grains of sand.

¹⁹ My roots are spread out to the waters, and dew lies all night on my branches.

²⁰ The honor in me is always fresh, and the bow of my strength is always new in my hand.'

²¹ To me men listened; they waited for me;
they stayed silent to hear my advice.

²² After my words were done, they did not speak again;
my speech dropped like water on them.

²³ They always waited for me as they waited for rain;
they opened their mouth wide to drink in my words,
as they would do for the latter rain.

²⁴ I smiled on them when they did not expect it;
they did not reject the light of my face.

²⁵ I selected their way and sat as their chief;
I lived like a king in his army,
like one who comforts mourners.

Job 29 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULB sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is a continuation of Job's statement, but now it is directly addressed to Yahweh.

In this chapter, Job recalls the days before Yahweh's blessings were taken from him. This is only one part of Job's argument that continues for the next 3 chapters.

Links:

Job 29:1 Notes

Job 29:1

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 29:2

Oh, that I were as I was in the past months

Job uses this exclamation to express a wish. Alternate translation: "I wish that I were as I was in past months"

Job 29:3

when his lamp shined on my head

God's lamp shining on Job represents God blessing Job.

Alternate translation: "when God's blessing was like a lamp shining its light on my head"

when I walked through darkness by his light

Walking through darkness represents experiencing difficult situations.

Job 29:4

in the ripeness of my days

Job speaks of when he was young and strong as if his days were the time when the harvest is ripe. Alternate translation: "when I was young and strong"

when the friendship of God was on my tent

The abstract noun "friendship" can be expressed with the noun "friend." The word "tent" represents Job's home. Alternate translation: "when God was my friend and protected my home"

Job 29:5

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 29:6

when my way was covered with cream

"when my path was flowing with cream." Job uses this exaggeration to express that he had many cows and they produced much more cream than he and his family needed. Alternate translation: "when my cows provided an abundance of cream"

and the rock poured out for me streams of oil

"and the rock poured out streams of oil for me." Job uses this exaggeration to express that he had many olive vines and great amounts of olive oil. The rock is where his servants pressed the oil out of the olives. Alternate translation: "when my servants pressed out a great amount of olive oil" or "when oil flowed like streams from the pressing rock"

Job 29:7

city square

This is an open area in a village or city where two or more streets meet.

Job 29:8

rose and stood for me

This is a symbol of respect. It can be stated clearly.

Alternate translation: "rose and stood respectfully for me"

Job 29:9

The princes used to refrain from talking when I came

This was a sign of respect.

they would lay their hand on their mouths

They did this to show that they would not speak. This was a sign of their respect for Job.

Job 29:10

The voices of the noblemen were hushed

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "The noblemen hushed their voices" or "The noblemen stopped speaking"

their tongue clung to the roof of their mouths

This represents them having so much respect for Job that they had nothing to say. Alternate translation: "they felt that they were unable to speak" or "they had nothing to say"

Job 29:11

after their ears heard me ... after their eyes saw me

The ears represent those who heard him, and the eyes represent those who saw him. Alternate translation: "after they heard what I told them ... after they saw me" they would then give witness to me and approve of me

"they would witness approvingly of me"

Job 29:12

I rescued the one who was poor when he cried out

Here "the one who was poor" refers to any poor person.

Alternate translation: "I used to rescue poor people who cried out"

Job 29:13

The blessing of him who was about to perish came on me

Someone's blessing coming on another represents that person blessing another. Alternate translation: "He who was about to perish would bless me"

him who was about to perish

This represents anyone who was about to die. Alternate translation: "those who were about to die"

I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy

Here "the widow's heart" represents any widow. Alternate translation: "I caused widows to sing joyfully"

Job 29:14

I put on righteousness, and it clothed me

People often spoke of righteousness as if it were clothing.

Alternate translation: "I did what was righteous, and it was like clothing that I put on"

my justice was like a robe and a turban

People often spoke of justice as if it were clothing. Alternate translation: "I did what was just, and it was like a robe and a turban on me"

turban

a long cloth that men wrap around their heads and wear as a hat

Job 29:15

I was eyes to blind people

This represents helping blind people. Alternate translation:

"I was like eyes for blind people" or "I guided blind people"

I was feet to lame people

This represents helping blind people. Alternate translation:

"I was like feet for lame people" or "I supported lame people"

Job 29:16

I was a father to needy people

Here "I was a father" represents providing for people.

Alternate translation: "I provided for needy people as a father provides for his children"

Job 29:17

General Information:

In verses 18-20 Job tells about the things he used to say before bad things happened to him.

I broke the jaws of ... I plucked the victim

Job speaks of unrighteous people who persecute others as if they were wild animals that attack their victims by picking them up between their teeth. Alternate translation: "I made unrighteous people stop persecuting people, like someone who breaks the jaw of a wild animal and rescues its victim from between its teeth"

Job 29:18

I will die in my nest

Here "nest" represents Job's home and family. Job used to speak as if he were a bird that lived in a nest with his baby birds. Alternate translation: "I will die at home with my family" or "I will die in the safety of my home"

I will multiply my days like the grains of sand

There are more grains of sand on the shore than anyone can count. To say that he would live more days than anyone could count is an exaggeration to express that he would live a very long time. Alternate translation: "I will live a very long time" or "I will live many years"

Job 29:19

My roots ... my branches

Job used to speak of his strength as if he were strong like a well-watered tree.

Job 29:20

The honor in me is always fresh

The abstract noun "honor" can be expressed with the verb "honor." Here "fresh" represents the honor being constantly given. Alternate translation: "People constantly give me honor" or "People always honor me" the bow of my strength is always new in my hand

A new bow is very strong. Job's bow of strength in his hand represents his physical strength. Alternate translation: "I am always strong like a new bow"

Job 29:21

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 29:22

my speech dropped like water on them

Here "dropped like water on them" represents refreshing the people who heard him. The abstract noun "speech" can be translated with the verb "speak" or "say." Alternate translation: "my speech refreshed their hearts as drops of water refresh people's bodies" or "what I said to them refreshed them like drops of water"

Job 29:23

They always waited for me as they waited for rain

People waited for Job patiently and expected to hear good things.

they opened their mouth wide to drink in my words

This represents waiting eagerly for Job to speak in order to benefit from what said. Alternate translation: "they eagerly waited for me to speak in order to benefit from what I said" as they would do for the latter rain

"as farmers wait eagerly for the latter rain"

the latter rain

This refers to the large amount of rain that falls just before the dry season.

Job 29:24

I smiled on them

It can be stated clearly that the purpose of smiling was to encourage them. Alternate translation: "I smiled on them to encourage them"

the light of my face

This represents the kindness they saw in Job's face.

Job 29:25

I selected their way

Here "selected their way" represents deciding what they should do.

sat as their chief

Here "sat" represents ruling or leading. Chiefs sat down when they made important decisions. Alternate translation: "led them as their chief"

sat as their chief

Job was their chief. Alternate translation: "led them because I was their chief"

I lived like a king in his army

Job speaks of how he led the people and how they obeyed him as if he were a king and they were his army.

like one who comforts mourners

This phrase means that Job actually was one who comforted people. Alternate translation: "I comforted them when they mourned"

Chapter 30

¹ Now those who are younger than I have nothing but mockery for me—these young men whose fathers I would have refused to allow to work beside the dogs of my flock.

² Indeed, the strength of their fathers' hands, how could it have helped me—men in whom the strength of their mature age had perished?

³ They were thin from poverty and hunger;
they gnawed at the dry ground in the darkness of wilderness and desolation.

⁴ They plucked saltwort and bushes' leaves;
the roots of the broom tree were their food.

⁵ They were driven out from among people who shouted after them as one would shout after a thief.

⁶ So they had to live in river valleys, in holes of the earth and of the rocks.

⁷ Among the bushes they brayed like donkeys and they gathered together under the nettles.

⁸ They were the sons of fools, indeed, sons of nameless people!
They were driven out of the land with whips.

⁹ But now I have become the subject of their taunting song;
I have become a byword for them.

¹⁰ They abhor me and stand far off from me;
they do not refrain from spitting in my face.

¹¹ For God has unstrung the string to my bow and afflicted me, and those who taunt me cast off restraint before my face.

¹² Upon my right hand rise the rabble;
they drive me away and pile up against me their siege mounds.

¹³ They destroy my path;
they push forward disaster for me,
men who have no one to hold them back.

¹⁴ They come against me like an army through a wide hole in a city wall;
in the midst of the destruction they roll themselves in on me.

¹⁵ Terrors are turned upon me;
my honor is driven away as if by the wind;
my prosperity passes away as a cloud.

¹⁶ Now my life is pouring out from within me;
many days of suffering have laid hold on me.

¹⁷ In the night my bones in me are pierced;
the pains that gnaw at me take no rest.

¹⁸ God's great force has seized my clothing;
it wraps around me like the collar of my tunic.

¹⁹ He has thrown me into the mud;
I have become like dust and ashes.

²⁰ I cry to you, God, but you do not answer me;
I stand up, and you merely look at me.

²¹ You have changed and become cruel to me;
with the might of your hand you persecute me.

²² You lift me up to the wind and cause it to drive me along;
you throw me back and forth in a storm. ¹

²³ For I know that you will bring me to death, to the house appointed for all the living.

²⁴ However, does no one reach out with his hand to beg for help when he falls?
Does no one in trouble call out for help?

²⁵ Did not I weep for him whose day is hard?
Did I not grieve for the needy man?

²⁶ When I hoped for good, then evil came;
when I waited for light, darkness came instead.

²⁷ My heart is troubled and does not rest;
days of affliction have come on me.

²⁸ I have gone about like one who was living in the dark, but not because of the sun;
I stand up in the assembly and cry for help.

²⁹ I am a brother to jackals, a companion of ostriches.

³⁰ My skin is black and falls away from me;
my bones are burned with heat.

³¹ Therefore my harp is tuned for songs of mourning,
my flute for the singing of those who wail.

.Some modern translations have you dissolve me in a storm .

Job 30 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULB sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is a continuation of Job's statement, but now it is directly addressed to Yahweh.

In this chapter, Job laments his current condition as others insult him. (See: lament)

Links:

Job 30:1 Notes

Job 30:1

whose fathers I would have refused to allow to work beside the dogs of my flock

This shows how much he despised those fathers. They were not even good enough to be with his dogs. Alternate translation: "whose fathers I despised and would not have allowed to work beside the dogs of my flock"

the dogs of my flock

The dogs' relationship to the flock can be stated clearly.

Alternate translation: "the dogs that guarded my flock"

Job 30:2

Indeed, the strength of their fathers' hands, how could it have helped me ... perished?

Job uses this question to mock the weakness of those men.

Alternate translation: "The strength of their fathers' hands could not have helped me ... perished."

men in whom the strength of their mature age had perished

Their strength perishing is a metaphor that represents no longer being strong but weak. The phrase "mature age" refers to them being old. Alternate translation: "men who had become old and had no strength" or "men who had become old and weak"

Job 30:3

They were thin from poverty and hunger

The word "They" refers to the fathers of the young mockers.

They were thin from poverty and hunger

The abstract noun "poverty" can be expressed with the word "poor." The abstract noun "hunger" can be expressed with the words "hungry" or "starving." Alternate translation: "They were very thin because they were poor and starving"

they gnawed at the dry ground

Possible meanings are that 1) "dry ground" is a metonym for the dry roots that grow in the ground. Alternate translation: "they chewed on the dry roots they found in the ground" or 2) "gnawed at the dried ground" is a metonym for eating whatever they could find in the dry ground.

Job 30:4

Connecting Statement:

Job continues to talk about the fathers of the mockers.

saltwort ... bushes' leaves ... the roots of the broom tree

These are plants that people would eat only if they could find nothing better.

the roots of the broom tree were their food

Possible meanings are 1) the people ate the roots of the broom tree or 2) the people warmed themselves by burning the roots of broom trees.

Job 30:5

They were driven out from among people who shouted after them as ... a thief

The phrase "were driven out" means "were forced to leave."

These phrases can be reordered and stated in active form.

Alternate translation: "The people shouted after them as ... a thief and forced them to leave"

shouted after them as one would shout after a thief

"shouted at them as though they were thieves"

Job 30:6

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 30:7

Connecting Statement:

Job continues to talk about the fathers of the mockers.

brayed like donkeys

Job speaks of the men crying out in hunger as if they were wild donkeys making a loud noise. Alternate translation:

"cried out like wild donkeys because they were hungry"

they gathered together under the nettles

"Nettles" are bushes with sharp thorns. This implies that they did not have a home.

Job 30:8

They were the sons of fools

Here "were the sons of fools" represents having the characteristics of fools. Alternate translation: "They were like fools" or "they were fools"

indeed, sons of nameless people

The word "indeed" shows that what follows strengthens the previous thought. Here "sons of nameless people" represents having the characteristics of nameless people.

Alternate translation: "indeed, they were nameless people" or "indeed, they were worthless" nameless people

Here being "nameless" represents having no honor or respect. It means that they are worthless. Alternate translation: "worthless people"

They were driven out of the land with whips

This can be stated in active form. Possible meanings are 1) the idea of whips implies that they were being treated like criminals. Alternate translation: "People treated them like criminals and forced them to leave the land" or 2) people actually used whips to force them out. Alternate translation: "People whipped them and forced them to leave the land"

They were driven out of the land

Here "the land" refers to the land where they lived before they were forced to go out to the wilderness.

Job 30:9

Connecting Statement:

Job speaks again about the people who were mocking him.

But now I have become the subject of their taunting song

The abstract noun "song" can be expressed with the verb "sing." Alternate translation: "But now they sing songs about me to taunt me"

I have become a byword for them

Here "byword" is a metonym for the person about whom people make cruel jokes. Alternate translation: "I am now one whom they make cruel jokes about" or "They joke and say cruel things about me"

Job 30:10

they do not refrain from spitting in my face

This can be stated positively. Alternate translation: "they even spit in my face"

Job 30:11

God has unstrung the string to my bow

A bow that is unstrung is not useful. The phrase "has unstrung the string of my bow" is a metaphor for making Job powerless. Alternate translation: "God has taken away my power to defend myself"

those who taunt me

"those who mock me"

cast off restraint before my face

A restraint keeps a person from moving freely and doing what he wants. Here "restraint" represents refraining from doing something, and "cast off restraint" represents not refraining from doing something. In this case the mockers did not refrain from being cruel to Job. Alternate translation: "do not refrain from being cruel to me" or "do whatever cruel things they want to do to me"

Job 30:12

General Information:

Job speaks about the mockers treating him cruelly as if they were a mob and an army attacking him.

Connecting Statement:

Job continues to speak about the people who were mocking him.

Upon my right hand rise the rabble

"the rabble rise upon my right hand." Possible meanings are 1) rising upon Job's right hand represents attacking his strength. Alternate translation: "Gangs of young people attack my strength" or 2) rising upon Job's right hand represents attacking his honor. Alternate translation: "Mobs attack my honor"

they drive me away

"they force me to run away"

pile up against me their siege mounds

Armies would pile up mounds of dirt along a city's wall in order to climb over the wall and attack the city. Job speaks of the mockers preparing to attack him as if they were doing that. Alternate translation: "prepare to attack me like an army that prepares to attack a city"

Job 30:13

They destroy my path

This represents keeping Job from escaping their attack.
Alternate translation: "They prevent me from escaping from them"

they push forward disaster for me

Here "push forward disaster" represents trying to make disaster happen. Alternate translation: "they try to make disaster happen to me" or "they try to destroy me"

men who have no one to hold them back

Here "hold them back" represents stopping them from doing something. Alternate translation: "men who have no one to stop them from attacking me"

Job 30:14

General Information:

Job speaks about the mockers treating him cruelly as if they were an army attacking him.

Connecting Statement:

Job continues to speak about the people who were mocking him.

They come against me like an army through a wide hole in a city wall

This represents attacking Job forcefully.

they roll themselves in on me

This represents many coming to attack him at once, like giant ocean waves rolling in on him.

Job 30:15

Terrors are turned upon me

Possible meanings are 1) Job has become terrified or 2) things are happening to Job that make him afraid.

my honor is driven away as if by the wind

Job speaks of suddenly having no honor as if the wind had blown it from him. Alternate translation: "Nobody honors me" or "I am now a person that people do not honor"

my prosperity passes away as a cloud

Job speaks of his prosperity ending as if it were a cloud that was blown away. Here "prosperity" may refer to well-being or safety. Alternate translation: "I no longer prosper at all" or "I am no longer safe"

Job 30:16

Now my life is pouring out from within me

Job speaks as if his life were a liquid and his body were a container. He feels he is about to die. Alternate translation: "Now I am dying"

many days of suffering have laid hold on me

Job speaks of his continuous suffering as if the days of suffering have grabbed hold of him. Alternate translation: "I suffer many days, and the suffering does not end"

Job 30:17

my bones in me are pierced

Job speaks of the pain in his bones as if his bones were being pierced. Alternate translation: "my bones ache terribly" or "I have sharp pain in my bones"

the pains that gnaw at me take no rest

Job speaks of his constant pain as if it were alive and biting him and refuses to rest. Alternate translation: "the pains that cause me to suffer do not stop" or "I am in constant pain"

Job 30:18

God's great force has seized my clothing

Job speaks of God using his force as if God's force were actually doing something. Here "God's ... force" stands for "God." Alternate translation: "God has seized my clothing by his great force"

God's great force has seized my clothing

The image of God's force seizing Job is a metaphor. Possible meanings are 1) it represents Job's pain. Alternate translation: "My pain feels like God has grabbed my clothing tightly" or 2) it represents God's causing Job's many problems. Alternate translation: "It is as though by his great force God has grabbed me by my clothes"

it wraps around me like the collar of my tunic

The image of God's force wrapping around Job is a metaphor. Possible meanings are 1) it represents Job's pain.

Alternate translation: "he wraps the collar of my tunic tightly around me" or 2) it represents God's causing Job's many problems. Alternate translation: "It is as though he grabs me by the collar of my tunic"

Job 30:19

He has thrown me into the mud

Job says that God has humiliated him. Alternate translation: "It is as though he has thrown me in the mud" or "He has humiliated me, like a person thrown in the mud"

I have become like dust and ashes

This represents Job's feeling of being worthless. Alternate translation: "I have become as worthless as dust and ashes"

Job 30:20

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 30:21

cruel

This word means unkind.

with the might of your hand you persecute me

The word "hand" represents God's power. Alternate translation: "you persecute me with your power"

Job 30:22

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking to God.

lift me up to the wind ... throw me back and forth in a storm

These expressions represent the extreme suffering that God made Job endure.

cause it to drive me along "cause the wind to push me along"

Job 30:23

you will bring me to death

Here "bring me to death" represents causing Job to die.

Alternate translation: "you will cause me to die"

the house appointed for all the living

Job speaks of the world of the dead as if it were a house to which God has appointed all living things to go. Alternate translation: "the world of the dead, to which everything that has ever lived goes"

all the living

That is, all things now alive, but that will die one day.

Job 30:24

Connecting Statement:

Job continues speaking to God.

does no one reach out with his hand to beg for help when he falls? Does no one in trouble call out for help?

Job uses these questions to justify himself for crying out to God for help. Alternate translation: "Everyone reaches out with his hand to beg for help when he falls. Everyone who is in trouble calls out for help." or "I have fallen, and so God should not think I am doing wrong when I beg for his help. I am in trouble, so of course I call out for help!"

does no one reach out with his hand to beg for help when he falls? Does no one in trouble call out for help?

Some versions interpret these questions as Job complaining that God has reached out with his hand to harm Job when Job was in trouble and crying out for help. Alternate translation: "Surely no one would reach out with his hand against someone who falls and calls out for help."

Job 30:25

Did not I weep ... hard? Did I not grieve ... man?

Job uses these questions to remind God of how Job had done good to others. A: "You know that I wept ... hard, and I grieved ... man!"

him whose day is hard

Here the word "day" is a synecdoche for the person's life, and "hard" here means "difficult." Alternate translation: "him whose life is difficult"

Job 30:26

When I hoped for good, then evil came

Looking for good represents hoping for good things, and evil coming represents evil things happening.

I waited for light ... darkness came Here "light" represents God's blessing and favor and "darkness" represents trouble and suffering. Alternate translation: "I waited for the light of God's blessing, but instead I experienced the darkness of suffering"

Job 30:27

My heart is troubled and does not rest

Job speaks of his heart as if it were a person. Alternate translation: "I am troubled in my heart and the feeling does not end"

days of affliction have come on me

Days of affliction coming on Job represents Job experiencing affliction for many days. Alternate translation: "I experience affliction many days" or "I suffer every day"

Job 30:28

I have gone about

Here "have gone about" represents living. Alternate translation: "I have lived" or "I live" like one who was living in the dark, but not because of the sun

Here "living in the dark" is a metaphor that represents being extremely sad. The phrase "but not because of the sun" clarifies that "living in the dark" is a metaphor, that is, the darkness is not caused by the sun being hidden.

Alternate translation: "like one who is terribly sad"

Job 30:29

a brother to jackals, a companion of ostriches

Being a brother to these animals is a metaphor for being like them. Alternate translation: "I am like jackals and ostriches that cry out in the wilderness"

Job 30:30

my bones are burned with heat

Here "bones" refers to the whole body, which suffers from fever.

heat

Another possible meaning is "fever."

Job 30:31

my harp is tuned for songs of mourning

Here "my harp" represents Job himself, and also represents his desire to sing only songs of mourning. Alternate translation: "I play only songs of mourning on my harp"

my flute for the singing of those who wail

Here "my flute" represents Job himself, and also his desire to sing only songs of crying. Alternate translation: "I play only songs of wailing on my flute"

wail

To wail is to cry very loudly because of terrible sadness or pain.

Chapter 31

¹ I have made a covenant with my eyes;
how then should I look with desire on a virgin?

² For what is the portion from God above,
the inheritance from the Almighty on high?

³ I used to think that calamity is for unrighteous people, and that disaster is for those who behave wickedly.

⁴ Does not God see my ways and count all my steps?

⁵ If I have walked with falsehood,
if my foot has hurried to deceit,

⁶ let me be weighed in an even balance
so that God will know my integrity.

- ⁷ If my step has turned aside from the way,
if my heart has gone after my eyes,
if any spot has stuck to my hands,
- ⁸ then let me sow, and let another eat,
and let my crops be uprooted.
- ⁹ If my heart has been deceived by a woman,
if I have lain in wait at my neighbor's door,
- ¹⁰ then let my wife grind grain for another,
and let others bow down on her.
- ¹¹ For that would be a terrible crime;
indeed, it would be a crime to be punished by judges.
- ¹² For that is a fire that consumes as far as Abaddon, and it would burn all my harvest to the root.
- ¹³ If I rejected the plea for justice from my male servant or my female servant
when they argued with me,
- ¹⁴ what then would I do when God rises up to accuse me?
When he comes to judge me, how would I answer him?
- ¹⁵ Did the one who made me in the womb not make them also?
Did not the same one mold us all in the womb?
- ¹⁶ If I have withheld poor people from their desire, or if I have caused the eyes of the widow to grow dim from crying,
- ¹⁷ or if I have eaten my morsel alone and not allowed those without fathers to eat it also—
- ¹⁸ because from my youth the orphan grew up with me as with a father, and I have guided his mother, a widow, from my own mother's womb.
- ¹⁹ If I have seen anyone perish for lack of clothing, or if I have seen that a needy man had no clothing;
- ²⁰ if his heart has not blessed me because he has not been warmed with the wool of my sheep,
- ²¹ if I have lifted up my hand against the orphan because I saw my support in the city gate,
then bring charges against me!
- ²² If I have done these things, then let my shoulder fall from the shoulder blade, and let my arm be broken from its joint.
- ²³ For I dreaded destruction from God;

because of his majesty, I was not able to do those things.

²⁴ If I have made gold my hope, and if I have said to fine gold, 'You are what I am confident in';

²⁵ if I have rejoiced because my wealth was great,
because my hand had gotten many possessions,
then bring charges against me!

²⁶ If I have seen the sun when it shone, or the moon walking in its splendor,

²⁷ and if my heart has been secretly attracted, so that my mouth has kissed my hand in worship of them—

²⁸ this also would be a crime to be punished by judges, for I would have denied the God who is above.

²⁹ If I have rejoiced at the destruction of anyone who hated me or congratulated myself when disaster overtook him,
then bring charges against me!

³⁰ Indeed, I have not even allowed my mouth to sin
by asking for his life with a curse.

³¹ If the men of my tent have never said,
'Who can find one who has not been filled with Job's food?'

³² (even the foreigner has never had to stay in the city square, because I have always opened my doors to the traveler),
and if that is not so, then bring charges against me!

³³ If, like mankind, I have hidden my sins
by hiding my guilt inside my bosom

³⁴ (because I feared the great multitude, because the contempt of the families terrified me,
so that I kept silent and would not go outside)—

³⁵ Oh, if only I had someone to hear me!
See, here is my signature; let the Almighty answer me!
If only I had the indictment that my opponent has written!

³⁶ Surely I would carry it openly on my shoulder;
I would bind it on myself like a crown.

³⁷ I would declare to him an accounting for my steps;
as a confident prince I would go up to him.

³⁸ If my land ever cries out against me,
and its furrows weep together,

³⁹ if I have eaten its harvest without paying for it or have caused its owners to lose their lives,

⁴⁰ then let thorns grow instead of wheat and weeds instead of barley."
The words of Job are finished.

Job 31 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULB sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This chapter is a continuation of Job's statement and it is directly addressed to Yahweh.

In this chapter, Job presents his case to Yahweh that he is upright and not guilty of the sins he is being accused of. (See: righteous and guilt and sin)

Links:

Job 31:1 Notes

Job 31:1

General Information:

Job continues speaking.

I have made a covenant with my eyes

Job speaks of making a promise about what he would look at as though his eyes were a person and he made a covenant with them. Alternate translation: "I have made a firm promise about what I will look at"

I have made a covenant with my eyes

What job promised can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "I made a promise that I will not look lustfully on a virgin" or "I promised that I will not look lustfully on a virgin"

how then should I look with desire on a virgin?

Job uses this question to emphasize that he would never break his promise. Alternate translation: "So I certainly will not look with lust at a virgin."

Job 31:2

For what is the portion from God above, the inheritance from the Almighty on high?

Job speaks of God's response to people's behavior as if it were the portion of an inheritance that God gives. Alternate translation: "For how will God above respond to me? What will the Almighty on high do?"

For what is the portion from God above, the inheritance from the Almighty on high?

Possible meanings are Job uses this question to emphasize 1) that God will not bless bad behavior. Alternate translation: "For if I look lustfully on a woman, God Almighty on high will not bless me." or 2) that God will punish bad behavior. Alternate translation: "For if I look lustfully on a woman, God Almighty on high will certainly punish me."

Job 31:3

General Information:

Job continues speaking.

Job 31:4

Does not God see my ways and count all my steps?

Here "my ways" and "my steps" are metaphors for Job's behavior. Here "see my ways" and "count all my steps" are metaphors for knowing everything Job does. Job uses this question to emphasize that God does know all he does. Alternate translation: "Certainly God watches me and knows everything that I do."

Does not God see my ways and count all my steps?

Job may be implying that God should know that Job is righteous and does not deserve calamity and disaster.

Job 31:5

General Information:

Job continues speaking.

If I have

In 31:5-40 Job describes different situations in which he would deserve God's punishment. But, Job is confident that they are not true and that he is innocent.

have walked with falsehood, if my foot has hurried to deceit

Here "walked" and "hurried" are metaphors that represent how Job lived. Alternate translation: "have done anything false or purposely deceived anyone"

Job 31:6

let me be weighed in an even balance

People used balances to weigh items and to determine their value. This image represents judging honestly. It can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "let me be judged honestly" or "let God judge me honestly"

Job 31:7

General Information:

Job continues describing situations in which he would deserve God's punishment, but Job is confident that they are not true.

If my step has turned aside from the way

Here "my step" is a metaphor for Job's behavior, and "turned out of the right way" is a metaphor for changing from living right. Alternate translation: "If I have changed from living right" or "If I have stopped doing what is right" if my heart has gone after my eyes

Here "my heart" and "my eyes" are metonyms for what Job desires and sees. The heart going after the eyes is a metaphor for desiring to do what he sees. It is implied that this refers to sinful things that Job sees. Alternate translation: "if I have have wanted to do any sinful things that I see"

if any spot has stuck to my hands

This is a metaphor for being guilty. Alternate translation: "if I am guilty of any sin at all"

Job 31:8

then let me sow, and let another eat, and let my crops be uprooted

Job is saying that if he really has sinned, then this bad thing should happen to him. He would do the hard work of sowing his fields, but he would not be able to eat any of it.

let my crops be uprooted

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "let someone else come and take the harvest from my field"

Job 31:9

General Information:

Job continues describing situations in which he would deserve God's punishment, but he is confident that they are not true.

If my heart has been deceived by a woman

Here "my heart" represents Job. Here the word "deceived" expresses the idea of "enticed." The word "woman" expresses the idea of "another man's wife." This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "If another man's wife has enticed me" or "If I have desired another man's wife"

if I have lain in wait at my neighbor's door

It can be stated clearly why he was waiting at his neighbor's door. Alternate translation: "if I have waited at my neighbor's door so I could sleep with his wife"

Job 31:10

then let my wife grind grain for another

Possible meanings are 1) this is an euphemism which means Job is saying may his wife sleep with another man or 2) it means she will become a slave and work for another man.

Job 31:11

General Information:

Job continues describing situations in which he would deserve God's punishment, but he is confident that they are not true.

For that would be a terrible crime

The word "that" refers to Job sleeping with another woman. it would be a crime to be punished by judges

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "it would be a crime for which judges should punish me"

Job 31:12

For that is a fire that consumes as far as Abaddon, and it would burn all my harvest to the root

Job speaks of the harm that sleeping with another woman causes as if it were a fire that destroys everything. The words "that" and "it" refer to sleeping with another man's wife. Alternate translation: "For adultery is like a fire that burns up everything from here to Abaddon and that would burn up all my harvest"

consumes as far as Abaddon

These words are probably a metaphor for "destroys everything so I have nothing good for the rest of my life," but you should probably translate this literally.

it would burn all my harvest to the root

The word "it" here refers to the action sleeping with another man's wife. This action is a metonym for the punishment that Job would suffer as a result of the action.

A fire burning up his harvest is a synecdoche for losing everything he has worked for. Alternate translation: "those who punish me would take away everything I have worked for"

Job 31:13

General Information:

Job continues describing situations in which he would deserve God's punishment, but he is confident that they are not true.

my male servant or my female servant

These two items refer to Job's servants in general, not to any particular male or female servant, and so may be combined: "my male or female servant" or "any of my servants."

Job 31:14

what then would I do when God rises up to accuse me? When he comes to judge me, how would I answer him?

Job uses these questions to emphasize that if God were to judge him, Job would not be able to make himself appear to be good. Alternate translation: "then there would be absolutely nothing I could say to defend myself when God comes to judge me."

Job 31:15

Did the one who made me in the womb not make them also? Did not the same one mold us all in the womb?

Job uses these questions to emphasize that he is no different from his servants. He implies that God would be angry if Job were to treat his servants as less valuable than himself. Alternate translation: "The one who made me in the womb also made them. He formed us all in the womb."

Job 31:16

General Information:

Job continues describing situations in which he would deserve God's punishment, but he is confident that they are not true. He does not finish his sentence in verses 16 and 17. Instead he explains in verse 18 why they are not true.

If I have withheld poor people from their desire

"If I have kept poor people from getting what they desire"

if I have caused the eyes of the widow to grow dim from crying

Here "to grow dim" refers to the widow having bad eyesight from crying a lot. Alternate translation: "if I have caused a widow to cry in great sadness"

Job 31:17

my morsel

"my food"

Job 31:18

because from my youth the orphan grew up with me as with a father

Here "the orphan" represents orphans in general. Job is describing how he truly treated orphans. Alternate translation: "because even when I was young I took care of orphans like a father"

because from my youth

The phrase "But I have done none of those things" is understood from the context. Alternate translation: "But I have done none of those things, because from my youth"

I have guided his mother, a widow, from my own mother's womb

Job is describing how he truly treated widows. With the phrase "from my own mother's womb" he uses exaggeration to emphasize that he did this all his life.

Alternate translation: "all my life I have guided the orphan's mother, a widow" or "all my life I have guided widows"

Job 31:19

General Information:

Job continues describing situations in which he would deserve God's punishment, but he knows they are not true.

Job 31:20

if his heart has not blessed me

The phrase "his heart" represents the poor man who needs clothing. Alternate translation: "if he has not blessed me" because he has not been warmed with the wool of my sheep

Here "the wool of my sheep" represents blankets or clothing made from the wool of Job's sheep. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "because the wool of my sheep has not warmed him" or "because I have not given him clothing made from the wool of my sheep"

Job 31:21

if I have lifted up my hand against the orphan

Lifting up the hand against someone represents threatening to harm him. Alternate translation: "if I have threatened to harm the orphan"

the orphan

This is a generic noun for any orphan or fatherless child.

Alternate translation: "orphans" or "fatherless people"

I saw my support in the city gate

Here "saw" is a metaphor for "knew," "support" is a metaphor for "approval," and "the city gate" is a metonym for the leaders who sit at the city gate. Alternate translation: "I knew that the leaders at the city gate would approve of me" in the city gate

This is where the important men of the city would gather to make decisions.

then bring charges against me

This phrase is not in the original language or in other versions of the Bible. It was added here to help preserve the meaning of Job's statement in this long sentence.

Job 31:22

then let my shoulder fall from the shoulder blade, and let my arm be broken from its joint

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "then let someone tear off my shoulder from the shoulder blade and break my arm from its joint"

Job 31:23

For I dreaded ... his majesty

This is the reason that Job did not do any of the wicked things he spoke of in verses 7 through 21.

Job 31:24

General Information:

Job continues describing situations in which he would deserve God's punishment, but he is confident that they are not true.

If I have made gold my hope

The abstract noun "hope" can be translated with the verbs "trust" or "hope." Alternate translation: "If I trusted in gold" or "If I hoped that having a lot of gold would make me secure" if I have said to fine gold, 'You are what I am confident in'

This line means the same as the previous line.

Job 31:25

my hand had gotten many possessions

Here "my hand" represents Job's ability to do things.

Alternate translation: "I have gained many possessions by my own ability"

then bring charges against me

This phrase is not in the original language or in other versions of the Bible. It was added here to help preserve the meaning of Job's statement in this long sentence.

Job 31:26

General Information:

Job continues describing situations in which he would deserve God's punishment, but he is confident that they are not true.

the moon walking

Here "walking" represents moving slowly. Alternate translation: "the moon moving across the sky"

Job 31:27

if my heart has been secretly attracted

Here "my heart" represents Job. This phrase can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "if I have been secretly attracted to them" or "if I have secretly desired to worship them" so that my mouth has kissed my hand

Here "my mouth" represents Job. This is a sign of love and devotion. Alternate translation: "so that I have kissed my hand"

Job 31:28

to be punished by judges

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "for which judges would be right to punish me"

I would have denied the God who is above

"I would have been unfaithful to the God who is above"

Job 31:29

General Information:

Job continues describing situations in which he would deserve God's punishment, but he is confident that they are not true.

at the destruction of anyone who hated me

The abstract noun "destruction" can be translated with the verb "destroy." Alternate translation: "when anyone who hated me was destroyed" or "when bad things happened to anyone who hated me"

when disaster overtook him

"when he experienced disasters"

then bring charges against me

This phrase is not in the original language or in other versions of the Bible. It was added here to help preserve the meaning of Job's statement in this long sentence.

Job 31:30

Indeed, I have not even allowed my mouth to sin

Here "my mouth" represents Job speaking. Alternate translation: "Truly I did not let myself sin" or "Truly, I did not sin"

by asking for his life with a curse

Here "asking for his life with a curse" represents cursing someone's life so that he will die. Alternate translation: "by cursing him so that he would die" or "by cursing his life"

Job 31:31

General Information:

Job continues describing situations in which he would deserve God's punishment, but he is confident that they are not true.

the men of my tent

The tent represents Job's household. The men of his tent includes family members and servants. All of these knew Job well. Alternate translation: "the men of my household" or "my family members and servants"

Who can find one who has not been filled with Job's food?

Job's men would have used this question to emphasize that Job was generous to everyone. Alternate translation: "Everyone has been filled with Job's food!" or "Everyone we know of has eaten as much of Job's food as he wanted!"

Job 31:32

even the foreigner has never had to stay in the city square

Job is explaining how he truly treated foreigners. Here "stay in the city square" represents sleeping overnight in the city square. Alternate translation: "foreigners have never had to sleep in the city square" or "foreigners have never had to sleep outside"

I have always opened my doors to the traveler

Here "opened my doors to the traveler" represents welcoming the traveler into his home. Alternate translation: "I have always welcomed the traveler into my home"

and if that is not so, then bring charges against me

This phrase is not in the original language or in other versions of the Bible. It was added here to help preserve the meaning of Job's statement in this long sentence.

Job 31:33

General Information:

Job continues describing situations in which he would deserve God's punishment, but he is confident that they are not true.

If ... I have hidden my sins

Here "have hidden my sins" represents trying to keep people from knowing that he had sinned. Alternate translation: "If ... I have tried to keep my sins a secret"

by hiding my guilt inside my bosom

This represents trying to keep people from knowing that he is guilty. The "bosom" is the chest and arms and is probably a metonym for the tunic that covers it. Alternate translation: "by hiding the evidence of my guilt inside my tunic" or "like one who hides the evidence of his guilt inside his tunic"

Job 31:34

because I feared the great multitude, because the contempt of the families terrified me

This would be the reason for hiding his sins. These two phrases mean the same thing. They emphasize that a person may hide his sin because he fears what other people may think about him.

so that I kept silent and would not go outside)—

The dash at the end of the line is used to show that Job did not finish this sentence.

Job 31:35

Oh, if only I had someone to hear me!

This exclamation expresses Job's wish. Alternate translation: "I wish I had someone to hear me" or "I wish that someone would listen to me"

here is my signature

Here "my signature" represents Job's promise that everything he is saying is true. He speaks of his complaint as if he had written a legal document. Alternate translation: "I solemnly promise that all I have said is true"

let the Almighty answer me!

Here an answer probably refers to telling Job what wrong he accuses Job of doing. Alternate translation: "let the Almighty tell me what I have done wrong" or "I wish the Almighty would say what I have done wrong"

If only I had the indictment that my opponent has written!

This expresses Job's wish. Job speaks as though his troubles are evidence that someone has written something accusing him of terrible sin. Alternate translation: "I wish I had the accusation that my opponent has written" or "If only I could read my opponent's complaint against me"

my opponent

These words could refer to 1) God or 2) someone else.

Job 31:36

Surely I would carry it openly on my shoulder; I would bind it on myself like a crown

This represents putting it where everyone could read it.

Job 31:37

I would declare to him an accounting for my steps

Here "my steps" represents Job's actions. Alternate translation: "I would declare to him an accounting for all I have done" or "I would tell him everything I have done"

as a confident prince I would go up to him

This means Job would approach God without any fear. Job implies that he could do this because he was not guilty. Alternate translation: "I would approach him boldly"

Job 31:38

General Information:

This concludes Job's description of situations in which he would deserve God's punishment, but he is convinced that they they are not true.

If my land ever cries out against me, and its furrows weep together Job speaks of being guilty as if his land were a person who cries out against Job because of the wrong Job has done to the land. Alternate translation: "If I have done wrong concerning my land" or "If I have stolen my land from someone" to lose their lives

Job 31:39

This represents dying. Alternate translation: "to die"

Job 31:40

weeds instead of barley

The words "let" and "grow" are understood from the previous phrase. Alternate translation: "let weeds grow instead of barley"

¹So these three men stopped answering Job because he was righteous in his own eyes.²Then the anger of Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite, of the family of Ram, was kindled; it was kindled against Job because he justified himself rather than God.

³Elihu's anger was also kindled against his three friends because they had found no answer to Job, and yet they had condemned Job.⁴Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job because the other men were older than he.⁵However, when Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouths of these three men, his anger was kindled.

⁶Then Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite spoke up and said,

"I am young, and you are very old.

That is why I held back and was afraid to tell you my own thoughts.

⁷ I said, "Length of days should speak;

a multitude of years should teach wisdom.

⁸ But there is a spirit in a man;

the breath of the Almighty gives him understanding.

⁹ It is not only the great people who are wise, nor the aged people alone who understand justice.

¹⁰ Therefore I say to you, 'Listen to me;

I will also tell you my knowledge.'

¹¹ See, I waited for your words;

I listened to your arguments while you were searching for a word.

¹² Indeed, I paid attention to you, but, see, there was not one of you who could convince Job or who could respond to his words.

¹³ Be careful not to say, 'We have found wisdom!'

God will have to defeat Job; mere man cannot do it.

¹⁴ For Job has not directed his words against me,

so I will not answer him with your words.

¹⁵ These three men are dismayed; they can answer Job no longer;

they have not a word more to say.

¹⁶ Should I wait because they are not speaking, because they stand there silent and answer no more?

¹⁷ No, I also will answer on my part;

I will also tell them my knowledge.

¹⁸ For I am full of words;

the spirit in me compels me.

¹⁹ See, my breast is like fermenting wine that has no vent;

like new wineskins, it is ready to burst.

²⁰ I will speak so that I may be refreshed;

I will open my lips and answer.

²¹ I will not show favoritism;
neither will I give honorific titles to any man.

²² For I do not know how to give such titles;
if I did so, my Maker would soon take me away.

Job 32 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Job's friends give up on trying to convince him that he is being punished for sinning. This chapter introduces Elihu who was a witness to these interactions between Job and his friends. According to Elihu, instead of being punished for his sins, Job is sinning in the midst of these difficulties. This is the first of Elihu's four statements. (See: sin and testimony)

Some translations prefer to set apart extended quotations, prayers, or songs. The ULB and many other English translations set the lines of 32:6-22, which is an extended quotation, farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text. This quotation continues through the next chapter.

Links:

Job 32:1 Notes

Job 32:1

he was righteous in his own eyes

The eyes represent seeing, and seeing represents thoughts or judgment. Alternate translation: "he considered himself righteous"

Job 32:2

Then the anger of Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite, of the family of Ram, was kindled; it was kindled against Job

This compares Elihu's anger to someone starting a fire.

Also, this can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Then Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite, of the family of Ram, became very angry with Job"

Elihu ... Barakel ... Ram

These are names of men.

Buzite

This is the name of a people-group.

he justified himself rather than God

This means that he considered himself innocent and believed God had been wrong to punish him. Alternate translation: "he justified himself and claimed that God had been wrong to punish him"

Job 32:3

Elihu's anger was also kindled against his three friends

This compares Elihu's anger to someone starting a fire. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Elihu also became very angry with his three friends"

Job 32:4

Now

This word is used here to mark a pause in the story. This tells background information about Elihu.

Job 32:5

that there was no answer in the mouths of these three men

This means that the men were done speaking to Job. This speaks of the men possibly having an answer as if the answer were an object that would be in their mouths. Alternate translation: "that these three men had nothing else to say" or "that these three men had no more answers to give Job"

his anger was kindled

This compares Elihu's anger to someone starting a fire. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "he became very angry"

Job 32:6

you are very old

Here "you" is plural and refers to Job and his three friends.

Job 32:7

Length of days should speak; a multitude of years should teach wisdom

These two lines mean the same thing. Elihu emphasizes that since older people are wiser than younger people, they should be the first to speak of what they know. Alternate translation: "He who has lived many years should speak; He would be older should teach wisdom"

Job 32:8

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking to Job and his friends.

there is a spirit in a man; the breath of the Almighty

Both phrases mean the same thing. Elihu is emphasizing that a man's wisdom comes from God. Alternate translation: "there is a spirit in a man, that is, the breath of the Almighty that"

the breath of the Almighty

Here the spirit is represented by "breath." Alternate translation: "the spirit of the Almighty"

Job 32:9

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 32:10

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 32:11

See

Elihu uses this word here to draw the men's attention to what he says next. Alternate translation: "Listen"

I waited for your words

"I waited to hear what you would say." The word "your" refers to Job's friends and so is plural.

searching for a word

The word "word" is a synecdoche for an entire message, and "searching for" a word as if it were a solid object is a metaphor for thinking of the right thing to say. Alternate translation: "thinking about what to say" or "trying to think of the right thing to say"

Job 32:12

who could respond to his words

Here the word "respond" does not just mean to answer, but to answer with a helpful response.

Job 32:13

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking to Job's friends.

We have found wisdom

This means that they believe that they have figured out what is wise. Alternate translation: "We have discovered what is wise" to defeat Job

This speaks of God responding to Job and correcting him as if he were defeating him in battle. Alternate translation: "to refute Job" or "to answer Job"

Job 32:14

with your words

"by saying what you have said"

Job 32:15

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking.

dismayed

discouraged or distressed

Job 32:16

Should I wait because they are not speaking, because they stand there silent and answer no more?

Elihu uses a question to emphasize that he will not wait any longer to speak. Elihu answers this question himself in the next verse. Alternate translation: But because you do not speak, I certainly will not wait any longer; you merely stand there and do not reply anymore.

Job 32:17

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking using parallelisms.

I also will answer on my part

"I will now take my turn to answer"

Job 32:18

I am full of words

Elihu speaks of having a lot to say as being full of words.

Alternate translation: "I have so much to say"

the spirit in me compels me

"my spirit forces me to say it"

Job 32:19

my breast is like fermenting wine that has no vent; like new wineskins,

it is ready to burst

While wine is fermenting, gas collects in the container. If the gas is not let out the container will burst. Elihu means that he has so much to say that if he does not speak he feels like he will burst. Also, these two phrases are parallel and have the same meaning. Alternate translation: "I feel like my breast is about to burst, like a container of fermenting wine that has no vent"

my breast is

This represents Elihu, specifically his spirit. Alternate translation: "my spirit is" or "I am"

Job 32:20

I may be refreshed

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "I may feel better"

open my lips

Here the "lips" represent the mouth. Alternate translation:

"open my mouth"

Job 32:21

favoritism; neither will I give honorific titles to any man

Elihu is probably speaking of giving honorific titles to someone as a metaphor for flattering him, and he is probably speaking indirectly about Job and his friends by speaking of "a man" in general. Alternate translation: "favoritism; neither will I flatter anyone" or "favoritism, nor will I flatter any of you"

Job 32:22

my Maker

This is a name referring to God. Alternate translation: "God who made me" take me away

This means that he would destroy him. Alternate translation: "destroy me"

Chapter 33

¹ So now, Job, I beg you, hear my speech;
listen to all my words.

² See now, I have opened my mouth;
my tongue has spoken in my mouth.

³ My words come from the uprightness of my heart;
my lips speak pure knowledge.

⁴ The Spirit of God has made me;
the breath of the Almighty has given me life.

⁵ If you can, answer me;
set your words in order before me and stand up.

- ⁶ See, I am just as you are in God's sight;
I also have been formed out of the clay.
- ⁷ See, terror of me will not make you afraid;
neither will my pressure be heavy upon you.
- ⁸ You have certainly spoken in my hearing;
I have heard the sound of your words saying,
- ⁹ 'I am clean and without transgression;
I am innocent, and there is no iniquity in me.
- ¹⁰ See, God finds opportunities to attack me;
he regards me as his enemy.
- ¹¹ He puts my feet in stocks;
he watches all my paths.'
- ¹² See, in this you are not in the right—I will answer you,
for God is greater than man.
- ¹³ Why do you struggle against him?
He does not account for any of his doings.
- ¹⁴ For God speaks once—
yes, twice, though man does not notice it.
- ¹⁵ In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls upon men,
in slumber on the bed—
- ¹⁶ then God opens the ears of men, and frightens them with threats,
- ¹⁷ to cause man to turn away from his deed,
and keep pride from a man.
- ¹⁸ God keeps man's life back from the pit,
his life from crossing over to death.
- ¹⁹ Man is punished also with pain on his bed,
with constant strife in his bones,
- ²⁰ so that his life abhors food,
and his soul abhors delicacies.
- ²¹ His flesh is consumed away so that it cannot be seen;
his bones, once not seen, now stick out.
- ²² Indeed, his soul draws close to the pit,
his life to those who wish to destroy it.

- ²³ But if there is an angel who can be a mediator for him,
one out of a thousand,
to tell a man what is right for him,
- ²⁴ to be gracious to him and say,
'Save this person from going down to the pit;
I have found a ransom for him,'
- ²⁵ then his flesh will become fresher than a youth's;
it is restored to the days of his youthful vigor.
- ²⁶ He will pray to God, and God will be kind to him, so that he sees God's face with joy.
God will restore to the person his righteousness.
- ²⁷ Then that person will sing in front of other people and say,
'I sinned and perverted that which was right,
but my sin was not punished.
- ²⁸ God has rescued my soul from going down into the pit;
my life will continue to see light.'
- ²⁹ See, God does all these things with a person,
twice, yes, even three times,
- ³⁰ to bring his soul back from the pit,
so that he may be enlightened with the light of life.
- ³¹ Pay attention, Job, and listen to me;
be silent and I will speak.
- ³² If you have anything to say, answer me;
speak, for I wish to justify you.
- ³³ If not, then listen to me;
remain silent, and I will teach you wisdom."

Job 33 General Notes

Structure and formatting

According to Elihu, instead of being punished for his sins, Job is sinning in the midst of these difficulties. This is a continuation of the first of Elihu's four statements and it is addressed to Job. (See: sin and testimony)

The ULB sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. This quotation is a continuation of the previous chapter.

Special concepts in this chapter

God's mercy

While Job has been complaining about the lack of justice and response from Yahweh, Elihu shows Job that Yahweh has shown him great mercy along the way. He is still alive because of Yahweh's mercy. (See: mercy)

Links:

Job 33:1 Notes

Job 33:1

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking.

hear my speech; listen to all my words

These two phrases mean the same thing. Elihu is emphasizing that Job must listen carefully.

Job 33:2

See now, I

The phrase "See now" indicates that what follows is a polite request for the hearer to pay attention. "Please listen carefully: I" See how you translated this phrase in Job 13:18. I have opened my mouth ... my tongue has spoken in my mouth These mean the same thing. Elihu is emphasizing that he is now ready to speak. His "tongue" speaking represents himself speaking. Alternate translation: "I have opened my mouth and I have begun to speak"

Job 33:3

My words come from the uprightness of my heart

Here Elihu refers to himself by his "heart" as he speaks of being upright. Alternate translation: "I will speak with uprightness" or "I will speak with complete honesty"

my lips speak pure knowledge

Here Elihu refers to himself by his "lips" to emphasize his speech. Alternate translation: "I will speak sincerely to you the things I know"

Job 33:4

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking to Job.

The Spirit of God ... has given me life

These two lines mean the same thing. Elihu is emphasizing that God has made him and so gives authority to what he is saying.

Job 33:5

set your words in order before me and stand up

This speaks of Job preparing what he will say as if he were setting up and organizing physical objects. Alternate translation: "prepare what you will say, and stand up and answer me"

Job 33:6

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking to Job.

See

Elihu uses this word here to draw Job's attention to what he says next. Alternate translation: "Listen"

I am just as you are in God's sight

Here sight represents judgment or evaluation. Alternate translation: "I am just as you are in God's judgment" or "God judges me the same way that he judges you"

I also have been formed out of the clay

Though people are not made out of clay, God has made everyone as a potter carefully makes things out of clay. Alternate translation: "God has made both of us just as a potter forms things from clay"

I also have been formed

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "God has also made me" or "God has formed both of us"

Job 33:7

terror of me will not make you afraid

"you do not need to be afraid of me"

neither will my pressure be heavy upon you

This means that he will not hinder Job or burden him. He speaks of emotional burden here as if it were a heavy physical burden. Alternate translation: "neither will I burden you" or "I will not oppress you with what I say"

Job 33:8

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking to Job.

in my hearing

"where I could hear you"

I have heard the sound of your words saying

"I have heard you say"

Job 33:9

clean

A person who God considers spiritually acceptable is spoken of as if the person were physically clean.

there is no iniquity in me

"I have not sinned"

Job 33:10

General Information:

Elihu continues quoting what he heard Job say.

See

The speaker uses this word here to draw attention to what he says next. Alternate translation: "Listen"

Job 33:11

He puts my feet in stocks

"Stocks" are wooden blocks a jailer puts around a prisoner's feet to restrict his movement. Job speaks of feeling like he is a prisoner by saying that he is in stocks. Alternate translation: "I feel he has made me a prisoner"

my paths

These words refer to where he goes. Here where he goes represents what he does. Alternate translation: "everything that I do"

Job 33:12

I will answer you

Elihu is speaking to Job, so the word "you" is singular.

Job 33:13

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking to Job.

Why do you struggle against him?

Elihu uses this question to emphasize that Job should not struggle against God. This question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "You should not struggle against God." or "You should not try to argue with God."

He does not account for any of his doings

"He does not have to explain to us anything he does"

Job 33:14

God speaks once—yes, twice

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "God speaks again and again in different ways"

Job 33:15

a dream ... a vision of the night

These phrases have the same meaning.

when deep sleep falls upon men, in slumber on the bed

This speaks of people being in a deep sleep as if the sleep fell upon them or overcame them. Alternate translation:

"when people are fully asleep on their bed"

Job 33:16

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking to Job.

then God opens the ears of men

This speaks of God making people aware of things as if he were opening their ears so that they could hear. Alternate translation: "then God reveals things to people"

Job 33:17

to cause man to turn away from his deed

This speaks of God keeping someone from doing something as if he were physically causing him to turn his body away from something. Alternate translation: "to keep man from" man

If your language has a word for human beings, male and female, you may want to use it here.

his deed

"what he desires to do" or "what he is doing." The context implies that the deed will be evil, so if your language has a word for a deed that is probably evil, you may want to use it here.

a man

This is a male person as opposed to a female, a strong person as opposed to a weak person.

Job 33:18

God keeps man's life back from the pit ... his life from crossing over to death

Both of these statements mean the same thing. Alternate translation: "God saves people from the grave and from death"

the pit

The place where people go when they die is referred to here as "the pit." Alternate translation: "the place where dead people are"

man's life back ... his life

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "man from dying and ... he keeps him" from crossing over to death

Here "death" represents the place where people go when they die, that is, sheol. Alternate translation: "from going to sheol"

Job 33:19

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking to Job.

Man is punished also

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "God also punishes a person" with pain on his bed

This means that the person is experiencing such pain that he must lie in bed. Alternate translation: "with pain so that he must lie in bed"

constant strife in his bones

The word "strife," possibly referring to the man's reaction to God causing him to "turn away from his deed" [Job 33:17]

Job 33:20

so that his life abhors food, and his soul abhors delicacies

These two phrases mean basically the same thing, that the person is in so much pain that he cannot even eat. The person is represented by his "life" and his "soul." Alternate translation: "the result is that he does not desire any food, not even very special food"

abhors delicacies

"hates even very special food"

Job 33:21

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking to Job.

His flesh is consumed away so that it cannot be seen; his bones, once not seen, now stick out

This can be stated in active form. "His flesh" refers to his fat and muscles, not to his body's outer skin. Alternate translation: "Disease makes his body weak and thin so that a person can see his bones"

Job 33:22

his soul draws close to the pit

Here a person is represented by his "soul." Alternate translation: "he is close to going into the grave"

the pit

The place where people go when they die is referred to here as "the pit." Alternate translation: "the place where dead people are"

his life to those who wish to destroy it

Here the person is represented by his "life." The phrase "those who wish to destroy it" refers to the place where people go after they die. Alternate translation: "and he is close to going to the place where dead people go" or "and he will soon go to the place of the dead"

Job 33:23

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking to Job.

for him

This does not refer to a specific person. Elihu continues speaking about any person in general.

one out of a thousand

In some languages it may be more natural to refer to "a great number" instead of "a thousand." Alternate translation: "one from the great number of angels"

Job 33:24

to be gracious to him and say

"to be gracious to the man and to say to God"

the pit

The place where people go when they die is referred to here as "the pit." Alternate translation: "the place where dead people are"

I have found a ransom for him

This means that the angel has found a way to pay for the sins of the man so that he does not have to die. Alternate translation: "for I have found a way for you to keep him from dying"

Job 33:25

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking to Job.

then

This word is used here to introduce what will happen if God grants the angel's request by saving the man.

his flesh will become fresher than a youth's

This speaks of the man being healed and his body growing strong again as if his body became new like a youth's body. Alternate translation: "the sick man's body will become new again like a young person's body" fresher than a youth's

In this comparison, the word "fresher" is an exaggeration. Alternate translation: "fresh like a youth's"

a youth's

This refers to a youth's flesh. Alternate translation: "a youth's flesh"

it is restored to the days of his youthful vigor

This speaks of the man's flesh again being as strong as it was when he was young. Alternate translation: "it will become strong again, as it was when he was young"

Job 33:26

he sees God's face with joy

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "he joyfully worships God"

God's face

Here God is represented by his "face." Alternate translation: "God" will restore to the person his righteousness

Possible meanings are that the words "his righteousness" refer to 1) the righteousness of the person. Alternate translation: "will once again consider the person righteous" or "God will make things right for the person again" Or 2)

God's righteousness.

Job 33:27

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking to Job.

but my sin was not punished

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "but God did not punish me for sinning"

Job 33:28

rescued my soul from going down into the pit

Here the person is referred to by his "soul." Alternate translation: "rescued me from dying and going to the pit" the pit

The place where people go when they die is referred to here as "the pit." Alternate translation: "the place where dead people are"

my life will continue to see light

Here the person is represented by his "life." Also, living is spoken of as seeing the light. Alternate translation: "I will continue to live and see the daylight" or "I will continue to live"

Job 33:29

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking to Job.

See

Elihu uses this word here to draw Job's attention to what he says next. Alternate translation: "Listen"

twice, yes, even three times

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "again and again"

Job 33:30

his soul

The person is represented by his "soul." Alternate translation: "him" to bring his soul back from the pit

This speaks of saving the man from dying as if he had died and was being brought back to life. Alternate translation:

"to keep him from dying and going to the pit"

the pit

The place where people go when they die is referred to here as "the pit." Alternate translation: "the place where dead people are"

he may be enlightened with the light of life

This is an idiom and may be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "he may be happy to still be alive"

Job 33:31

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking to Job.

Pay attention, Job, and listen to me

These phrases mean the same thing. Alternate translation:

"Listen carefully to me, Job"

Job 33:32

justify you

"show that you are in the right" or "show that you are innocent"

Job 33:33

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Chapter 34

¹Moreover, Elihu continued to speak:

² "Listen to my words, you wise men;
hear me, you who have knowledge.

³ For the ear tests words
as the palate tastes food.

⁴ Let us choose for ourselves what is just:
let us discover among ourselves what is good.

⁵ For Job has said, 'I am righteous,
but God has taken away my rights.

⁶ Regardless of my rights
I am considered to be a liar.
My wound is incurable,
although I am without sin.'

⁷ What man is like Job,

- who drinks up mockery like water,
- ⁸ who goes around in the company of those who behave wickedly,
and who walks with wicked men?
- ⁹ For he has said, 'It is no use to a person to take pleasure in doing what God wants.'
- ¹⁰ So listen to me, you men of understanding:
far be it from God that he should do wickedness;
far be it from the Almighty that he should commit sin.
- ¹¹ For he pays back a person's work;
he makes every man come upon the reward of his own ways.
- ¹² Indeed, God does nothing wicked,
nor does the Almighty ever pervert justice.
- ¹³ Who put him in charge over the earth?
Who put the whole world under him?
- ¹⁴ If he ever set his intentions only on himself, and if he ever gathered back to himself his spirit and his breath,
- ¹⁵ then all flesh would perish together;
mankind would return to dust again.
- ¹⁶ If now you have understanding, listen to this;
listen to the sound of my words.
- ¹⁷ Can one who hates justice govern?
Will you condemn God, who is righteous and mighty?
- ¹⁸ God, who says to a king, 'You are worthless,' or says to nobles, 'You are wicked'?
- ¹⁹ God, who does not show favoritism to leaders and does not acknowledge rich people more than poor, for they all are the work of his hands.
- ²⁰ In a moment they will die;
at midnight people will be shaken and will pass away;
mighty people will be taken away, but not by human hands.
- ²¹ For God's eyes are upon a person's ways;
he sees all his steps.
- ²² There is no darkness and there is no deep shadow where those who behave wickedly may hide themselves.
- ²³ For God does not need to examine a person further;
there is no need for any person to go before him in judgment.

- ²⁴ He breaks mighty men into pieces for their ways that need no further investigation;
he puts others in their places.
- ²⁵ In this way he has knowledge of their deeds;
he overthrows these people in the night; they are crushed.
- ²⁶ In the open sight of others, he kills them for their wicked deeds like criminals ²⁷ because they turned away from following him and refused to acknowledge any of his ways.
- ²⁸ In this way, they made the cry of poor people come to him;
he heard the cry of afflicted people.
- ²⁹ When he stays silent, who can condemn him?
If he hides his face, who can see him?
He rules over nation and individual alike,
- ³⁰ so that a godless man may not reign,
so that there may be no one to entrap people.
- ³¹ Suppose someone says to God,
'I am certainly guilty, but I will not act corruptly any longer;
- ³² teach me what I cannot see;
I have committed sin, but I will do it no longer.'
- ³³ Is it according to your desires that God must punish that person?
For you reject this!
You must choose, not I.
So say what it is that you know.
- ³⁴ Men of understanding will say to me—
indeed, every wise man who hears me will say,
- ³⁵ 'Job speaks without knowledge;
his words are without wisdom.'
- ³⁶ If only Job were put on trial in the smallest details of his case because of his talking like wicked men.
- ³⁷ For he adds rebellion to his sin;
he claps his hands in mockery in our midst;
he piles up words against God."

Job 34 General Notes

Structure and formatting

According to Elihu, instead of being punished for his sins, Job is sinning in the midst of these difficulties. This is the second of Elihu's four statements and it is addressed first to Job's friends and then to Job. (See: sin and testimony)
The ULB sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. Elihu uses many of Job's statements against him. His attitude is not too different from Job's friends.

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's justice

Elihu defends the justice of Yahweh after Job claimed that Yahweh was being unjust. (See: justice)

Links:

Job 34:1 Notes

Job 34:1

Moreover, Elihu

"Then, Elihu"

Elihu

See how you translated this man's name in [Job 32:2]

Job 34:2

Listen to my words

"Listen to what I say"

you wise men ... you who have knowledge

Elihu is criticizing Job and his friends. He does not think they are actually wise.

Job 34:3

For the ear tests words as the palate tastes food

Elihu means people listen carefully to determine what is right or wrong just like we taste food to determine if it is good or bad. Here people are referred to by their "ear" and their "palate" to emphasize that they are tasting and hearing. Alternate translation: "For we listen to words to know what is good and bad, just as we taste foods to know what is good to eat"

Job 34:4

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking.

Let us

Here "us" refers to Elihu, Job, and his three friends.

Job 34:5

has taken away my rights

"refused to give me justice"

Job 34:6

I am considered to be a liar

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"God considers me to be a liar"

My wound is incurable

Here Job's sickness and suffering is spoken of as if it were a "wound." Alternate translation: "I am sick and no one can heal me"

Job 34:7

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking.

What man is like Job

Elihu uses this rhetorical question to scold Job. This question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "There is no one else like Job"

who drinks up mockery like water

Elihu is accusing Job of mocking others as often as a person drinks water. Alternate translation: "who mocks other people as frequently as he drinks water"

Job 34:8

who walks with wicked men

Here "walk" is an idiom for how a person acts. Alternate translation: "who behaves like wicked men"

Job 34:9

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 34:10

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking. Each of these verses contain parallel phrases.

you men of understanding

Elihu is criticizing Job and his friends. He does not actually think they are wise.

far be it from God ... far be it from the Almighty that he should commit sin

These two phrases have the same meaning and are used together to emphasize that God would never do anything wrong. The phrase "far be it from" is an idiom. Alternate translation: "Almighty God would never consider doing anything that is wicked or wrong"

Job 34:11

For he pays back a person's work

This means that he gives to a person what he deserves for the work he has done. Here "work" is a metaphor for what a person does. Alternate translation: "For he gives to a person what he deserves in return for he does"

he makes every man come upon the reward of his own ways

The phrase "his own ways" is an idiom for how a person lives his life. Elihu emphasizes that God gives to people what they deserve. Alternate translation: "he causes every man to receive the reward he deserves for how he lives"

Job 34:12

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 34:13

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking.

Who put him in charge over the earth? Who put the whole world under him?

Both of these rhetorical questions have the same meaning and emphasize that no one needed to grant God authority because it was already his. These questions can be written as statements. Alternate translation: "No one needed to give permission to God to take responsibility over all the earth. He is the rightful one to rule the world."

Job 34:14

If he ever set his intentions ... his breath

The word "he" refers to God. Elihu is describing a situation that he does not believe would ever happen.

his spirit and his breath

The "spirit" and "breath" of God are what makes all living things alive. Alternate translation: "his spirit and breath which give us life"

Job 34:15

all flesh

Here all living things are represented by their "flesh."

Alternate translation: "all living things"

mankind would return to dust again

This means that all people would die and their bodies would decay and become soil. In the beginning God created man from the dust. Alternate translation: "the bodies of mankind would soon become soil again"

Job 34:16

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking.

now

Elihu uses this word to bring attention to something important he is about to say.

you have

Here "you" is singular and refers to Job.

listen to the sound of my words

"listen to what I say." This means the same as the previous part of the sentence.

Job 34:17

Can one who hates justice govern? Will you condemn God, who is righteous and mighty?

Elihu uses this question to rebuke Job for implying that God hates justice. Alternate translation: "One who hates justice cannot be expected to rule over people. So you really cannot criticize God, who is righteous and powerful, and you cannot say that what he has done is wrong."

Can one who hates justice govern?

The implicit answer to this rhetorical question is "no." This question implies that God could not rule the world if he hated justice. This can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "One who hates justice cannot govern the world." or "God could certainly never hate what is right and still rule the world."

Will you condemn God, who is righteous and mighty?

This rhetorical question is used to emphasize that Job does not have the authority or a reason to condemn God.

Alternate translation: "You cannot condemn God, who is righteous and mighty!"

Job 34:18

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking.

God, who says to a king, 'You are worthless,' or says to nobles, 'You are wicked'?

This continues the rhetorical question from the previous verse, emphasizing to Job that he cannot condemn God.

This can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "He says to some kings, 'You are worthless,' and he says to some nobles, 'You are wicked.'"

God, who says to a king

This is part of the previous question. The understood words from the previous verse, "will you condemn God," may be supplied. Alternate translation: "Will you condemn God, who says to a king"

Job 34:19

for they all are the work of his hands

Here "hands" refer to power. Alternate translation: "for God made them all"

Job 34:20

at midnight

Midnight is the time when one day ends and another begins. Here "midnight" is used as an idiom. Alternate translation: "at night" or "suddenly, at night"

people will be shaken and will pass away

This can be stated in active form. The phrase "will be shaken" is an idiom that means to be "struck." Alternate translation: "God strikes them and they die"

mighty people will be taken away, but not by human hands

This means that it is God who causes people to die, not people. Also, this can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "it is God and not humans who cause mighty people to die"

not by human hands

Here people are represented by their "hands." Alternate translation: "not by humans" or "not by people"

Job 34:21

For God's eyes are upon a person's ways

God's "eyes" represent his sight. The phrase "a person's ways" is an idiom for what he does and how he lives.

Alternate translation: "For God watches everything a person does"

he sees all his steps

This means that he always knows where the person is and where he is going. Alternate translation: "he sees him wherever he goes"

Job 34:22

no darkness ... no deep shadow

The words "deep shadow" mean basically the same thing as, and intensify, the word "darkness."

Job 34:23

in judgment

"so he may judge him" or "to be judged"

Job 34:24

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking.

He breaks mighty men into pieces

This speaks of God destroying these men as if he actually broke their bodies into pieces. Alternate translation: "He destroys mighty men" or "He destroys important people" for their ways that need no further investigation

He does not need to investigate what they have done because he already knows everything about them.

Alternate translation: "without needing to do further investigation, because he already knows their ways"

their ways

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "the things they have done"

he puts others in their places

This means that he appoints other people to rule in their positions. Alternate translation: "and he chooses other people to rule in their places"

Job 34:25

in the night

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "when they are not expecting it"

they are crushed

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "and crushes them" crushed

They are no longer able to cause trouble. Alternate translation: "destroyed"

Job 34:26

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking.

In the open sight of others, he kills them for their wicked deeds like criminals

This phrase compares the way that these people die to how criminals die. Alternate translation: "He kills them for their wicked deeds, in the open sight of others as if they were criminals"

In the open sight of others

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "In a place where everyone can see"

he kills them

This speaks of God causing these people to die, though he does not actually strike them with a sword himself. He may cause someone else to kill them or disaster to come upon them. Alternate translation: "he causes them to die"

Job 34:27

his ways

This refers to God's instructions for how people should behave.

Job 34:28

they made the cry of poor people come to him

The word "cry" can be expressed as a verb. This speaks of God hearing their cry as if the cry were a person that came to him. Alternate translation: "they made the poor people cry, and God heard them"

Job 34:29

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking.

When he stays silent, who can condemn him? If he hides his face, who can see him?

These two questions speak of God not punishing wicked people as if he were being silent and hiding his face.

When he stays silent, who can condemn him?

Elihu uses this rhetorical question to teach Job. This question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "No one can criticize God if he decides to remain silent"

If he hides his face, who can see him?

Elihu uses this rhetorical question to teach Job. This question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "No one can go and see him if he decides to hide his face"

his face

Here God is represented by his "face." Alternate translation: "himself"

Job 34:30

no one to entrap people

This compares a godless ruler harming people as if he were a hunter trapping his prey. Alternate translation: "no one to harm the people"

Job 34:31

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking.

Job 34:32

teach me what I cannot see

Here to "see" means to know. Alternate translation: "teach me what I have done wrong that I am not aware of"

Job 34:33

Is it according to your desires that God must punish that person?

Elihu is rebuking Job. Alternate translation: "God does not need to punish that person according to your desires."

you reject this

Another possible meaning is "you reject God" or "you do not want God to punish you."

what it is that you know

"what you are thinking about this"

Job 34:34

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking.

who hears me

"who hears me speaking"

Job 34:35

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 34:36

If only Job were put on trial in

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "If only we could put Job on trial in" or "If only we could take Job to court so a judge could listen to"

in the smallest details of his case

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "to listen to his case thoroughly" or "to hear all of the details of his case" of his talking like wicked men

"of how he has spoken like a wicked man"

Job 34:37

he adds rebellion

This refers to rebellion against God. Alternate translation: "he adds rebellion against God"

he claps his hands in mockery in our midst

In this accusation, this means that Job clapped his hands to strengthen his mockery of God. Alternate translation: "he claps his hands as he mocks God in our midst" or "he mocks God right in front of us"

he piles up words against God

Elihu speaks of "words" as if they were objects, and of speaking many words as if it were piling those objects one on top of the other. Alternate translation: "he speaks many words against God"

Chapter 35

¹Moreover Elihu continued, saying,

² "Do you think this is just when you say, 'I am in the right before God'?"

³ For you ask, 'What use is it to me?'
and, 'Would I be better off if I had sinned?'

- ⁴ I will answer you,
both you and your friends.
- ⁵ Look up at the sky, and see it;
see the sky, which is higher than you.
- ⁶ If you have sinned, what harm do you do to God?
If your transgressions are many, what do you do to him?
- ⁷ If you are righteous, what can you give to him?
What will he receive from your hand?
- ⁸ Your wickedness may hurt a man, as you are a man,
and your righteousness might benefit another son of man.
- ⁹ Because of many acts of oppression, people cry out;
they call for help from the arms of mighty men.
- ¹⁰ But no one says, 'Where is God my Maker,
who gives songs in the night,
- ¹¹ who teaches us more than he teaches the wild animals of the earth, and who makes us wiser than the birds of the sky?'
- ¹² There they cry out, but God gives no answer because of the pride of evil men.
- ¹³ God will certainly not hear a foolish cry;
the Almighty will pay no attention to it.
- ¹⁴ How much less will he answer you if you say that you do not see him, that your case is before him, and that you are waiting for him!
- ¹⁵ Now you say that his anger does not punish,
and he does not take even a little notice of transgression.
- ¹⁶ So Job opens his mouth only to speak foolishness;
he multiplies words without knowledge."

Job 35 General Notes

Structure and formatting

According to Elihu, instead of being punished for his sins, Job is sinning in the midst of these difficulties. This is the third of Elihu's four statements and it is addressed first to Job's friends and then to Job. (See: sin and testimony)

The ULB sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. Elihu uses many of Job's statements against him.

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

Elihu uses many different rhetorical questions in this chapter in order to try to convince Job. These questions help to build Elihu's argument.

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

Ironical situation

Elihu explains the irony of Job's claim. He claimed to be righteous and desired Yahweh to intervene. In this chapter, Elihu explains to Job that his claims of righteousness are prideful. This makes him unrighteous. (See: and righteous)

Links:

Job 35:1 Notes

Job 35:1

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 35:2

Do you think this is just ... 'I am in the right before God'?

Elihu uses questions to challenge Job. Alternate translation:

"You must think you are right ... 'I am in the right before God.'" or "It is not just ... 'I am in the right before God.'"

Do you think this is just when you say

"Do you think it is right for you to say"

Do you think

Here "you" is singular and refers to Job.

say, 'I am in the right before God'?

This can be translated as an indirect quote. Alternate translation: "say that you are in the right before God."

I am in the right before God

Possible meanings are 1) Job is claiming to be innocent before God or 2) Job is claiming that he, rather than God, is right. Alternate translation: "I am more righteous than God"

Job 35:3

For you ask, 'What use is it to me?' and, 'Would I be better off if I had sinned?'

Elihu quotes Job as saying the these two rhetorical questions. Alternate translation: "For you say, 'It does not benefit me' and, 'I am no better off than if I had sinned.'"

Job 35:4

Connecting Statement:

Elihu continues speaking.

Job 35:5

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 35:6

Connecting Statement:

Elihu continues speaking.

If you have sinned ... what do you do to him?

These two lines share similar meanings. The second line intensifies the meaning of the first line.

If you have sinned, what harm do you do to God?

Elihu asks this question to emphasize that Job's sins cannot actually do anything to God. Alternate translation: "If you have sinned, you have not done any harm to God."

If your transgressions are many, what do you do to him?

Elihu asks this question to emphasize that Job does nothing to God by his transgressions. Alternate translation: "If you committed a great many transgressions, you still do nothing to him."

Job 35:7

If you are righteous, what can you give to him? What will he receive from your hand?

The two rhetorical questions mean basically the same thing, that Job's righteousness adds nothing to God.

Alternate translation: "If you are righteous, that does not enable you to give anything to him, and there is nothing that he will receive from your hand."

receive from your hand

Here the word "hand" represents Job. Alternate translation: "receive from you"

Job 35:8

another son of man

"another human-being" or "another person"

Job 35:9

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking.

Because of many acts of oppression

The word "oppression" can be translated with a verbal phrase. Alternate translation: "Because of the many things that people do to oppress others"

they call for help from the arms of mighty men

Here "arms" refers to power or strength. Alternate translation: "they call for someone to deliver them from the power of mighty men"

Job 35:10

who gives songs in the night

Elihu speaks of God enabling people to have hope in troubling circumstances as if he were giving to them songs which they can sing during the night.

Job 35:11

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 35:12

Connecting Statement:

Elihu continues speaking.

they cry out

"the oppressed people cry out"

Job 35:13

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 35:14

How much less will he answer you ... that you are waiting for him!

Since God will not hear the prayers of prideful, evil men, it is even less likely that he will hear Job, who is complaining against him. Alternate translation: "So he certainly will not answer you ... that you are waiting for him!"

that your case is before him

"you have presented your case to him"

you are waiting for him

"you are waiting for him to respond"

Job 35:15

General Information:

Elihu continues speaking.

Now you say that his anger does not punish, and he does not take even a little notice of transgression

Because Job is saying these things about God that are untrue, it is even less likely that God will answer Job's prayers.

his anger does not punish

Here "his anger" is a metonym for "him." Alternate translation: "he never punishes anyone because he is angry"

Job 35:16

he multiplies words without knowledge
Elihu speaks of "words" as if they were objects, and of speaking many words as if it were piling those objects one on top of the other. The word "knowledge" can be translated with a verbal phrase. Alternate translation: "he speaks many words without knowing what he is talking about"

Chapter 36

- ¹Elihu continued on and said, ² "Be patient with me a little longer, and I will show you some things because I have a little more to say in defense of God.
- ³ I will obtain my knowledge from far off;
I will acknowledge that righteousness belongs to my Maker.
- ⁴ For indeed, my words will not be false;
someone who is mature in knowledge is with you.
- ⁵ See, God is mighty, and despises no one;
he is mighty in strength of understanding.
- ⁶ He does not preserve the life of wicked people but gives justice those who suffer.
- ⁷ He does not withdraw his eyes from righteous people but sets them on thrones with kings forever, and they are lifted up.
- ⁸ If they are bound in chains and trapped in cords of suffering,
- ⁹ then he reveals to them what they have done,
and their transgressions and their pride.
- ¹⁰ He also opens their ears to his instruction, and commands them to turn back from iniquity.
- ¹¹ If they listen to him and worship him,
they will spend their days in prosperity,
their years in contentment.
- ¹² However, if they do not listen, they will perish by the sword;
they will die because they have no knowledge.
- ¹³ Those who are godless in heart store up their anger;
they do not cry out for help even when God ties them up.
- ¹⁴ They die in their youth;
their lives end among the cultic prostitutes.
- ¹⁵ God rescues afflicted people by means of their afflictions;
he opens their ears by means of their oppression.
- ¹⁶ Indeed, he would like to draw you out of distress into a broad place where there is no hardship

and where your table would be set with food full of fatness.

- ¹⁷ But you are full of judgment on wicked people;
judgment and justice have laid hold of you.
- ¹⁸ Do not let your anger entice you to mockery, or the greatness of a ransom to turn you aside.
- ¹⁹ Can your wealth benefit you, so that you will not be in distress, or can all the force of your strength help you?
- ²⁰ Do not desire the night, to commit sin against others,
when peoples are cut off in their place.
- ²¹ Be careful that you do not turn to wickedness because you are being tested by suffering so that you will stay away from sinning.
- ²² See, God is exalted in his power;
who is a teacher like him?
- ²³ Who has ever instructed him about his way?
Who can ever say to him, 'You have committed unrighteousness?'
- ²⁴ Remember to praise his deeds, of which people have sung.
- ²⁵ All people have looked on those deeds,
but they see those deeds only from far away.
- ²⁶ See, God is great, but we do not understand him well;
the number of his years is incalculable.
- ²⁷ For he draws up the drops of water that he distills as rain from his vapor, ¹
- ²⁸ which the clouds pour down and drop in abundance on mankind.
- ²⁹ Indeed, can anyone understand the extensive spread of the clouds and the thunder from his hut?
- ³⁰ See, he spreads his lightning around him
and covers the roots of the sea.
- ³¹ In this way he judges the peoples and gives food in abundance.
- ³² He fills his hands with the lightning until he commands it to strike its mark.
- ³³ Its thunder warns of the storm,
the cattle can also hear it is coming.

Some modern translations have that distill as rain from his vapor .

Job 36 General Notes

Structure and formatting

According to Elihu, instead of being punished for his sins, Job is sinning in the midst of these difficulties. This is the last of Elihu's four statements and it is addressed first to Job's friends and then to Job. (See: sin and testimony)

The ULB sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. His attitude is not too different from Job's friends.

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's justice

This chapter focuses on the justice of Yahweh. It is important to remember that justice won't always come in this life. (See: justice)

Links:

Job 36:1 Notes

Job 36:1

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 36:2

Be patient with me

"Allow me to speak"

I will show you some things

Elihu speaks of explaining things to Job as if he were going to show those things to Job. Alternate translation: "I will explain some things to you"

Job 36:3

I will obtain my knowledge from far off

Elihu speaks of having knowledge of many different subjects as if it were getting his knowledge from far away places. Alternate translation: "I will show you my great knowledge" that righteousness belongs to my Maker

Here the word "righteousness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "that my Maker is righteous"

Job 36:4

my words will not be false

"what I say will not be false"

someone who is mature in knowledge is with you

The word "someone" refers to Elihu himself. He speaks of being very knowledgeable as if it were being mature in knowledge. Alternate translation: "I, who am with you, am very knowledgeable"

Job 36:5

See

"Look" or "Listen" or "Pay attention to what I am about to tell you"

he is mighty in strength of understanding

The phrase "mighty in strength" forms a doublet that means "very strong." Elihu speaks of God understanding everything perfectly as if his understanding were very strong. Alternate translation: "he is very strong in understanding" or "he understands everything completely"

Job 36:6

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 36:7

He does not withdraw his eyes from righteous people

Elihu speaks of God protecting righteous people as if God were watching them with his eyes, and of God ceasing to protect them as if he withdrew his eyes from them.

Alternate translation: "He does not stop protecting the righteous people" sets them on thrones with kings

Elihu speaks of God honoring the righteous people as if God were causing them to sit on thrones with kings.

they are lifted up

Elihu speaks of God honoring the righteous people as if he lifted them up to a high place. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "he lifts them up" or "he honors them"

Job 36:8

If they are bound in chains

Here the word "they" refers righteous people whom God will discipline if they sin. This can be stated in active form.

Alternate translation: "If someone binds them in chains" or "If someone makes them a prisoner" trapped in cords of suffering

Elihu speaks of a person being made to suffer as if that person were trapped in ropes that cause suffering.

Alternate translation: "someone causes them to suffer"

Job 36:9

their transgressions and their pride

The verb may be supplied from the previous phrase.

Alternate translation: "he reveals to them their transgressions and their pride"

Job 36:10

He also opens their ears

Elihu speaks of causing a person to listen as if it were opening that person's ear. Alternate translation: "He also causes them to listen" to his instruction

The noun "instruction" can be translated with a verbal phrase. Alternate translation: "to what he is instructing them" to turn back from iniquity

Elihu speaks of stopping an action as if it were turning back from it. Alternate translation: "to stop committing iniquity"

Job 36:11

they will spend their days in prosperity, their years in contentment

The words "days" and "years" both refer to the person's lifetime. Alternate translation: "they will spend their lives in prosperity and contentment"

Job 36:12

they will perish by the sword

Elihu speaks of a person dying violently as if someone had killed them with a sword. Alternate translation: "they will die a violent death"

Job 36:13

who are godless in heart

Here the word "heart" refers to the thoughts and emotions. The phrase may indicate that the person stubbornly refuses to trust God. Alternate translation: "who refuse to trust in God"

store up their anger

Elihu speaks of a person remaining angry as if that person stored up their anger like one would store up treasure.

Alternate translation: "are always angry"

even when God ties them up

Elihu speaks of God disciplining people as if God were tying them up with ropes. Alternate translation: "even when God punishes them"

Job 36:14

their lives end among the cultic prostitutes

Here "cultic prostitutes" refers to young men who served in pagan temples performing sexually immoral acts as part of their rituals. Possible meanings for this phrase are 1) the godless die because of their immoral behavior or 2) the godless die in shame and disgrace.

Job 36:15

he opens their ears

Elihu speaks of God causing a person to listen as if God were opening their ears. See how you translated this in [Job 36:10]

Job 36:16

into a broad place where there is no hardship

Elihu speaks of living without trouble as if it were being in a wide-open space where there were no hardships.

where your table would be set with food full of fatness

Elihu speaks of living prosperously as if it were having one's table filled with the best foods.

your table would be set

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "your servants would set your table"

food full of fatness

Meat that had plenty of fat on it was a sign of prosperity because the animals were healthy and well-fed. Alternate translation: "the very best food"

Job 36:17

you are full of judgment on wicked people

Possible meanings are 1) "God is punishing you as he would punish the wicked" or 2) "you are obsessed with the judgment that the wicked deserve."

judgment and justice have laid hold of you

Elihu speaks of God judging Job and giving him justice as if judgment and justice were people that have laid hold of Job. Alternate translation: "God has brought you to judgment and given you justice"

Job 36:18

Do not let your anger entice you to mockery

Some versions of the Bible translate this as "Beware that you are not enticed by wealth."

Job 36:19

Can your wealth benefit you, so that you will not be in distress, or can all the force of your strength help you?

Elihu asks these questions to state that money and power will not be able to help Job if he acts unjustly. Alternate translation: "Your wealth cannot cause you to no longer be in distress, and all the force of your strength cannot help you."

all the force of your strength

"all of your great strength" or "all of your mighty efforts"

Job 36:20

when peoples are cut off in their place

Possible meanings are 1) that "peoples" refers to people in general and "cut off in their place" is a metaphor for oppressing others by dragging them away from their homes. Alternate translation: "when people drag others away from their homes" or 2) that "peoples" represents nations and "cut off in their place" is a metaphor for nations being destroyed. Alternate translation: "when nations will perish"

Job 36:21

you are being tested by suffering

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "God is testing you by making you suffer"

Job 36:22

See, God

"You know this already: God"

God is exalted in his power

Possible meanings are 1) "God is extremely powerful" or 2) "people exalt God because he is powerful"

who is a teacher like him?

Elihu asks this rhetorical question to emphasize that no one is a teacher like God. Alternate translation: "no one is a teacher like him." or "no one teaches like he does."

Job 36:23

Who has ever instructed him about his way?

Elihu asks this rhetorical question to emphasize that no one has ever taught God what to do. Alternate translation: "No one has ever instructed him about what he should do."

Who can ever say to him, 'You have committed unrighteousness?'

Elihu asks this rhetorical question to emphasize that no one can accuse God of having committed unrighteousness.

Alternate translation: "No one can ever say to him, 'You have committed unrighteousness.'"

Job 36:24

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 36:25

they see those deeds only from far away

Elihu speaks of people not being fully able to understand God's deeds as if people were only able to see those deeds from far away. Alternate translation: "they do not fully understand them"

Job 36:26

See

"Look" or "Listen" or "Pay attention to what I am about to tell you"

the number of his years is incalculable

This refers to how long God has existed. Alternate translation: "people cannot know how long he has lived" or "people cannot know his age"

Job 36:27

that he distills as rain from his vapor

The word "distills" can also mean "refine" or "filter." Elihu describes how God turns the drops of water, or vapor, that he draws up into rain. Alternate translation: "that he turns into rain"

Job 36:28

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 36:29

can anyone understand the extensive spread of the clouds and the thunder from his hut?

Elihu asks this rhetorical question to emphasize that no one can do these things. Alternate translation: "no one can understand the extensive spread of the clouds and the thunder from his hut."

the extensive spread of the clouds

The phrase "the extensive spread" can be translated with a verbal phrase. Alternate translation: "how the clouds spread across the sky"

from his hut

Elihu speaks of the sky as if it were a "hut" in which God lives. Alternate translation: "from the sky, where God lives"

Job 36:30

See, he spreads

"Look carefully and see how he spreads"

and covers the roots of the sea

Elihu speaks of the deep parts of the sea as if the sea were a plant and its depths were its roots. Possible meanings are 1) although the lightning causes light in the sky, the deep parts of the sea remain dark. Alternate translation: "but the depths of the sea remain dark" or 2) the lightning in the sky cause even the depths of the sea to have light. Alternate translation: "and lights up the depths of the sea"

Job 36:31

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 36:32

He fills his hands with the lightning

Elihu speaks of the lightning that storms cause as if God were holding the lightning in his hand and directing it to strike where he wills. Possible meanings are 1) that God holds the lightning bolts in his hands in order to throw them, or 2) that God hides the lightning bolts in his hands until he is ready to use them.

Job 36:33

Its thunder

"The thunder caused by the lightning" or "The thunder" hear it is coming

"hear that the storm is coming"

Chapter 37

- ¹ Indeed, my heart trembles at this;
it is moved out of its place.
- ² Hear, oh, hear the noise of his voice,
the sound that goes out from his mouth.
- ³ He sends it out under the whole sky, and he sends out his lightning to the edges of the earth.
- ⁴ A voice roars after it;
he thunders with the voice of his majesty;
he does not restrain the lightning bolts
when his voice is heard.
- ⁵ God thunders marvelously with his voice;
he does great things that we cannot comprehend.
- ⁶ For he says to the snow, 'Fall on the earth';
and to the rain shower, 'Be strong.'
- ⁷ He stops the hand of every man from working,
so that all people whom he has made may see his deeds.
- ⁸ Then the beasts go into hiding and stay in their dens.

- ⁹ The storm comes from its chamber in the south and the cold from the scattering winds in the north.
- ¹⁰ By the breath of God ice is given;
the expanse of the waters is frozen like metal.
- ¹¹ Indeed, he weighs down the thick cloud with moisture;
he scatters his lightning through the clouds.
- ¹² He swirls the clouds around by his guidance,
so that they may do whatever he commands them above the surface of the earthly world.
- ¹³ He makes all of this happen; sometimes it happens for correction, sometimes for his land, and sometimes as acts of covenant faithfulness.
- ¹⁴ Listen to this, Job;
stop and think about God's marvelous deeds.
- ¹⁵ Do you know how God establishes the clouds and makes the lightning bolts to flash in them?
- ¹⁶ Do you understand the floating of the clouds,
the marvelous deeds of God, who is perfect in knowledge?
- ¹⁷ Do you understand how your garments become hot when the land is still because the wind comes from the south?
- ¹⁸ Can you spread out the sky as he can—the sky, which is as strong as a mirror of cast metal?
- ¹⁹ Teach us what we should say to him, for we cannot lay out our arguments in order because of the darkness of our minds.
- ²⁰ Should he be told that I wish to speak with him?
Would a person wish to be swallowed up?
- ²¹ Now, people cannot look at the sun when it is bright in the sky after the wind has passed through and has cleared it of its clouds.
- ²² Out of the north comes golden splendor—
over God is fearsome majesty.
- ²³ As for the Almighty, we cannot find him!
He is great in power;
he does not oppress justice and abundant righteousness.
- ²⁴ Therefore, people fear him.
He does not pay any attention to those who are wise in their own minds."

Job 37 General Notes

Structure and formatting

According to Elihu, instead of being punished for his sins, Job is sinning in the midst of these difficulties. This is a continuation of the previous chapter and the last of Elihu's four statements, and it is addressed first to Job's friends and then to Job. (See: sin and testimony)

The ULB sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. His attitude is not too different from Job's friends.

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's justice

This chapter focuses on the justice of Yahweh. It is important to remember that justice won't always come in this life. (See: justice)

Links:

Job 37:1 Notes

Job 37:1

my heart trembles ... it is moved out of its place

These two phrases mean basically the same thing and emphasize the intensity of his fear.

my heart trembles at this

The word "this" refers to the storm in Job 36:33.

it is moved out of its place

Elihu speaks of his heart beating violently as if it were to jump out of his chest. Alternate translation: "it moves out of its place" or "it beats violently"

Job 37:2

the noise of his voice, the sound that goes out from his mouth

These two phrases mean basically the same thing. Elihu speaks of the thunder as if it is God's voice.

Job 37:3

to the edges of the earth

Elihu speaks of the farthest places on the earth as if they were the earth's borders. Alternate translation: "everywhere in the world"

Job 37:4

A voice roars after it ... the voice of his majesty

Elihu continues to speak of the thunder as if it is God's voice.

roars after it

"roars after the lightning"

the voice of his majesty

"his majestic voice"

when his voice is heard

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "when people hear his voice"

Job 37:5

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 37:6

and to the rain shower

The verb may be supplied from the previous phrase.

Alternate translation: "and in the same way he says to the rain shower"

Be strong

"Be a strong shower of rain"

Job 37:7

He stops the hand of every man

Here the word "hand" represents the entire person.

Alternate translation: "He stops every man"

Job 37:8

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 37:9

The storm comes from its chamber in the south and the cold from the scattering winds in the north

In Israel, strong wind storms blow in from the south and cold weather approaches from the north.

The storm comes from its chamber in the south

Elihu speaks of the storm blowing in from the south as if the storm has a place where it resides until it comes.

Job 37:10

By the breath of God ice is given

Elihu speaks of the cold north wind as if it were God's breath. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "God's breath makes ice" frozen like metal

Elihu compares the hardness of ice to the hardness of metal. Alternate translation: "frozen, as hard as metal"

Job 37:11

he weighs down the thick cloud with moisture

Elihu speaks of God causing the storm clouds to be full of water as if the moisture weighed heavily on the clouds. Alternate translation: "he causes the thick clouds to be full of moisture"

Job 37:12

the earthly world

Possible meanings are 1) "the land on which people live" or 2) "the land on which it is possible to live."

Job 37:13

sometimes it happens for correction

The word "correction" can be translated with a verbal phrase. The object of his "correction" is people. Alternate translation: "sometimes it happens to correct his people" sometimes for his land

This means that the rain waters the ground and causes vegetation to grow. Alternate translation: "sometimes to water the land" sometimes as acts of covenant faithfulness

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be stated as "faithful" or "faithfully." Alternate translation: "sometimes to act faithfully to his covenant" or "sometimes to be faithful to his people"

Job 37:14

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 37:15

Do you know how God establishes the clouds and makes the lightning bolts to flash in them?

Elihu asks this question to emphasize that Job cannot know this. Alternate translation: "You cannot understand how God establishes the clouds and makes the lightning bolts to flash in them."

establishes the clouds

"controls the clouds" or "makes the clouds obey him"

Job 37:16

Do you understand the floating of the clouds, the marvelous deeds of God, who is perfect in knowledge?

Elihu asks this question to emphasize that Job does not know these things. Alternate translation: "You do not understand the floating of the clouds, the marvelous deeds of God, who is perfect in knowledge."

the floating of the clouds

"how the clouds float"

the marvelous deeds of God

The verb may be supplied from the previous phrase.

Alternate translation: "or do you understand the marvelous deeds of God"

Job 37:17

Do you understand how your garments become hot ... from the south?

Elihu asks this question to emphasize that Job does not know these things. Alternate translation: "You do not understand how your garments become hot ... from the south."

how your garments become hot

"how you become hot in your clothes" or "how you sweat in your clothes"

because the wind comes from the south

In Israel, hot winds blow in across the desert from the south and cause hot temperatures. Alternate translation: "because of the hot, dry wind blowing in from the south"

Job 37:18

Can you spread out the sky ... a mirror of cast metal?

Elihu asks this question to emphasize that Job cannot do this. Alternate translation: "You cannot spread out the sky ... a mirror of cast metal."

as strong as a mirror of cast metal

In biblical days, mirrors were made of metal. Elihu speaks of the sky giving no rain as if it were as hard as solid metal. cast metal

This refers to metal that is melted, poured into a mold, and then hardens as it cools.

Job 37:19

Teach us what we should say to him

Here the words "us" and "we" refer to Elihu, Eliphaz, Bildad, and Zophar, but not to Job. Elihu uses this phrase sarcastically.

because of the darkness of our minds

Elihu speaks of the inability to understand as if it were having darkness in one's mind. Alternate translation:

"because we do not understand"

Job 37:20

Should he be told that I wish to speak with him?

Elihu asks this rhetorical question to emphasize that no one can do this. Alternate translation: "I cannot have someone tell him that I wish to speak with him."

Should he be told

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"Should I have someone tell him"

Would a person wish to be swallowed up?

Elihu asks this rhetorical question to emphasize that no one would want this to happen. Alternate translation: "No person would want to be swallowed up."

to be swallowed up

Elihu speaks of a person being destroyed as if the person were swallowed up. This can be stated in active form.

Alternate translation: "for God to destroy him"

Job 37:21

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 37:22

over God is fearsome majesty

The word "fearsome" means that it causes fear. Elihu speaks of God's majesty as if it were something that rests upon God. Alternate translation: "God's majesty causes people to fear"

Job 37:23

we cannot find him

Possible meanings are 1) "we cannot approach him" or 2) this is a metaphor in which Elihu speaks of a person's being unable to fully understand God as if he could not find God. Alternate translation: "we cannot comprehend him"

Job 37:24

those who are wise in their own minds

Here "minds" represents the person's thoughts. Alternate translation: "those who are wise in their own thinking" or "those who consider themselves to be wise"

Chapter 38

¹Then Yahweh called to Job out of a fierce storm and said,

² "Who is this who brings darkness to plans
by means of words without knowledge?

³ Now gird up your loins like a man for I will ask you questions, and you must answer me.

⁴ Where were you when I laid the earth's foundations?
Tell me, if you have so much understanding.

- ⁵ Who determined its dimensions? Tell me, if you know.
Who stretched the measuring line over it?
- ⁶ On what were its foundations laid?
Who laid its cornerstone
- ⁷ when the morning stars sang together and all the sons of God shouted for joy?
- ⁸ Who shut up the sea with doors when it burst out, as if it had come out of the womb—
- ⁹ when I made clouds its clothing, and thick darkness its swaddling bands?
- ¹⁰ That was when I marked out for the sea my boundary, and when I placed its bars and doors,
- ¹¹ and when I said to it, 'You may come this far, but no farther;
here is where I will put a boundary to the pride of your waves.'
- ¹² Have you given orders to the morning, or caused the dawn to know its place,
- ¹³ so that it might take hold of the edges of the earth and shake the wicked out of it?
- ¹⁴ The earth is changed in appearance like clay changes under a seal;
all things on it stand out clearly like the folds of a piece of clothing.
- ¹⁵ From wicked people their light is taken away;
their uplifted arm is broken.
- ¹⁶ Have you gone to the springs of the sea?
Have you walked in the lowest parts of the deep?
- ¹⁷ Have the gates of death been revealed to you?
Have you seen the gates of the shadow of death?
- ¹⁸ Have you understood the earth in its expanse?
Tell me, if you know it all.
- ¹⁹ Where is the way to the resting place of light—as for darkness, where is its place?
- ²⁰ Can you lead light and darkness to their places of work?
Can you find the way back to their houses for them?
- ²¹ Undoubtedly you know, for you were born then;

the number of your days is so large!

- ²² Have you entered the storehouses for the snow, or have you seen the storehouses for the hail,
- ²³ these things that I have kept for times of trouble, for days of battle and war?
- ²⁴ What is the path to where the lightning bolts are distributed or to where the winds are scattered from the east over the earth?
- ²⁵ Who has created the channels for the floods of rain,
or who has made a path for the thunder,
- ²⁶ to cause it to rain on lands where no person exists, and on the wilderness, in which there is no one,
- ²⁷ to satisfy the devastated and desolate places,
and to make the ground sprout with grass?
- ²⁸ Does the rain have a father, or, who fathers the drops of dew?
- ²⁹ Out of whose womb did the ice come?
Who bore the white frost out of the sky?
- ³⁰ The waters hide themselves and become like stone;
the surface of the deep becomes frozen.
- ³¹ Can you fasten chains on the Pleiades, or undo the cords of Orion?
- ³² Can you lead the constellations to appear at their proper times?
Can you guide the Bear with its children?
- ³³ Do you know the regulations of the sky?
Could you set in place the sky's rule over the earth?
- ³⁴ Can you raise your voice up to the clouds,
so that an abundance of rainwater may cover you?
- ³⁵ Can you send out bolts of lightning that they may go out, that they say to you, 'Here we are'?
- ³⁶ Who has put wisdom in the clouds or has given understanding to the mists?
- ³⁷ Who can number the clouds by his skill?
Who can pour out the water skins of the sky
- ³⁸ when the dust runs into a hard mass and the clods of earth clump tightly together?

³⁹ Can you hunt down a victim for a lioness or satisfy the appetite of her young lion cubs

⁴⁰ when they are crouching in their dens and sheltering in hiding to lie in wait?

⁴¹ Who provides victims for the ravens when their young ones cry out to God and stagger about for lack of food?

Job 38 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULB sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. Yahweh finally speaks in this chapter.

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's greatness

Yahweh is far greater than any man. He is the creator of the earth, and his ways will not always be understood by men because their knowledge is always limited.

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

Yahweh uses a series of rhetorical questions in this chapter in order to defend his character.

Links:

Job 38:1 Notes

Job 38:1

Then Yahweh called

Here, the word "then" marks the beginning of a new part of the book. See if your language has a similar way to introduce a new scene. Alternate translation: "After all that had happened, Yahweh called.

called to Job

"answered Job" or "responded to Job"

out of a fierce storm

"from a powerful storm"

Job 38:2

Who is this who brings darkness to plans by means of words without knowledge?

Yahweh uses this question to emphasize that Job spoke of things he did not know about. It can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "You bring darkness to my plans by means of words without knowledge."

Who is this who brings

"Who are you to bring"

brings darkness to plans

"obscures my plans" or "confuses my purposes." How Job confuses God's plans is spoken of as if he were making God's plans harder to see. The abstract noun "darkness" can be translated as the verb "darkens." Alternate translation: "darkens plans" or "makes plans hard to see"

by means of words without knowledge

"by speaking of things about which you do not know"

words without knowledge

The abstract noun "knowledge" can be translated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "unknowing words" or "ignorant words"

Job 38:3

gird up your loins like a man

"tie your robe up around your waist like a man." Men tied up their robes around their waists so that their legs could move more freely as they did heavy work. The idiom "gird up your loins like a man" means to get ready to do something involving action such as work, a contest, or a battle. Job was to prepare for the hard work of answering God. Alternate translation: "get yourself ready for hard work"

Job 38:4

General Information:

Yahweh begins to challenge Job with a series of questions that emphasize he created the earth and Job did not.

Where were you when I laid the earth's foundations? Tell me, if you have so much understanding

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "Tell me where you were when I laid the foundations of the earth, if you have so much understanding"

I laid the earth's foundations

Yahweh describes creating the earth as though he was building a structure.

if you have so much understanding

The abstract noun "understanding" can be translated as the verb "understand." Alternate translation: "if you understand so much"

Job 38:5

Who determined its dimensions? Tell me, if you know

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation:

"Tell me who determined its dimensions, if you know" dimensions

"size"

Who stretched the measuring line over it?

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation:

"Tell me who stretched the measuring line over it."

measuring line

a rope or cord that people use to make something the right size and shape

Job 38:6

General Information:

The word "its" refers to the earth. Yahweh uses more questions to emphasize that Job could never understand how great God is.

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

On what were its foundations laid?

This can be stated in active form. This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "On what did I set its foundations?" or "Tell me on what its foundations were laid."

Who laid its cornerstone

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation:

"Tell me who laid its cornerstone"

Job 38:7

Connecting Statement:

Job finishes the rhetorical question that begins with the words "Who laid its cornerstone" in verse 6.

when the morning stars ... the sons of God shouted for joy?

Job finishes the rhetorical question that begins with the words "Who laid its cornerstone" in verse 6. This can be translated as a statement. "Tell me who laid its cornerstone when the morning stars ... the sons of God shouted for joy."

when the morning stars sang together

The morning stars are spoken of as singing like people sing.

Possible meanings are: 1) the "morning stars" are the same as the "sons of God" in the next line or 2) "the morning stars" refer to stars in the sky.

the morning stars

"the bright stars that shine in the morning"

sons of God

This refers to angels, heavenly beings. See how you translated this in Job 1:6.

shouted for joy

The abstract noun "joy" can be translated as the adverb

"joyfully." Alternate translation: "shouted joyfully" for joy

"because they were full of joy"

Job 38:8

General Information:

Yahweh uses another question to emphasize that he created the earth and Job did not.

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

Who shut up the sea ... of the womb

This can be translated as a command. Alternate translation:

"Tell me who shut up the sea ... of the womb"

shut up the sea with doors

Yahweh compares the way that he prevented the sea from covering all of the earth to holding it back with doors.

Alternate translation: "prevented the water from flooding over the land"

as if it had come out of the womb

Yahweh compares his creation of the sea to childbirth.

Job 38:9

Connecting Statement:

This is the end of the rhetorical question that begins with the words "Who shut up" in verse 8.

when I made clouds ... and thick darkness its swaddling bands?

This can be translated as a command. Alternate translation:

"Tell me who shut up ... when I made clouds ... and thick darkness its swaddling bands."

its clothing

"as clothes for the sea"

thick darkness its swaddling bands

The abstract noun "darkness" can be translated as the adjective "dark." Alternate translation: "made dark clouds its swaddling bands"

swaddling bands

long pieces of cloth that people use to wrap a baby in after it is born

Job 38:10

I marked out for the sea my boundary

"I made a boundary for the sea"

boundary

Yahweh set a limit beyond which the sea was not allowed to cross.

I placed its bars and doors

Yahweh compares the way that he made a boundary for the sea to containing the sea with bars and doors. Alternate translation: "I set up its barriers" bars

long pieces of wood or metal that are used to keep a door shut

Job 38:11

when I said to it

"when I said to the sea." Yahweh speaks to the sea as though it were a person.

You may come this far, but no farther

The words "this far" mean only as far as the boundary that Yahweh set up. Alternate translation: "You may come as far as this boundary, but no farther" to the pride of your waves

"to the power of your waves." The waves are spoken of as if they could have pride. The abstract noun "pride" can be translated as the adjective "proud." Alternate translation:

"to your proud waves" or "to your powerful waves"

Job 38:12

General Information:

Yahweh uses a question to emphasize that he created the light of day and Job did not.

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job. He begins to ask a rhetorical question.

Have you ... to know its place

This question expects a negative answer. It can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "You have never ... shaken the wicked out of it."

given orders to the morning

Yahweh describes the morning as being able to receive orders and know things like a person.

caused the dawn to know its place

"caused the dawn to know where it belongs"

dawn

the daylight that appears in the morning sky before the sun rises

Job 38:13

Connecting Statement:

This is the end of the rhetorical question that begins with the words "Have you given" in verse 12.

so that it might take hold ... shake the wicked out of it?

This is the end of the rhetorical question that begins with the words "Have you given" in verse 12. This question expects a negative answer. It can be translated as a statement. "You have never given ... so that it might take hold ... shaken the wicked out of it."

take hold of the edges of the earth

The light of dawn is spoken of as if it seizes the horizons of the earth. Alternate translation: "grasp the ends of the earth"

shake the wicked out of it

The daylight is pictured as causing wicked people to leave like shaking something to remove unwanted things.

Alternate translation: "shake wicked people out of the earth"

Job 38:14

The earth is changed in appearance like clay changes under a seal. At nighttime, people cannot see clearly, but in the morning the light reveals the distinct shape of everything, just like a seal creates distinct images in clay.

all things on it stand out clearly like the folds of a piece of clothing

Here "it" refers to the earth. This phrase has a similar meaning to the first phrase in this verse.

Job 38:15

From wicked people their light is taken away

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "The morning takes away the 'light' of wicked people" their light

The wicked consider darkness to be their light, because they do their evil deeds in the darkness and they are familiar with the darkness.

their uplifted arm is broken

The raised arm of the wicked represents their power and intention to do evil things, but the wicked stop doing those evil things when the morning light comes.

Job 38:16

General Information:

Yahweh uses five questions to emphasize that he understands the earth and seas and Job does not.

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

Have you gone to the springs of the sea?

This can be expressed as a statement. Alternate translation: "You have not gone to the springs of the sea."

Have you walked in the lowest parts of the deep?

This can be expressed as a statement. Alternate translation: "You have not walked in the lowest parts of the deep."

the springs of the sea

"the sources of the sea"

the deep

This refers to the sea or ocean where the water is very deep. Alternate translation: "the deep sea" or "the ocean depths" or "the deep water"

Job 38:17

Have the gates of death been revealed to you

Death is spoken of as if it were a city that had gates through which people enter into it. This can be expressed in active form. Alternate translation: "Has anyone shown the gates of death to you"

the shadow of death

See how you translated this in Job 3:5.

Job 38:18

Have you understood the earth in its expanse?

This can be expressed as a statement. Alternate translation: "You do not understand the earth in its expanse."

the earth in its expanse

"the great broad places of the earth"

if you know it all

"if you know all about these things"

Job 38:19

General Information:

Yahweh uses three questions to emphasize that he understands light and darkness and Job does not. Each of these verses have two parallel phrases.

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

Where is the way to the resting place of light—as for darkness, where is its place?

This question can be expressed as a statement. Alternate translation: "You do not know the way to the resting place of light or the place of darkness."

the resting place of light

"the dwelling of light." Light is spoken of as having a resting place from which it comes forth each day.

light

"daylight" or "sunlight"

Job 38:20

Can you lead light and darkness to their places of work? Can you find the way back to their houses for them?

These questions expect a negative answer. They can be expressed as statements. Alternate translation: "You cannot lead light and darkness to their places of work, or find the way back to their houses for them."

to their places of work

"to their territory." Light and darkness are spoken of as being led out and back each day to accomplish Yahweh's purposes.

Job 38:21

Undoubtedly ... so large

Yahweh uses mocking irony to emphasize that Job does not understand light and darkness. Alternate translation: "It is obvious that you do not know, because you were not born when I created them, and you are not very old"

for you were born then

"for you were already living then." The word "then" refers to the time when light was created and separated from darkness. Alternate translation: "for you were already born when I created them"

the number of your days is so large

"you have lived so many years"

Job 38:22

General Information:

Yahweh uses a question to emphasize that he rules over the natural world and Job does not.

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job. He begins to ask a rhetorical question.

storehouses for the snow ... storehouses for the hail

Snow and hail are pictured as being stored by Yahweh to do his will.

hail

balls of ice (usually small) that sometimes fall down from the sky during a storm

Job 38:23

Connecting Statement:

The rhetorical question that begins with the words "Have you entered" in verse 22 ends here.

these things that I have kept ... and war?

The rhetorical question that begins with the words "Have you entered" in verse 22 ends here. "You have never entered the storehouses for the snow, and you have never seen the storehouses for the hail, these things that I have kept ... and war."

these things that I have kept

The words "these things" refer to the snow and the hail (verse 22).

Job 38:24

What is the path to where the lightning bolts are distributed or to where the winds are scattered from the east over the earth?

These can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"What is the path to where I distribute the lightning bolts or to where I scatter the winds from the east over the earth?"

the winds are scattered

"the winds are blown"

Job 38:25

General Information:

Yahweh questions Job to emphasize that he causes it to rain and thunder and Job does not.

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job. He begins to ask a series of rhetorical questions.

Who has created the channels for the floods of rain

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation:

"Only I have created the channels for the floods of rain"

or who has made a path for the thunder

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation:

"and only I have made a path for the thunder"

the floods of rain

"the torrents of rain"

a path for the thunder

"a way for the rumble of thunder to be heard."

Job 38:26

on lands where no person exists, and on the wilderness, in which there is no one

These two phrases have nearly the same meaning.

where no person exists

"where there are no people"

Job 38:27

Connecting Statement:

The rhetorical question that begins with the words "Who has created" in verse 25 ends here.

to satisfy ... sprout with grass?

The rhetorical question that begins with the words "Who has created" in verse 25 ends here. This can be translated as a statement. "I am the one who has created ... of rain, and I am the one who has made ... to satisfy ... sprout with grass."

to satisfy

The implied information is that it is the rain that meets the needs of the land to grow grass. Alternate translation: "so that the rain can satisfy the needs of"

devastated and desolate

"ruined and wasted." These two words have nearly the same meaning and emphasize the ruined and empty nature of these regions.

with grass

"the new grass" or "the fresh grass." This is grass that is just starting to grow.

make the ground sprout with

"make the ground support new grass"

Job 38:28

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh begins a series of four questions to emphasize to Job that he makes rain, dew, ice, and frost and Job does not. Rain, dew, ice, and frost are spoken of as though they could be born like people are.

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

Does the rain have a father, or, who fathers the drops of dew?

These can be translated as statements. Alternate translation: "Tell me who the rain's father is, and tell me who has become the father of the drops of dew."

fathers the drops of dew

Becoming the father of the dew is a metaphor for creating it. Alternate translation: "causes the drops of dew to exist"

Job 38:29

Out of whose womb did the ice come? Who bore the white frost out of the sky?

These can be translated as statements. Alternate translation: "Tell me whose womb the ice came out of. Tell me who bore the white frost out of the sky."

ice

"frozen water"

bore

"gave birth to"

the white frost

dew that freezes on the ground on cold, clear nights

Job 38:30

The waters hide themselves and become like stone

The waters are spoken of as being able to hide. During the winter the ice hides the water underneath it.

become like stone

The hardness of ice is spoken of as if it was stone. Alternate translation: "become hard like stone"

the deep

This refers to the sea or ocean where the water is very deep. Alternate translation: "the deep sea" or "the ocean depths" or "the deep water"

Job 38:31

General Information:

Yahweh uses five questions to emphasize to Job that he rules the heavens and Job does not.

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

Can you fasten chains on the Pleiades, or undo the cords of Orion?

These can be translated as statements. Alternate translation: "You cannot fasten chains on the Pleiades, and you cannot undo the cords of Orion."

fasten chains on

"bind chains onto" or "tie the bonds of"

the Pleiades ... Orion

These are the names of constellations. See how you translated them in Job 9:9.

undo the cords of Orion

"loosen the cords that hold Orion"

Job 38:32

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

Can you lead the constellations ... proper times? Can you guide ... children?

These rhetorical questions can be translated as statements. Alternate translation: "You cannot lead the constellations ... proper times. You cannot guide ... children."

constellations groups of stars that seem like they form a particular shape in the sky

to appear at their proper times

"so that they appear at the right time"

the Bear

This is the name of a constellation. Translate as in Job 9:9.

its children

"its cubs"

Job 38:33

Do you know the regulations of the sky? Could you set in place the sky's rule over the earth?

These can be translated as statements. Alternate translation: "You do not know the regulations of the sky? You could not set in place the sky's rule over the earth."

Job 38:34

General Information:

Yahweh uses two questions to emphasize to Job that he rules the rain clouds and lightning and Job does not.

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

Can you raise ... may cover you?

These can be translated as statements. Alternate translation: "You cannot raise ... may cover you."

an abundance of rainwater

The abstract noun "abundance" can be translated as the adjective "abundant." Alternate translation: "an abundant amount of rainwater" or "a flood of waters"

Job 38:35

Can you send out ... you, 'Here we are'?

These can be translated as statements. Alternate translation: "You cannot send out you, 'Here we are!'"

Here we are

The lightning bolts are spoken of as servants saying they are ready to follow commands.

Job 38:36

General Information:

Yahweh uses three questions to emphasize to Job that he rules the clouds and rain and Job does not.

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

Who has put wisdom in the clouds or has given understanding to the mists?

These questions can be translated as statements. Alternate translation: "I am the one who has put wisdom in the clouds and given understanding to the mists."

has put wisdom in the clouds

"has given wisdom to the clouds"

Job 38:37

Connecting Statement:

A rhetorical question begins here.

Who can pour out the water skins of the sky

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "I am the one who can pour out the water skins of the sky."

the water skins

These are skins that people sew together so that they can hold water. Yahweh refers to the thick clouds as "waters skins" because they hold much water just like water skins.

Job 38:38

when the dust runs ... tightly together?

The rhetorical question that begins with the words "Who can pour out" in verse 37 ends here. "Only I can pour out ... when the dust runs ... tightly together."

when the dust runs into a hard mass

The rain makes the loose dry dirt stick together like one piece of dirt. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "when the rain molds the dirt into a hard mass"

the clods of earth clump tightly together

"the lumps of soil stick together"

Job 38:39

General Information:

Yahweh uses a question to emphasize that he knows how to feed the lions and Job does not.

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

Can you hunt down a victim for a lioness or satisfy the appetite of her young lion cubs

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "You know that you cannot hunt down a victim for a lioness or satisfy the appetite of her young lion cubs"

a victim

"prey." This is an animal that a lion could eat.
 lioness
 This is a female lion.
 appetite hunger
 of her young lion cubs
 "of young lions." These are young lions that are old enough to hunt for themselves.
 Job 38:40
 Connecting Statement:
 The rhetorical question that begins with the words "Can you hunt" in verse 39 ends here.
 when they are crouching ... to lie in wait?
 The rhetorical question that begins with the words "Can you hunt" in verse 39 ends here. This can be translated as a statement. "You know that you cannot hunt down ... when they are crouching ... to lie in wait."
 dens
 A "den" is a lair or shelter where lions live.
 sheltering in hiding
 "hiding in a thicket." Lions hide in thick vegetation when hunting their prey.
 to lie in wait
 The implied information is that the lions are hiding and waiting for their prey to come near. Alternate translation:

"to lie waiting for a victim"
 Job 38:41
 General Information:
 Yahweh uses a question to emphasize that he provides food for the ravens and Job does not.
 Connecting Statement:
 Yahweh continues to challenge Job.
 Who provides victims ... for lack of food?
 This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation:
 "Tell me who provides victims ... for lack of food."
 provides victims
 "provides food." This refers to animals that ravens look for and can eat.
 ravens
 large birds with shiny black feathers that feed on dead animals
 cry out to God
 The implied information is that the ravens are crying out for food. Alternate translation: "cry to God for help" or "cry out for God to give them food" stagger about
 This means to walk around in an unsteady way.
 for lack of food
 "because they have no food" or "because they have nothing to eat"

Chapter 39

- ¹ Do you know at what time the wild goats in the rocks bear their young?
 Can you watch when the deer are having their fawns?
- ² Can you count the months that they gestate?
 Do you know the time when they bear their young?
- ³ They crouch down and give birth to their young,
 and then they finish their labor pains.
- ⁴ Their young ones become strong and grow up in the open fields;
 they go out and do not return to them.
- ⁵ Who sent the wild donkey out free?
 Who has untied the bonds of the swift donkey,
- ⁶ whose home I have made in the Arabah,
 his house in the salt land?
- ⁷ He laughs in scorn at the noises in the city;
 he does not hear the driver's shouts.
- ⁸ He roams over the mountains as his pastures;
 there he looks for every green plant to eat.
- ⁹ Will the wild ox be happy to serve you?
 Will he consent to stay by your manger?

- ¹⁰ Can you use ropes to hold the wild ox in the furrows?
Will he harrow the valleys as he follows after you?
- ¹¹ Will you trust him because his strength is great?
Will you leave your labor to him to do?
- ¹² Will you depend on him to bring your grain home,
to gather the grain for your threshing floor?
- ¹³ The wings of the ostrich wave proudly,
but are they the pinions and plumage of love?
- ¹⁴ For she leaves her eggs on the earth, and she lets them keep warm in the dust;
- ¹⁵ she forgets that a foot might crush them or that a wild beast might trample them.
- ¹⁶ She deals roughly with her young ones as if they were not hers;
she does not fear that her labor might have been in vain,
- ¹⁷ because God has deprived her of wisdom and has not given her any understanding.
- ¹⁸ When she runs swiftly,
she laughs in scorn at the horse and its rider.
- ¹⁹ Have you given the horse his strength?
Did you clothe his neck with his flowing mane?
- ²⁰ Have you ever made him jump like a locust?
The majesty of his snorting is fearsome.
- ²¹ He paws in might and rejoices in his strength;
he rushes out to meet the weapons.
- ²² He mocks fear and is not dismayed;
he does not turn back from the sword.
- ²³ The quiver rattles against his flank,
along with the flashing spear and the javelin.
- ²⁴ He swallows up ground with fierceness and rage;
at the sound of the ram's horn, he cannot stand in one place.
- ²⁵ Whenever the ram's horn sounds, he says, 'Aha!'
He smells the battle from far away—
the thunderous shouts of the commanders and the outcries.
- ²⁶ Is it by your wisdom that the hawk soars,
that he stretches out his wings for the south?
- ²⁷ Is it at your orders that the eagle mounts up and makes his nest in high places?

²⁸ He lives on cliffs and makes his home on the peaks of cliffs, a stronghold.

²⁹ From there he searches for victims;
his eyes see them from very far away.

³⁰ His young also drink up blood; where killed people are, there he is."

Job 39 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The ULB sets the lines of this chapter farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text because it is a poem. Yahweh continues to speak in this chapter.

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's greatness

Yahweh is far greater than any man. He is the creator of the earth, and his ways will not always be understood by men because their knowledge is always limited. Since Job cannot understand creation, he cannot truly understand Yahweh.

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

Yahweh uses a series of rhetorical questions in this chapter in order to defend his character. Many of these questions focus on nature because Yahweh is the creator of the heavens and the earth. (See: and heaven)

Links:

Job 39:1 Notes

Job 39:1

General Information:

Yahweh uses four questions to emphasize that he is greater than Job because Yahweh takes care of the wild mountain goats and deer and Job does not.

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

Do you know at what time ... bear their young?

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "Surely you do not know when ... bear their young!"

Can you watch when the deer are having their fawns?

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "You are not able to watch to make sure everything goes well when the deer give birth to their fawns!"

are having their fawns

"give birth to their fawns"

Job 39:2

Can you count the months that they gestate?

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "You cannot count the months that they are pregnant."

that they gestate

"to complete their pregnancy"

they

The word "they" refers to the goats and the deer.

gestate

"are pregnant"

Do you know the time when they bear their young?

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "Of course you do not know when they give birth to their young."

Job 39:3

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

They crouch down

The word "They" refers to the wild mountain goats and the deer.

then they finish their labor pains

Possible meanings are 1) their labor pains are over when the birth is finished or 2) "labor pains" is a metonym that refers to the offspring of the goats and deer because they are the result of the mother's labor and pain. Alternate translation: "send out their offspring from their womb"

Job 39:4

the open fields

"the countryside" or "the wild"

do not return to them

"do not come back to them" or "do not come back to their mothers"

Job 39:5

General Information:

Yahweh uses two questions to emphasize that he is greater than Job because Yahweh takes care of the wild donkeys and Job does not.

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

Who sent the wild donkey out free?

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "I am the one who sent the wild donkey out free."

the wild donkey ... the swift donkey

These are different names for the same kind of donkey.

Who has untied the bonds of the swift donkey

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation:

"I am the one who untied the bonds of the swift donkey"

bonds

ropes, chains, or straps that hold an animal and keep it from running away

Job 39:6

General Information:

The rhetorical question that begins with the words "Who has untied" in verse 5 ends here.

whose home I have made ... in the salt land?

The rhetorical question that begins with the words "Who has untied" in verse 5 ends here. This can be translated as a statement. "I am the one who has untied ... whose home I have made in the Arabah, his house in the salt land."

whose home I have made in the Arabah

Yahweh describes the donkey as though he were a person that had a house. "I gave him the Arabah as a place to live"

the salt land

the land around the Salt Sea that has a lot of salt in it

Job 39:7

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

He

The word "He" refers to the wild donkey.

laughs in scorn

Yahweh describes the donkey as though he were a person.

The donkey laughs because those in the city have to hear loud noise, but he lives in a quiet place.

the driver's someone who forces an animal to work

Job 39:8

pastures

places where animals can eat plants growing in the field

Job 39:9

General Information:

Here Yahweh uses four questions to emphasize that Job is not like Yahweh because Job cannot control the wild ox.

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

Will the wild ox be happy to serve you?

This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "The wild ox will not be happy to serve you."

the wild ox

Possible meanings are 1) a type of ox that used to live in the wild or 2) some kind of buffalo that looked like oxen.

be happy

"be willing"

Will he consent to stay by your manger?

This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "He will not consent to stay by your manger."

consent to stay by your manger

"stay by your manger through the night" manger

something that holds food so that animals can eat it

Job 39:10

Can you use ropes to hold the wild ox in the furrows?

This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "You cannot control the wild ox with a rope in order to plow furrows in your fields."

ropes

Farmers would tie ropes to animals' heads or necks in order to lead them.

furrows

These are long channels made in the dirt while plowing.

See how you translated this in Job 31:38.

Will he harrow the valleys as he follows after you?

This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "He will never harrow the valleys as he follows after you."

harrow

to smooth and break up the soil

Job 39:11

General Information:

Here Yahweh uses three questions to continue his argument that Job is not like Yahweh because Job cannot control the wild ox.

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

Will you trust him because his strength is great?

This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "You cannot trust him because his strength is great."

trust him

The word "him" refers to the "wild ox."

Will you leave your labor to him to do?

This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "You will not be able to make him do your labor for you."

leave your labor to him to do

"have him do your hard work for you"

Job 39:12

Will you depend on him ... grain for your threshing floor?

These two clauses basically mean the same thing. This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "You will not be able to depend on him ... grain for your threshing floor."

Job 39:13

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

The wings of the ostrich ... pinions and plumage of love?

Yahweh uses this question to emphasize that Job cannot explain why ostriches behave the way they do. Alternate translation: "You do not know whether the pinions and plumage of the ostrich represent love when they wave their wings proudly."

ostrich

a very large bird that can run very fast but cannot fly wave proudly

"move with joy"

pinions

the very long feathers on the wings of birds plumage

the smaller feathers that cover the body of a bird of love

The Hebrew word is uncertain. Possible meanings are 1) "of faithfulness" or 2) "of a stork." The name of the stork meant "the faithful one" or "the loving one" because people knew that storks take very good care of their chicks.

Job 39:14

on the earth

"on the ground"

Job 39:15

crush them

The word "them" refers to the eggs.

trample them

"step on them"

Job 39:16

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

She deals roughly

The word "She" refers to the female ostrich.

her labor

the work that she does when she lays the eggs

might have been in vain

If the chicks die, all of her work was useless. Alternate translation: "might have been useless if the chicks die"

Job 39:17

deprived her of wisdom

"made her forget wisdom" or "not given her wisdom"

understanding

See how you translated this in Job 11:6.

Job 39:18

When she runs

This verse is in contrast to her weakness in caring for her chicks. Alternate translation: "However, when she runs"

she laughs ... its rider

It is implied that she laughs because she is faster than the horse. Alternate translation: "she laughs ... its rider because she can run faster than the horse"

Job 39:19

General Information:

Yahweh uses three questions to emphasize that Job is not like Yahweh because Job cannot control the wild horse.

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

Have you given the horse his strength?

This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "You have never given the horse his strength."

Did you clothe his neck with his flowing mane?

This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "You cannot clothe his neck with his flowing mane."

clothe his neck with his flowing mane

The horse's "mane" is spoken of as if it was clothing for the neck of the horse. Alternate translation: "made his flowing mane to cover his neck like clothes" flowing mane

the long hair on the top of the neck of a horse

Job 39:20

Have you ever made him jump like a locust?

This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "You are not able to make him jump like a locust."

a locust

a large kind of grasshopper that can jump very far and very quickly snorting

a very loud sound that horses make with their nose

Job 39:21

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

He paws

The word "He" refers to the horse. The horse paws the ground because he is very excited to begin the fight.

Alternate translation: "He paws with excitement and"

paws

"digs at the ground with his hooves"

to meet the weapons

Here "the weapons" represent the battle in which they are used. Alternate translation: "to join in the battle"

Job 39:22

He mocks fear

"He is not afraid at all"

mocks

"laughs at"

dismayed

discouraged

does not turn back

"does not run away"

Job 39:23

quiver

a container that holds arrows rattles

shakes and makes noise

flank

the side of a horse

javelin

a long stick with a sharp end that people throw at their enemies

Job 39:24

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

He

The word "He" refers to the horse.

swallows up ground

The horse runs over the ground so quickly that the ground passes by like water that a person drinks. Alternate translation: "runs very fast over the ground" with fierceness and rage

The horse is very excited, so he moves quickly and strongly. at the sound of the ram's horn

It can be stated that someone blows the ram's horn.

Alternate translation: "when someone blows a ram's horn to announce that a battle has begun"

he cannot stand in one place

"he is too excited to stand still"

Job 39:25

he says, 'Aha

The word "Aha" is a sound people make when they discover something. The horse makes a sound because he has discovered the battle.

the thunderous shouts

It is implied that the horse hears these things. Alternate translation: "he hears the thunderous shouts" the outcries

"the battle cries." People have special shouts that they use in war to show their great strength and bravery and to scare the enemy.
Job 39:26
Connecting Statement:
Yahweh continues to challenge Job.
Is it by your wisdom ... for the south?
Yahweh uses this question to prove that Job is not as great as Yahweh. The implicit answer to this question is "no." Alternate translation: "It is not by your wisdom ... for the south."
stretches out his wings for the south
Here the stretching out of his wings refers to flying.
Alternate translation: "flies to the south"
for the south
In the biblical geography, birds fly south during the winter in order to live in warmer climates.
Job 39:27
Connecting Statement:
Yahweh continues to challenge Job.
Is it at your orders ... nest in high places?
Yahweh uses this question to prove that Job is not powerful enough to command the eagles. The implicit answer to this question is "no." Alternate translation: "You are not able to command the eagle to mount up and build his nest in high places."
at your orders
The abstract noun "orders" can be stated as a verb.
Alternate translation: "because you tell it to do so"

mounts up
This means he flies upward. Alternate translation: "flies up into the sky"
Job 39:28
a stronghold
The high cliffs are strongholds for eagles because the animals that would want to eat them cannot reach them.
Job 39:29
Connecting Statement:
Yahweh continues to challenge Job.
he searches for victims
Here the word "he" refers to the eagle.
for victims
"for animals that he can kill and eat"
his eyes see them Here "his eyes" refer to the eagle. Alternate translation: "he sees them"
Job 39:30
His young
"The baby eagles." It may be helpful to state that this happens after the eagle kills an animal. Alternate translation: "After an eagle kills an animal, the baby eagles" drink up blood
"drink the blood of the animal that he killed" where killed people are
"where there are dead people." This phrase refers to dead bodies that are lying out in the open, not to bodies that are buried in the ground.
there he is
It can be made explicit that he comes to eat the dead bodies. Alternate translation: "he is there to eat them"

Chapter 40

- ¹Yahweh continued to speak to Job; he said,
² "Should anyone who wishes to criticize try to correct the Almighty?
He who argues with God, let him answer."
³Then Job answered Yahweh and said,
⁴ "See, I am insignificant; how can I answer you?
I put my hand over my mouth.
⁵ I spoke once, and I will not answer;
indeed, twice, but I will proceed no further."
⁶Then Yahweh answered Job out of a fierce storm and said, ⁷ "Now gird up your loins like a man,
for I will ask you questions, and you must answer me.
⁸ Will you actually say that I am unjust?
Will you condemn me so you may claim that you are in the right?
⁹ Do you have an arm like God's,
and can you thunder with a voice like his?
¹⁰ Now clothe yourself in glory and dignity;
array yourself in honor and majesty.

- ¹¹ Scatter around the excess of your anger;
look at everyone who is proud and bring him low.
- ¹² Look at everyone who is proud and bring him low;
trample down wicked people where they stand.
- ¹³ Bury them in the earth together;
imprison their faces in the hidden place.
- ¹⁴ Then will I also acknowledge about you that your own right hand can save you.
- ¹⁵ See now, the behemoth, which I made when I made you—
he eats grass like an ox.
- ¹⁶ See now, his strength is in his loins,
and his power is in his belly's muscles.
- ¹⁷ He makes his tail like a cedar;
the sinews of his thighs are joined together.
- ¹⁸ His bones are like tubes of bronze;
his legs are like bars of iron.
- ¹⁹ He is the chief of the creatures of God.
Only God, who made him, can defeat him.
- ²⁰ For the hills provide him with food;
the beasts of the field play nearby.
- ²¹ He lies under the lotus plants in the shelter of the reeds, in the marshes.
- ²² The lotus plants cover him with their shade;
the willows of the brook are all around him.
- ²³ See, if a river floods its banks, he does not tremble;
he is confident, though the Jordan should surge up to his mouth.
- ²⁴ Can anyone capture him with a hook, or pierce his nose through with a snare?

Job 40 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations prefer to set apart extended quotations, prayers, or songs. The ULB and many other English translations set the lines of 40:1-2, 4-5, 7-24, which are extended quotations of Job and Yahweh, farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text.

Special concepts in this chapter

Job's righteousness

In seeking to defend his own righteousness, Job accuses Yahweh of being unjust. Yahweh asks a very important question: "Will you condemn me so you may claim you are right?" This is the essence of Job's error.

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Irony

Yahweh states, "He who argues with God, let him answer." Job immediately answers him. This is irony. While Job is forced to acknowledge the power of Yahweh, he does not repent of his former statements. Because of this, Yahweh asks him more questions. (See: repent)

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

Animals

There are several animals mentioned in this chapter that do not exist and may never have existed. It may be necessary to leave these names untranslated or to translate their names as adjectives.

Links:

Job 40:1 Notes

Job 40:1

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

Job 40:2

Should anyone who wishes to criticize try to correct the Almighty?

Yahweh is rebuking Job. This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "No one who wants to criticize me should try to argue with me, for I am Almighty God." or "You, a person, want to criticize me, Almighty God, but you should not try to correct me."

He who argues with God, let him answer

Yahweh speaks of Job and himself as if they were two other people to remind Job that no person anywhere should argue with God. Alternate translation: "You want to argue with me, so answer me"

Job 40:3

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 40:4

See, I am

"You are right when you say that I am" or "Look at me and you will see that I am"

I am insignificant

"I am not important"

how can I answer you?

Job uses this question to apologize for questioning God.

Alternate translation: "I cannot answer you."

Job 40:5

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 40:6

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 40:7

gird up your loins like a man

A man who tucks his robe up under his sash or belt is preparing for hard physical work, and Job was to prepare for the hard work of answering God. See how you translated this in [Job 38:3]

Job 40:8

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to challenge Job.

Will you actually say that I am unjust?

The word "actually" indicates that Yahweh is surprised that Job would say that Yahweh is unjust and that Job should make sure that he really wants to say that. This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "I am surprised that you are saying I am unjust." or "You should be sure that you want to say that I am unjust, because that is what you are saying."

Will you condemn me so you may claim that you are in the right?

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "You are condemning me so you can claim that you are innocent."

Job 40:9

an arm like God's

The arm is a metonym for the strength in the arm.

Alternate translation: "strength like God's strength"

can you thunder with a voice like his?

God uses this rhetorical question to show Job that God is powerful and Job is not. Alternate translation: "you certainly cannot thunder with a voice like God's."

can you thunder with a voice like his

Here "thunder with a voice" is a metaphor for speaking in way that is extremely loud and frightening like thunder.

Alternate translation: "can you speak with the sound of thunder as he does"

a voice like his

"a voice like his voice"

Job 40:10

clothe yourself in glory and dignity; array yourself in honor and majesty

The abstract nouns "glory," "dignity," "honor," and "majesty" are spoken of as if they were clothing that a person could put on. They can be translated as adjectives and verbs.

Alternate translation: "make yourself glorious; do something great so people will respect you and honor you; make people think you are a great king"

Job 40:11

Scatter around the excess of your anger

The abstract noun "anger" is spoken of as if it were something that usually could be held in a container, but in this situation there is so much of it that what does not fit needs to be spread around. It is also a metonym for the actions a person takes when he is angry. You may need to make explicit why the person is angry. Alternate translation: "Be angry because people are proud, and punish them"

bring him low

"take away everything he is proud of"

Job 40:12

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 40:13

Chapter 41

their faces

The "face" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "them"

the hidden place

a euphemism for the place where people's spirits go when they die

Job 40:14

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 40:15

See now, the behemoth

The phrase "See now" indicates that what follows is an exhortation for the hearer to pay attention. "Listen carefully: the behemoth"

behemoth

a large water animal, possibly the hippopotamus

he eats

the behemoth eats

eats grass like an ox

Both the behemoth and the ox eat grass.

Job 40:16

See now, his strength

The phrase "See now" indicates that what follows is an exhortation for the hearer to pay attention. "Listen carefully: his strength" See how you translated this phrase in Job 40:15.

loins ... belly's muscles

These two phrases refer to the same part of the body.

Job 40:17

like a cedar

Cedar is a very hard wood, and his tail becomes very hard.

Job 40:18

like tubes of bronze

Here, his bones are compared to tubes made of bronze to show how tough this animal is.

like bars of iron

This last comparison describes the strength of this great animal.

Job 40:19

chief of the creatures

"most important of the creatures" or "strongest of the creatures"

the creatures of God. Only God

Yahweh speaks as if he were another person. Alternate translation: "of my creatures. Only I, God"

Job 40:20

the hills provide him with food

The hills are spoken of as if they were people capable of giving him food. Alternate translation: "food grows on the hills for him"

Job 40:21

lotus plants

flowering plants that float on the water in swampy areas

reeds

tall grasses found in swamps or marshes

Job 40:22

lotus plants

flowering plants that float on the water in swampy areas.

See how you translated this in Job 40:19.

willows of the brook

Willows are large trees that grow in damp ground. If they are unknown in your culture, you can use a general term for trees that grow near water.

Job 40:23

banks

sides of the river

though the Jordan should surge up to his mouth

"even if the flood of the Jordan should come up to his mouth"

Job 40:24

Can anyone capture him with a hook ... snare?

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation:

"No one can capture him with a hook or pierce his nose through with a snare."

Chapter 41

¹ Can you draw out Leviathan with a fishhook?
Or tie up his jaws with a cord?

² Can you put a rope into his nose, or pierce his jaw through with a hook?

³ Will he make many pleas to you?
Will he speak soft words to you?

⁴ Will he make a covenant with you,
that you should take him for a servant forever?

⁵ Will you play with him as you would with a bird?
Will you tie him up for your servant girls?

⁶ Will the groups of fishermen bargain for him?
Will they divide him up to trade among the merchants?

⁷ Can you fill his hide with harpoons or his head with fishing spears?

⁸ Put your hand on him just once, and you will remember the battle and do it no more.

⁹ See, the hope of anyone who does that is a lie;
will not anyone be thrown down to the ground just by the sight of him?

¹⁰ None is so fierce that he dare stir Leviathan up;
who, then, is he who can stand before me?

¹¹ Who has first given anything to me in order that I should repay him?
Whatever is under the whole sky is mine.

¹² I will not keep silent concerning Leviathan's legs, nor about the matter of his strength, nor about his graceful form.

¹³ Who can strip off his outer garment?
Who can penetrate his double armor?

¹⁴ Who can open the doors of his face—ringed with his teeth, which are a terror?

¹⁵ his back is made up of rows of shields,
tight together as with a close seal.

¹⁶ One is so near to another that no air can come between them.

¹⁷ They are joined to each other;
they stick together, so that they cannot be pulled apart.

¹⁸ Light flashes out from his snorting;
his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning dawn.

¹⁹ Out of his mouth go burning torches, sparks of fire leap out.

²⁰ Out of his nostrils goes smoke like a boiling pot on a fire that has been fanned to be very hot.

²¹ His breath kindles coals into flame;
fires go out from his mouth.

²² In his neck is strength, and terror dances in front of him.

²³ The folds of his flesh are joined together;
they are firm on him; they cannot be moved.

²⁴ His heart is as hard as a stone—indeed, as hard as a lower millstone.

²⁵ When he raises himself up, even the gods become afraid;
because of its thrashing they draw back.

²⁶ If a sword strikes him, it does nothing—and neither does a spear, an arrow, or any other pointed weapon.

- ²⁷ He thinks of iron as if it were straw, and of bronze as if it were rotten wood.
- ²⁸ An arrow cannot make him flee;
to him sling stones become chaff.
- ²⁹ Clubs are regarded as straw;
he laughs at the whirring flight of a spear.
- ³⁰ His lower parts are like sharp pieces of broken pottery;
he leaves a spreading trail in the mud as if he were a threshing sledge.
- ³¹ He makes the deep to foam up like a pot of boiling water;
he makes the sea like a pot of ointment.
- ³² He makes a shining wake behind him;
one would think the deep had gray hair.
- ³³ On earth there is no equal to him, who has been made to live without fear.
- ³⁴ He sees everything that is proud;
he is king over all the sons of pride."

Job 41 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations prefer to set apart extended quotations, prayers, or songs. The ULB and many other English translations set the lines of this chapter, which is an extended quotation of Yahweh, farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text. It is a continuation of the previous chapter.

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

Yahweh uses a series of rhetorical questions in this chapter in order to defend his character and to convince Job to repent. (See: and repent)

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

Animals

There are several animals mentioned in this chapter that do not exist and may never have existed. It may be necessary to leave these names untranslated or to translate their names as adjectives.

Links:

Job 41:1 Notes

Job 41:1

General Information:

God continues speaking. He is using many rhetorical questions to challenge Job.

Can you draw out Leviathan with a fishhook?

God uses this question to remind Job that Job is not powerful like Leviathan. This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "You know that you cannot draw out Leviathan with a fishhook."

draw out

pull out of the water

Or tie up his jaws with a cord?

The words "can you" are understood from the previous question. They can be repeated here. God uses this question to remind Job that Job is not powerful like Leviathan. This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "Or can you tie up his jaws with a cord?" or "And you know that you cannot tie up his jaws with a cord."

his jaws

Leviathan's jaws

Job 41:2

Can you put a rope into his nose ... with a hook?

God uses this question to remind Job that Job is not powerful like Leviathan. This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "You know that you cannot put a rope into Leviathan's nose ... with a hook."

Job 41:3

Will he make many pleas to you?

God uses this question to remind Job that Job is not powerful like Leviathan. This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "You know that he will not make pleas to you."

he

Leviathan

Will he speak soft words to you?

God uses this question to remind Job that Job is not powerful like Leviathan. This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "You know that he will not speak soft words to you."

Job 41:4

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to rebuke Job. He uses rhetorical questions to remind Job that Job is not powerful like Leviathan.

Will he make a covenant with you, that you should take him for a servant forever?

This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "You know that he will not make a covenant with you, that you should take him for a servant forever."

he ... him

The words "he" and "him" refer to Leviathan.

Job 41:5

Will you play with him as you would with a bird?

This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "You know that you cannot play with him as you would play with a bird."

Will you tie him up for your servant girls?

This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "You know that you cannot tie him up for your servant girls."

Job 41:6

Will the groups of fishermen bargain for him?

This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "You know that the groups of fishermen will not bargain for him."

Will they divide him up to trade among the merchants?

This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "You know that they will not divide him up to trade among the merchants."

Will they divide

"Will the groups of fishermen divide"

Job 41:7

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to rebuke Job. He uses rhetorical questions to remind Job that Job is not powerful like Leviathan.

Can you fill his hide with harpoons or his head with fishing spears?

This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "You cannot pierce his skin with your hunting weapons, nor can you pierce his head with fishing spears."

his

Leviathan's

harpoons

large spears with barbed points that people use to hunt large sea creatures

Job 41:8

him

Leviathan

Job 41:9

See

"Look" or "Listen" or "Pay attention to what I am about to tell you."

will not anyone be thrown down to the ground just by the sight of him?

This generalization can be translated as a statement in active form. Alternate translation: "Anyone who looks at him will be so frightened that he will throw himself on the ground."

the sight of him

"by looking at him" or "by seeing him"

Job 41:10

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to rebuke Job by asking him rhetorical questions. He uses rhetorical questions to remind Job that Yahweh is much more powerful than both Leviathan and Job.

None is so fierce that he dare stir Leviathan up; who, then, is he who can stand before me?

It would be easier to stir up Leviathan than to stand before Yahweh. This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "Since you know that no person is so fierce that he dare stir Leviathan up, you should certainly know that no one can stand before me."

Job 41:11

Who has first given anything to me in order that I should repay him?

This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "You know that no one has first given anything to me, so there is no one whom I need to repay."

Job 41:12

I will not keep silent concerning ... nor about ... nor about

This can be translated in positive form. Alternate translation: "I will certainly speak about ... and about ... and about" concerning Leviathan's legs, nor about the matter of his strength, nor about his graceful form

These are three things about which God will not keep silent. his

The word "his" refers to Leviathan.

Job 41:13

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues to rebuke Job by asking him rhetorical questions.

Who can strip off his outer garment?

This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "No one can strip off his outer clothing."

his ... his

Leviathan's

Who can penetrate his double armor?

The word "armor" is a metaphor for the hard scales or hide on his back. This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "No one can penetrate his very thick hide."

Job 41:14

Who can open the doors of his face ... terror?

This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "No one can pry his jaws apart ... terror."

Job 41:15

shields

The word "shields" is a metaphor for Leviathan's hide. Both shields and Leviathan's hide protect well and deflect arrows and other weapons.

tight together as with a close seal

This means the "shields" are very close to one another and nothing can get between them.

Job 41:16

One is so near to another

One row of shields is so near to another (Job 41:15).

between them

between the rows of shields (Job 41:15)

Job 41:17

They ... they ... they

the rows of shields (Job 41:15).

they cannot be pulled apart

This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation:

"no one can pull them apart"

Job 41:18

from his snorting

"when he snorts." A snort is a sound like a short snore.

Another possible meaning is "from his sneezing" or "when he sneezes."

his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning dawn

This means that his eyes are red as the morning dawn is red.

his

The word "his" refers to Leviathan.

Job 41:19

Out of his mouth go burning torches, sparks of fire leap out

God expresses the same idea in two different ways in order to emphasize the terrifying appearance of Leviathan. You can make this clear by adding the omitted words. Alternate translation: "Out of his mouth go burning torches, sparks of fire leap out of his mouth"

his

The word "his" refers to Leviathan.

Job 41:20

nostrils

the two openings of the nose

smoke like a boiling pot

Both the smoke and a boiling pot are very hot.

Job 41:21

kindles coals into flame

"causes coals to catch fire"

Job 41:22

his ... him

The words "his" and "him" refer to Leviathan.

terror dances in front of him

The abstract noun "terror" can be translated as the verb "be afraid." Alternate translation: "when people see him coming, they are very afraid"

Job 41:23

they cannot be moved

This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation:

"no one can move them"

Job 41:24

His heart is as hard as a stone

A rock or stone does not change and become soft. Possible meanings are 1) Leviathan's physical chest and the organs inside it are physically hard or 2) Leviathan is not afraid of anything or 3) Leviathan is spoken of as a person who kills without ever being sorry.

a lower millstone

"the hardest of rocks." The lower millstone is the larger and harder of the two rocks used to grind grain. It would be the hardest rock people could find.

Job 41:25

he ... himself

Leviathan

the gods

Possible meanings are 1) "mighty people" or 2) "very strong people" .

Job 41:26

strikes him

strikes Leviathan

Job 41:27

He thinks of iron as if it were straw

"He thinks of weapons made of iron as if they were weapons made of straw." Straw would not get through his hide, and iron weapons do not get through his hide.

of bronze as if it were rotten wood

You can make this clear by adding the omitted words.

Alternate translation: "he thinks of weapons made of bronze as if they were weapons made of rotten wood"

Job 41:28

to him sling stones become chaff

Chaff cannot hurt Leviathan, and sling stones are just as ineffective as chaff.

him ... him

Leviathan

Job 41:29

Clubs are regarded as straw

A club made of straw would not hurt him, and a club made of wood would not hurt him. This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "He thinks of clubs as if they were straw"

he laughs at the whirring flight of a spear

The person throwing the spear hopes that the spear will kill Leviathan, but the writer speaks as if Leviathan knows the spear will not kill him and so laughs.

he laughs

Leviathan laughs

Job 41:30

His ... he ... he

These words refer to Leviathan.

he leaves a spreading trail in the mud as if he were a threshing sledge

Just as a threshing sledge goes over grain on a threshing floor and turns it to powder, so Leviathan's tail leaves a trail in the mud as he wags it when he walks.

Job 41:31

He makes the deep to foam up like a pot of boiling water

"As he passes through the water, he leaves a trail of bubbles behind him, like the bubbling of boiling water in a pot"

He

The word "he" refers to Leviathan.

he makes the sea like a pot of ointment

The ointment in a pot is cloudy if someone shakes it, and the sea is muddy when Leviathan swims in it.

Job 41:32

Chapter 42

one would think the deep had gray hair
This is because the bubbles in his wake are white.
Job 41:33
there is no equal to him
"no other creature is like Leviathan"
him
Leviathan
Job 41:34
He sees everything that is proud

"He is very, very proud"
he is king over all the sons of pride
Leviathan is spoken of as if he were a person who is able to become king and be proud. Alternate translation:
"Leviathan has more reason to be proud than anyone else on earth"
He ... he Leviathan

Chapter 42

¹Then Job answered Yahweh and said,

² "I know that you can do all things, that no purpose of yours can be stopped.

³ 'Who is this who without knowledge conceals plans?'
Indeed, I have spoken things that I did not understand, things too difficult for me to understand, which I did not know about.

⁴ You said to me, 'Listen, now, and I will speak;
I will ask you things,
and you will tell me.'

⁵ I had heard about you by my ear's hearing,
but now my eye sees you.

⁶ So I despise myself;
I repent in dust and ashes."

⁷It came about that after he had said these words to Job, Yahweh said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "My wrath is kindled against you and against your two friends, for you have not spoken of me what is right, as my servant Job has done.⁸Now therefore, take for yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering. My servant Job will pray for you, and I will accept his prayer, so that I may not deal with you after your folly. You have not said what is right about me, as my servant Job has done."⁹So Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite went and did as Yahweh had commanded them, and Yahweh accepted Job.

¹⁰When Job prayed for his friends, Yahweh reversed his captivity. Yahweh gave him twice as much as he had possessed before.¹¹Then all Job's brothers, and all his sisters, and all who knew him before, came to him and ate food with him in his house. They showed him sympathy and comforted him for all the disasters that Yahweh had brought upon him, and each of them gave Job a piece of silver and a ring of gold.

¹²Yahweh blessed the final end of Job's life more than the first; he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, one thousand yoke of oxen, and one thousand female donkeys.¹³He also had seven sons and three daughters.¹⁴He called the name of the first daughter Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the third Keren-Happuch.

¹⁵In all the land no women were found as beautiful as Job's daughters. Their father gave them an inheritance along with their brothers.¹⁶After this, Job lived 140 years; he saw his sons and his sons' sons, up to four generations.¹⁷Then Job died, being old and full of days.

Job 42 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations prefer to set apart extended quotations, prayers, or songs. The ULB and many other English translations set the lines of 42:1-6, which is an extended quotation of Job, farther to the right on the page than the rest of the text.

In this chapter Job shows his complete trust in Yahweh. (See: trust)

Special concepts in this chapter

Justice

Yahweh enacts justice at the end of this book. He punishes Job's friends and restores Job's blessings. Yahweh's blessing was not dependent upon Job's repentance, but upon Yahweh's grace. (See: justice, restore, bless and repent and grace)

Links:

Job 42:1 Notes

Job 42:1

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 42:2

I know that you can do all things, that no purpose of yours can be stopped

You may want to repeat the words "I know." Alternate translation: "I know that you can do all things. I know that no purpose of yours can be stopped"

no purpose of yours can be stopped

This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "no one can stop any of your plans"

Job 42:3

Who is this

The ULB and most modern versions agree that Job is loosely quoting God's own words from [Job 38:2]

conceals plans

That is, hides or misrepresents God's plans.

Job 42:4

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Job 42:5

but now my eye sees you

The eyes represent seeing, and seeing represents understanding. Alternate translation: "but now I really understand you"

Job 42:6

despise myself

Job's self is a metonym for what he said. Alternate translation: "I despise the things I said" despise intensely dislike

I repent in dust and ashes

Sitting in dust and ashes is a symbolic act showing the person is sorry.

Job 42:7

It came about that

This phrase is used here to mark an important event in the story. If your language has a way for doing this, you could consider using it here.

Eliphaz the Temanite

See how you translated this man's name in Job 2:11

My wrath is kindled against you

Fire is a metaphor for anger, and starting a fire is a metaphor for becoming angry. Alternate translation: "I have become very angry with you"

Job 42:8

seven bulls

"7 bulls"

so that I may not deal with you after your folly

The abstract noun "folly" can be translated as an adjective.

Alternate translation: "even though you have been very foolish, I will not punish you as you deserve"

Job 42:9

Bildad the Shuhite

See how you translated this man's name in Job 2:11

Zophar the Naamathite

See how you translated this man's name in Job 2:11

Yahweh accepted Job

The person is a metonym for the prayer he prays. Alternate translation: "God accepted Job's prayer for his three friends"

Job 42:10

Yahweh reversed his captivity

This is an idiom that means that Yahweh restored Job's good life. Alternate translation: "Yahweh restored his riches" or "Yahweh restored his wealth"

Job 42:11

all who knew him before

"all the people he had known before"

Job 42:12

more than the first

The words "he blessed" and "of Job's life" are understood from the previous phrase. They can be repeated here

Alternate translation: "more than he blessed the first part of Job's life"

fourteen thousand sheep

14,000 sheep

six thousand camels

6,000 camels

one thousand yoke of oxen

1,000 yoke of oxen

Job 42:13

seven sons and three daughters

7 sons and 3 daughters

Job 42:14

Jemimah ... Keziah ... Keren-Happuch

women's names

Job 42:15

no women were found as beautiful as Job's daughters

"Job's daughters were more beautiful than all the other women"

Job 42:16

lived 140 years

"lived 140 years"

Job 42:17

being old and full of days

The words "full of days" means basically the same thing as "being old." The two phrases form a common idiom.

Alternate translation: "a very old man"

Psalms

Chapter 1

- ¹ Blessed is the man
who does not walk in the advice of the wicked, or stand in the pathway with sinners,
or sit in the assembly of mockers.
- ² But his delight is in the law of Yahweh,
and on his law he meditates day and night.
- ³ He will be like a tree planted by the streams of water that produces its fruit in its season,
whose leaves do not wither;
whatever he does will prosper.
- ⁴ The wicked are not so,
but are like the chaff that the wind drives away.
- ⁵ So the wicked will not stand in the judgment,
nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.
- ⁶ For Yahweh approves of the way of the righteous,
but the way of the wicked will perish.

Psalm 1 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 1 is usually considered to be a "wisdom psalm," which gives advice to those who hear it read or sung. (See: wise)

Special concepts in this chapter

Blessed

A main theme in this psalm is what it means to be blessed. Here "blessed" refers to anyone who is well off because of a good relationship to God. The contrasting theme is that there are ungodly people, those who refuse to honor God. (See: bless and godly)

People who opposed Yahweh

There are several words in this psalm for those who oppose God: "the wicked" (those who do evil), "sinners" (those who ignore God's law), and "mockers" (those who mock God and the righteous people). (See: evil, sin and lawofmoses and righteous)

Links:

Psalms 1:1 Psalms intro

Psalms 1:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

who does not walk in the advice of the wicked

The "advice of the wicked" is spoken of as if it were a path to follow. Alternate translation: "who does not follow the advice of the wicked" or "who does not do what wicked people advise"

stand in the pathway with sinners

Here the word "pathway" represents the way people live.

The word "stand" is in parallel with "walk." Alternate translation: "imitate the behavior of sinful people"

or sit in the assembly of mockers

Sitting with people who mock God represents joining people who mock God. Alternate translation: "or join those who mock God" or "or mock God with others who mock him"

Psalms 1:2

his delight is in the law of Yahweh

The word "delight" is an abstract noun that can be stated as a verb. A person who can "delight ... in the law" is happy because the law is good and because one is obeying it.

Chapter 2

Alternate translation: "what makes him truly happy is the law of Yahweh" or "what makes him truly happy is to know that he is obeying the law of Yahweh"

Yahweh

This is the name of God that he revealed to his people in the Old Testament. See the translationWord page about Yahweh concerning how to translate this.

Psalms 1:3

General Information:

This passage introduces an elaborate image in which a righteous person is thought of in terms of a flourishing tree.

He will be like a tree ... fruit in its season

In the Bible, people are often spoken of as trees. People who delight in Yahweh's law can do all God wants them to do just as a tree that is planted by water produces good fruit.

Alternate translation: "He will be prosperous like a tree ... fruit in its season" planted by the streams of water

A tree that is planted by a stream can get enough water to be healthy.

that produces its fruit in its season

Healthy trees produce good fruit at the right time.

whose leaves do not wither

If a tree gets enough water, its leaves do not dry out and die.

whatever he does will prosper

"He will be successful at whatever he does"

Psalms 1:4

The wicked are not so

How they are not like that can be stated clearly. "The wicked are not prosperous" or "The wicked do not prosper" but are like the chaff

How they are like chaff can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "but are worthless like the chaff"

Psalms 1:5

will not stand in the judgment

Possible meanings are 1) not standing in the judgment is a metonym for being judged by God and having to leave his presence. Alternate translation: "will not continue to stay before God when he judges them" or "will have to leave God's presence when he judges them as guilty" or 2) not standing in the judgment is a metaphor for being condemned in the judgment. Alternate translation: "will be condemned in the judgment" or "will be condemned when God judges them"

in the judgment

The noun judgment can be expressed as a verb. This probably refers to the final judgment when God judges all people. Alternate translation: "when God judges everyone"

nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous

Translators can supply the verb "stand." Alternate translation: "neither will sinners stand in the assembly of the righteous" or "and sinners will not stand in the assembly of the righteous"

nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous

Being accepted by God as righteous is spoken of as standing with the group of righteous people. Alternate translation: "and God will not accept sinners along with the righteous people"

Psalms 1:6

For Yahweh approves of the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked will perish

These two clauses contrast what happens to righteous people with what happens to wicked people.

the way of the righteous

How people live is spoken of as if it were a "way" or "road" that they are walking on. Alternate translation: "how the righteous live"

the way of the wicked will perish

How people live and what they do is spoken of as if it were a "way" or "road" that they walk on. Possible meanings are 1) the way perishing represents the wicked perishing because of how they live. Alternate translation: "The wicked will die because of how they live" or 2) the way perishing is a metaphor for no longer being able to live the way they do. Alternate translation: "the wicked will no longer be able to live the way they live"

Chapter 2

¹ Why are the nations in turmoil, and why do the peoples devise vain plans?

² The kings of the earth take their stand together and the rulers take counsel together against Yahweh and against his Messiah, saying,

³ "Let us tear off the shackles they put on us and throw off their chains."

⁴ He who sits in the heavens will sneer at them;
the Lord mocks them.

⁵ Then he will speak to them in his anger and terrify them in his rage, saying,

- ⁶ "I myself have set my king in place on Zion, my holy mountain."
- ⁷ I will announce a decree of Yahweh.
He said to me, "You are my son!
This day I have become your Father.
- ⁸ Ask me, and I will give you the nations for your inheritance and the ends of the earth for your possession.
- ⁹ You will break them with an iron rod;
like a jar of a potter, you will smash them to pieces."
- ¹⁰ So now, you kings, be prudent;
be corrected, you judges of the earth.
- ¹¹ Worship Yahweh in fear and rejoice with trembling.
- ¹² Kiss the son or he will be angry with you,
and you will die in the way when his anger burns for just a moment.
How blessed are all those who seek refuge in him.

Psalm 2 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 2 is usually considered a royal psalm because it is about the king. It was probably first sung when a new person became the king. It is often thought to be about the Messiah because of verse 6 and 7 reference the Son of God. (See: christ and sonofgod)

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's protection

The main theme of this psalm is that God is protecting and empowering the king he has appointed and that it is useless for the foreign nations to oppose God and his king.

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Metaphor

"Today I have begotten you" here is a metaphor meaning that God acknowledges the king as his special person.

Links:

Psalms 2:1

Psalms 2:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

Why are the nations in turmoil, and why do the peoples devise vain plans?

These questions are used to show surprise that the people are doing things that are so wrong and foolish. Alternate translation: "The nations are in turmoil and the peoples are devising vain plans."

are the nations in turmoil

This probably means that the nations were making a noisy and angry commotion.

the nations

This represents either the leaders or the people of the nations.

vain plans

These are probably plots against God and his people.

Psalms 2:2

The kings of the earth take their stand together ... the rulers take counsel together

These two clauses have similar meanings.

take their stand together ... take counsel together

These phrases have similar meanings, implying that the leaders stand together in order to fight against Yahweh and his Messiah. This can be stated explicitly. Alternate translation: "gather to fight ... plan together to revolt"

Chapter 3

Psalms 2:3

Let us tear off the shackles ... throw off their chains

The people of other nations speak of Yahweh and the Messiah's rule over them as if it were shackles and chains. Alternate translation: "We should free ourselves from their control; we should not let them rule over us any longer"

Psalms 2:4

He ... the Lord

These phrases refer to Yahweh. Yahweh is often called "the Lord" but the words for "Yahweh" and "the Lord" are different.

sits in the heavens

Here sitting represents ruling. What he sits on can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "rules in the heavens" or "sits on his throne in heaven"

the Lord mocks them

"the Lord mocks those people." Why he mocks them can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "The Lord mocks them for their foolish plans"

Psalms 2:5

terrify them in his rage

The abstract noun "rage" can be stated as "furious." Alternate translation: "he will be furious and terrify them" terrify greatly frighten

Psalms 2:6

I myself

Yahweh is emphasizing that he, and not someone else, has set his king in place.

set my king in place

"appointed my king to rule"

Psalms 2:7

I will announce a decree of Yahweh. He

The person saying this is the king. This can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "The king says, 'I will announce a decree of Yahweh.' He"

He said to me

"Yahweh said to me"

You are my son! This day I have become your Father

Among many peoples in that part of the world then, men could decide to legally adopt children, who would become their heirs. Here Yahweh adopts a man and makes him king of Israel. Alternate translation: "I make you my son. This day I have become your Father" or "Now you are my son and am your Father"

Psalms 2:8

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues speaking to the new king of Israel.

the nations for your inheritance ... the ends of the earth for your possession

These phrases express very similar ideas.

the ends of the earth

"the lands that are very far away"

Psalms 2:9

You will break them with an iron rod; like a jar of a potter, you will smash them to pieces

These phrases express very similar ideas.

You will break them with an iron rod

Defeating the nations is spoken of as breaking them, and his power is spoken of as an iron rod. Alternate translation:

"You will defeat them completely by your power"

you will smash them to pieces

Destroying nations is spoken of as if they could be smashed like a clay jar. Alternate translation: you will completely destroy them like a clay pot"

a jar of a potter

A potter is a person who makes clay pots and jars. These are fragile and can be broken easily. Alternate translation: "a clay jar" or "a clay pot"

Psalms 2:10

be corrected

This can be stated with an active form. Alternate translation: "listen to this correction" or "take this correction"

judges of the earth

"powerful people who govern the nations on earth"

Psalms 2:11

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 2:12

Kiss the son

People would show their king that they were loyal to him by kissing him, perhaps on the feet. Alternate translation:

"Show the son that you are truly loyal to him" or "Bow down humbly before his son"

you will die in the way

This may refer to dying right there, before the person has a chance to go away. Alternate translation: "you will die immediately"

when his anger burns for just a moment

The king's anger is spoken of as if it were a fire that could burn. Alternate translation: "when he suddenly becomes very angry"

seek refuge in him

Asking the king for protection is spoken of as seeking refuge in him. Alternate translation: "ask the king to protect them"

Chapter 3

A psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom his son.

¹ Yahweh, how many are my enemies!
Many have risen against me.

² Many say about me,
"There is no deliverance for him from God."

Selah

³ But you, Yahweh, are a shield around me, my glory, and the one who lifts up my head.

⁴ I lift up my voice to Yahweh, and he answers me from his holy hill.

Selah

⁵ I lay down and slept;
I awoke, for Yahweh protected me.

⁶ I will not be afraid of the multitudes of people who have set themselves against me on every side.

⁷ Rise up, Yahweh! Save me, my God!
For you will hit all my enemies on the jaw;
you will break the teeth of the wicked.

⁸ Salvation comes from Yahweh.
May your blessings be on your people.

Selah

Psalm 3 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 3 is a psalm of deliverance. It is a morning song intended to be sung in the temple accompanied by musical instruments during morning worship. (See: temple)

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's protection

Although the psalmist has many enemies and is saying he is without help, God is protecting him and delivering him from danger.

Links:

Psalms 3:1

Psalms 3:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom his son

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

A psalm of David

Possible meanings are 1) David wrote the psalm or 2) the psalm is about David or 3) the psalm is in the style of

David's psalms.

Yahweh, how many are my enemies!

This exclamation shows that David is afraid of his enemies.

Alternate translation: "Oh Yahweh, I have so many enemies!"

have risen against me

Fighting against someone is spoken of as rising against him.

Alternate translation: "come against me"

Psalms 3:2

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Chapter 4

Psalms 3:3

you, Yahweh, are a shield around me

A shield protects a soldier. David speaks as if God were a shield protecting him. Alternate translation: "you, Yahweh, protect me like a shield"

my glory

"you are my glory." By calling God his glory, David says that God is the one who gives him glory. Since David has just spoken about his enemies and God being his protector, he probably meant that God gives him glory by giving him victory over his enemies. Alternate translation: "you are the one who gives me glory" or "you are the one who gives me victory" the one who lifts up my head

"you are the one who lifts up my head." Giving someone courage is spoken of as lifting up his head. Alternate translation: "the one who encourages me"

Psalms 3:4

I lift up my voice

Using one's voice to cry out is spoken of as lifting up his voice. Alternate translation: "I cry out"

Psalms 3:5

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 3:6

have set themselves against me on every side

"have surrounded me to destroy me"

Psalms 3:7

Rise up

David speaks of starting to do something as getting up.

Alternate translation: "Take action" or "Do something"

hit all my enemies ... break the teeth of the wicked

These phrases say very similar things. The phrases "my enemies" and "the wicked" refer to the same group of people.

For you will hit all my enemies on the jaw

This was a way of insulting people. David speaks as if Yahweh would come and physically hit his enemies.

Alternate translation: "For you will insult all my enemies like someone hitting them on the jaw"

you will break the teeth of the wicked

Animals attack with their teeth. Breaking their teeth takes away their power to attack. David speaks as if Yahweh would come and physically fight against the wicked.

Alternate translation: "you will make the wicked unable to harm me like someone breaking the teeth of a ferocious animal"

Psalms 3:8

Salvation comes from Yahweh

The abstract noun "salvation" can be expressed with the verb "save." Alternate translation: "Yahweh saves his people"

Chapter 4

For the chief musician; on stringed instruments. A psalm of David.

¹ Answer me when I call, God of my righteousness;
give me room when I am hemmed in.
Have mercy on me and listen to my prayer.

² You people, how long will you turn my honor into shame?
How long will you love what is worthless and seek after lies?

Selah

³ But know that Yahweh has set apart the faithful ones for himself.
Yahweh will hear when I call to him.

⁴ Tremble in fear, but do not sin!
Meditate in your heart on your bed and be silent.

Selah

⁵ Offer the sacrifices of righteousness and put your trust in Yahweh.

⁶ Many say, "Who will show us anything good?"
Yahweh, lift up the light of your face on us.

⁷ You have given my heart more gladness than others have when their grain and new wine abound.

- ⁸ It is in peace that I will lie down and sleep,
for you alone, Yahweh, make me safe and secure.

Psalm 4 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 4 is a psalm of deliverance. It is an evening song, intended to be sung in the temple accompanied by musical instruments during evening worship. (See: deliverer and temple)

Special concepts in this chapter

Trust

God protects all those who truly trust in him for protection. (See: trust)

Links:

Psalms 4:1

Psalms 4:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician; on stringed instruments. A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

on stringed instruments

"people should play stringed instruments with this song"

Answer me when I call

"Respond to me when I call" or "Help me when I call"

God of my righteousness

"God, who shows that I am righteous"

give me room when I am hemmed in

Being in danger is spoken of as being in a narrow space.

Alternate translation: "rescue me when I am in danger"

Psalms 4:2

General Information:

David sings this part of the song as if he is speaking to his enemies.

You people, how long will you turn my honor into shame?

David uses this question to rebuke his enemies. Alternate translation: "You people continually turn my honor into shame!"

turn my honor into shame

Shaming him instead of honoring him is spoken of as making his honor become shame. Alternate translation: "shame me instead of honoring me" or "bring me shame when you should be honoring me"

How long will you love what is worthless and seek after lies?

David uses this question to rebuke his enemies. Alternate translation: "You continue to love things that are worthless and seek after lies."

love what is worthless ... seek after lies

These two phrases are very similar in meaning. The lies are worthless. Alternate translation: "love worthless lies"

Psalms 4:3

Yahweh has set apart the faithful ones for himself

"Yahweh chooses godly people for himself"

Psalms 4:4

Tremble in fear

The relationship between "tremble" and "fear" and who people should fear can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "Fear Yahweh so much that you tremble" or "Stand in awe of Yahweh"

Tremble

shake from fear

Meditate in your heart

The heart represents a person's thoughts. Thinking carefully is spoken of as meditating in one's heart.

Alternate translation: "Think carefully"

Psalms 4:5

Offer the sacrifices of righteousness

"Offer the right sacrifices"

put your trust in Yahweh

Here "trust" is spoken of as if it were an object that could be put somewhere. The abstract noun "trust" can be stated as a verb. Alternate translation: "trust in Yahweh" or "trust Yahweh"

Psalms 4:6

Who will show us anything good?

This question is used either to ask for something or to express a wish about something that has not happened.

Alternate translation: "Please show us something good!" or "We wish someone would show us something good!"

Who will show us anything good?

Possible meanings are 1) showing something good represents bringing good things. Alternate translation:

"Who will bring good things to us?" or 2) showing something good represents saying that good things have happened. Alternate translation: "Who will say that anything good has happened?"

lift up the light of your face on us

The writer speaks of Yahweh acting favorably towards them as if Yahweh's face shone a light on them. Alternate translation: "act favorably towards us"

Chapter 5

Psalms 4:7

You have given my heart more gladness

The heart represents the person. Alternate translation: "You have given me more gladness"

You have given my heart more gladness than others have Here "gladness" is spoken of as if it is an object that can be given. The abstract noun "gladness" can be stated as "glad."

Alternate translation: "You have made me more glad than others are"

when their grain and new wine abound

"New wine" may represent grapes. Alternate translation:

"when they reap plentiful harvests of grain and grapes"

Psalms 4:8

It is in peace that I will lie down and sleep

Peace is spoken of as if it were a place. This can be restated to remove the abstract noun "peace." Alternate translation:

"I will be peaceful when I lie down and sleep" or "I will not be afraid of danger when I lie down and sleep"

make me safe and secure

The words "safe" and "secure" mean basically the same thing and emphasize complete safety. Alternate translation:

"make me completely safe"

Chapter 5

For the chief musician; with wind instruments. A psalm of David.

¹ Give ear to my words, Yahweh;
think about my groanings.

² Listen to the sound of my call, my King and my God, for it is to you that I pray.

³ Yahweh, in the morning you hear my cry;
in the morning I will bring my petition to you and wait expectantly.

⁴ Certainly you are not a God who takes pleasure in evil;
evil people will not be your guests.

⁵ The arrogant will not stand in your presence;
you hate all who behave wickedly.

⁶ You will destroy liars;
Yahweh abhors the man of bloodshed and deceit.

⁷ But as for me, because of your great covenant faithfulness,
I will come into your house;
in reverence I will bow down toward your holy temple.

⁸ Oh Lord, lead me in your righteousness because of my enemies;
make your path straight before me.

⁹ For there is no truth in their mouth;
their inward being is wicked;
their throat is an open tomb;
they flatter with their tongue.

¹⁰ Declare them guilty, God;
may their schemes be their downfall!
Drive them out for their many transgressions, for they have rebelled against you.

- ¹¹ But may all those who take refuge in you rejoice;
let them always shout for joy because you defend them;
let them be joyful in you, those who love your name.
- ¹² For you will bless the righteous, Yahweh;
you will surround them with favor as with a shield.

Psalm 5 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 5 is a psalm of deliverance. Notice how the psalmist both praises God and asks him for help in defeating the wicked. It was intended to be sung accompanied by flutes. (See: deliverer and evil)

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's help

God does not help people who do evil but he blesses those who are good and trust in him. (See: bless and trust)

Links:

Psalms 5:1

Psalms 5:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

#For the chief musician; with wind instruments. A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

with wind instruments

"This song should be accompanied by people who play wind instruments."

Give ear to my words

This is a call for help. Alternate translation: "Listen to me as I call to you for help" groanings

low sounds that people make with the voice when they are suffering

Psalms 5:2

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 5:3

in the morning you hear my cry ... in the morning I will bring my petition to you

These two phrases are very similar in meaning.

I will bring my petition to you

"I will make my request" or "I will ask you for what I need"

wait expectantly

"wait, expecting you to do what I ask you to do"

Psalms 5:4

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 5:5

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 5:6

Yahweh abhors

Since David is speaking to God in this psalm, this sentence can be stated with the word "you." Alternate translation:

"Yahweh, you abhor"

the man of bloodshed and deceit

The phrase "the man" here refers to any person. Alternate translation: "anyone who kills or deceives others"

Psalms 5:7

because of your great covenant faithfulness

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "because you are faithful to your covenant"

your house

This refers to God's temple. Alternate translation: "your temple"

Psalms 5:8

lead me in your righteousness

David speaks of righteousness as if it were a path and of teaching as leading. The phrase "your righteousness" means that God is righteous. Alternate translation: "teach me to do what is righteous as you do"

make your path straight before me

David speaks of righteousness as if it were a path. A straight path is easy to see or walk on. Alternate translation: "show me clearly how to live in the right way" or "make it easy for me to do what is right"

Psalms 5:9

General Information:

David talks about his enemies.

For there is no truth in their mouth

Truth being in the mouth represents speaking truthfully.

Alternate translation: "For they never say what is true"

their inward being is wicked

The inward being represents people's thoughts and desires. Alternate translation: "their thoughts and desires are wicked"

their throat

The throat represents people's speech. Alternate translation: "their speech" or "what they say"

their throat is an open tomb

Chapter 6

Their throat is spoken of as if it were an open tomb, ready for dead bodies to put into it. Possible meanings are 1) "they say that they will kill people" or 2) "What they say kills people"

they flatter with their tongue

"they say nice things about people without really meaning it"

their tongue

The tongue represents what people say.

Psalms 5:10

may their schemes be their downfall

"may their schemes cause them to experience disasters" or "may they become less important because of their schemes" schemes

plans to harm people

downfall

This is something that causes a person to experience disasters or to lose power. Experiencing disaster or becoming less important is spoken of as falling.

Psalms 5:11

may all those who take refuge in you rejoice

God is spoken of as if he were a refuge, a place where people can be protected. Alternate translation: "May all those who go to you for protection rejoice"

those who take refuge in you rejoice ... shout for joy because you defend them

These two clauses express similar thoughts.

take refuge in you

Going to Yahweh for protection is spoken of as taking refuge in him. Alternate translation: "go to you for protection"

those who love your name

God's name represents him. Alternate translation: "those who love you"

Psalms 5:12

you will surround them with favor as with a shield

God's favor is spoken of as if it were a shield. Alternate translation: "you will favor them and protect them as a soldier protects himself with his shield" or "because you are kind to them, you will protect them"

Chapter 6

For the chief musician; on stringed instruments, set to the Sheminith style. A psalm of David.

¹ Yahweh, do not rebuke me in your anger or discipline me in your wrath.

² Have mercy on me, Yahweh, for I am frail;
heal me, Yahweh, for my bones are shaking.

³ My soul also is very troubled.
But you, Yahweh—how long will this continue?

⁴ Return, Yahweh! rescue me.
Save me because of your covenant faithfulness!

⁵ For in death there is no remembrance of you.
In Sheol who will give you thanks?

⁶ I am weary with my groaning.
All night I drench my bed with tears;
I dissolve my couch with my tears.

⁷ My eyes grow dim from grief;
they grow weak because of all my adversaries.

⁸ Get away from me, all you who behave wickedly;
for Yahweh has heard the sound of my weeping.

⁹ Yahweh has heard my appeal for mercy;
Yahweh has accepted my prayer.

¹⁰ All my enemies will be ashamed and greatly troubled.

They will turn back and be suddenly humiliated.

Psalm 6 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 6 is a deliverance psalm: a call to God for help. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Trouble

He is in deep trouble and needs God to help him in his difficult situation. But then God hears his prayer and scatters his enemies.

First Person

This psalm is written using first person making its perspective very personal. There are many uses of the first person in this Psalm.

Links:

Psalms 6:1

Psalms 6:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

on stringed instruments

"people should play stringed instruments with this song"

set to the Sheminith style

This may refer to a style of music.

Psalms 6:2

my bones are shaking

The bones represent the whole body. His body may have been shaking because he was sick or extremely tired.

Alternate translation: "my whole body is shaking"

Psalms 6:3

very troubled

"terrified" or "worried"

how long will this continue?

David uses this question to show that he does not want to continue feeling weak and troubled. Alternate translation: please, do not let this continue!"

Psalms 6:4

Return, Yahweh

David speaks of God being kind to him as God returning to him. Alternate translation: "Yahweh, come back to me" or "Have mercy on me, Yahweh"

Save me because of your covenant faithfulness

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "Save me because you are faithful to your covenant"

Psalms 6:5

For in death there is no remembrance of you. In Sheol who will give you thanks?

These two sentences express similar meanings.

For in death there is no remembrance of you

The abstract noun "remembrance" represents praise.

Alternate translation: "For when people die, they no longer praise you"

In Sheol who will give you thanks?

David uses this question to emphasize that no one in Sheol thanks God. Alternate translation: "No one in Sheol will give you thanks!" or "The dead cannot praise you!"

Psalms 6:6

I am weary with my groaning

His groaning represents the pain or distress that he feels.

Alternate translation: "I am very tired because of my pain"

I drench my bed with tears

This is an exaggeration. Alternate translation: "I make my bed wet with my tears" or "I cry in my bed"

bed ... couch

Possible meanings are 1) these are two words for the same thing or 2) the "couch" is the main cushion on the bed or 3) the "bed" is where he sleeps at night and the "couch" is another item of furniture.

I dissolve my couch with my tears

This is an exaggeration. "My couch is very wet because of my tears" or "I cry hard when I am on my couch"

Psalms 6:7

My eyes grow dim

The ability to see is spoken of in terms of the eyes. Alternate translation: "My vision is blurry" or "I cannot see clearly" from grief

Grief here represents crying. Alternate translation: "from crying" or "because I cry so much"

Psalms 6:8

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 6:9

Yahweh has heard my appeal for mercy ... Yahweh has accepted my prayer

These two lines have very similar meanings.

Yahweh has accepted my prayer

Being willing to do what David has prayed for is spoken of as accepting his prayer. Alternate translation: "Yahweh will respond to my prayer"

Psalms 6:10

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Chapter 7

A musical composition of David, which he sang to Yahweh concerning the words of Cush the Benjamite.

¹ Yahweh my God, I take refuge in you!

Save me from all who chase me, and rescue me.

² Otherwise, they will rip me apart like a lion, tearing me in pieces with no one else able to bring me to safety.

³ Yahweh my God, if I have done this,

and there is injustice on my hands—

⁴ if I have done evil to him who was at peace with me, or harmed my enemy for no reason—

⁵ then let my enemy pursue my life and overtake me;

let him trample my life to the ground and lay my honor in the dust.

Selah

⁶ Arise, Yahweh, in your anger;

stand up against the rage of my enemies;

wake up for my sake and carry out the righteous decrees that you have commanded for them.

⁷ The peoples are assembled all around you;

take once more your rightful place over them.

⁸ Yahweh, judge the nations;

vindicate me, Yahweh, because I am righteous and innocent, Most High.

⁹ May the evil deeds of the wicked come to an end, but establish the righteous people, righteous God, you who examine hearts and minds.

¹⁰ My shield comes from God,

the one who saves the upright in heart.

¹¹ God is a righteous judge,

a God who is indignant each day.

¹² If a person does not repent,

God will sharpen his sword and will prepare his bow for battle.

¹³ He prepares to use deadly weapons against him;

he makes his arrows flaming shafts.

¹⁴ Think about the one who is pregnant with wickedness, who conceives destructive plans, who gives birth to harmful lies.

¹⁵ He digs a pit and hollows it out and then falls into the pit he has made.

¹⁶ His own destructive plans return to his own head,

for his violence comes down on his own head.

- ¹⁷ I will give thanks to Yahweh for his justice;
I will sing praise to the name of Yahweh Most High.

Psalm 7 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 7 is a deliverance psalm. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's protection

The author had not wronged anyone, yet his enemy was trying to attack him. But he knew that God would protect him.

Cush the Benjamite

Note the superscription and the specific circumstances. There is no other reference to this incident in the Scriptures. But there are references to David being opposed by those of the tribe of Benjamin during the time he was serving King Saul.

Links:

Psalms 7:1

Psalms 7:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A musical composition of David, which he sang to Yahweh concerning the words of Cush the Benjamite

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

A musical composition of David

"This is a song that David wrote"

take refuge in you!

Going to Yahweh for protection is spoken of as taking refuge in him. Alternate translation: "go to you for protection!"

Psalms 7:2

they will rip me apart like a lion, tearing me in pieces

David speaks of his enemies attacking him as if they would rip his body apart and tear it in pieces as a lion would.

Alternate translation: "they will violently kill me like a lion ripping apart its victim's body and tearing it in pieces" or "they will violently kill me"

with no one else able to bring me to safety

"and no one else will be able to save me"

Psalms 7:3

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 7:4

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 7:5

my life

The life represents the person. Alternate translation: "me" overtake me

This represents capturing him. Alternate translation: "capture me"

let him trample my life to the ground

Here "my life" represents the writer. Alternate translation: "allow him to destroy me"

lay my honor in the dust

This refers to lying dead and unburied in disgrace.

Psalms 7:6

Arise, Yahweh, in your anger

Arising represents doing something or taking action.

Alternate translation: "Do something in your anger" or "Be angry at my enemies and take action:

stand up against the rage of my enemies

Fighting against people is spoken of as standing up against them. Alternate translation: "fight against the rage of my enemies" or "attack my enemies who rage against me"

the rage of my enemies

Their rage represents their attacks. Alternate translation:

"the attacks of my enemies" or "my enemies who attack me"

wake up

Waking up represents starting to do something or take action. Alternate translation: "Take action" or "Do something" for my sake

"for me" or "to help me"

Psalms 7:7

The peoples are assembled

Here the word "peoples" represents all of the armies that have gathered to attack.

take once more your rightful place over them

Ruling people is spoken of as being over them. Yahweh's rightful place refers either to heaven or to ruling in general. Alternate translation: "Rule over them from heaven" or "Rule over them"

Psalms 7:8

vindicate me

"show them that I am not guilty"

Psalms 7:9

establish the righteous people

"make the righteous people strong" or "make the righteous

Chapter 8

people prosper"

you who examine hearts and minds

The hearts and minds represent people's desires and thoughts. Alternate translation: "you who know our inner thoughts"

Psalms 7:10

My shield comes from God

The word "shield" represents God's protection.

Psalms 7:11

a God who is indignant each day

Who God is angry with can be stated explicitly. Alternate translation: "a God who is angry with the wicked every day"

Psalms 7:12

God will sharpen his sword and will prepare his bow for battle

In verses 12 and 13, David speaks of God deciding to punish the wicked as if God were a warrior preparing to fight against them with weapons. Alternate translation: "God will take action against him like a warrior who sharpens his sword and prepares his bow for battle"

Psalms 7:13

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 7:14

one who is pregnant with wickedness ... conceives destructive plans ...

gives birth to harmful lies

David speaks of the things that a wicked person does as if the person were pregnant and wickedness was the baby.

Alternate translation: "the wicked person. He makes plans to destroy people and produces harmful lies"

Psalms 7:15

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 7:16

His own destructive plans return to his own head, for his violence comes down on his own head

Destruction and violence are spoken of as if they hit a person's head or fall down on it. Alternate translation: "His own destructive plans destroy him, for his violence attacks him" or "When he plans to destroy others, others destroy him; when he attacks others, others attack him"

Psalms 7:17

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Chapter 8

For the chief musician; set to the Gittith style. A psalm of David.

¹ Yahweh our Lord, how magnificent is your name in all the earth, you who reveal your glory in the heavens above.

² Out of the mouth of babies and infants you have established praise ¹ because of your enemies,
so that you might silence both the enemy and the avenger.

³ When I look up at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place,

⁴ Of what importance is the human race that you notice them, or mankind that you pay attention to them?

⁵ Yet you have made them only a little lower than the heavenly beings and have crowned them with glory and honor.

⁶ You make him to rule over the works of your hands;
you have put all things under his feet:

⁷ all sheep and oxen,
and even the wild animals of the field,

⁸ the birds of the heavens, and the fish of the sea, everything that passes through the currents of the seas.

⁹ Yahweh our Lord,
how magnificent is your name in all the earth!

The copies of the ancient Hebrew text can be read either as established praise or established strength .

Psalm 8 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 8 is a psalm of worship and praise to God. This was to be sung by a choir.

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's creation

God has made awesome things in the universe and has exalted humans to be rulers over this creation. (See: exalt)

A Little Lower than the Heavenly Beings

Psalms Psalm 8:4-6 is quoted in Hebrews 2:6-8, where it is applied to Jesus. (See: heaven and glory)

Links:

Psalms 8:1

Psalms 8:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician; set to the Gittith style. A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

set to the Gittith style

This may refer to a style of music.

how magnificent is your name in all the earth

God's "name" represents his whole being. Alternate translation: "people all over the world know that you are very great"

Psalms 8:2

Out of the mouth of babies and infants you have established praise

Possible meanings are 1) praise is spoken of as a solid object that God takes out of babies' mouths and sets up as a defensive wall or 2) God has created the world so that true praise comes to him from babies. Alternate translation:

"You have given babies and infants the ability to praise you" or "It is babies and infants who truly praise you"

Psalms 8:3

your heavens, the work of your fingers

God's fingers represent him. Alternate translation: "the heavens, which you have made"

Psalms 8:4

Of what importance is the human race that you notice them, or mankind that you pay attention to them?

These remarks have been expressed in the form of a question to add emphasis. Alternate translation: "It is amazing that you think about people and are concerned about them!"

the human race ... mankind

Both of these phrases refer to people in general.

Psalms 8:5

have crowned them with glory and honor

Glory and honor are spoken of as if they were crowns. The words "glory" and "honor" are similar in meaning.

Alternate translation: "have given them glory and honor" or "have caused them to be like kings"

Psalms 8:6

You make him to rule over the works ... you have put all things under his feet

These two clauses express similar meanings.

You make him ... under his feet

"you make them ... under their feet." The words "him" and "his" here refer to people.

the works of your hands

The hands represent what God has done. Alternate translation: "the things that you made"

you have put all things under his feet

Having authority to rule others or control things is spoken of as having them under one's feet. This means God gave people authority over all that he created. Alternate translation: "you have given him authority over all things"

Psalms 8:7

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 8:8

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 8:9

how magnificent is your name in all the earth

With this exclamation, David shows his joy and awe about how great God is. Alternate translation: "your name is wonderfully magnificent in all the earth" or "people in all the earth know how magnificent you are"

your name

God's "name" represents him or his reputation. Alternate translation: "your reputation" magnificent excellent, great

Chapter 9

For the chief musician; set to Muth Labben style. A psalm of David.

Chapter 9

- ¹ I will give thanks to Yahweh with my whole heart;
I will tell about all your marvelous deeds.
- ² I will be glad and rejoice in you;
I will sing praise to your name, Most High!
- ³ When my enemies turn back,
they stumble and perish before you.
- ⁴ For you have defended my just cause;
you sit on your throne, a righteous judge!
- ⁵ You rebuked the nations;
you have destroyed the wicked;
you have blotted out their name forever and ever.
- ⁶ The enemy crumbled like ruins
when you overthrew their cities.
All remembrance of them has perished.
- ⁷ But Yahweh remains forever;
he has established his throne for justice.
- ⁸ He will judge the world with righteousness, and he will execute judgment for the nations with fairness.
- ⁹ Yahweh also will be a stronghold for the oppressed,
a stronghold in times of trouble.
- ¹⁰ Those who know your name trust in you,
for you, Yahweh, do not abandon those who seek you.
- ¹¹ Sing praises to Yahweh, who rules in Zion;
tell the nations of his deeds.
- ¹² For the God who avenges bloodshed remembers;
he does not forget the cry of the oppressed.
- ¹³ Have mercy on me, Yahweh; see my affliction by those who hate me,
you who can snatch me from the gates of death.
- ¹⁴ Oh, that I might proclaim all your praise.
In the gates of the daughter of Zion
I will rejoice in your salvation!
- ¹⁵ The nations have sunk down into the pit that they made;
their feet are caught in the net that they hid.
- ¹⁶ Yahweh has made himself known; he has executed judgment;

the wicked is ensnared by his own actions.

Selah

¹⁷ The wicked are turned back and sent to Sheol, all the nations that forget God.

¹⁸ For the needy will not always be forgotten,
nor will the hope of the oppressed be forever dashed.

¹⁹ Arise, Yahweh; do not let man win against you;
may the nations be judged in your sight.

²⁰ Terrify them, Yahweh;
may the nations know that they are mere men.

Selah

Psalm 9 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 9 is a psalm of praise.

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's protection

God is a protector. He is all-powerful and his enemies cannot withstand him.

Acrostic Psalm

This psalm along with Psalm 10 form an acrostic. Which means that each unit begins with a successive letter of the Hebrew alphabet.

One Psalm or two

This psalm has a superscription but Psalm 10 doesn't. This fact and the acrostic nature of the two psalms has lead some scholars to believe these two psalms may have originally been written as one psalm.

Links:

Psalms 9:1

Psalms 9:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician; set to Muth Labben style. A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

set to Muth Labben

This may refer to a style of music.

I will give thanks to Yahweh with my whole heart

Since this song is addressed to Yahweh, Yahweh can be referred to as "you." Alternate translation: "Yahweh, I will give thanks to you with all my heart"

all your marvelous deeds

The noun "deeds" can be expressed with the verb "do."

Alternate translation: "all the marvelous things you do" or "all the marvelous things you have done"

Psalms 9:2

I will sing praise to your name

Here God's name represents God. Alternate translation: "I will sing praise to you"

Psalms 9:3

turn back

"retreat" or "flee in fear"

Psalms 9:4

you sit on your throne, a righteous judge

Kings had authority to judge people, and they would sit on their throne when they judged. David speaks as if God were an earthly king. Alternate translation: "you judge like a king who sits on his throne, and you are righteous"

Psalms 9:5

you have blotted out their name forever and ever

Causing people to be forgotten is spoken of as blotting out their name. Alternate translation: "you have caused them to be forgotten as if their name was blotted out" or "no one will ever remember them again"

blotted out

"erased"

Psalms 9:6

The enemy crumbled like ruins
The enemy is spoken of as if it were a city full of broken down buildings. Alternate translation: "Our enemies were destroyed"
when you overthrew their cities
"when you destroyed their cities"
All remembrance of them has perished
Here "remembrance" is spoken of as if it were a living being that could die. Alternate translation: "All remembrance of them has stopped" or "There is no longer any remembrance of them"
All remembrance of them has perished
The abstract noun "remembrance" can be expressed with the verb "remember." Alternate translation: "No one remembers them at all"
Psalms 9:7
Yahweh remains forever
"Remain" probably represents sitting on the throne as king. Alternate translation: "Yahweh sits on his throne forever" or "Yahweh rules forever"
he has established his throne for justice
The phrase "his throne" represents God's rule. Possible meanings are 1) "He rules in order to judge people" or "He rules over people justly"
Psalms 9:8
He will judge the world with righteousness ... he will execute judgment for the nations with fairness
These two clauses express the same meaning.
He will judge the world with righteousness
Here "the world" refers to all the people in the world. Alternate translation: "He will judge all the people of the world righteously"
Psalms 9:9
Yahweh also will be a stronghold for the oppressed
God is spoken of as if he were a place that people could go to for safety. Alternate translation: "Yahweh will also protect the oppressed" or "Yahweh will also provide safety for those who are oppressed"
Psalms 9:10
Those who know your name
Here the words "your name" represent God. Alternate translation: "Those who know you"
do not abandon
"do not forsake" or "do not leave"
Psalms 9:11
who rules in Zion
"who is king in Jerusalem"
tell the nations
Here "the nations" represents the people of the nations.
Psalms 9:12
For the God who avenges bloodshed remembers
What he remembers can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "For the God who avenges bloodshed remembers those who were killed" or "For God remembers those who were killed and he punishes the killers" he does not forget the cry
"He does not ignore the cry"
Psalms 9:13
see my affliction by those who hate me

This can be expressed in active form. Alternate translation: "see how those who hate me oppress me" or "see how badly my enemies treat me"
you who can snatch me from the gates of death
Death is spoken of as if it were a city that had gates through which people enter it. If someone is near the gates of death, it means that he will die soon. Keeping someone from dying is spoken of as taking him away from the gates of that city. Alternate translation: "you who can rescue me from death" or "you who can keep me from dying"
Psalms 9:14
General Information:
This page has intentionally been left blank.
Psalms 9:15
The nations have sunk down into the pit that they made People dig pits so they can catch animals that fall into them. Here digging a pit represents making plans to destroy people. Alternate translation: "The nations are like people who dig a pit for others and then fall into it"
their feet are caught in the net that they hid People hide nets so they can catch animals that get caught in them. Here hiding a net represents making plans to destroy people. Alternate translation: "they are like people who hide a net and get trapped in it"
Psalms 9:16
the wicked is ensnared by his own actions
Here "wicked" is a nominal adjective that refers to any wicked person. A wicked person acting to harm other people is spoken of as if the wicked person had made a trap and then fallen into it and been unable to escape. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "when a wicked person tries to harm other people, his actions will end up harming him" is ensnared
"is trapped"
Psalms 9:17
turned back
"rejected"
all the nations that forget God
This refers to "the wicked."
Psalms 9:18
For the needy will not always be forgotten
This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "God will not always forget the needy" or "God will remember the needy"
nor will the hope of the oppressed be forever dashed Hopes are spoken of as if they were objects that could be broken or destroyed. Hopes being destroyed represents the things that people hope for never happening. Alternate translation: "and the oppressed will not hope forever without results" or "and someday what the oppressed hope for will happen"
Psalms 9:19
Arise
Getting up represents starting to do something. Alternate translation: "Do something" or "Take action" man people be judged

Chapter 10

Here judging represents punishing. Alternate translation:
"be punished"
in your sight
Here sight represents presence. Alternate translation: "in your presence"
may the nations be judged in your sight

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:
"judge the nations in your presence" or "take the nations into your presence and punish them"
Psalms 9:20
General Information:
This page has intentionally been left blank.

Chapter 10

- ¹ Why, Yahweh, do you stand far off?
Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?
- ² Because of their arrogance, wicked people chase the oppressed;
but please let the wicked be trapped by their own schemes that they have devised.
- ³ For the wicked person boasts of his deepest desires;
he blesses the greedy and insults Yahweh.
- ⁴ The wicked in the haughtiness of his face does not seek God.
All his thoughts are that there is no God.
- ⁵ He is secure at all times,
but your righteous decrees are too high for him;
he snorts at all his enemies.
- ⁶ He says in his heart, "I will never fail;
throughout all generations I will not meet adversity."
- ⁷ His mouth is full of curses and lies and oppression;
under his tongue are mischief and evil.
- ⁸ He waits in ambush near the villages;
in the secret places he murders the innocent;
his eyes look for some helpless victim.
- ⁹ He lurks in secret like a lion in the thicket;
he lies in wait to catch the oppressed.
He catches the oppressed when he pulls in his net.
- ¹⁰ His victims are crushed and beaten down;
they fall into his strong nets.
- ¹¹ He says in his heart, "God has forgotten;
he covers his face; he will never see it."
- ¹² Arise, Yahweh! Lift up your hand, God!
Do not forget the oppressed.
- ¹³ Why does the wicked man reject God and say in his heart, "You will not hold me accountable"?
- ¹⁴ You have taken notice, for you always see the one who inflicts the misery and sorrow.
The helpless entrusts himself to you;

you rescue the fatherless.

- ¹⁵ Break the arm of the wicked and evil man.
Make him account for his evil deeds,
which he thought you would not discover.

- ¹⁶ Yahweh is King forever and ever;
the nations are driven out of his land.

- ¹⁷ Yahweh, you have heard the needs of the oppressed;
you strengthen their heart, you listen to their prayer;

- ¹⁸ You defend the fatherless and the oppressed
so that no man on the earth will cause terror again.

Psalm 10 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 10 is a psalm of deliverance. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Evil people

The wicked people are prospering and think that God does not care. They think that he is not involved in these affairs. They destroy the innocent. The godly need God to come to their rescue and to punish the wicked people for the evil that they are doing to the good people. (See: evil, innocent and godly and good)

Second half of Psalm 9

As noted in the intro to the last psalm, this one is part of an acrostic poem. This psalm covers the last half on the Hebrew alphabet. It also does not have a superscription to introduce it. However, the psalms do separate well on the subjects they address. One addresses thanksgiving and praise whereas Psalm 10 is a lament. (See: lament)

Links:

Psalms 10:1

Psalms 10:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

Why, Yahweh, do you stand far off? Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?

The speaker uses these questions to express his distress that God has not helped him. Alternate translation:

"Yahweh, it seems as though you are far away from me and you hide from me whenever I am in trouble"

Psalms 10:2

schemes

evil plans

Psalms 10:3

the wicked person

This refers to wicked people in general. Alternate translation: "wicked people"

his deepest desires

The noun "desires" can be expressed with the verb "want." Alternate translation: "the things that he wants very much to do" the greedy

"greedy people"

Psalms 10:4

The wicked

This refers here to wicked people in general. Alternate translation: "the wicked person" in the haughtiness of his face

The word "face" here is a metonym for the person and how he thinks. Alternate translation: "has an arrogant attitude and" or "is proud and"

does not seek God

Seeking God represents either 1) asking God for help or 2) thinking about God and obeying him. Alternate translation: "does not ask God for help" or "does not think about God"

Psalms 10:5

He is secure at all times

"He is safe at all times." He is not really safe, but he thinks that he is.

your righteous decrees are too high for him

Something that is hard to understand is spoken of as if it were too high to reach. Alternate translation: "he cannot understand your righteous decrees"

he snorts at all his enemies

People snort at their enemies when they think that their enemies are weak and worthless. Alternate translation: "he thinks that all his enemies are weak and worthless" or "he sneers at all his enemies"

he snorts

This means that he blows air out noisily through his nose.
Psalms 10:6
He says
"The wicked man says"
throughout all generations
This probably simply means "forever."
I will not meet adversity Experiencing adversity is spoken of as meeting it. Alternate translation: "I will not have any troubles"
Psalms 10:7
His mouth is full of curses and lies and oppression
What people say is spoken of as being in their mouth.
Alternate translation: "He always curses people, tells lies, and threatens to harm people"
under his tongue are mischief and evil
Here the tongue represents speaking. Alternate translation: or "what he says injures and destroys people" or "he speaks words that threaten and hurt people"
Psalms 10:8
He waits in ambush
The word "he" refers to the wicked man.
his eyes look for some helpless victim
The eyes represent him. Alternate translation: "he looks for some helpless victim"
Psalms 10:9
He lurks in secret like a lion in the thicket
This speaks of the wicked person as if he were a lion.
Alternate translation: "He hides while he waits for the weak to walk near him, the same way a lion quietly waits in the bush for the animal it wants to attack" lurks
This means to hide or wait with intent to harm or kill.
he lies in wait
"lies down waiting" or "he hides and waits"
He catches the oppressed when he pulls in his net
The writer speaks of the wicked person catching people as if he were a hunter using a net to catch animals. Alternate translation: "He catches the oppressed like a hunter that catches an animal in a net and drags it away"
Psalms 10:10
they fall into his strong nets
The writer continues to speak of the wicked person catching people as if he were a hunter, his plans were nets, and the people were animals that fall into his net. Alternate translation: "his victims are caught by his plans like animals that fall into a hunter's strong nets"
Psalms 10:11
He says
The word "He" refers to the wicked person, and to wicked people in general.
God has forgotten
Refusing to pay attention to what people do is spoken of as forgetting. Alternate translation: "God does not pay attention" or "God does not care about what I do" he covers his face Refusing to pay attention to what someone does is spoken of as covering one's face. Alternate translation: "God refuses to see what is happening" he will never see it

"he will never see what I am doing" or "he does not care what I am doing" or "he will never punish me for what I am doing"
Psalms 10:12
Arise
Starting to do something is spoken of as getting up.
Alternate translation: "Do something"
Lift up your hand
Here lifting the hand to hit someone represents punishing him. Alternate translation: "Hit him hard" or "Punish the wicked person"
Psalms 10:13
Why does the wicked man reject God and say ... "You will not hold me accountable"?
The speaker uses this question to show that he is very sad that wicked people do these things. Alternate translation: "Wicked people are always rejecting God and saying ... 'You will not hold me accountable.'"
You will not hold me accountable
"You will not require me to tell you why I do what I do."
Holding someone accountable here represents punishing him. Alternate translation: "You will not punish me"
Psalms 10:14
General Information:
This page has intentionally been left blank.
Psalms 10:15
Break the arm of the wicked and evil man Here "arm" represents power. Alternate translation: "Destroy the power of the wicked and evil man" or "Make the wicked and evil man weak" wicked and evil
These words have the same meaning. You can use one word to express both concepts.
Make him account for his evil deeds
Making someone account for his evil deeds represents punishing him. Alternate translation: "Punish him for the evil things he has done"
Psalms 10:16
the nations are driven out of his land
This can be stated in active form. "Yahweh forces the people of other nations to leave his land"
Psalms 10:17
you have heard the needs of the oppressed
It is implied that the oppressed people cried out to God. Alternate translation: "when oppressed people cried out to you, you listened to them tell you what they need" you strengthen their heart
A strong heart represents courage, and making people's hearts strong represents encouraging them. Alternate translation: "you encourage them" or "you make them confident"
Psalms 10:18
no man ... will cause terror again
"no one ... will cause people to be afraid again"

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

- ¹ I take refuge in Yahweh;
how will you say to me,
"Flee like a bird to the mountain"?
- ² For see! The wicked prepare their bows.
They make ready their arrows on the strings to shoot in the darkness at the upright in heart.
- ³ For if the foundations are ruined,
what can the righteous do?
- ⁴ Yahweh is in his holy temple;
his eyes watch, his eyes examine the children of mankind.
- ⁵ Yahweh examines both the righteous and the wicked,
but he hates those who love to do violence.
- ⁶ He rains burning coals and sulfur upon the wicked;
a scorching wind will be their portion from his cup!
- ⁷ For Yahweh is righteous, and he loves righteousness;
the upright will see his face.

Psalm 11 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 11 is a worship psalm. It tells how great God is and that God delivers the good people from the evil people. (See: deliverer and good and evil)

Special concepts in this chapter

Justice

The wicked people try to destroy the good people but God knows everything that is being done and he saves the good people and destroys the evil people. (See: justice and save)

Links:

Psalms 11:1

Psalms 11:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician. A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship."

take refuge in Yahweh

Going to Yahweh for protection is spoken of as taking refuge in him. Alternate translation: "go to Yahweh for protection"

how will you say to me, "Flee like a bird to the mountain"?

This question is asked to provide emphasis. It can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "So do not ask me to run away!"

Psalms 11:2

For see! The wicked prepare their bows. They make ready their arrows on the strings to shoot in the darkness at the upright in heart

"Look! the wicked are preparing to attack upright people" upright in heart

Here "upright in heart" refers to godly or righteous people. Psalms 11:3

For if the foundations are ruined, what can the righteous do?

Here "the foundations" may refer to law and order. This rhetorical question is asked to add emphasis. It can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "Righteous people cannot do anything when evil people are not punished when they disobey the laws!"

Psalms 11:4

Chapter 12

his eyes watch, his eyes examine the children of mankind
Here Yahweh is represented by his "eyes." Yahweh is aware of everything that happens. Alternate translation: "He examines all that humanity does"
children of mankind
"humanity"
Psalms 11:5
Yahweh examines
"Yahweh watches carefully"
do violence
"hurt others"

Psalms 11:6
He rains burning coals and sulfur upon the wicked; a scorching wind will be their portion from his cup!
God's punishment is described as if it were burning coals and sulfur from a volcano. Alternate translation: "He punishes the wicked; there will be no relief for them!"
sulfur burning sulphur
Psalms 11:7
see his face
"be in his presence"

Chapter 12

For the chief musician; set to the Sheminith. A psalm of David.

- ¹ Help, Yahweh, for the faithful ones have disappeared;
those who have integrity have vanished from the children of men.
 - ² Everyone says empty words to his neighbor;
everyone speaks with flattering lips and a double heart.
 - ³ Yahweh, cut off all flattering lips,
every tongue declaring great things.
 - ⁴ These are those who have said, "With our tongues we will prevail.
When our lips speak, who can be master over us?"
 - ⁵ "Because of violence against the poor, because of the groans of the needy,
I will arise," says Yahweh.
"I will provide the safety for which they long."
 - ⁶ The words of Yahweh are pure words, like silver purified in a furnace on the earth,
refined seven times.
 - ⁷ You are Yahweh! You keep them.
You preserve the godly people from this wicked generation and forever.
 - ⁸ The wicked walk on every side when evil is exalted among the children of mankind.
-

Psalm 12 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 12 is a judgment psalm, where the author asks God to judge and punish the wicked people. (See: judge and evil)

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh saves

There are so many wicked people now and they are proud of their evil. But God will save the poor who call out to him. (See: save and call)

Words

This relatively short psalm focuses on the words people use.

Links:

Psalms 12:1

Psalms 12:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician; set to the Sheminith. A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

set to the Sheminith

This may refer to a style of music. See how you translated this in Psalms 6:1.

Help, Yahweh

"Yahweh, come to my aid"

those who have integrity have vanished

"faithful people have all vanished"

Psalms 12:2

Everyone says ... everyone speaks

The two occurrences of "everyone" are exaggerations, used to emphasize that this is true of very many people.

everyone speaks with flattering lips and a double heart

Here "lips" is a metonym for what people say, and "a double heart" is a metaphor for deception. Alternate translation: "everyone speaks with flattering words and deception" or "everyone praises people falsely and tells lies"

Psalms 12:3

cut off all flattering lips

Here "flattering lips" is a metonym for people who flatter others. Possible meanings are 1) "cut off" is a metaphor for killing. Alternate translation: "kill all who flatter others" or 2) "cut off" is a metaphor for stopping something. Alternate translation: "stop all those who flatter others"

every tongue declaring great things

Here "every tongue" represents every person who declares great things. Alternate translation: "every person who boasts"

Psalms 12:4

With our tongues we will prevail

Here the word "tongues" represents what people say.

Alternate translation: "We will prevail because of what we say"

we will prevail

"we will succeed" or "we will win" or "we will be victorious"

When our lips speak

Here the "lips" represents the people who speak. Alternate translation: "When we speak" who can be master over us?

This rhetorical question is asked to emphasize that they believed no one could rule over them. It can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "no one can rule over us!"

Psalms 12:5

groans

These are deep sounds that people make because of pain or some strong emotion.

I will arise," says Yahweh

This means Yahweh will do something to help the people.

Psalms 12:6

like silver purified in a furnace on the earth, refined seven times

Yahweh's words are compared to silver that has been purified. Alternate translation: "they are without any imperfection"

Psalms 12:7

You keep them

"You keep the righteous people safe"

Psalms 12:8

walk on every side

"surround us"

when evil is exalted among the children of mankind

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"when people everywhere are praising evil"

children of mankind

"human beings" or "people"

Chapter 13

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

¹ How long, Yahweh, will you forget me? Forever?
How long will you hide your face from me?

² How long must I worry and have grief in my heart all day?
How long will my enemy triumph over me?

³ Look at me and answer me, Yahweh my God!
Give light to my eyes, or I will sleep in death.

⁴ Do not let my enemy say, "I have defeated him," so that my enemy may not say, "I have prevailed over my adversary";

otherwise, my enemies will rejoice when I am brought down.

⁵ But I have trusted in your covenant faithfulness;
my heart rejoices in your salvation.

⁶ I will sing to Yahweh because he has treated me very generously.

Psalm 13 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 13 is a psalm of deliverance because the psalmist is calling on God to deliver him from death and his enemies. (See: deliverer and call)

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's help

The author needs God to help him because his enemies will rejoice if they are able to defeat him. The string of rhetorical questions is very effective at heightening the fear David is feeling. (See: and fear)

Links:

Psalms 13:1

Psalms 13:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician. A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship."

How long, Yahweh, will you forget me? Forever?

The writer asks these question to get the reader's attention and to add emphasis. They can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "Yahweh, it seems that you have forgotten about me and will never remember me!"

How long ... face from me?

The words "your face" represent God's whole being. This rhetorical question is asked to add emphasis. It can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "It seems like you are hiding from me!"

Psalms 13:2

How long will my enemy triumph over me?

This rhetorical question is asked to add emphasis. It can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "Surely my enemies will not always defeat me!"

Psalms 13:3

Look at me and answer me

"Give me your attention and listen to me"

Give light to my eyes

This is a way of asking for strength. Alternate translation: "Make me strong again"

or I will sleep in death

To "sleep in death" means to die.

Psalms 13:4

Do not let my enemy say ... so that my enemy may not say

"Do not let my enemy say about me ... so that my enemy may not say about me"

when I am brought down

"when I fall" or "when they defeat me"

Psalms 13:5

I have trusted in your covenant faithfulness

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "I have trusted that you are faithful to your covenant" or "I have trusted you because you are faithful to your covenant"

my heart rejoices in your salvation

Here "my heart" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "I will rejoice because you have rescued me"

Psalms 13:6

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Chapter 14

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

¹ A fool says in his heart, "There is no God."
They are corrupt and have done abominable iniquity;
there is no one who does good.

- ² Yahweh looks down from heaven on the children of mankind to see if there are any who understand,
who seek after him.
- ³ They have all turned away. Together they have become corrupt.
There is no one who does good, no, not one.
- ⁴ Do they not know anything, those who behave wickedly, those who eat up my people as they eat bread,
but who do not call on Yahweh?
- ⁵ They tremble with dread,
for God is with the righteous generation!
- ⁶ You want to humiliate the poor person
even though Yahweh is his refuge.
- ⁷ Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come from Zion!
When Yahweh brings back his people from the captivity,
then Jacob will rejoice and Israel will be glad!

Psalm 14 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 14 is a deliverance psalm because he is trusting God to deliver the poor. (See: deliverer and trust)

Special concepts in this chapter

Evil people

Wicked people do not even consider God when they make their plans. (See: evil)

Links:

Psalms 14:1

Psalms 14:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician. A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship."

A fool says in his heart

This is an idiom that means to say to oneself or to think to oneself. Alternate translation: "A foolish person says to himself"

They are corrupt

The word "they" refers to all foolish human beings who say there is no God.

Psalms 14:2

children of mankind

This phrase refers to all humans.

who seek after him

This describes those who desire to know God as if they were actually following him on a path. Alternate translation: "who desire to know him"

Psalms 14:3

They have all turned away

This describes people who have rejected God as if they had stopped walking on the right path and had gone in another direction. Alternate translation: "They have all turned away from Yahweh"

Psalms 14:4

Do they not know anything ... who do not call on Yahweh?

This rhetorical question is asked to add emphasis. It can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "They act as if they do not know anything ... who do not call on Yahweh. But they know what they are doing!"

those who eat up my people

This refers to those who do evil things and destroy God's people as if they were eating food.

Psalms 14:5

They tremble

The word "they" refers to those who do evil things.

God is with the righteous generation

To say that "God is with" those who are righteous means that he helps them. This can be stated clearly in the translation. Alternate translation: "God helps those who act righteously" or "God helps those who do the right things"
Psalms 14:6

You want

The word "you" here refers to the wicked people.

to humiliate the poor person

"to make the person who is poor feel ashamed"

Yahweh is his refuge

This speaks of the protection that Yahweh provides as if he were a shelter that one might seek in a storm. Alternate translation: "Yahweh is like a shelter of protection to him"
Psalms 14:7

Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come from Zion!

This is an exclamation. The writer is saying what he wishes or longs for God to do. Alternate translation: "I wish so much that the salvation of Israel would come from Zion!"

Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come from Zion!

Here "the salvation of Israel" is a metonym for Yahweh, the one who saves Israel. Alternate translation: "Oh, that Yahweh would come from Zion and save Israel!" or "I wish that Yahweh would come from Zion and rescue his people Israel!"

then Jacob will rejoice and Israel will be glad

These two phrases mean the same thing. Here both "Jacob" and "Israel" represent the people of Israel. The two phrases can be combined in the translation. Alternate translation: "then all the people of Israel will rejoice greatly"

Chapter 15

A psalm of David.

¹ Yahweh, who may stay in your tabernacle?
Who may live on your holy hill?

² Whoever walks blamelessly, does what is right and speaks truth from his heart.

³ He does not slander with his tongue,
he does not harm others,
and he does not insult his neighbor.

⁴ The abhorrent is despised in his eyes,
but he honors those who fear Yahweh.
He swears to his own disadvantage and does not take back his promises.

⁵ He does not charge interest when he lends money.
He does not take bribes to testify against the innocent.
He who does these things will never be shaken.

Psalm 15 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 15 is a wisdom psalm telling how people who honor God should live. (See: wise and life)

Special concepts in this chapter

Godliness

This psalm outlines a person who is godly and sees others from a godly perspective. There are several good actions mentioned. Such a person treats his neighbor right, does not slander him, does not take a bribe or interest from him, and keeps his promises even when it is difficult to do so. (See: godly and good and promise)

Moral Conditions for Worship

Scholars have noted that this psalm contains a list of ten different conditions for those who want to participate in worship at the temple. The list consists of three positives in verse 2, 3 negatives in verse 3, two positives in verse 4, followed by two negatives in verse 5. (See: temple)

Links:

Psalms 15:1

Chapter 16

Psalms 15:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

Who may live on your holy hill?

God's "holy hill" represents God's temple, which was on Mount Zion. Alternate translation: "Who may live in your holy place?"

Psalms 15:2

speaks truth from his heart

"speaks honestly"

Psalms 15:3

He does not slander with his tongue

Here "tongue" represents what a person says. The word

"he" refers to the "righteous person" harm

hurt

Psalms 15:4

The abhorrent is despised in his eyes, but he honors those who fear Yahweh

"Righteous people hate those who have rejected God, but they honor those who respect God"

The abhorrent

This phrase refers to any person whom Yahweh abhors.

Alternate translation: "The wicked person" or "The person who has rejected Yahweh"

Psalms 15:5

will never be shaken

Here "to be shaken" represents not living safely any longer.

This can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: "will live in safety"

Chapter 16

A michtam of David.

¹ Protect me, God,

for I take refuge in you.

² I say to Yahweh, "You are my Lord;

my goodness is nothing apart from you.

³ As for the holy people who are on the earth,

they are noble people; all my delight is in them.

⁴ Their troubles will be increased, those who seek out other gods.

I will not pour out drink offerings of blood to their gods or lift up their names with my lips.

⁵ Yahweh, you are my chosen portion and my cup.

You hold onto my lot.

⁶ Measuring lines have been laid for me in pleasant places;

surely a beautiful inheritance is mine.

⁷ I will bless Yahweh, who counsels me;

even at night my mind instructs me.

⁸ I set Yahweh before me at all times,

so I will not be shaken from his right hand!

⁹ Therefore my heart is glad; my glory is rejoicing.

Surely I will live in security.

¹⁰ For you will not abandon my soul to Sheol.
You will not let your faithful one see the pit.

¹¹ You teach me the path of life;
abundant joy resides in your presence;
delights abide in your right hand forever!"

Psalm 16 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 16 is a psalm of praise, thanking God for all his mercies. The New Testament considers this psalm to be a messianic psalm: a psalm about Christ. (See: mercy and christ)

Special concepts in this chapter

Messiah

God has been so good to the psalmist, who will worship no other god. The New Testament considers the tenth verse to be about Christ's resurrection when it says that he is God's anointed one, and that God will not leave his body in the grave to decay. (See: good, falsegod and resurrection and anoint)

Superscription

The term "Michtam" is used in the superscription for this psalm. There is much discussion about this term, but in the end no one is certain what it means. So it is easiest to transliterate this word into your language, or you are welcome to translate it as "psalm."

Links:

Psalms 16:1

Psalms 16:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

take refuge in you

Going to Yahweh for protection is spoken of as taking refuge in him. Alternate translation: "go to you for protection"

Psalms 16:2

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 16:3

the holy people who are on the earth

Here "holy people" refers to God's own people who trust him. Alternate translation: "your people who live in this land"

Psalms 16:4

Their troubles will be ... gods

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "The troubles of those who seek other gods will increase"

pour out ... blood to their gods

"pour out blood as a sacrifice to their gods"

or lift up their names with my lips

Lifting up their names is a metaphor for praising them, and "lips" is a metonym for what one says. Alternate translation: "or praise them with my words" or "and I will not praise their gods"

Psalms 16:5

my chosen portion

Here David speaks of Yahweh as if he were a portion of land that has been given to him.

my cup

Here David speaks of Yahweh as if he were a cup that contains many blessings. Alternate translation: "the one who blesses me"

You hold onto my lot

"You determine my future" or "You control what will happen to me"

Psalms 16:6

Measuring lines ... in pleasant places

Here laying down measuring lines is a metonym for measuring land and giving it to someone, and here this is a metaphor for God blessing David in many great ways. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "You have measured off land for me in pleasant places" or "You have given me land in pleasant places" or "You bless me like one who gives land in pleasant places"

Measuring lines

These are ropes that people use to measure a plot of land and mark its boundaries.

surely a beautiful inheritance is mine

Here David speaks of Yahweh's blessings as if they were an inheritance that he has received. Alternate translation: "I am delighted with all the things that he has given me"

Psalms 16:7

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 16:8

I set Yahweh before me at all times

"I always remember that Yahweh is with me"

so I will not be shaken from his right hand

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "nothing will take me away from his side"

Psalms 16:9

General Information:

Chapter 17

David continues to speak to God.

my heart is glad

Here the "heart" represents the speaker's thoughts and emotions. Alternate translation: "Therefore I am glad"

my glory is rejoicing

Possible meanings are 1) the word "glory" represents the honor a person feels. Alternate translation: "I am honored to rejoice in God" or 2) the word translated "glory" really means "liver" and represents the speaker's emotions. Alternate translation: "I am rejoicing"

Psalms 16:10

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 16:11

abundant joy

"great joy" or "a large amount of joy"

joy resides in your presence

The writer speaks of "joy" as if it were a person.

in your right hand

The words "right hand" indicate being in God's special presence. Alternate translation: "when I am near you"

Chapter 17

A prayer of David.

- ¹ Listen to my plea for justice, Yahweh;
pay attention to my cry for help!
Give ear to my prayer from lips without deceit.
- ² Let my vindication come from your presence;
let your eyes see what is right!
- ³ If you test my heart, if you come to me in the night,
you will purify me and will not find any evil plans;
my mouth will not transgress.
- ⁴ As for the deeds of mankind,
it is at the word of your lips that I have kept myself from the ways of the lawless.
- ⁵ My steps have held firmly to your tracks;
my feet have not slipped.
- ⁶ I call to you, for you answer me, God;
turn your ear to me and listen when I speak.
- ⁷ Show your covenant faithfulness in a wonderful way, you who save by your right hand
those who take refuge in you from their enemies!
- ⁸ Protect me like the apple of your eye;
hide me under the shadow of your wings
- ⁹ from the presence of the wicked ones who deal violently with me, my enemies who surround me.
- ¹⁰ They have no mercy on anyone;
their mouths speak with pride.
- ¹¹ They have surrounded my steps.
They set their eyes to strike me to the ground.
- ¹² They are like a lion eager for a victim,

like a young lion crouching in hidden places.

¹³ Arise, Yahweh! Attack them! Throw them down on their faces!
Rescue my life from the wicked by your sword!

¹⁴ Rescue me from men by your hand, Yahweh, from men of this world whose prosperity is in this life alone!
You will fill the bellies of your treasured ones with riches;
they will have many children and will leave their wealth to their children.

¹⁵ As for me, I will see your face in righteousness;
I will be satisfied, when I awake, with a sight of you.

Psalm 17 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 17 is a prayer for deliverance from all his enemies. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Innocence

The psalmist is innocent and needs God to rescue him from these enemies. (See: innocent)

Links:

Psalms 17:1

Psalms 17:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

Give ear to my prayer from lips without deceit

The phrase "give ear" is a metaphor for listening, and "lips without deceit" is synecdoche for a person who does not lie. Alternate translation: "Listen to my prayer for I speak without deceit"

Psalms 17:2

Let my vindication come from your presence

Vindication coming from God represents God judging someone and declaring him innocent. God's "presence" is a metonym for God himself. Alternate translation: "Let my vindication come from you" or "Declare that I am innocent" let your eyes see what is right!

Here "your eyes" is synecdoche for God himself, and "see" is a metaphor for paying attention and firmly deciding to do something. Alternate translation: "please see what is right" or "do what is right"

Psalms 17:3

If you test my heart, if you come to me in the night

Here "test my heart" means to examine my thoughts and motives. Alternate translation: "If you examine my thoughts in the night"

my mouth will not transgress

Here the mouth is spoken of as if it were capable of acting on its own. It also represents the words that a person speaks. Alternate translation: "I will not tell lies or sin with my words"

Psalms 17:4

it is at the word of your lips that I have kept myself from the ways of the lawless

Here "the word of your lips" is a metonym for God's instruction, and "the ways of the lawless" is a metaphor for the things that lawless people do. Alternate translation: "it is by obeying your instruction that I have kept myself from doing the things that lawless people do" or "your instruction has caused me to avoid doing wicked things"

Psalms 17:5

My steps have held firmly to your tracks; my feet have not slipped

Both of these clauses mean the same thing. The repetition adds emphasis.

my feet have not slipped

The writer speaks of his obedience to God as if he were walking on a path. Alternate translation: "I am determined to follow your ways"

Psalms 17:6

turn your ear to me ... listen when I speak

These phrases mean the same thing. Here "your ear" refers to God's willingness to hear someone who prays to him.

Alternate translation: "pay attention to me ... listen when I speak"

Psalms 17:7

Show your covenant faithfulness in a wonderful way

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "Show in a wonderful way that you are faithful to your covenant"

your right hand

Chapter 18

The "right hand" refers to God's power. Alternate translation: "your mighty power"

take refuge in you

Going to Yahweh for protection is spoken of as taking refuge in him. Alternate translation: "go to you for protection"

Psalms 17:8

Protect me like the apple of your eye

The "apple of your eye" refers to something that is valuable. Alternate translation: "Protect me as you would something most valuable and precious"

hide me under the shadow of your wings

David speaks of God's protection as if he were a bird protecting its young under its wings. Alternate translation: "Keep me safe as a mother bird protects her babies by gathering them under her wing"

Psalms 17:9

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 17:10

their mouths speak with pride

Here "their mouths speak" represents his enemies when they speak. Alternate translation: "they speak with pride" or "they are always boasting"

Psalms 17:11

They have surrounded my steps

Here "surrounded my steps" represents how David's enemies have followed him everywhere he goes in order to capture him. Alternate translation: "My enemies have surrounded me"

Psalms 17:12

like a lion eager for a victim, like a young lion crouching in hidden places

These two phrases express very similar ideas. The repetition adds intensity.

They are like a lion ... like a young lion

The writer feels pursued the way a lion hunts its prey

Psalms 17:13

by your sword

This is a metaphor for Yahweh's power and for violent death in war. Alternate translation: "by having them die in war" or "by killing them in battle"

Psalms 17:14

Rescue me from men by your hand, Yahweh, from men of this world

This clause adds intensity to the words "Rescue my life from the wicked by your sword"

by your hand

These words represent the power of Yahweh and add intensity to the words "by your sword"

You will fill the bellies of your treasured ones with riches

The ancient text is hard to understand. Possible meanings are 1) "treasured" is a metaphor for loved, and "your treasured ones" refers to the people whom God loves.

Alternate translation: "you will fill the bellies of the people you love with riches" or 2) "your treasured ones" refers to treasures that God gives to people, the "men of this world" Alternate translation: "you will fill their bellies with rich treasures"

You will fill the bellies ... with riches

Here "fill the bellies ... with riches" is a metaphor for giving them many valuable things. Possible meanings are 1) "You will give many riches to the people you love" or 2) "you will give the men of this world many riches"

Psalms 17:15

I will see your face in righteousness

Here "face" represents Yahweh in all of his being. David is confident he will see Yahweh. Alternate translation: "because I act in the right way, I will be with you one day"

I will be satisfied, when I awake, with a sight of you

David believes that after he dies, he will be with Yahweh.

This can be made clear in the translation. Alternate translation: "After I die, I will be happy to wake up in your presence"

Chapter 18

For the chief musician. A psalm of David, the servant of Yahweh, when he sang to Yahweh the words of this song on the day that Yahweh rescued him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. He sang:

¹ I love you, Yahweh, my strength.

² Yahweh is my rock, my fortress, the one who brings me to safety;
he is my God, my rock; I take refuge in him.
He is my shield, the horn of my salvation, and my stronghold.

³ I will call on Yahweh who is worthy to be praised,
and I will be saved from my enemies.

⁴ The cords of death surrounded me,
and the rushing waters of worthlessness overwhelmed me.

⁵ The cords of Sheol surrounded me;

the snares of death trapped me.

- ⁶ In my distress I called to Yahweh;
I called for help to my God.
He heard my voice from his temple;
my cry for help went into his presence;
it went into his ears.
- ⁷ Then the earth shook and trembled;
the foundations of the mountains also trembled and were shaken because God was angry.
- ⁸ Smoke went up from out of his nostrils,
and blazing fire came out of his mouth.
Coals were kindled by it.
- ⁹ He opened the heavens and came down,
and thick darkness was under his feet.
- ¹⁰ He rode on a cherub and flew;
he glided on the wings of the wind.
- ¹¹ He made darkness a tent around him,
heavy rainclouds in the skies.
- ¹² Hailstones and coals of fire fell from the lightning before him.
- ¹³ Yahweh thundered in the heavens!
The voice of the Most High shouted. 1
- ¹⁴ He shot his arrows and scattered his enemies;
many lightning bolts dispersed them.
- ¹⁵ Then the water channels appeared;
the foundations of the world were laid bare at your rebuke, Yahweh,
at the blast of the breath of your nostrils.
- ¹⁶ He reached down from above; he took hold of me!
He pulled me out of the surging water.
- ¹⁷ He rescued me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me, for they were too strong for me.
- ¹⁸ They came against me on the day of my distress
but Yahweh was my support!
- ¹⁹ He set me free in a wide open place;
he saved me because he was pleased with me.
- ²⁰ Yahweh has rewarded me because of my righteousness;
he has restored me because my hands were clean.

- ²¹ For I have kept the ways of Yahweh and have not wickedly turned away from my God.
- ²² For all his righteous decrees have been before me;
as for his statutes, I have not turned away from them.
- ²³ I have also been innocent before him,
and I have kept myself from iniquity.
- ²⁴ Therefore Yahweh has restored me because of my righteousness, because my hands were clean before his eyes.
- ²⁵ To one who is faithful, you show yourself to be faithful;
to a man who is blameless, you show yourself to be blameless.
- ²⁶ To one who is pure, you show yourself to be pure;
but to one who is perverse, you show yourself to be shrewd.
- ²⁷ For you save afflicted people,
but you abase those with proud, uplifted eyes!
- ²⁸ For you give light to my lamp;
Yahweh my God lights up my darkness.
- ²⁹ For by you I can run over a barricade;
by my God I can leap over a wall.
- ³⁰ As for God—his way is perfect!
The word of Yahweh is pure!
He is a shield to everyone who takes refuge in him.
- ³¹ For who is God except Yahweh?
Who is a rock except our God?
- ³² It is God who puts strength on me like a belt, who places the blameless person on his path.
- ³³ He makes my feet swift like a deer and places me on the heights!
- ³⁴ He trains my hands for war and my arms to bend a bow of bronze.
- ³⁵ You have given me the shield of your salvation.
Your right hand has supported me,
and your favor has made me great.
- ³⁶ You have made a wide place for my feet beneath me so that my feet have not slipped.
- ³⁷ I pursued my enemies and caught them;
I did not turn back until they were destroyed.

- ³⁸ I smashed them so that they were unable to rise;
they have fallen under my feet.
- ³⁹ For you have girded me with strength for battle;
you put under me those who rise up against me.
- ⁴⁰ You gave me the back of my enemies' necks;
I annihilated those who hated me.
- ⁴¹ They called for help, but no one saved them;
they called out to Yahweh, but he did not answer them.
- ⁴² I beat them into fine pieces like dust before the wind;
I threw them out like mud in the streets.
- ⁴³ You rescued me from the disputes of people;
you have made me head over nations;
people whom I have not known serve me.
- ⁴⁴ As soon as they heard of me, they obeyed me;
foreigners were forced to bow to me.
- ⁴⁵ The foreigners came trembling out of their strongholds.
- ⁴⁶ Yahweh lives; may my rock be praised.
May the God of my salvation be exalted.
- ⁴⁷ He is the God who executes vengeance for me,
who subdues the nations under me.
- ⁴⁸ I am set free from my enemies!
Indeed, you lifted me above the ones who rose against me!
You rescued me from violent men.
- ⁴⁹ Therefore I will give thanks to you, Yahweh, among the nations;
I will sing praises to your name!
- ⁵⁰ God gives great victory to his king, and he shows his covenant loyalty to his anointed one,
to David and to his descendants forever.

¹This verse follows some Hebrew copies and the Septuagint, ending after shouted . Most Hebrew copies have the additional phrase hailstones and coals of fire .

Psalm 18 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 18 is a psalm of praise to God for his strengthening David for war.

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's power

God has tremendous power and he enabled David to prosper in war. This psalm, and its superscription, also appears in 1 Samuel 22 with some minor differences.

Links:

Psalms 18:1

Psalms 18:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician. A psalm of David, the servant of Yahweh, when he sang to Yahweh the words of this song on the day that Yahweh rescued him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. He sang:

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship."

A psalm of David

Possible meanings are 1) David wrote the psalm or 2) the psalm is about David or 3) the psalm is in the style of David's psalms.

he sang to Yahweh the words of this song

"he sang this song to Yahweh"

on the day that Yahweh rescued him

"after Yahweh had rescued him"

from the hand of Saul

Here "hand" stands for the power of Saul. Alternate translation: "from Saul's power"

Psalms 18:2

Yahweh is my rock

David speaks of Yahweh as if he were a rock. The word "rock" is a picture of a safe place.

my rock, my fortress

Here the words "rock" and "fortress" share similar meanings and emphasize that Yahweh provides safety from enemies.

take refuge in him

Going to Yahweh for protection is spoken of as taking refuge in him. Alternate translation: "go to him for protection"

my shield, the horn of my salvation, and my stronghold

David speaks of Yahweh as if he were a "shield," "the horn" of his salvation, and his "stronghold." Yahweh is the one who protects him from harm. Here a similar idea is repeated three ways for emphasis.

Psalms 18:3

I will be saved from my enemies

"I will be rescued from my enemies"

Psalms 18:4

The cords of death surrounded me

David speaks of death as if it were a person who could capture him and bind him with ropes. Alternate translation: "I was about to be killed"

rushing waters of worthlessness

David is as helpless as if he were being carried away by a rushing flood of waters. Alternate translation: "I felt completely helpless"

Psalms 18:5

The cords of Sheol surrounded me; the snares of death trapped me

Here "Sheol," the place of the dead, and "death" are spoken of as if they were people who could surround and trap him.

These two clauses have similar meanings and the idea is repeated for emphasis. Alternate translation: "I felt trapped and thought I was going to die"

Psalms 18:6

In my distress

"In my great need" or "In my despair"

my cry for help went into his presence

Here David speaks of his "cry for help" as if it were a person who could come into the presence of Yahweh.

Alternate translation: "I prayed to him"

it went into his ears

Here David speaks of how Yahweh heard his cry for help.

The idea is repeated for emphasis. Alternate translation: "he heard my appeal"

Psalms 18:7

Then the earth ... shaken because God was angry

God's being angry is spoken of as if there was a terrible earthquake. Alternate translation: "God was so angry that it was as if the earth ... shaken" the earth shook and trembled

The words "shook" and "trembled" mean basically the same thing and emphasize how greatly the earth shook.

Alternate translation: "the land moved back and forth" or "the ground moved up and down" or "there was a violent earthquake"

the foundations of the mountains also trembled and were shaken

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "the foundations of the mountains also trembled and shook"

Psalms 18:8

Smoke went up from out of his nostrils ... Coals were kindled by it David speaks of Yahweh as if he were breathing fire. This is a picture of how angry God was.

blazing fire came out of his mouth. Coals were kindled by it

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "blazing fire came out of his mouth and kindled coals"

Psalms 18:9

He opened

The word "He" refers to Yahweh.

thick darkness was under his feet

Though Yahweh does not actually have feet, the Psalmist gives him human characteristics. Alternate translation:

"thick darkness was beneath him"

Psalms 18:10

wings of the wind

Here the Psalmist speaks of the wind as if it had wings like an angel.

Psalms 18:11

He made darkness ... him

Here the words "He" and "him" refer to Yahweh.

He made darkness a tent

Here darkness is spoken of as if it were a tent. Alternate translation: "He made darkness a covering" or "He made darkness a hiding place"

heavy rainclouds

"clouds heavy with rain" or "thick, dark rainclouds"

Psalms 18:12

Hailstones

stones made of ice

Psalms 18:13

Yahweh thundered in the heavens

Yahweh's voice sounded like thunder.

the Most High

"the Most High" refers to Yahweh.

Psalms 18:14

He shot his arrows and scattered his enemies ... lightning bolts

dispersed them

Both of these clauses have similar meanings.

He shot his arrows and scattered his enemies

Here lighting strikes are being spoken of as if they were arrows

dispersed them

"sent them in different directions"

Psalms 18:15

General Information:

The writer continues to speak of Yahweh's great power.

Then the water channels appeared; the foundations of the world were laid bare

These two clauses have similar meanings. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Then the water channels appeared and the bottom of the ocean became visible; you exposed the foundations of the world"

at the blast of the breath of your nostrils

Though God does not have human physical characteristics as described here, this pictures his mighty strength. The wind is spoken of here as if it came as a mighty blast from God's nostrils.

Psalms 18:16

He reached down ... he took hold ... He pulled me

The word "He" in these verses refers to Yahweh.

surging water

Here the Psalmist speaks of the dangers of his enemies as if they were huge waves or forceful waters, from which Yahweh has rescued him.

Psalms 18:17

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 18:18

They came against me

Here "They" refers to the strong enemies in verse 17.

They came against me on the day of my distress but Yahweh was my support

The abstract noun "distress" can be stated as an adjective.

The abstract noun "support" can be stated as "protected."

Alternate translation: "Strong enemies attacked me on a day when I was distressed, but Yahweh protected me"

Psalms 18:19

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 18:20

my hands were clean

Here having clean hands represents being innocent of wrongdoing. Alternate translation: "I was innocent" or "my actions were right"

Psalms 18:21

I have kept the ways of Yahweh

The laws of Yahweh are spoken of as if they were the paths on which one should walk. Alternate translation: "I have obeyed Yahweh's laws" have not wickedly turned away from my God

Here being wicked is spoken of as if one left the right path and took the wrong path. Alternate translation: "have not done wickedly by turning away from my God"

Psalms 18:22

For all his righteous decrees ... I have not turned away from them

Both of these clauses have similar meanings. The writer repeats these ideas for emphasis.

have been before me

"have guided me" or "I have remembered"

Psalms 18:23

innocent before him

"innocent according to him"

I have kept myself from iniquity

"I have not sinned"

Psalms 18:24

my hands were clean

To have "clean hands" means that one is innocent of wrongdoing. See how you translated this in [Psalms 18:20]

before his eyes

This refers to God's presence. Alternate translation: "before him" or "according to him"

Psalms 18:25

General Information:

The writer speaks to Yahweh. He praises Yahweh for relating to people in ways that are appropriate for how the people live.

To one who is faithful

"To anyone who is faithful" or "To those who are faithful"

you show yourself to be faithful

"you show that you are faithful" or "you are faithful"

to a man who is blameless

"to anyone who is blameless" or "to those who are blameless"

you show yourself to be blameless

"you show that you are blameless" or "you are blameless"

Psalms 18:26

General Information:

The writer continues to speak to Yahweh and to praise Yahweh for relating to people in ways that are appropriate for how the people live.

To one who is pure

"To anyone who is pure" or "To those who are pure"

you show yourself to be pure

"you show that you are pure" or "you are pure"

but to one who is perverse, you show yourself to be shrewd

The perverse person might think that he is wise and can sin without being punished, but God is wiser and will do to the perverse person what that person deserves.

but to one who is perverse

"but to anyone who is perverse" or "but to those who are perverse"

you show yourself to be shrewd

"you show yourself to be wise" or "you are cunning"

Psalms 18:27

you abase

"you humiliate"

with proud, uplifted eyes

This idiom refers to those who are proud. Alternate translation: "who are proud"

Psalms 18:28

For you give light to my lamp; Yahweh my God lights up my darkness
The writer speaks of Yahweh's presence as if he were a light. These clauses have similar meanings.

Psalms 18:29

For by you I can run over a barricade

"For with your help I can run past anything that is in my way"

Psalms 18:30

He is a shield to everyone who takes refuge in him

A shield protects a soldier. David speaks as if God were a shield protecting him. See how you translated this in [Psalms 3:3]

Psalms 18:31

For who is God except Yahweh? Who is a rock except our God?

The implied answer is no one. Alternate translation: "Only Yahweh is God! Only our God is a rock!"

a rock

David speaks of Yahweh as if he were a rock that he could climb to get away from his enemies. See how you translated this in [Psalms 18:2]

Psalms 18:32

puts strength on me like a belt

God gives strength to David as if it were a piece of clothing. places the blameless person on his path

Here David speaks of living a life that is pleasing to God as if he were being placed on the right path. Alternate translation: "causes the blameless person to live a righteous life"

Psalms 18:33

makes my feet swift

This refers to enabling a person to run fast. Alternate translation: "makes me run very fast" like a deer and places me on the heights

The deer is especially quick and stable in the mountains.

Psalms 18:34

He trains my hands

Here "my hands" refers to the person. Alternate translation: "He trains me"

my arms

This refers to the person. Alternate translation: "me"

Psalms 18:35

the shield of your salvation

Here the writer speaks of God's protection as if it were a shield. The abstract noun "salvation" can be stated with the verb "save." Alternate translation: "your protection and saved me"

Your right hand has supported me

Here God's right hand represents his power. Alternate translation: "Your power has supported me" or "You have supported me by your power" your favor has made me great

Here God's favor represents him acting according to his favor. Alternate translation: "You have made me great according to your favor" or "By your kindness, you have made me great"

Psalms 18:36

a wide place for my feet beneath me

The writer speaks of the safety that God has provided as if it were a wide place for him to stand. Here "my feet" represent the person. Alternate translation: "a safe place for me"

my feet have not slipped

Here "my feet" refers to the person. The writer refers to the safety of God's protection as if he were standing on a place where he will not slip or fall. Alternate translation: "I have not slipped" or "I am doing well"

Psalms 18:37

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 18:38

I smashed them

"I crushed them" or "I broke them to pieces" unable to rise

"unable to stand"

they have fallen under my feet

This idiom means the Psalmist has defeated his enemies.

Alternate translation: "I have defeated all of them"

Psalms 18:39

you have girded me with strength

"you have put strength on me like a belt." The Psalmist says that Yahweh has given him strength that surrounds and supports him like a belt. See how you translated a similar phrase in [Psalms 18:32]

you put under me

Here the Psalmist speaks of the defeat of his enemies as if he were standing on them. Alternate translation: "you defeat for me"

those who rise up against me

This refers to those who oppose the Psalmist. Alternate translation: "those who are my enemies"

Psalms 18:40

You gave me the back of my enemies' necks

This represents God giving David victory over his enemies. Alternate translation: "You gave me victory over my enemies"

You gave me the back of my enemies' necks

This represents God giving David victory over his enemies. Possible images are 1) David could cut his enemies' heads off at the neck or 2) David could put his foot down on his enemies' necks or 3) David could see his enemies' backs when they ran away from him.

I annihilated those who hated me

"I defeated those who hated me" or "I destroyed completely those who hated me"

Psalms 18:41

but he did not answer them

This means Yahweh did not provide any help. Alternate translation: "but he did not help them"

Psalms 18:42

I beat them into fine pieces like dust before the wind

The psalmists enemies are compared to dust to show how defeated they are.

I threw them out like mud in the streets

The psalmist's enemies are compared to mud in the streets

Chapter 19

to show how defeated they are.

Psalms 18:43

disputes

disagreements, arguments

have made me head over nations

Here "head" represents the ruler. Alternate translation:

"appointed me to be the ruler over many nations"

Psalms 18:44

foreigners were forced to bow

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"God forced foreigners to bow"

Psalms 18:45

foreigners came trembling

Here "trembling" shows that they were very afraid. This can be stated clearly in the translation. Alternate translation: "foreigners came shaking, showing that they were very afraid"

Psalms 18:46

may my rock be praised

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "he is my rock and he should be praised" or "may people praise my rock"

my rock

Here the writer speaks of Yahweh's protection as if he were a rock that prevented his enemies from reaching him. See how you translated this in [Psalms 18:2]

May the God of my salvation be exalted

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"May people exalt the God of my salvation"

the God of my salvation

The abstract nouns "salvation" can be stated as "saved" or "rescued." Alternate translation: "the God who rescued me"

Psalms 18:47

the God who executes vengeance for me

To "execute vengeance" means to punish people for their evil actions. This can be restated to remove the abstract noun "vengeance." Alternate translation: "the God who punishes people for the evil things they have done to me"

Psalms 18:48

I am set free

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"God has set me free"

you lifted me above

Yahweh's protection of the writer is spoken of as if he lifted the writer up so high that his enemies could not reach him to harm him. Alternate translation: "you put me in a safe place high above"

who rose against me

"who attacked me" or "who rebelled against me"

violent men

"cruel men" or "savage men"

Psalms 18:49

among the nations

Here the writer means that he will give thanks to Yahweh so that all people will hear of Yahweh's greatness. Alternate translation: "so all the nations will hear about it"

to your name

Here "name" represents God himself. Alternate translation: "in honor of your name" or "to you"

Psalms 18:50

victory to his king

By using the words "his king," David is referring to himself as king.

he shows his covenant loyalty to his anointed one ... to his descendants forever

"he faithfully loves me as he promised in his covenant, and he will love my descendants forever"

Chapter 19

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

¹ The heavens declare the glory of God, and the skies make known the work of his hands!

² Day after day speech pours out;
night after night it reveals knowledge.

³ There is no speech or spoken words;
their voice is not heard.

⁴ Yet their words go out over all the earth, and their speech to the end of the world.
He has pitched a tent for the sun among them.

⁵ The sun is like a bridegroom coming out of his chamber and like a strong man who rejoices when he runs his race.

⁶ The sun rises from the one horizon and crosses the sky to the other;
nothing escapes its heat.

- ⁷ The law of Yahweh is perfect,
restoring the soul;
the testimony of Yahweh is reliable,
making the simple wise.
- ⁸ The instructions of Yahweh are right, making the heart glad;
the commandment of Yahweh is pure,
bringing light to the eyes.
- ⁹ The fear of Yahweh is pure, enduring forever;
the righteous decrees of Yahweh are true and altogether right!
- ¹⁰ They are of greater value than gold,
even more than much fine gold;
they are sweeter than honey and the dripping honey from the honeycomb.
- ¹¹ Yes, by them your servant is warned;
in obeying them there is great reward.
- ¹² Who can discern all his own errors?
Cleanse me from hidden faults.
- ¹³ Keep your servant also from arrogant sins;
let them not rule over me.
Then I will be perfect,
and I will be innocent from many transgressions.
- ¹⁴ May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart
be acceptable in your sight,
Yahweh, my rock and my redeemer.

Psalm 19 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 19 is a praise psalm, praising God for his creation and for his law.

Special concepts in this chapter

God's law

God's law keeps people from sinning. There are two distinct themes in this psalm. Verses 1-6 are God's glory in the heavens and the second is praising God for his law. (See: lawofmoses and glory and heaven)

Links:

Psalms 19:1

Psalms 19:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician. A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship."

The heavens declare

The heavens are described as if they were a person.

Alternate translation: "The heavens show" or "The heavens look like they declare"

the skies make known the work of his hands

The skies are described as if they were a teacher. Alternate translation: "people can learn from looking at the skies that God has created them"

Psalms 19:2

speech pours out

What is beautiful about creation is compared to speaking, as if creation were a person. Then those words are compared to water that flows everywhere. Alternate translation: "creation is like a person speaking to everyone"

Psalms 19:3

There is no speech or spoken words; their voice is not heard

These phrases express clearly that the first two verses were a metaphor. Alternate translation: "There is no real speech or spoken words; no one hears an actual voice with their ears"

their voice is not heard

Other translations read "where their voice is not heard," emphasizing that creation's "speech" is available everywhere.

Psalms 19:4

General Information:

David has just said that creation shows God's glory.

their words ... their speech

This refers to the unspoken "words" of creation that show God's glory.

their words go out

The words are described as if they were people who go out with a message. Alternate translation: "the words that creation speaks are like people who go out" their speech to the end of the world

The implied words can be included in the translation.

Alternate translation: "their speech goes out to the end of the world"

He has pitched a tent for the sun

Here the writer speaks of the place that Yahweh created for the sun as if it were a tent. Alternate translation: "He created a place for the sun"

among them

The word "them" probably refers to the heavens.

Psalms 19:5

The sun is like a bridegroom coming out of his chamber

The writer speaks of the sun's coming out as if it were a bridegroom. Alternate translation: "The sun is like a bridegroom walking joyfully toward his bride"

like a strong man who rejoices when he runs his race

This compares the sun to an athlete to emphasize the strength and brightness of the sun.

a strong man

"a fast runner"

Psalms 19:6

horizon

the line where the earth and the sky meet to the other

Here "other" refers to the other horizon. This can be stated clearly in the translation. Alternate translation: "to the other horizon"

nothing escapes its heat

"everything feels its heat"

Psalms 19:7

restoring the soul

The words "the soul" refer to the whole person. Alternate translation: "making a person strong again"

the simple

"those who have no experience" or "those who have not learned"

Psalms 19:8

the heart

These words refer to the whole person. Alternate translation: "a person" are right

"are true" or "are correct"

bringing light to the eyes

Possible meanings are 1) "bringing understanding to a person" or 2) "making a person healthy again"

Psalms 19:9

altogether right

"completely right"

Psalms 19:10

They are of greater value than gold ... they are sweeter than honey

Yahweh's decrees are spoken of as if they could be bought and tasted. Alternate translation: "If you could buy them, they would be of greater value than gold ... if you could taste them, they would be sweeter than honey"

even more than much fine gold

The word "valuable" is understood from the previous phrase and can be repeated. Alternate translation: "even more valuable than a lot of fine gold"

fine gold

"pure gold" or "expensive gold"

Psalms 19:11

Yes

This word marks that there is more to the truth than what has just been said. Alternate translation: "Moreover"

by them your servant is warned

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "they warn your servant" or "they are a warning for your servant"

by them ... in obeying them

The word "them" refers to Yahweh's righteous decrees.

your servant is warned

David calls himself "your servant" when speaking to God as a sign of respect. Alternate translation: "I am warned"

Psalms 19:12

Who can discern all his own errors?

This appears in the form of a question to add emphasis and can be translated as a strong statement. Alternate translation: No one can be aware of his own errors!"

from hidden faults

"from secret mistakes I have made"

Psalms 19:13

Keep your servant also from

This idiom pictures the servant as being removed from the sins he does not wish to commit. Alternate translation:

"Also, protect your servant from doing" or "Also, make sure that I do not commit"

your servant

David calls himself "your servant" when speaking to God as a sign of respect. See how you translated this in [Psalms 19:11]

let them not rule over me

Sins are described as if they were a king that could rule over someone. Alternate translation: "do not let my sins become like a king who rules over me"

innocent from many transgressions

"innocent of rebelling against you" or "innocent of committing many sins"

Psalms 19:14

the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart

These expressions taken together describe everything a person says and thinks. Alternate translation: "the things I say and the things I think about"

be acceptable in your sight

"receive approval in your sight" or "be pleasing to you"

in your sight

Here sight represents judgment or evaluation. Alternate translation: "in your judgment"

Yahweh, my rock

The writer speaks of God as if he were a rock that one could climb and be protected from his enemies. Alternate translation: "Yahweh, you are like my rock"

Chapter 20

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

¹ May Yahweh help you in the day of trouble;
may the name of the God of Jacob protect you

² and send help from the holy place to support you from Zion.

³ May he call to mind all your offerings and accept your burnt sacrifice.

Selah

⁴ May he grant you your heart's desire and fulfill all your plans.

⁵ Then we will rejoice in your victory, and, in the name of our God, we will raise banners.
May Yahweh grant all your petitions.

⁶ Now I know that Yahweh will rescue his anointed one;
he will answer him from his holy heaven
with the saving strength of his right hand.

⁷ Some trust in chariots and others in horses,
but we trust in the name of Yahweh our God.

⁸ They will be brought down and fall, but we will rise and stand upright!

⁹ Yahweh, rescue the king;
help us when we call.

Psalm 20 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 20 is a royal psalm. It is probably a prayer for the king, perhaps when he first became king.

Special concepts in this chapter

Trust

Trusting God is much better than trusting in military might. (See: trust)

Links:

Psalms 20:1

Psalms 20:1

General Information:

This Psalm begins with a group of people speaking to the king of Israel. Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician. A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

help you

The word "you" in this Psalm is singular and refers to the king.

in the day of trouble

"in times of trouble" or "when you are in trouble"

may the name of the God of Jacob protect you

Possible meanings are 1) here "name" is a metonym for God's power. Alternate translation: "may the power of the God of Jacob protect you" or "may the God of Jacob protect you by his power" or 2) here "name" is a metonym for God himself. Alternate translation: "may the God of Jacob protect you"

Psalms 20:2

send help from the holy place

God helping from his holy place is spoken of as if God were sending help. Alternate translation: "may Yahweh help you from his holy place"

holy place ... Zion

Both of these refer to God's temple in Jerusalem.

Psalms 20:3

May he call to mind

The phrase "call to mind" is a way of saying "remember." It does not mean God forgot. It means to consider or think about. Alternate translation: "May he remember"

May he

The word "he" refers to Yahweh.

Psalms 20:4

May he grant

"May he give"

your heart's desire

Here "heart" stands for the entire person. The abstract noun "desire" can be stated as a verb. Alternate translation: "what you desire" or "what you want"

fulfill all your plans

The abstract noun "plans" can be stated as a verb. Alternate translation: "may he help you to accomplish everything that you plan to do"

Psalms 20:5

we will rejoice in your victory

Here "we" refers to the people. They will rejoice in the king's victory.

in the name of our God

Here "name" represents honor or reputation. Alternate translation: "in honor of our God" or "for the reputation of our God"

we will raise banners

"we will raise victory flags." They would do this to show that they were praising God because he gave their king victory over his enemies.

grant all your petitions

"give you everything you request from him"

Psalms 20:6

Now

This word is used here to mark a break in the psalm. It transitions from the people speaking to the king speaking.

I know

The word "I" probably refers to the king who is speaking in this section.

his anointed one ... answer him

The king is speaking about himself in the third person. This can be stated in first person. Alternate translation: "me, his anointed one ... answer me"

from his holy heaven

God dwells in heaven as well as in the temple in Jerusalem (Psalms 20:2).

with the saving strength of his right hand

God's right hand represents his power. Alternate translation: "with his great strength he will rescue him"

Psalms 20:7

Some trust in chariots and others in horses

Here "chariots" and "horses" represent a king's army.

trust in chariots ... trust in the name

Many modern translations read, "boast in chariots ... boast in the name."

others in horses

The word "trust" is understood. Alternate translation: "others trust in horses"

we trust in the name of Yahweh our God

Here the word "name" is a metonym for what everyone knows about Yahweh and so for Yahweh himself. Alternate translation: "we trust in Yahweh our God because of who he is"

we trust

Here "we" refers to the writer and the readers.

Psalms 20:8

we will rise

Here "we" refers to the writer and the readers.

They will be brought down and fall

The word "They" refers to the people who trust in chariots and horses. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "God will bring them down and make them fall"

brought down and fall

Both these verbs mean basically the same thing. Both of these stand for losing in battle.

we will rise and stand upright

"we will get up and stand up straight." These two phrases mean basically the same thing. Both of these stand for victory in battle.

Psalms 20:9

Yahweh, rescue the king

Chapter 21

Possible interpretations are 1) the people ask God to protect the king or 2) the king continues to speak about himself in the third person.

the king; help us when we call

Some translations understand the Hebrew differently. Some translate it as the people speaking to Yahweh their king. Alternate translation: "King, help us when we call you"

Chapter 21

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

¹ The king rejoices in your strength, Yahweh!

How greatly he rejoices in the salvation you provide!

² You have given him his heart's desire and have not held back the request of his lips.

Selah

³ For you bring him rich blessings;
you placed on his head a crown of purest gold.

⁴ He asked you for life; you gave it to him;
you gave him the length of his days forever and ever.

⁵ His glory is great because of your victory;
you have bestowed on him splendor and majesty.

⁶ For you grant him lasting blessings;
you make him glad with the joy of your presence.

⁷ For the king trusts in Yahweh;
through the covenant faithfulness of the Most High
he will not be moved.

⁸ Your hand will seize all your enemies;
your right hand will seize those who hate you.

⁹ At the time of your anger,
you will burn them up as in a fiery furnace.
Yahweh will consume them in his wrath,
and the fire will devour them.

¹⁰ You will destroy their offspring from the earth and their descendants from among the human race.

¹¹ For they intended evil against you;
they conceived a plot with which they will not succeed!

¹² For you will turn them back;
you will draw your bow before them.

¹³ Be exalted, Yahweh, in your strength;
we will sing and praise your power.

Psalm 21 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 21 is a royal psalm. The king is praying for victory. Victory in war comes from the power and help from God.

Special concepts in this chapter

Pronouns

There is a shift in pronouns in this psalm. In verses 1-6 the psalm addresses Yahweh in second person but in verse 7 the psalmist uses third person before moving back to second person in the latter part.

Links:

Psalms 21:1

Psalms 21:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician. A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship."

in your strength, Yahweh

It is implied that this is strength Yahweh has given the king to defeat his enemies. Alternate translation: because you, Yahweh, have made him strong enough to defeat his enemies"

How greatly he rejoices

"He rejoices greatly"

in the salvation you provide

It is implied that God has saved the king from his enemies.

The abstract noun "salvation" can be stated as a verb.

Alternate translation: "because you have saved him from his enemies"

Psalms 21:2

his heart's desire

"his heart's wish." Here "heart" stands for the whole person.

Alternate translation: "his desire" or "what he wished for"

have not held back

"have not refused him" or "you have given him"

the request of his lips

Here "lips" stands for the whole person. Alternate translation: "his request" or "what he requested of you"

Psalms 21:3

you bring him rich blessings

The abstract noun "blessings" can be stated as "bless" or "good things." Alternate translation: "you bless him greatly" or "you give him many good things"

you placed on his head a crown of purest gold

To place a crown on a person's head is a symbol of making him a king.

a crown of purest gold

Here "purest gold" represents the great honor given to the king.

Psalms 21:4

He asked you for life; you gave it to him

The abstract noun "life" can be stated as a verb. Alternate translation: "He asked that you cause him to live for a long time; you caused it to happen"

the length of his days forever and ever

The idiom "the length of his days" refers to the duration of his life. Alternate translation: "a long life that lasts forever"

Psalms 21:5

His glory

"The king's honor" or "The king's fame"

you have bestowed on him splendor and majesty

"you have placed on him splendor and majesty." Causing the king to be wealthy and powerful is spoken of as if splendor and majesty are objects that are placed on him. Alternate translation: "you have made him wealthy and powerful"

Psalms 21:6

you grant him

"you allow him to have" or "you agree to give him"

lasting blessings

"a blessings that will last" or "a blessings that will stay"

the joy of your presence

"the joy of being in your presence" or "the joy that comes from you being near to you"

Psalms 21:7

through the covenant faithfulness of the Most High

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "because the Most High is faithful to his covenant"

he will not be moved

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "no one will remove him as king"

Psalms 21:8

Your hand will seize

Here "hand" represents power. Alternate translation: "Your power will seize" or "You will powerfully seize"

Your hand ... hate you

Possible meaning of all occurrences of "your" and "you" are 1) they refer to the king or 2) they refer to God.

your right hand will seize those who hate you

This means the same thing as the first part of the sentence. It emphasizes that God will give the king the power to stop his enemies.

Psalms 21:9

At the time of your anger

"When you are angry and begin to act"

your anger ... you will burn

The words "your" and "you" refers to either 1) God or 2) the king.

Chapter 22

you will burn them up as in a fiery furnace

Yahweh or the king destroying their enemies is spoken of as if their enemies are wood and Yahweh or the king will throw them into a furnace.

Yahweh will consume them in his wrath, and the fire will devour them
Both clauses mean basically the same thing. Yahweh completely destroying his enemies is spoken of as if his wrath is a fire that completely burns up his enemies.

Psalms 21:10

You will destroy

The word "you" refers to either 1) God or 2) the king.

from the earth ... from among the human race

Both phrases mean the same thing. They emphasize that absolutely none of their enemies will survive.

Psalms 21:11

they intended

"they planned." The word "they" refers to the enemies of God and the king.

evil against you

"to do evil things to you"

they conceived a plot

"they made a plan" or "they created a scheme"

Psalms 21:12

For you will turn them back; you will draw your bow before them Possible meanings for "you" and "your" are 1) they refer to the king or 2) they refer to God and speak about him as if he were a warrior with a bow and arrows.

you will turn them back

This is a way of saying that God and the king will defeat their enemies in battle.

you will draw your bow before them

This implies that he actually shoots his arrows at his enemies.

Psalms 21:13

Be exalted, Yahweh, in your strength

Possible meanings are 1) "Yahweh, show us that you are very strong" or 2) "Yahweh, because you are strong we will exalt you"

we will sing and praise your power

The words "sing" and "praise" share similar meanings. Here the word "power" represents God and his power. Alternate translation: "with singing we will praise you because you are powerful"

Chapter 22

For the chief musician; set to "The rhythm of the deer." A psalm of David.

¹ My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

Why are you so far from saving me and far from the words of my anguish?

² My God, I cry out in the daytime, but you do not answer, and at night I am not silent!

³ Yet you are holy;

you sit as king with the praises of Israel.

⁴ Our ancestors trusted in you;

they trusted in you, and you rescued them.

⁵ They cried to you and they were rescued.

They trusted in you and were not disappointed.

⁶ But I am a worm and not a man, a disgrace to humanity and despised by the people.

⁷ All those who see me taunt me;

they mock me; they shake their heads at me.

⁸ They say, "He trusts in Yahweh;

let Yahweh rescue him.

Let him rescue him, for he delights in him."

⁹ For you brought me from the womb;

you made me trust you when I was on my mother's breasts.

¹⁰ I have been thrown on you from the womb;
you are my God since I was in my mother's womb!

¹¹ Do not be far away from me, for trouble is near;
there is no one to help.

¹² Many bulls surround me;
strong bulls of Bashan surround me.

¹³ They open their mouths wide against me like a roaring lion ripping its victim.

¹⁴ I am being poured out like water,
and all my bones are dislocated.
My heart is like wax;
it melts away within my inner parts.

¹⁵ My strength has dried up like a piece of pottery;
my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth.
You have laid me in the dust of death.

¹⁶ For dogs have surrounded me;
a company of evildoers has encircled me;
they have pierced my hands and my feet.

¹⁷ I can count all my bones.
They look and stare at me.

¹⁸ They divide my garments among themselves, they cast lots for my clothes.

¹⁹ Do not be far away, Yahweh;
please hurry to help me, my strength!

²⁰ Rescue my soul from the sword,
my only life from the claws of wild dogs.

²¹ Save me from the lion's mouth;
rescue me from the horns of the wild oxen.

²² I will declare your name to my brothers;
in the midst of the assembly I will praise you.

²³ You who fear Yahweh, praise him!
All you descendants of Jacob, honor him!
Stand in awe of him, all you descendants of Israel!

- ²⁴ For he has not despised or abhorred the suffering of the afflicted one; Yahweh has not hidden his face from him;
when the afflicted one cried to him, he heard.
- ²⁵ My praise will be because of you in the great assembly;
I will fulfill my vows before those who fear him.
- ²⁶ The oppressed will eat and be satisfied;
those who seek Yahweh will praise him.
May your hearts live forever.
- ²⁷ All the peoples of the earth will remember and turn to Yahweh;
all the families of the nations will bow down before you.
- ²⁸ For the kingdom is Yahweh's;
he is the ruler over the nations.
- ²⁹ All the prosperous people of the earth will feast and will worship;
all those who are descending into the dust will bow before him,
those who cannot preserve their own souls alive.
- ³⁰ A generation to come will serve him;
they will tell the next generation of the Lord.
- ³¹ They will come and tell of his righteousness;
they will tell to a people not yet born what he has done!

Psalm 22 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 22 is a messianic psalm. It contains references to events during the crucifixion of Christ. It is also a psalm of individual lament and praise. (See: christ and crucify and lament)

Special concepts in this chapter

Messiah

Christ was despised and taunted by his enemies; but finally people all over the earth will bow down to him.

New Testament usage

This psalm is quoted in different places in the New Testament. Verse 1a is cited in Matthew 27:46 and Mark 15:34 as the words of Christ on the cross. Many of the events in the narratives of the crucifixion are mentioned in this psalm. (See: cross)

Links:

Psalms 22:1

Psalms 22:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician; set to "The rhythm of the deer." A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

The rhythm of the deer

This may refer to a style of music.

My God, my God

The writer repeats "My God" to emphasize that he is desperate for God to hear him.

my God, why have you abandoned me?

The writer uses a question to emphasize that he feels like God has abandoned him. It may be best to leave this as a question. It can also be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "my God, I feel like you have abandoned me!"
you abandoned me
"you left me all alone"

Why are you so far from saving me and far from the words of my anguish?

Again the writer uses a question to emphasize that he feels like God is far away from him. It may be best to leave this as a question. It can also be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "You are far from saving me and far from the words of my anguish!"

far from the words of my anguish

The writer feeling like God is not listening to him is spoken of as if God were far from his words of anguish. Alternate translation: "why do you not listen when I speak to you about the anguish I feel" or "I have told you about my suffering but you do not come to me"

Psalms 22:2

in the daytime ... at night

The writer uses the words "daytime" and "night" to mean he prays to God all the time.

I am not silent

This can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: "I still speak"

Psalms 22:3

you sit as king with the praises of Israel

"the praises of Israel are the throne on which you sit as king." The praises of Israel are described as if they are a throne upon which God can sit and rule, or as a house in which God can live. Alternate translation: "you are king and the people of Israel praise you"

of Israel

Here "Israel" represents the people of Israel.

Psalms 22:4

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 22:5

were not disappointed

This can be stated in active and positive form. Alternate translation: "you did not disappoint them" or "you did not fail them" or "you saved them" or "you did for them what they needed you to do"

Psalms 22:6

I am a worm and not a man

The writer speaks of himself as if he were a worm. This emphasizes that he feels worthless or that the people treat him as if he were worthless. Alternate translation: "But it is like I am a worm and not a man" disgrace to humanity and despised by the people

Both of these phrase mean basically the same thing. The phrase "despised by the people" can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "everyone thinks I am worthless and the people hate me"

Psalms 22:7

taunt me; they mock me; they shake their heads at me

These three phrases share similar meanings and emphasize how much people disrespect him.

they shake their heads at me

This describes an action used to mock someone.

Psalms 22:8

He trusts in Yahweh ... delights in him

The people are saying this to mock the writer. They do not really believe Yahweh will rescue him.

Let him rescue him

"Let Yahweh rescue him"

for he delights in him

Possible meanings are 1) "for Yahweh delights in him" or 2) "for he delights in Yahweh"

Psalms 22:9

For you

The writer uses the word "For" to begin explaining why he is confused and asking God why he is not coming to help.

you brought me from the womb

This is a way of saying "you caused me to be born."

when I was on my mother's breasts

This means that he has been trusting in Yahweh since he was very young. Alternate translation: "even from the time that I drank milk from my mother's breasts"

Psalms 22:10

I have been thrown on you from the womb

The phrase "have been thrown on" is a way of saying that Yahweh has taken care of him as if Yahweh had adopted him as his own child. This can be stated in active form.

Alternate translation: "It was as though you had adopted me right when I was born"

you are my God

This implies that Yahweh has always taken care of the writer. Alternate translation: "you, God, have taken care of me"

since I was in my mother's womb

"since before I was born"

Psalms 22:11

Do not be far away from me

This can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: "Come close to me" for trouble is near

The writer speaks about "trouble" as if it were an object that is near him. Alternate translation: "for my enemies are near me"

there is no one to help

"there is no helper"

Psalms 22:12

Many bulls surround me; strong bulls of Bashan surround me

The writer speaks about his enemies as if they were bulls. This emphasizes how dangerous and powerful his enemies are. Alternate translation: "I have many enemies and they are like bulls that surround me; they are like strong bulls from Bashan that surround me"

Psalms 22:13

They open their mouths wide against me

The writer speaks about his enemies as if they were lions with the mouths open ready to eat him. His enemies may be speaking lies to discredit him. Or they may be threatening him and attacking him.

like a roaring lion ripping its victim

The writer speaks about his enemies as if they were lions. This emphasizes how powerful and dangerous his enemies are.

Psalms 22:14

I am being poured out like water

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "It is like someone is pouring me out like water"

I am being poured out like water

The writer speaks about feeling completely exhausted and weak as if he were water being poured out of a jar.

all my bones are dislocated

"all my bones are out of place." It is possible the writer is in some kind of physical pain. Or he may be speaking of his emotional pain as if it were physical pain.

My heart is like wax ... inner parts

The writer speaks about no longer having courage as if his heart melted like wax. Here "heart" represents "courage."

wax

a soft substance that melts at a relatively low temperature within my inner parts

"inside of me"

Psalms 22:15

My strength has dried up like a piece of pottery

The writer speaks about feeling weak as if his strength were like a dry piece of pottery that can easily break.

piece of pottery

an object made of baked clay that can be used in the house

my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth

"my tongue sticks to the top of my mouth." The writer may be describing his extreme thirst. Or he may be continuing to speak about being weak as if he were completely dry.

You have laid me in the dust of death

Possible meanings for "dust of death" are 1) it refers to a person turning to dust after they die. Alternate translation: "You are about to let me die and become dust" or 2) it is a way of speaking about the grave, which would mean God is causing the writer to die. Alternate translation: "You have laid me in my grave"

You have laid me

The "you" is singular and refers to God.

Psalms 22:16

dogs have surrounded me

The writer speaks about his enemies as if they were dogs. His enemies are coming close to him like wild dogs do to a dying animal. Alternate translation: "my enemies are like dogs that have surrounded me"

a company of evildoers

"a group of evildoers" or "a gang of evildoers" encircled stood in a circle

they have pierced my hands and my feet

This continues the dog metaphor. The writer speaks about his enemies as if they were dogs that are biting and piercing his hands and feet with their teeth.

pierced stabbed through something with a sharp object

Psalms 22:17

I can count all my bones

Possible meanings are 1) the writer is so thin that he can see his bones. Alternate translation: "I can see all of my bones" or "I can feel each of my bones" or 2) this continues the dog metaphor and the writer can see his bones after the dogs have ripped his flesh.

look and stare at me

The words "look" and "stare" mean basically the same thing and emphasize that people look at him awkwardly and make fun of him.

Psalms 22:18

my garments

"my clothes"

Psalms 22:19

Do not be far away

This can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation:

"Be very close"

my strength

Here "strength" represents Yahweh who gives him strength.

Alternate translation: "you who give me strength"

Psalms 22:20

Rescue my soul

Here "soul" stands for the whole person. Alternate translation: "Rescue me"

the sword

The sword is a common way of referring to a violent enemy. Alternate translation: "those who want to kill me" or "my enemies"

my only life

"my precious life" or "the only life I have"

claws of wild dogs

The writer speaks about his enemies as if they were dogs to emphasize how dangerous his enemies are. Also, the claws stand for the animals as a whole in a synecdoche. The writer emphasizes this part of the animal because it is what the animals would use to kill someone.

wild dogs

The word "wild" here means that no one has captured and tamed the animal.

Psalms 22:21

lion's mouth ... horns of the wild oxen

The writer speaks about his enemies as if they were lions and wild oxen to emphasize how dangerous his enemies are. Also, the mouth and horns stand for the animals as a whole in a synecdoche. The writer emphasizes these parts of the animals because they are what the animals would use to kill someone.

wild oxen

The word "wild" here means that no one has captured and tamed the animal.

Psalms 22:22

I will declare your name

"I will make known your name." Here "name" stands for God's character or reputation. Alternate translation: "I will talk about your character"

my brothers

Here "brothers" means "my fellow Israelites" or "my fellow worshipers of Yahweh"

in the midst of the assembly

"when my fellow Israelites and I gather together" or "when I am surrounded by my fellow worshipers of Yahweh"

Psalms 22:23

You who fear

Here "You" is plural.

you descendants of Jacob ... you descendants of Israel

Both of these refer to the same group of people.

Stand in awe of him

"Be full of awe for him" or "Let God's power amaze you"

Psalms 22:24

he has not despised or abhorred the suffering of the afflicted one

Possible meanings are 1) he has not despised the afflicted one because he is suffering or 2) he has not belittled the suffering of the afflicted one despised or abhorred

These two words mean basically the same thing and emphasize that God has not forgotten the one who is afflicted and suffering.

despised strongly disliked or hated

he has not ... abhorred the suffering of the afflicted one

Here, suffering is a metonym for the person who suffers. To abhor something is to think of it as horrible. Alternate translation: "he has not ... thought of the afflicted one who suffers as horrible"

the suffering of the afflicted one ... from him ... the afflicted one cried Possible meanings are 1) the author was speaking about how God treats people who are suffering. Alternate translation: "those who suffer ... from them ... those who are suffering cried" or 2) the author was speaking specifically about how God treated him. Alternate translation: "my suffering because of my affliction ... from me ... I cried"

has not hidden his face from him

Hiding one's face from someone represents ignoring him.

Alternate translation: "has not turned his attention away from him" or "has not ignored him"

he heard

"he listened." It is implied that he responded when he heard their cry. Alternate translation: "he answered" or "he helped"

Psalms 22:25

because of you

Here "you" refers to Yahweh.

I will fulfill my vows

This refers to sacrifices the writer promised to offer to God.

before those who fear him

Here "him" refers to Yahweh. It can be stated as "you."

Alternate translation: "in the presence of those who fear you"

Psalms 22:26

The oppressed will eat and be satisfied

This refers to the fellowship meal which occurs after the writer offers to God the sacrifices that he promised. He will invite those who were suffering to eat a part of the animal he sacrificed.

those who seek Yahweh

Those who want to know Yahweh and please him are spoken of as if they are literally seeking to find Yahweh.

May your hearts live forever

Here "hearts" represent the whole person. Alternate translation: "May you live forever"

May your hearts

Here "your" is plural and refers to the oppressed people.

Psalms 22:27

will remember and turn to Yahweh

Starting to obey Yahweh is spoken of as if the people physically turn toward Yahweh. Alternate translation: "will remember Yahweh and obey him"

all the families of the nations will bow down before you

This means the same thing as the first part of the sentence.

The writer is emphasizing that everyone from every place will worship and obey Yahweh.

will bow down before you

This is a sign of giving honor and respect to someone. before you

Here "you" refers to Yahweh. It can be translated in the third person to match the first part of the sentence.

Alternate translation: "before him"

Psalms 22:28

For the kingdom is Yahweh's

"For the kingdom belongs to Yahweh." Here "kingdom" represents God's rule as king. Alternate translation: "For Yahweh is king"

he is the ruler over the nations

Here "nations" represents the people of the nations.

Alternate translation: "he rules the people of the nations"

Psalms 22:29

will feast

The people will eat together at the feast. Alternate translation: "will eat together" or "will eat a festive meal together" all those who are descending into the dust ... those who cannot preserve their own souls alive

Both phrases refers to the same group. They both refer to all people because all people will die.

those who are descending into the dust

Here "dust" represents the grave. The phrase "descending into the dust" is a way of referring to someone dying.

Alternate translation: "those who are dying" or "those who die"

those who cannot preserve their own souls alive

"those who cannot save their own lives" or "those who cannot keep themselves from dying"

Psalms 22:30

A generation to come

Here "A generation" represents the people of a generation.

The phrase "to come" speaks about a future time as if it were something that travels and arrives somewhere.

Alternate translation: "People in the future generations"

the next generation

Here "generation" represents the people of that generation.

Alternate translation: "the people of the next generation" or "their children"

of the Lord

"about the Lord" or "about what the Lord has done"

Psalms 22:31

tell of his righteousness

The abstract noun "righteousness" can be stated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "tell of the righteous things he has done"

Chapter 23

A psalm of David.

- ¹ Yahweh is my shepherd; I will lack nothing.
- ² He makes me to lie down in green pastures;
he leads me beside tranquil water.
- ³ He brings back my life;
he guides me along paths that are right
for his name's sake.
- ⁴ Even though I walk through the darkest valley,
I will fear no harm, for you are with me;
your rod and your staff comfort me.
- ⁵ You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
you have anointed my head with oil;
my cup runs over.
- ⁶ Surely goodness and covenant faithfulness will pursue me
all the days of my life;
and I will live in the house of Yahweh
for the length of my days!

Psalm 23 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 23 is a psalm of praise to God for his continued care and protection. The psalmist praises God for always being with him and for caring for him.

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Metaphor

Psalm 23 is an extended metaphor speaking of God as if he were a shepherd, and of the psalmist as if he were a sheep.

Links:

Psalms 23:1

Psalms 23:1

General Information:

In much of this psalm, David writes as if he were a sheep and the Lord were his shepherd. Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

Yahweh is my shepherd

The writer speaks about Yahweh as if he were a shepherd. This emphasizes how God cares for people as a shepherd cares for his sheep. Alternate translation: "Yahweh is like a shepherd to me" or "Yahweh cares for me as a shepherd cares for his sheep"

I will lack nothing

This can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: "I have everything that I need"

Psalms 23:2

He makes me to lie down in green pastures

The writer speaks about himself as if he were a sheep, and he speaks about Yahweh as if he were a shepherd.

Alternate translation: He gives me rest like a shepherd who leads his sheep to lie down in green pastures"

he leads me beside tranquil water

The writer speaks about himself as if he were a sheep, and he speaks about Yahweh as if he were a shepherd.

Alternate translation: "he provides what I need like a shepherd who leads his sheep beside tranquil water" tranquil water

"calm water" or "water that flows gently." This water is safe to drink.

Psalms 23:3

General Information:

This psalm continues to tell about how God cares for us as a shepherd cares for his sheep.

He brings back my life

This means God makes a person who is weak and tired to be strong and rested again.

he guides me along paths that are right
 Showing a person how to live in a way that pleases God is spoken of as if it were a shepherd showing a sheep the right path to take. Alternate translation: "he shows me how to live right"
 for his name's sake
 The phrase "his name" here refers to his reputation.
 Alternate translation: "for his reputation" or "so that people will honor him"
 Psalms 23:4
 General Information:
 This psalm continues to tell about how God cares for us as a shepherd cares for his sheep.
 Even though I walk through the darkest valley
 The writer describes a person experiencing terrible trouble as if he were a sheep walking through a dark and dangerous valley. There a sheep could get lost or attacked by a wild animal. Alternate translation: "Though my life is like walking through a dark and dangerous valley"
 I will fear no harm
 The abstract noun "harm" can be stated as a verb. Alternate translation: "I will not be afraid of something harming me" you are with me
 Here "you" refers to Yahweh.
 your rod and your staff comfort me
 The rod and staff represent protection because shepherds use them to protect their sheep from danger. Alternate translation: "I am not afraid because you protect me like a shepherd who protects his sheep with his rod and staff"
 Psalms 23:5
 General Information:
 Now the writer tells how God is like someone who welcomes a guest into his home and protects him.

You prepare a table
 A table represents a feast because people would put all the food on a table.
 in the presence of my enemies
 The meaning here is that the writer is not worried about his enemies because he is an honored guest of the Lord and therefore protected from harm. Alternate translation: "despite the presence of my enemies" anointed my head with oil
 People sometimes put oil on their guests' heads in order to honor them.
 my cup runs over
 Here a cup of wine that overflows represents many blessings. Alternate translation: "You fill my cup so much that it overflows" or "You give me many blessings"
 Psalms 23:6
 Surely goodness and covenant faithfulness will pursue me
 Yahweh being good and faithful to a person is spoken of as if goodness and covenant faithfulness are things that pursue after a person. The abstract nouns "goodness" and "faithfulness" can be translated as adjectives. Alternate translation: "Surely you will be good and faithful to me"
 all the days of my life
 The abstract noun "life" can be stated as a verb. Alternate translation: "as long as I live"
 the house of Yahweh Possible meanings are that 1) this refers to Yahweh's eternal home, or 2) this refers to Yahweh's temple in Jerusalem. If possible, translate it so that both meanings could be understood.
 for the length of my days
 This idiom refers to the duration of his life. Alternate translation: "as long as I live" or "forever"

Chapter 24

A psalm of David.

- ¹ The earth is Yahweh's, and its fullness,
the world, and all who live in it.
- ² For he has founded it upon the seas and established it on the rivers.
- ³ Who will ascend the mountain of Yahweh?
Who will stand in his holy place?
- ⁴ He who has clean hands and a pure heart;
who has not lifted up a falsehood,
and has not sworn an oath in order to deceive.
- ⁵ He will receive a blessing from Yahweh and righteousness from the God of his salvation.
- ⁶ Such is the generation of those who seek him,
those who seek the face of the God of Jacob.

⁷ Lift up your heads, you gates;
be lifted up, everlasting doors,
so that the King of glory may come in!

⁸ Who is this King of glory?
Yahweh, strong and mighty;
Yahweh, mighty in battle.

⁹ Lift up your heads, you gates;
be lifted up, everlasting doors,
so that the King of glory may come in!

¹⁰ Who is this King of glory?
Yahweh of hosts,
he is the King of glory.

Psalm 24 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 24 is a psalm of praise to God as the almighty God. (See: almighty)

Special concepts in this chapter

Righteous people

Only the righteous come to worship God. (See: righteous)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical Questions

The psalmists uses several rhetorical questions. Each question forms a unit with a response.

Links:

Psalms 24:1

Psalms 24:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

its fullness

The abstract noun "fullness" can be stated with the verb "fills." Alternate translation: "everything that fills it"

Psalms 24:2

For he has founded it upon the seas and established it on the rivers Here "founded it upon the seas" and "established it on the rivers" mean basically the same thing. The Hebrews of that time believed their land was supported by the oceans and deep underground rivers. Alternate translation: For he formed its foundation on the seas and built it on the deep waters"
the seas ... the rivers

These phrases are used together to refer to the huge deep ocean below the earth.

on the rivers

"the water that is deep below"

Psalms 24:3

Who will ascend the mountain ... in his holy place?

Both of these questions mean basically the same thing. The speaker is asking about who is allowed to go and worship Yahweh.

will ascend

"will go up" or "will climb"

the mountain of Yahweh

This refers to Mount Zion in Jerusalem.

his holy place

This refers Yahweh's temple. His temple is on Mount Zion in Jerusalem.

Psalms 24:4

He who has ... who has ... and has not

Here "He" does not refer to a specific person. Alternate translation: "Those who have ... who have ... and have not"

who has clean hands

The word "hands" represents what a person does. For his "hands" to be clean means he does what is right. Alternate translation: "who does what is right"

a pure heart

Here "heart" represents a person's thoughts or motives.

Alternate translation: "thinks good thoughts" or "does not think about doing what is wrong"

who has not lifted up a falsehood

Here "falsehood" represents a false idol. To "lift up" means to worship. Alternate translation: "who has not worshiped an idol"

Psalms 24:5

He will receive a blessing from Yahweh

The word "he" does not refer to a specific person. It refers to the ones with pure hearts mentioned in previous verse. The abstract noun "blessing" can be stated as a verb.

Alternate translation: "Yahweh will bless them" righteousness from the God of his salvation

The abstract noun "righteousness" can be stated as "righteously." And, "salvation" can be stated as "save."

Alternate translation: "God will deal righteously with him and save him"

Psalms 24:6

Such is the generation of those who seek him

Here "generation" represents people in general. Alternate translation: "The people who seek him are like this"

those who seek him, those who seek the face of the God of Jacob

Both statements mean the same thing. They both refer to those who go to the temple to worship God. Alternate translation: "the ones who approach God, they are the ones who may worship God, the one we Israelites worship"

those who seek him

Going to the temple to worship Yahweh is spoken of as if the person is literally seeking to find him.

the face of the God of Jacob

Here "face" stands for the whole person. Alternate translation: "the God of Jacob"

Psalms 24:7

Lift up your heads, you gates; be lifted up, everlasting doors

The two phases are very similar in meaning. The words "gates" and "doors" refer to the gates of the temple. The writer is speaking to the gates as if they were a person. A gatekeeper would be the one to open the gates. Alternate translation: "Open up, you ancient gates" or "Open these ancient gates"

Lift up your heads

It is uncertain what specific part of the gate is the "head."

But, it stands for the gate as a whole.

Psalms 24:8

Yahweh, strong and mighty; Yahweh, mighty in battle

The writer speaks about Yahweh as if he were a mighty warrior who fights in battles.

Psalms 24:9

Lift up your heads, you gates; be lifted up, everlasting doors

The two phases are very similar in meaning. The words "gates" and "doors" refer to the gates of the temple. The writer is speaking to the gates as if they were a person. A gatekeeper would be the one to open the gates. See how you translated this in [Psalms 24:7]

Lift up your heads

It is uncertain what specific part of the gate is the "head."

But, it stands for the gate as a whole.

Psalms 24:10

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Chapter 25

A psalm of David.

¹ To you, Yahweh,
I lift up my life!

² My God, I trust in you.
Do not let me be humiliated;
do not let my enemies rejoice triumphantly over me.

³ May no one who hopes in you be disgraced;
may those who act treacherously without cause be ashamed!

⁴ Make known to me your ways, Yahweh;
teach me your paths.

⁵ Guide me into your truth and teach me,
for you are the God of my salvation;
I hope in you all day long.

⁶ Call to mind, Yahweh, your acts of compassion and of covenant faithfulness;
for they have always existed.

- ⁷ Do not think about the sins of my youth
or my rebelliousness;
Call me to mind with covenant faithfulness
because of your goodness, Yahweh!
- ⁸ Yahweh is good and upright;
therefore he teaches sinners the way.
- ⁹ He guides the humble in what is right and he teaches them his way.
- ¹⁰ All the paths of Yahweh are steadfast love and faithfulness to those who keep his covenant and his solemn commands.
- ¹¹ For your name's sake, Yahweh, pardon my iniquity, for it is great.
- ¹² Who is the man who fears Yahweh?
The Lord will instruct him in the way that he should choose.
- ¹³ His life will go along in goodness;
and his descendants will inherit the land.
- ¹⁴ The friendship of Yahweh is for those who honor him,
and he makes his covenant known to them.
- ¹⁵ My eyes are always on Yahweh,
for he will free my feet from the net.
- ¹⁶ Turn toward me and have mercy on me;
for I am alone and afflicted.
- ¹⁷ The troubles of my heart are enlarged;
draw me out from my distress!
- ¹⁸ See my affliction and my toils;
forgive all my sins.
- ¹⁹ See my enemies, for they are many;
they hate me with violent hatred.
- ²⁰ Protect my life and rescue me;
do not let me be humiliated,
for I take refuge in you!
- ²¹ May integrity and uprightness preserve me,
for I hope in you.
- ²² Rescue Israel, God,

from all of his troubles!

Psalm 25 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 25 is a prayer for God's help.

Special concepts in this chapter

The humble

God is very good to humble people who seek to obey him.

Links:

Psalms 25:1

Psalms 25:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

I lift up my life

The phrase "lift up my life" is a metaphor. Possible meanings are 1) the writer is giving himself to Yahweh, which means he is completely depending on Yahweh. Alternate translation: "I give myself to you" or 2) he is offering prayer and adoration to Yahweh. Alternate translation: "I worship and adore you"

Psalms 25:2

Do not let me be humiliated

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Do not let my enemies humiliate me"

rejoice triumphantly over me

"rejoice in triumph over me." The phrase "over me" implies that his enemies have defeated him and stand above in victory. Alternate translation: "defeat me and rejoice about it"

Psalms 25:3

May no one who hopes in you be disgraced

"Do not let those who hope in you be disgraced." Disgrace could come from being defeated by their enemies. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Do not let enemies defeat those who hope in you" who hopes in you

"who trusts you"

act treacherously

"act deceitfully" or "act with trickery" without cause

"without a reason"

Psalms 25:4

Make known to me your ways, Yahweh; teach me your paths

Both statements mean the same thing. God teaching a person how they should behave is spoken of as if he were showing a person the correct path on which a person should travel.

Psalms 25:5

I hope in you

"I depend on you" or "I wait patiently for you"

Guide me into your truth and teach me

Guide and teach mean the same thing, to give instruction.

Alternate translation: "Instruct me to conduct my life by obeying your truth"

the God of my salvation

The abstract noun "salvation" can be stated as "saves."

Alternate translation: "the one who saves me"

Psalms 25:6

Call to mind

This is an idiom. This does not mean God forgot something.

The writer is asking God to think about and consider his acts of compassion and faithfulness. Alternate translation: "Remember" or "Think about" your acts of compassion and of covenant faithfulness

The abstract nouns "compassion" and "faithfulness" can be stated as adjectives. Alternate translation: "how you have been compassionate and faithful to your covenant"

for they have always existed

Here "they" personifies God's compassion and covenant faithfulness. Alternate translation: "for that is how you have always been"

Psalms 25:7

Do not think about the sins of my youth

The abstract noun "sins" can be stated as "sinned."

Alternate translation: "Do not think about how I sinned against you when I was young"

or my rebelliousness

The abstract noun "rebelliousness" can be stated as "rebelled." Alternate translation: or about how I have rebelled against you"

Call me to mind

This is an idiom. This does not mean God forgot something.

The writer is asking God to think about him. Alternate translation: "Remember me" or "Think about me" with covenant faithfulness because of your goodness

The abstract nouns "faithfulness" and "goodness" can be stated as adjectives. Alternate translation: "and be faithful to me because of your covenant, because you are good"

Psalms 25:8

the way

How God wants a person to behave is spoken of as if it were a way or path on which a person travels.

Psalms 25:9

the humble

This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective.

Alternate translation: "humble people" or "those who are humble"

his way

How God wants a person to behave is spoken of as if it were a way or path on which a person travels.

Psalms 25:10

All the paths of Yahweh are steadfast love and faithfulness

Here "paths" is a metaphor that represents what some one does or their character. The abstract nouns "loves" and "faithfulness" can be expressed with the verb "love" and the adjective "faithful." Alternate translation: "Yahweh always loves and is faithful"

Psalms 25:11

For your name's sake

The phrase "your name" here refers to Yahweh's reputation. Alternate translation: "For your reputation" or "So that people will honor you"

pardon my iniquity, for it is great

The abstract noun "iniquity" can be stated as a verb.

Alternate translation: "please forgive me, for I have sinned much"

Psalms 25:12

Who is the man who fears Yahweh?

This question introduces "the man who fears Yahweh" as a new topic. Alternate translation: "I will tell you about the man who fears Yahweh."

is the man who fears ... instruct him ... he should

These words refer to any person who fears Yahweh, not a specific person. Alternate translation: "are those who fear ... instruct them ... they should"

The Lord will instruct him in the way that he should choose

Yahweh teaching people how they should behave is spoken of as if Yahweh were teaching the people what way or path they should travel.

Psalms 25:13

His life ... his descendants

These words refer to any person who fears Yahweh, not a specific person. Alternate translation: "Their lives ... their descendants"

His life will go along in goodness

"God will cause him to prosper" or "God will cause them to prosper"

Psalms 25:14

The friendship of Yahweh is for those

"Yahweh is a friend to those." Some translate it as "Yahweh confides in those." His confiding in them shows the intimate friendship he has with them.

Psalms 25:15

My eyes are always on Yahweh

Here "eyes" represents looking. It is implied that he looks to Yahweh for help. Alternate translation: "I always look to Yahweh to help me" or "I always depend on Yahweh to help me"

for he will free my feet from the net

A net is a trap. A person who is in danger is spoken of as if their feet are tangled in a net. Alternate translation: He will rescue me from danger"

Psalms 25:16

Turn toward me

Yahweh paying attention to a person and considering him is spoken of as if Yahweh were physically turning towards the person.

Psalms 25:17

The troubles of my heart are enlarged

Here "heart" represents a person's emotions. Alternate translation: "I feel more and more troubled"

draw me out from my distress

"bring me out of my distress." This speaks of distress as if it were a place that a person can be brought out of. Alternate translation: "rescue me from my distress" or "relieve me of my distress"

my distress

The word "distress" is an abstract noun. Alternate translation: "the things that distress me" or "the things that cause me to be afraid"

Psalms 25:18

See my affliction

"Notice my affliction"

my affliction

The abstract noun "affliction" can be stated as a verb.

Alternate translation: "the things that afflict me" or "how afflicted I am"

my toils

The word "toils" is an abstract noun. Alternate translation: "the things that trouble me"

Psalms 25:19

they hate me with violent hatred

"they hate me and want to do violence to me"

Psalms 25:20

do not let me be humiliated

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Do not let my enemies humiliate me"

take refuge in you!

Going to Yahweh for protection is spoken of as taking refuge in him. Alternate translation: "go to you for protection!"

Psalms 25:21

May integrity and uprightness preserve me

This speaks about "integrity" and "uprightness" as if they were persons who could keep another person safe. These abstract nouns can be stated as adjectives. Alternate translation: "May being honest and doing what is right preserve me" or "Preserve me, Lord, because I am honest and do what is right" preserve me

"keep me safe"

Psalms 25:22

Rescue Israel

"Save Israel" or "Redeem Israel"

Israel ... his troubles

Here "Israel" represents the people of Israel. Alternate translation: "the people of Israel ... our troubles"

A psalm of David.

- ¹ Judge me, Yahweh,
for I have walked with integrity;
I have trusted in Yahweh without wavering.
- ² Examine me, Yahweh, and test me;
test the purity of my inner parts and my heart!
- ³ For your covenant faithfulness is before my eyes, and I walk about in your faithfulness.
- ⁴ I do not associate with deceitful people,
nor do I mingle with dishonest people.
- ⁵ I hate the assembly of evildoers, and I do not live with the wicked.
- ⁶ I wash my hands in innocence,
and I go around your altar, Yahweh,
- ⁷ to sing a loud song of praise and report all your wonderful deeds.
- ⁸ Yahweh, I love the house where you live,
the place where your glory lives!
- ⁹ Do not sweep me away with sinners, or my life with men of bloodshed,
- ¹⁰ in whose hands there is a plot,
and whose right hand is full of bribes.
- ¹¹ But as for me, I will walk in integrity;
redeem me and have mercy on me.
- ¹² My foot stands on level ground;
in the assemblies will I bless Yahweh!

Psalm 26 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 26 is a teaching psalm; showing people how they should live by the example of the psalmsist.

Special concepts in this chapter

Praise

The psalmist delights in praising God and doing good deeds. It is striking how this psalm uses the first person pronoun. This is an individual psalm of petition. Each of the four petitions are accompanied with various claims. (See: good and works)

Links:

Psalms 26:1

Chapter 27

Psalms 26:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

I have walked

The word "walked" is a metaphor for behavior. Alternate translation: "I have behaved"

in Yahweh

The third person use of "Yahweh" can be stated in the second person. Alternate translation: "in you" without wavering

Doubting is spoken of as if it were losing balance and waving back and forth. Alternate translation: "without doubting"

Psalms 26:2

Examine me

"Try me"

test the purity of my inner parts and my heart

Here "inner parts" and "heart" mean motives. Alternate translation: "test whether my motives are good"

Psalms 26:3

For your covenant faithfulness is before my eyes

Here "eyes" represent a person's thoughts and having something before one's eyes represents being aware of that thing. The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "For I am always aware of your covenant faithfulness" or "For I am always aware that you are faithful to your covenant"

I walk about in your faithfulness

The word "walk" is a metaphor for behavior. The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "I conduct my life according to your faithfulness" or "I behave the way I do because you are faithful"

Psalms 26:4

I do not associate with

"I do not keep company with" or "I do not sit with"

with deceitful people

"with those who deceive others"

nor do I mingle with dishonest people

This means the same as the first part of the sentence.

Alternate translation: "and I do not join with dishonest people" dishonest people

"hypocrites" or "those who lie to others"

Psalms 26:5

the assembly of evildoers

"those who gather to do evil"

the wicked

This is a nominal adjective. Alternate translation: "wicked people" or "those who are wicked"

Psalms 26:6

I wash my hands in innocence

This seems to refer to a ritual washing of hands in water to symbolize freedom from sin and guilt.

I go around your altar

This was an action of worship that the Israelites were accustomed to doing.

Psalms 26:7

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 26:8

the house where you live

Possible meanings are 1) if a person wrote this after the time of David, then the writer is referring to the temple in Jerusalem or 2) if David wrote this, then this refers to the tent that God told his people to set up so that they could worship him there.

the place where your glory lives

Here "glory" represents the presence and power of God, which is similar to a very bright light. Alternate translation: "the place where people can see the glorious light of your presence"

Psalms 26:9

Do not sweep me away with sinners

"Sweep away" here is a metaphor for destruction. Alternate translation: "Do not destroy me along with sinners"

or my life

The word "sweep" is understood. Alternate translation: "or sweep my life"

men of bloodshed

"people who are eager to shed others' blood" or "murderers"

Psalms 26:10

in whose hands

"Hands" refers to the whole person. Alternate translation:

"people in which"

a plot

"a wicked plan"

Psalms 26:11

But as for me

This phrase shows that the writer is changing from speaking about wicked people to talking about himself.

I will walk in integrity

"Walk" here is a metaphor for behavior. Alternate translation: "I will behave with integrity"

Psalms 26:12

My foot stands

Here "foot" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "I stand" level ground

Possible meanings are that "level ground" represents 1) a safe place or 2) right behavior

in the assemblies will I bless Yahweh

"when I gather with the people of Israel I will praise you"

Chapter 27

A psalm of David.

- ¹ Yahweh is my light and my salvation;
whom should I fear?
Yahweh is my life's refuge;
whom should I dread?
- ² When evildoers approached me to devour my flesh,
my adversaries and my enemies stumbled and fell.
- ³ Though an army encamps against me,
my heart will not fear;
though war rises up against me,
even then I will remain confident.
- ⁴ One thing have I asked of Yahweh, and I will seek that:
that I may live in the house of Yahweh
all the days of my life,
to see the beauty of Yahweh
and to meditate in his temple.
- ⁵ For in the day of trouble
he will hide me in his shelter;
in the cover of his tent he will conceal me.
He will lift me high on a rock!
- ⁶ Then my head will be lifted up above my enemies all around me,
and I will offer sacrifices of joy in his tent!
I will sing and make songs to Yahweh!
- ⁷ Hear, Yahweh, my voice when I cry out!
Have mercy on me, and answer me!
- ⁸ My heart says about you,
"Seek his face!" I seek your face, Yahweh!
- ⁹ Do not hide your face from me;
do not turn your servant away in anger!
You have been my helper;
do not abandon me or reject me,
God of my salvation!
- ¹⁰ Even if my father and my mother abandon me,
Yahweh will take me in.
- ¹¹ Teach me your way, Yahweh!
Lead me on a level path
because of my enemies.
- ¹² Do not give me up to the desires of my enemies,

for false witnesses have risen up against me,
and they breathe out violence!

¹³ What would have happened to me if I had not believed that I would see the goodness of Yahweh in the land of the living?

¹⁴ Wait for Yahweh;
be strong, and let your heart be courageous!
Wait for Yahweh!

Psalm 27 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 27 is a psalm of praise to God because God keeps the psalmist safe from all his enemies.

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's help

Because of God's help, he has nothing to fear, no matter what happens. The psalmist shows his confidence in God; he also asks God for help.

Links:

Psalms 27:1

Psalms 27:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

Yahweh is my light

Here "light" represents life. Alternate translation: "Yahweh is the source of my life"

whom should I fear?

This question emphasizes that there is no one that David should fear. Alternate translation: "I will not be afraid of anyone"

Yahweh is my life's refuge

This speaks about Yahweh as if he were a place where people can go for safety. Alternate translation: "Yahweh is the one who keeps me safe"

whom should I dread?

This question emphasizes that there is no one that David should be afraid of. Alternate translation: "I will not dread anyone"

Psalms 27:2

to devour my flesh

Destroying someone completely is spoken of as if it were devouring a person's flesh. He did not mean that they wanted to eat his body. Alternate translation: "to destroy me"

my adversaries and my enemies

These words mean the same thing. These are the evildoers who came near to him.

stumbled and fell

This represents the writer's enemies failing to fulfill their plans to harm the writer. Alternate translation: "did not succeed" or "failed"

Psalms 27:3

Though an army encamps against me

"though an army surrounds me" or "though an army puts its tents around me"

my heart will not fear

Here "heart" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "I will not be afraid"

though war rises up against me

The writer's enemies are spoken of as if they themselves were a war. Alternate translation: "though my enemies come to fight against me"

I will remain confident

"I will continue to trust God to help me"

Psalms 27:4

have I asked of Yahweh

"I have asked Yahweh to let me do"

I will seek that

A person really wanting something and continually asking God for it is spoken of as if he were seeking to find something.

to see the beauty of Yahweh

The wonderful character of God is spoken of as if it were physical beauty. Alternate translation: "to see how wonderful Yahweh is" to meditate in his temple

Possible meanings are 1) "to ask God what he wants me to do" or 2) "to think carefully about God in his temple."

Psalms 27:5

in the day of trouble

"in times of trouble" or "when I have troubles"

he will hide me
 "he will protect me"
 his shelter ... his tent
 Both of these refer to the tabernacle where the writer is worshipping God.
 in the cover of his tent
 The word "cover" represents something that hides and protects.
 He will lift me high on a rock
 God keeping the writer safe from his enemies is spoken of as if God were placing him on a high rock where his enemies cannot reach him.
 Psalms 27:6
 my head will be lifted up above my enemies
 This represents the writer receiving pride or honor when he defeats his enemies. It can be stated in active form.
 Alternate translation: "people will honor me when I win the fight against my enemies" or "God will honor me by enabling me to defeat my enemies"
 Psalms 27:7
 Hear, Yahweh, my voice
 The "voice" often represents a person who speak or calls out. Alternate translation: "Yahweh, hear me"
 answer me
 This implies that Yahweh hears the writer's prayer and Yahweh will do what the writer asks. Alternate translation: "answer my prayer" or "do what I request of you"
 Psalms 27:8
 My heart says
 Here "heart" represents a person's mind or thoughts.
 Alternate translation: "In my heart I say" or "I say to myself"
 Seek his face
 A person going to the temple to pray to Yahweh is spoken of as if the person were seeking to find Yahweh. Here "face" represents all of God. Alternate translation: "Go and pray to Yahweh"
 I seek your face, Yahweh
 A person going to the temple to pray to Yahweh is spoken of as if the person were seeking to find Yahweh. Here "face" represents all of God. Alternate translation: "I will come to your temple to pray to you"
 Psalms 27:9
 Do not hide your face from me
 The face here represents Yahweh's attention, and hiding the face represents rejecting someone. Alternate translation: "Do not reject me" or "Do not stop taking care of me"
 do not turn your servant away in anger
 David said "your servant" to refer to himself in a humble way. Alternate translation: "do not be angry with me"
 do not abandon me or reject me
 The words "abandon" and "reject" have similar meanings. The writer is emphasizing that he does not want God to leave him.
 God of my salvation

The abstract noun "salvation" can be stated as "saves."
 Alternate translation: "God who saves me" or "because you are the God who saves me"
 Psalms 27:10
 Even if my father and my mother abandon me
 He is not saying that they actually have done this or that they would do it. His point is that even if they did that, God would not abandon him.
 Yahweh will take me in
 "Yahweh will keep me" or "Yahweh will take care of me"
 Psalms 27:11
 Teach me your way
 How a person should behave is spoken of as if it were a way or path that person should travel. Alternate translation: "Teach me how you want me to live" or "Teach me to do what you want me to do"
 Lead me on a level path
 Yahweh keeping the writer safe from his enemies is spoken of as if Yahweh leads the writer on a level path where he will not stumble and fall. Alternate translation: "Keep me safe"
 Psalms 27:12
 Do not give me up to the desires of my enemies
 The abstract noun "desires" can be stated as a verb.
 Alternate translation: "Do not let my enemies do to me what they desire"
 have risen up against me
 "Risen up" here is an idiom meaning that a witness stood in court to present testimony. Alternate translation: "have stood up in order to speak against me" they breathe out violence
 Here violence is spoken for as if it was something a person could breathe out. Alternate translation: "they say that they will do violent things to me"
 Psalms 27:13
 What would have happened to me
 This rhetorical question can be stated positively. Alternate translation: "Something bad would have happened to me" the goodness of Yahweh
 The abstract noun "goodness" can be stated as an adjective.
 Alternate translation: "the good things that Yahweh does"
 in the land of the living
 This refers to being alive. Alternate translation: "while I am alive"
 Psalms 27:14
 Wait for Yahweh ... Wait for Yahweh!
 This verse may be 1) the writer speaking to himself or 2) the writer speaking to others or 3) someone speaking to the writer.
 let your heart be courageous Here "heart" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "be courageous"
 Wait for Yahweh!
 This line is repeated at the end of the psalm as a way of ending the psalm.

Chapter 28

A psalm of David.

- ¹ To you, Yahweh, I cry out;
my rock, do not ignore me.
If you do not respond to me,
I will join those who go down to the pit.
- ² Hear the sound of my pleading
when I call for help from you, when I lift up my hands toward your most holy place!
- ³ Do not drag me away with the wicked,
those who behave wickedly,
who speak peace with their neighbors
but have evil in their hearts.
- ⁴ Give them what their deeds deserve and repay them what their wickedness demands; repay them for the work of their hands and render to them their due.
- ⁵ Because they do not understand the deeds of Yahweh or the work of his hands, he will break them down
and never rebuild them.
- ⁶ Blessed be Yahweh
because he has heard the sound of my pleading!
- ⁷ Yahweh is my strength and my shield;
my heart trusts in him, and I am helped.
Therefore my heart greatly rejoices,
and I will praise him with singing.
- ⁸ Yahweh is the strength of his people,
and he is the saving refuge of his anointed one.
- ⁹ Save your people and bless your inheritance.
Be their shepherd and carry them forever.

Psalm 28 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 28 is a psalm of prayer to God that he is not be punished along with the wicked people. (See: evil)

Special concepts in this chapter

Trust

The psalmist trusted God completely and God rescued him. This is similar to psalm 7 and 17 because it is an individual lament psalm. (See: lament)

Links:

Psalms 28:1

Psalms 28:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

I cry out

"I call out loudly"

my rock

This is a metaphor for strength. Alternate translation: "my strength"

do not ignore me

"do not be silent to me" or "do not leave me alone"

I will join those who go down to the pit

The pit is either the grave or the place where dead people are. Alternate translation: "I will die like those who are in the grave"

Psalms 28:2

Hear the sound of my pleading

Here "sound" refers to the content of his request. Alternate translation: "Hear my strong request"

I lift up my hands toward your most holy place

Lifting up hands is a symbol of worship. The writer is not worshipping the holy place, but Yahweh who lives in the holy place.

your most holy place

Possible meanings are 1) if David wrote this, then this refers to the tent that God told his people to set up so that they could worship him there, or 2) if a person wrote this after the time of David, then the writer is referring to the temple in Jerusalem.

Psalms 28:3

Do not drag me away

God punishing people is spoken of as if he physically drags them away. In this metaphor Yahweh may be dragging them to prison, exile, or death. Alternate translation: "Do not remove me"

who speak peace with their neighbors

Here "neighbors" refers to people in general. Alternate translation: "who speak peacefully with other people" but have evil in their hearts

Here "hearts" represents a person's mind or thoughts. Alternate translation: "but are thinking something evil about them"

Psalms 28:4

Give them what their deeds deserve ... repay them what their wickedness demands

These two phrases mean the same thing. They are used together to emphasize that they deserve for God to punish them.

the work of their hands

Here "hands" represent what the person has done.

Alternate translation: "the things they have done" render to them their due

"give them what they deserve"

Psalms 28:5

Because they do not understand ... never rebuild them

Possible meanings are 1) David is confident about what God will do to wicked people or 2) David is asking God to destroy the wicked people.

they do not understand the deeds of Yahweh

It is implied that "do not understand" means they ignore or do not honor Yahweh's works. Alternate translation: "they do not regard with honor what Yahweh has done"

the work of his hands

Here "hands" represents what Yahweh has done or created. Alternate translation: "what he has created"

he will break them down and never rebuild them

The punishment of the wicked people is spoken of as if they were a building or a city that God would destroy.

Psalms 28:6

he has heard the sound of my pleading

Here "sound" represents what the writer said. Alternate translation: "has heard what I said when I pleaded to him"

Psalms 28:7

Yahweh is my strength

The abstract noun "strength" can be stated as "strong."

Alternate translation: "Yahweh makes me strong"

my shield

This represents Yahweh's protecting the writer. Alternate translation: "he protects me"

my heart trusts

Here "heart" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "I trust"

I am helped

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "he helps me"

my heart greatly rejoices

Here "heart" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "I greatly rejoice"

Psalms 28:8

Yahweh is the strength of his people

The abstract noun "strength" can be stated as "strong."

Alternate translation: "Yahweh makes his people strong"

he is the saving refuge of his anointed one

Yahweh keeping the king safe is spoken of as if Yahweh were a place that the king could go for safety. Alternate translation: "he keeps safe the one he appointed to be king"

his anointed one

The words "anointed one" represent the king.

Psalms 28:9

your inheritance

This speaks about the people of God as if they were something God inherited. Alternate translation: "your possession" or "those who belong to you"

Be their shepherd and carry them forever

The writer speaks about Yahweh as if he were a shepherd and the people are his sheep. A shepherd would carry a sheep if it needed help or protection. Alternate translation:

"Be like their shepherd and protect them forever"

Chapter 29

A psalm of David.

- ¹ Ascribe to Yahweh, you sons of God,
ascribe to Yahweh glory and strength!
- ² Ascribe to Yahweh the glory his name deserves.
Bow down to Yahweh in the splendor of holiness!
- ³ The voice of Yahweh is heard over the waters;
the God of glory thunders,
Yahweh thunders over many waters.
- ⁴ The voice of Yahweh is powerful;
the voice of Yahweh is majestic.
- ⁵ The voice of Yahweh breaks the cedars;
Yahweh breaks in pieces the cedars of Lebanon.
- ⁶ He makes Lebanon skip like a calf and Sirion like a young ox.
- ⁷ The voice of Yahweh sends out flames of fire.
- ⁸ The voice of Yahweh shakes the wilderness;
Yahweh shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.
- ⁹ The voice of Yahweh causes the oaks to twist and strips the forests bare.
Everyone in his temple says, "Glory!"
- ¹⁰ Yahweh sits as king over the flood;
Yahweh sits as king forever.
- ¹¹ Yahweh gives strength to his people;
Yahweh blesses his people with peace.

Psalm 29 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 29 is a worship psalm. It tells how Yahweh rules all nature.

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's power

God is powerful. All he has to do is to speak in order to control nature.

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Metonymy

The voice of the Yahweh stands for Yahweh himself.

Links:

Psalms 29:1

Psalms 29:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

you sons of God

The phrase "sons of" is a way of saying "having the characteristics of." Alternate translation: "you mighty men"

 ascribe to Yahweh glory and strength
 The abstract nouns "glory" and "strength" can be stated as adjectives. Alternate translation: "praise Yahweh because he is glorious and strong"
 Psalms 29:2
 Ascribe to Yahweh the glory his name deserves
 The abstract noun "glory" can be stated as a verb or adjective. Alternate translation: "Honor Yahweh just as his name deserves" or "Proclaim that Yahweh is glorious just as his name deserves"
 his name deserves
 The phrase "his name" refers to Yahweh or his reputation.
 Alternate translation: "as is proper because of who he is"
 Bow down to Yahweh
 The implied information is that the people were to bow down in worship. Alternate translation: "Bow down to worship Yahweh"
 in the splendor of holiness
 The abstract nouns "splendor" and "holiness" can be translated as adjectives. Alternate translation: "because he is gloriously beautiful and holy"
 Psalms 29:3
 General Information:
 The psalm shows Yahweh's power and glory.
 The voice of Yahweh is heard over the waters God's voice is louder and clearer than all other sounds and noises. It can be heard over other loud sounds such as the sound of the waters. This can be stated in active form.
 Alternate translation: "When Yahweh speaks his voice is louder than the sound of the sea" or "Yahweh shouts louder than the sound of the waters"
 over the waters
 This refers to the seas or the oceans. These waters make a very loud noise as the waves rise and fall.
 The voice of Yahweh
 All occurrences of "voice" here represent Yahweh speaking.
 The writer is emphasizing that when Yahweh speaks, the sound is so loud it is heard over the waters, and it is so powerful it can destroy the largest trees. Alternate translation: "When Yahweh speaks, his voice"
 the God of glory thunders
 This speaks about God speaking as if it were the sound of thunder. Just like the sound of thunder, Yahweh's voice can be heard over large distances. Alternate translation: "The voice of the glorious God is loud like thunder" or "When the glorious God speaks it rumbles like thunder" over many waters
 "over the large bodies of water"
 Psalms 29:4
 General Information:
 This page has intentionally been left blank.
 Psalms 29:5
 General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.
 Psalms 29:6
 Connecting Statement:
 The writer continues describing the power of God's voice.
 He makes Lebanon skip like a calf
 The ground of Lebanon shaking is spoken of as if it were a young calf skipping. This emphasizes that when Yahweh speaks, the power of his voice shakes the ground. Alternate translation: "He makes the land of Lebanon shake like a calf skipping" skip jump lightly back and forth
 Sirion like a young ox
 The words "he makes" and "skip" are understood from the first phrase. They can be repeated here. The ground of Sirion shaking is spoken of as if it were a young ox skipping. This emphasizes that when Yahweh speaks, the power of his voice shakes the ground. Alternate translation:
 "he makes Sirion skip like a young ox"
 Sirion
 This is a mountain in Lebanon. It is also called Mount Hermon.
 Psalms 29:7
 The voice of Yahweh sends out flames of fire
 All occurrences of "voice" here represent Yahweh speaking.
 Alternate translation: "When Yahweh speaks he causes lightning to flash in the sky" flames of fire
 This refers to lightning.
 Psalms 29:8
 General Information:
 This page has intentionally been left blank.
 Psalms 29:9
 The voice of Yahweh causes Here "voice" represents Yahweh speaking. Alternate translation: "When Yahweh speaks, the sound causes" the oaks to twist
 "the large trees to shake" strips the forests bare Removing the leaves of the trees is spoken of as if it was removing their clothing. Alternate translation: "strips off the leaves from the trees"
 Psalms 29:10
 Yahweh sits as king
 This means that Yahweh rules. Alternate translation:
 "Yahweh rules" or "Yahweh is king"
 over the flood
 Here "flood" refers to waters that cover the earth.
 Psalms 29:11
 Yahweh blesses his people with peace
 The word "peace" is an abstract noun. Alternate translation:
 "Yahweh blesses his people by causing them to prosper and to live peacefully"

Chapter 30

A psalm; a song at the dedication of the temple. A psalm of David.

¹ I will exalt you, Yahweh, for you have raised me up and have not allowed my enemies to rejoice over me.

² Yahweh my God, I cried to you for help, and you healed me.

³ Yahweh, you have brought up my soul from Sheol;
you have kept me alive from going down to the pit.

⁴ Sing praises to Yahweh, you his faithful ones!
Give thanks when you remember his holiness.

⁵ For his anger is only for a moment;
but his favor is for a lifetime.
Weeping comes for a night,
but joy comes in the morning.

⁶ In confidence I said, "I will never be shaken."
⁷ Yahweh, by your favor
you established me as a strong mountain;
but when you hid your face,
I was troubled.

⁸ I cried to you, Yahweh, and sought favor from my Lord!

⁹ What advantage is there in my blood,
if I go down to the grave?
Will the dust praise you?
Will it declare your trustworthiness?

¹⁰ Hear, Yahweh, and have mercy on me!
Yahweh, be my helper.

¹¹ You have turned my mourning into dancing;
you have removed my sackcloth and clothed me with gladness.

¹² So now my glory will sing praise to you and not be silent;
Yahweh my God, I will give thanks to you forever!

Psalm 30 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 30 is a psalm of praise and thanksgiving to God. The psalmist was near death but God rescued him.

Special concepts in this chapter

The psalmist's death

If he had died, it would not have been a help to God. But since God rescued him he can praise God.

Links:

Psalms 30:1

Psalms 30:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm; a song at the dedication of the temple. A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

a song at the dedication of the temple

"This song was sung when the temple was dedicated"

you have raised me up

The writer speaks of God rescuing him and keeping him from dying as if God had drawn him up from a deep well.

Alternate translation: "you rescued me"

Psalms 30:2

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 30:3

brought up my soul from Sheol

Since "Sheol" was the place where dead people go, it refers to death. Alternate translation: "kept me from dying"

brought up my soul

Here "my soul" refers to the writer. Alternate translation: "brought me up" from going down to the pit

The "pit" represents death. Alternate translation: "from dying"

Psalms 30:4

Give thanks when you remember his holiness

The abstract nouns "thanks" and "holiness" can be stated as "thank" and "holy." Alternate translation: "Remember that God is holy and thank him" or "Remember what God has done because he is holy and thank him"

Psalms 30:5

his anger is only for a moment

"his anger lasts only a moment." The abstract noun "anger" can be stated as "angry." Alternate translation: "he is angry for only a moment"

a moment

Here "moment" represents a short amount of time.

Alternate translation: "a short time"

but his favor is for a lifetime

The abstract noun "favor" can be stated as the adjective "good." Alternate translation: "but he is good to us all of our lives"

Weeping comes for a night, but joy comes in the morning

This speaks about "weeping" and "joy" as if they were something that travels and arrives at a certain time.

Alternate translation: "We may cry during the night, but the next morning we will be joyful"

Psalms 30:6

In confidence

The word "confidence" is an abstract noun. The writer recalls a time when he was prospering and felt confident and safe. Alternate translation: "When I was confident" or "When I felt safe"

I will never be shaken

The word "shaken" is a metaphor for defeat. Alternate translation: "No one will defeat me"

Psalms 30:7

by your favor

The abstract noun "favor" can be stated as the verb "favored" or the adjective "kind." Alternate translation: "when you favored me" or "when you were kind to me"

you established me as a strong mountain

The writer's security is spoken of as if he were a strong mountain. Alternate translation: "you made me as secure as a high mountain"

when you hid your face

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "when you stopped helping me" or "when you rejected me"

I was troubled

"I was fearful" or "I was worried"

Psalms 30:8

sought favor from my Lord

The phrase "sought favor" means to ask for help. Alternate translation: "I pleaded for you to help me"

from my Lord

The writer is referring to Yahweh in third person. It can be stated in second person. Alternate translation: "from you, my Lord"

Psalms 30:9

What advantage is there in my blood, if I go down to the grave?

The writer uses this question to emphasize that he would be of no value to God if he were dead. Alternate translation: "There is no advantage in my blood, if I go down to the grave."

in my blood

Here "blood" is a metonym for a violent death. Alternate translation: "if I die a violent death"

Will the dust praise you? Will it declare your trustworthiness?

The writer uses these questions to emphasize that his dead and decayed body cannot praise God. Alternate translation: "The dust will certainly not praise you or tell others about how trustworthy you are."

the dust

This refers to the body of the writer which will decay and become dust when he is dead. Alternate translation: "my decayed body"

Psalms 30:10

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 30:11

You have turned my mourning into dancing

It was customary for the Jews to dance when they were very happy. The abstract nouns "mourning" and "dancing" can be stated as verbs. Alternate translation: "You have caused me to stop mourning and to dance with joy instead" you have removed my sackcloth

Sackcloth was associated with mourning and sorrow.

Alternate translation: "You have caused me to no longer be sad"

clothed me with gladness

The writer speaks of gladness as if it were a garment that he could put on. Alternate translation: "caused me to be glad"

Chapter 31

Psalms 30:12

my glory will sing praise to you

Here "my glory" refers to the writer's soul or heart or inner being. This represents the entire person of the writer, who worships God because God has made him glad. Alternate translation: "I will sing praise to you"

Chapter 31

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

- ¹ In you, Yahweh, I take refuge;
never let me be humiliated.
Rescue me in your righteousness.
- ² Listen to me; rescue me quickly;
be my rock of refuge,
a stronghold to save me.
- ³ For you are my rock and my fortress;
therefore for your name's sake, lead and guide me.
- ⁴ Pluck me out of the net that they have hidden for me,
for you are my refuge.
- ⁵ Into your hands I entrust my spirit;
you will redeem me, Yahweh, God of trustworthiness.
- ⁶ I hate those who serve worthless idols,
but I trust in Yahweh.
- ⁷ I will be glad and rejoice in your covenant faithfulness,
for you saw my affliction;
you knew the distress of my soul.
- ⁸ You have not given me into the hand of my enemy.
You have set my feet in a wide open place.
- ⁹ Have mercy upon me, Yahweh, for I am in distress;
my eyes grow weary with grief with my soul and my body.
- ¹⁰ For my life is weary with sorrow and my years with groaning.
My strength fails because of my iniquity, and my bones are wasting away.
- ¹¹ Because of all my enemies, I have become contemptible;
my neighbors are appalled at my situation,
and those who know me are horrified.
Those who see me in the street run from me.
- ¹² I am forgotten as a dead man whom no one thinks about.
I am like a broken pot.
- ¹³ For I have heard the whispering of many,

terrifying news from every side
as they plot together against me.
They plot to take away my life.

¹⁴ But I trust in you, Yahweh;
I say, "You are my God."

¹⁵ My times are in your hand.
Rescue me from the hands of my enemies and from those who pursue me.

¹⁶ Make your face shine on your servant;
save me in your covenant faithfulness.

¹⁷ Do not let me be humiliated, Yahweh;
for I call out to you!
May the wicked be humiliated!
May they be silent in Sheol.

¹⁸ May lying lips be silenced that speak against the righteous defiantly with arrogance and contempt.

¹⁹ How great is your goodness that you have stored up for those who revere you, that you perform for those who take refuge in you before all the children of mankind!

²⁰ In the shelter of your presence, you hide them from the plots of men.
You hide them in a shelter from the strife of tongues.

²¹ Blessed be Yahweh, for he showed me his marvelous covenant faithfulness when I was in a besieged city.

²² Though I said in my alarm,
"I am cut off from your eyes," yet you heard my plea for help when I cried to you.

²³ Love Yahweh, all you faithful ones.
Yahweh protects the faithful,
but he pays back the arrogant in full.

²⁴ Be strong and let your heart take courage, all you who trust in Yahweh for help.

Psalm 31 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 31 is a psalm of deliverance. The psalmist's enemies thought they had defeated him, but God protected him. (See:

deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Abandonment

Even though everyone deserted and despised the psalmist, God did not abandon him.

Links:

Psalms 31:1

Psalms 31:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician. A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

In you, Yahweh, I take refuge

Going to Yahweh for protection is spoken of as taking refuge in him. Alternate translation: "I go to you, Yahweh, for protection"

never let me be humiliated

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "do not let others humiliate me"

Psalms 31:2

be my rock of refuge, a stronghold to save me

The phrase "be my rock of refuge" is a request for protection. The second phrase emphasizes the first phrase. my rock of refuge

Yahweh is spoke of as if he were a huge rock that would protect the writer from attack. Alternate translation: "like a huge rock on which I can be safe"

a stronghold to save me

Yahweh is spoken of as if he were a strong fortress in which the writer would be protected from his enemies.

Psalms 31:3

my rock

Yahweh is spoke of as if he were a huge rock that would protect the writer from attack. Alternate translation: "like a huge rock on which I can be safe"

my fortress

Yahweh is spoken of as if he were a strong fortress in which the writer would be protected from his enemies.

for your name's sake

In this phrase "name" represents Yahweh. Alternate translation: "so that your name may be honored" or "so that I may worship you"

lead and guide me

The words "lead" and "guide" mean basically the same thing and strengthen the request that Yahweh lead him. Alternate translation: "lead me where you want me to go"

Psalms 31:4

Pluck me out of the net that they have hidden for me

The writer is spoken of as if he were a bird caught in a hidden net, and waiting for Yahweh to free him from the trap.

you are my refuge

Yahweh is spoken of as if he is a place where the writer can hide from people who are attacking him. Alternate translation: "you always protect me" or "you give me constant protection"

Psalms 31:5

Into your hands

God is spirit, but he is here spoken of as if he has hands.

Here "your hands" refers to Yahweh's care. Alternate translation: "Into your care"

I entrust my spirit

Here "my spirit" refers to the writer. Alternate translation: "I place myself"

God of trustworthiness

"you are a God I can trust"

Psalms 31:6

I hate those who serve worthless idols

Here the word "worthless" refers to all idols. This can be clarified in translation. Alternate translation: "Idols are worthless. I hate those who serve them"

Psalms 31:7

I will be glad and rejoice in your covenant faithfulness

The words "glad" and "rejoice" share similar meanings and emphasize the intensity of joy. The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "I will be very glad because you are faithful to your covenant"

you saw my affliction ... you knew the distress of my soul

Both of these phrases express the idea that God knows about the writer's troubles.

the distress of my soul

Here "my soul" refers to the writer. Alternate translation: "my distress"

Psalms 31:8

You have set my feet

Here "my feet" refers to the writer. Alternate translation: "You have set me" a wide open place

The Hebrews thought of wide open spaces as a metaphor for safety and freedom. Alternate translation: "a place where I am free"

Psalms 31:9

I am in distress

"I am suffering greatly"

my soul and my body

The terms "soul" and "body" are used to describe the complete person.

Psalms 31:10

For my life is weary

Here "my life" refers to the writer. Alternate translation: "I have become very weak" with sorrow ... with groaning

"because of my sorrow ... because of my groaning"

my years with groaning
 The phrase "is weary" is missing, but is implied. Alternate translation: "my years are weary with groaning"
 My strength fails
 Here "My strength" refers to the writer. Alternate translation: "I have become weak" my bones are wasting away
 Here "my bones" refers to the physical health of the writer. Alternate translation: "my health is failing"
 Psalms 31:11
 have become contemptible
 The abstract noun "contemptible" can be translated as a verb. Alternate translation: "people have contempt for me" or "people insult me" are appalled at my situation
 "are shocked at my condition"
 Psalms 31:12
 as a dead man whom no one thinks about People do not think about dead people. The writer does not think people think about him.
 like a broken pot
 The writer speaks of himself as if he was completely useless. "as useless as a broken pot"
 Psalms 31:13
 the whispering of many
 It is implied that "many" refers to people. Alternate translation: "many people talking about me"
 terrifying news from every side
 "scary reports from many sources" take away my life
 This idiom means to kill someone. Alternate translation: "kill me"
 Psalms 31:14
 General Information:
 This page has intentionally been left blank.
 Psalms 31:15
 My times are in your hand
 Here "your hand" refers to Yahweh's power. Alternate translation: "You have the power to decide my future" from those who pursue me
 "from people who try to capture me"
 Psalms 31:16
 Make your face shine on your servant
 The writer speaks of Yahweh acting favorably towards him as if Yahweh's face shone a light on him. Alternate translation: "Act favorably towards your servant"
 save me in your covenant faithfulness
 The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "save me because you are faithful to your covenant"
 Psalms 31:17
 Do not let me be humiliated
 This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Do not let others make me feel ashamed"
 May the wicked be humiliated!
 "I wish that God would disgrace wicked people!"
 the wicked
 This refers to "wicked people."
 May they be silent in Sheol

Here "in Sheol" represents death. Alternate translation: "Let them die so they cannot speak"
 Psalms 31:18
 May lying lips be silenced
 This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "May someone make these lying lips silent" lying lips
 These represent lying people. Alternate translation: "people who lie" that speak against the righteous defiantly
 Here "the righteous" refers to people who are righteous. Alternate translation: "that say terrible things about righteous people"
 with arrogance and contempt
 These terms have similar meanings. Alternate translation: "with a complete lack of respect"
 Psalms 31:19
 is your goodness
 This can be expressed with a verb. Alternate translation: "are the good things you do" that you have stored up Yahweh's goodness is spoken of as if it was something that could be stored up like a harvest. Alternate translation: "that you are keeping ready to use" those who revere you
 "those who respect you greatly"
 take refuge in you
 Going to Yahweh for protection is spoken of as taking refuge in him. See how you translated this in Psalms 31:1. Alternate translation: "those who go to you for protection"
 Psalms 31:20
 In the shelter of your presence, you hide them ... You hide them in a shelter
 These phrases both mean that God protects them.
 In the shelter
 Yahweh's presence is spoken of as if it is a strong building where the writer would be safe.
 You hide them in a shelter
 Here a "shelter" represents a safe place. Alternate translation: "You provide a safe place for them" from the strife of tongues
 Here "tongues" refer to the people who are speaking violent things against the writer. Alternate translation: "where their enemies cannot speak evil at them"
 Psalms 31:21
 he showed me his marvelous covenant faithfulness
 The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "he showed me that he is wonderfully faithful to his covenant"
 Psalms 31:22
 I am cut off from your eyes
 This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "You have removed me from your presence" your eyes
 Here Yahweh is represented by his "eyes." Alternate translation: "you" you heard my plea for help
 Here "plea" can be expressed with a verb. Alternate translation: "you heard me plead for help"

Chapter 32

Psalms 31:23

the faithful

This refers to the faithful people. Alternate translation: "the people who are faithful"

he pays back the arrogant in full

Here "pay back" is an idiom that refers to punishment.

Alternate translation: "he gives the proud people all of the punishment that they deserve"

Psalms 31:24

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Chapter 32

A psalm of David. A maschil.

¹ Blessed is the person

whose transgression is forgiven,

whose sin is covered.

² Blessed is the man to whom Yahweh reckons no guilt and in whose spirit there is no deceit.

³ When I remained silent,

my bones were wasting away

while I groaned all day long.

⁴ For day and night your hand was heavy upon me.

My strength withered as in summer drought.

Selah

⁵ Then I acknowledged my sin to you, and I no longer hid my iniquity.

I said, "I will confess my transgressions to Yahweh," and you forgave the guilt of my sin.

Selah

⁶ For this reason every one of your faithful followers should pray to you at a time of great distress.

When the surging waters overflow,

the waters will not reach them.

⁷ You are my hiding place;

you will guard me from trouble.

You will surround me with the songs of victory.

Selah

⁸ I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you should go.

I will counsel you with my eye upon you.

⁹ Do not be like a horse or like a mule, which have no understanding;

it is only with bridle and bit to control them that they will go where you want them to.

¹⁰ The wicked have many sorrows, but Yahweh's covenant faithfulness will surround the one who trusts in him.

¹¹ Be glad in Yahweh, and rejoice, you righteous;
shout for joy, all you who are upright in heart.

Psalm 32 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 32 is a psalm of confession of sin. (See: confess and sin)

Special concepts in this chapter

Confession of sin

This psalm tells of the sorrow of unconfessed sin; it also tells of the blessing of confession and of receiving God's forgiveness. It is such a blessing when God forgives sin. Trouble comes when sin is hidden and not confessed. (See: bless and forgive)

Links:

Psalms 32:1

Psalms 32:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of David. A maschil

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

A psalm of David

Possible meanings are 1) David wrote the psalm or 2) the psalm is about David or 3) the psalm is in the style of David's psalms.

A maschil

This may refer to a style of music.

whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered

These phrases have similar meanings. They can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "who God forgives his transgression and covers his sin"

whose sin is covered

Here sin that is forgiven is spoken of as if it were covered so that it can not be seen. Alternate translation: "whose sin is ignored" or "whose sin is deliberately forgotten"

Psalms 32:2

to whom Yahweh reckons no guilt

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "whom Yahweh sees as innocent" or "who is not guilty according to Yahweh"

in whose spirit there is no deceit

Here "spirit" refers to the person. Alternate translation: "in whom there is not deceit" or "who is completely honest"

Psalms 32:3

my bones were wasting away

Here "my bones" refers to the writer. Alternate translation: "I was wasting away" or "I was getting weaker"

all day long

This idiom means "continually." Alternate translation: "all the time"

Psalms 32:4

day and night

These extremes include everything in between. Alternate translation: "all the time"

your hand was heavy upon me

Here "hand" refers to Yahweh. The entire phrase is an idiom that means "you afflicted me." Alternate translation: "you made me suffer greatly"

My strength withered as in summer drought

David's strength is compared to a small, green plant that turns brown and crumbles in the dry season.

Psalms 32:5

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 32:6

at a time of great distress

"when they are in great trouble."

When the surging waters overflow, the waters will not reach them. Difficulties are spoken of as if they were a flood of water.

Alternate translation: "Then when difficulties come like a flood of water, those people will be safe"

Psalms 32:7

You are my hiding place

Yahweh is spoken of as if he was a safe place from the attacks of the writer's enemies. Alternate translation: "You are like a place where I can hide myself from my enemies"

You will surround me with the songs of victory

This metaphor apparently means that Yahweh's protection of the writer is the cause for songs of victory to be sung.

Alternate translation: "Because of you I will sing songs of victory"

Psalms 32:8

I will instruct you and teach you in the way

The words "instruct" and "teach" mean basically the same thing and emphasize careful instruction. Alternate translation: "I will teach you everything about the way"

I will instruct

Here the "I" is probably Yahweh who talks directly to David. in the way which you should go

Chapter 33

Living in the correct way is spoken of as if it were a path that the writer should walk. Alternate translation: "how you should live your life"

with my eye upon you

Here "my eye" refers to Yahweh's attention. Alternate translation: "and direct my attention to you" or "and watch over you"

Psalms 32:9

Do not be like a horse ... no understanding

The writer compares people with no understanding to horses and mules. Possible meanings are 1) the writer is speaking Yahweh's words to his readers, "You all must not be like a horse ... no understanding" or 2) Yahweh is speaking to the writer as though to a group of people. bridle and bit

Two tools that are used by people to guide horses and mules go where the rider wants them to go.

where you want them to

"where anyone wants them to go." The "you" here is singular and refers to no one in particular.

Psalms 32:10

Yahweh's covenant faithfulness will surround the one who trusts in him
Yahweh being faithful to a person and protecting that person is spoken of as if Yahweh's covenant faithfulness surrounded the person. The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "Because Yahweh is faithful to his covenant, he will protect the one who trusts in him"

Psalms 32:11

Be glad in Yahweh

Here "in Yahweh" refers to what Yahweh has done for them. "Be glad because of what Yahweh has done"

you righteous

This refers to people. Alternate translation: "you righteous people" shout for joy

"shout joyfully" or "shout because of joy"

who are upright in heart

Here "heart" refers to the person. Alternate translation:

"people who are upright"

Chapter 33

- ¹ Rejoice in Yahweh, you righteous;
praise is appropriate for the upright.
- ² Give thanks to Yahweh with the harp;
sing praises to him with the lute having ten strings.
- ³ Sing to him a new song;
play skillfully and shout for joy.
- ⁴ For Yahweh's word is upright, and all his deeds are done in faithfulness.
- ⁵ He loves righteousness and justice.
The earth is full of Yahweh's covenant faithfulness.
- ⁶ By the word of Yahweh the heavens were made,
and all the stars were made by the breath of his mouth.
- ⁷ He gathers the waters of the sea together like a heap;
he puts the oceans in storehouses.
- ⁸ Let the whole earth fear Yahweh;
let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.
- ⁹ For he spoke, and it was done;
he commanded, and it stood in place.
- ¹⁰ Yahweh frustrates the alliances of nations;
he overrules the plans of the peoples.

- ¹¹ The plans of Yahweh stand forever,
the plans of his heart for all generations.
- ¹² Blessed is the nation whose God is Yahweh,
the people whom he has chosen as his own inheritance.
- ¹³ Yahweh looks from heaven;
he sees all the people.
- ¹⁴ From the place where he lives, he looks down on all who live on the earth.
- ¹⁵ He who shapes the hearts of them all observes all their deeds.
- ¹⁶ No king is saved by a vast army;
a warrior is not saved by his great strength.
- ¹⁷ A horse is a false hope for victory;
in spite of his great strength, he cannot rescue.
- ¹⁸ See, Yahweh's eye is on those who fear him, on those who hope in his covenant faithfulness
- ¹⁹ to deliver their lives from death and to keep them alive in times of famine.
- ²⁰ We wait for Yahweh;
he is our help and our shield.
- ²¹ Our hearts rejoice in him,
for we trust in his holy name.
- ²² Let your covenant faithfulness, Yahweh, be with us
as we put our hope in you.

Psalm 33 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 33 is a worship song. It tells how great God is.

Special concepts in this chapter

God's power

God is the creator and also the God of his people, Israel. Whatever he plans works out. He alone provides safety in battle.

Links:

Psalms 33:1

Psalms 33:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

Rejoice in Yahweh

Here "in Yahweh" refers to what Yahweh has done for them. "Rejoice because of what Yahweh has done"

praise is appropriate for the upright

"to praise Yahweh is appropriate for upright people"

Psalms 33:2

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 33:3

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 33:4

General Information:

Each verse consists of two lines that have very similar meanings.

Yahweh's word is upright

Here "upright" is used as a metaphor for something that is true. Alternate translation: "Yahweh always does what he says that he will do"

Psalms 33:5

He loves righteousness and justice

These abstract nouns can be stated as actions. Alternate translation: "He loves doing what is right and just" or "He loves those who do what is right and just"

The earth is full of Yahweh's covenant faithfulness

People everywhere in the world being able to see evidence of Yahweh's covenant faithfulness is spoken of as if his covenant faithfulness filled the earth. The abstract noun "covenant faithfulness" can be translated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "People everywhere on earth can see that Yahweh is faithful to his covenant" or "Throughout the earth, there is evidence that Yahweh is faithful to his covenant"

Psalms 33:6

By the word of Yahweh the heavens were made

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "By using his word, Yahweh made the heavens"

by the breath of his mouth

This refers to Yahweh's word. Alternate translation: "by his word"

Psalms 33:7

General Information:

Each verse consists of two lines that have very similar meanings.

like a heap

"like behind a dam." The writer describes the creation of the sea as if God piles up all the waters together.

he puts the oceans in storehouses

The writer describes the creation of the oceans as if God put them in a storehouse. Alternate translation: "he puts the oceans in their place, just like a man puts grain in a storehouse"

Psalms 33:8

Let the whole earth

This refers to the people on the earth. Alternate translation: "Let everyone on earth"

stand in awe of him

Here "stand in awe" is an idiom that means "be in awe."

Alternate translation: "honor him"

Psalms 33:9

stood in place

Here "stood in place" is an idiom that means "was created."

Alternate translation: "started to exist"

Psalms 33:10

General Information:

Each verse consists of two lines that have very similar meanings.

Yahweh frustrates

"Yahweh destroys" or "Yahweh breaks"

the alliances of nations

Here "nations" refers to the people of these nations.

Alternate translation: "the alliances of the people of different nations" alliances

An alliance is an agreement between two or more nations to support each other in a war against a common enemy.

the plans of the peoples

"the intentions of the peoples" Alternate translation: "the evil plans of the peoples"

Psalms 33:11

stand forever

Here "stand" is an idiom that means "endure."

the plans of his heart for all generations

The missing term "stand" is implied. Alternate translation: "the plans of his heart stand for all generations"

the plans of his heart

Here "his heart" refers to Yahweh. Alternate translation:

"his plans"

for all generations

"for all future generations." This is an idiom that means "forever."

Psalms 33:12

Blessed is the nation

Here "the nation" refers to the people of the nation.

Alternate translation: "Blessed are the people of the nation"

whose God is Yahweh

"who worship Yahweh as God"

as his own inheritance

The people Yahweh has chosen to worship him are described here as if they were an inheritance that he has received.

Psalms 33:13

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 33:14

he looks down

The place where Yahweh lives is spoken of as if it is above the earth where people live.

Psalms 33:15

shapes the hearts of them all

Here "hearts" refers to the thinking of these people. The writer speaks of Yahweh guiding the thinking of the people as if he were a potter who was shaping a bowl. Alternate translation: "guides their thinking as a potter shapes a bowl"

Psalms 33:16

No king is saved by a vast army

This could be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "A large army is not what saves a king"

Psalms 33:17

A horse is a false hope for victory

Here "a horse" represents the strongest part of the army.

Alternate translation: "Having an army with strong horses does not provide security"

Psalms 33:18

Chapter 34

See

This word shows that a new theme begins in this Psalm.

Alternate translation: "Look" or "Listen" or "Pay attention to what I am about to tell you"

Yahweh's eye

Here "eye" refers to Yahweh's attention. Alternate translation: "Yahweh's attention" those who hope in his covenant faithfulness

The idiom to "count on" means to "wait for" or to "expect."

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated as an adverb. Alternate translation: "those who expect him to act faithfully because of his covenant" or "those who wait for him to act because he is faithful to his covenant"

Psalms 33:19

to deliver their lives from death

Here "their lives" refers to the people. Alternate translation: "to keep them from dying"

Psalms 33:20

We wait for Yahweh

Here "wait" is an idiom that refers to trust. Alternate translation: "We trust in Yahweh" or "We hope in Yahweh"

he is our help and our shield

Here Yahweh is spoken of as if he is a shield that protects soldiers in battle. Alternate translation: "he is our helper and protects us like a shield"

Psalms 33:21

Our hearts rejoice

Here "hearts" refer to the people. Alternate translation: "We rejoice" in his holy name

Here "holy name" refers to Yahweh's holy character.

Alternate translation: "in his holy character" or "in him because he is holy"

Psalms 33:22

Let your covenant faithfulness, Yahweh, be with us

Yahweh acting faithfully towards the people is spoken of as if Yahweh's covenant faithfulness were with them. The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adverb. Alternate translation: "May you always act faithfully towards us because of your covenant, Yahweh"

as we put our hope in you

"as we hope for your help"

Chapter 34

A psalm of David, when he pretended to be insane before Abimelek, who drove him out.

¹ I will praise Yahweh at all times, his praise will always be in my mouth.

² I will praise Yahweh!
May the oppressed hear and rejoice.

³ Praise Yahweh with me,
let us lift up his name together.

⁴ I sought Yahweh and he answered me,
and he gave me victory over all my fears.

⁵ Those who look to him are radiant, and their faces are not ashamed.

⁶ This oppressed man cried and Yahweh heard him and saved him from all his troubles.

⁷ The angel of Yahweh camps around those who fear him and rescues them.

⁸ Taste and see that Yahweh is good.
Blessed is the man who takes refuge in him.

⁹ Fear Yahweh, you his holy people.
There is no lack for those who fear him.

¹⁰ The young lions sometimes lack food and suffer hunger, but those who seek Yahweh will not lack anything good.

- ¹¹ Come, sons, listen to me.
I will teach you the fear of Yahweh.
- ¹² What man is there who delights in life
and loves many days,
that he may see good?
- ¹³ Then keep your tongue from evil and keep your lips from speaking lies.
- ¹⁴ Turn away from evil and do good.
Seek peace and go after it.
- ¹⁵ The eyes of Yahweh are on the righteous and his ears are directed toward their cry.
- ¹⁶ The face of Yahweh is against those who do evil,
to cut off the memory of them from the earth.
- ¹⁷ The righteous cry out and Yahweh hears and he rescues them from all their troubles.
- ¹⁸ Yahweh is close to the brokenhearted, and he saves those who are crushed in spirit.
- ¹⁹ Many are the troubles of the righteous,
but Yahweh delivers them out of them all.
- ²⁰ He keeps all his bones, not one of them will be broken.
- ²¹ Evil will kill the wicked.
Those who hate the righteous will be condemned.
- ²² Yahweh rescues the lives of his servants.
None of those who take refuge in him will be condemned.

Psalm 34 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 34 is a teaching psalm and includes thanksgiving. It teaches that living right leads to a good life. (See: life)
The psalm does not relate directly to the superscription given about Abimelech.

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's help

Good people can have problems, but God brings them through these. (See: good)

Links:

Psalms 34:1

Psalms 34:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of David, when he pretended to be insane before Abimelek, who drove him out

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

A psalm of David

Possible meanings are 1) David wrote the psalm or 2) the psalm is about David or 3) the psalm is in the style of David's psalms.

pretended to be insane

"acted like a crazy person"

before Abimelek

This refers to a specific historical event that the Hebrews knew well. Alternate translation: "when he was in Abimelek's house" or "when he was Abimelek's prisoner" his praise will always be in my mouth

Here "in my mouth" refers to David speaking about Yahweh. Alternate translation: "I will always praise him out loud"

Psalms 34:2

the oppressed

This refers to people who are oppressed. Alternate translation: "the oppressed people"

Psalms 34:3

Praise Yahweh with me

The verb "praise" is a command to a group. Alternate translation: "Everyone should praise Yahweh with me" lift up his name

Here "lift up" is an idiom that refers to exalting Yahweh. Alternate translation: "tell people how great he is" his name

Here "his name" refers to Yahweh's character. Alternate translation: "his character"

Psalms 34:4

I sought Yahweh

Here "sought Yahweh" means David was asking Yahweh for help. Alternate translation: "I prayed to Yahweh" or "I asked Yahweh for help"

Psalms 34:5

Those who look to him

Here "look to" represents seeking help from him. Alternate translation: "Those who look at him for help" or "those who expect help only from him"

are radiant

This idiom refers to their appearance as being joyful. Alternate translation: "are joyful" their faces are not ashamed

Here "their faces" refers to the people who look to Yahweh. It can also be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: "they are not ashamed" or "they are proud"

Psalms 34:6

This oppressed man

David describes himself as an oppressed man. Alternate translation: "I was oppressed and"

Yahweh heard him

Here "heard" means that Yahweh helped him. Alternate translation: "Yahweh heard me" or "Yahweh helped him"

Psalms 34:7

camps around

The angel of Yahweh is spoken of as if he were an army that camps around someone in order to protect them. Alternate translation: "guards"

Psalms 34:8

Taste and see that Yahweh is good

Yahweh's goodness is spoken of as something that can be tasted and seen. Alternate translation: "Try and experience that Yahweh is good"

takes refuge

Yahweh is spoken of as if he were a place where people can hide for protection from their enemies. Alternate translation: "trust him to protect them"

Psalms 34:9

There is no lack for those who fear him

This can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: "Those who fear him will always have what they need"

Psalms 34:10

will not lack anything good

This can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: "will always have the good things they need"

Psalms 34:11

sons

Here this does not refer to literal sons of the writer, but to the people he is teaching about Yahweh. Alternate translation: "my students"

Psalms 34:12

What man is there who delights in life and loves many days, that he may see good?

The implicit answer to this question is "every man." This rhetorical question can be translated as a statement.

Alternate translation: "Every man delights in life and desires to live many days and have a good life"

Psalms 34:13

keep your tongue from evil ... keep your lips from speaking lies

These two phrases refer to the same thing and it is said in different ways to emphasize its importance.

Then keep your tongue from evil

Here "tongue" refers to the whole person. Alternate translation: "Therefore, do not speak evil" keep your lips from speaking lies

Here "lips" refers to the person speaking. Alternate translation: "do not speak lies"

Psalms 34:14

Turn away from evil

Here "Turn away" is a metaphor for avoiding evil. Alternate translation: "Refuse to do evil"

Seek peace

Here "seek" means to be concerned about peace. Alternate translation: "Try hard to live in peace with other people"

Psalms 34:15

The eyes of Yahweh are on the righteous

Here "the eyes of Yahweh" refer to his careful watching.

"The righteous" is a reference to righteous people. Alternate translation: "Yahweh carefully watches over the righteous people"

his ears are directed toward their cry

Here Yahweh is represented by his "ears." To be directed toward something means to pay attention to it. Alternate translation: "he pays attention to their cry" or "he answers their cry"

Psalms 34:16

to cut off the memory of them from the earth

Yahweh will cause people to so completely forget them when they die that it is as if he used a knife to cut off any memory of them. Alternate translation: "so that when they are dead, people will forget them completely"

Psalms 34:17

Yahweh hears

Here "hears" means that Yahweh desires to respond to them. Alternate translation: "Yahweh pays attention to them"

Psalms 34:18

Yahweh is close

Here "is close" means "ready to help." Alternate translation: "Yahweh is always ready to help"

the brokenhearted

This is a nominal adjective that refers to people who are brokenhearted. Deep sadness is spoken of as if the person's heart is broken. Alternate translation: "people who are very sad"

those who are crushed in spirit

People who are deeply discouraged are spoken of as if their spirits are crushed. Alternate translation: "people who are deeply discouraged"

Psalms 34:19

the righteous

This refers to people who are righteous. Alternate translation: "the righteous people"

Psalms 34:20

He keeps all his bones, not one of them will be broken

Here "all his bones" is literal, but it also implies that Yahweh takes care of the entire person. Alternate translation: "He provides complete protection for him, he will not be harmed in any way"

Psalms 34:21

Evil will kill the wicked

Evil is described as if it were a man who can kill people.

Alternate translation: "The evil deeds of wicked people will kill them"

the wicked

This refers to wicked people.

Those who hate the righteous will be condemned

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Yahweh will condemn those who hate the righteous"

the righteous

This refers to righteous people.

Psalms 34:22

None of those who take refuge in him will be condemned

This can be stated in active form. It can also be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: "Yahweh will forgive everyone who takes refuge in him"

take refuge in him

Going to Yahweh for protection is spoken of as taking refuge in him. Alternate translation: "go to him for protection"

Chapter 35

A psalm of David.

¹ Yahweh, work against those who work against me;
fight against those who fight against me.

² Grab your small shield and large shield;
rise up and help me.

³ Use your spear and battle ax against those who chase me;
say to my soul,
"I am your salvation."

⁴ May those who seek my life be shamed and dishonored.
May those who plan to harm me be turned back and ashamed.

⁵ May they be as chaff before the wind,
as the angel of Yahweh drives them away.

⁶ May their way be dark and slippery,
as the angel of Yahweh chases them.

- ⁷ Without cause they set their net for me;
without cause they dug a pit for my life.
- ⁸ Let destruction overtake them by surprise.
Let the net that they have set catch them.
Let them fall into it, to their destruction.
- ⁹ But I will be joyful in Yahweh and rejoice in his salvation.
- ¹⁰ All my bones will say,
"Yahweh, who is like you, who rescues the oppressed from those who are too strong for them and the poor and needy from those who try to rob them?"
- ¹¹ Unrighteous witnesses rise up;
they accuse me falsely.
- ¹² They repay me evil for good.
I am sorrowful.
- ¹³ As for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth;
I fasted for them,
and my prayer returned to my bosom.
- ¹⁴ I went about in grief as for my brother;
I bent down in mourning as for my mother.
- ¹⁵ But when I stumbled, they rejoiced and gathered together;
they gathered together against me, and I was surprised by them.
They tore at me without stopping.
- ¹⁶ With no respect at all they mocked me;
they grind their teeth at me in rage.
- ¹⁷ Lord, how long will you look on?
Rescue my soul from their destructive attacks,
my only life from the lions.
- ¹⁸ Then I will thank you in the great assembly;
I will praise you among many people.
- ¹⁹ Do not let my deceitful enemies rejoice over me;
do not let them carry out their wicked schemes.
- ²⁰ For they do not speak peace,
but they devise deceitful words against those in our land who live in peace.
- ²¹ They open their mouths wide against me;
they said, "Aha, Aha, our eyes have seen it."

- ²² You have seen it, Yahweh, do not be silent;
Lord, do not be far from me.
- ²³ Arouse yourself and awake to my defense;
My God and my Lord, defend my cause.
- ²⁴ Defend me, Yahweh my God, because of your righteousness;
do not let them rejoice over me.
- ²⁵ Do not let them say in their heart, "Aha, we have what we wanted."
Do not let them say, "We have devoured him."
- ²⁶ May they be put to shame and may they be humiliated who rejoice at my distress.
May those who exalt themselves over me be clothed with shame and dishonor.
- ²⁷ Let those who desire my vindication shout for joy and be glad;
may they say continually, "Yahweh be praised,
he who delights in the welfare of his servant."
- ²⁸ Then I will tell of your justice and praise you all day long.

Psalm 35 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 35 is a prayer for deliverance. His enemies are coming against him. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Enemies

When his enemies were sick, he tried to comfort them, but when he was in trouble his enemies use this as a time to attack him.

Links:

Psalms 35:1

Psalms 35:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

Psalms 35:2

Grab your small shield and large shield

The writer describes God as a warrior who is preparing himself for battle.

small shield and large shield

these are defensive weapons

Psalms 35:3

Use your spear and battle ax

The writer describes God as a warrior who is preparing himself for battle.

spear and battle ax

these are offensive weapons

those who chase me

Possible meanings are 1) these enemies are literally chasing the writer or 2) this is a metaphor for people who are enemies of the writer.

say to my soul

This refers to the writer. Alternate translation: "say to me"

I am your salvation

This can be stated without the abstract noun. Alternate translation: "I am your savior" or "I will save you"

Psalms 35:4

May those who seek my life be shamed and dishonored

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "May Yahweh shame and dishonor those who seek my life"

May those

"I desire that"

who seek my life

Here "seek my life" means they desire to kill the writer. The writer is represented by his "life." Alternate translation: "who are trying to kill me"

May those who plan to harm me be turned back and ashamed

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"May Yahweh turn back and confound those who plan to harm me"

be turned back

"be turned back" here is a metaphor for being unable to accomplish their goal. Alternate translation: "be unsuccessful"

Psalms 35:5

as chaff before the wind

The writer's enemies are spoken of as if they are chaff that is easily blown away. Alternate translation: "blown away by the wind like chaff"

Psalms 35:6

their way

Here "their way" refers to their lives. Alternate translation: "their lives" dark and slippery

This refers to a way that is hidden and dangerous. Alternate translation: "hidden and full of dangers"

chases them

This refers to the angel of Yahweh being opposed to the writer's enemies. Alternate translation: "works against them" or "opposes them"

Psalms 35:7

they set their net for me

The schemes of the wicked are spoken of as if they were a net that they set to catch the writer. Alternate translation: "they want to catch me in a net like a small animal"

they dug a pit for my life

The schemes of the wicked are spoken of as if they were a pit that they dug to catch the writer. Alternate translation: "they wanted to capture me in a pit like a big animal"

my life

This refers to the writer. Alternate translation: "me"

Psalms 35:8

Let destruction overtake them by surprise

Destruction is spoken of as if it was a dangerous animal that would suddenly attack them. Alternate translation: "Let them be destroyed suddenly" or "Let them be surprised because you destroy them suddenly"

the net that they have set

The schemes of the wicked are spoken of as if they were a net that they place to catch the writer. Alternate translation: "the net that they placed in order to capture me like an animal and harm me"

Let them fall into it

This is the same metaphor as in verse 7. The net is intended to catch the writer. Alternate translation: "Let them fall into the pit that they dug for me"

fall into it

Possible meanings are 1) fall into the pit of verse 7 or 2) fall into destruction.

to their destruction

The abstract noun "destruction" can be stated as a verb. Alternate translation: "so that they will be destroyed" or "that is how you should destroy them"

Psalms 35:9

in his salvation

The abstract noun "salvation" can be stated as a verb. Alternate translation: "because you save me"

Psalms 35:10

All my bones

Here "bones" refers to the deepest inner being of a person. Alternate translation: "My whole inner being"

Yahweh, who is like you ... those who try to rob them?

The implicit answer to this question is that no one is like Yahweh. Alternate translation: "Yahweh, there is no one like you ... those who try to rob them."

the poor and needy

The words "poor" and "needy" mean basically the same thing and emphasize that Yahweh saves many who need his help.

Psalms 35:11

rise up

This means they testify in a trial. Alternate translation: "volunteer to give a testimony"

Psalms 35:12

They repay me evil for good

This is a metaphor which means they give back evil in exchange for the good they have received. Alternate translation: "In return for my doing good things for them, they do evil things to me"

evil ... good

These abstract nouns can be stated in other forms.

Alternate translation: "evil things ... good things"

I am sorrowful

"I am extremely sad"

Psalms 35:13

when they were sick

The word "they" refers to the "unrighteous witnesses" (Psalms 35:11).

my clothing was sackcloth

"I wore sackcloth" or "I showed that I was sad"

them, and my prayer returned to my bosom

This was a symbol of prayer. Alternate translation: "them with my head bent down in prayer"

Psalms 35:14

in grief as for my brother

The writer was as sad as if his own brother had died.

Alternate translation: "grieving as if my own brother was ill"

I bent down in mourning as for my mother

The writer mourned as if his own mother had died.

Alternate translation: "I mourned as if my own mother had died"

I bent down

This was a symbol of pain and suffering.

Psalms 35:15

gathered together

"assembled together" or "came together"

against me

This means they came together for the purpose of attacking the writer. Alternate translation: "to make plans against me" or "to plan my destruction"

They tore at me

Here the treated the writer as if he were a piece of cloth that they could tear to pieces. Alternate translation: "They attacked me"

Psalms 35:16

With no respect at all they mocked me

"With the worthless people they ridiculed me" or "Without respect they made fun of me"

they grind their teeth at me in rage

This is a sign of anger and hate. "they made grinding noises with their teeth at me"

Psalms 35:17

how long will you look on?

This rhetorical question indicates that the writer wants God to stop simply looking on and to start to help him. Alternate translation: "how long will you only watch them doing this?" or "when will you help me?"

Rescue my soul

Here "soul" refers to the writer. Alternate translation: "Rescue me"

my only life from the lions

The word "save" is implied. Alternate translation: "save my only life from the lions"

my only life from

This refers to the writer. Alternate translation: "me—and I only have one life—from"

from the lions

Here the writer speaks of his enemies as if they were vicious lions. Alternate translation: "from my enemies who attack me like wild animals"

Psalms 35:18

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 35:19

Do not let my deceitful enemies

"Do not let my enemies, who tell lies about me," their wicked schemes

"their evil plans"

Psalms 35:20

they do not speak peace

The abstract noun "peace" can be stated as "peacefully."

Alternate translation: "they do not speak peacefully to people"

devise deceitful words

"look for ways to tell lies"

those in our land who live in peace

"those who live peacefully in our land"

live in peace

The abstract noun "peace" can be stated in other forms. Alternate translation: "live peacefully with others" or "do no harm to anyone"

Psalms 35:21

They open their mouths wide against me

The reason they open their mouths is to accuse the writer. Alternate translation: "They shout at me in order to accuse me"

Aha, Aha

This is something an excited person says when he has suddenly seen or understood something, especially something other people did not expect him to see. It emphasizes the statement that follows.

our eyes have seen it

Here "our eyes" refers to the enemies' eyes. It is implied that they are saying they saw the writer do something wrong. Alternate translation: "we have seen it" or "we saw the wrong things that you did"

Psalms 35:22

You have seen it

Here "it" refers to the false accusations of the writer's enemies. Alternate translation: "You have seen how they falsely accused me"

do not be silent

"do not ignore what they did" This can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: "judge them because of what they did"

do not be far from me

This can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: "be very close to me"

Psalms 35:23

Arouse yourself and awake

This does not mean that God is actually asleep. The writer wants God to intervene. Both words mean basically the same thing and emphasize the urgency of this request.

Alternate translation: "I feel like you are sleeping! Wake up" to my defense

This abstract noun "defense" can be stated as "defend."

Alternate translation: "to defend me"

my cause

This refers to the writer. Alternate translation: "me"

Psalms 35:24

do not let them rejoice over me

"do not let them be glad because I am suffering"

Psalms 35:25

say in their heart

This is an idiom that means to say to oneself. Alternate translation: "say to themselves"

Aha

This is an exclamation that is used when something is suddenly seen or understood. It emphasizes what follows.

Alternate translation: "Yes"

we have what we wanted

It is implied that the writer's enemies wanted him to be declared guilty. Alternate translation: "he has been declared guilty just as we desired"

We have devoured him

The writer's enemies speak of his destruction as if they were wild animals who had eaten him. Alternate translation: "We have swallowed him up" or "We have destroyed him"

Psalms 35:26

May they be put to shame and may they be humiliated who rejoice at my distress

"May those who rejoice at my distress be put to shame and humiliated"

May they be put to shame

"May they feel shame"

May those who exalt themselves over me be clothed with shame and dishonor

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"May you clothe with shame and dishonor those who exalt themselves over me"

exalt themselves over me

"consider themselves better than I am" or "think they have the right to treat me badly"

Chapter 36

clothed with shame and dishonor

Here shame and dishonor are spoken of as if they were shameful clothes that the writer could wear. These abstract nouns can be stated as verbs. Alternate translation:

"shamed and dishonored"

shame and dishonor

These terms mean about the same thing and are used to emphasize how degraded they will be.

Psalms 35:27

my vindication

Here "vindication" refers to Yahweh proclaiming or judging the psalmist innocent.

may they say continually

"may they always say"

Yahweh be praised

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Let us praise Yahweh" who delights in

"who is happy with" or "who is glad for" welfare

well-being, happiness

Psalms 35:28

tell of your justice

The abstract noun "justice" can be stated as "right."

Alternate translation: "proclaim that you act in the right way"

Chapter 36

For the chief musician. A psalm of David the servant of Yahweh.

¹ An evil man speaks of his transgression from deep in his heart, there is no fear of God in his eyes.

² For he comforts himself, thinking that his iniquity will not be discovered and be hated.

³ The words of his mouth are wickedness and deceit;
he does not want to be wise and do good.

⁴ While he lies in bed, he plans ways to sin;
he sets out on an evil way;
he does not reject evil.

⁵ Your covenant faithfulness, Yahweh, reaches to the heavens;
your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.

⁶ Your righteousness is like the mountains of God;
your judgments are like the great deep.
Yahweh, you preserve both mankind and the animals.

⁷ How precious is your covenant faithfulness, God!
Humanity takes refuge under the shadow of your wings.

⁸ They feast upon the abundance of your house;
you let them drink from the river of your delights.

⁹ For with you is the fountain of life;
in your light we will see light.

¹⁰ Extend your covenant faithfulness fully to those who know you,
your defense to the upright of heart.

¹¹ Do not let the foot of the arrogant man come near to me.
Do not let the hand of the wicked drive me away.

¹² Over there those who behave wickedly have fallen;

they have been pushed down and are not able to get up.

Psalm 36 General Notes

Formatting in this chapter

Psalm 36 is a psalm of praise. It speaks of how good God is to those who love him. (See: good and love)

Special concepts in this chapter

God and man

Evil people do not think about God; but he is such a pleasure to all who honor him. (See: evil)

Links:

Psalms 36:1

Psalms 36:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician. A psalm of David the servant of Yahweh

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship."

An evil man

This does not refer to a specific man, but to evil people in general. Alternate translation: "Evil people" from deep in his heart

Here "heart" refers to the inner being of a person. Alternate translation: "from his inner being"

in his eyes

Here "eyes" refers to the wicked person. Alternate translation: "in him"

Psalms 36:2

he comforts himself, thinking

"he prefers to believe" or "he wants to think"

his iniquity will not be discovered and he hated

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "God will not discover and hate his sin"

Psalms 36:3

The words of his mouth are wickedness and deceit

Here the word "mouth" is a metonym for the writer. The abstract noun "wickedness" can be translated by an adjective. The abstract noun "deceit" can be translated by a verb. Alternate translation: "Everything he says is wicked, and he wants to deceive others" do good

"do things that are good"

Psalms 36:4

he sets out on an evil way

The sinful actions of the man are spoken of as if he was walking along a path that was evil. Alternate translation: "he begins to do evil things"

he does not reject evil

Here "evil" can be stated in another form. Alternate translation: "he does not reject evil behavior"

Psalms 36:5

Your covenant faithfulness ... reaches to the heavens

The greatness of God's covenant faithfulness is spoken of as if it were an object that reached as high as the heavens. The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "Your covenant faithfulness ... is very great" or "You ... are as faithful to your covenant as the heavens are high above the earth" reaches to the clouds

The greatness of God's loyalty is spoken of as if it was very high. Alternate translation: "is as high as the clouds" or "is enormously great"

Psalms 36:6

like the mountains of God ... like the great deep

These phrases describe the greatness of God's righteousness and judgments as if they were very high and deep.

Alternate translation: "as high as the highest mountains ... as deep as the deepest sea"

you preserve

"you help" or "you save"

Psalms 36:7

How precious is your covenant faithfulness

The word "precious" refers to how greatly the writer values Yahweh's covenant faithfulness. The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "I greatly value how you are faithful to your covenant"

Psalms 36:8

They feast upon the abundance of your house

Eating much food as guests in a house is a metaphor for God providing all his people need. Alternate translation: "They will have all they need because you will provide it to them" or "You have plenty to give, and you will provide them with all they need"

you let them drink from the river of your delights

There are two metaphors here. God's abundant blessings are spoken of as if they are the water in a flowing river.

Also, those who receive those blessings are spoken of as if they are drinking them like water. Alternate translation: "your precious blessings are like a river from which you will let them drink"

Psalms 36:9

fountain of life

"source of life"

in your light we will see light

Here "light" is a metaphor for true knowledge. Alternate translation: "when you enlighten us, we will know the truth" or "your light is what enables us to know the truth"

Chapter 37

about you"

Psalms 36:10

Extend your covenant faithfulness fully to those who know you
The writer speaks of Yahweh continuing to act faithfully towards the people as if Yahweh were to extend his covenant faithfulness or make it longer. The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adverb. Alternate translation: "Continue to act faithfully to those who know you"

your defense to the upright of heart

The abstract noun "defense" can be stated as a verb.

"Continue" is implied from the previous phrase. Alternate translation: "Continue to protect the upright of heart"

the upright of heart

Here "heart" refers to the people. Alternate translation: "the upright" or "people who act righteously"

Psalms 36:11

the foot of the arrogant man ... the hand of the wicked

Here "foot" and "hand" refer to the evil people. These are not specific men. This refers to evil people in general.

Alternate translation: "arrogant people ... wicked people" drive me away

"send me away" or "make me leave my place"

Psalms 36:12

those who behave wickedly have fallen; they have been pushed down and are not able to get up

All three phrases describe the evildoers as defeated.

they have been pushed down

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"you have pushed them down" or "you have destroyed them" or "you have defeated them" are not able to get up

"cannot get up" or "will never again harm anyone"

Chapter 37

A psalm of David.

¹ Do not be irritated because of evildoers;
do not be envious of those who act unrighteously.

² For they will soon dry up as the grass and wither as the green plants.

³ Trust in Yahweh and do what is good;
settle in the land and graze in faithfulness.

⁴ Then delight yourself in Yahweh, and he will give you the desires of your heart.

⁵ Give your ways to Yahweh;
trust in him, and he will act on your behalf.

⁶ He will display your justice like the daylight and your innocence like the day at noon.

⁷ Be still before Yahweh and wait patiently for him.
Do not be angry if someone succeeds in what he does,
or when he makes evil plots.

⁸ Do not be angry and frustrated.
Do not worry. This only makes trouble.

⁹ Evildoers will be cut off, but those who wait for Yahweh will inherit the land.

- ¹⁰ In a little while the evil man will disappear;
you will look at his place, but he will be gone.
- ¹¹ But the meek will inherit the land and will delight in great prosperity.
- ¹² The wicked man plots against the righteous and he grinds his teeth in rage against him.
- ¹³ The Lord laughs at him,
for he sees that his day is coming.
- ¹⁴ The wicked have drawn out their swords and have bent their bows to cast down the oppressed and needy, to kill those who are upright.
- ¹⁵ Their swords will pierce their own hearts,
and their bows will be broken.
- ¹⁶ Better is the little that the righteous has than the abundance of many wicked people.
- ¹⁷ For the arms of the wicked people will be broken,
but Yahweh supports the righteous people.
- ¹⁸ Yahweh watches over the blameless day by day,
and their heritage will be forever.
- ¹⁹ They will not be ashamed when times are bad.
When famine comes, they will have enough to eat.
- ²⁰ But evil men will perish.
Yahweh's enemies will be like the splendor of the pastures;
they will be consumed and disappear in the smoke.
- ²¹ The wicked person borrows but does not repay,
but the righteous person is generous and gives.
- ²² Those who are blessed by God will inherit the land;
those who are cursed by him will be cut off.
- ²³ It is by Yahweh that a man's steps are established, the man whose way is commendable in God's sight.

²⁴ Though he stumbles, he will not fall down,
for Yahweh is holding him with his hand.

²⁵ I was young and now am old;
I have never seen the righteous person abandoned or his children begging for bread.

²⁶ All the day long he is gracious and lends, and his children become a blessing.

²⁷ Turn away from evil and do what is right;
then you will be safe forever.

²⁸ For Yahweh loves justice and does not abandon his faithful ones.
They are preserved forever,
but the descendants of the wicked will be cut off.

²⁹ The righteous will inherit the land and live there forever.

³⁰ The mouth of the righteous person speaks wisdom and increases justice.

³¹ The law of his God is in his heart;
his feet will not slip.

³² The wicked person spies on the righteous person and seeks to kill him.

³³ Yahweh will not abandon him into the evil person's hand or condemn him when he is judged.

³⁴ Wait for Yahweh and keep his way,
and he will raise you up to possess the land.
You will see when the wicked are cut off.

³⁵ I have seen the wicked and terrifying person spread out like a green tree in its native soil.

³⁶ But when I passed by again, he was not there.
I looked for him, but he could not be found.

³⁷ Observe the man of integrity, and mark the upright;

there is a good future for a man of peace.

³⁸ Rebels will be totally destroyed;
the future for the wicked man is cut off.

³⁹ Salvation of the righteous comes from Yahweh;
he is their place of safety in the times of trouble.

⁴⁰ Yahweh helps them and rescues them.
He rescues them from evil men and saves them because they have taken refuge in him.

Psalm 37 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 37 is a teaching psalm. It provides guidance about how to live a moral and God-fearing life. It teaches that evil people do not prosper in the future. (See: evil)

Special concepts in this chapter

Envy

Do not envy evil people. Although it appears as though they prosper, soon they will be destroyed and the good people will continue on living. (See: good and life)

Links:

Psalms 37:1

Psalms 37:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

Do not be irritated because of evildoers

"Do not let wicked people upset you" or "Do not be bothered by what wicked people do"

Psalms 37:2

dry up as the grass ... wither as the green plants

Evildoers are spoken of as if they are grass and plants that dry up and die in the hot weather. These two similes both mean they will die. Alternate translation: "die" or "come to an end"

Psalms 37:3

graze in faithfulness

Faithfulness is spoken of as if it was an animal that would be strengthened by feeding in good pasture. Alternate translation: "nourish faithfulness" or "increase your faithfulness"

Psalms 37:4

the desires of your heart

Here "heart" represents the person's inner being and thoughts. Alternate translation: "your deepest, inner desires" or "the things that you desire the most"

Psalms 37:5

Give your ways to Yahweh

Here "give your ways" is an idiom that means to ask

Yahweh to control your life. Alternate translation: "Ask Yahweh to guide your actions in life"

act on your behalf

This is to represent another in legal issues. Here, when one trusts in Yahweh, he will defend that person and grant justice to that person.

Psalms 37:6

like the daylight ... like the day at noon

Both of these phrases mean about the same thing.

like the daylight

This means "in full view of everyone." Alternate translation: "as clear to see as the light of day"

like the day at noon

This means "as visible as the noon sun." Alternate translation: "as visible as the light at the brightest time of day"

Psalms 37:7

Be still

"Be quiet"

Psalms 37:8

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 37:9

will be cut off

The destruction of the wicked is spoken of as if they were a branch of a plant that was cut off and thrown away.

but those who wait for Yahweh

"but those who trust in Yahweh"

will inherit the land

The possession of the land is spoken of as if it will be received as an inheritance. Alternate translation: "will receive the land as their own possession" or "will live safely in the land"

Psalms 37:10
will disappear
This idiom refers to the death of the evil man. Alternate translation: "will die and you will no longer see him"

Psalms 37:11
the meek
This refers to the people who are meek. Alternate translation: "the meek people"

will inherit the land
The possession of the land is spoken of as if it will be received as an inheritance. See how you translated this in [Psalms 37:9]

Psalms 37:12
The wicked man
This does not refer to a specific man. It refers to wicked people in general. Alternate translation: "The wicked person"

the righteous
This does not refer to specific people. This refers to people who are righteous. Alternate translation: "the righteous person"

grinds his teeth
The wicked man hates the righteous person so much that he grinds his teeth together to show his anger.

Psalms 37:13
his day is coming
It is implied that "his day" will be a day of judgment. Alternate translation: "the day is coming when Yahweh will judge and punish him" or "the day is coming when Yahweh will judge and punish the wicked person"

Psalms 37:14
The wicked
This refers to the wicked people. Alternate translation: "The wicked people" have drawn out their swords ... have bent their bows

Both "swords" and "bows" are weapons used to attack people. The fact that they are "drawn" and "bent" means they are ready to start attacking. Alternate translation: "have prepared their weapons in order to attack"

to cast down
This destruction of the needy people is spoken of as if they were clay pots that would break into pieces when thrown down on the ground. Alternate translation: "to destroy"

the oppressed and needy
These terms both refer to people who are powerless to defend themselves. Alternate translation: "people who are not able to resist them"

Psalms 37:15
Their swords will pierce their own hearts
Swords are examples of weapons and "hearts" represent the people. To "pierce the heart" is an idiom that means "to kill." Alternate translation: "Their weapons will be turned against them and they will kill themselves"

Psalms 37:16
Better is the little that the righteous has than the abundance of many wicked people
"It is better to be poor and righteous than to be wicked with great wealth"

Better is the little that the righteous has
The nominal adjective "the little" refers to few possessions. The nominal adjective "the righteous" refers to a righteous person. Alternate translation: "Better are the few possessions that a righteous person has"

the abundance
This refers to the wealth of the wicked people.

Psalms 37:17
For the arms of the wicked people will be broken Here "arms" represent the strength of the wicked people. Breaking their arms represents taking away their power. This could be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "For Yahweh will remove the strength of the wicked people"

Psalms 37:18
watches over the blameless
To "watch over" means to protect someone. Here "the blameless" refers to the blameless people. Alternate translation: "protects the blameless people"

day by day
This is an idiom that means "continually." Alternate translation: "every day"

Psalms 37:19
when times are bad
This phrase refers to disasters, such as famine. Alternate translation: "when calamities occur"

Psalms 37:20
Yahweh's enemies will be like the splendor of the pastures
The writer compares Yahweh's enemies to the flowers blooming in the fields.

be consumed and disappear in the smoke
The writer speaks of the destruction of the wicked as if they were weeds or wilted flowers in the field that are burned off after the harvest. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Yahweh will destroy them as fire turns the weeds of the field into smoke"

Psalms 37:21
is generous and gives
These mean the same thing and emphasize the generosity of the righteous.

Psalms 37:22
Those who are blessed by God will inherit the land; those who are cursed by him will be cut off
This is a contrastive form of Parallelism. Those who are blessed by God in contrast to those who are cursed by God. Those who are blessed by God
This can be stated as active. Alternate translation: "Those whom God blesses"

will inherit the land
The possession of the land is spoken of as if it had been received as an inheritance. See how you translated this in [Psalms 37:9]

those who are cursed by him
This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "those whom Yahweh curses"

will be cut off
The destruction of the wicked is spoken of as if they were a branch of plant that was cut off and thrown away. See how you translated this in [Psalms 37:9]

Psalms 37:23

It is by Yahweh that a man's steps are established ... commendable in God's sight

These can be stated to show the logical connection and clarify the passive clause. Alternate translation: "If a man lives in a commendable way in Yahweh's sight, Yahweh will establish his steps"

It is by Yahweh that a man's steps are established

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"Yahweh is the one who enables a man to be successful"

a man ... the man

This does not refer to a specific man, but to people in general.

a man's steps

Steps represent the way a person lives. Alternate translation: "the way a man lives"

Psalms 37:24

Though he stumbles, he will not fall down

Here "stumble" and "fall" refer to the man's reaction to difficult times. Alternate translation: "Though he has difficult times, he will not utterly fail"

holding him with his hand

Here "his hand" refers to Yahweh's power, and "holding him" refers to protecting him. Alternate translation:

"protecting him with his power"

Psalms 37:25

the righteous person abandoned

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"Yahweh forsake the righteous person"

the righteous person

This does not refer to a specific person. It is a general statement.

begging for bread

Here "bread" represents food in general. Alternate translation: begging for food"

Psalms 37:26

All the day long he is

This idiom means this action is a habit of his life. Alternate translation: "He is always his children become a blessing

"his children grow up to bless others"

Psalms 37:27

Turn away from

To stop doing something is spoken of as if the person turned away from it. Alternate translation: "Stop doing"

Psalms 37:28

They are preserved forever

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"Yahweh will protect them forever"

will be cut off

The destruction of the wicked is spoken of as if they were a branch of plant that was cut off and thrown away. See how you translated this in [Psalms 37:9]

Psalms 37:29

will inherit the land

The possession of the land is spoken of as if it had been received as an inheritance. See how you translated this in [Psalms 37:9]

Psalms 37:30

the righteous

This refers to the people who are righteous. Alternate translation: "the righteous people"

The mouth of the righteous person

Here "mouth" represents the whole person who speaks.

Alternate translation: "The righteous person" speaks wisdom

The abstract noun "wisdom" can be stated as "wise."

Alternate translation: "gives wise advice to others"

increases justice

The abstract noun "justice" can be stated as an action.

Alternate translation: "encourages other people to live rightly"

Psalms 37:31

The law of his God is in his heart

Here "in his heart" refers to his deepest inner being.

Alternate translation: "He treasures the commands of his God in his inner being"

his feet will not slip

Here failure to obey Yahweh is spoken of as slipping off a safe path and falling. Alternate translation: "he will walk safely in the way God wants him to walk" or "he will safely do the things God wants him to do"

Psalms 37:32

The wicked person ... the righteous person

These words refer to any wicked or righteous person or to wicked and righteous people in general, not to specific people. Alternate translation: "Wicked people ... righteous people" or "Any wicked person" or "any righteous person" spies on the righteous person

The wicked person observes the righteous person in order to do him harm. Alternate translation: "waits in ambush for the righteous person"

Psalms 37:33

the evil person's hand

These words refer to the hand of any evil person, not of any specific person. Here "hand" represents power or control.

Alternate translation: "evil people's hands" or "the power of the evil person"

when he is judged

This refers to Yahweh judging the righteous man. Alternate translation: "When Yahweh judges him"

Psalms 37:34

he will raise you up to possess the land

Here "raise you up" refers to God giving honor to those who wait for him. Alternate translation: "he will honor you by giving you the land"

the wicked

This refers to wicked people. Alternate translation: "the wicked people" are cut off

The destruction of the wicked is spoken of as if they were a branch of a plant that was cut off and thrown away. See how you translated a similar phrase in Psalms 37:9.

Psalms 37:35

the wicked and terrifying person

This does not refer to a specific person. It is a general statement.

spread out like a green tree in its native soil
 Here the prosperity of the wicked man is spoken of as if he were a healthy tree growing in good soil.
 Psalms 37:36
 he could not be found
 This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "I could not find him" or "Yahweh had taken him away"
 Psalms 37:37
 the man of integrity
 This does not refer to a specific person. It is a general statement.
 mark the upright
 "note carefully the good people" or "notice the good people"
 Psalms 37:38
 the future for the wicked man is cut off
 This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "God will end his family line" or "he will not have any descendants" the future
 This refers to his descendants. Alternate translation: "his descendants"
 the wicked man

This does not refer to a specific person. It is a general statement.
 is cut off
 The destruction of the wicked is spoken of as if they were a branch of a plant that was cut off and thrown away. See how you translated a similar phrase in [Psalms 37:9]
 Psalms 37:39
 Salvation of the righteous comes from Yahweh
 The abstract noun "Salvation" can be expressed as an action. Alternate translation: "Yahweh rescues the righteous people"
 the righteous
 This refers to the righteous people. Alternate translation: "the righteous people"
 Psalms 37:40
 helps ... rescues ... saves
 This same idea is repeated in several different ways to emphasize that Yahweh is dependable and able to give aid.
 they have taken refuge in him
 Going to Yahweh for protection is spoken of as taking refuge in him. Alternate translation: "they have gone to him for protection"

Chapter 38

A psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

- ¹ Yahweh, do not rebuke me in your anger;
do not punish me in your wrath.
- ² For your arrows pierce me,
and your hand presses me down.
- ³ There is no soundness in my body because of your anger;
there is no health in my bones because of my sin.
- ⁴ For my iniquities overwhelm me;
they are a burden too heavy for me.
- ⁵ My wounds are infected and smell because of my foolish sins.
- ⁶ I am stooped over and humiliated every day;
I go about mourning all day long.
- ⁷ For within me, I am filled with burning;
there is no health in my flesh.
- ⁸ I am numb and utterly crushed;
I groan because of the anguish of my heart.
- ⁹ Lord, you understand my heart's deepest yearnings, and my groanings are not hidden from you.
- ¹⁰ My heart pounds, my strength fades, and the light of my eyes, even that is not with me.

¹¹ My friends and companions shun me because of my condition;
my neighbors stand far off.

¹² Those who seek my life lay snares for me.
They who seek my harm speak destructive words and say deceitful words all day long.

¹³ But I, I am like a deaf man and hear nothing;
I am like a mute man who says nothing.

¹⁴ I am like a man who does not hear and who has no reply.

¹⁵ Surely I wait for you, Yahweh;
you will answer, Lord my God.

¹⁶ I say this so that my enemies will not rejoice over me.
If my foot slips, they will do terrible things to me.

¹⁷ For I am about to stumble, and I am in constant pain.

¹⁸ I confess my guilt;
I am anxious about my sin.

¹⁹ But my enemies are numerous;
those who hate me wrongfully are many.

²⁰ They repay me evil for good;
they hurl accusations at me
although I have pursued what is good.

²¹ Do not abandon me, Yahweh;
my God, do not stay far away from me.

²² Come quickly to help me,
Lord, my salvation.

Psalm 38 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 38 is a confession of sin and a prayer for deliverance. (See: confess and sin and deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Author's sickness

The author was very sick and his enemies were seeking ways to destroy him.

Links:

Psalms 38:1

Psalms 38:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of David, to bring to remembrance

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

A psalm of David

Possible meanings are 1) David wrote the psalm or 2) the psalm is about David or 3) the psalm is in the style of David's psalms.

do not rebuke me in your anger ... do not punish me in your wrath
These phrases mean basically the same thing and the idea is repeated for emphasis.

Psalms 38:2

your arrows pierce me

The severity of Yahweh's punishment of the writer is spoken of as if Yahweh had shot arrows into the writer.
Alternate translation: "Your punishment is as painful as if you had shot arrows into me"

your hand presses me down

Yahweh's punishment of the writer is spoken of as if Yahweh was smashing the writer with his hand. Here, "hand" refers to Yahweh's power. Alternate translation: "your power knocks me down"

Psalms 38:3

General Information:

David continues describing what his guilt and shame does to his body. He uses hyperbole to emphasize the effects of this lesson.

there is no health in my bones because of my sin

Here "my bones" represents the body of the writer.

Alternate translation: "my whole body is diseased because of my sin"

Psalms 38:4

my iniquities overwhelm me

The writer's iniquities are spoken of as if they are a flood of water that covers him. Alternate translation: "my iniquities cover me like a flood"

they are a burden too heavy for me

The writer's iniquities are spoken of as if they are a heavy load that he cannot lift. Alternate translation: "they are like a load that is too heavy for me to lift"

Psalms 38:5

General Information:

David continues describing what his guilt and shame does to his body. He uses hyperbole to emphasize the effects of this lesson.

My wounds are infected and smell

Here "smell" refer to his sores having a bad smell that is associated with rotting flesh. Alternate translation: "My wounds are infected and stink as they rot"

Psalms 38:6

I am stooped over

The pain of the writer's wounds have caused him to be bent over as if he were an old, feeble man. Alternate translation: "I am bent over in pain"

Psalms 38:7

I am filled with burning

The writer's is so sick with fever that it is as if he is burning inside. Alternate translation: "My body is burning with fever"

there is no health in my flesh

Here "my flesh" refers to the writer. Alternate translation: "I am completely sick"

Psalms 38:8

utterly crushed

The writer's illness is so severe that it is as if a huge weight is pressing down on him.

anguish of my heart

Here "my heart" refers to the writer. Alternate translation: "my anguish"

Psalms 38:9

my heart's deepest yearnings

Here "my heart" refers to the writer. It may be helpful to state that the writer desires good health. Alternate translation: "My strongest desires" or "that I desire you to heal me" my groanings are not hidden from you

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "you are able to see all my moans of sorrow"

Psalms 38:10

My heart pounds

This idiom means his heart beats intensely. Alternate translation: "My heart beats loudly"

my strength fades

"I become very weak"

the light of my eyes, even that is not with me

"I can no longer see well"

Psalms 38:11

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 38:12

lay snares for me

The plots of the writer's enemies are spoken of as if they were traps that they had set to catch him like an animal. Alternate translation: "set traps to catch me"

speak destructive words and say deceitful words

These two phrases mean basically the same thing and emphasize the hurtful nature of what these people say.

Psalms 38:13

I am like a deaf man ... hear nothing

The writer does not listen to what his enemies are saying.

I am like a mute man ... says nothing

The writer does not speak evil words to or about his enemies.

a mute man

a person who cannot speak

Psalms 38:14

does not hear

The writer does not listen to what his enemies are saying.

has no reply

The writer does not speak evil words to or about his enemies.

Psalms 38:15

you will answer

Possible meanings are 1) "you will answer me" or 2) "you will answer my enemies."

Psalms 38:16

will not rejoice over me

"will not be glad because I am having trouble"

If my foot slips

Here "my foot" represents the writer. The slipping of his foot is a metaphor that refers to the writer's troubles and misfortunes. Alternate translation: "If I make mistakes that cause me trouble"

Psalms 38:17

I am about to stumble

Possible meanings for this metaphor are 1) "I am so sick that I am about to die" or 2) "I will soon be ruined." It may be best not to interpret the metaphor in the text.

I am in constant pain

"I am always in pain"

Psalms 38:18

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 38:19

But my enemies are numerous ... are many

These two phrases mean basically the same thing.

Psalms 38:20

They repay me evil for good

The actions of the writer's enemies are spoken of as a financial transaction where they gave him evil things in exchange for good things. The abstract nouns "evil" and

"good" can be stated as adjectives. Alternate translation:

"They do evil thing to me after I was good to them"

hurl accusations at me

The way the writer's enemies accuse him is spoken of as if they were throwing accusations at him like rocks.

pursued what is good

The writers desire for what is good is spoken of as if he were running after good things.

Psalms 38:21

Do not abandon me ... do not stay far away from me

These two phrases have very similar meanings.

do not stay far away from me

Because Yahweh has not yet answered the writer's request, he speaks of Yahweh as if Yahweh were standing far away from the writer.

Psalms 38:22

Come quickly to help me

God is spoken of as if he is running to the writer to help him.

my salvation

The abstract noun "salvation" can be stated as an action.

Alternate translation: "you are the one who saves me"

Chapter 39

For the chief musician, for Jeduthun. A psalm of David.

¹ I decided, "I will watch what I say
so that I do not sin with my tongue.
I will muzzle my mouth
while in the presence of an evil man."

² I kept silent;
I kept back my words even from saying anything good,
and my pain grew worse.

³ My heart became hot;
when I thought about these things,
it burned like a fire.
Then finally I spoke.

⁴ "Yahweh, make me know when will be the end of my life and the extent of my days.
Show me how transient I am.

⁵ See, you have made my days only the width of my hand,
and my lifetime is like nothing before you.
Surely every man is a single breath.

Selah

⁶ Surely every man walks about like a shadow.
Surely everyone hurries about to accumulate riches although they do not know who will receive them.

- ⁷ Now, Lord, for what am I waiting?
You are my only hope.
- ⁸ Rescue me from my sins;
do not make me the scorn of fools.
- ⁹ I am silent and cannot open my mouth,
because it is you who has done it.
- ¹⁰ Stop wounding me;
I am overwhelmed by the blow of your hand.
- ¹¹ When you discipline people for iniquity,
you consume the things they desire like a moth;
surely all people are nothing but vapor.

Selah

- ¹² Hear my prayer, Yahweh, and give ear to my cry for help;
do not be deaf to my tears!
for I am like a foreigner with you,
a sojourner like all my ancestors were.
- ¹³ Turn your gaze from me so that I may smile again before I die."

Psalm 39 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 39 is a psalm of deliverance from sickness. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Life

Life on earth is short. The psalmist wanted God's healing so he can enjoy the rest of his life. (See: life)

This psalm shares some characteristics of another wisdom book called Ecclesiastes or Koheleth but is more positive.

Links:

Psalms 39:1

Psalms 39:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician, for Jeduthun. A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship,"

Jeduthun

One of David's chief musicians had this same name. This may refer to him.

I will watch what I say

Here "watch" is an idiom that mean "pay attention to."

Alternate translation: "I will pay attention to the things that I say"

so that I do not sin with my tongue

Here "tongue" refers to the writer's speech. Alternate translation: "so that I do not speak an offense against Yahweh" muzzle

To "muzzle" means to keep a mouth shut. Here David means that he will not speak while he is with an evil person.

Psalms 39:2

I kept silent; I kept back my words

These two phrases mean the same thing and emphasize that the writer did not speak at all. Alternate translation: "I was completely silent"

I kept back my words

"I did not speak"

Psalms 39:3

My heart became hot ... it burned like a fire

Here "heart" represents the whole person. The anxious thoughts of the writer are spoken of as if they were a fire burning inside him. Alternate translation: "I became very anxious when I thought about these things"

Psalms 39:4

the end of my life ... the extent of my days

These phrases mean basically the same thing.

Show me how transient I am

"Show me how brief my life is" or "Show me how soon I will die"

Psalms 39:5

only the width of my hand

The writer speaks of his lifespan as if it could be measured by the width of his hand. Alternate translation: "only a very short time"

my lifetime is like nothing before you

This simile states that the length of the writer's life is so short that it does not exist. This is an exaggeration to stress how short it is. Alternate translation: "the length of my life is barely any time at all"

Surely every man is a single breath

Life is short, and the psalmist speaks of it here as if it were only as long as the time it takes for a person to breathe one breath. Alternate translation: "The time that humans live is as short as a single breath of a person"

Psalms 39:6

Surely every man walks about like a shadow

The lives of people are spoken of as if they are as insignificant as shadows. Alternate translation: "Everyone disappears like shadows do"

although they do not know who will receive them

Here it is implied that they do not know what will happen to their wealth after they die. The full meaning of this statement can be made explicit.

Psalms 39:7

Now, Lord, for what am I waiting?

The writer asks this question to emphasize that people cannot help him. This rhetorical question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "So now, Yahweh, I can expect to receive nothing from anyone else."

Psalms 39:8

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 39:9

I am silent ... cannot open my mouth

These phrases mean basically the same thing.

because it is you who has done it

"because my punishment comes from you"

Psalms 39:10

Stop wounding me

God's punishment of the writer is spoken of as if God was wounding him with a weapon. Alternate translation:

"Please stop punishing me"

I am overwhelmed

"I am defeated completely"

the blow of your hand

God's punishment of the writer is spoken of as if God was striking him with his fist. Here "hand" represents God's judgment. Alternate translation: "your judgment on me"

Psalms 39:11

consume the things they desire like a moth

God will take away the things they value in the same way as a moth eats a piece of cloth. Alternate translation:

"consume the things they desire like a moth eats away at clothing"

all people are nothing but vapor

The writer speaks of the frailty of people as if they were mist that disappears quickly. Alternate translation:

"everyone is completely fragile"

Psalms 39:12

do not be deaf to my tears

The phrase "deaf to" is a metaphor for "ignore." Possible meanings of the phrase "deaf to my tears" are 1) the word

"tears" is a metonym for the writer's cries. Alternate translation: "do not ignore my cries" or "pay attention to my cries" Or 2) the word "tears" is a metonym for the writer himself. Alternate translation: "do not ignore me" or "pay attention to me"

tears

The reader should understand that the writer is extremely sad.

I am like a foreigner with you, a sojourner

The writer speaks of Yahweh's lack of response as if Yahweh considered him to be a total stranger to him.

Alternate translation: "I am like a complete stranger to you"

Psalms 39:13

Turn your gaze from me

Here "your gaze" represents Yahweh's punishment.

Alternate translation: "Please stop punishing me"

so that I may smile again

Here "smile" is associated with being happy. Alternate translation: "so that I can be happy again"

Chapter 40

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

¹ I waited patiently for Yahweh;
he listened to me and heard my cry.

² He brought me up out of a horrible pit,
out of the miry clay,
and he set my feet on a rock and made my steps secure.

- ³ He has put a new song in my mouth,
praise to our God.
Many will see it and honor him
and will trust in Yahweh.
- ⁴ Blessed is the man who makes Yahweh his trust and does not honor the proud or those who turn away from him to lies.
- ⁵ Many, Yahweh my God,
are the wonderful deeds that you have done,
and your thoughts which are about us cannot be numbered;
if I declared and spoke of them,
they would be more than could be counted.
- ⁶ You have no delight in sacrifice or offering,
but you have opened my ears;
you have not required burnt offerings or sin offerings.
- ⁷ Then said I, "See, I have come;
it is written about me in the scroll of the document.
- ⁸ I delight to do your will, my God;
your laws are in my heart."
- ⁹ I have proclaimed good news of your righteousness in the great assembly;
Yahweh, you know that my lips have not kept back from doing this.
- ¹⁰ I have not concealed your righteousness in my heart;
I have declared your faithfulness and your salvation;
I have not concealed your covenant faithfulness or your trustworthiness from the great assembly.
- ¹¹ Do not keep back your acts of mercy from me, Yahweh;
let your covenant faithfulness and your trustworthiness always preserve me.
- ¹² Troubles that cannot be numbered surround me;
my iniquities have caught up with me so that I am no longer able to see anything;
they are more than the hairs on my head,
and my heart has failed me.
- ¹³ Be pleased, Yahweh, to rescue me;
hurry to help me, Yahweh.
- ¹⁴ Let them be ashamed and completely disappointed who pursue my life to sweep it away.
Let them be turned back and brought to dishonor,
those who delight in hurting me.

- ¹⁵ Let them be appalled because of their shame,
those who say to me, "Aha, aha!"
- ¹⁶ But may all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you;
let everyone who loves your salvation say continually,
"May Yahweh be praised."
- ¹⁷ I am poor and needy;
yet the Lord thinks about me.
You are my help and you come to my rescue;
do not delay, my God.

Psalm 40 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 40 is a psalm of praise. Many also see it as a messianic psalm, a psalm about Christ. (See: christ)

Special concepts in this chapter

Sacrifices

God is not interested in sacrifices but wants people to obey him and fulfill his plans for them.

Links:

Psalms 40:1

Psalms 40:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician. A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship."

I waited patiently for Yahweh

This means the writer was waiting for Yahweh to help him.
he listened to me ... heard my cry

These mean the same thing, and can be combined into one statement. Alternate translation: "he listened to me when I called out to him"

Psalms 40:2

out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay

These two metaphors mean the same thing. The writer's danger is spoken of as if it was a deadly pit full of mud. This emphasizes the danger. Alternate translation: "from being trapped in a horrible pit full of sticky mud"

he set my feet on a rock

Here "my feet" refers to the writer, and "a rock" refers to a place of safety. Alternate translation: "he provided safety for me"

Psalms 40:3

He has put a new song in my mouth

Possible meanings are 1) "He has taught me the words to a new song" or 2) "He has given me a new reason to sing."
in my mouth

Here "my mouth" refers to the writer. Alternate translation: "in me"

praise to our God

The noun "praise" can be stated as a verb. Alternate translation: "a song to praise our God"

Many will see it

Here "see it" refers to hearing the writer sing his song about what God has done for him. Alternate translation: "Many people will hear me tell what Yahweh has done"

Psalms 40:4

Blessed is the man who makes Yahweh his trust

"Blessed is the man who trusts in Yahweh" or "Those who trust in Yahweh are blessed"

the proud

This refers to the people who are proud. Alternate translation: "proud people" to lies

The Hebrew word is unclear. Possible meanings are 1) "lies" or 2) "false gods."

Psalms 40:5

your thoughts which are about us cannot be numbered

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "no one can count all the things you think about us" cannot be numbered ... more than could be counted

These phrases mean essentially the same thing. The first is stated in negative form, and the second is stated in positive form.

Psalms 40:6

You have no delight in sacrifice or offering

This is an exaggeration to express that other things are much more important to God. Alternate translation:

"Sacrifices and other offerings are not the things that delight you most"

you have opened my ears

Here "ears" refers to the ability to hear. Alternate translation: "you have enabled me to hear your commands"

you have not required burnt offerings or sin offerings

This is an exaggeration to show that these things were not the most important to God. Alternate translation: "animals burned on the altar and other offerings for our sins are not what you require most"

Psalms 40:7

the scroll of the document

This refers to a scroll on which was written the word of Yahweh. Alternate translation: "the written scroll"

Psalms 40:8

your laws are in my heart

Here "my heart" refers to the inner being of the writer.

Alternate translation: "I am always thinking about your laws within my inner being"

Psalms 40:9

I have proclaimed good news of your righteousness in the great assembly

"I have told a large assembly of people the good news of your righteousness."

good news of your righteousness

This refers to the good news that God rescues his people.

Alternate translation: "good news that because you are righteous, you rescue your people"

my lips have not kept back from doing this

Here "my lips" represents the writer, emphasizing his speech. Alternate translation: "I have not stopped myself from proclaiming these things"

Psalms 40:10

I have not concealed your righteousness in my heart

"I have not kept your righteousness a secret." This can also be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: "I have openly told every one about your righteousness"

in my heart

Here this refers to the writer's inner being.

I have not concealed your covenant faithfulness or your trustworthiness from the great assembly

This can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: "I have told everyone in the great assembly about your covenant faithfulness or your trustworthiness"

your covenant faithfulness

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be stated as "faithful."

Alternate translation: "how faithful you are to your covenant"

your trustworthiness

This abstract noun "trustworthiness" can be stated as "trustworthy." Alternate translation: "how trustworthy you are"

Psalms 40:11

let your covenant faithfulness and your trustworthiness always preserve me

Here "covenant faithfulness" and "trustworthiness" are spoken of as if they were living people who could protect the writer. Alternate translation: "I want your covenant faithfulness and your trustworthiness to always preserve"

Psalms 40:12

Troubles that cannot be numbered surround me

Here troubles are spoken of as if they were objects that surround and trap the speaker. Alternate translation: "there are more troubles around me than I can count" or "more troubles come to me than I can count" that cannot be numbered

This is stated in negative form to intensify the number. See how you translated this in [Psalms 40:5]

my iniquities

This refers to the consequences of his sin. Alternate translation: "the consequences of my iniquities"

have caught up with me

The writer's iniquities are spoken of as if they were his enemies who were harming him.

I am no longer able to see anything

Versions differ in how to understand this difficult passage.

It may mean that the speaker is crying so much that he cannot see anything because of his tears.

my heart has failed me

Here "heart" refers to the writer's inner confidence.

Alternate translation: "I am very discouraged"

Psalms 40:13

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 40:14

Let them be ashamed and completely disappointed who pursue my life to sweep it away

This can be reordered and stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Let those who pursue my life to sweep it away be ashamed and completely disappointed"

Let them be ashamed and completely disappointed

"Please make them ashamed and completely disappointed" who pursue my life to sweep it away

Here "pursue my life" means they desire to kill the writer.

The writer is represented by his "life." Alternate translation: "who are trying to kill me"

Let them be turned back and brought to dishonor, those who delight in hurting me

This can be reordered and stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Let those who delight in hurting me be turned back and brought to dishonor" or "Please have someone turn back those who delight in hurting me and bring them to dishonor"

turned back

"unable to continue"

Psalms 40:15

Let them be appalled because of their shame, those who say to me,

"Aha, aha!"

"Let those who say to me, 'Aha, aha!' be appalled because of their shame"

Let them be appalled because of their shame

"I hope that they will be appalled when you cause them to be ashamed"

Aha, aha!

These words indicate that the speaker has seen the hearer doing evil that the hearer did not think anyone knew about. You can use here words in your language that mean the same thing but sound different. See how this is translated in [Psalms 35:21]

Chapter 41

Psalms 40:16

rejoice and be glad

These two phrases mean the same thing and emphasize the intensity of joy. Alternate translation: "be very joyful" loves your salvation

The abstract noun "salvation" can be stated as an action.

Alternate translation: "love you because you saved them"

Psalms 40:17

poor and needy

These words mean the same thing and emphasize how helpless the writer is. Alternate translation: "very needy"

the Lord thinks about me

"the Lord cares for me"

You are my help ... you come to my rescue

These phrases mean the same thing.

You are my help

"You are the one who helps me"

you come to my rescue

"you come to save me"

do not delay

This can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation:

"respond quickly"

Chapter 41

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

¹ Blessed is he who is concerned for the weak;
in the day of trouble, Yahweh will rescue him.

² Yahweh will preserve him and keep him alive, and he will be blessed on the earth;
Yahweh will not turn him over to the will of his enemies.

³ Yahweh will support him on the bed of suffering;
you will make his bed of sickness into a bed of healing.

⁴ I said, "Yahweh, have mercy on me!
Heal me, for I have sinned against you."

⁵ My enemies speak evil against me, saying,
'When will he die and his name perish?'

⁶ If my enemy comes to see me,
he says worthless things;
his heart gathers up wickedness for itself;
when he goes away from me, he tells others about it.

⁷ All who hate me whisper together against me;
against me they hope for my hurt.

⁸ They say, "An evil disease holds on tightly to him;
now that he is lying down, he will rise up no more."

⁹ Indeed, even my own close friend, in whom I trusted, who ate my bread,
has lifted up his heel against me.

¹⁰ But you, Yahweh, have mercy on me and raise me up
so that I may pay them back.

¹¹ By this I know that you delight in me, for my enemy does not triumph over me.

¹² As for me, you support me in my integrity and will keep me before your face forever.

¹³ May Yahweh, the God of Israel be praised from everlasting to everlasting.
Amen and Amen.

BOOK TWO

(Psalms 42-72)

Psalm 41 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 41 is a psalm of deliverance. The author's friends had become his enemies who wanted to see him die but he trusted God to rescue him. (See: deliverer and trust)

Special concepts in this chapter

Enemies

The author's best friend had become an enemy. His enemies were happy because they were sure his sickness would result in death.

Links:

Psalms 41:1

Psalms 41:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician. A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship."

he who is concerned for the weak ... rescue him

The words "he" and "him" refer to anyone who is concerned for the weak.

the weak

"weak people" or "poor people"

Psalms 41:2

he ... him ... his

These words refer to anyone who is concerned for the weak.

Psalms 41:3

Yahweh will support him on the bed of suffering

The phrase "the bed of suffering" refers to when a person lies in bed because he is sick. Alternate translation: "When he is sick and in bed, Yahweh will support him"

you will make his bed of sickness into a bed of healing

The phrase "a bed of healing" refers to when a person rests in bed and recovers from his sickness. Alternate translation: "you, Yahweh, will heal him of his sickness"

Psalms 41:4

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 41:5

his name perish

If a person's name dies, it means that people forget that he had ever lived. Alternate translation: "when will his name perish" or "when will people forget about him"

Psalms 41:6

If my enemy comes to see me

The words "my enemy" refers to any enemy in general, and not to one specific enemy.

he says worthless things

Possible meanings are 1) "he says meaningless things" or 2) his enemies say things to make him think that they are his friends when they are not. Alternate translation: "he says deceitful things" or "they pretend to be concerned about me"

his heart gathers up wickedness for itself

His enemies try to learn all of the bad things about him.

Here the word "heart" refers the whole person. The writer's sin is spoken of as if it were an object that could be gathered. Alternate translation: "he tries to learn about all of my sins"

Psalms 41:7

against me they hope for my hurt

Possible meanings are 1) "they hope that very bad things will happen to me" or 2) "they are planning to hurt me."

Psalms 41:8

An evil disease ... to him

His enemies speak of "disease" as if it were a person who has captured him. Alternate translation: "He is sick with a fatal disease"

An evil disease

Possible meanings are 1) "A fatal disease" or 2) "Something evil"

Chapter 42

now that he is lying down, he will rise up no more

Here the words "lying down" refer to lying in bed because of illness. That he will not "rise up" means that he will continue to lie down, which is a euphemism for death.

Alternate translation: "now that he is sick in bed, he will die there"

Psalms 41:9

has lifted up his heel against me

This is an idiom that means his friend betrayed him.

Alternate translation: "has betrayed me" or "has turned against me"

Psalms 41:10

But you, Yahweh, have mercy on me and raise me up

This is a request. Alternate translation: "Please, Yahweh, have mercy on me and raise me up" raise me up

This means to raise him up from his bed, or to make him recover from his disease. Alternate translation: "make me well"

so that I may pay them back

The writer speaks of revenge on his enemies as if it were paying to them what he owes. Alternate translation: "so that I may take revenge on them"

Psalms 41:11

By this I know that you delight in me, for my enemy does not triumph over me

The word "this" refers to what the writer will say next. For clarity, the clauses may be reversed. Alternate translation:

"Because my enemy does not triumph over me, I know that you delight in me"

By this I know that you delight in me, for my enemy does not triumph over me

This can also be translated in future tense, since Yahweh has not yet healed him. Alternate translation: "If you enable me to do that, with the result that my enemies do not defeat me, I will know that you are pleased with me"

Psalms 41:12

you support me in my integrity

"you support me because of my integrity"

will keep me before your face

The writer speaks of being in Yahweh's presence as being in a place where Yahweh can see him and he can see Yahweh's face. Alternate translation: "will keep me with you"

Psalms 41:13

General Information:

This verse is more than the end of this psalm. It is the closing statement for all of Book 1 of the Psalms, which starts at Psalm 1 and ends with Psalm 41.

from everlasting to everlasting

This refers to two extremes and means for all time.

Alternate translation: "for all eternity"

Amen and Amen

The word "Amen" is repeated to emphasize approval of what has been said. Alternate translation: "May it certainly be so"

Chapter 42

For the chief musician. A maschil of the sons of Korah.

¹ As the deer pants after streams of water,
so I thirst for you, God.

² I thirst for God, for the living God,
when will I come and appear before God?

³ My tears have been my food
day and night,
while my enemies are always saying to me,
"Where is your God?"

⁴ These things I call to mind as I pour out my soul:
how I went with the throng and led them to the house of God with the voice of joy and praise, a multitude celebrating a festival.

⁵ Why are you bowed down, my soul?
Why are you upset within me?
Hope in God,
for again I will praise him who is my salvation.

- ⁶ My God, my soul is bowed down within me, therefore I call you to mind from the land of the Jordan, from the three peaks of Mount Hermon, and from the hill of Mizar.
- ⁷ Deep calls to deep at the noise of your waterfalls;
all your waves and your billows have gone over me.
- ⁸ Yet Yahweh will command his covenant faithfulness in the daytime;
in the night his song will be with me,
a prayer to the God of my life.
- ⁹ I will say to God, my rock,
"Why have you forgotten me?
Why do I go mourning
because of the oppression of the enemy?"
- ¹⁰ As with a sword in my bones, my adversaries rebuke me, while they always say to me, "Where is your God?"
- ¹¹ Why are you bowed down, my soul?
Why are you upset within me?
Hope in God,
for again I will praise him who is my salvation and my God.

Psalm 42 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 42 is a psalm of praise for all that God has done and a prayer for deliverance from the psalmist's enemies. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's deliverance

The psalmist praises God as he remembers what God has done for him in the past, and he puts his trust in him. He needs rescuing from his enemies. Scholars believe that this psalm is about a man in exile longing for Jerusalem.

Psalm 42 and Psalm 43

Some scholars believe that these two psalms were originally written together as one psalm.

Superscription

This psalm is called "a Maschil of the sons of Korah." The word "Maschil" in the original language has caused scholars to have various opinions about its meaning. Some say it means to instruct, while others say that the word is referring to the skill used in creating the psalm. Still others think it means that meditation should be used in reading this psalm.

Links:

Psalms 42:1

Psalms 42:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician. A maschil of the sons of Korah

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship."

A maschil

This may refer to a style of music. See how you translated this in Psalms 32:1.

As the deer pants after streams of water, so I thirst for you, God

The author compares his desire for God to the desire of a thirsty deer for water.

pants

heavy breathing from an animal or person that is very tired or thirsty

I thirst for you, God

The author speaks of his strong desire for God as if it were a strong thirst for water.

Psalms 42:2

I thirst for God

The author speaks of his strong desire for God as if it were a strong thirst for water.

when will I come and appear before God?

The author does not ask this question to get an answer but to show his strong desire to be before God.

Psalms 42:3

My tears have been my food

The author refers to his tears as if they are food that he eats. This means that he is so sad that he cannot eat.

Alternate translation: "My tears are like my food and I eat nothing else"

day and night

This phrase refers to the entire day by referring to both its beginning and end. Alternate translation: "all day long"

my enemies are always saying to me

This is an exaggeration. His enemies are not saying this constantly; they are saying it often.

Where is your God?

The author's enemies use this question to mock him and to express that they do not see his God helping him. Alternate translation: "Your God is not here to help you"

Psalms 42:4

call to mind

This is an idiom that means to remember or think about something. Alternate translation: "remember"

I pour out my soul

Here the word "soul" refers to the emotions. The author speaks of his soul as if it is a liquid that he pours out. The phrase means that he is expressing his emotional grief. Alternate translation: "I express my sorrow"

the throng

"the crowd of people"

joy and praise

This phrase uses two different words to express one idea. Alternate translation: "joyful praise"

Psalms 42:5

Why are you bowed down, my soul? Why are you upset within me?

The author refers to his inner self as his "soul," which represents himself. He asks these questions to rebuke himself. Alternate translation: "I should not be bowed down. I should not be worried"

bowed down

The writer speaks of depression or discouragement as if it were his soul being bent over. Alternate translation: "discouraged"

Hope in God

The writer continues to speak to his own soul and commands it to trust God.

Psalms 42:6

My God, my soul

The writer begins to speak to God about his soul.

I call you to mind

This phrase means to remember or to think about something. Alternate translation: "I think of you"

the land of the Jordan

This is probably a reference to northern Israel, where the Jordan river originates. Alternate translation: "the land where the Jordan river begins" peaks mountain tops

hill of Mizar

This is the name of a hill at the base of Mount Hermon.

Psalms 42:7

Deep calls to deep at the noise of your waterfalls

The word "deep" refers to deep waters, which here are likely the streams rushing down Mount Hermon. The writer speaks of them as if they are people calling out to one another as they hear the sound of their own descent from the mountain.

all your waves ... have gone over me

The author speaks of his great misfortune and sadness as if they are deep waters that drown him with one wave after another.

your waves and your billows

The word "billows" is another word for "waves." Together the two words emphasize the greatness of the waves.

Alternate translation: "all of your great waves"

Psalms 42:8

Yahweh will command his covenant faithfulness in the daytime

The writer speaks of Yahweh's covenant faithfulness as if it were a person whom he commands to be with him. The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "Yahweh will show me his covenant faithfulness in the daytime" or "Yahweh will show me in the daytime how faithful he is to his covenant"

his song

Possible meanings are 1) "the song that he gives me" or "the song about him"

the God of my life

"the God who gives me life"

Psalms 42:9

I will say to God, my rock

The writer speaks of God as if he were a huge rock that would provide protection from enemy attack.

Why do I go mourning

To "go mourning" is to perform customs related to being very sad.

Psalms 42:10

As with a sword in my bones

The writer describes his adversaries' rebukes as his receiving a fatal wound.

they always say to me

This is an exaggeration; his enemies are not saying this constantly but are saying it often.

Where is your God?

The writer's enemies use this question to mock him and to express that they do not see God helping him. Alternate translation: "Your God is not here to help you"

Psalms 42:11

Why are you bowed down, my soul? Why are you upset within me?

The author refers to his inner self as his "soul," which represents himself. He asks these questions to rebuke himself. See how you translated this in [Psalms 42:5] bowed down

The writer speaks of depression or discouragement as if it were his soul being bent over. See how you translated this in [Psalms 42:5]

Hope in God
The writer continues to speak to his own soul and commands it to trust God. See how you translated this in [Psalms 42:5]

Chapter 43

- ¹ Bring me justice, God,
and plead my case against a nation that is not faithful.
Deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man.
- ² For you are the God of my strength.
Why have you rejected me?
Why do I go about in mourning
because of the oppression of the enemy?
- ³ Oh, send out your light and your truth,
let them lead me.
Let them bring me to your holy hill and to your dwelling.
- ⁴ Then I will go to the altar of God,
to God my exceeding joy.
I will praise you with the harp,
God, my God.
- ⁵ Why are you bowed down, my soul?
Why are you upset within me?
Hope in God,
for again I will praise him who is my salvation and my God.

Psalm 43 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 43 is a psalm of deliverance. It is a plea for rescue from the psalmist's enemies. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Encouragement

The author should not be discouraged because he trusts in God to deliver him. (See: trust)

Psalm 42 and Psalm 43

Some scholars believe that these two psalms were originally written together as one psalm.

Links:

Psalms 43:1

Psalms 43:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

Psalms 43:2

the God of my strength

Possible meanings are 1) "the God who protects me" or 2) "the God who gives me strength."

Why have you rejected me? Why do I go about in mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

The writer asks these questions in order to complain to God and express his emotions, not to receive an answer.

Why do I go about in mourning

To "go about in mourning" is to perform customs related to being very sad.

because of the oppression of the enemy

The word "oppression" can be translated as a verb.

Alternate translation: "because my enemy oppresses me"

Psalms 43:3

send out your light and your truth

The writer speaks of God's deliverance as if it were a light that shows him the way and truth that teaches him how to live. Alternate translation: "guide me with your light and truth"

Chapter 44

holy hill

This refers to the hill in Jerusalem where the temple is located and thus to the temple itself.

to your dwelling

"to the place where you live"

Psalms 43:4

God my exceeding joy

"God who is my very great joy" or "God who gives me very great joy"

Psalms 43:5

Why are you bowed down, my soul? Why are you upset within me?

The author refers to his inner self as his "soul," which represents himself. He asks these questions to rebuke himself. See how you translated this in [Psalms 42:5] bowed down

The writer speaks of depression or discouragement as if it were his soul being bent over. See how you translated this in [Psalms 42:5]

Hope in God

The writer continues to speak to his own soul and commands it to trust God. See how you translated this in [Psalms 42:5]

my salvation and my God

The phrase "my salvation" refers to God. If necessary the two phrases can be combined. Alternate translation: "my God who saves me"

Chapter 44

For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah. A maschil.

¹ We have heard with our ears, God, our fathers have told us what work you did in their days, in the days of old.

² You drove out the nations with your hand, but you planted our people;
you afflicted the peoples,
but you spread our people out in the land.

³ For they did not obtain the land for their possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them;
but your right hand, your arm, and the light of your face,
because you were favorable to them.

⁴ God, You are my King; command victory for Jacob.

⁵ Through you we will push down our adversaries;
through your name we will tread them under,
those who rise up against us.

⁶ For I will not trust in my bow, neither will my sword save me.

⁷ But you have saved us from our adversaries, and have put to shame those who hate us.

⁸ In God we have made our boast all the day long,
and we will give thanks to your name forever.

Selah

⁹ But now you have rejected us and brought us dishonor, and you do not go out with our armies.

- ¹⁰ You make us turn back from the adversary;
and those who hate us take spoil for themselves.
- ¹¹ You have made us like sheep to be slaughtered and have scattered us among the nations.
- ¹² You sell your people for nothing;
you have not increased your wealth by doing so.
- ¹³ You make us a rebuke to our neighbors,
scoffed and mocked by those around us.
- ¹⁴ You make us an insult among the nations,
a shaking of the head among the peoples.
- ¹⁵ All the day long my dishonor is before me,
and the shame of my face has covered me
- ¹⁶ because of the voice of him who rebukes and insults, because of the enemy and the avenger.
- ¹⁷ All this has come on us; yet we have not forgotten you or dealt falsely with your covenant.
- ¹⁸ Our heart has not turned back;
our steps have not gone from your way.
- ¹⁹ Yet you have severely broken us in the place of jackals and covered us with the shadow of death.
- ²⁰ If we have forgotten the name of our God or spread out our hands to a strange god,
- ²¹ would not God search this out?
For he knows the secrets of the heart.
- ²² Indeed, for your sake we are being killed all day long;
we are considered to be sheep for the slaughter.
- ²³ Awake, why do you sleep, Lord?
Arise, do not reject us forever.
- ²⁴ Why do you hide your face and forget our affliction and our oppression?
- ²⁵ For we have sunk down into the dust;
our bodies cling to the earth.
- ²⁶ Rise up for our help and redeem us for the sake of your covenant faithfulness.

Psalm 44 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 44 is a deliverance psalm. It is a prayer for God's help against enemies. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Enemies

When Israel entered the Promised Land, God fought for them and drove out their enemies. Since their enemies have now defeated them, they are in need of God's help. (See: promisedland)

Superscription

This psalm is called "a Maschil." The word "Maschil" in the original language has caused scholars to have various opinions about its meaning. Some say it means to instruct, while others say that the word is referring to the skill used in creating the psalm. Still others think it means that meditation should be used in reading this psalm.

Links:

Psalms 44:1

Psalms 44:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah. A maschil

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship."

A psalm of the sons of Korah

"This is a psalm that the sons of Korah wrote."

We have heard with our ears, God

The word "ears" adds emphasis to the statement that they have heard and understood the things that the writer is about to describe. The writer addresses this statement to God. Alternate translation: "God, we have heard clearly" in their days, in the days of old

Both of these phrases use the word "days" to refer to the time period when the ancestors of the people of Israel were alive.

Psalms 44:2

You drove out the nations

"You forced the people from other nations to leave"

with your hand

Here the word "hand" refers to God's power. Alternate translation: "by your power"

you planted our people

The writer speaks of God's causing the Israelites to live in the land as if he were planting them in the soil like he would a tree. Alternate translation: "you caused our people to live there"

Psalms 44:3

by their own sword

The word "sword" refers to military power. Alternate translation: "by fighting with their own swords" or "by their own army's strength"

their own arm

Here the word "arm" refers to power. Alternate translation: "their own power"

the light of your face

You may supply a verb for this phrase. Alternate translation: "the light of your face obtained the land for their possession"

your right hand, your arm

Here the words "hand" and "arm" both refer to God's power. Combined, they emphasize the greatness of God's power. Alternate translation: "your great power"

the light of your face

The writer speaks of Yahweh looking with favor upon them and being kind to them as if Yahweh's face shone a light on them. Alternate translation: "your kindness" or "your good favor"

Psalms 44:4

victory for Jacob

The people of Israel are referred to by the name of their ancestor "Jacob."

Psalms 44:5

Through you ... through your

"By you ... by your"

push down ... tread them under ... rise up

The writer speaks of his enemies' defeat as if they are "down" and of their preparing to fight as if they are "up."

through your name

Here the word "name" refers to God's power and authority. Alternate translation: "by your power" tread them under

"tread them under our feet" or "walk on top of them"

Psalms 44:6

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 44:7

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 44:8

we have made our boast

The word "boast" can be translated with a verb. Alternate translation: "we have boasted"

we will give thanks to your name

Here the word "name" refers to God, himself. Alternate translation: "we will give thanks to you"

Psalms 44:9

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 44:10

spoil

resources and treasures that an army collects after winning a battle

Psalms 44:11

You have made us like sheep to be slaughtered

The writer compares the Israelites to sheep that people kill and eat. As sheep are helpless before those who kill them, so the Israelites are helpless before their enemies. This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "You have allowed our enemies to kill us like they would kill a sheep and eat it"

scattered us among the nations

"caused us to live in many different nations"

Psalms 44:12

sell your people for nothing

The writer speaks of Yahweh allowing Israel's enemies to conquer them as if he were selling the people of Israel to their enemies but does not require any payment from their enemies.

Psalms 44:13

You make us a rebuke to our neighbors, scoffed and mocked by those around us

These two phrases are parallel emphasizing how the people among whom they live mock them.

You make us a rebuke to our neighbors

The word "rebuke" can be translated as a verb. Alternate translation: "You make us something that our neighbors rebuke"

scoffed and mocked by those around us

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"those around us scoff at us and mock us"

Psalms 44:14

an insult among ... a shaking of the head

These phrases are parallel emphasizing how intensely the nations around them mock them.

You make us an insult among the nations

The word "insult" can be translated as a verb. Alternate translation: "You make the nations around us insult us"

a shaking of the head among the peoples

The phrase "a shaking of the head" can be translated in verbal form. Alternate translation: "something at which the peoples shake their heads"

a shaking of the head

This was a gesture that people used to show scorn to others.

Psalms 44:15

my dishonor is before me

The writer speaks of his dishonor as if it were an object that is always in front of him for him to see. The phrase means that he is always thinking about his dishonor. Alternate translation: "I think about my dishonor"

the shame of my face has covered me

The writer speaks of his shame as if it is an object that covers him like a blanket would cover him. Alternate translation: "the shame of my face has overwhelmed me"

the shame of my face

"the shame that shows on my face." This refers to his facial expressions that his shame causes.

Psalms 44:16

because of the voice of him who rebukes and insults

Here the words "the voice" represents the person insulting him. Alternate translation: "because of what the person says who rebukes and insults me"

rebukes and insults

These words have similar meanings and emphasize the harsh nature of what this person says.

Psalms 44:17

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 44:18

Our heart has not turned back ... have not gone from your way

These two phrases are parallel. The writer speaks of loyalty to God as if it were following him, and disloyalty as if it were turning away from him.

Our heart has not turned back

Here the word "heart" refers to the emotions, and specifically to loyalty and devotion. Alternate translation: "We have not stopped being loyal to you"

Psalms 44:19

you have severely broken us

The writer speaks of God's punishment as if it were breaking a fragile object. Alternate translation: "you have punished us severely"

in the place of jackals

The writer speaks of Israel after God's punishment as if it were a wild, uninhabitable place. Alternate translation: "and made our land like a place where jackals live" jackals

a type of wild dog

covered us with the shadow of death

The writer speaks of death as if it is an object that casts a shadow over those who are about to die. Alternate translation: "made us so that we are about to die"

Psalms 44:20

If we have forgotten the name of our God

This describes a situation that could have happened but did not. The writer knew that they had not forgotten the name of God. Here the word "name" refers to God, himself. To forget the name of God is to stop worshiping him. Alternate translation: "If we have forgotten our God" or "If we have stopped worshiping our God" spread out our hands to a strange god

Spreading out the hands is a gesture that people used to worship and pray to a god. Alternate translation:

"worshiped a strange god" or "prayed to a strange god"

Psalms 44:21

would not God search this out?

The writer uses this question to express that God would know if they worshiped another god. Alternate translation: "God would certainly find out"

he knows the secrets of the heart

Here the word "heart" refers to the mind and thoughts. Alternate translation: "he knows what a person secretly thinks"

Psalms 44:22

we are being killed all day long

The phrase "all day long" is an exaggeration to emphasize that their people are being killed frequently. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "we are always in danger of people killing us"

we are considered to be sheep for the slaughter

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"people consider us to be sheep for the slaughter"

sheep for the slaughter

The writer compares the Israelites to sheep that people kill and eat. As sheep are helpless before those who kill them, so the Israelites are helpless before their enemies.

Psalms 44:23

Awake, why do you sleep, Lord?

This does not mean that God is actually asleep. The writer speaks of God's seeming inactivity as if God is sleeping. He asks the question to rebuke God for appearing not to be concerned about their troubles. Alternate translation:

"Wake up! I feel like you are sleeping, Lord!"

Psalms 44:24

Why do you hide your face ... our oppression?

The writer uses this question to complain that God appears to be ignoring them. Alternate translation: "Do not hide your face ... our oppression."

hide your face

The writer speaks of God ignoring them as if God were hiding his face so that he could not see them. Alternate translation: "ignore us"

forget our affliction and our oppression

The words "affliction" and "oppression" mean basically the same thing and emphasize the severity of their affliction. These words may also be translated as verbs. Alternate translation: "forget that people afflict us and oppress us" or "forget that people greatly afflict us"

Psalms 44:25

For we have sunk down into the dust; our bodies cling to the earth

These parallel phrases share similar meanings. The writer describes his people as lying on the ground in a posture of defeat and humiliation.

For we have sunk down into the dust

The writer speaks of their humiliation as if their bodies were objects, such as ice, that melt and soak into the dirt.

our bodies cling to the earth

The writer speaks of their humiliation as if their bodies were stuck to the ground and they could not raise themselves up.

Psalms 44:26

Rise up

This is a command to stand. This phrase refers to beginning to act on something. Alternate translation: "Take action" for the sake of your covenant faithfulness

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "to show that you are faithful to your covenant"

Chapter 45

For the chief musician; set to Shoshannim. A psalm of the sons of Korah. A maschil. A song of loves.

¹ My heart overflows on a good subject;

I will read aloud the words I have composed about the king;
my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.

² You are fairer than the children of mankind;

grace is poured onto your lips;
therefore we know that God has blessed you forever.

³ Gird your sword to your side, mighty one,

in your glory and your majesty.

⁴ In your majesty ride on triumphantly

because of trustworthiness, meekness, and righteousness;
your right hand will teach you fearful things.

⁵ Your arrows are sharp;

the peoples fall under you;
your arrows are in the hearts of the king's enemies.

⁶ Your throne, God, is forever and ever;

a scepter of justice is the scepter of your kingdom.

⁷ You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness;

therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness more than your companions.

- ⁸ All your garments smell of myrrh, aloes, and cassia;
out of ivory palaces
stringed instruments have made you glad.
- ⁹ Kings' daughters are among your honorable women;
at your right hand stands the queen clothed in gold of Ophir.
- ¹⁰ Listen, daughter, consider and incline your ear;
forget your own people and your father's house.
- ¹¹ In this way the king will desire your beauty;
he is your master; revere him.
- ¹² The daughter of Tyre will be there with a gift;
the rich among the people will beg for your favor.
- ¹³ The royal daughter in the palace is all glorious;
her clothing is worked with gold.
- ¹⁴ She will be led to the king in embroidered dress;
the virgins, her companions who follow her,
will be brought to you.
- ¹⁵ They will be led by gladness and rejoicing;
they will enter into the king's palace.
- ¹⁶ In the place of your fathers will be your children, whom you will make princes in all the earth.
- ¹⁷ I will make your name to be remembered in all generations;
therefore the peoples will give you thanks forever and ever.

Psalm 45 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 45 is a royal psalm written for the king's wedding day.

Special concepts in this chapter

Beauty

The king has a beautiful palace, and his bride is also beautiful.

Superscription

This psalm is called "a Maschil." The word "Maschil" in the original language has caused scholars to have various opinions about its meaning. Some say it means to instruct, while others say that the word is referring to the skill used in creating the psalm. Still others think it means that meditation should be used in reading this psalm.

Links:

Psalms 45:1

Psalms 45:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician; set to Shoshannim. A psalm of the sons of Korah.

A maschil. A song of loves

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

set to Shoshannim

This may refer to a style or the tune of the music.

Sometimes it is translated as "set to the tune of 'Lilies.'"

A psalm of the sons of Korah

"This is a psalm that the sons of Korah wrote."

A maschil

This may refer to a style of music. See how you translated this in Psalms 32:1.

My heart overflows on a good subject

The writer speaks of his heart as if it were a container that overflows with liquid. The word "heart" represents his emotions, which are excited by the song that he sings. Alternate translation: "My emotions are excited about a good subject"

a good subject

"a noble theme" or "a beautiful word." This refers to the song that he has written.

composed to have written or created a song

my tongue is the pen of a ready writer

The writer speaks of his tongue as if it were a pen. He speaks words as skillfully as an experienced writer writes words. Alternate translation: "my tongue is like the pen of person who writes well" or "I speak words as skillfully as an experienced writer can write words"

Psalms 45:2

You are fairer than the children of mankind

This phrase is an exaggeration that emphasizes that the king is better looking than anyone else. The phrase "children of mankind" is an idiom and refers to all humans. Alternate translation: "You are more handsome than any other man"

grace is poured onto your lips

The writer speaks of grace as if it were oil that someone has used to anoint the king's lips. The word "lips" refers to the king's speech. The phrase means that the king speaks eloquently. Alternate translation: "it is as if someone has anointed your lips with oil" or "you speak eloquently"

Psalms 45:3

Gird your sword to your side

Warriors carried their swords in sheaths that hung from belts around their waists. The swords would rest against their sides. This phrase describes an action of someone preparing for battle. Alternate translation: "Prepare yourself for battle"

Psalms 45:4

ride on triumphantly

The writer tells the king to ride his horse or chariot to victory.

because of trustworthiness, meekness, and righteousness

The abstract nouns "trustworthiness," "meekness," and "righteousness" can be stated as adjectives. Possible meanings are 1) these are qualities of the mighty one.

Alternate translation: "because you are trustworthy, meek, and righteous" or 2) these are virtues that he fights to uphold for the people whom he rules. Alternate translation: "in order to fight for what is trustworthy, meek, and right"

your right hand will teach you fearful things

Most soldiers held their swords with their right hands when they fought. Here, the phrase "right hand" refers to his ability to fight, which the writer speaks of as if it were a person who can teach the king through the experience he gains in battle. Alternate translation: "You will learn to accomplish great military feats by fighting in many battles" fearful things

"awesome deeds." This refers to military victories that cause his enemies to fear him and his allies to revere him.

Psalms 45:5

the peoples fall under you

This phrase refers to the king defeating his enemies.

Possible meanings are 1) "the peoples fall at your feet in surrender" or 2) "the peoples fall dead at your feet."

your arrows are in the hearts of the king's enemies

"your arrows have pierced the hearts of your enemies." The writer speaks to the king while referring to the king in the third person.

Psalms 45:6

Your throne ... is forever and ever

The word "throne" represents the kingdom and rule of the king. Alternate translation: "Your kingdom ... is forever and ever" or "You will reign ... forever and ever"

Your throne, God

Possible meanings are that the word "God" 1) is a title for the king, who is God's representative or 2) modifies the word "throne" and means "Your kingdom that God has given you."

a scepter of justice is the scepter of your kingdom

The word "scepter" represents the king's authority to rule his kingdom. Alternate translation: "you rule your kingdom with justice"

Psalms 45:7

God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness

The writer speaks of gladness as if it were an oil that God used to anoint the king. That God has anointed him is a symbolic action that represents God's choosing him to be king. Alternate translation: "when God appointed you as king, he made you very glad"

Psalms 45:8

General Information:

Here the writer begins to describe what appears to be the wedding ceremony of the king and his bride.

myrrh, aloes, and cassia

These are aromatic plant substances that people used to make perfumes.

ivory palaces

Ivory is a hard white substance that forms animal's tusks. This phrase describes a palace with walls and furniture that people have decorated with ivory.

stringed instruments have made you glad

The words "stringed instruments" refers to the music that people make by playing the stringed instruments. Alternate translation: "the music of stringed instruments has made you glad"

Psalms 45:9

honorable women

These women are wives of the king who receive his approval.

the queen

This is a reference to the woman who will become queen.

Alternate translation: "your bride, the queen" or "your bride, who will be the queen"

Ophir

This is the name of a place that had a reputation for its fine gold. The location is unknown.

Psalms 45:10

Listen, daughter

The writer begins to speak to the queen and refers to her as "daughter" because she is a young woman.

incline your ear

The writer speaks of listening carefully to something as if it were bending one's ear towards the person who is speaking. Alternate translation: "listen carefully"

forget your own people

The writer speaks of the queen no longer following the beliefs and customs of her native people as if it were forgetting them. Alternate translation: "no longer follow the customs of your people"

your father's house

Here the word "house" refers to family. Alternate translation: "your relatives"

Psalms 45:11

In this way

"and" or "so"

the king will desire your beauty

This is a polite way to say that the king will want to sleep with the queen as his wife.

Psalms 45:12

General Information:

The writer continues to speak to the queen.

The daughter of Tyre

The writer speaks of the people who live in Tyre as if they are Tyre's children. Alternate translation: "The people of Tyre"

Psalms 45:13

The royal daughter

This is a reference to the woman whom the king will marry. Alternate translation: "The king's bride"

all glorious

"very beautiful." This refers to the woman's appearance.

her clothing is worked with gold

Her clothing is decorated or embroidered with gold. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "she wears clothing that someone has embroidered with golden thread"

Psalms 45:14

General Information:

The author continues to speak about the queen but begins to address the king again.

She will be led to the king in embroidered dress

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"People will lead her to the king as she wears an embroidered dress" embroidered

a design made by sewing colored threads into cloth

the virgins, her companions who follow her, will be brought to you

Here the word "you" refers to the king. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "people will bring to you the virgins, her companions who follow her"

Psalms 45:15

They will be led by gladness and rejoicing

This phrase describes "gladness and rejoicing" as a person who leads others to celebrate. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Gladness and rejoicing will lead them" or "They will proceed with gladness and rejoicing"

gladness and rejoicing

These two words mean basically the same thing and emphasize the intensity of gladness. Alternate translation: "great gladness"

Psalms 45:16

Connecting Statement:

The writer continues to address the king.

In the place of your fathers will be your children

This means that the king's sons will replace him as king, just as he replaced his ancestors as king.

you will make princes in all the earth

The phrase "in all the earth" is an exaggeration to emphasize that they will rule over many nations. Alternate translation: "you will make rulers over many nations"

Psalms 45:17

I will make your name to be remembered in all generations

Here the word "I" refers to the writer. The word "name" refers to the king's character and reputation. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "I will cause people in every generation to know about your greatness"

Chapter 46

For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah; set to Alamoth. A song.

¹ God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

² Therefore we will not fear, though the earth should change, though the mountains should be shaken into the heart of the seas,

³ though its waters roar and rage, and though the mountains tremble with their swelling.

Selah

- ⁴ There is a river whose streams make the city of God happy,
the holy place where the Most High dwells.
- ⁵ God is in the middle of her; she will not be moved;
God will help her, and he will do so at the dawn of morning.
- ⁶ The nations raged and the kingdoms were shaken;
he lifted up his voice, and the earth melted.
- ⁷ Yahweh of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge.
- ⁸ Come, behold the deeds of Yahweh, who has set up objects of horror on earth.
- ⁹ He makes wars cease to the ends of the earth;
he breaks the bow and cuts the spear into pieces;
he burns up the shields.
- ¹⁰ Be quiet and know that I am God;
I will be exalted among the nations;
I will be exalted on the earth.
- ¹¹ Yahweh of hosts is with us;
the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Selah

Selah

Psalm 46 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 46 is a psalm of praise to God.

Special concepts in this chapter

God is all-powerful, controls nature, and protects his people. (See: peopleofgod)

Links:

Psalms 46:1

Psalm 46:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah; set to Alamoth. A song

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship."

A psalm of the sons of Korah

"This is a psalm that the sons of Korah wrote"
set to Alamoth

This may refer to a style of music.

God is our refuge and strength

The writer speaks of God as if he were a place where people can go for safety. Alternate translation: "God gives us safety and strength"

Psalms 46:2

the mountains should be shaken into the heart of the seas

The writer speaks of the deepest part of the sea as if it were the sea's heart. Here he describes an earthquake that causes the mountains to crumble and fall into the sea. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "the mountains should shake so violently that they fall into the depths of the sea"

Psalms 46:3

though its waters roar and rage

"though the waters of the sea roar and rage." The words "roar" and "rage" describe the violent movements of the sea during a strong storm.

mountains tremble with their swelling

The phrase "their swelling" refers to the waters of the sea as they rise and crash against the mountains. Alternate translation: "the swelling waters cause the mountains to tremble"

Psalms 46:4

There is a river whose streams make the city of God happy

The imagery of a running river symbolizes peace and prosperity for the city of God.

make the city of God happy

The phrase "the city of God" refers to Jerusalem, and represents the people who live in that city. Alternate translation: "make the people who live in Jerusalem happy"

the holy place where the Most High dwells

This phrase describes "the city of God." Alternate translation: "the holy place where the Most High lives" in the middle of her; she will not be moved ... help her

Psalms 46:5

The words "her" and "she" refer to "the city of God."

she will not be moved

Here, the word "moved" is the same word translated as "shaken" in [Psalms v. 2]

Psalms 46:6

The nations raged

Here, the word "raged" is the same word that the writer used in [Psalms v. 3]

the kingdoms were shaken

Here, the word "shaken" is the same word that the writer used in [Psalms v. 2]

he lifted up his voice

"God lifted up his voice." The writer speaks of the "voice" as an object that a person can pick up and raise into the air. This means that the voice becomes louder. Alternate translation: "God shouted"

the earth melted

The writer speaks of the earth as an object, such as ice, that can melt. Here "the earth" represents mankind, and to melt represents fear. Alternate translation: "the people of the earth tremble with fear"

Psalms 46:7

the God of Jacob is our refuge

The writer speaks of God as if he were a place where people can go for safety. Alternate translation: "the God of Jacob gives us safety"

the God of Jacob

Possible meanings are 1) "the God whom Jacob worshiped" or 2) "Jacob" is a metonym for the nation of Israel and means "the God of Israel."

Psalms 46:8

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 46:9

He makes wars cease

"He makes nations stop fighting wars"

to the ends of the earth

This is an idiom that refers to everywhere in the word.

Alternate translation: "everywhere in the world"

he breaks the bow ... burns up the shields

One way in which Yahweh will make all wars to cease is by destroying the weapons that the armies use to fight one another.

shields

Some versions understand this Hebrew word as "chariots."

Psalms 46:10

Be quiet and know that I am God

Here, God begins to speak.

Be quiet

In this context, these words are likely a command to the nations to stop their wars. Alternate translation: "Stop fighting"

know that I am God

Here the word "know" means to understand and to confess that Yahweh is the true God.

I will be exalted among the nations; I will be exalted on the earth

These two phrases mean basically the same thing and emphasize that the people of every nation in the world will exalt God. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "People from every nation will exalt me; people all over the earth will exalt me"

Psalms 46:11

Yahweh of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge

The writer speaks of God as if he were a place where people can go for safety. See how you translated these lines in [Psalms 46:7]

Chapter 47

For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah.

- ¹ Clap your hands, all you peoples;
shout to God with the sound of celebration.

² For Yahweh Most High is terrifying;
he is a great King over all the earth.

³ He subdues peoples under us and nations under our feet.

⁴ He chooses our inheritance for us,
the pride of Jacob whom he loved.

Selah

⁵ God has gone up with a shout,
Yahweh with the sound of a ram's horn.

⁶ Sing praises to God, sing praises;
sing praises to our King, sing praises.

⁷ For God is the King over all the earth;
sing praises with understanding.

⁸ God reigns over the nations;
God sits on his holy throne.

⁹ The princes of the peoples have gathered together to the people of the God of Abraham;
for the shields of the earth belong to God;
he is greatly exalted.

Psalm 47 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 47 is a psalm of praise to God.

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's power

God is powerful over all the nations in the world.

Links:

Psalms 47:1

Psalms 47:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

Clap your hands

Clapping your hands is associated with celebration.

Alternate translation: "Clap your hands in celebration"

shout to God with the sound of celebration

"shout to God with joyful voices." Here the word "celebration" refers to the joy associated with victory in battle.

Psalms 47:2

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 47:3

He subdues peoples under us and nations under our feet

These two phrases are parallel and mean that God enabled Israel to conquer their enemies.

subdues

to conquer and place under the authority of another under us ... under our feet

The writer speaks of conquering other nations as if it were putting those nations underneath their feet.

Psalms 47:4

He chooses our inheritance for us

The writer speaks of the land of Israel as if it were an inheritance that God has given the people as a permanent possession. Alternate translation: "He chooses this land as an inheritance for us"

the pride of Jacob

Here the word "pride" is a metonym for the source of pride and represents the land that God has given to his people as an inheritance. Alternate translation: "the land in which Jacob takes pride"

Jacob whom he loved

The word "Jacob" refers to the nation of Israel.

Psalms 47:5

God has gone up with a shout

The writer speaks of God's conquering the nations as if God were a king ascending his throne, which was located in the temple. Alternate translation: "God has gone up into the temple as people shouted" or "God has ascended to his throne as people shouted"

Yahweh with the sound of a ram's horn

This phrase parallels the previous phrase. The verb may be supplied for clarity. Alternate translation: "Yahweh has gone up as people blew rams' horns"

Psalms 47:6

Sing praises to God, sing praises; sing praises to our King, sing praises

The phrase "sing praises" is repeated for emphasis. You may omit the repetition if it is awkward in your language. Alternate translation: "Sing, sing praises to God; sing, sing praises to our King"

Psalms 47:7

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 47:8

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 47:9

The princes of the peoples

"The rulers of all the nations"

gathered together to the people

Possible meanings are that the rulers of the nations 1)

"gather in front of the people" or 2) "gathered together with the people" so that all may worship God as king.

the shields of the earth belong to God

Possible meanings are that "shields" 1) refers to instruments of war. Alternate translation: "God has more power than the weapons of all the kings on the earth" or 2) refers to the rulers of the nations who are spoken of as shields who protect their nations. Alternate translation: "the kings of the earth are subject to God"

Chapter 48

A song; a psalm of the sons of Korah.

¹ Great is Yahweh and greatly to be praised,
in the city of our God on his holy mountain.

² Beautiful in elevation,
the joy of the whole earth,
is Mount Zion, on the sides of the north,
the city of the great King.

³ God has made himself known in her palaces as a refuge.

⁴ For, see, the kings assembled themselves;
they passed by together.

⁵ They saw it, then they were amazed;
they were dismayed, and they hurried away.

⁶ Trembling took hold of them there,
pain as when a woman is in labor.

⁷ With the east wind
you break the ships of Tarshish.

⁸ As we have heard,
so have we seen

in the city of Yahweh of hosts,
 in the city of our God;
 God will establish it forever.

Selah

⁹ We have thought about your covenant faithfulness, God, in the middle of your temple.

¹⁰ As your name is, God,
 so is your praise to the ends of the earth;
 your right hand is full of righteousness.

¹¹ Let Mount Zion be glad,
 let the daughters of Judah rejoice
 because of your righteous decrees.

¹² Walk around Mount Zion, go round about her;
 count her towers,

¹³ notice well her walls, and look at her palaces
 so that you may tell it to the next generation.

¹⁴ For this God is our God forever and ever;
 he will be our guide to death.

Psalm 48 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 48 is a psalm of praise for Jerusalem.

Special concepts in this chapter

Jerusalem

Jerusalem has mighty defenses. Foreign nations will be amazed. It is something to remember and testify about. (See: testimony)

It is helpful to know that "Mount Zion" is often used to refer to the city of Jerusalem.

Links:

Psalms 48:1

Psalms 48:1

General Information:

This psalm is a song about Jerusalem being God's dwelling place. Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A song; a psalm of the sons of Korah

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

greatly to be praised

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"people are to praise him greatly"

the city of our God on his holy mountain

This is a reference to Jerusalem, which was built on Mount Zion.

the city of our God

Possible meanings are 1) "the city where our God lives" or 2) "the city that belongs to our God"

Psalms 48:2

Beautiful in elevation

"Beautiful and high." The word "elevation" refers to how high mount Zion is.

the joy of the whole earth, is Mount Zion

Here the word "earth" refers to everyone living on the earth. The word "joy" may be translated as a verb. Alternate translation: "Mount Zion gives joy to everyone on earth" or "everyone on earth rejoices because of Mount Zion"

on the sides of the north

Possible meanings are that this phrase 1) refers to the direction of the north or 2) is a proper name, Zaphon, referring to a mountain in the north.

Psalms 48:3

God has made himself known in her palaces as a refuge

The writer speaks of God as if he were a place where people can go for safety. Alternate translation: "God has made himself known as one who gives safety to the people in Mount Zion's palaces"

Psalms 48:4

see

The word "see" here alerts us to pay attention to the surprising information that follows.

assembled themselves

Here the kings represent their armies. Alternate translation: "assembled their armies"

they passed by together

"together they passed by Jerusalem"

Psalms 48:5

They saw it

"They saw Jerusalem"

dismayed

greatly troubled

Psalms 48:6

Trembling took hold of them there

The writer speaks of the kings' fear as if it were a person who caused the kings and their armies to tremble.

Alternate translation: "There they trembled with fear"

pain as when a woman is in labor

The writer speaks of the kings' fear as if it were the pain that a woman experiences in childbirth and speaks of that pain as if it were a person. The verb may be supplied from the previous clause. Alternate translation: "pain took hold of them, as when a woman is in labor" or "they became afraid, like a woman is afraid of experiencing labor pains"

Psalms 48:7

With the east wind you break the ships of Tarshish

Possible meanings are 1) this is a metaphor in which the author describes the kings being afraid as if they were ships that shake because God destroys them with a strong wind. Alternate translation: "They shook with fear, as the ships of Tarshish shake when you break them with the east wind" or 2) this is an apostrophe in which the author describes God's great power.

the east wind

Possible meanings are 1) "a wind blowing from the east" or 2) "a strong wind."

the ships of Tarshish

Possible meanings are that this refers to 1) ships that sail to or are built in the city of Tarshish or 2) any large ocean-going ship.

Psalms 48:8

As we have heard

It is implied that what they have heard is the great things that God has done in the past. Alternate translation: "As we have heard about the great things that God has done"

so have we seen

This means that they have seen the proof that the things that they have heard are true. Alternate translation: "so we have seen God do great things now" in the city of Yahweh of hosts, in the city of our God

Both of these phrases refer to Jerusalem. Alternate translation: "in the city of our God, Yahweh of hosts" establish it

"make it secure." Here the word "establish means to preserve and make something secure.

Psalms 48:9

your covenant faithfulness

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "how faithful you are to your covenant" or "how faithful you are to us because of your covenant"

in the middle of your temple

"as we are in your temple"

Psalms 48:10

As your name is ... so is your praise to the ends of the earth

Here the word "name" represents God's character and reputation. The two phrases compare the greatness of God's reputation with how greatly people praise him. Alternate translation: "Your name is very great ... and so people throughout the world praise you greatly" or "People all throughout the world have heard of you ... so people throughout the world praise you"

to the ends of the earth

This is an idiomatic expression that means everywhere in the world. See how you translated this in [Psalms 46:9]

your right hand is full of righteousness

The writer speaks of righteousness as if it were an object that God could hold in his hand. Here the word "hand" refers to God's power and authority to rule. Alternate translation: "you rule with righteousness" or "you are righteous as you rule"

Psalms 48:11

Let Mount Zion be glad

The writer speaks of Mount Zion as if it were a person who could be glad. The phrase refers to the people who live in Jerusalem. Alternate translation: "Let those who live on Mount Zion be glad"

let the daughters of Judah rejoice

The writer speaks of the towns in Judah as if they were Judah's children. The phrase refers to the people who live in those towns. Alternate translation: "let the people who live in the cities of Judah rejoice"

Psalms 48:12

Walk around Mount Zion, go round about her

These two phrases are parallel. Alternate translation: "Walk all the way around Mount Zion"

Psalms 48:13

notice well

"notice in detail"

Psalms 48:14

he will be our guide

Chapter 49

The word "guide" can be translated as a verb. Alternate translation: "he will guide us"

to death

Possible meanings are 1) "until we die" or 2) "forever."

Chapter 49

For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah.

- ¹ Hear this, all you peoples;
give ear, all you inhabitants of the world,
- ² both low and high,
rich and poor together.
- ³ My mouth will speak wisdom and the meditation of my heart will be of understanding.
- ⁴ I will incline my ear to a parable;
I will begin my parable with the harp.
- ⁵ Why should I fear the days of evil,
when iniquity surrounds me at my heels?
- ⁶ Why should I fear those who trust in their wealth and boast about the amount of their riches?
- ⁷ It is certain that no one can redeem his brother or give God a ransom for him,
- ⁸ For the redemption of one's life is costly, and no one can pay what we owe.
- ⁹ No one can live forever
so that he would not see the pit.
- ¹⁰ For he will see decay. Wise men die;
the fool and the brute alike perish and leave their wealth to others.
- ¹¹ Their inner thought is that their families will continue forever, and the places where they live, to all generations;
they call their lands after their own names.
- ¹² But man, having wealth, does not remain alive;
he is like the wild animals that perish.
- ¹³ This, their way, is their folly;
yet after them, men approve of their sayings.
- ¹⁴ Like sheep they are appointed for Sheol, and death will be their shepherd.
The upright will rule over them in the morning,
and their bodies will be consumed in Sheol,

Selah

with no place for them to live.

- ¹⁵ But God will redeem my life from the power of Sheol;
he will receive me.

Selah

- ¹⁶ Do not be afraid when one becomes rich, and the glory of his house increases.

- ¹⁷ For when he dies he will take nothing away;
his glory will not go down after him.

- ¹⁸ He blessed his soul while he lived—and men praise you when you live for yourself—

- ¹⁹ he will go to the generation of his fathers and they will never see the light again.

- ²⁰ One who has wealth but no understanding is like the animals that perish.

Psalm 49 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 49 is a wisdom psalm. (See: wise)

Special concepts in this chapter

Riches

Riches do not last forever. They cannot save a person from death, and they cannot be taken from a person at death. (See: eternity and save)

Links:

Psalms 49:1

Psalms 49:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

Hear this, all you peoples; give ear, all you inhabitants

These two phrases are parallel. Together they strengthen the command for all people to listen.

give ear

This idiomatic expression means to use one's ears to listen.

Alternate translation: "listen"

Psalms 49:2

both low and high

The writer speaks of people who are weak or insignificant in society as being low and of people who are important and powerful as being high. Together, the words "low" and "high" represent all people. Alternate translation: "both important people and unimportant people" or "people of every social class"

rich and poor together

Together the words "rich" and "poor" refer to all people, regardless of wealth. Alternate translation: "all people"

Psalms 49:3

My mouth will speak wisdom

Here the word "mouth" refers to the whole person who speaks. Alternate translation: "I will speak wise words" the meditation of my heart will be of understanding

Here the word "heart" represents the mind and thoughts.

The abstract nouns "meditation" and "understanding" can be translated as verbs. Alternate translation: "the thoughts upon which I meditate will help you to understand"

Psalms 49:4

incline my ear

The writer speaks of listening carefully to something as if it were bending one's ear towards the person who is speaking. Alternate translation: "listen carefully"

with the harp

"as I play the harp"

Psalms 49:5

Why should I fear ... heels?

The writer asks this question to emphasize that he has no reason to fear when bad things happen. Alternate translation: "I have no reason to fear ... heels."

the days of evil

"when evil things happen." Here the word "days" refers to general periods of time.

when iniquity surrounds me at my heels

Possible meanings are 1) the writer speaks of the evil desires of his enemies as if it were a predator ready to overtake him. Alternate translation: "when the iniquity of sinful men is ready to overcome me" or 2) the writer's enemies surround him as they commit their iniquity. Alternate translation: "when my enemies surround me"

Psalms 49:6

those who trust in their wealth

These people trust their wealth will keep them from having to suffer.

about the amount of their riches

a large amount of something

Psalms 49:7

It is certain that no one

"There is no way that any of them can" or Alternate translation: "No one can"

no one can redeem his brother or give God a ransom for him

Both of these phrases express that a person cannot give God enough money to be able to avoid death. Alternate translation: "no one can pay money to God so that their brother will not die"

Psalms 49:8

the redemption of one's life is costly

The word "redemption" can be translated with a verb.

Alternate translation: "it costs too much to redeem a person's life"

Psalms 49:9

so that he would not see the pit

The word "pit" here refers to the place where a person's spirit goes after the person dies. The words "not see the pit" refer to the person's dead body not decaying.

Psalms 49:10

he will see decay

The writer speaks of experiencing something as if it were seeing that thing. Alternate translation: "he will die and his body will decay"

Wise men die; the fool and the brute alike perish

The author refers to all people by referring to those who have the most and least wisdom.

brute

This means a person who is stupid or unintelligent.

Psalms 49:11

Their inner thought

"Their belief"

the places where they live, to all generations

The verb may be supplied from the previous phrase.

Alternate translation: "the places where they live will continue to all generations"

they call their lands after their own names

"they name their lands after themselves." This phrase expresses ownership. Alternate translation: "they own their own lands"

Psalms 49:12

But man, having wealth

"But man, even if he has wealth"

Psalms 49:13

This, their way, is their folly

The writer speaks of the fate of fools as if it is the destination at the end of the path on which they walk.

Alternate translation: "This is the fate of those who practice folly" yet after them

"yet after they die"

Psalms 49:14

General Information:

The author continues to describe people who believe their wealth will save them.

Like sheep

The writer compares people who will all die to a flock of sheep. Just as sheep cannot escape when the butcher decides to slaughter them, so men will not escape when it is their time to die.

they are appointed

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"God has appointed them"

death will be their shepherd

The writer speaks of men dying by personifying death as a shepherd who leads them into the grave. Alternate translation: "death will take them away as a shepherd leads away sheep to be slaughtered"

in the morning

Here the word "morning" is a metaphor that refers to a time when God will vindicate righteous people and save them from evil people.

their bodies will be consumed in Sheol

The writer speaks of Sheol, the place of the dead, as if it were a person or animal. He speaks of the decay of dead bodies as if Sheol were eating them. Alternate translation: "their bodies will decompose in the grave"

Psalms 49:15

God will redeem my life from the power of Sheol

The writer speaks of Sheol as if it were a person who has power over those who die. From the context, it is implied that this power refers to consuming the bodies of the dead.

God will redeem my life

Here the word "life" refers to the whole person. Alternate translation: "God will redeem me"

Psalms 49:16

the glory of his house increases

The word "glory" here refers to wealth or riches. Possible meanings are 1) "when he gains more wealth in his house" or 2) "when his family becomes richer."

Psalms 49:17

he will take nothing away

"he will take nothing with him to the grave"

his glory will not go down after him

The phrase "go down" refers to when the man dies.

Alternate translation: "his glory will not go along with him when he dies" or "he will not keep his reputation when he dies"

Psalms 49:18

He blessed his soul

Here the word "soul" refers to the whole person. This phrase means that he considered himself to be happy and successful because of his riches. Alternate translation: "He congratulated himself"

Psalms 49:19

he will go to the generation of his fathers

"he will go to where his fathers' generation is." This is a euphemism that means that the rich man will die and join his ancestors in the grave. Alternate translation: "he will join his ancestors in the grave"

they will never see the light again

The word "they" refers to the rich man and his ancestors.

The word "light" may refer to the sun or be a metaphor for life. Alternate translation: "they will never see the sun again" or "they will never live again"

Psalms 49:20

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Chapter 50

A psalm of Asaph.

¹ The Mighty One, God, Yahweh, has spoken and called the earth
from the rising of the sun to its setting.

² Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,
God has shone.

³ Our God comes and does not stay silent;
a fire devours before him,
and it is very stormy around him.

⁴ He calls to the heavens above and to the earth so that he may judge his people:

⁵ "Gather my faithful ones together to me,
those who have made a covenant with me by sacrifice."

⁶ The heavens will declare his righteousness, for God himself is judge.

Selah

⁷ "Hear, my people, and I will speak, Israel, and I will testify against you.
I am God, your God.

⁸ I will not reprove you for your sacrifices;
your burnt offerings are always before me.

⁹ I will take no bull out of your house, or male goats out of your folds.

¹⁰ For every animal of the forest is mine,
and the cattle on a thousand hills.

¹¹ I know all the birds of the mountains, and the wild beasts of the field are mine.

¹² If I were hungry, I would not tell you;
for the world is mine, and everything in it.

¹³ Will I eat the flesh of bulls or drink the blood of goats?

- ¹⁴ Offer to God the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and pay your vows to the Most High.
- ¹⁵ Call on me in the day of trouble;
I will rescue you, and you will glorify me."
- ¹⁶ But to the wicked God says,
"What have you to do with declaring my statutes, that you have taken my covenant in your mouth,
- ¹⁷ since you hate instruction and throw my words away?
- ¹⁸ When you see a thief, you agree with him;
you participate with those who commit adultery.
- ¹⁹ You give your mouth to evil,
and your tongue expresses deceit.
- ²⁰ You sit and speak against your brother;
you slander your own mother's son.
- ²¹ You have done these things, but I have kept silent,
so you thought that I was someone just like yourself.
But I will reprove you and bring up, right before your eyes, all the things you have done.
- ²² Give this careful consideration, you who forget God, otherwise I will tear you to pieces, and there will be no one to come to help you!
- ²³ The one who offers a sacrifice of thanksgiving praises me,
and to anyone who plans his path in the right way
I will show God's salvation."

Psalm 50 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 50 is a wisdom psalm. It tells what pleases God. (See: wise)

Special concepts in this chapter

Sacrifices

God does not need animal sacrifices; he does not eat meat or drink blood. The world and everything in it belong to God. He wants people to be thankful and to depend on him. God rejects evil people who reject his covenant. (See: blood and evil)

Links:

Psalms 50:1

Psalms 50:1

General Information:

This psalm is a song that teaches people. Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of Asaph

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

The Mighty One, God, Yahweh

The author uses three different names to speak of God. called the earth

Here the word "earth" refers to the people who live on the earth. Alternate translation: "called all people"

from the rising of the sun to its setting

This phrase refers to the directions east, where the sun rises, and west, where the sun sets. The writer uses these two extremes to represent everywhere on earth. Alternate translation: "everywhere on earth"

Psalms 50:2

Zion, the perfection of beauty

Possible meanings are 1) "Zion, whose beauty is perfect" or 2) "Zion, the most beautiful city."

God has shone

The writer speaks of God as if he were a light that shines. This refers to God causing people to know about his glory. Alternate translation: "God's glory shines like a light"

Psalms 50:3

does not stay silent

The writer uses this negative statement to emphasize the positive. Alternate translation: "speaks so that everyone can hear him"

a fire devours before him

The writer speaks of a fire burning things as if it were eating them. Alternate translation: "a fire burns in front of him"

it is very stormy around him

"there is a great storm around him"

Psalms 50:4

He calls to the heavens above and to the earth

Possible meanings are 1) God is calling on all who live in heaven and on earth to be witnesses as he judges his people or 2) God is speaking to heaven and earth as if they are people, and he is calling them to be witnesses as he judges his people.

Psalms 50:5

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 50:6

The heavens will declare

Possible meanings are 1) the writer uses the word "heavens" to refer to the angels who live there or 2) the writer speaks of "the heavens" as if they are a person who testifies about God's righteousness.

Psalms 50:7

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 50:8

I will not reprove you for your sacrifices

"I will reprove you, but not for your sacrifices." God explains that their sacrifices are not the reason that he is reprovng them.

reprove

tell someone he is guilty of doing wrong

your burnt offerings are always before me

This explains why God is not rebuking them for their sacrifices. The phrase "are always before me" refers to being in God's presence and means that his people are always sacrificing their burnt offerings to him. Alternate translation: "you are always sacrificing burnt offerings to me"

Psalms 50:9

folds

areas surrounded by walls in which sheep and goats are kept

Psalms 50:10

the cattle on a thousand hills

The phrase "on a thousand hills" does not represent the total number of cattle that God owns. The number is an exaggeration that emphasizes that God owns all of the cattle in the world. The verb may be supplied from the previous phrase. Alternate translation: "all the cattle in the world are mine"

thousand hills

"1,000 hills"

Psalms 50:11

I know all the birds

Here the word "know" implies ownership. Alternate translation: "I own all the birds"

Psalms 50:12

If I were hungry

This describes something that could not happen, since God does not get hungry.

Psalms 50:13

Will I eat the flesh of bulls or drink the blood of goats?

God asks this rhetorical question to emphasize that he does not do these things and so has no need for their sacrifices.

Alternate translation: "I do not eat the flesh of bulls or drink the blood of goats."

Psalms 50:14

Offer to God

Here God refers to himself. Alternate translation: "Offer to me" pay your vows to the Most High

The writer speaks of "vows" as if they are currency which a person pays to God. Alternate translation: "fulfill your vows to the Most High" or "do what you have promised the Most High to do"

Psalms 50:15

in the day of trouble

Here the word "day" refers to any period of time. Alternate translation: "whenever you have troubles"

Psalms 50:16

But to the wicked God says

Here God is still speaking and speaks of himself in the third person. Alternate translation: "But to the wicked I say" to the wicked

The word "wicked" refers to wicked people in general.

Alternate translation: "to wicked people" have taken my covenant in your mouth

God speaks of wicked people reciting the words of his covenant as if they are putting the covenant in their mouth.

Chapter 51

Alternate translation: "talk about my covenant"

Psalms 50:17

since you hate instruction and throw my words away

This is the end of the rhetorical question begun with the words "What have you to do"

throw my words away

God speaks of the wicked people rejecting what he says as if they were throwing away trash. Alternate translation:

"reject what I say"

Psalms 50:18

you agree with him

Possible meanings are 1) that they approve of the thief's actions. Alternate translation: "you approve of him" or 2) that they join the thief in their actions. Alternate translation: "you join him"

Psalms 50:19

You give your mouth to evil

God speaks of a person speaking evil things as if that person's mouth is a messenger whom the person sends to do evil things. Alternate translation: "You are always saying evil things"

your tongue expresses deceit

The word "tongue" represents the person who is speaking.

Alternate translation: "you are always telling lies"

Psalms 50:20

You sit and speak against your brother; you slander your own mother's son

These two phrases have the same meaning but use different words. God accuses them of speaking falsely against members of their own family.

You sit and speak

To "sit and speak" against someone implies that this person deliberately thinks of bad things to say about someone.

Alternate translation: "You always think of ways to speak"

Psalms 50:21

you thought that I was someone just like yourself

Since God had kept silent and not yet rebuked the wicked people for their actions, they thought that God approved of what they did. Alternate translation: "you thought that I was someone who acts just like you do"

reprove

tell someone he is guilty of doing wrong

bring up ... all the things you have done

God speaks of listing all of the evil things that they have done. Alternate translation: "list ... all the things you have done"

right before your eyes

Here, to be "before your eyes" means that it is in a place where they can see. This means that they will not be able to deny the charges that God brings against them. Alternate translation: "right in front of you" or "so that you can not deny them"

Psalms 50:22

you who forget God

God speaks of the wicked rejecting him as if they have forgotten him. He speaks of himself in the third person.

Alternate translation: "you who reject me"

I will tear you to pieces

God speaks of destroying the wicked as if he were a lion eating its prey. Alternate translation: "I will destroy you"

Psalms 50:23

plans his path in the right way

God speaks of a the way a person lives as if it were a path that the person travels. Alternate translation: "lives his life the right way"

I will show God's salvation

The abstract noun "salvation" can be stated as "save." God refers to himself in the third person. Alternate translation: "I will save him"

Chapter 51

For the chief musician. A psalm of David; when Nathan the prophet came to him after he had gone into Bathsheba.

¹ Have mercy on me, God,
because of your covenant faithfulness;
for the sake of the multitude of your merciful actions,
blot out my transgressions.

² Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.

³ For I know my transgressions, and my sin is always before me.

⁴ Against you, you only, I have sinned and done what is evil in your sight;
you are justified when you speak;
you are blameless when you judge.

⁵ See, I was born in iniquity;
as soon as my mother conceived me, I was in sin.

- ⁶ See, you desire trustworthiness in my inner self;
and you teach me wisdom in the secret place within.
- ⁷ Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean;
wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
- ⁸ Make me hear joy and gladness
so that the bones that you have broken may rejoice.
- ⁹ Hide your face from my sins and blot out all my iniquities.
- ¹⁰ Create in me a clean heart, God,
and renew a right spirit within me.
- ¹¹ Do not drive me away from your presence, and do not take your holy Spirit from me.
- ¹² Restore to me the joy of your salvation, and sustain me with a willing spirit.
- ¹³ Then will I teach transgressors your ways, and sinners will be converted to you.
- ¹⁴ Forgive me for shedding blood,
God of my salvation,
and I will shout for the joy of your righteousness.
- ¹⁵ Lord, open my lips,
and my mouth will express your praise.
- ¹⁶ For you do not delight in sacrifice, or I would give it;
you have no pleasure in burnt offerings.
- ¹⁷ The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit.
You, God, will not despise a broken and a contrite heart.
- ¹⁸ Do good in your good pleasure to Zion;
rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.
- ¹⁹ Then will you delight in the sacrifices of righteousness, in burnt offerings and whole burnt offerings;
then our people will offer bulls on your altar.

Psalm 51 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 51 is a psalm of repentance from sin. (See: repent and sin)

Special concepts in this chapter

Repentance

The psalmist is truly sorry for having sinned. He repented and God forgave his sins. God wants true sorrow for having sinned, not sacrifices. (See: true and forgive)

Author of Psalm

Scholars are divided over whether this psalm was authored by King David as is mentioned by the superscription. If nothing else, we can assume the last two verses were added later since Jerusalem is intact with well-built walls during King David's reign.

Links:

Psalms 51:1

Psalms 51:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry. In this psalm David asks God for forgiveness.

For the chief musician. A psalm of David; when Nathan the prophet came to him after he had gone into Bathsheba

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship."

A psalm of David

Possible meanings are 1) David wrote the psalm or 2) the psalm is about David or 3) the psalm is in the style of David's psalms.

when Nathan the prophet came to him

It can be stated clearly what Nathan did when he came to David, because this psalm is in response to that. Alternate translation: "when Nathan the prophet came to David and rebuked him"

because of your covenant faithfulness

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "because you are faithful to your covenant"

for the sake of the multitude of your merciful actions

"because you do so many merciful things"

blot out my transgressions

Forgiving sins is spoken of as either 1) blotting them out or 2) erasing a written record of the sins. Alternate translation: "forgive my sins like someone wiping something away" or "forget my sins like someone who erases a record of sins"

Psalms 51:2

Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity ... cleanse me from my sin
These two phrases mean the same thing.

Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity

Being acceptable to God is spoken of as being clean. God makes people acceptable by forgiving their sins. Alternate translation: "Wash away all my sin" or "Forgive all my sins so that I will be acceptable to you" thoroughly completely, totally cleanse me from my sin

Being acceptable to God is spoken of as being clean. God makes people acceptable by forgiving their sins. Alternate translation: "Make me clean from my sin" or "forgive me for my sin so that I will be clean"

Psalms 51:3

my sin is always before me

Not being able to forget his sins is spoken of as if they were always in front of him where he can see them. Alternate translation: "I am always aware of my sins" or "I cannot forget my sins"

Psalms 51:4

what is evil in your sight

The word "sight" here represents judgment. Yahweh saw and did not approve of David's actions. Alternate translation: "what you judge to be evil" or "what you consider to be evil"

Psalms 51:5

I was born in iniquity

Being a sinner is spoken of as being in iniquity. Alternate translation: "I was already a sinner when I was born"

as soon as my mother conceived me, I was in sin

Being a sinner is spoken of as being in sin. Alternate translation: "even when my mother conceived me, I was a sinner"

Psalms 51:6

See, you desire trustworthiness

The use of "See" here draw our attention to the contrast between this sentence and "See, I was born in iniquity" (verse 5). "Truly I was born in iniquity ... But you desire trustworthiness" you desire trustworthiness in my inner self

The "inner self" represents either 1) the person's desires or 2) the whole person. Alternate translation: "you want me to desire trustworthiness" or "you want me to be trustworthy"

Psalms 51:7

Purify me ... I will be clean ... wash me ... I will be whiter than snow

Being acceptable to God is spoken of as being clean or white. God makes people acceptable by forgiving their sins.

Purify me with hyssop

The writer speaks of God as if God were a priest who would sprinkle water on him to make him acceptable to God.

Alternate translation: "Make me acceptable by sprinkling water on me with hyssop" or "Forgive me for my sins so that I will be acceptable to you"

hyssop

This is a plant that the priests used to sprinkle water or blood on people or things to make them ceremonially clean, that is, acceptable to God.

whiter than snow

Not having sin is spoken of as being white. Alternate translation: "very, very white"

Psalms 51:8

Chapter 52

joy and gladness

These two words mean basically the same thing and emphasize his desire to hear joyful things.

so that the bones that you have broken may rejoice

Feeling terrible sadness is spoken of as if his bones were broken. Alternate translation: "for you have caused me terrible sadness in my inner being. Let me rejoice again"
Psalms 51:9

Hide your face from my sins

Thinking about someone's sins is spoken of as seeing them.

Forgiving or refusing to think about the sins is spoken of as choosing not to see them. Alternate translation: "Do not look at my sins" or "Do not remember my sins"

blot out all my iniquities

Forgiving or refusing to think about someone's sins is spoken of as either 1) blotting them out or 2) erasing a written record of the sins. Alternate translation: 1) "forgive my sins like someone wiping something away" or "forget my sins like someone who erases a record of sins"

Psalms 51:10

Create in me a clean heart

Here the "heart" represents the feelings and desires. Being completely devoted and obedient to God is spoken of as having a clean heart. Alternate translation: "Make me completely devoted to you" or "Make me want to obey you always"

renew a right spirit within me

Here "spirit" represents the attitude and desires of a David.

Alternate translation: "make my attitude right" or "make me always want to do what is right"

Psalms 51:11

Do not drive me away from your presence

"Do not force me to go away from you." Being rejected by God is spoken of as being forced to go away from him.

Alternate translation: "Do not reject me as one of your people"

Psalms 51:12

sustain me

"hold me up" or "assist me"

Psalms 51:13

your ways

"the way you want people to live" or "what you want people to do"

transgressors ... sinners

These two words refer to the same people here.

Psalms 51:14

shedding blood

This phrase refers to killing another person.

Psalms 51:15

Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will express your praise

Here the person is represented by his "mouth." Being able to talk is spoken of as the lips being open. Here not being able to speak is a symbol of being guilty of sin and not being able to make a defense. Alternate translation: "Lord, make me able to speak, and I will praise you"

Psalms 51:16

you do not delight in sacrifice ... you have no pleasure in burnt offerings

This means that God wants something more important than these things. Alternate translation: "A sacrifice is not enough to please you ... you want something more than burn offerings"

Psalms 51:17

The sacrifices of God

"The sacrifices that please God"

a broken spirit

A broken spirit represents a humble attitude. Alternate translation: "humility" or "a person who becomes humble"

a broken and a contrite heart

Being humble and sorry for one's sin is spoken of as having a broken and contrite heart. The heart represents the emotions and will. Alternate translation: "sorrow and humility" or "a person who is sorry for his sin and humble"

Psalms 51:18

rebuild the walls of Jerusalem

The walls of a city protect the city and the people in it.

Possible meanings are 1) "enable us to rebuild the walls of Jerusalem" or 2) "protect Jerusalem and make it strong"

Psalms 51:19

our people will offer bulls on your altar

A bull is an adult male cow. Bulls were often used as sacrificial animals, according to God's instruction.

Chapter 52

For the chief musician. A maschil of David; when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said to him, "David has come to the house of Ahimelek."

¹ Why are you proud of making trouble, you mighty man?
The covenant faithfulness of God comes every day.

² Your tongue plans destruction like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

³ You love evil more than good and lying rather than speaking righteousness.

Selah

⁴ You love all words that devour others,

you deceitful tongue.

- ⁵ God will surely destroy you forever;
 he will take you up and pluck you out of your tent and root you out of the land of the living.

Selah

- ⁶ The righteous will also see it and fear;
 they will laugh at him and say,

- ⁷ "See, this is a man who did not make God his refuge,
 but he trusted in the abundance of his wealth,
 and he was strong when he destroyed others."

- ⁸ But as for me, I am like a green olive tree in the house of God;
 I will trust in the covenant faithfulness of God forever and ever.

- ⁹ I will give you thanks forever for what you have done.
 I will wait for your name, because it is good,
 in the presence of your faithful ones.

Psalm 52 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 52 is a wisdom psalm. It teaches that God will destroy evil people. (See: wise and evil)

Special concepts in this chapter

Evil people

Although the evil people feel secure with their wealth and evil deeds, God will destroy them. But people who do good are secure because God protects them. (See: works)

Superscription

This psalm is called "a Maschil of David." The word "Maschil" in the original language has caused scholars to have various opinions about its meaning. Some say it means to instruct, while others say that the word is referring to the skill used in creating the psalm. Still others think it means that meditation should be used in reading this psalm.

Links:

Psalms 52:1

Psalms 52:1

General Information:

In this psalm the word "you" refers to Doeg. When Saul wanted to kill David, Doeg told Saul where David was so that Saul could find him. Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician. A maschil of David; when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said to him, "David has come to the house of Ahimelek."

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship."

A maschil

This may refer to a style of music. See how you translated this in Psalms 32:1.

Doeg ... Ahimelek

These are the names of men.

Why are you proud of making trouble, you mighty man?

This question shows how angry David was at the one who made trouble. Alternate translation: "You should not be so proud of making trouble, you mighty man."

you mighty man

David may have been using irony when he called Doeg this. Alternate translation: "you, who think you are so mighty"

The covenant faithfulness of God comes every day

David speaks of God's covenant faithfulness as if it were something that could come. David was probably referring to God's promises to protect his people from wicked people. The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated as an adjective or an adverb. Alternate translation: "Every day, God is faithful to keep the promises of his covenant" or "Every day, God faithfully protects his people from wicked people like you"

Psalms 52:2

a sharp razor

a sharp blade

Your tongue plans destruction like a sharp razor, working deceitfully
Here the tongue is compared to a sharp razor which is capable of causing great harm. Alternate translation: "Your tongue harms people like a sharp razor does, when you plan destruction and deceive others"

Your tongue

Here "your tongue" refers to the person David is speaking to. Alternate translation: "You"

Psalms 52:3

Connecting Statement:

David continues speaking to the "mighty man" of Psalms 5:1 lying rather than speaking righteousness

"you love lying more than speaking what is right"

Psalms 52:4

words that devour others

Here words that harm others are spoken of as if they were animals that devour people. Alternate translation: "words that harm others"

you deceitful tongue

This refers to the person the author is speaking to.

Alternate translation: "you speaker of deceit" or "you liar"

Psalms 52:5

God will surely destroy you

The word translated "surely" shows that the writer has finished describing how evil the "mighty man" Psalm 52:1 is and is now describing what God will do and that it will surely happen.

take you up ... pluck you ... root you

All three of these phrases are different ways of saying "remove you"

root you out of the land of the living

Being alive on earth is spoken of as if people are plants with roots in the ground. God killing someone is spoken of as digging up the plant's roots and taking it out of the ground. Alternate translation: "he will take you out the land of the living" or "He will kill you so that you will no longer be on earth with living people"

Selah

This may be a musical term that tells people how to sing or play their instruments here. Some translations write the Hebrew word, and some translations do not include it.

Psalms 52:6

The righteous will also see it and fear

"The righteous will also see God remove him and they will fear"

Psalms 52:7

See

"Look" or "Listen" or "Pay attention to what I am about to tell you"

did not make God his refuge

Here "refuge" represents a protector. Alternate translation:

"did not make God his protector" or "did not ask God to protect him"

Psalms 52:8

a green olive tree

Green olive trees are strong and secure. They do not fall over.

I am like a green olive tree in the house of God

Being safe and secure is spoken of as being like a strong tree. Alternate translation: "I am strong in God's house, like a green olive tree" or "Because I worship in God's house, I am secure like a green olive tree" in the house of God

This refers to God's temple.

I will trust in the covenant faithfulness of God forever and ever

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "I will trust in God forever and ever because he is faithful to his covenant"

Psalms 52:9

I will wait for your name, because it is good

God's name represents God himself. Waiting for God represents waiting for God to help him. Alternate translation: "I will wait for you, because you are good" or "I will wait for you to help me, because you are good"

Chapter 53

For the chief musician; set to Mahalath. A maschil of David.

¹ A fool says in his heart,

"There is no God."

They are corrupt and have done abominable iniquity;
there is no one who does good.

² God looks down from heaven on the children of mankind

to see if there are any who understand,
who seek after him.

³ They have all turned away. Together they have become corrupt.

There is not one who does good,

not even one.

⁴ Do those who behave wickedly have no understanding—those who devour my people as if they were eating bread and they do not call on God?

⁵ There they are, in great fear, where there was nothing to cause them to be afraid;
for God will scatter the bones of those who encamp against you;
you put them to shame,
for God has rejected them.

⁶ Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come from Zion!
When God brings back his people from the captivity,
then Jacob will rejoice and Israel will be glad!

Psalm 53 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 53 is a wisdom psalm. It warns people who do evil that God will judge them. (See: wise and evil and judge)

Special concepts in this chapter

God's watching mankind

God looks down from heaven and sees that all humans are evil and corrupt. (See: heaven)

Superscription

This psalm is called "a Maschil of David." The word "Maschil" in the original language has caused scholars to have various opinions about its meaning. Some say it means to instruct, while others say that the word is referring to the skill used in creating the psalm. Still others think it means that meditation should be used in reading this psalm.

Links:

Psalms 53:1

Psalms 53:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician; set to Mahalath. A maschil of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

set to Mahalath

This may refer to a style of music.

A maschil

This may refer to a style of music. See how you translated this in Psalms 32:1.

Psalms 53:2

the children of mankind

This refers to all people.

who seek after him

Seeking God as a person would look for someone is spoken of as "seeking" God. Possible meanings are 1) wanting to know God. Alternate translation: "who want to know him" or 2) worshipping God. Alternate translation: "who worship him"

Psalms 53:3

They have all turned away

Rejecting God and what is right is spoken of as turning away. Alternate translation: "They have all turned away from doing what is right" or "They have all rejected God" Psalms 53:4

Do those who behave wickedly have no understanding—those ... God?

This question is used to show the shock that the writer feels because the people are so sinful. It can be written as two statements. "Those who behave wickedly act as though they do not know anything. They devour my people as if they were eating bread, and they do not call on God!"

those who devour my people as if they were eating bread

Destroying people is spoken of as devouring them. Doing it as if they were eating bread implies that they did it very easily or without feeling guilty about it. Alternate translation: "those who destroy my people as freely as if they were eating bread"

Psalms 53:5

God will scatter the bones of those who encamp against you

Scattering people's bones represents killing them and allowing their bones to remain wherever they have died and not be buried properly. The phrase "encamp against" is a metaphor that describes someone preparing to attack the reader as if he were an army getting ready to attack a city. Alternate translation: "God will completely destroy everyone who attacks you, and their bones will lie scattered on the ground"

Psalms 53:6

Oh, that the salvation of Israel would come

The word "Oh" here introduces an exclamation that expresses a hope or prayer. Alternate translation: "I hope that the salvation of Israel will come" or "I pray that the salvation of will come"

the salvation of Israel would come from Zion

The salvation represents God, the savior, whose temple is in Zion. Alternate translation: "the savior of Israel would come from Zion" or "God would come from Zion and save Israel"

When God brings back his people from the captivity

"When God saves his captive people"

Jacob will rejoice and Israel will be glad!

These two phrases have the same meaning.

Jacob

Here "Jacob" refers to the descendants of Jacob, the Israelites.

Chapter 54

For the chief musician; on stringed instruments. A maschil of David; when the Ziphites came and said to Saul, "Does David not hide himself with us?"

¹ Save me, God, by your name, and judge me in your might.

² Hear my prayer, God;
give ear to the words of my mouth.

³ For strangers have risen up against me,
and ruthless men have sought after my life;
they have not set God before them.

Selah

⁴ See, God is my helper;
the Lord is the one who upholds me.

⁵ He will repay my enemies with evil;
in your faithfulness, destroy them!

⁶ I will sacrifice to you with a freewill offering;
I will give thanks to your name, Yahweh, for it is good.

⁷ For he has rescued me from every trouble;
my eye has looked in triumph on my enemies.

Psalm 54 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 54 is a deliverance psalm. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Rescue

Evil people want to kill David; but God has rescued him in the past and he trusts God to rescue him again. (See: evil and trust)

Superscription

This psalm is called "a Maschil of David." The word "Maschil" in the original language has caused scholars to have various opinions about its meaning. Some say it means to instruct, while others say that the word is referring to the skill used in creating the psalm. Still others think it means that meditation should be used in reading this psalm.

Links:

Psalms 54:1

Psalms 54:1

General Information:

This psalm is a prayer for help. Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician; on stringed instruments. A maschil of David; when the Ziphites came and said to Saul, "Does David not hide himself with us?"

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

on stringed instruments

"people should play stringed instruments with this song"

A maschil

This may refer to a style of music. See how you translated this in Psalms 32:1

Ziphites

people from the city of Ziph in the Judean mountains, southeast of Hebron.

Save me, God, by your name

Here God's name represents his character. It may represent specifically his power or his justice. Alternate translation:

"Save me, God, by your power"

judge me in your might

Judging David here represents showing people that David is not guilty. When God uses his might to save David, people will know that God has judged him as not guilty. Alternate translation: "In your might, show people that I am not guilty" or "Show people that I am not guilty by using your power to rescue me"

Psalms 54:2

give ear to the words

Giving one's ear represents listening. Alternate translation: "listen to the words"

the words of my mouth

Here the speaker is represented by his mouth. Alternate translation: "my words" or "what I am saying to you"

Psalms 54:3

have risen up against me

Rising up against someone represents preparing to attack him or actually attacking him. Alternate translation: "have prepared to attack me" or "are attacking me"

ruthless men

"men who have no mercy"

have sought after my life

Seeking after someone's life represents trying to kill him.

Alternate translation: "have tried to kill me" or "want to kill me"

they have not set God before them

Setting God before them represents paying attention to God.

Alternate translation: "they do not pay attention to God" or "they ignore God"

Psalms 54:4

who upholds me

Defending David and keeping him safe is spoken of as upholding or supporting him. Alternate translation: "who defends me" or "who keeps me safe"

Psalms 54:5

He will repay my enemies with evil

Punishment is spoken as if it were payment. Alternate translation: "He will do the evil to my enemies that they have done to me" or "He will cause the evil that my enemies have done to me to be done to them"

in your faithfulness, destroy them

Here David changes from talking about God to talking to God. Alternate translation: "God, destroy them because you are faithful to me"

Psalms 54:6

I will give thanks to your name, Yahweh, for it is good

Yahweh's name represents him. Alternate translation: "I will give thanks to you, Yahweh, for you are good"

Psalms 54:7

my eye has looked

The eye represents the person. Alternate translation: "I have looked"

my eye has looked in triumph on my enemies

Possible meanings are 1) seeing that his enemies have been defeated. Alternate translation: "I have seen that my enemies have been defeated" or 2) defeating his enemies. Alternate translation: "I have defeated my enemies"

Chapter 55

For the chief musician; on stringed instruments. A maschil of David.

¹ Give ear to my prayer, God;
and do not hide yourself from my plea.

² Pay attention to me and answer me;
I am restless in my troubles

³ because of the voice of my enemies, because of the oppression of the wicked;
for they bring trouble on me,

they are hostile to me with wickedness and anger.

⁴ My heart trembles within me,
and the terrors of death have fallen on me.

⁵ Fear and trembling have come on me,
and horror has overwhelmed me.

⁶ I said, "Oh, if only I had wings like a dove!
Then would I fly away and be at rest.

⁷ See, then I would wander far away;
I would stay in the wilderness.

Selah

⁸ I would hurry to a shelter from the stormy wind and tempest."

⁹ Destroy, Lord, and divide their tongue;
for I see violence and strife in the city.

¹⁰ Day and night they go about on its walls;
wickedness and trouble are in the middle of it.

¹¹ Wickedness is in the middle of it;
oppression and deceit do not leave its streets.

¹² For it was not an enemy who rebuked me,
then I could have borne it;
neither was it he who hated me who raised himself up against me,
then I would have hidden myself from him.

¹³ But it was you, a man equal to myself,
my companion and my close friend.

¹⁴ We had sweet fellowship together;
we walked in the house of God with the throng.

¹⁵ Let death come deceitfully on them;
let them go down alive to Sheol,
for wickedness is where they live, right among them.

¹⁶ As for me, I will call on God, and Yahweh will save me.

¹⁷ In the evening, morning, and at noonday I complain and moan;
he will hear my voice.

¹⁸ He will safely rescue my life from the battle that was against me, for those who fought against me were many.

¹⁹ God, the one who rules from eternity, will hear them and humiliate them.

Selah

They never change,
and they do not fear God.

²⁰ My friend has raised his hands against those who were at peace with him;
he has not respected the covenant that he had.

²¹ His mouth was smooth as butter,
but his heart was hostile;
his words were softer than oil,
yet they were actually drawn swords.

²² Place your burdens on Yahweh, and he will sustain you;
he will never allow a righteous person to totter.

²³ But you, God, will bring the wicked down into the pit of destruction; men of bloodshed and deceit will not live even half as long as others, but I will trust in you.

Psalm 55 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 55 is a deliverance psalm. The psalmist is praying that God will deliver him from his enemies. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Betrayal

The author wishes he could get far away from his enemies after his best friend betrayed him. He asks God to completely destroy his enemies. He is trusting God to save him. (See: trust and save)

Superscription

This psalm is called "a Maschil of David." The word "Maschil" in the original language has caused scholars to have various opinions about its meaning. Some say it means to instruct, while others say that the word is referring to the skill used in creating the psalm. Still others think it means that meditation should be used in reading this psalm.

Links:

Psalms 55:1

Psalms 55:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician; on stringed instruments. A maschil of David
This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

on stringed instruments

"people should play stringed instruments with this song"

A maschil

This may refer to a style of music. See how you translated this in Psalms 32:1

Give ear to my prayer

Giving one's ear represents listening. Alternate translation: "Listen to my prayer" do not hide yourself from my plea

Refusing to pay attention to his plea is spoken of as hiding himself from it. Alternate translation: "do not ignore my plea"

Psalms 55:2

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 55:3

because of the voice of my enemies

Here "voice" represents what they say. Alternate translation: "because of what my enemies say"

they bring trouble on me

Causing trouble is spoken of as bringing trouble. Alternate translation: "they cause me to have great troubles" or "they do wicked things to me and so I suffer"

Psalms 55:4

My heart trembles within me

Here, "heart trembles" refers to his emotional pain and suffering. This suffering is because of fear. Alternate translation: "I am suffering because I am so afraid"

the terrors of death have fallen on me

Becoming very afraid, or terrified, is spoken of as if terror is a thing that falls on a person. Alternate translation: "I am very much afraid that I will die" or "I am terrified that I will die"

Psalms 55:5

Fear and trembling have come on me

Becoming fearful and trembling is spoken of as if fear and trembling are people who can attack a person. Alternate translation: "I have become very fearful and I tremble"

horror has overwhelmed me

Feeling horror is spoken of as if horror were a thing that can cover people. Alternate translation: "I feel terrible horror" or "I am extremely afraid"

Psalms 55:6

Oh, if only I had wings like a dove!

This exclamation expresses something the writer wishes for very much. Alternate translation: "I wish very much that I had wings like a dove"

Then would I fly away

"If I did have wings, I would fly away"

Psalms 55:7

See, then I would wander

"I would do that and more: I would wander"

Psalms 55:8

General Information:

The writer finishes telling about what he had said.

tempest

a strong storm

Psalms 55:9

Destroy, Lord

Possible meanings are "Destroy my enemies, Lord" or "Destroy my enemies."

divide their tongue

The word "tongue" here represents what the people were saying to each other, and probably refers specifically to them talking about plans to do evil. To "divide" it is to make the people unable to understand each other. Alternate translation: "confuse them when they speak to each other"

or "confuse their plans"

Psalms 55:10

they go about on its walls

"violence and strife go about on her walls"

on its walls

"along the tops of the city walls." Cities had thick walls around them to protect them from enemies. People could walk along the tops of the walls to see if any enemies were coming to the city.

wickedness and trouble are in the middle of it

Wickedness and trouble are spoken of as if they were people. This can be expressed by telling about the people who do wickedness and trouble. Alternate translation:

"people do wickedness and cause trouble in the middle of the city" or "people do sinful things and cause trouble in it"

Psalms 55:11

Wickedness is in the middle of it

Wickedness is spoken of as if it were a person. This can be expressed by telling about the people who do wicked things. Alternate translation: "People do wicked things in the middle of the city" or "people destroy things in the city"

oppression and deceit do not leave its streets

Oppression and deceit are spoken of as if they were people.

This can be expressed by telling about the people who oppress and deceive others. Alternate translation: "People oppress and deceive others in the city streets, and they do not leave" or "People are always oppressing and deceiving others in the city streets"

its streets

This may refer to the marketplaces in the city.

Psalms 55:12

I could have borne it

Tolerating or enduring a rebuke is spoken of as bearing or carrying it. Alternate translation: "I could have tolerated the rebuke" or "I would not be so sad about the rebuke" raised himself up against me

Being proud of oneself and insulting another is spoken of as raising oneself up against another. Alternate translation:

"insulted me" or "despised me"

Psalms 55:13

But it was you

The psalmist speaks as though the person who had rebuked and taunted him were there listening to him.

myself, my companion and my close friend

This can be divided and a new sentence begun. Alternate translation: "myself. You were my companion and my close friend"

Psalms 55:14

We

The word "we" refers to the psalmist and his friend.

with the throng

Possible meanings are 1) "together" or 2) "with the crowd."

Psalms 55:15

Let death come deceitfully on them

Death is spoken of as if it were a person who could deceive and kill others. Alternate translation: "Let my enemies die suddenly"

let them go down alive to Sheol

Dying suddenly is spoken of as if people were to go to Sheol

so fast that they do not even die first. Alternate translation:

"let them suddenly go to Sheol" wickedness is where they live

Wickedness is spoken of as if it were a thing that could be in a certain place. The habitual wickedness of his enemies is spoken of as if wickedness were with them or near them.

Alternate translation: "they always do wicked things where they live" right among them
 This phrase intensifies the idea of wickedness being very near them. Here wickedness is spoken of as being not only in their homes, but right where they are. Alternate translation: "They always do wicked things wherever they are" or "wherever they are"
 Psalms 55:16
 As for me
 This phrase shows that the writer has stopped talking about one thing and is now about to talk about himself. Alternate translation: "But I"
 Psalms 55:17
 moan
 the sound people and animals make when they are in pain
 he will hear my voice
 Here "voice" represents either 1) the psalmist or 2) the psalmist's complaints and moans. Alternate translation: "he will hear me" or "he will hear my moaning"
 Psalms 55:18
 my life
 Here "my life" represents the psalmist. Alternate translation: "me"
 for those who fought against me were many
 "for many people fought against me"
 Psalms 55:19
 will hear them
 "will hear my enemies" or "will hear what my enemies say."
 Some versions say "will hear me."
 humiliate them
 How God will humiliate them can be stated clearly.
 Alternate translation: "will defeat and humiliate them"
 Psalms 55:20
 has raised his hands against those Raising the hand against people represents attacking them. This may be a metaphor for saying things that put people in danger or cause them trouble. Alternate translation: "has attacked those" or "has betrayed those"
 Psalms 55:21
 His mouth
 Someone's "mouth" represents what he says. Alternate translation: "What my friend said"
 His mouth was smooth as butter Speech that is pleasant or nice to hear is spoken of as if it were smooth and easy to swallow. Alternate translation: "What he said was pleasant like smooth butter" or "He said nice things" was hostile
 "was mean" or "was hateful"
 his words

"what he said"
 his words were softer than oil
 People put oil on their skin to make it feel nice, and they put it on wounds to help them heal. Speech that is kind or helpful is spoken of as if it were soft or soothing. Alternate translation: "what he said was kind and soothing like oil" or "he said kind things" they were actually drawn swords Speech that causes people trouble is spoken of as if it were swords that wound people. Alternate translation: "what he said wounded people as drawn swords do" or "what he said caused people trouble" drawn swords
 The word "drawn" here means that the swords were pulled out of their covers and ready to be used.
 Psalms 55:22
 Place your burdens
 Here the psalmist is speaking to other godly people.
 Place your burdens on Yahweh
 Here troubles are spoken of as if they were burdens that people have to carry. Trusting God to help us when we have troubles is spoken of as putting our burdens on him so that he can carry them for us. Alternate translation: "Give Yahweh your problems" or "Trust God to help you with all your troubles like someone who trusts a stronger person to carry his load" he will sustain you Taking care of someone or helping someone when he has troubles is spoken of as supporting him. Alternate translation: "he will take care of you" or "he will help you"
 he will never allow a righteous person to totter
 A person who is about to be severely harmed by some sort of disaster is spoken of as if he is tottering or swaying and is about to fall down. Alternate translation: "he will not let a righteous person sway and fall down" or "he will not let a righteous person to be destroyed"
 Psalms 55:23
 But you, God
 The author speaks to God now.
 the pit of destruction
 This probably refers to the grave or hell.
 will bring the wicked down into the pit of destruction
 This represents causing people to die. Alternate translation: "will cause the wicked to die" or "will cause wicked people to die and go to the place where dead people are" men of bloodshed and deceit
 "people who lie and who want to kill others" or "deceitful murderers" even half as long as others
 "even half as long as other people live"

Chapter 56

For the chief musician; set to Jonath elem rehokim. A psalm of David. A michtam; when the Philistines took him in Gath.

- ¹ Be merciful to me, God,
 for men are attacking me!
 All the day long those who fight me oppress me.

- ² My enemies trample me all day long;
for there are many who arrogantly fight against me.
- ³ When I am afraid,
I will put my trust in you.
- ⁴ In God, whose word I praise—in God I have put my trust; I will not be afraid;
what can mere man do to me?
- ⁵ All the day long they twist my words;
all their thoughts are against me for evil.
- ⁶ They gather themselves together, they hide themselves,
and they mark my steps,
just as they have waited for my life.
- ⁷ Do not let them escape doing iniquity.
Bring down the peoples in your anger, God.
- ⁸ You number my wanderings and put my tears into your bottle;
are they not in your book?
- ⁹ Then my enemies will turn back on the day that I call to you;
this I know, that God is for me.
- ¹⁰ In God—whose word I praise, in Yahweh—whose word I praise,
- ¹¹ in God I trust,
I will not be afraid.
What can anyone do to me?
- ¹² The duty to fulfill my vows to you is on me, God;
I will give thank offerings to you.
- ¹³ For you have rescued my life from death;
you have kept my feet from stumbling,
so that I may walk before God
in the light of the living.

Psalm 56 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 56 is a psalm of deliverance. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Fear

Although the psalmist's enemies are trying to harm him, he is not afraid because God is protecting him.

Superscription

The word "Michtam" is used in the superscription for this psalm. There is much discussion about this word but, in the end, no one is certain what it means. It is easiest to transliterate this word into your language, or you can simply translate it as "psalm."

Links:

Psalms 56:1

Psalms 56:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician; set to Jonath elem rehokim. A psalm of David. A michtam; when the Philistines took him in Gath

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship;"

set to Jonath elem rehokim

This probably tells what musical style or tune to use when singing this psalm. Alternate translation: "Sing this psalm using the tune of 'Jonath elem rehokim'" or "Sing this using the Jonath elem rehokim style"

Jonath elem rehokim

This may mean "Dove on Distant Oak Trees." Translators may either write the meaning or copy the Hebrew words.

A psalm of David

Possible meanings are 1) David wrote the psalm or 2) the psalm is about David or 3) the psalm is in the style of David's psalms.

A michtam

The meaning of the word "michtam" is uncertain. You may use the word "psalm" instead. This can be written as: "This is a psalm that David wrote." See how you translated this in Psalms 16:1.

oppress me

"come closer and closer in order to attack me"

Psalms 56:2

My enemies trample me

The enemies' fierce attack is spoken of as if they were crushing his body by marching on it. Alternate translation: "My enemies attack me severely"

Psalms 56:3

you

The word "you" refers to God.

Psalms 56:4

what can mere man do to me?

Here a question is used to show that the psalmist is not afraid of people, because they cannot seriously harm him. This rhetorical question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "mere man can do nothing to me!" or "mere man cannot harm me badly!"

mere man

"just humans" or "people." This implies that people are not powerful, but God is powerful.

Psalms 56:5

All the day long

"All the time"

they twist my words

Repeating what someone says but changing it a little so that it means something different is spoken of as twisting their words. Alternate translation: "they say that I said things than I did not say" or "they claim that I said things, but they lie"

all their thoughts are against me for evil

"they always have evil thoughts against me" or "they always think of evil things to do to me"

Psalms 56:6

they mark my steps

Watching what a person does in order to see how to cause him trouble is spoken of as watching his steps, just as someone who wants to capture a person watches where that person walks. Alternate translation: "they watch everything I do"

just as they have waited for my life

Waiting to kill someone is spoken of as waiting for his life.

Alternate translation: "as they wait to kill me"

Psalms 56:7

Do not let them escape doing iniquity

What they might escape can be sued clearly. Alternate translation: "Do not let them escape your punishment for their iniquity" or "Do not let them escape when you punish them for the wicked things they do"

Bring down the peoples

Defeating the enemies is spoken of as bringing them down.

Alternate translation: "Defeat the peoples"

Psalms 56:8

You number my wanderings

God's concern for the psalmist is spoken of as if God counted each time that the psalmist has walked in sadness and with no place to go for comfort. Alternate translation: "You care about all the times that I have been wandering alone" put my tears into your bottle

God's concern for the psalmist is spoken of as if God saved the psalmist's tears in a bottle. The tears represent crying. Alternate translation: "you know how much I have cried and you care about me"

are they not in your book?

God's concern for the psalmist is spoken of as if he wrote the number of the psalmist's tears in his book. This question is used to remind God about how greatly he cares for the psalmist. Alternate translation: "you have written about them in your book!" or "you remember my cries!"

Psalms 56:9

will turn back

"will retreat" or "will turn and run away"

God is for me

This means that God favors him. In this context it implies that God fights against the psalmist's enemies in order to protect him. Alternate translation: "God is fighting for me"

Psalms 56:10

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 56:11

What can anyone do to me?

Here a question is used to show that the psalmist is not afraid of people, because they cannot seriously harm him. This rhetorical question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "People can do nothing to me!" or "People cannot harm me badly!"

Psalms 56:12

The duty to fulfill my vows to you is on me

Being obligated to do something is spoken of as if the duty to do something is on a person. Alternate translation: "I must fulfill my vows to you" or "I must do what I promised you I would do"

Psalms 56:13

you have kept my feet from stumbling

The feet here represent the person. Stumbling here probably represents being killed by his enemies. Alternate translation: "you have kept me from stumbling" or "you have kept me from being killed by my enemies"

so that I may walk before God

Living and being seen by God is spoken of as walking before God. Alternate translation: "so that I may live in God's presence"

in the light of the living

Here "the light of the living" probably represents God's enabling people to live. Alternate translation: "with the life that you give" or "because you enable me to live"

Chapter 57

For the chief musician; set to Al Tashheth. A psalm of David. A michtam; when he fled from Saul, in the cave.

¹ Be merciful to me, God, be merciful to me, for I take refuge in you until these troubles are over.
I stay under your wings for protection
until this destruction is over.

² I will cry to God Most High,
to God, who does all things for me.

³ He will send help from heaven and save me,
he rebukes those who hotly pursue me.

Selah

God will send me his steadfast love and his faithfulness.

⁴ My life is among lions;
I am among those who are ready to devour me.
I am among people whose teeth are spears and arrows,
and whose tongues are sharp swords.

⁵ Be exalted, God, above the heavens;
let your glory be above all the earth.

⁶ They spread out a net for my feet;
I was bowed down.
They dug a pit in front of me.
They themselves have fallen into the middle of it!

Selah

- ⁷ My heart is fixed, God, my heart is fixed;
I will sing, yes, I will sing praises.
- ⁸ Wake up, my glory!
Wake up, lute and harp!
I will wake up the dawn!
- ⁹ I will give thanks to you, Lord, among the peoples;
I will sing praises to you among the nations.
- ¹⁰ For great is your unfailing love, reaching to the heavens;
and your faithfulness to the clouds.
- ¹¹ Be exalted, God, above the heavens;
may your glory be exalted over all the earth.

Psalm 57 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 57 is a psalm of deliverance. It praises God for the many times he has delivered David. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Fear

Since God is protecting the psalmist, he has nothing to fear from his enemies.

Superscription

The word "Michtam" is used in the superscription for this psalm. There is much discussion about this word but, in the end, no one is certain what it means. It is easiest to transliterate this word into your language, or you can simply translate it as "psalm."

Links:

Psalms 57:1

Psalms 57:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician; set to Al Tashheth. A psalm of David. A michtam; when he fled from Saul, in the cave

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

set to Al Tashheth

This probably tells what musical style or tune to use when singing the psalm. Alternate translation: "sing this psalm using the tune of 'Al Tashheth'" or "sing this using the Al Tashheth style"

Al Tashheth

This means "Do Not Destroy." Translators may either write the meaning or copy the Hebrew words.

A psalm of David

Possible meanings are 1) David wrote the psalm or 2) the psalm is about David or 3) the psalm is in the style of David's psalms.

A michtam

The meaning of the word "michtam" is uncertain. You may use the word "psalm" instead. This can be written as: "This is a psalm that David wrote." See how you translated this in Psalms 16:1.

I take refuge in you

Going to Yahweh for protection is spoken of as taking refuge in him. Alternate translation: "I go to you for protection"

I stay under your wings for protection

The psalmist speaks of God as if he were a mother bird that protects its babies by huddling them under its wings.

Alternate translation: "I trust you to protect me"

until this destruction is over

The abstract noun "destruction" can be stated as "destructive." Alternate translation: "until this destructive storm is over"

Psalms 57:2

who does all things for me

This explains why he will cry out to God. It can be translated with "because." Alternate translation: "because he does all things for me"

Psalms 57:3

those who hotly pursue me

The enemies' had hotly pursued David, and their pursuit is spoken of as if they were crushing his body by marching on it. Alternate translation: "those who attack me severely"

God will send me his steadfast love and his faithfulness

God's being loving and faithful is spoken of as if he were sending his love and faithfulness. The abstract nouns "love" and "faithfulness" can be stated as "loving" and "trustworthy." Alternate translation: "God will be loving to me and trustworthy"

Psalms 57:4

My life is among lions

The psalmist speaks of his enemies as if they were lions.

Alternate translation: "I live among fierce enemies" or "Fierce enemies surround me like lions"

those who are ready to devour me

Destroying is spoken of as devouring or eating something up. Some versions understand the Hebrew text to mean "fiery beasts." Both images speak of his enemies as if they were wild beasts. Alternate translation: "those who are ready to destroy me" people whose teeth are spears and arrows

The enemies' spears and arrows are spoken of as if they were lions' teeth. The psalmist continues to speak of his enemies as if they were lions. Alternate translation: "people who kill others with spears and arrows as lions kill with their sharp teeth"

spears and arrows

Since both of these terms are weapons, if your culture knows only one, it is acceptable to use it alone.

whose tongues are sharp swords

The tongue represents what someone says, and the enemies' cruel words are spoken of as if they were swords.

Alternate translation: "whose cruel words are like sharp swords" or "who cause terrible trouble for me by what they say"

Psalms 57:5

Be exalted, God, above the heavens

The psalmist is asking God to show that he is exalted. Being exalted above the heavens represents being great.

Alternate translation: "God, show that you are exalted above the heavens" or "God, show that you are great in the heavens"

let your glory be above all the earth

The psalmist is asking God to show his glory. Alternate translation: "show your glory over all the earth"

Psalms 57:6

They spread out a net for my feet

His enemies' plans to capture him are spoken of as if they had spread out a net on the ground to trap him. Alternate translation: "It is as though my enemies have spread a net out to trap me" or "They planned to capture me like people who spread out a net to trap an animal"

They dug a pit in front of me

His enemies' plans to capture him are spoken of as if they had dug a pit for him to fall into. Alternate translation: "It is as though they dug a pit for me to fall into" or "They planned to capture me like people who dig a hole in the ground to trap an animal"

They themselves have fallen into the middle of it

The harm that came to his enemies when they tried to capture him is spoken of as if they fell into the trap that they had made for him. Alternate translation: "They themselves fell into the pit they had dug for me" or "But they themselves were hurt by what they planned to do to me"

Psalms 57:7

My heart is fixed, God, my heart is fixed

Being confident is spoken of as one's heart being firm rather than shaken or easily moved. The phrase is repeated to show that he has complete confidence in God and will not change. Alternate translation: "I am completely confident in you, God"

I will sing praises

Who he will sing to can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "I will sing praises to you, God"

Psalms 57:8

Wake up, my glory

It can be stated clearly that the purpose of waking up is to sing praises to God. Waking up may be a metaphor for starting or preparing to do something. The heart represents the psalmist or his emotions. Alternate translation: "Wake up, my honored heart, to sing praises to God" or "I will prepare my honored heart to sing praises to God" or "I am honored to wake up and sing praises to God"

Wake up, lute and harp

It can be stated clearly that the purpose of waking up is to sing praises to God. The psalmist speaks as though the lute and harp were people who could wake up to sing praises to God. Alternate translation: "Wake up, lute and harp, and sing praises to God" or "I will play the lute and harp while I sing praises to God"

I will wake up the dawn

The dawn is spoken of as if it were alive, and getting up before dawn happens is spoken of as waking it up. The purpose of getting up before dawn is to praise God.

Alternate translation: "I will get up before dawn" or "I will get up before the sun rises"

Psalms 57:9

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 57:10

For great is your unfailing love, reaching to the heavens ... your faithfulness to the clouds

These two phrases are very similar in meaning. The greatness of God's unfailing love and the greatness of his faithfulness are spoken of as if they could be measured in distance.

For great is your unfailing love, reaching to the heavens

The greatness of God's unfailing love is spoken of as if it could be measured in distance. Alternate translation: "Your unfailing love is as great as the distance from the earth to the heavens"

your faithfulness to the clouds

The words "great is your" and "reaching" are understood from the previous phrase. Alternate translation: "great is your faithfulness, reaching to the clouds" or "your faithfulness is as great as the distance from the earth to the clouds"

Psalms 57:11

Be exalted, God, above the heavens

The psalmist is asking God to show that he is exalted. Being exalted above the heavens represents being great.

Alternate translation: "God, show that you are exalted above the heavens" or "God, show that you are great in the heavens"

may your glory be exalted over all the earth

The psalmist is asking God to show his glory. Alternate translation: "show your glory over all the earth"

Chapter 58

For the chief musician; set to Al Tashheth. A psalm of David. A michtam.

¹ Do you rulers speak righteousness?

Do you judge uprightly, you people?

² No, you commit wickedness in your heart;

you distribute violence throughout the land with your hands.

³ The wicked go astray even when they are in the womb;

they go astray from birth, speaking lies.

⁴ Their poison is like a snake's poison;

they are like a deaf asp that stops up its ears,

⁵ that pays no attention to the voice of charmers, no matter how skillful they are.

⁶ Shatter their teeth in their mouths, God;

break out the great teeth of the young lions, Yahweh.

⁷ Let them melt away as water that runs off;

when they shoot their arrows, let them be as though they had no points.

⁸ Let them be like a snail that melts and passes away, like the untimely born child of a woman that never sees the sunlight.

⁹ Before your pots can feel the thorn's burning heat,

he will take them away with a whirlwind,

the green thorns and the burning thorns alike.

¹⁰ The righteous will rejoice when he sees God's vengeance;

he will wash his feet in the blood of the wicked,

¹¹ so that men will say,

"Truly, there is a reward for the righteous person;

truly there is a God who judges the earth."

Psalm 58 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 58 is a deliverance psalm. It asks God for deliverance from the unjust rulers. (See: deliverer and justice)

Special concepts in this chapter

Deliverance

Although the leaders are very evil and unfair, God can deliver his people from their oppression. (See: evil and oppress)

Superscription

The word "Michtam" is used in the superscription for this psalm. There is much discussion about this word but, in the end, no one is certain what it means. It is easiest to transliterate this word into your language, or you can simply translate it as "psalm."

Links:

Psalms 58:1

Psalms 58:1

General Information:

This psalm is a song about wicked people. Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician; set to Al Tashheth. A psalm of David. A michtam This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

set to Al Tashheth

This probably tells what musical style or tune to use when singing the psalm. See how you translated this in Psalms 57:1.

A psalm of David

Possible meanings are 1) David wrote the psalm or 2) the psalm is about David or 3) the psalm is in the style of David's psalms.

Do you rulers speak righteousness?

The author uses this question to rebuke the rulers because they do not speak righteously. Alternate translation: "You rulers do not say what is right!"

Do you judge uprightly, you people?

The author uses this question to rebuke the judges who do not judge uprightly. Alternate translation: "You people never judge people uprightly!"

Psalms 58:2

you ... your

The words "you" and "your" refer to the mighty men who are judges

No

The author answers the two questions he had just asked.

you commit wickedness in your heart

The heart refers to the people's thoughts or plans. Alternate translation: "you commit wickedness in your thoughts" or "you think about doing wicked things"

you distribute violence throughout the land with your hands

Doing violence in various places throughout the land is spoken of as distributing or spreading the violence throughout the land, as if violence were some kind of stuff or things. Alternate translation: "you yourselves do violent deeds everywhere in the land"

Psalms 58:3

The wicked go astray even when they are in the womb ... they go astray from birth

This is the same idea expressed in two different ways.

they go astray

Doing wrong things is spoken of as if people are walking on a road, and they turn off and go the wrong way. Alternate translation: "they do wrong things"

Psalms 58:4

Their poison is like a snake's poison

The wicked things people say are spoken of as if they were poison. Alternate translation: "Their wicked words cause trouble as a snake's poison harms people"

they are like a deaf asp that stops up its ears

Wicked people who do not listen to advice or rebukes are spoken of as if they were snakes that do not respond to a charmer's music. Alternate translation: "they refuse to listen like a deaf asp that stops up its ears"

a deaf asp that stops up its ears

An asp that does not respond to a charmer's music is spoken of as if it could put something in its ears so that it will not hear. Alternate translation: "an asp that does not listen"

asp

a kind of poisonous snake

Psalms 58:5

charmers

people who play or sing music in order to control snakes no matter how skillful they are

What the snake charmers were skillful at can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "no matter how skillful the charmers are at controlling snakes"

Psalms 58:6

General Information:

The author lists things that he would like God to do to wicked people.

Shatter their teeth ... break out the great teeth of the young lions

In both of these phrases, the wicked people are spoken of as if they were lions, and making them powerless to kill people is spoken of as breaking their teeth. Alternate translation: "Take away their power to kill. Make them powerless like young lions whose teeth have been broken and fallen out"

Psalms 58:7

Let them melt away as water that runs off

The wicked people are spoken of as if they were ice or water. No longer existing is spoken of as melting or draining away into the dry ground. Alternate translation: "Make them disappear like water that runs off" or "Make them vanish like ice that melts and drains into the ground" let them be as though they had no points

"let their arrows be as though they had no points"

Psalms 58:8

Let them be like a snail that melts and passes away

No longer existing is spoken of as melting and disappearing. Alternate translation: "Let the wicked vanish like a snail that melts and no longer exists"

Chapter 59

snail

small animal that the Israelites considered unclean and that looks like it is melting as it moves by sliding over slime it has produced

like the untimely born child of a woman that never sees the sunlight
Not existing is spoken of as being like a baby that is born dead. Alternate translation: "like a baby who is born too early too live and see the sunlight" or "like a baby that was born dead"

Psalms 58:9

Before your pots can feel the thorn's burning heat ... the green thorns and the burning thorns alike

The wicked are spoken of as if they were thornbush branches, and God's swift punishment of them is spoken of as if he were to quickly blow them away or sweep them away. Alternate translation: "God will destroy wicked people faster than a whirlwind can blow away thornbush branches that have been put under a cooking pot and lit with fire" your

David is speaking to God's people, so this is plural.

the thorn's burning heat ... the green thorns and the burning thorns

"the heat from the burning thorn branches ... the green thorn branches and the burning thorn branches"

Psalms 58:10

The righteous will rejoice when he sees

The phrase "the righteous" refers to righteous people in general. Alternate translation: "Righteous people will rejoice when they see"

he will wash his feet in the blood of the wicked

Getting one's feet wet by walking on blood is spoken of as washing the feet in blood. Alternate translation: "the righteous will make their feet wet in the blood of the wicked" or "the righteous will march on the blood of the wicked"

he will wash his feet in the blood of the wicked

This exaggeration expresses that a great number of wicked people will die. Alternate translation: "so many wicked people will die that when the righteous march on their blood, it will seem as if they could wash their feet in it"

Psalms 58:11

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Chapter 59

For the chief musician; set to Al Tashheth. A psalm of David. A michtam; when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

¹ Rescue me from my enemies, my God;
set me on high away from those who rise up against me.

² Keep me safe from those who behave wickedly, and save me from men of bloodshed.

³ For, see, they wait in ambush to take my life.
The powerful men gather themselves together against me,
but not because of my transgression or my sin, Yahweh.

⁴ For no guilt of mine they prepare to run at me;
awake and help me and see.

⁵ You, Yahweh God of hosts,
the God of Israel,
arise and punish all the nations;
do not be merciful to any wicked transgressors.

Selah

⁶ They return at evening, they howl like dogs and go around the city.

⁷ See, they belch out with their mouths;
swords are in their lips,
for they say, "Who hears us?"

⁸ But you, Yahweh, laugh at them;

you mock at all the nations.

⁹ God, my strength, I will pay attention to you;
you are my high tower.

¹⁰ My God will meet me with his covenant faithfulness;
God will let me see my desire on my enemies.

¹¹ Do not kill them,
or my people will forget.
Scatter them by your power and make them fall,
Lord our shield.

¹² For the sins of their mouths and the words of their lips,
let them be captured in their pride,
and for the curses and lies that they express.

¹³ Consume them in wrath, consume them so that they will be no more;
let them know that God rules in Jacob and to the ends of the earth.

Selah

¹⁴ At evening they return, howling like dogs going around the city.

¹⁵ They wander about looking for food and they growl like a dog if they are not satisfied.

¹⁶ But I will sing about your strength, and in the morning I will praise your steadfast love!
For you have been my high tower and a refuge in the day of my distress.

¹⁷ To you, my strength, I will sing praises;
for God is my high tower, the God of covenant faithfulness.

Psalm 59 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 59 is a deliverance psalm. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Protection

The author prays for God to defeat his enemies. God is his protector. Therefore, he will praise God.

Superscription

The word "Michtam" is used in the superscription for this psalm. There is much discussion about this word but, in the end, no one is certain what it means. It is easiest to transliterate this word into your language, or you can simply translate it as "psalm."

Links:

Psalms 59:1

Psalms 59:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician; set to Al Tashheth. A psalm of David. A michtam; when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

set to Al Tashheth

This probably tells what musical style or tune to use when singing the psalm. See how you translated this in Psalms 57:1.

A psalm of David

Possible meanings are 1) David wrote the psalm or 2) the psalm is about David or 3) the psalm is in the style of David's psalms.

A michtam

The meaning of the word "michtam" is uncertain. You may use the word "psalm" instead. This can be written as: "This is a psalm that David wrote." See how you translated this in Psalms 16:1.

set me on high

A high place represents a safe place where his enemies cannot reach him. Alternate translation: "put me in a safe place"

rise up against me

Rising up against someone represents attacking him.

Alternate translation: "attack me"

Psalms 59:2

men of bloodshed

"people who like to kill other people" or "murderers"

Psalms 59:3

not because of my transgression or my sin

The writer has transgressed and sinned, but not against those who "prepare to run" at him.

they wait in ambush to take my life

David's enemies are in hiding and are waiting quietly for the time when they can attack him.

Psalms 59:4

For no guilt of mine

The writer has sinned, but not against those who "prepare to run" at him.

awake

Deciding to do something and beginning to do it is spoken of as waking up. Alternate translation: "do something" or "take action" and see

What he wants God to see can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "and see what is happening to me" or "and see what they are doing to me"

Psalms 59:5

arise

Deciding to do something and beginning to do it is spoken of as getting up. Alternate translation: "do something" or "take action"

all the nations

The word "nations" here represents the people of the nations that do not honor God. Alternate translation: "the people of all the nations"

Psalms 59:6

They return at evening

The word "they" refers to the wicked transgressors.

they howl like dogs

The psalmist speaks of his enemies threatening to attack people as if they were dogs howling, growling, or barking at people. Alternate translation: "they threaten to attack people"

go around the city

Why they go around the city can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "go around the city to attack anyone they find"

Psalms 59:7

See

Here the word "See" is being used to draw attention to something. Alternate translation: "Hear"

they belch out with their mouths

Saying terrible things is spoken of as belching. These terrible things may have been insults or threats. Alternate translation: "they say terrible things" or "they shout out terrible words"

belch

burp loudly; allow air from the stomach to come out of the mouth with a loud, rude noise

swords are in their lips

The cruel things that the wicked people were saying are spoken of as if they were swords. Alternate translation: "they say cruel things that cause people trouble as much as swords destroy people"

Who hears us?

This question is used to show that they believed that God would not hear and punish them. Alternate translation: "No one can hear us!" or "Your God does not hear us!"

Psalms 59:8

laugh at them

"laugh at them scornfully" or "mock them." God would laugh at them because they are worthless and powerless.

Psalms 59:9

my strength

God's being the psalmist's strength represents God protecting him. Alternate translation: "you are my strength" or "you are my protector"

you are my high tower

A high tower is a place that people could go to for shelter from their enemies. The psalmist speaks of God protecting him as if God were a strong, safe shelter. Alternate translation: "you protect me like a high tower"

Psalms 59:10

My God will meet me with his covenant faithfulness

This phrase implies that God will come to him in order to save him. The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "My God, who is faithful to his covenant, will come to save me" or "My God will come to save me because he is faithful to his covenant"

my desire on my enemies

The abstract noun "desire" can be expressed with the verb "want." Alternate translation: "what I want to happen to my enemies"

Psalms 59:11

Scatter them

"Cause them to wander around"

our shield

God's protecting the righteous is spoken of as if God were a shield. Alternate translation: "our protector" or "the one who protects us like a shield"

Psalms 59:12

For the sins of their mouths and the words of their lips

The mouths and lips represent the things people say.

Alternate translation: "Because they sin by what they say" or "Because of the sinful things they say"

let them be captured in their pride

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "let people capture them because of their pride" that they express

"that they say"

Psalms 59:13

Consume them in wrath, consume them so that they will be no more Destroying them completely is spoken of either as burning them up or eating them. Alternate translation: "Be angry with them and destroy them completely so there will be no more of them" in Jacob

Jacob here refers to Israel. Alternate translation: "in Israel" to the ends of the earth

"to even the most distance places on earth." This represents all places on earth. Alternate translation: "everywhere on earth"

Psalms 59:14

howling like dogs

The psalmist speaks of his enemies threatening to attack people as if they were dogs howling, growling, or barking at people. Alternate translation: "threatening to attack us" or "threatening to attack us like wild dogs"

Psalms 59:15

satisfied

content, having everything they want

Psalms 59:16

you have been my high tower and a refuge

High towers and refuges are places that people can go to for shelter from their enemies. The psalmist speaks of God protecting him as if God were a strong, safe shelter.

Alternate translation: "you have protected me like a high tower and a refuge" in the day of my distress

"whenever I have had troubles"

Psalms 59:17

To you, my strength, I will sing praises

"To you, my strength" can be combined as one clause.

Alternate translation: "You are my strength, so I will sing praises to you"

my strength

God's being the psalmist's strength represents God protecting him. Alternate translation: "my protector"

for God is my high tower

High towers are places that people can go to for shelter from their enemies. The psalmist speaks of God protecting him as if God were a strong, safe shelter. Alternate translation: "you have protected me like a high tower"

the God of covenant faithfulness

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. This can be expressed in a separate sentence.

Alternate translation: "He is the God who is faithful to his covenant"

Chapter 60

For the chief musician; set to Shushan Eduth. A michtam of David, for teaching; when he fought with Aram Naharaim and with Aram Zobah, and Joab returned and killed twelve thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

¹ God, you have rejected us; you have broken through our defenses;
you have been angry; restore us again.

² You have made the land tremble; you have torn it apart;
heal its cracks, for it is shaking.

³ You have made your people see difficult things;
you have made us drink the wine of staggering.

⁴ For those who honor you,
you have set up a banner
to be displayed against those who carry the bow.

Selah

- ⁵ So that those you love may be rescued, rescue us with your right hand and answer me.
- ⁶ God has spoken in his holiness, "I will rejoice;
I will divide Shechem
and apportion out the Valley of Sukkoth.
- ⁷ Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine;
Ephraim also is my helmet;
Judah is my scepter.
- ⁸ Moab is my washbasin;
over Edom I will throw my sandal;
I will shout in triumph because of Philistia."
- ⁹ Who will bring me into the strong city?
Who will lead me to Edom?
- ¹⁰ But you, God, have you not rejected us?
You do not go into battle with our army.
- ¹¹ Give us help against the enemy,
for man's help is futile.
- ¹² We will triumph with God's help;
he will trample down our enemies.

Psalm 60 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 60 is a psalm of war.

Special concepts in this chapter

Protection

God has preserved the land of Israel, and now he will give them victory over the countries of Moab and Edom.

Links:

Psalms 60:1

Psalms 60:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician; set to Shushan Eduth. A michtam of David, for teaching; when he fought with Aram Naharaim and with Aram Zobah, and Joab returned and killed twelve thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

set to Shushan Eduth

This probably tells what tune or musical style to use when singing the psalm. Alternate translation: "sing this psalm using the tune of 'Shushan Eduth'" or "sing this using the Shushan Eduth style"

Shushan Eduth

This means "Lily of the Promise." Translators may either write the meaning or copy the Hebrew words.

A michtam

The meaning of the word "michtam" is uncertain. You may use the word "psalm" instead. This can be written as: "This is a psalm that David wrote." See how you translated this in Psalms 16:1.

Aram Naharaim ... Aram Zobah

"Aram of the two rivers ... the Aramean nation of Zobah." These are places.

Joab

This refers to Joab and the army that he led. Alternate translation: "Joab and his army"

twelve thousand Edomites

"12,000 Edomites"

you have broken through our defenses

God's allowing Israel's enemies to break through their defenses is spoken of as God himself had done it. Alternate translation: "you have allowed our enemies to break through our defenses"

Psalms 60:2

Connecting Statement:

The psalmist continues speaking to God.

You have made the land tremble; you have torn it apart

The psalmist speaks of the disaster in his country as if it were an earthquake.

heal its cracks

Making the people strong again is spoken of as repairing large cracks in the ground or walls.

Psalms 60:3

You have made your people see difficult things

Here "see" represents "experience" or "suffer."

drink the wine of staggering

Being helpless is spoken of as staggering around, barely able to stand upright. The abstract noun "staggering" can be stated as a verb. Alternate translation: "the wine that makes us stagger"

Psalms 60:4

you have set up a banner

God's guiding his people in battle is spoken of as if God were a human king or commander who had set up a banner for the army. Alternate translation: "you are like a king who sets up a banner" or "you command us in battle like a king who raises up a banner" banner

"battle flag." This is a flag that a king or commander would raise up on a pole to show that the army should gather.

to be displayed against those who carry the bow

This can be stated with an active clause. However some versions have different interpretations of this phrase.

Alternate translation: "to display against those who carry the bow"

to be displayed against those who carry the bow

The phrase "those who carry the bow" refers to the enemy soldiers in battle. Alternate translation: "to display when he takes his army into battle against your enemies"

Psalms 60:5

with your right hand

God's right hand represents his power. Alternate translation: "by your power"

answer me

Answering here represents responding to his request.

Alternate translation: "respond to my request" or "answer my prayer"

Psalms 60:6

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 60:7

Ephraim also is my helmet

God speaks of the tribe of Ephraim as if it were his army.

The helmet symbolizes equipment for war. Alternate translation: "Ephraim is like a helmet I have chosen" or "the tribe of Ephraim is my army"

helmet

a hard hat that soldiers wear to protect their heads from injury

Judah is my scepter

God chose men from the tribe of Judah to be the kings of his people, and he speaks of that tribe as if it were his scepter. Alternate translation: "the tribe of Judah is like my scepter" or "Judah is the tribe through whom I rule my people"

Psalms 60:8

Moab is my washbasin

God speaks of Moab being unimportant as if Moab were a washbasin or a lowly servant. Alternate translation: "Moab is like a bowl that I use for washing"

over Edom I will throw my sandal

God was probably speaking of taking ownership of Edom as if he were symbolically throwing his sandal onto that land to show that he owns it. However some versions have other interpretations. Alternate translation: "I take ownership of the land of Edom" or "I throw my sandal onto the land of Edom to show that it is mine"

Psalms 60:9

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 60:10

But you, God, have you not rejected us?

The psalmist uses this question to express his sadness that it seems that God has rejected them. Alternate translation: "But God, it seems like you have rejected us." or "God, you seem to have abandoned us."

You do not go into battle with our army

The psalmist speaks of God helping their army as if God were to go and fight with them. Alternate translation: "you do not help our army when we go into battle"

Psalms 60:11

is futile

"is worthless"

Psalms 60:12

will triumph

"will defeat our enemies"

he will trample down our enemies

The psalmist speaks of God helping their army defeat their enemies as if God were to trample down the enemies.

Alternate translation: "he will enable us to trample down our enemies" or "he will make us able to defeat our enemies"

Chapter 61

For the chief musician; on a stringed instrument. A psalm of David.

¹ Hear my cry, God;

attend to my prayer.

² From the ends of the earth will I call to you when my heart is faint;
lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

³ For you have been a refuge for me,
a strong tower from the enemy.

⁴ Let me live in your tabernacle forever!
Let me take refuge under the shelter of your wings.

Selah

⁵ For you, God, have heard my vows, you have given me the inheritance of those who honor your name.

⁶ You will prolong the king's life;
his years will be like many generations.

⁷ He will reign before God forever;
appoint your steadfast love and faithfulness to protect him.

⁸ I will sing praise to your name forever
so that I may perform my vows every day.²

Psalm 61 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 61 is a psalm of praise.

Special concepts in this chapter

Vow

The author has vowed to praise God every day of his life because God has blessed him. (See: vow and bless)

Links:

Psalms 61:1

Psalms 61:1

General Information:

This is a song about God's faithfulness. Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician; on a stringed instrument. A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

on a stringed instrument

"people should play a stringed instrument with this song"

Hear my cry, God; attend to my prayer

These clauses have a similar meaning. Alternate translation: "God, listen to me and answer my prayer"

Psalms 61:2

lead me to the rock that is higher than I

Here the writer speaks of God as if he were a high rock that he could climb for protection.

Psalms 61:3

you have been a refuge for me

Being a refuge is a metaphor for keeping someone safe.

Alternate translation: "You have been like a safe place for me"

a strong tower from the enemy

People sometimes hid in a strong tower from their enemies.

Being a strong tower is a metaphor for keeping someone safe from his enemy. Alternate translation: "You have been like a strong tower to keep me safe from the enemy" or

"You have protected me from my enemy like a strong tower"

Chapter 62

Psalms 61:4

take refuge under the shelter of your wings

Going to Yahweh for protection is spoken of as taking refuge in him. Here there is a second metaphor that speaks of Yahweh's protection as if he was a hen protecting her baby chicks under her wings. Alternate translation: "go to you for protection as a chick is safe under the wings of its mother"

Psalms 61:5

you have given me the inheritance

The writer speaks of God's blessings as if they were an inheritance that he has received. Alternate translation: "you have given to me the blessings"

who honor your name

Here "your name" means God himself. Alternate translation: "who honor you" or "who have an awesome respect for you"

Psalms 61:6

You will prolong ... many generations

These two clauses have similar meanings. The idea is repeated for emphasis.

You will prolong the king's life

"You will extend the king's life" or "You will cause the king's life to last a long time"

his years will be like many generations

Here "years" refers to how long the king will live. Alternate translation: "he will live for many generations"

Psalms 61:7

He will reign before God forever

Here to "reign before God" means that God will approve of what the king does and bless him for ruling with justice.

Some versions translate this as the speaker's desire: "I desire that the king reign before God forever"

appoint your steadfast love and faithfulness to protect him

The abstract nouns "love" and "faithfulness" are spoken of as if they were guards that would protect the king.

Alternate translation: "always protect him because you love him and are faithful"

Psalms 61:8

I will sing praise to your name forever

Here "name" stands for God himself. Alternate translation: "I will always sing praise to you"

my vows

These refer to the promise to offer sacrifices to God every day.

Chapter 62

For the chief musician; after the manner of Jeduthun. A psalm of David.

¹ I wait in silence for God alone;
my salvation comes from him.

² He alone is my rock and my salvation;
he is my high tower;
I will not be greatly moved.

³ How long, all of you, will you attack a man, that you may murder him,
like a leaning wall or a shaky fence?

⁴ They consult with him only to bring him down from his honorable position;
they love to tell lies;
they bless him with their mouths,
but in their hearts they curse him.

Selah

⁵ I wait in silence for God alone;
for my hope is set on him.

⁶ He alone is my rock and my salvation;
he is my high tower; I will not be moved.

⁷ With God is my salvation and my glory;
the rock of my strength and my refuge are in God.

⁸ Trust in him at all times, you people;
pour out your heart before him;
God is a refuge for us.

Selah

⁹ Surely men of low standing are vanity, and men of high standing are a lie;
they will weigh lightly in the scales;
weighed together, they are lighter than nothing.

¹⁰ Do not trust in oppression or robbery;
and do not hope uselessly in riches,
for they will bear no fruit;
do not fix your heart on them.

¹¹ God has spoken once, twice have I heard this:
power belongs to God.

¹² Also to you, Lord, belongs covenant faithfulness,
for you pay back every person for what he has done.

Psalm 62 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 62 is a psalm of deliverance. It expresses trust that God will save the psalmist from his enemies. (See: deliverer and trust and save)

Special concepts in this chapter

Trust

Although the psalmist's enemies have attacked him when he was feeling weak, he trusts in God to deliver him. God is powerful and kind.

Links:

Psalms 62:1

Psalms 62:1

General Information:

This psalm is a song about God's faithfulness. Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician; after the manner of Jeduthun. A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

Jeduthun

One of David's chief musicians had this same name. This may refer to him. See how you translated this in [Psalms 39:1]

my salvation comes from him

"he is the one who rescues me" or "he is the one who saves me"

Psalms 62:2

He alone is my rock and my salvation

The writer speaks of God's ability to protect him as if God were a rock. Alternate translation: "He is the only one who can protect and rescue me"

he is my high tower

The writer speaks of God's ability to protect him as if God were a high tower. Alternate translation: "he keeps me away from the grasp of my enemies"

I will not be greatly moved

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "nothing can ever move me"

Psalms 62:3

all of you

"my enemies" or "all my enemies"

How long ... will you attack a man ... or a shaky fence?

David uses a rhetorical question to express his frustration. No answer is expected. Alternate translation: "It seems like my enemies will never stop attacking me. I feel that I am as weak against you as a leaning wall or a broken-down fence."

attack a man

"attack me"

Psalms 62:4

They consult with him only to

"They intend to" or "They plan to"

consult with him ... bring him ... bless him ... curse him

In these verses, David is referring to himself by "him."

with their mouths

This refers to their speech or their words.

in their hearts

This refers to their thoughts.

Psalms 62:5

my hope is set on him

"for I place my hope in him"

Psalms 62:6

He alone is my rock and my salvation; he is my high tower

The writer speaks of God as if he were a rock and a high tower. Both of these metaphors show how God provides protection from one's enemies. Here "salvation" means that God rescues the writer. See how you translated this in [Psalms 62:2]

I will not be moved

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"nothing can move me"

Psalms 62:7

the rock of my strength and my refuge are in God

The writer speaks of God as if he were a rock that keeps one safe from his enemies. He also speaks of God as if he were a shelter that provides protection. Alternate translation: "God always gives me strength and protection"

Psalms 62:8

pour out your heart

This refers to telling God your inner feelings as if you were pouring out a liquid. Alternate translation: "give your deepest concerns to God"

refuge for us

The word "us" refers to David and the people he is speaking to.

Psalms 62:9

men of low standing ... men of high standing are a lie

This refers to men of all levels of wealth and importance.

The phrases "are vanity" and "are a lie" have the same meaning. One cannot confidently trust in anyone. Alternate translation: "you cannot place your trust in men, no matter how important they are"

weighed together, they are lighter than nothing

If you put all of these kinds of men together on a scale, they would have no weight. This means that they have no real value to you.

Psalms 62:10

oppression or robbery

These two words have basically the same meaning. You cannot trust in money that you get by taking it from other people.

for they will bear no fruit

The writer speaks of riches as if they were trees or vines that could bear fruit. Alternate translation: "for they will provide nothing good for you"

do not fix your heart on them

Here "fix your heart" is an idiom that means to desire something greatly. Alternate translation: "do not desire them"

Psalms 62:11

God has spoken once, twice have I heard this

This means that God has said this more than once.

power belongs to God

God being characterized by power is spoken of as if power belonged to him. The abstract noun "power" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "God is powerful"

Psalms 62:12

Also to you, Lord, belongs covenant faithfulness

God being characterized by covenant faithfulness is spoken of as if covenant faithfulness belonged to him. The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective.

Alternate translation: "You, Lord, are also faithful to your covenant"

for you pay back every person for what he has done

The writer speaks of God's rewards as if he were paying a wage for work.

Chapter 63

A psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

¹ God, you are my God!

I earnestly search for you,

my soul thirsts for you,

and my flesh longs for you,

in a dry and weary land

where there is no water.

² So I have looked on you in the sanctuary, to see your power and your glory.

³ Because your covenant faithfulness is better than life,

my lips will praise you.

⁴ So I will bless you while I live;
I will lift up my hands in your name.

⁵ It will be as if I ate a meal of marrow and fatness;
with joyful lips my mouth will praise you,

⁶ when I think about you on my bed and meditate on you in the night watches.

⁷ For you have been my help,
and in the shadow of your wings I rejoice.

⁸ I cling to you;
your right hand supports me.

⁹ But those who seek to destroy my life will go down into the lowest parts of the earth;

¹⁰ they will be given over to those whose hands use the sword, and they will become food for the jackals.

¹¹ But the king will rejoice in God;
everyone who swears by him will be proud of him,
but the mouth of those who speak lies will be stopped up.

Psalm 63 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 63 is a psalm of praise.

Special concepts in this chapter

Praise

The author praises God for who he is and for having protected him.

Links:

Psalms 63:1

Psalms 63:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

A psalm of David

Possible meanings are 1) David wrote the psalm or 2) the psalm is about David or 3) the psalm is in the style of David's psalms.

earnestly

sincerely

my soul thirsts for you, and my flesh longs for you

These two clauses have basically the same meaning and are used together to emphasize how greatly the writer desires to be with God. Alternate translation: "my whole being greatly desires to be with you"

dry and weary land

"hot, dry desert"

Psalms 63:2

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 63:3

Because your covenant faithfulness is better than life, my lips

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adverb and the abstract noun "life" can be translated with a verbal phrase. Alternate translation: "I value you being faithful to your covenant more than I value living, so my lips"

my lips will praise you

Chapter 64

Here "my lips" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "I will praise you"

Psalms 63:4

I will lift up my hands in your name

Here "in your name" means "to you." Alternate translation: "I will worship you and pray to you"

Psalms 63:5

It will be as if I ate a meal of marrow and fatness

Here the writer speaks of knowing and worshiping God as being more satisfying than eating a good meal. Alternate translation: "I will be happier than a person who eats a meal of fat and choice food"

with joyful lips my mouth will praise you

Here "with joyful lips my mouth" represents the whole person who will praise God joyfully. Alternate translation: "I will praise you joyfully"

Psalms 63:6

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 63:7

in the shadow of your wings I rejoice

The writer speaks of God as if he were a bird protecting its young under his wings. Alternate translation: "I rejoice because you protect me"

Psalms 63:8

I cling to you

"I need you" or "I depend on you"

your right hand supports me

Here, the right hand is used as a symbol of strength and power. Alternate translation: "you support me" or "you lift me up"

Psalms 63:9

will go down into the lowest parts of the earth

This means they will die and go to the place of the dead.

This can be stated clearly in the translation. Alternate translation: "will die and descend into the place of the dead" or "will die and go down into the place of the dead"

Psalms 63:10

they will be given over to those whose hands use the sword

Here "the sword" represents death in battle, and "those whose hands use the sword" refers to enemies who kill them in battle. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "God will cause them to die in battle"

they will become food for the jackals

Here "they" refers to the corpses of those who die in battle.

Alternate translation: "jackals will eat their dead bodies"

the jackals

"jackals" here are a kind of long-legged wild dog. They feed on carrion, game, and fruit.

Psalms 63:11

the king will

David is speaking about himself. This can be stated clearly in the translation. Alternate translation: "I, the king of Israel, will"

swears by him ... proud of him

The word "him" refers to "God."

but the mouth of those who speak lies will be stopped up

Here "the mouth" represents the whole person. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "but God will silence the liars" or "but God will silence those who lie"

Chapter 64

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

¹ Hear my voice, God, listen to my complaint; preserve my life from fear of my enemies.

² Hide me from the secret plotting of evildoers, from the commotion of those who behave wickedly.

³ They have sharpened their tongues like swords;
they have aimed their arrows, bitter words,

⁴ so that they may shoot from secret places at someone who is innocent;
suddenly they shoot at him and fear nothing.

⁵ They encourage themselves in an evil plan;
they consult privately together in order to set traps;
they say, "Who will see us?"

⁶ They invent injustices;
"We have finished," they say, "a careful plan."
The inner thoughts and hearts of man are deep.

- ⁷ But God will shoot them;
suddenly they will be wounded with his arrows.
- ⁸ They will be made to stumble, since their own tongues are against them;
all who see them will wag their heads.
- ⁹ All people will fear and will declare God's deeds.
They will wisely think about what he has done.
- ¹⁰ The righteous will be glad about Yahweh and will take refuge in him;
all the upright in heart will take pride in him.

Psalm 64 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 64 is a psalm of deliverance. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Plotting of enemies

The author's enemies have plotted against him but God has saved him. (See: save)

Links:

Psalms 64:1

Psalms 64:1

General Information:

This psalm is a prayer for help. Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician. A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

preserve

save

Psalms 64:2

Hide me from the secret plotting of evildoers

Here "Hide" represents protecting, and "the secret plotting of evildoers represents" represents the harm that evildoers secretly plan to do to David. Alternate translation: "Protect me from the harm that evil doers secretly plan to do to me" from the commotion

The words "hide me" are understood from the previous phrase and can be repeated here. Alternate translation: "hide me from the commotion" or "protect me from the commotion"

the commotion of those who behave wickedly

Possible meanings are that "commotion" refers to 1) a noisy disturbance. Alternate translation: "the noisy disturbance that those who behave wickedly make" or 2) a crowd that makes a noisy disturbance. Alternate translation: "the noisy crowd of those who behave wickedly"

Psalms 64:3

They have sharpened their tongues like swords

The writer speaks of his enemies' tongues as if they were as sharp as swords. Here "tongues" represents the harsh words that the enemies speak. Alternate translation: "The harsh things that they say hurt me like a sharp sword" arrows, bitter words

The writer speaks of his enemies' bitter words as if they were arrows being shot at him. Alternate translation: "bitter words which pierce me like arrows"

Psalms 64:4

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 64:5

Who will see us?

The evildoers do not expect an answer to their question because they think no one will see them. Alternate translation: "No one will see what we are doing"

Psalms 64:6

The inner thoughts and hearts of man are deep

The writer speaks of man's "inner thoughts" and "hearts of man" as if they were a deep body of water that no one can explore all the way to the bottom.

inner thoughts ... hearts of man

Both of these phrases refer to man's private or inner thoughts.

Psalms 64:7

General Information:

The writer continues to speak of the "evildoers" of Psalms 64:1.

But God will shoot them ... with his arrows

The writer speaks of God's punishment of the evildoers as if

Chapter 65

God were shooting arrows at them.

Psalms 64:8

They will be made to stumble

The writer speaks of God's causing the evildoers' plans to fail as if God were making them stumble in their paths. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "God will make them stumble" or "God will cause their plans to fail"

since their own tongues are against them

Here "tongues" represents the words that they say.

Alternate translation: "since the words that they say are against them"

Psalms 64:9

what he has done

"what God has done"

Psalms 64:10

take refuge in him

Going to Yahweh for protection is spoken of as taking refuge in him. Alternate translation: "go to him for protection"

all the upright in heart will take pride in him

Here "upright in heart" is an idiom that means godly or righteous. Alternate translation: "all the people who are godly will praise him"

Chapter 65

For the chief musician. A psalm. A song of David.

¹ For you, God in Zion, our praise waits;
our vows will be carried out to you.

² You who hear prayer,
to you all flesh will come.

³ Iniquities prevail against us;
as for our transgressions, you will forgive them.

⁴ Blessed is the man whom you choose to bring near to you so that he may live in your courts.
We will be satisfied with the goodness of your house,
your holy temple.

⁵ In righteousness you will answer us by doing awesome deeds,
God of our salvation;
you who are hope of all the ends of the earth and of those who are far across the sea.

⁶ For it is you who made the mountains firm,
you who are girded with strength.

⁷ It is you who quiet the roaring of the seas,
the roaring of their waves,
and the commotion of the peoples.

⁸ Those who live in the uttermost parts of the earth are afraid of the evidence of your deeds;
you make the east and the west rejoice.

⁹ You come to help the earth; you water it;
you greatly enrich it;
the river of God is full of water;
you provide mankind grain when you have prepared the earth.

¹⁰ You water its furrows abundantly;
you settle down the furrows' ridges;
you make them soft with rain showers;
you bless the sprouts between them.

- ¹¹ You crown the year with your goodness, and your wagon tracks overflow with abundance.
- ¹² The pastures in the wilderness drip with dew,
and the hills are girded with joy.
- ¹³ The pastures are clothed with flocks;
the valleys also are covered over with grain;
they shout for joy, and they sing.

Psalm 65 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 65 is a psalm of praise to God.

Special concepts in this chapter

God's power

God answered prayers and gave the people justice and hope. God created nature and controls it, sending rain so the grain and pastures grow well.

Links:

Psalms 65:1

Psalms 65:1

General Information:

This psalm is a song of praise. Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician. A psalm. A song of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

For you, God in Zion, our praise waits

This speaks of praise as if it were a person who could act on its own. Alternate translation: "To you alone, God in Zion, we will offer our praise"

our vows will be carried out to you

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "we will do what we have promised you that we would do"

Psalms 65:2

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 65:3

Iniquities prevail against us

David speaks about iniquity as if it were a person that is able to defeat or oppress. Alternate translation: "It is as if our own sins were defeating us"

you will forgive them

The word "them" refers to our "iniquities."

Psalms 65:4

whom you choose ... your courts

The words "you" and "your" in this verse refer to Yahweh. live in your courts

This exaggeration expresses that the man is in the temple very frequently to worship Yahweh. Alternate translation: "worship often in your courts"

We will be satisfied with the goodness of your house, your holy temple
This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"The goodness of your house, your holy temple, will satisfy us"

We will be

Here the word "we" refers to David and the people of Israel, but not to God, to whom he is speaking.

your house, your holy temple

"your house, which is your holy temple"

Psalms 65:5

In righteousness

"Because you are righteous"

you who are

"you are"

of all the ends of the earth ... across the sea

These two phrases have similar meanings. Alternate translation: "of all the people who live throughout the earth and across the sea" of all the ends of the earth

This refers to the people who live all over the earth.

Psalms 65:6

you who are girded with strength

The writer speaks of God as if he wore his strength like a belt. Alternate translation: "showing that you are very powerful"

Psalms 65:7

the roaring of the seas, the roaring of their waves

These two phrases have the same meaning and are used together to create a vivid impression on the hearer or reader. Alternate translation: "the continuous roaring of the seas"

roaring

a loud noise caused by the wind and waves

the commotion of the peoples

This is also something that God makes quiet.

commotion

loud noise

Psalms 65:8

evidence

proof or something that shows that another thing is true

you make the east and the west rejoice

The phrase "the east and the west" refers to the people who live all over the earth. Alternate translation: "you cause people everywhere to shout joyfully"

Psalms 65:9

help the earth

This refers to the soil of the earth.

you greatly enrich it

"you make the soil very good so that good things will grow in it"

the river of God is full of water

This refers to the supply of water in the sky that God sends to water the earth and fill the streams. Alternate translation: "you fill the streams with water"

Psalms 65:10

You ... you ... you ... you

The writer is speaking to Yahweh, so these words are all singular.

its furrows

"the earth's furrows"

furrows

A furrow is a long narrow trench made in the ground for planting seeds or for watering the field where grains have been planted.

ridges

edges

Psalms 65:11

You ... your

The words "You" and "your" refer to Yahweh and so are singular.

You crown the year with your goodness

Here the "year" is given the human quality of wearing a crown. Alternate translation: "You have honored the year with a good harvest" your wagon tracks overflow with abundance

Yahweh making the soil so good and fertile that it produces an abundant harvest is spoken of as if Yahweh were traveling through an empty land in a cart, leaving abundant food behind wherever he goes. Alternate translation: "everywhere you have been, you have left abundant food"

Psalms 65:12

The pastures ... drip with dew

There is so much dew in the pastures that they are said to drip with it. Alternate translation: "The pastures ... are full of dew" or "Much dew drips in the pastures of the wilderness"

the hills are girded with joy

The writer speaks of the beauty of the hills as if they were joyful people, and of joy as if it were clothing. Alternate translation: "the hills are like people wearing joy" or "the hills are like joyful people"

Psalms 65:13

The pastures are clothed with flocks

The writer speaks of the pastures as being so covered with flocks that it is like the pastures are wearing a garment.

pastures

a large field where animals feed on the grass flocks

group of animals, such as sheep and goats

they shout for joy, and they sing

The pastures, hills and valleys are so bountiful, that they seem to shout and sing for joy. Alternate translation: "they are like joyful singing people"

they shout

The word "they" refers to the pastures and valleys.

Chapter 66

For the chief musician. A song, a psalm.

¹ Shout out loud to God, all the earth;

² Sing out the glory of his name;
make his praise glorious.

³ Say to God, "How terrifying are your deeds!
By the greatness of your power
your enemies will submit to you.

⁴ All the earth will worship you and will sing to you;
they will sing praises to your name."

Selah

⁵ Come and see the works of God;
he is fearsome in his deeds toward the sons of mankind.

⁶ He turned the sea into dry land;
they went through the river on foot;
there we rejoiced in him.

⁷ He rules forever by his might;
his eyes observe the nations;
let not the rebellious exalt themselves.

Selah

⁸ Give blessing to God, you people, let the sound of his praise be heard.

⁹ He keeps us among the living, and he does not permit our feet to slip.

¹⁰ For you, God, have tested us;
you have tested us as silver is tested.

¹¹ You brought us into a net;
you laid a heavy burden on our backs.

¹² You made people ride over our heads;
we went through fire and water,
but you brought us out into a spacious place.

¹³ I will come into your house with burnt offerings;
I will pay you my vows

¹⁴ which my lips promised and my mouth spoke when I was in distress.

¹⁵ I will offer to you burnt offerings of fat animals with the sweet aroma of rams;
I will offer bulls and goats.

Selah

¹⁶ Come and listen, all you who fear God, and I will declare what he has done for my soul.

¹⁷ I cried to him with my mouth,
and he was praised with my tongue.

¹⁸ If I had seen wickedness within my heart,
the Lord would not have listened to me.

¹⁹ But God has truly heard;
he has paid attention to the voice of my prayer.

²⁰ Blessed be God,
who has not turned away my prayer
or his covenant faithfulness from me.

Psalm 66 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 66 is a psalm of praise.

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh saves

Just as God brought Israel through the wilderness, he took the author through hard times but saved him. The author will worship God by sacrificing animals to him. (See: save)

Links:

Psalms 66:1

Psalms 66:1

General Information:

This psalm is a song of praise. Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician. A song, a psalm

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

Shout out loud to God

The kind of shout can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "Shout joyfully to God" or "Shout praises to God"

all the earth

This refers to all the people who live on the earth. Alternate translation: "everyone on earth"

Psalms 66:2

Sing out the glory of his name; make his praise glorious

These phrases have similar meanings and are used together to emphasize how wonderful God is. Alternate translation: "Sing about how wonderful God's name is; sing wonderful praise about how great God is" the glory of his name

God's name here represents God himself. Alternate translation: "his glory"

Psalms 66:3

How terrifying are your deeds

The works of God cause us to be in awe and terrified because we know he is powerful and holy.

By the greatness of your power

"Because you have great power"

Psalms 66:4

All the earth will worship you

This refers to all of the people who live on the earth.

Alternate translation: "All the people on earth will worship you"

they will sing praises to your name

Here "your name" refers to God himself. Alternate translation: "they will praise and honor you"

Psalms 66:5

he ... his

These words refer to God.

he is fearsome in his deeds toward the sons of mankind

"he causes people to feel fear and wonder when they see his deeds"

the sons of mankind

"humanity"

Psalms 66:6

He ... him

These words refer to God.

He turned the sea into dry land; they went through the river on foot

This refers to the crossing of the Red Sea.

they went

The word "they" refers to God's people, the Israelites.

we rejoiced

The word "we" refers to the Israelites, their ancestors, David, and the people he is speaking to.

Psalms 66:7

He ... his

These words refer to God.

his eyes

These phrase "his eyes" refers to God himself. Alternate translation: "he sees"

let not the rebellious exalt themselves

"let not the rebellious people exalt themselves" or "let not the rebellious people be proud"

Psalms 66:8

Give blessing to God ... let the sound of his praise be heard

These two clauses have similar meanings. The idea is repeated to emphasize the importance of praising God.

Psalms 66:9

us ... our

These words refer to David and the people he is speaking to.

he does not permit our feet to slip

The writer speaks of God's protection as preventing his people from slipping as they walk or falling off a cliff.

Alternate translation: "he has not allowed us to fall into disaster"

Psalms 66:10

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 66:11

You brought us into a net

The writer speaks of God's punishment as if God had captured his people in a net.

a net

a trap for a bird or an animal

Chapter 67

you laid a heavy burden on our backs
The writer speaks of what the people have endured as having to carry heavy loads on their backs.
Psalms 66:12
You made people ride over our heads
This is a picture of being horribly defeated in battle.
Alternate translation: "It is as if our enemies defeated us in battle and then drove their chariots over our fallen bodies" went through fire and water
God tested them with natural disasters like fires and floods.
Alternate translation: "we suffered like people who suffer from fires and floods" spacious place
The writer speaks of the blessings that the people of Israel now have as if they had been brought into a wide open space where they are safe. Alternate translation: "open place where we are safe"
Psalms 66:13
General Information:
This page has intentionally been left blank.
Psalms 66:14
which my lips promised and my mouth spoke Here "lips" and "mouth" refer to the words of promise that were spoken. Alternate translation: "which I promised"
Psalms 66:15
aroma of rams
"smell of the smoke of sacrificed rams"
Psalms 66:16
I will declare what he has done for my soul
The word "soul" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "I will tell you what he has done for me"
Psalms 66:17
I cried to him with my mouth
The word "mouth" represents the whole person who cries out to God.

he was praised with my tongue
Here "tongue" represents words or speech. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "I praised him with my tongue" or "I praised him"
Psalms 66:18
seen wickedness
"looked with favor on wickedness"
would not have listened to me
Here "would not have listened" implies that God would not have answered his prayer. This can be made clear in the translation. Alternate translation: "would not have heard me call out to him" or "he would not have answered my prayer"
Psalms 66:19
But God has truly heard; he has paid attention
These two clauses have similar meanings and are used together to emphasize that God has heard his prayer.
Alternate translation: "But God has truly heard my prayer" the voice of my prayer
Here the author's prayer is given the personal quality of having a voice. Alternate translation: "my prayer"
Psalms 66:20
who has not turned away my prayer
Here "turned away" represents ignoring his prayer.
Alternate translation: "who has not ignored my prayer" or his covenant faithfulness from me
The phrase "has not turned away" is understood from the previous phrase and can be repeated here. The idea of "his covenant faithfulness" can be translated with the phrase "being faithful to his covenant." Alternate translation: "and has not turned away his covenant faithfulness from me" or "and has not stopped being faithful to his covenant with me"

Chapter 67

For the chief musician; on stringed instruments. A psalm, a song.

¹ May God be merciful to us and bless us and cause his face to shine on us

Selah

² so that your ways may be known on earth,
your salvation among all nations.

³ Let the peoples praise you, God;
let all the peoples praise you.

⁴ Oh, let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you will judge the peoples with justice and govern the nations on earth.

Selah

⁵ Let the peoples praise you, God;

let all the peoples praise you.

⁶ The earth has yielded its produce and God, our God, has blessed us.

⁷ God has blessed us,
and all the ends of the earth honor him.

Psalm 67 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 67 is a worship psalm.

Special concepts in this chapter

Praise

People all over the world should be praising God.

Links:

Psalms 67:1

Psalms 67:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician; on stringed instruments. A psalm, a song

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

on stringed instruments

"people should play stringed instruments with this song"
cause his face to shine on us

The writer speaks of Yahweh acting favorably towards them as if Yahweh's face shone a light on them. Alternate translation: "act favorably towards us"

Psalms 67:2

your ways may be known on earth

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"people may know your ways on earth"

your salvation among all nations

The writer desires for everyone to know that God has the power to save them. This can be made clear in the translation. Alternate translation: "and the people of all nations may know that you have the power to save them"

Psalms 67:3

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 67:4

let the nations ... govern the nations

Here "nations" represents the people who live in all the nations on the earth.

with justice

"fairly" or "justly"

Psalms 67:5

Let the peoples praise you ... let all the peoples praise you

The second clause intensifies the meaning of the first to emphasize how important it is to praise God.

Psalms 67:6

The earth has yielded its produce

Here the writer speaks of "the earth" as if it has chosen to provide food to the people. Alternate translation: "We have gained much food from our crops"

Psalms 67:7

all the ends of the earth honor him

This means that people everywhere should honor God because of his blessings. Alternate translation: "I desire that all people everywhere on the earth may have an awesome respect for him"

Chapter 68

For the chief musician; A psalm of David, a song.

¹ Let God arise; let his enemies be scattered;
let those also who hate him flee before him.

² As smoke is driven away, so drive them away;
as wax melts before the fire,
so let the wicked perish in the presence of God.

³ But let the righteous be glad;

let them rejoice before God;
may they rejoice with gladness.

⁴ Sing to God! Sing praises to his name!
Praise the one who rides through the plains of the Jordan River valley!
Yah is his name! Rejoice before him! ¹

⁵ A Father of the fatherless, a judge of the widows, is God in the holy place where he lives.

⁶ God puts the lonely into families;
he brings out the prisoners with singing;
but the rebellious live in a parched land.

⁷ God, when you went out before your people,
when you marched through the wilderness,

Selah

⁸ the earth trembled;
the heavens also dropped rain in God's presence, in the presence of God when he came to Sinai, in the presence of God, the God of Israel.

⁹ You, God, sent a plentiful rain;
you strengthened your inheritance when it was weary.

¹⁰ Your people lived in it;
You, God, gave from your goodness to the poor.

¹¹ The Lord gave the word, and those who announced them were a great army.

¹² Kings of armies flee, they flee,
and the women waiting at home divide the plunder:

¹³ the wings of a dove are covered with silver, its feathers with shining gold.
Yet some of you people lie down among the sheepfolds.

¹⁴ The Almighty scattered kings there, it was as when it snowed on Mount Zalmon.

¹⁵ A mighty mountain is the hill country of Bashan;
a high mountain is the hill country of Bashan.

¹⁶ Why do you look in envy, you high hill country, at the mountain which God desires for the place he will live?
Indeed, Yahweh will live in it forever.

¹⁷ The chariots of God are twenty thousand, thousands upon thousands;

the Lord is among them in the holy place, as at Sinai.

¹⁸ You have ascended on high;
you have led away captives;
you have received gifts from among men,
even from the rebellious,
so that Yah, God, might live there.²

¹⁹ Blessed be the Lord, who daily bears our burdens, the God who is our salvation.

Selah

²⁰ Our God is a God who saves;
Yahweh the Lord is the one who is able to rescue us from death.

²¹ But God will strike through the heads of his enemies, through the hairy scalps of those who walk in offenses against him.

²² The Lord said, "I will bring my enemies back from Bashan;
I will bring them back from the depths of the sea

²³ so that you may crush your enemies, dipping your foot in blood, and so that the tongues of your dogs may have their share from your enemies."

²⁴ They have seen your processions, God, the processions of my God, my King, into the holy place.

²⁵ The singers went first, the minstrels followed after,
and in the middle were the unmarried girls playing tambourines.

²⁶ Bless God in the assemblies; praise Yahweh, you who are from the fountain ³ of Israel.

²⁷ There is Benjamin, the smallest tribe, ruling them, then the leaders of Judah and their multitudes,
the leaders of Zebulun and the leaders of Naphtali.

²⁸ Your God, Israel, has decreed your strength; reveal to us your power, God, as you have revealed it in times past.

²⁹ Reveal your power to us from your temple at Jerusalem, where kings bring tribute to you.

³⁰ Rebuke the wild beasts in the reeds, against the peoples, that multitude of bulls and calves.
Humiliate them and make them bring you silver;
scatter the peoples who love to wage war.

³¹ Princes will come out of Egypt;
Cush will hurry to reach out with her hands to God.

³² Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth.

Sing praises to the Lord,

Selah

³³ to him who rides on the heaven of heavens, which exist from ancient times;
see, he lifts up his voice with power.

³⁴ Ascribe strength to God;
his majesty is over Israel,
and his strength is in the skies.

³⁵ God, you are fearsome in your holy place;
the God of Israel—he gives strength and power to his people.
Blessed be God.

¹Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

²Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

³The copies of the ancient Hebrew text can be read either as from the fountain or from the assembly .

Psalm 68 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 68 is a worship psalm.

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's greatness

God is exceedingly great. He takes care of the weak and helpless. He is glorious in his temple. (See: glory and temple)

No Common Theme

Scholars have found this psalm the most difficult to interpret. There does not appear to be any unity to this psalm.

Links:

Psalms 68:1

Psalms 68:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician; A psalm of David, a song

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

A psalm of David

Possible meanings are 1) David wrote the psalm or 2) the psalm is about David or 3) the psalm is in the style of David's psalms.

Let God arise

God beginning to act is spoke of as if he stands up.

Alternate translation: "Let God begin to act"

let his enemies be scattered

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "let God chase away his enemies"

Psalms 68:2

As smoke is driven away, so drive them away

God's enemies are spoken of as if they are smoke that is easily blown away by the wind. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Drive them away as the wind blows away smoke"

as wax melts before the fire

God's enemies are spoken of as if they are wax that is easily melted by a fire. Alternate translation: "cause them to disappear as wax melts before a fire"

the wicked

This refers to the wicked people in general.

Psalms 68:3

the righteous

This refers to the righteous people in general.

rejoice with gladness

"rejoice and be happy" or "be joyful and glad." This is probably a hendiadys. Alternate translation: "be very glad"

Psalms 68:4

to his name

This refers to God. Alternate translation: "to him"

the one who rides through the plains

God's presence among people is spoken of as if he rides on the earth in a horse or chariot.

Psalms 68:5

A Father of the fatherless

God is spoken of as a compassionate God who acts like a father to orphans. Alternate translation: "One who acts like a father to children who have no parents"

a judge of the widows

God is spoken of as a merciful God who protects widows.

Alternate translation: "a protector of widows"

Psalms 68:6

God puts the lonely into families

God is spoken of as if he places lonely people into families.

"God provides families for those who have no one to live with"

he brings out the prisoners with singing

God is spoken of as the one who leads prisoners out of their confinement. Alternate translation: "God frees prisoners and makes them sing with happiness"

the rebellious

This nominal adjective refers to rebellious people and can be translated with either an adjective or a noun. Alternate translation: "rebellious people" or "people who rebel against him"

a parched land

God's punishment of the rebellious is spoken of as if he forces them to live in a hot desert land. Alternate translation: "a very hot and dry land"

Psalms 68:7

General Information:

David begins to tell the story of God leading the Israelites through the desert to Mt. Sinai.

when you went out ... when you marched through

These two phrases refer to the same event.

you went out before your people

"you led your people"

when you marched through the wilderness

God is spoken of as if he was a soldier marching ahead of the people of Israel.

Psalms 68:8

the heavens also dropped rain ... God's presence

"God caused it to rain"

in the presence of God

This idiom here refers to God's appearance before the Israelites. Alternate translation: "when God appeared to the Israelites"

Psalms 68:9

you strengthened your inheritance when it was weary

The land of Israel is spoken of as if it was a person who could be weary, or could gain strength. Alternate translation: "you caused the land to produce good crops"

your inheritance

The land that God gave to the Israelites is spoken of as if it was an inheritance that a father passed on to his children.

Alternate translation: "the land that you gave to us Israelites"

Psalms 68:10

the poor

This refers to poor people in general. Alternate translation: "poor people"

Psalms 68:11

General Information:

David continues the story of the journey of the Israelites through the desert. In this part of the story, the Israelites are victorious in war over their enemies.

The Lord gave the word

"The Lord gave a command"

those who announced them ... army

The large number of people told the Lord's message to others. They are spoken of as if there were a large army. Since this phrase is feminine, some versions translate it as, "the women who announced them ... army."

Psalms 68:12

Kings of armies flee, they flee

The kings represent themselves and their entire armies. It is understood that they flee because they are defeated by Israel's army. Alternate translation: "Kings and their armies flee from us because they are defeated"

plunder

things that are taken from the defeated army and brought to the victorious army's home.

Psalms 68:13

the wings of a dove are covered with silver ... gold

This means that some of the plunder is very valuable because it is covered with precious metals.

Psalms 68:14

scattered kings there ... snowed on Mount Zalmon

There were so many dead kings and soldiers on the mountain that they are spoken of as if they were snow covering the mountain. Alternate translation: "defeated so many enemy kings and soldiers there that they were like snowflakes covering Mount Zalmon"

scattered kings

Here "kings" refers to their armies as well. Alternate translation: "scattered the enemy kings and their armies"

Mount Zalmon

This is the name of a mountain.

Psalms 68:15

A mighty mountain is the ... a high mountain is the

These two phrase have similar meanings and are used together to strengthen each other. Alternate translation: "a mighty and high mountain is the hill country of Bashan"

Psalms 68:16

Why do you look in envy ... for the place he will live?

This question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "The high hill country of Bashan should not look in envy at the mountain which God desires for the place he will live."

Psalms 68:17

twenty thousand, thousands upon thousands

This is probably not meant to be an exact number, but to indicate a large number. Alternate translation: "many thousands"

Psalms 68:18

ascended

To "ascend" is to move up, to go toward the sky.

Psalms 68:19

daily bears our burdens

"carries our heavy loads every day." The Lord's care for his people is spoken of as if he was physically carrying their troubles as a burden.

the God who is our salvation

The words "is our salvation" can be translated with the verb "save." Alternate translation: "the God who saves us"

Psalms 68:20

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 68:21

will strike through the heads of his enemies

God is spoken of as a warrior who will kill his enemies by striking them in their heads in order to kill them. Alternate translation: "will kill his enemies by striking them in the head"

the hairy scalps

It seems to have been the custom for soldiers not to cut their hair during the time of war. Alternate translation: "the long-haired skulls"

walk in offenses against him

Offending God is spoken of as walking among the offenses. Alternate translation: "habitually offend him"

Psalms 68:22

I will bring them back

The word "them" refers to God's enemies.

the depths of the sea

This speaks of the most remote parts of the earth where people might try to escape from God as if they were the depths of the sea.

Psalms 68:23

crush your enemies

The total destruction of Israel's enemies is spoken of as if the Israelites had crushed them under their feet. Alternate translation: "totally defeat your enemies" dipping your foot in blood

The violence of from the destruction of the enemies is spoke of in very graphic form, as if the Israelites would be standing in the blood of their dead enemies. Alternate translation: "stepping in their blood"

the tongues of your dogs may have their share

The bloodshed from the battle against Israel's enemies is spoken of as if it is so extensive that the dogs will lap up the flowing blood with their tongues.

Psalms 68:24

processions

A procession is a group of people walking together in an orderly manner as part of a ceremony.

Psalms 68:25

minstrels

people who play musical instruments

Psalms 68:26

Bless God in the assemblies; praise Yahweh, you who are from the fountain of Israel

It may be helpful to change the order of these phrases. Alternate translation: "You who are from the fountain of Israel, praise Yahweh and bless God in the assembly" from the fountain of Israel

The word "fountain" is a metaphor for the ability of the man Israel to be the ancestor of many people: as much water comes from a fountain, so Israel is the ancestor of many people. This also implies that the call is to those who serve God as the man Israel did. Alternate translation: "true descendants of Israel" or "all of you descendants from Israel"

Psalms 68:27

their multitudes

"their group." The word "their" refers to the leaders of Judah.

Psalms 68:28

Your God, Israel, has decreed your strength

Some versions understand the Hebrew text differently:

"Summon your strength, God" or "Use your strength, God"

Your God, Israel, has decreed

"People of Israel, your God has decreed"

to us

The word "us" refers to the writer and the people of Israel, but not to Yahweh, to whom he is speaking.

Psalms 68:29

to us

The word "us" refers to the writer and the people of Israel, but not to Yahweh, to whom he is speaking.

Reveal your power to us from your temple at Jerusalem

"When you are present in the temple at Jerusalem, show us your power"

Reveal your power

The abstract noun "power" can be stated as "strong."

Alternate translation: "Show us that you are strong"

Psalms 68:30

Rebuke the wild beasts in the reeds, against the peoples

"Tell the wild beasts in the reeds that you are going to fight against them. Tell the peoples"

the wild beasts in the reeds

Many scholars believe these wild beasts are a metaphor that refers to the people of Egypt. This can be made explicit. Alternate translation: "the people of Egypt who are like wild beasts in the reeds"

the peoples, that multitude of bulls and calves

The peoples of other nations are spoken of as if they were a large group of cattle. Alternate translation: "the powerful nations, who are like herds of bulls" scatter

This means cause something to spread quickly in different directions.

Psalms 68:31

Princes will come out of Egypt

It is implied that these princes come from Egypt in order to offer gifts to God in Jerusalem. Alternate translation: "Then the leaders of Egypt will bring gifts to you"

Cush

This refers to the people of Cush. Alternate translation:

"The Cushites"

reach out with her hands to God

This is a symbolic action that represents worship to God.

Alternate translation: "lift up her hands to praise God"

Psalms 68:32

you kingdoms of the earth

Here "kingdoms" refers to the citizens of the kingdoms.

Alternate translation: "you people who are citizens of kingdoms all over the world"

Psalms 68:33

to him who rides on the heaven of heavens

These words further describe Yahweh [Psalm 68:32]

he lifts up his voice with power

This idiom means he speaks powerfully. Alternate translation: "he shouts powerfully" or "he speaks loudly"

Psalms 68:34

Chapter 69

Ascribe strength to God

"Ascribe" means to give credit to someone. Alternate translation: "Strength belongs to God"

his strength is in the skies

The abstract noun "strength" can be stated as "powerful."

Alternate translation: "in the skies he also shows that he is powerful"

Psalms 68:35

God, you are fearsome in your holy place

Here the author speaks directly to God.

strength and power

These two words mean basically these same thing. They emphasize how much strength God provides to his people.

Chapter 69

For the chief musician; set to Shoshannim. A psalm of David.

¹ Save me, God;

for the waters have put my life in danger.

² I sink in deep mire, where there is no place to stand;

I have come into deep waters, where the floods flow over me.

³ I am weary with my crying; my throat is dry;

my eyes fail while I wait for my God.

⁴ Those who hate me without a cause are more than the hairs on my head;

those who would cut me off,

being my enemies for wrong reasons, are mighty;

what I did not steal,

I have to give back.

⁵ God, you know my foolishness, and my sins are not hidden from you.

⁶ Let not those who hope in you be put to shame because of me,

Lord Yahweh of hosts;

let not those who seek you be brought to dishonor because of me,

God of Israel.

⁷ For your sake I have borne rebuke;

shame has covered my face.

⁸ I have become a stranger to my brothers,

an alien to my mother's children.

⁹ For the zeal of your house has eaten me up, and the rebukes of those who rebuke you have fallen on me.

¹⁰ When I weep and fast,

I must endure scorn.

¹¹ When I put on sackcloth,

I became a byword to them.

¹² Those who sit in the city gate talk about me;

I am a song of drunkards.

- ¹³ But as for me, my prayer is to you, Yahweh,
at a time that you will accept;
answer me in the trustworthiness of your salvation.
- ¹⁴ Pull me out of the mire,
and do not let me sink;
let me be taken away from those who hate me and rescued out of the deep waters.
- ¹⁵ Do not let the floods of water overwhelm me,
neither let the deep swallow me up.
Do not let the pit shut its mouth on me.
- ¹⁶ Answer me, Yahweh, for your covenant faithfulness is good;
because your mercies for me are many, turn to me.
- ¹⁷ Do not hide your face from your servant,
for I am in distress; answer me quickly.
- ¹⁸ Come to me and redeem me.
Because of my enemies, ransom me.
- ¹⁹ You know my rebuke, my shame, and my dishonor;
my adversaries are all before you.
- ²⁰ Rebuke has broken my heart;
I am full of heaviness;
I looked for someone to take pity, but there was none;
I looked for comforters, but I found none.
- ²¹ They gave me poison for my food;
in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.
- ²² Let their table before them become a snare;
when they think they are in safety, let it become a trap.
- ²³ Let their eyes be darkened so that they cannot see;
and always make their loins shake.
- ²⁴ Pour out your indignation on them,
and let your raging anger overtake them.
- ²⁵ Let their encampment be a desolation;
let no one live in their tents.
- ²⁶ For they persecuted the one you struck down.
They repeated the account of the pain of those you have wounded.
- ²⁷ Accuse them of having committed iniquity after iniquity;
do not let them come into your righteous victory.
- ²⁸ Let them be blotted out of the Book of Life and not be written down along with the righteous.

²⁹ But I am poor and in pain;
let your salvation, God, set me up on high.

³⁰ I will praise the name of God with a song and will exalt him with thanksgiving.

³¹ That will please Yahweh better than an ox or a bull that has horns and hooves.

³² The meek have seen it and are glad;
you who seek after God, let your hearts live.

³³ For Yahweh hears the needy and does not despise his prisoners.

³⁴ Let heaven and earth praise him,
the seas and everything that moves in them.

³⁵ For God will save Zion and will rebuild the cities of Judah;
the people will live there and have it as a possession.

³⁶ His servants' descendants will inherit it;
and those who love his name will live there.

Psalm 69 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 69 is a psalm of deliverance. The author prays to be saved from his enemies and for them to be punished. (See: deliverer and save)

Special concepts in this chapter

Deliverance

The author prays for God to rescue him from his enemies. They show him no mercy, and he asks God to show them no mercy. (See: mercy)

Links:

Psalms 69:1

Psalms 69:1

General Information:

This psalm is a prayer for help. Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician; set to Shoshannim. A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

set to Shoshannim

This may refer to a style of music. See how you translated this in Psalms 45:1.

for the waters have put my life in danger

The writer describes the troubles in his life as if he were drowning in a flood of water. Alternate translation: "for it feels like I am drowning in the waters"

Psalms 69:2

I sink in deep mire

The writer describes the troubles in his life as if he were sinking in deep mud. Alternate translation: "For it feels like I am sinking in deep mud and will die"

mire

thick mud

there is no place to stand

The writer uses a negative statement to stress how unstable and uncertain his condition is.

I have come into deep waters, where the floods flow over me

The writer describes his problems as if he was drowning in a deep, raging river. Alternate translation: "It feels like I am in deep waters, and the floodwaters flow over me"

Psalms 69:3

weary very tired

my eyes fail

This idiom means the writer has cried so much that his eyes do not see well any longer. Alternate translation: "my eyes are swollen from tears"

Psalms 69:4

more than the hairs on my head

This is an exaggeration to express how many enemies the writer has. Alternate translation: "more than I can count, like the hairs on my head" cut me off

This idiom means "kill me."

Psalms 69:5

my foolishness

The abstract noun "foolishness" can be stated as "foolish." Alternate translation: "the foolish things that I have done"

my sins are not hidden from you

This can be expressed as a positive statement. Alternate translation: "you know all my sins"

Psalms 69:6

Let not those ... let not those

"Do not let those ... do not let those"

Let not those who hope in you be put to shame because of me

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"Please do not allow anyone to put those who wait for you to shame because of me"

let not those who seek you be brought to dishonor because of me

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"Please do not allow anyone to bring dishonor on those who seek you because of me"

those who seek you

Seeking God represents either 1) asking God for help or 2) thinking about God and obeying him. Alternate translation:

1) "those who ask you for help" or 2) "those who worship and obey you"

Psalms 69:7

For your sake

"On your behalf" or "For you"

I have borne rebuke

The rebukes of the writer's enemies are spoken of as if they are a heavy load that he has had to carry. Alternate translation: "I have endured the insults of my enemies"

shame has covered my face

The writer speaks of the shame that he feels as if it is a foul thing on his face that everyone can clearly see. Alternate translation: "I am thoroughly humiliated"

Psalms 69:8

I have become a stranger to my brothers

The writer speaks of himself as if he were not part of his own family. Alternate translation: "My brothers no longer know or accept me at all"

a stranger to my brothers ... an alien to my mother's children

These two phrases mean the same thing. They are repeated to stress his separation from his own family.

an alien to my mother's children

It is implied that "I have become" should be understood here. The writer speaks of himself as if he were not part of his own family. Alternate translation: "my brothers no longer know or trust me at all"

Psalms 69:9

the zeal of your house has eaten me up

The writer speaks of his zeal for God's temple as if it was a wild animal that devours the writer. Alternate translation: "the zeal I have for your house consumes me"

has eaten me up

This idiom means that the writer's zeal for the temple takes over all of his thoughts and actions. Alternate translation: "completely controls all that I think and do" the rebukes ... have fallen on me

The writer speaks of the rebukes of God's enemies as if they were rocks that were thrown at the writer. Alternate translation: "those who rebuke you have also thrown their rebukes at me"

Psalms 69:10

I weep and fast

The fact that the writer was fasting indicates that he was sad about the way people treated God's temple.

I must endure scorn

"my enemies rebuked me because I was weeping and not eating"

Psalms 69:11

When I put on sackcloth

Wearing rough, cheap clothing was a symbol of mourning over sin.

I became a byword to them

The writer speaks of himself as if he was the sad or foolish person that people joke about in a rhyme or proverb; the taunting was intended to bring shame to him. Alternate translation: "I became a joke to them" or "they made fun of me"

Psalms 69:12

Those who sit in the city gate

Here "city gate" is associated with leadership of a town.

Alternate translation: "The important people of the city"

I am a song of drunkards

The writer speaks of himself as if he was the person about whom the drunkards sing mocking songs. Alternate translation: "the drunkards of the city sing disgusting songs about me"

Psalms 69:13

at a time that you will accept

"in your accepted time" or "when you are willing"

answer me in the trustworthiness of your salvation

The abstract nouns "trustworthiness" and "salvation" can be stated as "faithfully" and "rescue." Alternate translation: "rescue me because you faithfully love me, as you have promised to do"

Psalms 69:14

Pull me out ... do not let me sink

These two phrases mean the same thing.

Pull me out of the mire, and do not let me sink

The writer speaks of his danger from his enemies as if he was sinking into a pit of mud. "Do not allow me to sink anymore in the mud"

let me be taken away

Here "take away" refers to being removed from danger.

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "take me away" or "rescue me" rescued out

It is understood that "let me be" is implied here. It can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "please rescue me out" rescued out of the deep waters

The writer speaks about his danger from his enemies as if he was drowning in deep water.

Psalms 69:15

the floods of water overwhelm me

The writer speaks about his danger from his enemies as if flood waters were covering him completely.

the deep swallow me up

The writer speaks of the deep as if it was a deadly animal that was about to eat him. Alternate translation: "the deep waters swallow me up like a dangerous animal"

Do not let the pit shut its mouth on me

Here the "pit" is spoken of as if it has a mouth like a person and could eat the writer. Alternate translation: "Do not let the pit consume me" or "Do not let the pit of death close over me"

Psalms 69:16

your covenant faithfulness is good

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "you are good and faithful to your covenant" your mercies for me are many

"you are very merciful to me"

turn to me

The idea of turning towards someone means to pay attention to them or help them. Alternate translation: "help me"

Psalms 69:17

Do not hide your face from your servant

To hide one's face means to refuse to hear or help someone. Alternate translation: "Please help your servant" or "Please help me" in distress

"in great trouble"

Psalms 69:18

redeem me

The writer asks God to redeem him as if the writer were a slave whose freedom God could purchase. Alternate translation: "free me"

ransom me

The writer asks God to ransom him as if the writer were a captive whose release could be paid for with money.

Alternate translation: "rescue me"

Psalms 69:19

my rebuke, my shame, and my dishonor

These abstract nouns can be stated as actions. Alternate translation: "how people have rebuked me, shamed me, and dishonored me"

my adversaries are all before you

Here "before you" means that God sees and knows all about them. Alternate translation: "you know who all my enemies are"

Psalms 69:20

broken my heart

This idiom means a person is extremely sad. Alternate translation: "offended me deeply"

I am full of heaviness

The writer's great sadness is spoken of as if he was full of a heavy weight. Alternate translation: "I am heavy with sorrow"

to take pity

to feel sorrow or sadness

Psalms 69:21

They gave me poison for my food

This is probably figurative. The food that people gave to the writer was so bad that it tasted like poison. Alternate translation: "They gave me food that tasted like poison"

Psalms 69:22

Let their table before them become a snare ... let it become a trap

The writer would like for his enemies' food to completely ruin them as if they were small animals caught in a snare or a trap. Alternate translation: "May their food ruin them like a snare ... may it destroy them like a trap"

their table

This refers to food that was served on the tables, possibly at a feast. Alternate translation: "their own food" or "sacrificial feasts"

Psalms 69:23

Let their eyes be darkened

The writer speaks of eyes that cannot see well as if they were darkened. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Please make them unable to see anything"

make their loins shake

Weak backs are spoken of as if they are shaking in weakness. Alternate translation: "cause their backs to be too weak for them to do anything"

their loins

"their sides" or "their backs"

Psalms 69:24

Pour out your indignation on them

God's demonstration of his anger is described as if he poured it out on his enemies like water.

indignation

anger of a person who has suffered injustice

your raging anger

"your burning anger" or "your strong anger"

overtake them

God's judgment on his enemies is described as if he ran after them and caught them.

Psalms 69:25

be a desolation

This abstract noun can be stated as "abandoned." Alternate translation: "become abandoned"

Psalms 69:26

they persecuted the one

"they persecuted the man"

you struck down
 Here to be "struck down" refers to punishment. Alternate translation: "you punished" those you have wounded
 Here to be "wounded" refers to causing them to suffer. Alternate translation: "those you have caused to suffer"
 Psalms 69:27
 Accuse them of having committed iniquity after iniquity
 "Keep making a record of all their sins" iniquity after iniquity
 "very many sins"
 do not let them come into your righteous victory
 To come into God's victory is an idiom that means to receive a reward from him. Alternate translation: "do not let them receive your righteous reward"
 Psalms 69:28
 Let them be blotted out of Here "them" refers to the names of the enemies. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Wipe out their names in"
 not be written down
 This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "do not write down their names"
 Psalms 69:29
 let your salvation, God, set me up on high
 The abstract noun "salvation" can be stated with the verb "save." Here "on high" refers to a place of safety. Alternate translation: "God, save me and put me in a safe place"
 Psalms 69:30
 the name of God
 Here "name" refers to God himself. Alternate translation: "God"
 with thanksgiving
 This abstract noun can be stated with the verb "thank." Alternate translation: "by thanking him"
 Psalms 69:31
 better than an ox or a bull
 It is understood that the ox and the bull are to be offered to God as sacrifices. Alternate translation: "better than sacrificing an ox or sacrificing a bull"
 a bull that has horns and hooves
 This phrase distinguishes the full grown bulls from other younger cows. Alternate translation: "a bull that is full grown with horns and hooves"

 Psalms 69:32
 The meek
 This refers to meek people in general. Alternate translation: "Meek people" you who seek after God Seeking God represents either 1) asking God for help or 2) thinking about God and obeying him. Alternate translation: "you who ask God for help" or "you who think about God" let your hearts live Here "hearts" refer to the people. Here "live" is an idiom that means to be encouraged. Alternate translation: "may you be encouraged"
 Psalms 69:33
 Yahweh hears
 Here "hears" means to respond. Alternate translation: "Yahweh answers"
 the needy
 This refers to needy people in general. Alternate translation: "needy people" his prisoners
 "those who have suffered for him"
 Psalms 69:34
 Let heaven and earth praise him ... the seas
 Here heaven and earth and the seas are spoken of as if they are people who are able to praise God.
 the seas and everything that moves in them
 It is implied that "Let ... praise him" should be understood here. Alternate translation: "let the seas and everything that moves in them praise him"
 Psalms 69:35
 God will save Zion
 Here "Zion" refers to the people in Zion. Alternate translation: "God will save the people of Zion" have it as a possession
 The word "it" refers to the land of Judah.
 Psalms 69:36
 who love his name
 Here "name" refers to God himself. Alternate translation: "who love God"

Chapter 70

For the chief musician. A psalm of David; to bring to remembrance.

¹ Save me, God!

Yahweh, come quickly and help me.

² Let those who try to take my life
 be ashamed and humiliated;
 let them be turned back and brought to dishonor,
 those who take pleasure in my pain.

³ Let them be turned back because of their shame,
 those who say, "Aha, aha."

⁴ Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you;
let those who love your salvation always say,
"May God be praised."

⁵ But I am poor and needy;
hurry to me, God;
you are my help and you rescue me.
Yahweh, do not delay.

Psalm 70 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 70 is a psalm of deliverance. The psalmist asks God to deliver him from his enemies.

Special concepts in this chapter

Help

The author needs help and needs it immediately.

Psalm 40

This psalm is an almost exact duplicate of Psalm 40:13-17.

Links:

Psalms 70:1

Psalms 70:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician. A psalm of David; to bring to remembrance

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

A psalm of David

Possible meanings are 1) David wrote the psalm or 2) the psalm is about David or 3) the psalm is in the style of David's psalms.

Psalms 70:2

those who

"the people who"

take my life

This idiom means "kill me."

be ashamed and humiliated

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"may God put them to shame and bring disgrace upon them"

let them be turned back and brought to dishonor

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"may God turn them around and make them ashamed for what they have done"

turned back

To be stopped or thwarted is spoken of as being turned back from their attack. Alternate translation: "stopped"

Psalms 70:3

those who say, "Aha, aha."

This is an expression of mocking laughter. You may replace

"Aha, aha" with whatever laughing sounds like in your language. Alternate translation: "those who mock and laugh at me"

Psalms 70:4

seek you

Seeking God represents either 1) asking God for help or 2) thinking about God and obeying him. Alternate translation: "ask you for help" or "think about you and obey you"

rejoice and be glad

These two phrases mean basically the same thing and emphasize the intensity of gladness. Alternate translation: "rejoice greatly" or "be very glad"

love your salvation

The abstract noun "salvation" can be stated as an action.

Alternate translation: "love you because you saved them"

always say

This exaggeration emphasizes that it is important to praise God often.

May God be praised

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Let everyone praise God"

Psalms 70:5

poor and needy

Here the words "poor" and "needy" mean basically the same thing and emphasize that he is unable to help himself. Alternate translation: "very needy"

hurry to me

The writer speaks of God as if he were running to the writer in order to help him. Alternate translation: "come quickly to help me"

you are my help and you rescue me

Here the phrase "you rescue me" explains how God is his "help." Alternate translation: "you help me by rescuing me"

do not delay

"please come quickly"

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

Chapter 71

- ¹ In you, Yahweh, I take refuge;
let me never be put to shame.
- ² Rescue me and make me safe in your righteousness;
turn your ear to me and save me.
- ³ Be to me a rock for refuge where I may always go;
you have given a command to save me,
for you are my rock and my fortress.
- ⁴ Rescue me, my God, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous and ruthless.
- ⁵ For you are my hope, Lord Yahweh.
I have trusted in you ever since I was a child.
- ⁶ By you I have been supported from the womb;
you are he who took me out of my mother's belly;
my praise will be always about you.
- ⁷ I am a marvel to many people;
you are my strong refuge.
- ⁸ My mouth will be filled with your praise,
all the day with your honor.
- ⁹ Do not throw me away in my time of old age;
do not abandon me when my strength fails.
- ¹⁰ For my enemies are talking about me;
those who watch for my life are plotting together.
- ¹¹ They say, "God has abandoned him;
pursue and take him,
for there is no one to save him."
- ¹² God, do not be far from me;
my God, hurry to help me.
- ¹³ Let them be put to shame and destroyed,
those who are hostile to my life;
let them be covered with rebuke and dishonor,
those who seek my hurt.
- ¹⁴ But I will always hope in you and will praise you more and more.

- ¹⁵ My mouth will tell about your righteousness and your salvation all the day, although I cannot understand it.
- ¹⁶ I will come with the mighty acts of the Lord Yahweh;
I will make mention of your righteousness, yours alone.
- ¹⁷ God, you have taught me from my youth;
even now I declare your wonderful deeds.
- ¹⁸ Indeed, even when I am old and gray-headed, God,
do not abandon me,
as I have been declaring your strength to the next generation,
your power to everyone who is to come.
- ¹⁹ Your righteousness also, God, is very high;
you who have done great things,
God, who is like you?
- ²⁰ You who made me see many troubles will revive us again and will bring us up again
from the depths of the earth.
- ²¹ May you increase my honor;
turn again and comfort me.
- ²² I will also give thanks to you with the harp for your trustworthiness, my God;
to you I will sing praises with the harp, Holy One of Israel.
- ²³ My lips will shout for joy when I sing praises to you—even my soul, which you have redeemed.
- ²⁴ My tongue will also talk about your righteousness
all day long;
for they have been put to shame and are confused,
those who sought my hurt.

Psalm 71 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 71 is a psalm of deliverance. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's help

God has helped the psalmist all his life. Now that he is old, his enemy thinks that God has abandoned him; but the psalmist trusts in God and will praise Yahweh with songs of praise. (See: trust)

Links:

Psalms 71:1

Psalms 71:1

General Information:

This psalm is a prayer for help. Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

In you, Yahweh, I take refuge

Going to Yahweh for protection is spoken of as taking refuge in him. Alternate translation: "go to you, Yahweh, for protection"

let me never be put to shame

This can be stated in active form. See how "do not let me be humiliated" is translated in [Psalms 25:2]

Psalms 71:2

make me safe in your righteousness

Possible meanings are 1) "make me safe because you always do what is right" or 2) "make me safe as I do what you want me to do"

turn your ear to me

Here "your ear" refers to God's willingness to hear someone who prays to him. See how this is translated in [Psalms 17:6]

save me

"keep me safe"

Psalms 71:3

Be to me a rock for refuge

The psalmist requests that Yahweh make him as safe as he would be if he were hiding in a large rock or cliff where his enemies could not find him.

rock ... rock

These are hills or mountains, not rocks one can hold in one's hand.

you have given a command

"you have commanded your angels"

you are my rock and my fortress

The psalmist believes that Yahweh will protect him and make him as safe as if he were hiding on top of a large mountain or inside a man-made fortress.

Psalms 71:4

out of the hand of the wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous

Possible meanings are 1) the word "hand" is a metonym for power. Alternate translation: "from the power of the wicked, from the power of the unrighteous" or 2) "hand" refers to the person himself. Alternate translation: "from wicked people, from unrighteous ... people" or "so that wicked people and unrighteous ... people cannot harm me" wicked, out of the hand of the unrighteous

"wicked; rescue me out of the hand of the unrighteous." You can make clear the understood information.

wicked ... unrighteous ... ruthless

These adjectives can be translated as noun phrases.

Alternate translation: "wicked people ... unrighteous people ... ruthless people"

Psalms 71:5

you are my hope

Here "hope" is a metonym for the one in whom the psalmist hopes. Alternate translation: "you are the one whom I confidently expect to help me"

Psalms 71:6

By you I have been supported from the womb

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "You have supported me from the womb" or "You have taken care of me ever since I came out of my mother's womb"

you are he

"you are the one"

Psalms 71:7

I am a marvel to many people

"Many people are surprised to see how well I live and want to live as I do"

Psalms 71:8

My mouth will be filled with your praise ... with your honor

The psalmist speaks of his desire to praise and honor

Yahweh with the words he speaks as if his mouth were full of words the way it can be full of food. Alternate translation: "My mouth will be filled with words that praise you ... that honor you" or "I will always praise you ... will always honor you"

your praise

Here "praise" refer to the words that he will use to praise Yahweh. Alternate translation: "words that tell people how great you are"

your honor

Here "honor" refer to the words that he will use to honor Yahweh. Alternate translation: "words that cause people to honor you"

all the day

"all day long" or "at all times"

Psalms 71:9

Do not throw me away ... do not abandon me

These two phrases have basically the same meaning and are used together for emphasis.

Do not throw me away

"Do not force me to go away from you." For God to reject him is spoken of as God forcing him to go away. See how this is translated in [Psalms 51:11]

do not abandon me

"do not leave me forever"

Psalms 71:10

watch for my life

It is implied that they are watching for an opportunity to take his life. The euphemism "to take a life" means to kill.

Alternate translation: "watch for an opportunity to take my life" or "wait for an opportunity to kill me"

Psalms 71:11

They say

This can be translated to make explicit that they are talking about him. Alternate translation: "They say about me"

pursue and take him

"follow him when he runs away, and kill him"

Psalms 71:12

do not be far from me

Because Yahweh has not yet answered the writer's request, he speaks of Yahweh as if Yahweh were standing far away from the writer.

hurry to help me

"help me soon"

Psalms 71:13

Let them be put to shame and destroyed, those who are hostile to my life

"Let those who are hostile to my life be put to shame and destroyed"

Let them be put to shame and destroyed

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Put them to shame and destroy them"

those who are hostile to my life

The words "my life" represent the person. The idiom "hostile to my life" means that these are people who try to harm him by accusing him of wrongdoing. Alternate translation: "those who accuse me of doing wrong"

let them be covered with rebuke and dishonor, those who seek my hurt
"let those who seek my hurt be covered with rebuke and dishonor"

let them be covered with rebuke and dishonor

This can be stated in active form. The abstract nouns "rebuke" and "dishonor" can be stated as verbs. Alternate translation: "may everyone rebuke them, and may no one honor them"

those who seek my hurt

The noun "hurt" can be translated with a verb. Alternate translation: "those who are looking for ways to harm me"

Psalms 71:14

more and more

"more all the time" or "always more than I have before"

Psalms 71:15

My mouth will tell about your righteousness and your salvation all the day, although I cannot understand it

"I do not completely understand your righteousness and your salvation, but my mouth will tell about them all the day"

My mouth will tell

The mouth is synecdoche for the whole person. Alternate translation: "I will tell" or "I will speak with my mouth and tell"

your righteousness

This can be restated to remove the abstract noun "righteousness." Alternate translation: "how righteous you are" or "all the good things you do"

your salvation

The abstract noun "salvation" can be stated as an action. Alternate translation: "how you have saved me" or "how you save people"

Psalms 71:16

I will come

Possible meanings are 1) "I will go to where people worship Yahweh" or 2) "I will go to my enemies"

with the mighty acts of the Lord Yahweh

Possible meanings are 1) "I will tell them of the mighty deeds the Lord Yahweh has done" or 2) "because the Lord Yahweh has given me strength to do mighty acts."

will make mention of

"will talk about"

Psalms 71:17

taught me

The implied information may be stated clearly. "taught me many things"

Psalms 71:18

God, do not abandon me

"God, please do not leave me"

I have been declaring your strength

The abstract noun "strength" can be translated with a verbal phrase. Alternate translation: "I have been telling how strong you are" to the next generation

"to those who are children today"

your power to everyone who is to come

The omitted information may be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "and as I declare your power to everyone who is to come"

everyone who is to come

This exaggeration refers to everyone the writer can speak to. Alternate translation: "so as many people as I can tell will know"

Psalms 71:19

Your righteousness also, God, is very high

The psalmist speaks of the good things God has done as though they were put together as a high building or a mountain.

who is like you?

This rhetorical question can be translated as a statement.

Alternate translation: "there is no one like you!"

Psalms 71:20

revive

strengthen or make lively again

from the depths of the earth

"The depths of the earth" here is a metaphor for where people go when they die. The psalmist had not already died, but in this exaggeration he speaks as if he had. Alternate translation: "when we are near death"

Psalms 71:21

May you increase ... turn again and comfort

"I want you to increase ... I want you to turn again and comfort." Some translations read, "You will increase ... you will turn again and comfort."

turn again and comfort me

This describes one action through two phrases. Alternate translation: "comfort me again"

Psalms 71:22

to you I will sing praises with the harp, Holy One of Israel

"to you, who is the Holy One of Israel, I will sing praises while I play the harp"

Psalms 71:23

My lips will shout for joy

"Lips" represent the whole person. Alternate translation: "I will shout for joy"

even my soul, which you have redeemed

The words the psalmist has omitted can be stated clearly.

Alternate translation: "and my soul, which you have redeemed, will sing praises"

my soul

Here "soul" refers to the whole person.

Psalms 71:24

My tongue will also talk

Here "tongue" refers to the whole person. Alternate translation: "I will also talk" they have been put to shame and are confused, those who sought my hurt

"those who sought my hurt have been put to shame and are confused"

for they have been put to shame and are confused

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "for God has put to shame and confused them"

those who sought my hurt

This refers to the enemies of the writer. (Psalms 71:10). See how "those who seek my hurt" is translated in Psalms 71:13.

Chapter 72

A psalm of Solomon.

- ¹ Give the king your righteous decrees, God,
your righteousness to the king's son.
- ² May he judge your people with righteousness and your poor with justice.
- ³ May the mountains produce peace for the people;
may the hills produce righteousness.
- ⁴ May he judge the poor of the people;
may he save the children of the needy and break in pieces the oppressor.
- ⁵ May they honor you while the sun endures,
and as long as the moon lasts throughout all generations.
- ⁶ May he come down like rain on the mown grass, like showers that water the earth.
- ⁷ May the righteous flourish in his days, and may there be an abundance of peace till the moon is no more.
- ⁸ May he have dominion from sea to sea,
and from the River to the ends of the earth.
- ⁹ May those who live in the wilderness bow down before him;
may his enemies lick the dust.
- ¹⁰ May the kings of Tarshish and of the islands render tribute;
may the kings of Sheba and Seba offer gifts.
- ¹¹ Indeed, may all kings fall down before him;
may all nations serve him.
- ¹² For he helps the needy person who cries out and the poor person who has no other helper.
- ¹³ He has pity on the poor and needy,
and he saves the lives of needy people.
- ¹⁴ He redeems their lives from oppression and violence,
and their blood is precious in his sight.
- ¹⁵ May he live!
May the gold of Sheba be given to him.

May people always pray for him;
may God bless him all day long.

¹⁶ May there be abundance of grain in the land;
on the mountaintops may their crops wave.
May the fruit of it be like Lebanon;
may the people flourish in the cities like the grass of the field.

¹⁷ May his name endure forever;
may his name continue as long as the sun;
may people be blessed in him;
may all nations call him blessed.

¹⁸ May Yahweh God, the God of Israel, be blessed, who alone does wonderful things.

¹⁹ May his glorious name be blessed forever, and may the whole earth be filled with his glory.
Amen and Amen.

²⁰ The prayers of David son of Jesse are finished.

BOOK THREE

(Psalms 73-89)

Psalm 72 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 72 is a psalm for the king when he begins to be the king. David wrote it as a blessing on his son, Solomon. (See: bless)

Special concepts in this chapter

Blessings for the king

May the king be honored throughout the world. May he help the poor. May there be prosperity while he is king.

Close of Book Two

The whole collection of Psalms has been divided into several "books." This is the last psalm of the second book. It is attributed to Solomon, the son of David.

Links:

Psalms 72:1

Psalms 72:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry. Possible meanings for the header "a psalm of Solomon" are 1) David wrote this psalm about Solomon

A psalm of Solomon

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

Give the king your righteous decrees, God, your righteousness to the king's son

Possible meanings are 1) "Give me, the king, your righteous decrees, God, your righteousness to my son" or 2) "Give me, the king, your righteous decrees, God, your righteousness to me, the king's son." People in those days would often speak of themselves as if they were someone else. However, it would be best to translate this as though the psalmist is speaking of someone else, not of himself.

Give the king your righteous decrees

"Enable the king to judge rightly"

your righteousness to the king's son

The verb may be supplied from the previous phrase. Here the word "righteousness" refers to making righteous decisions. Alternate translation: "give your righteousness to the king's son" or "enable the king's son to rule with righteousness"

Psalms 72:2

May he judge

If David wrote this, he is talking about his son, "the king's son," he is speaking of the time when his son will be king. If Solomon wrote it, even though he is writing about himself, it would be best to translate as though he were writing about someone else. Either way, "May the king judge" is the best translation.

your people ... your poor

The psalmist is speaking to God.

your poor

The verb may be supplied from the previous phrase. The adjective "poor" refers to poor people. Alternate translation: "may he judge your poor people"

Psalms 72:3

May the mountains produce peace ... may the hills produce righteousness

The psalmist speaks of the people of Israel as if they were the mountains and hills on which they live. He speaks of the mountains and the hills as if they were the entire land of Israel, as if that land were a garden that produces fruit, and of peace and righteousness as if they are that fruit.

Alternate translation: "May the people of the land live in peace ... may they do everything in a righteous way"

Psalms 72:4

he ... he

These refer to the one who will "judge" (Psalms 72:2).

break in pieces the oppressor

The writer speaks of the king defeating or punishing people who oppress others as if those people were objects that the king would break into pieces. Alternate translation: "punish the person who oppresses others"

Psalms 72:5

while the sun endures, and as long as the moon lasts

The sun and the moon are metonyms for the day and the night, which together are a merism for all time. Alternate translation: "forever, and without ending"

Psalms 72:6

May he come down like rain on the mown grass

The king will be good, and he will do good things for his people as if he were rain doing good for freshly cut grass.

May he come

"I desire that he come"

like showers that water

"May he come down like showers that water." The king will be good, and he will do good things for his people as if he were rain doing good for the ground.

Psalms 72:7

the righteous

The adjective "righteous" can be translated as a noun phrase. Alternate translation: "righteous people" in his days

Possible meanings are 1) "while the king rules" or 2) "as long as the righteous person lives" or "as long as the righteous people live."

may there be an abundance of peace

The psalmist speaks as if peace were a physical object like food. An "abundance" is when there is much of something. This can be restated to remove the abstract nouns "abundance" and "peace." Alternate translation: "may righteous people live peacefully"

till the moon is no more

"as long as the moon shines" or "forever"

Psalms 72:8

May he have dominion

"May the king have dominion"

from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth

Both of these expressions are merisms and refer to the whole earth.

from sea to sea

from the Dead Sea and the Sea of Kinnereth in the east to the Mediterranean Sea in the west.

the River

"the Euphrates River," which the Israelites would travel to on land by going north

the ends of the earth

as far as people could travel on land by different routes to the south. The Israelites spoke of the earth as if it were a flat surface with ends.

Psalms 72:9

lick the dust

This is a metaphor for extreme humiliation. Alternate translation: "do everything they can so he will allow them to live"

Psalms 72:10

Tarshish

This is the name of a place.

render pay offer gifts

"give gifts"

Seba

This is the name of a country. It is not the same country as Sheba.

Psalms 72:11

fall down before him

"bow down before him" or "honor him as their king"

all nations

Here the word "nations" represents the people who live in the nations. Alternate translation: "the people who live in every nation"

Psalms 72:12

no other helper

"no one else to help him"

Psalms 72:13

He has pity on the poor and needy

"He wants to stop the poor and needy from suffering"

the poor and needy

Here the nominal adjectives "poor" and "needy" mean basically the same thing and emphasize that they are unable to help themselves. Alternate translation: "those who are poor and those who are needy"

Psalms 72:14

redeems their lives

Here "lives" refers to the whole person. Alternate translation: "redeems them" or "saves them" or "rescues them" oppression and violence

These two words mean basically the same thing and emphasize how badly the needy suffer. These abstract nouns can be stated as verbs. Alternate translation: "those who oppress them and hurt them" their blood is precious in his sight

Here "their blood" is a metonym for their well-being. The sight of Yahweh represents his judgment or evaluation.

Alternate translation: "their well-being is very important to him" or "he wants them to live well"

in his sight

See how this phrase is translated in Psalms 19:14.

Psalms 72:15

May he live!

This saying was used to honor the king by expressing a desire to have him live a long time. Alternate translation: "May the king live a long time!" or "I desire that the king live a long time!"

May the gold of Sheba be given to him

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "May they give him the gold of Sheba" or "May he receive the gold of Sheba"

all day long

This idiom means "continually" and does not refer only to one day. Alternate translation: "continually" or "all the time"

Psalms 72:16

abundance of grain

An "abundance" is when there is much of something. This abstract noun can be stated as "much" or "plenty" Alternate translation: "much grain" or "plenty of grain" crops plants that people grow for food wave

Use the word for what long grass does when a gentle wind blows on it and it moves slowly back and forth.

like Lebanon

"like the cedar trees in Lebanon." These trees were beautiful and had wood that was good for building. The meaning of this can be made clear.

the people flourish in the cities like the grass of the field

The prosperity of the people in the cities is spoken of as if they were grass that grows abundantly in the fields.

Psalms 72:17

May his name endure forever

This saying is used to honor God by expressing the desire for people to always remember him. Alternate translation:

"May people always know about him" or "May people never forget who he is"

his name

Here "his name" refers to God's reputation. Alternate translation: "the king's name" or "the king's reputation" or "the king's fame"

as long as the sun

The verb may be supplied from the previous phrase.

Alternate translation: "as long as the sun endures" or "as long as the sun shines"

may people be blessed in him

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"may God cause him to do good things for people"

call him blessed

"recognize that God has blessed them"

Psalms 72:18

General Information:

These verses are more than the end of this psalm. It is the closing statement for all of Book 2 of the Psalms, which starts at Psalm 42 and ends with Psalm 72.

May Yahweh God, the God of Israel, be blessed

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"May people bless Yahweh God, the God of Israel"

Psalms 72:19

May his glorious name be blessed forever

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"May people bless his glorious name forever" or, treating "name" as a metonym for Yahweh himself, "May people forever know how glorious he is"

his glorious name be blessed

"he, who is glorious, be blessed"

may the whole earth be filled with his glory

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"may his glory fill the whole earth" or "may he fill the whole earth with his glory"

Amen and Amen

The word "Amen" is repeated to emphasize approval of what has been said. See how you translated this in Psalms 41:13. Alternate translation: "May it certainly be so"

Psalms 72:20

The prayers of David son of Jesse are finished

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"David, the son of Jesse has finished his prayers" or "This is the last prayer of the David the son of Jesse"

Chapter 73

A psalm of Asaph.

¹ Surely God is good to Israel, to those with a pure heart.

² But as for me, my feet almost slipped;
my feet almost slipped out from under me

³ because I was envious of the arrogant

when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.

⁴ For they have no pain until their death,
but they are strong and well fed.

⁵ They are not in trouble like other men;
they are not afflicted like other men.

⁶ Pride adorns them like a necklace around their neck;
violence clothes them like a robe.

⁷ Out of such blindness comes sin;
evil thoughts pass through their hearts.

⁸ They mock and speak wickedly;
in their arrogance they threaten oppression.

⁹ They set their mouth against the heavens, and their tongues march through the earth.

¹⁰ Therefore his people turn to them and abundant waters are drained out.

¹¹ They say, "How does God know?
Is there knowledge with the Most High?"

¹² Take notice: these people are wicked;
they are always at ease, becoming richer and richer.

¹³ Surely it is in vain that I have guarded my heart and washed my hands in innocence.

¹⁴ For all the day long I have been afflicted and disciplined every morning.

¹⁵ If I had said, "I will say these things,"
then I would have betrayed this generation of your children.

¹⁶ Though I tried to understand these things,
it was too difficult for me.

¹⁷ Then I went into God's sanctuary and came to understand their fate.

¹⁸ Surely you put them in slippery places;
you bring them down to ruin.

¹⁹ How they become a wilderness in a moment!
They come to an end and are finished in awful terrors.

- ²⁰ They are like a dream after one wakes up;
Lord, when you arise,
you will despise their image.
- ²¹ For my heart was embittered, and I was deeply wounded.
- ²² I was ignorant and lacked insight;
I was like a senseless animal before you.
- ²³ Yet I am always with you;
you hold my right hand.
- ²⁴ You will guide me with your advice and afterward receive me to glory.
- ²⁵ Whom have I in heaven but you?
There is no one on earth that I desire but you.
- ²⁶ My flesh and my heart grow weak, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.
- ²⁷ Those who are far from you will perish;
you will destroy all those who are unfaithful to you.
- ²⁸ But as for me, all I need to do is to approach God.
I have made the Lord Yahweh my refuge.
I will declare all your deeds.

Psalm 73 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 73 is a wisdom psalm. It explains the problem of wicked people who seem to prosper. (See: wise and evil)

Special concepts in this chapter

Evil people

Sometimes it seems that wicked people have no problems and everything works for them. Despite this, they will be destroyed. In contrast, the righteous always have God to help them through problems. (See: righteous)

Psalms by Asaph

There are twelve psalms attributed to Asaph; the first one is Psalm 50, which is in Book Two, and the other eleven (Psalm 73–83) are at the beginning of Book Three.

Links:

Psalms 73:1

Psalms 73:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of Asaph

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

Psalms 73:2

my feet almost slipped; my feet almost slipped out from under me

The psalmist speaks of being unable to trust God and wanting to sin as if he had almost fallen while walking on a slippery path. Alternate translation: "I almost stopped trusting in God; I was almost guilty of committing a great sin against him"

Psalms 73:3

I was envious of the arrogant

"I envied the arrogant" or "I did not want arrogant people to have the good things that they had"

the arrogant

The adjective "arrogant" can be translated as a noun phrase. Alternate translation: "arrogant people" the prosperity of the wicked

The word "prosperity" can be translated as a verb.

Alternate translation: "how the wicked have so many good things"

the wicked

The adjective "wicked" can be translated as a noun phrase.

Alternate translation: "wicked people"

Psalms 73:4

General Information:

Asaph begins to describe how he sometimes wants to complain to God about those who are "arrogant" and "wicked" (Psalms 73:3).

Psalms 73:5

They are not in trouble like other men

They do not have to work hard to meet their needs for food, shelter, and clothing, and they are always healthy.

they are not afflicted like other men

"they do not suffer the way other people do"

Psalms 73:6

General Information:

Asaph continues to describe how he sometimes wants to complain to God about those who are "arrogant" and "wicked" (Psalms 73:3).

Pride adorns them like a necklace around their neck; violence clothes them like a robe

This means the wicked show everyone how proud and violent they are as if they were wearing a necklace or beautiful robe.

necklace ... robe

This refers to things that rich and important people wear.

necklace

a chain usually made of gold or jewels that goes around the neck

Psalms 73:7

Out of such blindness comes sin

Because they are like blind people who cannot see where they are going, they sin without knowing it. Being blind is a metaphor for a person being unable to see how wicked he is.

evil thoughts pass through their hearts

Here the psalmist describes people's thoughts as if they were people. He also describes the inner beings of wicked people as if they were a building in which those people could walk. Alternate translation: "in their inner beings they are always thinking about more evil things to do"

Psalms 73:8

General Information:

Asaph continues to describe how he sometimes wants to complain to God about those who are "arrogant" and

"wicked" (Psalms 73:3).

They mock

Whom they mock can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "They mock God and his people"

Psalms 73:9

They set their mouth against the heavens

Here "their mouth" is a metonym for their speech, and "heavens" is a metonym for God, who lives in the heavens.

Alternate translation: "They speak against God, who is in the heavens"

their tongues march through the earth

The word "tongues" represents the people themselves.

Possible meanings are 1) "they go through the earth saying bad things about God" or "they go everywhere and boast about themselves."

Psalms 73:10

General Information:

Asaph continues to describe how he sometimes wants to complain to God about those who are "arrogant" and "wicked" (Psalms 73:3).

his people turn to them

Possible meanings are 1) "God's people love the wicked people" or "the wicked people return to this place"

abundant waters are drained out

Possible meanings are 1) "God's people listen gladly to the words of the wicked people" or 2) "the wicked people have plenty of food to eat and wine to drink"

Psalms 73:11

They say

the wicked people say

How does God know? Is there knowledge with the Most High?

These rhetorical questions are to show contempt for God.

These questions can be translated as statements. Alternate translation: "Surely God does not know what we are doing. The Most High has no knowledge of it."

Psalms 73:12

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 73:13

General Information:

In verses 13 and 14, Asaph continues to describe how he sometimes wants to complain to God about those who are "arrogant" and "wicked" (Psalms 73:3). In verse 15 he begins to talk about what he is really thinking.

I have

The word "I" refers to Asaph.

guarded my heart

Asaph speaks of guarding his heart as if he were guarding a city or building against enemies. Alternate translation: "I have kept my thoughts pure" washed my hands in innocence

The writer speaks of his purity as if he had washed his hands with innocence instead of with water. See how you translated this in Psalms 26:6. Alternate translation: "my actions have remained pure" or "I have washed my hands to show that I am innocent"

Psalms 73:14

all the day long

"always" or "every day"

I have been afflicted
 "You have made me suffer." See how "they are not afflicted" is translated in Psalms 73:5.
 I have been ... disciplined
 "I have been ... punished"
 Psalms 73:15
 If I had said, "I will say these things," then I would have betrayed this generation of your children
 This statement describes something that could have happened in the past but did not. Alternate translation: "I never said, 'I will say these things,' so I did not betray this generation of your children"
 Psalms 73:16
 these things
 The good things that happen to "the wicked" (Psalms 73:4-Psalms 12).
 Psalms 73:17
 their fate
 "what happens to wicked people when they die" or "how wicked people die"
 Psalms 73:18
 put them
 The word "them" refers to the wicked.
 slippery places
 "unsafe or unstable ground." See how "slipped" is translated in Psalms 73:2.
 Psalms 73:19
 How they become a wilderness in a moment
 The word "wilderness" is a metaphor for a person who has lost everything good. Alternate translation: "How quickly they are destroyed"
 Psalms 73:20
 like a dream after one wakes up
 The wicked will last no longer than what a person sees in a dream. It disappears as soon as the person wakes up.
 their image
 This phrase refers to the "dream" about the people who are "wicked" and "at ease" (Psalm 73:12).
 Psalms 73:21
 my heart was embittered
 The word "heart" represents the person emphasizing their thoughts and feelings. Alternate translation: "I was very sad"
 I was deeply wounded
 The psalmist speaks of emotional pain as if it were physical pain by being pierced with a knife or arrow. Alternate translation: "I felt like someone had wounded me"
 Psalms 73:22
 ignorant and lacked insight

These two phrases mean basically the same thing and emphasize how little he knew. Alternate translation: "very ignorant" lacked insight
 "understood nothing"
 you
 This "you" refers to God.
 Psalms 73:23
 I am always with you
 The word "I" here represents Asaph. The word "you" here represents God.
 you hold my right hand
 The person's "right hand" refers to the whole person. This shows an intimate relationship with God that offers stability and security. Alternate translation: "You hold me close"
 Psalms 73:24
 receive me to glory
 Possible meanings are 1) "put me where people will honor me" or 2) "honor me by taking me to where you are." See how "receive me" is translated in Psalms 49:15.
 Psalms 73:25
 Whom have I in heaven but you?
 You can translate this as a statement. Alternate translation: "There is no one for me in heaven but you!" or "You are the only one I have in heaven!"
 in heaven
 "among the gods" or "among the supernatural beings"
 Psalms 73:26
 My flesh and my heart
 These two phrases share similar meanings. Together they represent the whole person. Alternate translation: "My body and my mind"
 Psalms 73:27
 General Information:
 Asaph continues to talk about God.
 Those who are far from you Here the idea of staying far from God is compared to being unwilling to obey him. Alternate translation: "Those who do not want to obey you" who are unfaithful
 The word "unfaithful" here refers to sexual immorality that violates marriage. This is a metaphor for people who say they will worship only Yahweh but later worship other gods.
 Psalms 73:28
 my refuge
 The writer speaks of Yahweh as if he were a place to which a person could flee for safety.

Chapter 74

A maschil of Asaph.

- ¹ God, why have you rejected us forever?
 Why does your anger burn against the sheep of your pasture?
- ² Call to mind your people, whom you purchased in ancient times, the tribe whom you have redeemed to be your own heritage, and Mount Zion, where you live.

- ³ Come look at the everlasting ruins,
all the damage that the enemy has done in the holy place.
- ⁴ Your adversaries roared in the middle of your appointed place;
they set up their battle flags.
- ⁵ They hacked away with axes
as in a thick forest.
- ⁶ They smashed and broke down all the engravings;
they broke them with axes and hammers.
- ⁷ They set your sanctuary on fire, knocking it to the ground;
they desecrated the dwelling place of your name.
- ⁸ They said in their hearts, "We will destroy them all."
They burned up all the meeting places of God in the land.
- ⁹ We do not see any more signs;
there is no prophet any more,
and no one among us knows how long this will last.
- ¹⁰ How long, God, will the enemy throw insults at you?
Will the enemy blaspheme your name forever?
- ¹¹ Why do you hold back your hand, your right hand?
Take your right hand from your garment and destroy them.
- ¹² Yet God has been my king from ancient times, bringing salvation on the earth.
- ¹³ You divided the sea by your strength;
you smashed the heads of the sea monsters in the waters.
- ¹⁴ You crushed the heads of leviathan;
you fed him to those living in the wilderness.
- ¹⁵ You broke open springs and streams;
you dried up flowing rivers.
- ¹⁶ The day is yours, and the night is yours also;
you set the light and the sun in place.
- ¹⁷ You have set all the borders of the earth;
you have made summer and winter.
- ¹⁸ Call to mind how the enemy hurled insults at you, Yahweh, and that a foolish people has blasphemed your name.

- ¹⁹ Do not give the life of your dove to a wild animal.
Do not forget forever the life of your oppressed people.
- ²⁰ Remember your covenant, for the dark regions of the land are full of places of violence.
- ²¹ Do not let the oppressed be turned back in shame;
let the poor and oppressed praise your name.
- ²² Arise, God; plead your own cause;
call to mind how fools mock you all day long.
- ²³ Do not forget the voice of your adversaries or the uproar of those who continually defy you.

Psalm 74 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 74 is a psalm of deliverance. The people have been completely conquered and they pray for God to deliver them. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

God's power

The enemies have destroyed God's temple and are insulting the people. God is powerful. He made everything and he chose Israel for his people. He should avenge himself on these enemies that have burnt his temple. (See: temple and people of God and avenge)

Superscription

This is called a "Maschil." The word in the original language has caused scholars to have various opinions about its meaning. Some say it means to instruct, while others say that the word is referring to the skill used in creating the psalm. Still others think it means that meditation should be used in reading this psalm.

Links:

Psalms 74:1

Psalms 74:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A maschil of Asaph

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

A maschil

This may refer to a style of music. See how you translated this in Psalms 32:1.

God, why have you rejected us forever?

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "God, we have done nothing wrong, but you have rejected us forever!"

Why does your anger burn against the sheep of your pasture?

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "We are the ones you have promised to care for, and we have done nothing wrong, but now you are angry with us!" the sheep of your pasture

Asaph speaks of the people of Israel as if they were sheep.

Alternate translation: "against Israel, who are like the sheep whom you feed in your pasture"

Psalms 74:2

Call to mind

"Pay attention to." God has not forgotten his people, but he does not seem to be thinking about them.

your own heritage

"yours forever"

Psalms 74:3

General Information:

These verses describe an actual event, a physical attack on the temple of Israel in Jerusalem.

Come look

Asaph is addressing God, asking him to come look at the destruction.

the everlasting ruins

the ruins of a building that no one will ever rebuild

Psalms 74:4

roared

The adversaries were shouting loudly with a great cry of victory.

Psalms 74:5

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 74:6

engravings

This refers to carvings on wood, metal, or stone in the temple.

Psalms 74:7

General Information:

Asaph continues to describe the destruction of the temple.

They ... they

Here "they" refers to the adversaries mentioned in Psalms 74:4.

Psalms 74:8

They ... They

Here "they" refers to the adversaries mentioned in Psalms 74:4.

They said in their hearts

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "They said to themselves" or "They thought to themselves"

Psalms 74:9

General Information:

Asaph is addressing God about the destruction he sees.

We do not see any more signs

Possible meanings are 1) "We do not see any more miraculous signs from God" or 2) "All our sacred symbols are gone" or 3) the "signs" are the flags and symbols of an army representing the army itself. Alternate translation: "They have completely destroyed our army"

Psalms 74:10

How long, God, will the enemy throw insults at you?

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "God, the enemy has been throwing insults at you for too long!"

Will the enemy blaspheme your name forever?

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "It seems as if you will never stop the enemy from blaspheming your name!"

blaspheme your name

The word "name" is a metonym for God himself. Alternate translation: "say that you are bad" or "insult you"

Psalms 74:11

Why do you hold back your hand, your right hand?

The psalmist speaks of God as if he had a physical body.

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "Stop holding back your hand, your right hand!"

hold back your hand

Here the word "hand" is a metonym for power. Alternate translation: "not show your power" or "not use your power to destroy your enemies"

your right hand

"your strongest hand"

Take your right hand from your garment

The psalmist speaks of God as if he had a physical body. "Stop hiding your power and take action"

Psalms 74:12

General Information:

This begins a new theme: Asaph is proclaiming God's mighty deeds in the history of his people.

God has been my king from ancient times

Possible meanings are 1) Asaph is speaking as Israel's representative, "God has been our king since we Israelites first became a nation" or 2) "God, my king, was alive even in ancient times."

bringing salvation

The abstract noun "salvation" can be translated with the verb "to save." Here Yahweh saving people is spoken of as if salvation were an object that he brings with him. Alternate translation: "saving people"

Psalms 74:13

You divided ... in the waters

Asaph is probably speaking of the time God brought Israel out of Egypt, divided the Sea of Reeds, led Israel through it on dry land, then drowned Pharaoh's army.

You divided the sea by your strength

Asaph is speaking of God as if God had a physical body.

"You are so strong you were able to make dry land in the middle of the sea."

the sea

"the great water"

you smashed the heads of the sea monsters in the waters

Asaph is probably speaking of Pharaoh and his army as if they were sea monsters. If possible, translate these words literally. Alternate translation: "when you killed Pharaoh's army, it was as if you smashed the heads of sea monsters in the waters"

Psalms 74:14

General Information:

Asaph continues to speak of what God did long ago. He is probably speaking of when God brought Israel out of Egypt and drowned Pharaoh's army in the Sea of Reeds. If possible, these words should be translated literally.

leviathan

Leviathan is a sea monster. It represents a cruel enemy.

Psalms 74:15

You broke open springs and streams

Yahweh causing springs and streams to flow out of the ground as if he broke open the ground so that they could flow. Alternate translation: "You caused springs and streams to flow out of the ground"

Psalms 74:16

General Information:

Asaph continues to recount God's creative power.

the light

This probably refers to the moon.

Psalms 74:17

the borders of the earth

"the boundaries of the land and the sea"

Psalms 74:18

General Information:

Asaph is pleading for God's help.

Call to mind

"Pay attention to." See how this is translated in [Psalms 74:2]

the enemy hurled insults at you

Asaph speaks of insulting words as if they were physical objects, like stones, which the enemy was throwing at Yahweh. Alternate translation: "the enemy insulted you many times"

Psalms 74:19

the life of your dove

Asaph speaks of himself as if he were a dove, a defenseless bird. This phrase may also be a metaphor for the people of Israel. Alternate translation: "me, your dove"

dove

A small, defenseless bird often kept as a pet.

a wild animal

This phrase may be a metaphor for the enemies of Israel.
Alternate translation: "a savage enemy that is like a wild animal"

Do not forget forever the life of your oppressed people

"Do not continue forever to do nothing to help your oppressed people." This can be stated in positive form.

Alternate translation: "Come soon to help your oppressed people"

Psalms 74:20

General Information:

Asaph continues his lament to Yahweh.

the dark regions of the land are full of places of violence

Asaph speaks of "regions" as if they were containers in which one could put "places of violence." Alternate translation: "violent people do evil deeds in dark places in the land wherever they can"

the dark regions of the land

The word "dark" is probably a metaphor for a place where bad things happen or for the lands to which the Israelites had been sent in exile, but these words should be translated literally if possible.

Psalms 74:21

Do not let the oppressed be turned back in shame

"Do not let wicked people defeat the oppressed and make them ashamed"

the oppressed

These are people who are treated cruelly by powerful people.

the poor and oppressed

The words "poor" and "oppressed" mean basically the same thing and emphasize that Yahweh saves many who need his help. See how these words are translated in [Psalms 35:10]

Psalms 74:22

plead your own cause

This phrase is a metaphor that speaks as if God were testifying in court. Alternate translation: "show everyone that you are right"

call to mind

"Pay attention to." God has not forgotten how fools mocked him, but he does not seem to be thinking about it. See how this is translated in verse Psalms 2.

Psalms 74:23

the voice of your adversaries

The word "voice" is a metonym for the words people use when they speak. Alternate translation: "what your adversaries are saying"

or the uproar of those who continually defy you

The psalmist speaks of the words of those who defy God as if they were the loud sound of animals or non-living objects like water or the wind. Alternate translation: "and pay attention to the loud and meaningless words of those who continually defy you" defy boldly oppose

Chapter 75

For the chief musician; set to Al Tashheth. A psalm of Asaph, a song.

¹ We give thanks to you, God;
we give thanks, for your name is near;
people tell of your wondrous works.

² At the appointed time
I will judge fairly.

³ Though the earth and all the inhabitants shake in fear,
I make steady the earth's pillars.

Selah

⁴ I said to the arrogant, "Do not be arrogant," and to the wicked, "Do not lift up the horn.

⁵ Do not lift up your horn to the heights;
do not speak with an arrogant neck."

⁶ It is not from the east or from the west, and it is not from the wilderness that lifting up comes.

⁷ But God is the judge;

he brings down and he lifts up.

⁸ For Yahweh holds in his hand a cup of foaming wine, which is mixed with spices, and pours it out.
Surely all the wicked of the earth will drink it to the last drop.

⁹ But I will continually tell what you have done;
I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

¹⁰ He says, "I will cut off all the horns of the wicked, but the horns of the righteous will be raised up."

Psalm 75 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 75 is a wisdom psalm; teaching what will happen to evil people. (See: wise and evil)

Special concepts in this chapter

Punishment

God has warned the evil people that they will be punished. He will strengthen the good people. (See: good)

Links:

Psalms 75:1

Psalms 75:1

General Information:

The people of God are speaking in 75:1, and God speaks in 75:2-3. Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician; set to Al Tashheth. A psalm of Asaph, a song
This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

set to Al Tashheth

This may refer to a style of music. See how you translated this in Psalms 57:1.

A psalm of Asaph

"This is a psalm that Asaph wrote." See how this is translated in Psalms Psalm 53.

your name is near

you reveal your presence

Psalms 75:2

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 75:3

all the inhabitants

"all the people who live on it"

make steady the earth's pillars

"keep the earth from being destroyed" or Alternate translation: "keep my people safe"

Psalms 75:4

I said to the arrogant ... and to the wicked

The words "the arrogant" and "the wicked" are nominal adjectives that can be translated with nouns. The verb for the second phrase may be supplied from the first. Alternate translation: "I said to the arrogant people ... and I said to the wicked people"

I said

Possible meanings are 1) God is speaking or 2) Asaph is speaking.

Do not be arrogant ... Do not lift

The speaker is speaking to many wicked people, so these forms are plural.

Do not lift up the horn

Asaph speaks of wicked people as if they were animals with horns on their heads, stretching their necks and holding their heads high to frighten other animals. Alternate translation: "Do not be confident" or "Do not boast about how strong you are"

Psalms 75:5

Do not lift up your ... do not speak

The speaker is speaking to many wicked people, so these forms are plural.

Do not lift up your horn to the heights

Asaph speaks of wicked people as if they were animals with horns on their heads, stretching their necks and holding their heads as high as they can to frighten other animals. Alternate translation: "Be especially sure not to boast that you are greater than God"

with an arrogant neck

Asaph speaks of wicked people who defy or challenge God as if they were animals with horns on their heads, stretching their necks and holding their heads high to frighten other animals. Alternate translation: "arrogantly"

Psalms 75:6

It is not from the east ... that lifting up comes

Chapter 76

Asaph speaks of the one who lifts up as if he were the action of lifting up. He also speaks of God giving strength and honor to a person as if God were physically lifting that person up. Alternate translation: "The one who will lift you up will not be someone who comes from the east" or "The one who will make you strong and have people honor you will not be someone who comes from the east"

Psalms 75:7

General Information:

Asaph speaks about God.

he brings down and he lifts up

The objects of the verbs can be stated clearly: "he brings some people down and he lifts other people up." The words "brings down" and "raises up" are metaphors for God making people powerful and taking away their power.

Alternate translation: "he makes one man king in place of another man" or "he takes away one man's power and gives power to another man"

Psalms 75:8

a cup of foaming wine ... mixed with spices

When Yahweh punishes the people they will be like people who have drunk strong wine and become ill.

foaming wine

The foam is a metaphor for the power of the wine to make people drunk, Alternate translation: "strong wine" spices

dried leaves or ground seeds pours it out

pours it from a large container into the cups that the people will drink from drink it to the last drop

"drink every drop of it"

Psalms 75:9

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 75:10

He says

God says

cut off all the horns of

The horns of an animal are a metaphor for the power of a person. Alternate translation: "take away all power from" the horns of the righteous will be raised up

The horns of an animal are a metaphor for the power of a person. This can be translated as a statement in active form. Alternate translation: "I will raise up the horns of the righteous" or "I will make the righteous powerful"

Chapter 76

For the chief musician, on stringed instruments. A psalm of Asaph, a song.

¹ God has made himself known in Judah;
his name is great in Israel.

² His tent is in Salem;
his dwelling place is in Zion.

³ There he broke the arrows of the bow,
the shield, the sword, and the other weapons of war.

Selah

⁴ You shine brightly and are majestic as you descend from the mountains, where you killed your victims.

⁵ The brave of heart were plundered;
they fell asleep.
All the warriors were helpless.

⁶ At your rebuke, God of Jacob, both charioteer and horse fell asleep.

⁷ You, yes you, are to be feared;
who can stand in your sight when you are angry?

⁸ From heaven you made your judgment heard;
the earth was afraid and silent

⁹ when you, God, arose to execute judgment and to save all the oppressed of the earth.

Selah

¹⁰ Surely your angry judgment against humanity will bring you praise;
you gird yourself with the remnant of your anger.

¹¹ Make vows to Yahweh your God and keep them.
May all who surround him bring tribute to him who is to be feared.

¹² He cuts off the spirit of the princes;
he is feared by the kings of the earth.

Psalm 76 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 76 is a worship psalm.

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's greatness

God is great. He has conquered all the nations surrounding Israel. Everyone should bring him gifts.

Links:

Psalms 76:1

Psalms 76:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician, on stringed instruments. A psalm of Asaph, a song

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

on stringed instruments

"people should play stringed instruments with this song."

A psalm of Asaph

"This is a psalm that Asaph wrote" See how this is translated in Psalms 53:1.

made himself known in Judah

"caused the people of Judah to know who he is" or "made himself famous in Judah"

his name is great in Israel

The words "his name" are a metonym for his reputation.

Alternate translation: "the people of Israel consider him good and powerful"

Psalms 76:2

his dwelling place

"the place where he has chosen to live"

Psalms 76:3

There he broke the arrows of the bow, the shield, the sword, and the other weapons of war

These words are probably a metaphor for God causing the people of Judah to live in peace without being afraid of enemies making war on them, but the words should be translated literally.

Psalms 76:4

General Information:

Asaph speaks of God as if God was a soldier returning from a mountain after winning a great battle.

You shine brightly and are majestic

The second phrase strengthens the first phrase in that Yahweh's glory relates to Yahweh shining brightly.

You shine brightly

The words "shine brightly" are a metaphor for being great.

Alternate translation: "You show how extremely great you are"

Psalms 76:5

The brave of heart were plundered

The word "heart" here is a metonym for the person. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Your people killed the brave soldiers of their enemies and then took all their possessions"

fell asleep

Here "fell asleep" is a euphemism for died. Alternate translation: "died" or "fell down dead"

Psalms 76:6

At your rebuke

The abstract noun "rebuke" refers to saying something in an angry or critical way. Alternate translation: "When you rebuked them"

fell asleep

This phrase is a polite way to say that they died. Alternate translation: "died" or "fell down dead"

Psalms 76:7

who can stand in your sight when you are angry?

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation:

Chapter 77

"No one can stand in your sight when you are angry." or
"You can destroy anyone at whom you are angry."
Psalms 76:8
you made your judgment heard
"you pronounced judgment" or "you announced how you were going to punish wicked people" the earth was Here "the earth" is a metonym for the people living on the earth. Alternate translation: "the people of the earth were"
Psalms 76:9
execute judgment
"carry out judgment" or "punish wicked people"
Psalms 76:10
Surely your angry judgment
"It is certain that your angry judgment" your angry judgment against humanity will bring you praise Possible meanings are 1) "people will praise you because you are angry at the wicked and judge them" or 2) "people who are angry with you will do things that cause people to praise you."

you gird yourself with the remnant of your anger
Yahweh's anger is spoken of as something that he can tie around himself like a belt. Alternate translation: "you tie your remaining anger around you like a belt"
Psalms 76:11
him who is to be feared
"Yahweh, whom they should fear"
Psalms 76:12
He cuts off the spirit of the princes
The phrase "He cuts off the spirit" is an idiom that means He breaks the spirit or He humbles. Alternate translation:
"He humbles the princes"
he is feared by the kings of the earth
This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "the kings of the earth fear him"

Chapter 77

For the chief musician; after the manner of Jeduthun. A psalm of Asaph.

- ¹ I will call with my voice to God;
I will call out with my voice to God,
and my God will give ear to me.
- ² In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord;
at night I stretched my hands out, and they would not become tired.
My soul refused to be comforted.
- ³ I thought of God as I groaned;
I thought about him as I grew faint.
- ⁴ You held my eyes open;
I was too troubled to speak.
- ⁵ I thought about the days of old,
about years long past.
- ⁶ During the night I called to mind the song I once sang.
I thought carefully and tried to understand what had happened.
- ⁷ Will the Lord reject me forever?
Will he never again show me favor?
- ⁸ Was his covenant faithfulness gone forever?
Had his promise failed forever?
- ⁹ Had God forgotten to be gracious?
Had his anger shut off his compassion?

Selah

Selah

¹⁰ I said, "This is my sorrow:
the changing of the right hand of the Most High toward us."

¹¹ But I will remember the deeds of Yah; ¹
I will remember your miracles of long ago.

¹² I will ponder all your deeds and will reflect on them.

¹³ Your way, God, is holy;
what god compares to our great God?

¹⁴ You are the God who does wonders;
you have revealed your strength among the peoples.

¹⁵ You gave your people victory by your great power—
the descendants of Jacob and Joseph.

Selah

¹⁶ The waters saw you, God;
the waters saw you, and they were afraid;
the depths trembled.

¹⁷ The clouds poured down water;
the cloudy skies gave voice;
your arrows flew about.

¹⁸ Your thunderous voice was heard in the wind;
the lightning lit up the world;
the earth trembled and shook.

¹⁹ Your path went through the sea and your way through the surging waters, but your footprints were not seen.

²⁰ You led your people like a flock
by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

¹Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

Psalm 77 General Notes

Type of psalm

The author felt abandoned by God. This is a psalm of lament. (See: lament)

Special concepts in this chapter

Lament

God used to be close to the psalmist, but now it seems that God has completely abandoned him. Long ago, God took care of Israel and brought the people safely through the sea.

Links:

Psalms 77:1

Psalms 77:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician; after the manner of Jeduthun. A psalm of Asaph
This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

Jeduthun

One of David's chief musicians had this same name. This may refer to him. See how you translated this in [Psalms 39:1]

Psalms 77:2

I stretched my hands out

"I prayed with my arms extended"

My soul refused to be comforted

The "soul" represents the person. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "I would not allow anyone to try to comfort me"

Psalms 77:3

I thought of God as I groaned; I thought about him as I grew faint
These two phrases share similar meanings and are combined for emphasis.

as I grew faint

"as my spirit grew faint" or "as my spirit was overwhelmed"

Psalms 77:4

General Information:

After speaking about God, Asaph speaks to God in verse 4 and then returns to speaking about God.

You held my eyes open

"I said to God, 'You held my eyes open.'"

held my eyes open

Open eyes is a metonym for being unable to sleep.

Alternate translation: "kept me from sleeping"

Psalms 77:5

the days of old, about years long past

If necessary, "days of old" and "years long past" can be combined. Alternate translation: "about things that happened a very long time ago"

Psalms 77:6

I called to mind

This is an idiom for remembering. Alternate translation: "I remembered"

what had happened

Another possible meaning is "what was happening."

Psalms 77:7

Will the Lord reject me forever? Will he never again show me favor?

These two phrases express feeling rejection from the Lord.

show me favor

"do things that show that he is pleased with me"

Psalms 77:8

General Information:

Because Asaph was not sure of the answer to these questions, they are probably literal questions and should be translated literally.

Was his covenant faithfulness gone forever?

Asaph speaks of Yahweh no longer acting faithfully to his covenant as if Yahweh's covenant faithfulness had gone away. The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "Has he stopped being faithful to his covenant forever?"

Psalms 77:9

Had God forgotten to be gracious? Had his anger shut off his compassion?

These are two expressions stating similar concept of God not showing compassion.

Had his anger shut off his compassion

Asaph speaks of anger as if it were a person shutting a door to keep another person, compassion, from coming out, Alternate translation: "Had God stopped showing us compassion because he was angry with us"

Psalms 77:10

I said

Possible meanings are 1) the psalmist was speaking to himself or 2) the psalmist was speaking to Yahweh.

the changing of the right hand of the Most High toward us

The "right hand" is a metonym for power, authority or strength. Alternate translation: "the Most High no longer uses his power to help us"

Psalms 77:11

General Information:

The writer begins to speak to Yahweh.

your miracles of long ago

"the wonderful things you did long ago"

Psalms 77:12

I will ponder all your deeds and will reflect on them.

These two phrases express the concept of meditating on what Yahweh has done.

ponder think deeply about reflect on them

"think of what they mean"

Psalms 77:13

General Information:

The writer continues to speak to Yahweh.

what god compares to our great God?

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "no god compares to our great God."

Psalms 77:14

revealed your strength among the peoples

The abstract noun "strength" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "shown people from many people groups how strong you are"

Psalms 77:15

gave your people victory ... the descendants

"gave us, your people, victory ... us who are the descendants"

gave your people victory

The abstract noun "victory" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "caused your people to be victorious"

the descendants of Jacob and Joseph

This refers to the entire nation of Israel.

Psalms 77:16

The waters saw you ... they were afraid ... the depths trembled

Asaph speaks of the water as if it were a person who saw something that terrified him.

the waters saw you, and they were afraid; the depths trembled

"water" and "depth" refers to large bodies of water such as the sea or ocean.

depths

deepest waters

Psalms 77:17

The clouds poured down water

Asaph speaks of the clouds as if they were people pouring water out of containers. Alternate translation: "Much rain fell" or "It rained very hard"

your arrows flew about

This is a metaphor that describes lightning as God's arrows. Alternate translation: "the lightning you made flashed like arrows" flew

Use your language's word for what an arrow does after someone shoots it.

Psalms 77:18

thunderous voice

This is personification, referring to the thunder as the voice of God. Alternate translation: "voice, which was as loud as thunder" or "very loud voice"

lightning lit up the world

This is an exaggeration to emphasize that the lightning lit up everything the writer could see. Alternate translation: "lightning lit up everything as far as you could see"

Psalms 77:19

Your path ... your way

These two phrases have similar meanings and are combined for emphasis.

your footprints

Asaph is speaking of Yahweh as if Yahweh was a person with feet. While this is personification, it should be translated literally, if possible.

your footprints were not seen

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "no one saw your footprints"

Psalms 77:20

You led your people like a flock

This simile compares God's people to a flock of animals.

by the hand of

The phrase "by the hand of" here means "by the action of" or "through the action of."

hand

Here "hand" is synecdoche for the whole person.

Chapter 78

A maschil of Asaph.

¹ Hear my teaching, my people, listen to the words of my mouth.

² I will open my mouth in parables;
I will sing about hidden things about the past.

³ These are things that we have heard and learned, things that our ancestors have told us.

⁴ We will not keep them from their descendants.
We will tell the next generation about the praiseworthy deeds of Yahweh, his strength, and the wonders that he has done.

⁵ For he established covenant decrees in Jacob and appointed a law in Israel.
He commanded our ancestors that they were to teach them to their children.

⁶ He commanded this so that the generation to come might know his decrees, the children not yet born,
who should tell them in turn to their own children.

⁷ Then they would place their hope in God and not forget his deeds
but keep his commandments.

- ⁸ Then they would not be like their ancestors,
who were a stubborn and rebellious generation,
a generation whose hearts were not right,
and whose spirits were not committed and faithful to God.
- ⁹ The Ephraimites were armed with bows,
but they turned back on the day of battle.
- ¹⁰ They did not keep the covenant with God,
and they refused to obey his law.
- ¹¹ They forgot his deeds,
the wonderful things that he had shown them.
- ¹² They forgot the marvelous things he did in the sight of their ancestors in the land of Egypt, in the land of Zoan.
- ¹³ He divided the sea and led them across it;
he made the waters to stand like walls.
- ¹⁴ In the daytime he led them with a cloud and all the night with the light of fire.
- ¹⁵ He split the rocks in the wilderness,
and he gave them water abundantly,
enough to fill the depths of the sea.
- ¹⁶ He made streams flow out of the rock and made the water flow like rivers.
- ¹⁷ Yet they continued to sin against him, rebellious against the Most High in the wilderness.
- ¹⁸ They challenged God in their hearts
by asking for food to satisfy their appetites.
- ¹⁹ They spoke against God;
they said, "Can God really lay out a table for us in the wilderness?"
- ²⁰ See, when he struck the rock, waters gushed out
and streams overflowed.
But can he give bread also?
Will he provide meat for his people?"
- ²¹ When Yahweh heard this, he was angry;
so his fire burned against Jacob,
and his anger attacked Israel,
- ²² because they did not believe in God and did not trust in his salvation.
- ²³ Yet he commanded the skies above and opened the doors of the sky.

- ²⁴ He rained down manna for them to eat, and gave them the grain from heaven.
- ²⁵ People ate the bread of angels.
He sent them food in abundance.
- ²⁶ He caused the east wind to blow in the sky,
and by his power he guided the south wind.
- ²⁷ He rained down meat on them like dust,
birds as numerous as the sands of the sea.
- ²⁸ They fell in the middle of their camp,
all around their tents.
- ²⁹ So they ate and were full.
He gave them what they craved.
- ³⁰ But they had not yet filled up;
their food was still in their mouths.
- ³¹ Then God's anger attacked them and killed the strongest of them.
He brought down the young men of Israel.
- ³² Despite this, they continued to sin and did not believe his wonderful deeds.
- ³³ Therefore God cut short their days;
their years were filled with terror.
- ³⁴ Whenever God killed them, they would start to seek him,
and they would return and look earnestly for him.
- ³⁵ They would call to mind that God was their rock and that the Most High God was their rescuer.
- ³⁶ But they would flatter him with their mouth and lie to him with their words.
- ³⁷ For their hearts were not firmly fixed on him,
and they were not faithful to his covenant.
- ³⁸ Yet he, being merciful, forgave their iniquity
and did not destroy them.
Yes, many times he held back his anger and did not stir up all his wrath.
- ³⁹ He called to mind that they were made of flesh,
a wind that passes away and does not return.
- ⁴⁰ How often they rebelled against him in the wilderness and grieved him in the barren regions!

- ⁴¹ Again and again they challenged God and offended the Holy One of Israel.
- ⁴² They did not think about his power,
how he had rescued them from the enemy
- ⁴³ when he performed his terrifying signs in Egypt and his wonders in the region of Zoan.
- ⁴⁴ He turned the Egyptians' rivers to blood so that they could not drink from their streams.
- ⁴⁵ He sent swarms of flies that devoured them and frogs that destroyed them.
- ⁴⁶ He gave their crops to the grasshopper and their labor to the locust.
- ⁴⁷ He destroyed their vines with hail and their sycamore trees with more hail.
- ⁴⁸ He rained hail on their cattle and hurled lightning bolts at their livestock.
- ⁴⁹ The fierceness of his anger lashed out against them.
He sent wrath, fury, and trouble like angels who bring disaster.
- ⁵⁰ He leveled a path for his anger;
he did not spare them from death
but gave them over to the plague.
- ⁵¹ He killed all the firstborn in Egypt,
the firstborn of their strength in the tents of Ham.
- ⁵² He led his own people out like sheep and guided them through the wilderness like a flock.
- ⁵³ He led them secure and unafraid,
but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.
- ⁵⁴ Then he brought them to the border of his holy land, to this mountain that his right hand acquired.
- ⁵⁵ He drove out the nations from before them
and assigned them their inheritance.
He settled the tribes of Israel in their tents.
- ⁵⁶ Yet they challenged and rebelled against the Most High God and did not keep his solemn commands.
- ⁵⁷ They were unfaithful and acted treacherously like their fathers;
they were as undependable as a faulty bow.
- ⁵⁸ For they made him angry with their high places and provoked him to jealous anger with their idols.

⁵⁹ When God heard this, he was angry and completely rejected Israel.

⁶⁰ He abandoned the sanctuary of Shiloh,
the tent where he had lived among people.

⁶¹ He allowed his strength to be captured and gave his glory into the enemy's hand.

⁶² He handed his people over to the sword, and he was angry with his heritage.

⁶³ Fire devoured their young men, and their virgins had no wedding songs.

⁶⁴ Their priests fell by the sword, and their widows could not weep.

⁶⁵ Then the Lord awakened as one from sleep,
like a warrior who shouts because of wine.

⁶⁶ He drove his adversaries back;
he put them to everlasting shame.

⁶⁷ He rejected the tent of Joseph, and he did not choose the tribe of Ephraim.

⁶⁸ He chose the tribe of Judah and Mount Zion that he loved.

⁶⁹ He built his sanctuary like the heavens, like the earth that he has established forever.

⁷⁰ He chose David, his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds.

⁷¹ He took him from following the ewes with their young,
and he brought him to be shepherd of Jacob,
his people, and of Israel, his heritage.

⁷² David shepherded them with the integrity of his heart, and he guided them with the skill of his hands.

Psalm 78 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 78 is a wisdom psalm using Israel's history. (See: wise)

Special concepts in this chapter

Israel's complaining

Although God did one miracle after the other, the people of Israel still complained and failed to believe Yahweh. (See: believe)

Superscription

This is called a "Maschil." The word in the original language has caused scholars to have various opinions about its meaning. Some say it means to instruct, while others say that the word is referring to the skill used in creating the psalm.

Still others think it means that meditation should be used in reading this psalm.

Links:

Psalms 78:1

Psalms 78:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A maschil of Asaph

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

A maschil

This may refer to a style of music. See how you translated this in Psalms 32:1.

Hear my teaching

The noun "teaching" can be translated with a verb.

Alternate translation: "Hear what I teach" or "Hear me as I teach you"

the words of my mouth

The word "mouth" represents the person. Alternate translation: "my words"

Psalms 78:2

open my mouth in parables

The idiom "open my mouth" means to speak. Alternate translation: "speak in parables" sing about

"tell." See how "pours out" is translated in Psalms 19:2.

hidden things

If your language has a word for sayings that are purposely difficult to understand, you might use it here.

Psalms 78:3

General Information:

Verse 3 continues the sentence begun in verse 2.

Psalms 78:4

We will not keep them from their descendants

This can be written in positive form. Alternate translation: "We will certainly tell our descendants about them"

the praiseworthy deeds of Yahweh

"the things we praise Yahweh for"

Psalms 78:5

he established

"Yahweh established"

covenant decrees

Other possible meanings are "testimonies" or "laws."

Psalms 78:6

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 78:7

General Information:

The writer speaks of the "children" of Psalms 78:5-6.

Psalms 78:8

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 78:9

The Ephraimites ... day of battle

This is possibly a metaphor for not keeping the covenant (verse 10), but it is best to translate literally.

The Ephraimites

"The Ephraimite soldiers" were armed with bows

The soldiers probably also had arrows. Alternate translation: "had bows and arrows for weapons"

Psalms 78:10

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 78:11

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 78:12

land of Zoan

This refers to the area around the city of Zoan, which was in Egypt.

Psalms 78:13

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 78:14

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 78:15

He split

"God split"

enough to fill the depths of the sea

This is probably hyperbole. Alternate translation: "more water than they could possibly drink"

Psalms 78:16

streams

small rivers

Psalms 78:17

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 78:18

They challenged God

They wanted God to prove that he could do what he said he would do before they would believe him.

in their hearts

"with their whole hearts"

to satisfy their appetites

"so they could eat as much as they desired"

Psalms 78:19

They spoke

the Israelites spoke

Can God really lay out a table for us in the wilderness?

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "We do not believe that God can really lay out a table for us in the wilderness!" or "God, prove to us that you can really lay out a table for us in the wilderness!"

lay out a table

The idiom "lay out a table" means to prepare a table for a meal. Here the word "table" is a metonym for the food on the table. Alternate translation: "provide us with food"

Psalms 78:20

waters gushed out

much water came out quickly

But can he give bread also? Will he provide meat for his people?

The people are laughing at God to insult him with these questions. Alternate translation: "But we will not believe that he can give us bread also or provide meat for his people until we see him do it."

bread ... meat

food from plants or food from animals. Though this is a merism for all kinds of food, it is best to translate it literally if possible.

Psalms 78:21

his fire burned against Jacob

The writer speaks of Yahweh's anger as if it were a fire, and of Yahweh acting in anger against Jacob as if that fire burned Jacob. Alternate translation: "his anger was like a fire that burned Jacob"

Jacob

This refers to the nation of Israel

his anger attacked Israel

The writer speaks of Yahweh punishing Israel when he was angry as if his anger were a person who attacked Israel. Alternate translation: "because he was angry, he attacked Israel"

Psalms 78:22

did not trust in his salvation

"did not trust him to save them"

Psalms 78:23

he commanded the skies

Asaph speaks of the skies as if they were a person who could hear and obey God's commands. Alternate translation: "he spoke to the sky" skies

Possible meanings are 1) "sky" or 2) "clouds."

opened the doors of the sky

Asaph speaks of the sky as if it were a storeroom with doors. Alternate translation: "opened the sky as if it were a storeroom"

Psalms 78:24

He rained down manna for them to eat, and gave them the grain from heaven

These two lines speak of the same event.

He rained down manna

"He caused manna to fall from the sky like rain"

Psalms 78:25

the bread of angels

This refers to the manna that God provided for the people. The word "bread" represents food in general. Alternate translation: "the same kind of food that angels eat"

food in abundance

The abstract noun "abundance" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "abundant food" or "a large amount of food"

Psalms 78:26

He caused

"God caused"

Psalms 78:27

He rained down meat on them like dust

The writer speaks of Yahweh causing birds to fall from the sky as if the birds were rain that Yahweh caused to fall. He compares the large amount of birds to dust. Alternate translation: "He caused meat to fall from the sky like rain, and there was so much of it that it covered the ground like dust"

meat birds

as numerous as the sands of the sea

No one can count the grains of sand. There were more birds than anyone could count, but this is an exaggeration: there were probably not literally the same number of birds as grains of sand.

Psalms 78:28

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 78:29

craved

strongly desired

Psalms 78:30

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 78:31

Then

while the food was still in their mouths (Psalms 78:31)

God's anger attacked them

"God was angry and attacked them." See how "his anger attacked Israel" is translated in [Psalms 78:21]

brought down

This is a euphemism that means he caused them to die.

Alternate translation: "killed"

Psalms 78:32

did not believe his wonderful deeds

The word "deeds" is a metonym for God, who did the deeds.

What they did not believe can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "did not believe that he would take care of them even though he had done such wonderful deeds"

Psalms 78:33

General Information:

The writer continues telling of what God did to the Israelites.

cut short their days

Here the word "days" refers to a lifetime. The idiom "to cut short ... days" means to cause someone to die before they have lived a long life. Alternate translation: "killed them while they were still young"

their years were filled with terror

Asaph speaks of years as if they were containers. Alternate translation: "year after year they were afraid all the time"

Psalms 78:34

killed them, they would start to seek him

When some of them died, others would "start to seek" God.

to seek him

to ask him what they needed to do so he would protect them would return

"would repent" or "would be truly sorry for their sins"

look earnestly

"look urgently" or "look as best they could"

Psalms 78:35

General Information:

The tells of what the Israelites did.

call to mind

"remember." See how this is translated in Psalms 20:3.

God was their rock

The writer speaks about God as if he were a hill or mountain where people could go to be safe from their enemies. Alternate translation: "God was the one who protected them"

their rescuer

"the one who rescued them"

Psalms 78:36

flatter him

"tell him he was wonderful when they did not believe it" with their mouth

The word "mouth" is a metonym for the words they spoke using their mouths. Alternate translation: "by saying what they said"

Psalms 78:37

their hearts were not firmly fixed on him

Here "hearts" is a metonym for their thoughts. To be loyal to him is spoken of as being solidly attached to him.

Alternate translation: "their thoughts were not focused on him" or "they were not loyal to him"

Psalms 78:38

forgave their iniquity

"forgave them even though they had done evil deeds"

held back his anger

Asaph speaks of God's anger as if it were an angry person whom God held onto to keep him from attacking the one who had made him angry. Alternate translation: "did not punish them even though he was angry with them"

did not stir up all his wrath

Asaph speaks of God's wrath as if it were a sleeping person whom God allowed to sleep and did not awaken. Alternate translation: "did not allow himself to become fully angry with them"

Psalms 78:39

called to mind

"remembered." See how "call to mind" is translated in [Psalms 20:3]

they were made of flesh

The word "flesh," which is weak and then dies, is a metonym for human weakness and death. Alternate translation: "the Israelites were weak and would someday die"

Psalms 78:40

the barren regions

"places where nothing grows"

Psalms 78:41

they challenged God

They wanted God to prove that he could do what he said he would do before they would believe him. See how you translated this in Psalms 78:18.

Psalms 78:42

General Information:

The writer speaks of how God had rescued the Israelites.

Psalms 78:43

Zoan

a city in Egypt

Psalms 78:44

General Information:

The writer describes what God did.

Psalms 78:45

swarms of flies

so many flies that it looked like a cloud that devoured them

The flies made the Egyptians almost as unhappy as they would have if they had eaten the Egyptians.

destroyed them

"overran their land" or "went everywhere in their land"

Psalms 78:46

gave their crops to the grasshopper and their labor to the locust

"allowed the grasshoppers to eat all their crops and allowed the locusts to eat everything they had worked hard to produce" grasshopper

a plant-eating insect with long legs used for jumping

He gave their crops to the grasshopper

Asaph speaks of the crops as a gift that God gave to the grasshoppers. Alternate translation: "He allowed the grasshopper to eat their crops"

their labor to the locust

"he gave their labor to the locust." Asaph speaks of the people's labor as if it were a gift that God gave to the grasshoppers. The word "labor" is a metonym for the crops that their labor had produced. Alternate translation: "he allowed the locusts to eat the crops they had worked so hard to produce"

Psalms 78:47

General Information:

The writer continues to describe what God did to the Egyptians.

sycamore

a tree that gives fruit

Psalms 78:48

lightning bolts

lightning that makes loud thunder

He rained hail

"He brought hail" or "He caused hail to fall"

Psalms 78:49

The fierceness of his anger lashed out against them

Asaph speaks of God's fierceness as if it were a person who could attack another person. Alternate translation: "He was angry with them, so he suddenly and fiercely attacked them"

The fierceness of his anger

"His fierce anger"

lashed out against them

"attacked them when they were not expecting anything to happen"

He sent wrath, fury, and trouble like angels who bring disaster

Asaph speaks of wrath, fury, and trouble as though they are people God can send to do his work for him. Alternate translation: "He was so angry that he wanted to harm the Egyptians, so he made trouble for them and brought them to disaster" fury

anger that makes someone want to harm others angels who bring disaster or "servants who bring disaster"

Psalms 78:50

General Information:

The writer continues to describe what God did to the Egyptians.

He leveled a path for his anger

The psalmist speaks of anger as if it were a person who could walk Yahweh getting ready to punish the people as if he were making a smooth road for a person to walk on.
Alternate translation: "He was so angry that he did everything he could to harm them" or "It was as if his anger was an army and he made a smooth road for it to march on"

he did not spare them from death

"he did not keep the Egyptians from dying" or "he did not permit the Egyptians to live"

gave them over to the plague

Asaph speaks of the plague as if it were a person who was going to harm the Egyptians. Alternate translation: "he made them all very ill with the plague"

Psalms 78:51

the firstborn of their strength

This phrase refers to the firstborn males of each family.

Alternate translation: "the firstborn males"

in the tents of Ham

Here the word "tents" is a metonym for families. The word "Ham" refers to Egypt by the name of their ancestor.

Alternate translation: "among the families of Egypt"

Psalms 78:52

General Information:

The writer continues to describe what God did for the people of Israel.

like sheep ... like a flock

The writer speaks about the Israelites as if they were sheep. This means God cared for and protected the people like a shepherd does his sheep.

Psalms 78:53

overwhelmed completely covered

Psalms 78:54

General Information:

The writer continues to describe what God did for the people of Israel.

his right hand acquired

The words "right hand" are a metonym for power.

Alternate translation: "he won for himself using his own power"

Psalms 78:55

assigned them their inheritance

Possible meanings are 1) God assigned the Israelites their inheritance in the land in which the other nations had once lived or 2) God assigned to the nations he had driven out an inheritance somewhere else. "gave them land that would always be theirs"

in their tents

Possible meanings are 1) he settled Israel in their own tents in the land or 2) he settled Israel in the tents from which he had driven the other nations. Most of these "tents" were actually houses, both when the other nations lived in them and when the Israelites lived in them. Alternate translation: "in their homes"

Psalms 78:56

General Information:

The writer continues to describe what God did for the people of Israel.

challenged and rebelled against

These words mean almost the same thing. The writer uses them both to emphasize that the Israelites did not believe that God would either provide for them or punish evil as he had said he would.

challenged

They wanted God to prove that he could do what he said he would do before they would believe him. See how you translated this idea in Psalms 78:18.

rebelled against refused to obey

Psalms 78:57

were unfaithful and acted treacherously

These words mean almost the same thing. The writer uses them both to emphasize that the Israelites did not do for God what they had said they would do.

Psalms 78:58

General Information:

The writer continues to describe what God did for the people of Israel.

made him angry with their high places and provoked him to jealous anger with their idols

These two phrases are in parallel and have similar meanings.

Psalms 78:59

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 78:60

General Information:

The writer continues to describe what God did for the people of Israel.

Psalms 78:61

He allowed his strength to be captured and gave his glory into the enemy's hand

Asaph speaks of God's strength and glory as if they were physical objects that people could capture and hold. The words "strength" and "glory" are probably metonyms for the ark of the covenant. The word "hand" is a metonym for the enemy's power. This can be stated in active form.

Alternate translation: "He allowed his enemies to capture the glorious ark of his covenant; he simply gave it to them so they could do whatever they wanted with it"

Psalms 78:62

General Information:

The writer continues to describe what God did for the people of Israel.

He handed his people over to the sword

Asaph speaks of God's people as if they were a small object God would give as a gift, and of the sword, a metonym for death in war, as if it were a person who could receive a gift. Alternate translation: "He allowed people to kill all his people in war"

he was angry with his heritage

"he was angry with the people he had said would be his forever"

Psalms 78:63

Fire devoured their young men

Possible meanings are 1) "The enemy used fire to kill all their young men" or 2) "Their young men died quickly in battle like a fire burns dry grass." Do not communicate that these people used guns.

devoured

To "devour" is to eat everything very quickly.

young men ... virgins

These words refer to people at the time they are the strongest and most attractive.

wedding

the celebration when people marry

Psalms 78:64

Their priests fell by the sword

Here the word "sword" represents soldiers who fought with swords. The phrase "fell by the sword" is an idiom that means to die in battle. Alternate translation: "Their priests died in battle" or "Enemies killed their priests with swords" their widows could not weep Possible meanings are 1) someone forced the widows not to weep or 2) so many priests died that there was no time for proper funerals.

widows

women whose husbands have died

Psalms 78:65

the Lord awakened as one from sleep

The Lord not acting for a period of time is spoken of as if he were asleep, and his beginning to act is spoken of as if he awakened. Alternate translation: "the Lord began to act as if he had awakened from sleep"

like a warrior who shouts because of wine

Possible meanings are 1) like a warrior who had drunk too much wine and has become angry because he was awakened and so wants to fight or 2) like a warrior who drank much wine but is now able to think and fight well because he has slept.

Psalms 78:66

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 78:67

General Information:

The writer continues to describe what God did for the people of Israel.

the tent of Joseph

Here the word "tent" is a metonym for a family. In this phrase it refers to the descendants of Joseph. Alternate translation: "the descendants of Joseph"

Joseph ... Ephraim

Ephraim was Joseph's son.

Psalms 78:68

Judah ... Mount Zion

Mount Zion was in the land where the tribe of Judah lived.

Psalms 78:69

He built his sanctuary like the heavens

Possible meanings for this simile are 1) Yahweh has made his sanctuary as high as the heavens. Alternate translation: "He built his sanctuary high, like the heavens" or 2) Yahweh has made his sanctuary as permanent as the heavens. Alternate translation: "He built his sanctuary to last permanently, like the heavens last forever"

like the earth

The verb may be supplied from the previous line. The writer compares the permanence of Yahweh's sanctuary to the permanence of the earth. Alternate translation: "He built his sanctuary to last permanently, like the earth lasts permanently"

Psalms 78:70

General Information:

The writer continues to describe what God did from the sheepfolds

"from where he was working in the sheepfolds" sheepfolds

spaces with walls around them where sheep are kept safe

Psalms 78:71

to be shepherd of Jacob, his people, and of Israel, his heritage

The word "shepherd" is a metaphor for one who leads and protects other people. Alternate translation: "to lead and protect the descendants of Jacob, his people, and of Israel, his heritage"

his heritage

"the ones he had chosen to be his forever" See how this is translated in Psalms 78:62.

Psalms 78:72

David shepherded them

The word "shepherded" is a metaphor for leading and protecting. Alternate translation: "David led them and protected them"

Chapter 79

A psalm of Asaph.

¹ God, foreign nations have come into your inheritance;
they have defiled your holy temple;
they have turned Jerusalem into a heap of ruins.

² They have given the dead bodies of your servants as food to the birds of the skies, the bodies of your faithful ones to the beasts of the earth.

³ They have shed their blood like water around Jerusalem, and there was none to bury them.

⁴ We are objects of contempt to our neighbors, mocking and derision to those who are around us.

⁵ How long, Yahweh? Will you stay angry forever?
How long will your jealous anger burn like fire?

⁶ Pour out your wrath on the nations that do not know you and on the kingdoms
that do not call upon your name.

⁷ For they have devoured Jacob and laid waste his villages.

⁸ Do not hold the iniquities of our forefathers against us;
may your merciful actions come to us,
for we are very low.

⁹ Help us, God of our salvation,
for the sake of the glory of your name;
save us and forgive our sins
for your name's sake.

¹⁰ Why should the nations say,
"Where is their God?"
May the blood of your servants that was shed be avenged on the nations before our eyes.

¹¹ May the groans of the prisoners come before you;
with the greatness of your power keep the children of death alive.

¹² Pay back into the laps of our neighboring countries seven times as much as the contempt with which they have taunted you, Lord.

¹³ So we your people and sheep of your pasture will give you thanks forever.
We will tell your praises to all generations.

Psalm 79 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 79 is a deliverance psalm and a prayer for revenge against their enemies. (See: deliverer and avenge)

Special concepts in this chapter

Destruction

Jerusalem has been destroyed and its people killed. God should destroy these enemy nations who do not pray to him.

Links:

Psalms 79:1

Psalms 79:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of Asaph

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

your inheritance

"the land that was to be yours forever" See how this is translated in Psalms 68:9.

Psalms 79:2

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 79:3

They have shed their blood like water

The word "blood" is a metonym for innocent life. To shed blood is to kill innocent people. Most people saw water every day, so for blood to be as common as water, many innocent people would have to die. Alternate translation: "They have killed so many innocent people that the blood is everywhere, like water after it rains"

Psalms 79:4

We are objects of contempt to our neighbors, mocking and derision to those who are around us

The words "being objects of contempt," "mocking," and "making them ashamed" are metonyms for those who insult, mock, and deride. Alternate translation: "We have become people whom our neighbors treat with contempt; those around us mock and deride us"

We are

The pronoun "We" refers to God's people.

derision

strong laughter to shame a person

Psalms 79:5

How long will your jealous anger burn like fire?

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "It seems as though your jealous anger will never stop burning like fire."

will your jealous anger burn

The abstract noun "anger" can be stated as "angry."

Alternate translation: "will you be jealous and angry"

burn like fire

This simile compares the expression of God's anger to a fire that destroys things. Alternate translation: "destroy us"

Psalms 79:6

General Information:

These two pairs of phrases each share similar meanings and are combined for emphasis.

Pour out your wrath on the nations

Asaph speaks of God's wrath as if it were a liquid. Alternate translation: "Since you are angry, punish the nations"

do not call upon your name

The word "name" is a metonym for the person's power and authority. Alternate translation: "do not belong to you" or "do not ask you to help them"

Psalms 79:7

they have devoured Jacob

The word "Jacob" is a metonym for his descendants, the people of Israel. Alternate translation: "they have completely destroyed the people of Israel"

Psalms 79:8

Do not hold the iniquities of our forefathers against us

"Do not continue to remember the sins of our forefathers and punish us for them" or "Forgive us for the sins of our forefathers"

we are very low

The writer speaks of the people being weak and discouraged as if they were in a low position. Alternate translation: "we are very weak" or "we are very discouraged"

Psalms 79:9

God of our salvation

The word "salvation" can be translated with the verb

"save": "God who saves us."

for the sake of the glory of your name

The word "name" is a metonym for his reputation, for what people know about him. Alternate translation: "so that people will know about your glory"

for your name's sake

God's name here represents his whole being and the honor that he deserves. Alternate translation: "so that people will honor you" or "for your own sake"

Psalms 79:10

Why should the nations say, "Where is their God?"

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "The nations should not be able to say, 'Where is their God?'"

Where is their God?

This taunt can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "Their God cannot do anything!"

May the blood of your servants that was shed be avenged on the nations before our eyes

To shed blood is a metonym for killing innocent people.

This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "Avenge your innocent servants whom the nations killed where we can see you do it"

before our eyes

"in our sight" or "while we are present"

Psalms 79:11

May the groans of the prisoners come before you

Asaph speaks of the sound made by prisoners in pain and sorrow as if it were a person who appears before a king. Alternate translation: "Listen carefully to the groans of the prisoners and help them"

children of death

This is an idiom that refers to people who are condemned to death. Alternate translation: "those who are condemned to die"

Psalms 79:12

Pay back ... the contempt ... Lord

Asaph speaks of the evil deeds that the neighboring countries did against Israel as "contempt," and as if they were physical items. He asks the Lord to count those deeds, and for every one that the neighboring countries committed, he asks the Lord to have someone do seven evil deeds to the neighboring countries.

Pay back

Chapter 80

"Return" or "Give back" into the laps

onto their knees and thighs as they are sitting. This is a metaphor for "directly and personally."

Psalms 79:13

we your people and sheep of your pasture will give you thanks

The word "sheep" is a metaphor for helpless people whom a shepherd protects and leads. Alternate translation: "we who are your people, whom you protect and lead, will thank you"

tell your praises to all generations

"make sure that all generations to come know all the good things you have done"

your praises

This represents the things that people will praise them the Lord for. Alternate translation: "continue to praise you for the things that you have done"

Chapter 80

For the chief musician, set to the Shoshannim Eduth style. A psalm of Asaph.

¹ Give ear, Shepherd of Israel,
you who lead Joseph like a flock;
you who sit above the cherubim,
shine on us!

² In the sight of Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up your power;
come and save us.

³ God, restore us;
make your face shine on us,
and we will be saved.

⁴ Yahweh God of hosts,
how long will you be angry at your people when they pray?

⁵ You have fed them with the bread of tears and given them tears to drink in great quantities.

⁶ You make us an object of strife for our neighbors, and our enemies laugh in mockery about us among themselves.

⁷ God of hosts, restore us;
make your face shine on us,
and we will be saved.

⁸ You brought a vine out of Egypt;
you drove out nations and transplanted it.

⁹ You cleared the land for it;
it took root and filled the land.

¹⁰ The mountains were covered with its shade,
the cedars of God by its branches.

¹¹ It sent out its branches as far as the sea and its shoots to the Euphrates River.

- ¹² Why have you broken down its walls
so that all who pass by along the road pluck its fruit?
- ¹³ The boars out of the forest ruin it,
and the beasts of the field feed on it.
- ¹⁴ Turn back, God of hosts;
look down from heaven and take notice and take care of this vine.
- ¹⁵ This is the root that your right hand planted,
the son that you have strengthened for yourself.
- ¹⁶ It has been burned and cut down;
they perish because of your rebuke.
- ¹⁷ May your hand be on the man of your right hand,
on the son of man whom you strengthened for yourself.
- ¹⁸ Then we will not turn away from you;
revive us, and we will call on your name.
- ¹⁹ Yahweh God of hosts, restore us;
make your face shine on us, and we will be saved.

Psalm 80 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 80 is a deliverance psalm. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's help

Israel's enemies threaten them. The psalmist asks Yahweh to look down with joy on them, then they will be saved. (See: save)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Metaphor

The author uses an extended metaphor of Israel as a vine planted by God which is being uprooted.

Links:

Psalms 80:1

Psalms 80:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician, set to the Shoshannim Eduth style. A psalm of Asaph

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship" See how this is translated in Psalms 4:1.

set to the Shoshannim

This may refer to a style of music. See how you translated this in Psalms 45:1.

Shepherd of Israel

Asaph is referring to God as the one who leads and protects Israel.

you who lead Joseph like a flock

The word "Joseph" refers to the nation of Israel. Asaph speaks of the people as if they were a flock of sheep that Yahweh, who is the shepherd, leads. Alternate translation: "you who lead the descendants of Joseph as though they were a flock of sheep"

Joseph

Here Joseph represents the nation of Israel.

you who sit above the cherubim

You may need to make explicit that the cherubim are those on the lid of the ark of the covenant. The biblical writers often spoke of the ark of the covenant as if it were Yahweh's footstool upon which he rested his feet as he sat on his throne in heaven above. Alternate translation: "you who sit on your throne above the cherubim on the ark of the covenant"

shine on us

Asaph speaks of God as if he were the sun, giving light, a metaphor for moral goodness. Alternate translation: "give us light" or "show us the right way to live"

Psalms 80:2

stir up your power

The phrase "stir up" means to "put into action."

Psalms 80:3

make your face shine on us

The writer speaks of Yahweh acting favorably towards them as if Yahweh's face shone a light on them. Alternate translation: "act favorably towards us"

and we will be saved

This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "and please save us" or "so that you can save us"

Psalms 80:4

your people

Israel

Psalms 80:5

You have fed them with the bread of tears and given them tears to drink in great quantities

The words "bread of tears" and "tears to drink" are metaphors for continual sadness. Alternate translation: "You have made sure that they are very sad all the time"

Psalms 80:6

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 80:7

General Information:

Asaph is speaking on behalf of the people of Israel. He begins in verse 8 to speak of the way God settled Israel in their land as if God were a man who cleared ground and planted a grapevine. The image of the grapevine continues through verse 16.

make your face shine on us

The writer speaks of Yahweh acting favorably towards them as if Yahweh's face shone a light on them. See how you translated this in [Psalms 80:3]

we will be saved

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "you will save us"

Psalms 80:8

You brought a vine out of Egypt

Asaph compares the nation of Israel to a vine made ready to transplant. Alternate translation: "You brought us, like a vine, out of Egypt"

you drove out nations and transplanted it

The psalmist speaks of his people as if they were a plant that Yahweh was transplanting. Alternate translation: "you drove out nations from their land and gave it to us, the vine, and planted us there"

you drove out nations

It can be made clear where the nations were that God forced out. Alternate translation: "you forced nations out of this land" or "you forced nations to leave the land of Canaan"

Psalms 80:9

General Information:

Asaph continues speaking of Israel in their land as if Israel were a grapevine in a vineyard.

You cleared the land for it

"You cleared the land for the vine"

it took root

"the vine took root" or "the vine began to grow" filled the land

"its branches covered the land"

Psalms 80:10

The mountains were covered with its shade, the cedars of God by its branches

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Its shade covered the mountains, its branches the cedars of God"

the cedars of God by its branches

"and the cedars of God were covered by its branches," which copies the verb from the previous sentence. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "and its branches covered the cedars of God"

cedars of God

Possible meanings are 1) "the highest cedar trees," the cedar trees that grew on the "mountains" in the land of Lebanon north of Israel, or 2) "God's own cedar trees."

Psalms 80:11

the sea

the Mediterranean Sea to the west of Israel shoots

the parts of new plants that are just starting to grow above the ground

Psalms 80:12

General Information:

Asaph continues speaking of Israel in their land as if Israel were a grapevine in a vineyard.

its walls

walls of stone, not of wood

Psalms 80:13

boars

wild pigs that ruin gardens and farms and attack people. If your readers do not know what these are, use the word for a wild animal that ruins gardens and farms and attacks people.

forest land where there are many trees

beasts

Chapter 81

wild animals of any kind field

land where there are many plants but no trees

Psalms 80:14

General Information:

Asaph finishes speaking of Israel in their land as if Israel were a grapevine in a vineyard.

Turn back

The writer wants God to turn back in order to help them.

This can be stated explicitly. Alternate translation: "Turn back to us" or "Come and help us again"

take notice

"look at"

this vine

The writer continues comparing the nation of Israel to the vine.

Psalms 80:15

This is the root that your right hand planted

The right hand represents the Yahweh's power and control.

Alternate translation: "This is the root that you, Yahweh, planted"

the son that you have strengthened for yourself

The word "son" here is probably a metaphor for the "shoots" of

Psalms 80:16

down; they perish because of your rebuke

Possible meanings are 1) "down; your people perish because of your rebuke." or 2) "down. May your enemies perish because of your rebuke!"

Psalms 80:17

your hand

This refers to Yahweh's power and control.

the man of your right hand

the nation of Israel, which Yahweh has chosen as his people.

right hand

When a man in Israel wanted to honor another man, he would have that other man stand at his right side, close to his right hand.

Psalms 80:18

we will not turn away from you

Here "turn away" is a metaphor for rejecting someone. This can also be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: "we will not stop worshiping and obeying you" or "we will always worship and obey you"

Psalms 80:19

shine on us

The writer speaks of Yahweh acting favorably towards them as if Yahweh's face shone a light on them. See how you translated this in [Psalms 80:3]

we will be saved

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "you will save us"

Chapter 81

For the chief musician; set to the Gittith style. A psalm of Asaph.

¹ Shout joyfully to God our strength;
shout out for joy to the God of Jacob.

² Sing a song and play the tambourine, the pleasant harp with the lute.

³ Blow the ram's horn on the day of the new moon, on the day of the full moon, when our feast day begins.

⁴ For it is a statute for Israel, a decree given by the God of Jacob.

⁵ He issued it as a regulation in Joseph
when he went against the land of Egypt,
where I heard a voice that I did not recognize:

⁶ "I removed the burden from his shoulder;
his hands were freed from holding the basket.

⁷ In your distress you called out, and I helped you;
I answered you from a dark thundercloud.
I tested you at the waters of Meribah.

Selah

- ⁸ Listen, my people, for I will warn you,
Israel, if you would only listen to me!
- ⁹ There must be no foreign god among you;
you must not worship any foreign god.
- ¹⁰ I am Yahweh your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt.
Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.
- ¹¹ But my people did not listen to my words;
Israel did not obey me.
- ¹² So I gave them over to their own stubborn way
so that they might follow their own devices.
- ¹³ Oh, that my people would listen to me;
oh, that my people would walk in my paths.
- ¹⁴ Then I would quickly subdue their enemies and turn my hand against their oppressors.
- ¹⁵ May those who hate Yahweh cringe in fear before him!
May they be humiliated forever.
- ¹⁶ I would feed Israel with the finest wheat;
I would satisfy you with honey out of the rock."

Psalm 81 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 81 is a wisdom psalm. It is meant to be sung at "new moon" and "full moon" ceremonies. (See: wise)

Special concepts in this chapter

Obedience

If Israel would obey and worship God, he would destroy their enemies.

Links:

Psalms 81:1

Psalms 81:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician; set to the Gittith style. A psalm of Asaph

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

A psalm of Asaph

A psalm that Asaph wrote.

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship;"

set to the Gittith

This may refer to a style of music. See how you translated this in Psalms 8:1.

God our strength

The abstract noun "strength" can be stated as "strong."

Alternate translation: "God who causes us to be strong" the God of Jacob

Here "Jacob" represents all of his descendants. Alternate translation: "the God of Israel, the nation of Jacob's descendants"

Psalms 81:2

play the tambourine, the pleasant harp with the lute

These are musical instruments.

tambourine

a musical instrument with a head like a drum that can be hit and with pieces of metal around the side that sound when the instrument is shaken

Psalms 81:3

the new moon
This is the beginning of the lunar month.
the day of the full moon
This is the middle of the lunar month.
when our feast day begins
"and on the days when our feasts begin"
Psalms 81:4
For it
Here "it" refers to the feast day.
a decree given by the God of Jacob
This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "the God of Jacob decreed it" or "the God of Jacob commanded it"
the God of Jacob
Here "Jacob" represents all of his descendants. Alternate translation: "the God of Israel, the nation of Jacob's descendants"
Psalms 81:5
issued it as a regulation
"gave it as a law"
in Joseph
Here "Joseph" represents all of the Israelites. Alternate translation: "to the Israelites"
when he went against the land of Egypt
This refers to the historical events in Egypt when the people of Israel were enslaved and God rescued them.
the land of Egypt
Here "land" represents the people. Alternate translation: "the people of Egypt"
Psalms 81:6
General Information:
Here God begins speaking.
removed the burden from his shoulder
Here "the burden from his shoulder" represents the forced labor the Israelites had to do as slaves in Egypt.
his hands were freed from holding the basket
Here "holding the basket" represents the forced labor the Israelites had to do as slaves in Egypt.
Psalms 81:7
In your distress
"In your great suffering"
I answered you from a dark thundercloud
When God came to the Israelites, he hid the fullness of his presence and glory in a dark and threatening cloud.
I tested you at the waters of Meribah
God tested the children of Israel to see if they would trust him to supply water in the desert of Meribah.
Psalms 81:8
General Information:
Yahweh reminds the people what he said while they were in the desert.
for I will warn you
"because I am giving you a warning"
Israel
Here "Israel" represents the people of Israel. Alternate translation: "Israelites" or "people of Israel"

if you would only listen to me!
"how I wish you would listen to me" or "but you must start listening to me!"
Psalms 81:9
General Information:
This page has intentionally been left blank.
Psalms 81:10
Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it
God taking care of all the needs of the people is spoken of as if he were a mother bird feeding her baby birds.
Psalms 81:11
General Information:
Now Yahweh tells what actually happened after he warned the people.
to my words
"to what I said" or "to me"
Psalms 81:12
So I gave them over to their own stubborn way
God allowing the people to remain stubborn is spoken of as if God were giving them over to an enemy to let the enemy harm them. Alternate translation: "Therefore, I let them be stubborn" they might follow their own devices
"they might follow their own plans" or "they might do what they think is right"
Psalms 81:13
oh, that my people would walk in my paths
God wanting the people to obey him is spoken of as if he wanted the people to walk on his paths or roads. Alternate translation: "I wish that they would obey my laws"
Psalms 81:14
turn my hand against Here "hand" represents Yahweh's power. Alternate translation: "I would destroy" or "I would defeat"
Psalms 81:15
who hate Yahweh ... before him Yahweh is speaking about himself in the third person. Alternate translation: "who hate me ... before me" cringe in fear
"bow down in fear" or "fall down in fear"
May they be humiliated forever
This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "I would humiliate them forever" or "I will punish them forever"
Psalms 81:16
I would feed Israel with the finest wheat God causing the best wheat to grow in Israel is spoken of as if he would literally feed the wheat to the people. Alternate translation: "I would allow the Israelites to eat the finest wheat" feed Israel ... satisfy you Both "Israel" and "you" refer to the Israelites.
honey out of the rock
This refers to wild honey. Bees would build hives in the holes in rocks and make the honey there.

A psalm of Asaph.

¹ God stands in the divine assembly;
in the midst of the gods he renders judgment.

² How long will you judge unjustly and show favoritism to the wicked?

Selah

³ Give justice to the poor and fatherless; maintain the rights of the afflicted and destitute.

⁴ Rescue the poor and needy;
take them out of the hand of the wicked.

⁵ They neither know nor understand;
they wander around in the darkness;
all the foundations of the earth crumble.

⁶ I said, "You are gods,
and all of you are sons of the Most High.

⁷ Nevertheless you will die like men and fall like one of the princes."

⁸ Arise, God, judge the earth,
for you have an inheritance in all the nations.

Psalm 82 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 82 is a psalm of judgment against the leaders of the other nations. (See: judge)

Special concepts in this chapter

Favoritism

The leaders of the nations need to protect the poor and needy and not to favor the evil rich people. (See: favor and evil)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Metonymy

The leaders of the nations are represented by their gods. (See: and false god)

Links:

Psalms 82:1

Psalms 82:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of Asaph

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

the divine assembly

"the heavenly council" or "the meeting in heaven"

he renders judgment

"he gives judgment." The abstract noun "judgment" can be stated as a verb. Alternate translation: "he judges"

the gods

Possible meanings are 1) these are other spiritual beings who dwell in heaven. Alternate translation: "the divine beings" or "the heavenly judges" or 2) these are human judges that God has appointed. Either way, it does not mean they are gods like Yahweh is god. It means God has given them great power and authority. Alternate translation: "the rulers"

Psalms 82:2

How long will you judge unjustly and show favoritism to the wicked?
Yahweh uses a question to rebuke the gods for not judging people fairly.

Psalms 82:3

poor ... fatherless ... afflicted ... destitute

These words are nominal adjectives. They can be stated as adjectives. Alternate translation: "those who are poor ... those who are fatherless ... those who are afflicted ... those who are destitute" maintain the rights of the

"do what is right for the"

Psalms 82:4

poor ... needy ... wicked

These are all nominal adjectives. They can be stated as adjectives. Alternate translation: "those who are poor ... those who are needy ... those who are wicked"

take them out of the hand of the wicked

Here the word "hand" represents power or control.

Alternate translation: "stop the wicked people from harming them"

Psalms 82:5

They neither

Possible meanings are 1) "they" refers to the gods or 2) "they" refers to the wicked people.

they wander around in the darkness

Doing what is evil is spoken of as if they were walking in a very dark place.

all the foundations of the earth crumble

The gods corrupting the moral order that Yahweh established is spoken of as if the gods were shaking the earth and making it fall apart.

crumble

fall apart

Psalms 82:6

You are gods, and all of you are sons of the Most High

Here "gods" refers to the same group as in Psalms 82:1.

Whether this refers to spiritual beings or human beings, they are not gods like Yahweh is God, and they are not literally his sons. By calling them "gods" and "sons of the Most High," Yahweh is acknowledging that he has given them great power and authority.

sons of the Most High Yahweh is speaking about himself as "the Most High."

Psalms 82:7

Nevertheless you

"However you"

and fall

This is a way of speaking of a person dying.

Psalms 82:8

General Information:

The writer is speaking again.

judge the earth

Here "earth" represents the people. Alternate translation:

"judge the people of the earth"

for you have an inheritance in all the nations

"for all the nations are your inheritance." Yahweh taking all the people as his own and ruling over them is spoken of as if the nations were a possession that he inherited. Alternate translation: "for you rule over all the people of every nation"

all the nations

Here "nations" represents the people of the nations.

Chapter 83

A song. A psalm of Asaph.

¹ God, do not be silent!

Do not ignore us and remain unmoved, God.

² Look, your enemies are making a commotion, and those who hate you have raised their heads.

³ They make shrewd plans against your people and plan together against your protected ones.

⁴ They have said, "Come, and let us destroy them as a nation.

Then the name of Israel will no longer be remembered."

⁵ They schemed together with one strategy;

they made an alliance against you—

⁶ the tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites, of Moab and the Hagrites,

⁷ Byblos, Ammon, Amalek;

and also Philistia and the inhabitants of Tyre.

⁸ Assyria also has joined with them;

they have become an arm for the descendants of Lot.

Selah

⁹ Do to them as you did to Midian, as you did to Sisera and to Jabin at the Kishon River.

¹⁰ They perished at Endor and became like manure for the earth.

¹¹ Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb, and all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna.

¹² They said, "Let us take for ourselves
the pastures of God."

¹³ My God, make them like the whirling dust, like chaff before the wind,

¹⁴ like the fire that burns the forest, and like the flame that sets the mountains on fire.

¹⁵ Chase them with your strong wind, and terrify them with your windstorm.

¹⁶ Fill their faces with shame
so that they might seek your name, Yahweh.

¹⁷ May they be put to shame and be terrified forever;
may they perish in disgrace.

¹⁸ Then they will know that you alone,
whose name is Yahweh,
are the Most High over all the earth.

Some modern English translations read, Gebal .

Psalm 83 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 83 is a deliverance psalm. It is a prayer for deliverance from the many nations allied against Israel. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Destruction

God should destroy these enemy nations like he destroyed Israel's enemies during the time of the Judges.

Links:

Psalms 83:1

Psalms 83:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A song. A psalm of Asaph

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

remain unmoved
 "do nothing to help us"
 Psalms 83:2
 Look, your enemies are making a commotion
 Here "making a commotion" means they are rioting and rebelling. Alternate translation: "Look, your enemies are rebelling against you"
 those who hate you have raised their heads
 The phrase "raised their heads" is way of saying they are rebelling against God. Alternate translation: "those who hate you are defying you"
 Psalms 83:3
 your protected ones
 "those whom you protect." This refers to the Israelites.
 Psalms 83:4
 the name of Israel will no longer be remembered
 Here "name" represents a reputation or the memory of someone. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "no one will ever remember the Israelites existed"
 Psalms 83:5
 They schemed together with one strategy
 "Your enemies have agreed together with one plan"
 they made an alliance against you
 "they have joined together against you"
 Psalms 83:6
 General Information:
 The writer continues to list the people groups who want to destroy Israel.
 the tents of Edom
 This refers to the people of Edom who lived in tents.
 Hagrites
 This is the name of a people group that lived on the east side of the Jordan River.
 Psalms 83:7
 Byblos, Ammon, Amalek ... Philistia
 These all represent the people of each area or tribe.
 Alternate translation: "the people of Byblos, the Ammonites, the Amalekites ... the Philistines"
 Byblos
 This is the name of a region south of the Dead Sea.
 Psalms 83:8
 Assyria
 This represents the people of Assyria. Alternate translation: "the people of Assyria"
 they have become an arm for the descendants of Lot Here "arm" is a metonym that represents "help." Alternate translation: "they have become a help for the descendants of Lot" or "they are helping the descendants of Lot"
 the descendants of Lot
 This refers to the people of the nations of Moab and Ammon. You can make clear the understood information.
 Psalms 83:9
 Do to them as you did to Midian ... Sisera and to Jabin
 The writer is asking God to defeat Israel's enemies as he has done in the past.
 did to Midian
 Here "Midian" represents the people of Midian. Alternate translation: "did to the Midianites"

Sisera ... Jabin
 These are names of men. Jabin was king of Hazor. Sisera was the commander of Jabin's army.
 Kishon River
 This is the name of a river in northern Israel.
 Psalms 83:10
 Endor
 This is the name of a town in northern Israel.
 became like manure for the earth
 This means the bodies of Sisera and Jabin were not buried but were left to rot.
 Psalms 83:11
 General Information:
 The writer continues to remind God of other enemies he has defeated for Israel in the past.
 Oreb ... Zeeb ... Zebah ... Zalmunna
 These are all names of kings.
 Psalms 83:12
 They said
 Here "They" refers to Oreb, Zeeb, Zebah and Zalmunna.
 the pastures of God
 This speaks about the land of Israel as if it were land for sheep to graze and God were the shepherd watching over it.
 Psalms 83:13
 General Information:
 The writer uses similes to describe God's total destruction of Israel's enemies.
 make them like the whirling dust, like chaff before the wind
 Both statements speak of God destroying his enemies as if he were a strong wind easily blowing them away.
 Psalms 83:14
 like the fire that burns the forest, and like the flame that sets the mountains on fire
 Both statements speak of God's punishment as if it were a fire, and the enemies of God are things that burn in the fire.
 Psalms 83:15
 Chase them with your strong wind, and terrify them with your windstorm
 Both statements ask God to destroy the enemies with storms.
 Psalms 83:16
 Fill their faces with shame
 Here "faces" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "Make them very ashamed" they might seek your name Here "name" represents God's power. God's enemies acknowledging that God is powerful is spoken of as if they are seeking to find Yahweh. Alternate translation: "they might acknowledge that you are powerful" seek your name
 Possible meanings are 1) God's enemies admit that God is powerful or 2) God's enemies are asking God for help or 3) God's enemies start to worship and obey him.
 Psalms 83:17
 May they be put to shame and be terrified forever
 This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Make them ashamed and terrified forever"
 may they perish in disgrace

Chapter 84

"may they die while they are ashamed"

Psalms 83:18

Then they will know

This can also be stated as the writer making a request to God. Alternate translation: "Cause them to know"

are the Most High over all the earth

God ruling over everything in the earth is spoken of as if he were elevated higher than everything else. Alternate translation: "are supreme, and you rule all things on the earth"

Chapter 84

For the chief musician; set to the Gittith style. A psalm of the sons of Korah.

¹ How lovely is the place where you live,
Yahweh of hosts!

² I long for the courts of Yahweh;
my desire for it has made me exhausted.
My heart and all of my being shout for joy to the living God.

³ Even the sparrow has found herself a house and the swallow a nest for herself where she may lay her young near your altars, Yahweh of hosts, my King, and my God.

⁴ Blessed are they who live in your house;
they praise you continually.

Selah

⁵ Blessed is the man whose strength is in you,
in whose heart are the highways up to Zion.

⁶ As they go through the Valley of Tears they make it a place of springs.
The early rains cover it with blessings. ¹

⁷ They go from strength to strength;
every one of them appears before God in Zion.

⁸ Yahweh God of hosts, hear my prayer;
give ear, God of Jacob!

Selah

⁹ God, watch over our shield;
show concern for your anointed.

¹⁰ For one day in your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere.
I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God,
than to live within the tents of the wicked.

¹¹ For Yahweh God is our sun and shield;
Yahweh will give grace and glory;

he does not withhold any good thing from those who walk in integrity.

- ¹² Yahweh of hosts, blessed is the man who trusts in you.

.Some scholars translate the Hebrew as cover it with pools of water .

Psalm 84 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 84 is a worship psalm.

Special concepts in this chapter

Obedience

God blesses all who want to obey him. Praising God in his temple is better than anything else. (See: bless and temple)

Similarity to Psalm 42-43

There are many similarities between these psalms and some scholars suggest they were written by the same people.

Links:

Psalms 84:1

Psalms 84:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician; set to the Gittith style. A psalm of the sons of Korah

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship"

set to the Gittith

This may refer to a style of music. See how you translated this in Psalms 8:1.

How lovely

"How beautiful"

Psalms 84:2

I long for the courts of Yahweh

"I really want to be in the courts of Yahweh"

the courts of Yahweh

Here "courts" represent the temple.

my desire for it has made me exhausted

"my desire has exhausted me" or "I am tired because I want it so much"

My heart and all of my being shout for joy

Here "heart" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "I shout for joy with all of my being"

the living God

This means God is living and he also has the power to cause other things to live.

Psalms 84:3

sparrow ... swallow

These are types of birds.

found herself a house

"found herself a home" or "made herself a home"

the swallow a nest

Here the words "has found" or "has made" are understood.

Alternate translation: "the swallow has found a nest" or "the swallow has made a nest"

where she may lay her young

"where she may lay her eggs and care for her babies"

Psalms 84:4

they who live in your house

Possible meanings are 1) "they" refers to the priests who permanently serve at the temple or 2) "they" refers to people in general who come and worship at the temple.

praise you continually

"keep praising you again and again"

Psalms 84:5

Blessed is the man

Here "man" refers to people in general.

whose strength is in you

God is spoken of as if strength was actually found in him.

Alternate translation: "whom you strengthen"

in whose heart are the highways up to Zion

This expression is about heart-felt desire. Alternate translation: "Who love to go up to Zion" or "Who earnestly wish go up to Zion" highways

roads built higher than the surrounding ground up to Zion

The temple was in Jerusalem on the top of the highest hill, called Mount Zion.

Psalms 84:6

the Valley of Tears

This refers to a dry, arid place. Some Bible versions have "the Valley of Baca." The word "Baca" means "weeping."

The early rains

This means the rain that falls in autumn before the cold season. This is during the months of October and November on Western calendars.

blessings

Here the word "blessings" is a metonym for the pools of water that make people who live in dry lands happy.

Alternate translation: "pools of water that make them happy"

Psalms 84:7

They go from strength to strength

This is a way of saying they get stronger.

They go

Here "They" refers to those who strongly desire to go to the temple to worship God.

Psalms 84:8

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 84:9

God, watch over our shield

The king who protects his people is spoken of as if he were a shield. Alternate translation: "God, watch over our king"

Psalms 84:10

For one day in your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere

This can be stated with the understood information.

Alternate translation: "I would rather be in your courts for one day than to be somewhere else for a thousand days"

a thousand

"1,000"

be a doorkeeper

"be a guard at the door" or "stand at the door"

the wicked

This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective.

Alternate translation: "wicked people" or "those who are wicked"

Psalms 84:11

For Yahweh God is our sun and shield

Yahweh who guides and protects his people is spoken of as if he were the sun and a shield. Alternate translation: "For Yahweh God guides us like the light from the sun, and he protects us like a shield"

Yahweh will give grace and glory

The abstract nouns "grace" and "glory" can be stated as verbs. Alternate translation: "Yahweh will be kind to us and honor us" who walk in integrity

The way a person conducts their lives or behaves is spoken of as if the person were walking. Alternate translation:

"who live honestly" or "who are honest"

Psalms 84:12

blessed is the man

Here "man" means people in general. Alternate translation:

"blessed are those"

Chapter 85

For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah.

¹ Yahweh, you have shown favor to your land;
you have restored the well-being of Jacob.

² You have forgiven the iniquity of your people;
you have covered all their sin.

Selah

³ You have withdrawn all your wrath;
you have turned back from your hot anger.

⁴ Restore us, God of our salvation, and let go of your displeasure with us.

⁵ Will you be angry with us forever?
Will you remain angry throughout future generations?

⁶ Will you not revive us again?
Then your people will rejoice in you.

⁷ Show us your covenant faithfulness, Yahweh;
grant us your salvation.

⁸ I will listen to what Yahweh God says, for he will make peace with his people, his faithful ones.
Yet they must not turn again to foolish ways.

- ⁹ Surely his salvation is near to those who fear him;
then glory will remain in our land.
- ¹⁰ Steadfast love and faithfulness have met together;
righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
- ¹¹ Trustworthiness springs up from the ground, and righteousness looks down from the sky.
- ¹² Yes, Yahweh will give his good blessings, and our land will yield its crops.
- ¹³ Righteousness will go before him and make a way for his footsteps.

Psalm 85 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 85 is a worship psalm.

Special concepts in this chapter

Blessings

God has given so many blessings. If the people stop their sinning, then the land will be filled by the glory of God and his blessings. (See: bless and sin and glory)

Group Prayer

Note how this psalm uses the plural to show that it is a group praying.

Links:

Psalms 85:1

Psalms 85:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician. A psalm of the sons of Korah

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship."

you have shown favor to your land

Here "land" represents the nation and people of Israel.

well-being

This refers to a person being happy, healthy and prosperous.

of Jacob

Here "Jacob" represents Jacob's descendents, the Israelites.

Psalms 85:2

you have covered all their sin

Here sin that is forgiven is spoken of as if it were covered so that it can not be seen. Alternate translation: "you have deliberately forgotten their sin"

their sin

This writer thought of himself as belonging to God's people.

Alternate translation: "our sin"

Psalms 85:3

You have withdrawn all your wrath

God no longer punishing the Israelites is spoken of as if wrath were an object that Yahweh could take away from the Israelites.

you have turned back from your hot anger

God no longer being angry with the Israelites is spoken of as if anger were a fire that God from which God turned away.

Psalms 85:4

God of our salvation

The abstract noun "salvation" can be stated as a verb.

Alternate translation: "God who saves us"

let go of your displeasure with us

Asking God to stop being angry with the Israelites is spoken of as if displeasure were an object the writer wants God to let go of.

Psalms 85:5

Will you be angry with us forever? Will you remain angry throughout future generations?

The writer uses these questions to emphasize that he is requesting God to stop being angry with them. These rhetorical questions can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "Please do not stay angry at us forever."

Psalms 85:6

Will you not revive us again?

The writer uses a question to emphasize his request to God to make the people of Israel prosper and happy again. This rhetorical question can be translated as a statement.

Alternate translation: "Please make us prosper again."

Psalms 85:7

Show us your covenant faithfulness

If the sentence is rearranged, the ideas in the abstract noun "covenant faithfulness" can be expressed with the phrase "faithful to your covenant."

grant us your salvation

This is how the writer wants God to show his faithfulness to his people. If the sentence is rearranged, the ideas in the abstract noun "salvation" can be expressed with the verb "save." Alternate translation: "and save us" or "by saving us"

Psalms 85:8

make peace with his people

"have a peaceful relationship with his people" or "bring peace to his people"

Yet they must not turn again to foolish ways

A person changing the way he behaves is spoken of as if he were physically turning to a different direction. Alternate translation: "Yet they must not start doing foolish things again"

Psalms 85:9

Surely his salvation is near to those

God being ready to save someone is spoken of as if salvation were an object that God has placed near someone. Alternate translation: "Surely God is ready to save those" then glory will remain in our land

Here "glory" represents God's presence. Alternate translation: "then his glorious presence will remain in our land"

Psalms 85:10

Steadfast love and faithfulness have met together

The abstract nouns "love" and "faithfulness" are spoken of as if they were persons who meet together. Possible meanings are 1) God constantly loves his people because of his covenant and has done what he promised to do.

Alternate translation: "God has loved his people without ceasing and has proven that he is worthy of people trusting him" or 2) God has been faithful because of his covenant and the people have responded by being faithful to him. Alternate translation: "God has loved his people and his people have responded by trusting him"

have met together ... have kissed each other

Most likely the speaker is describing a time in the future when God causes the people to prosper again. Alternate translation: "will meet together ... will kiss each other"

righteousness and peace have kissed each other

Possible meanings are 1) the people will do what is right and God will cause the people to live in peace or 2) God will do what is right and will cause the people to live in peace. Either way righteousness and peace are abstract nouns and are spoken of as if they were persons who kiss each other.

kissed each other

This was a common way for friends to greet each other.

Psalms 85:11

Trustworthiness springs up from the ground

The people on earth being faithful to God is spoken of as if trustworthiness were a plant growing out of the ground.

The abstract noun "trustworthiness" can be stated as "loyal." Alternate translation: "Here on earth, we will be loyal to God" righteousness looks down from the sky

The word "righteousness" is an abstract noun, and it is spoken of as a person looking down as God does. Alternate translation: "God will look on us from heaven and will act justly towards us"

Psalms 85:12

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 85:13

Righteousness will go before him and make a way for his footsteps

God doing what is right everywhere he goes is spoken of as if righteousness were a person who goes ahead of God and prepares a path for God to walk.

his footsteps

Here "footsteps" represents where God walks.

Chapter 86

A prayer of David.

¹ Listen, Yahweh, and answer me,
for I am poor and needy.

² Protect me, for I am faithful;
my God, save your servant who trusts in you.

³ Be merciful to me, Lord, for I cry out to you all day long.

⁴ Make your servant glad,
for to you, Lord, I lift up my soul.

⁵ You, Lord, are good, and ready to forgive, abounding in steadfast love to all those who cry out to you.

⁶ Give ear, Yahweh, to my prayer;
hear the sound of my pleas.

⁷ In the day of my trouble I call on you,
for you will answer me.

⁸ There is no one who compares to you among the gods, Lord.
There are no deeds like your deeds.

⁹ All the nations that you have made will come and bow before you, Lord.
They will honor your name.

¹⁰ For you are great and do wonderful things;
you only are God.

¹¹ Teach me your ways, Yahweh.
Then I will walk in your truth.
Unite my heart
to reverence your name.

¹² Lord my God, I will praise you with my whole heart;
I will glorify your name forever.

¹³ For great is your covenant faithfulness toward me;
you have rescued my life from the depths of Sheol.

¹⁴ God, the arrogant have risen up against me.
A company of violent men seek my life.
They have no regard for you.

¹⁵ But you, Lord, are a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness.

¹⁶ Turn toward me and have mercy on me;
give your strength to your servant;
save the son of your servant woman.

¹⁷ Show me a sign of your favor.
Then those who hate me will see it and be put to shame because you, Yahweh, have helped me and comforted me.

Psalm 86 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 86 is a deliverance psalm. He is praying for deliverance from his many enemies. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's help

God has blessed the psalmist and is so loving to him. He has been one of God's servants. Now he needs God to save him. (See: bless and love and save)

Links:

Psalms 86:1

Psalms 86:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A prayer of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

poor and needy

"weak and needy"

Psalms 86:2

save your servant

David refers to himself as "your servant," that is, God's servant. Alternate translation: "save me, your servant"

Psalms 86:3

all day long

This is an exaggeration. David cries out continually, but not literally at all times from dawn to dusk. Alternate translation: "continually"

Psalms 86:4

Make your servant glad

David refers to himself as "your servant," that is, God's servant. Alternate translation: "Make me, your servant" or "Make me"

Psalms 86:5

abounding in steadfast love to all those who cry out to you

The abstract noun "love" can be restated with the verb "loving" Alternate translation: "faithfully loving all those who cry out to you"

Psalms 86:6

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 86:7

In the day of my trouble

"During my times of difficulty"

I call on you

"I pray to you"

Psalms 86:8

among the gods

The writer is not acknowledging these other gods exist. He is referring to false gods that people from other nations worship.

Psalms 86:9

All the nations

Here "the nations" represent the people. Alternate translation: "The people from all nations"

They will honor your name

Here "name" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "They will honor you"

Psalms 86:10

wonderful things

"very good things that amaze me"

you only are God

"you are the only God"

Psalms 86:11

Teach me your ways, Yahweh. Then I will walk in your truth

A person who obeys what God wants is spoken of as if he were walking on God's way or road. Alternate translation: "Teach me your truth, Yahweh. Then I will obey what you say"

Unite my heart to reverence your name

Here "heart" represents a person's thoughts, emotions, and motives. The word "name" is a metonym for the person whose name it is. Asking God to cause a person to respect him completely is spoken of as if the person's heart were in many pieces and that God unites them together. Alternate translation: "Cause me to respect you sincerely with all my heart" or "Cause me to respect you sincerely"

Psalms 86:12

I will praise you with my whole heart

Here "heart" represents a person's thoughts, emotions, and motives. Alternate translation: "I will praise you completely and sincerely"

I will glorify your name

Here "name" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "I will glorify you"

Psalms 86:13

For great is your covenant faithfulness toward me

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be stated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "For you are very faithful to me because of your covenant"

you have rescued my life from the depths of Sheol

This does not mean God brought him back to life after he died. It means God saved him when he was about to die.

Psalms 86:14

the arrogant

This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective.

Alternate translation: "arrogant people"

have risen up against me

"are coming together to harm me"

company of violent men

The word "company" here is a general term for a group of people who are together for a common purpose, not a specific term for people working to do harm.

seek my life

This is a way of saying they want to kill him.

Psalms 86:15

and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness

The abstract nouns "love" and "faithfulness" can be expressed with the verb "love" and the adjective "faithful." Alternate translation: "and always loving your people and always being faithful to them"

Psalms 86:16

Turn toward me

Asking God to consider him is spoken of as if he wanted God to turn and look at him.

give your strength to your servant

The abstract noun "strength" can be stated as a verb or an adjective. Alternate translation: "strengthen your servant" or "make your servant strong"

your servant ... the son of your servant woman	be put to shame
The writer is speaking about himself in the third person.	This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:
Psalms 86:17	"they will be ashamed"

Chapter 87

A psalm of the sons of Korah; a song.

- 1

On the holy mount stands the city he founded;
- 2

Yahweh loves the gates of Zion more than all the tents of Jacob.
- 3

Glorious things are said of you,
city of God.
- 4

"I mention Rahab and Babylon to my followers.
See, there are Philistia, and Tyre, along with Cush—and will say, "This one was born there."
- 5

Of Zion it will be said,
"Each of these was born in her;
and the Most High himself will establish her."
- 6

Yahweh writes in the census book of the nations,
"This one was born there."
- 7

So also the singers and the dancers say together,
"All my fountains are in you."

Selah

Selah

Psalm 87 General Notes

Type of psalm
Psalm 87 is a psalm about Jerusalem.
Special concepts in this chapter
Pride
People will be proud to have been born in Jerusalem.
Psalms about Jerusalem
Psalm 46, 48, and 76 are part of a group of psalms that celebrate Jerusalem.

Links:

Psalms 87:1

Psalms 87:1	gates of Zion
General Information:	Here "gates of Zion" represents the entire city of Jerusalem.
Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.	Alternate translation: "city of Jerusalem"
A psalm of the sons of Korah; a song	all the tents of Jacob
This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms .)	The people lived in tents while they wandered in the desert. Here the writer uses "tents of Jacob" to represent where the Israelites live now. Alternate translation: "any of the other dwelling places of the Israelites"
Psalms 87:2	Psalms 87:3

Glorious things are said of you, city of God
 The writer speaks to the city of Jerusalem as if it were listening to him. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "You people in Jerusalem, other people say wonderful things about your city"
 Psalms 87:4
 I mention
 "I tell about." Here "I" refers to Yahweh.
 Rahab and Babylon
 Here "Rahab" is a poetic way of referring to Egypt. Both "Rahab" and "Babylon" represent the people. Alternate translation: "the people of Egypt and Babylon" to my followers
 "to those who worship me"
 This one was born there
 "This one" refers to the people from the nations that the writer mentions. Although they were not physically born in Zion, those who follow God are natives of Jerusalem spiritually.
 Psalms 87:5
 Of Zion it will be said
 This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "People will say about Zion"
 Each of these was born in her People from other nations that worship Yahweh are spoken of as if they were born in Jerusalem. Alternate translation: "It is as though all of these people were born in Jerusalem" in her It was common to refer to cities as "her." Alternate translation: "in Jerusalem" or "in Zion"

 the Most High himself
 The writer uses the reflexive pronoun "himself" to emphasize that it is the Most High who is doing this.
 will establish her
 "will make Jerusalem strong"
 Psalms 87:6
 Yahweh writes in the census book of the nations
 Yahweh acknowledging that the people from other nations belong to him is spoken of as if he were a king writing down the names of the people who live in his city.
 This one was born there
 "This one" refers to the people from the nations that the writer mentions. Although they were not physically born in Zion, those who follow God are natives of Jerusalem spiritually. See how you translated this in Psalms 87:4.
 Psalms 87:7
 All my fountains are in you
 Jerusalem being a place where people receive all their blessings is spoken of as if Jerusalem were a spring that provided water to the people.

Chapter 88

A song, a psalm of the sons of Korah; for the chief musician; set to the Mahalath Leannoth style. A maschil of Heman the Ezrahite.

- ¹ Yahweh, God of my salvation,
 I cry out day and night before you.
- ² Listen to my prayer;
 pay attention to my cry.
- ³ For I am filled with troubles, and my life has reached Sheol.
- ⁴ People treat me like those who go down into the pit;
 I am a man with no strength.
- ⁵ I am free among the dead;
 I am like the dead who lie in the grave,
 about whom you care no more because they are cut off from your power.
- ⁶ You place me in the lowest part of the pit,
 in the dark and deep places.
- ⁷ Your wrath lies heavy on me,
 and all your waves crash over me.
- ⁸ Because of you, my acquaintances avoid me.

Selah

You have made me an abomination to them.
I am hemmed in and I cannot escape.

⁹ My eyes grow weary from trouble;
All day long I call out to you, Yahweh;
I spread out my hands to you.

¹⁰ Will you do wonders for the dead?
Will those who have died rise and praise you?

Selah

¹¹ Will your covenant faithfulness be proclaimed in the grave, your faithfulness in the place of the dead?

¹² Will your wonderful deeds be known in the darkness,
or your righteousness in the place of forgetfulness?

¹³ But I cry to you, Yahweh;
in the morning my prayer comes before you.

¹⁴ Yahweh, why do you reject me?
Why do you hide your face from me?

¹⁵ I have always been afflicted and on the verge of death since my youth.
I have suffered from your terrors;
I am in despair.

¹⁶ Your burning anger has passed over me,
and your terrifying deeds have annihilated me.

¹⁷ They surround me like water all the day long;
they have all encircled me.

¹⁸ You have removed every friend and acquaintance from me.
My only acquaintance is the darkness.

Psalm 88 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 88 is a psalm of deliverance from sickness. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Abandon

Ever since he was a child, the psalmist has been sick, and now all his friends have abandoned him. If he dies he cannot testify about God's healing.

Links:

Psalms 88:1

Psalms 88:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of the sons of Korah; a song

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

A song, a psalm of the sons of Korah

"This is a psalm that the sons of Korah wrote"

for the chief musician

"this is for the director of music to use in worship"

set to the Mahalath Leannoth style

This may refer to a style of music.

A maschil

This may refer to a style of music. See how you translated this in Psalms 32:1.

Heman

This is the name of a man.

God of my salvation

The abstract noun "salvation" can be stated as a verb.

Alternate translation: "you are the one who saves me"

day and night

The writer uses these words with opposite meanings to say that he cries out continually.

Psalms 88:2

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 88:3

For I am filled with troubles

The writer speaks of himself as if he were a container and troubles are the contents that fill the container. Alternate translation: "For I am very troubled"

my life has reached Sheol

Here "life" represents the writer. And "Sheol" represents death. The writer speaks about himself possibly dying soon as if Sheol were a place and he has arrived at that place.

Alternate translation: "I am about to die"

Psalms 88:4

People treat me like those who go down into the pit

The word "pit" means the same as "Sheol." The phrase "go down into the pit" represents dying. Alternate translation: "people treat me like I have already died"

Psalms 88:5

I am free among the dead

The word "free" here is the word used for a slave whose master he no longer has to obey. This is probably an ironic metaphor because the word is usually used to describe good things, but here it is used to tell why the writer is unhappy. Alternate translation: "I now share the existence of the dead" or "I am left alone as if I were dead"

the dead ... the dead

This nominal adjective refers to dead people. Alternate translation: "those who have died ... those who have died"

I am like the dead who lie in the grave

The writer feeling like people and God have abandoned him speaks about himself as if he were already a dead person lying in a grave.

about whom you care no more

"who no longer receive your care" or "people you have stopped caring about"

they are cut off from your power

God no longer using his power to help dead people is spoken of as if God literally cut him off or removed him from his power. Alternate translation: "you no longer use your power to help them"

Psalms 88:6

You place me in the lowest part of the pit, in the dark and deep places
The writer feeling like God has abandoned him speaks about himself as if God has put the him in the deepest and darkest grave.

Psalms 88:7

Your wrath lies heavy on me

This speaks about God being very angry with the writer as if God's wrath were a heavy object lying on top of the writer. Alternate translation: "I feel your great anger" or "I feel how very angry you are with me"

all your waves crash over me

This speaks about God being very angry with the writer as if God's anger were large waves rising up from the sea then landing on the writer.

Psalms 88:8

my acquaintances

"those who know me"

You have made me an abomination to them

The words "abomination" here is a hyperbolic metaphor. The psalmist's friends find him disgusting, but probably not in any religious sense. Alternate translation: "You have made me a disgusting sight to them" or "Because of you, they are shocked when they see me"

I am hemmed in

The writer's physical condition that makes him repulsive to his friends is spoken of as if he were in closed into a confining space. Alternate translation: "It is as though I were in a prison" or "I am trapped"

Psalms 88:9

My eyes grow weary from trouble

Here "eyes" represents a person's ability to see. For his eyes to grow weary from trouble is a way of saying that he his troubles cause him to cry so much that it is hard for him to see.

I spread out my hands to you

"I lift up my hands to you." This is an action that shows that he totally depends on God.

Psalms 88:10

Will you do wonders for the dead?

The writer uses a question to emphasize that if God lets him die then God will no longer be able to do wonderful things for him. Alternate translation: "You do not do wonders for dead people."

Will those who have died rise and praise you?

The writer uses a question to emphasize that if God lets him die then he will not be able to praise God any longer.

Alternate translation: "You know that those who have died will not stand up and praise you."

Psalms 88:11

Will your covenant faithfulness be proclaimed in the grave, your faithfulness in the place of the dead?

Both questions mean the same thing. The writer uses questions to emphasize that a dead person is not able to praise God's faithfulness. The abstract nouns "covenant faithfulness" and "faithfulness" can be translated as adjectives. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Nobody will proclaim your covenant faithfulness or faithfulness from the grave." or "Nobody will proclaim from the grave that you are faithful to your covenant and faithful to your people"

the grave ... the place of the dead

These represent the place where people go after they die. your faithfulness in the place of the dead?

This can be translated as a separate sentence. Alternate translation: "Will your faithfulness be proclaimed in the place of the dead?" or "Those who are dead will not proclaim your faithfulness."

Psalms 88:12

in the darkness ... the place of forgetfulness

These represent the place where people go after they die. Will your wonderful deeds be known in the darkness, or your righteousness in the place of forgetfulness?

Both questions mean the same thing. The writer uses questions to emphasize that those who are dead are not able to experience or proclaim the great things God does. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "People will not talk about your wonderful deeds and righteousness in the dark place of the forgotten dead."

or your righteousness in the place of forgetfulness?

This can be translated as a separate sentence. Alternate translation: "Will your righteousness be known in the place of forgetfulness?" or "Those who are in the place of forgetfulness will not know about the righteous things you do."

Psalms 88:13

my prayer comes before you

The writer praying to Yahweh is spoken of as if the prayer itself goes to speak with Yahweh.

Psalms 88:14

Why do you hide your face from me?

This speaks of the writer feeling like God has rejected or abandoned him as if God were hiding his face or physically turning away from the writer.

Psalms 88:15

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 88:16

Your burning anger has passed over me

The phrase "burning anger" is a metonym for the deeds that God did because he was angry. It is also a metaphor that speaks of God punishing the writer as if God's actions are a large wave rising out of the sea that fall on and crush the writer. Alternate translation: "It is as if your angry actions crush me" your terrifying deeds have annihilated me

This exaggeration speaks about God punishing the writer as if God has completely destroyed the writer. Alternate translation: "the terrifying things you do have destroyed me" or "the terrifying things you do have almost destroyed me"

Psalms 88:17

They surround me like water all the day long

The writer compares God's "angry actions" and "terrifying deeds" to a flood of water. Alternate translation: "All day long they threaten to destroy me like a flood"

They

The word "They" refers to God's "angry actions" and "terrifying deeds" from the previous verse.

they have all encircled me

The writer speaks of God's "angry actions" and "terrifying deeds" as if they were enemies who were trying to capture and kill him. Alternate translation: "they have surrounded me like enemy soldiers"

Psalms 88:18

every friend and acquaintance

"every person I love and know"

My only acquaintance is the darkness

This speaks about darkness as if it were a person that could be friends with someone else. The writer is emphasizing that he feels completely alone. Alternate translation: "Everywhere I go it is dark"

Chapter 89

A maschil of Ethan the Ezrahite.

¹ I will sing of Yahweh's acts of covenant faithfulness forever.
I will proclaim your truthfulness to future generations.

² For I have said, "Covenant faithfulness has been established forever;
your truthfulness you have established in the heavens."

³ You said, "I have made a covenant with my chosen one,
I have made an oath to David my servant:

⁴ 'I will establish your descendants forever, and I will establish your throne through all generations.'"

Selah

⁵ The heavens praise your wonders, Yahweh;
your truthfulness is praised in the assembly of the holy ones.

- ⁶ For who in the skies can be compared to Yahweh?
Who among the sons of the gods is like Yahweh?
- ⁷ He is a God who is greatly honored in the council of the holy ones and is awesome among all who surround him.
- ⁸ Yahweh God of hosts,
who is strong like Yah? ¹
Your truthfulness surrounds you.
- ⁹ You rule the raging sea;
when the waves surge, you calm them.
- ¹⁰ You crushed Rahab as one who is killed.
You scattered your enemies with your strong arm.
- ¹¹ The heavens belong to you, and the earth also.
You established the world and all it contains.
- ¹² You created the north and the south.
Tabor and Hermon rejoice in your name.
- ¹³ You have a mighty arm and a strong hand, and your right hand is high.
- ¹⁴ Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne.
Steadfast love and faithfulness come before you.
- ¹⁵ Blessed are the people who know the joyful sound!
Yahweh, they walk in the light of your face.
- ¹⁶ They rejoice in your name all day long,
and in your righteousness they exalt you.
- ¹⁷ You are their glorious strength, and by your favor our horn is exalted.
- ¹⁸ For our shield belongs to Yahweh;
our king belongs to the Holy One of Israel.
- ¹⁹ Long ago you spoke in a vision to your faithful ones; ²
you said, "I have set a crown on a mighty one." ³
I have raised up one chosen from among the people.
- ²⁰ I have chosen David my servant;
with my holy oil have I anointed him.
- ²¹ My hand will support him;
my arm will strengthen him.
- ²² No enemy will deceive him;

no son of wickedness will oppress him.

²³ I will crush his enemies before him;
I will kill those who hate him.

²⁴ My truth and my covenant faithfulness will be with him;
by my name his horn will be exalted.

²⁵ I will place his hand over the sea and his right hand over the rivers.

²⁶ He will call out to me, 'You are my Father, my God, and the rock of my salvation.'

²⁷ I also will place him as my firstborn son,
the most exalted of the kings of the earth.

²⁸ I will extend my covenant faithfulness to him forever;
and my covenant with him will be secure.

²⁹ I will make his descendants endure forever and his throne as enduring as the skies above.

³⁰ If his children abandon my law and do not walk in my regulations,

³¹ if they break my rules and do not keep my commands,

³² then will I punish their rebellion with a rod and their iniquity with blows.

³³ But I will not remove my steadfast love from him or be unfaithful to my promise.

³⁴ I will not break my covenant or change the words of my lips.

³⁵ Once and for all I have sworn by my holiness—
I will not lie to David:

³⁶ his descendants will continue forever and his throne as long as the sun before me.

³⁷ It will be established forever like the moon, the faithful witness in the sky."

Selah

³⁸ But you have refused and rejected;
you have been angry with your anointed king.

³⁹ You have renounced the covenant of your servant.
You have desecrated his crown on the ground.

- ⁴⁰ You have broken down all his walls.
You have ruined his strongholds.
- ⁴¹ All who pass by have robbed him.
He has become the scorn of his neighbors.
- ⁴² You have raised the right hand of his enemies;
you have made all his enemies rejoice.
- ⁴³ You turn back the edge of his sword and have not made him stand when in battle.
- ⁴⁴ You have brought his splendor to an end;
you have brought down his throne to the ground.
- ⁴⁵ You have shortened the days of his youth.
You have covered him with shame.

Selah

- ⁴⁶ How long, Yahweh? Will you hide yourself forever?
How long will your anger burn like fire?
- ⁴⁷ Oh, think about how short my time is,
and for what vanity you have created all the children of mankind!
- ⁴⁸ Who can live and not die,
or rescue his own life from the hand of Sheol?

Selah

- ⁴⁹ Lord, where are your former acts of covenant faithfulness that you swore to David in your truthfulness?
- ⁵⁰ Call to mind, Lord, the mocking directed against your servants and how I bear in my heart so many insults from the nations.
- ⁵¹ Your enemies hurl insults, Yahweh;
they mock the footsteps of your anointed one.
- ⁵² Blessed be Yahweh forever.
Amen and Amen.

BOOK FOUR

(Psalms 90-106)

¹Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

²Many ancient copies of the Hebrew text have the singular faithful one instead of faithful ones .

³The ancient copies of the Hebrew text have I will place help upon a warrior . Some scholars translate the word for help as crown and that is how the ULB editors have translated the word here.

Psalm 89 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalms 89 is a worship and a deliverance psalm. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's promises

God is mighty and has promised David an eternal kingdom. But now that kingdom is being destroyed. (See: promise and eternity)

Parallelism

This psalm exhibits the kind of parallelism where the second line often emphasizes the first line.

Links:

Psalms 89:1

Psalms 89:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A maschil of Ethan the Ezrahite

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

A maschil

This may refer to a style of music. See how you translated this in Psalms 32:1.

Ethan

This is the name of the writer.

acts of covenant faithfulness

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be stated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "faithful acts" or "loving acts"

Psalms 89:2

Covenant faithfulness has been established forever

God always doing what he promised to do is spoken of as if his faithfulness were a building that God has built and made firm. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "You will always be faithful because of your covenant with us"

your truthfulness you have established in the heavens

God always doing what he promised to do is spoken of as if his faithfulness were a building that God has built and made firm.

in the heavens

These words could refer to 1) God's dwelling place, meaning that God rules from heaven and he always does what he promises, or 2) the sky, meaning that God's promises are as constant and permanent as the sky .

Psalms 89:3

I have made a covenant with my chosen one

You can make explicit that "chosen one" refers to David.

Alternate translation: "I made a promise to David, the one I chose"

I have made

Yahweh is speaking in 89:3-4.

Psalms 89:4

I will establish your descendants forever

Yahweh always causing one of David's descendants to be king is spoken of as if David's descendants are a building that Yahweh will build and make firm.

I will establish your throne through all generations

Here "throne" represents the power to rule as king. The psalmist speaks of God promising that one of David's descendants will always rule as king as if God will build David's throne and make it firm. Alternate translation: "I will make sure that one of your descendants will rule as king over every generation of my people"

Psalms 89:5

The heavens praise

Here "heavens" represents those who are in heaven.

praise your wonders, Yahweh

"praise you, Yahweh, because of the wonderful things you do"

your truthfulness is praised in the assembly of the holy ones

The abstract noun "truthfulness" can be stated as "you always do what you promise to do." This can also be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "The assembly of the holy ones praises you because you always do what you promise to do" the assembly of the holy ones

This refers to the angels in heaven.

Psalms 89:6

For who in the skies can be compared to Yahweh? Who among the sons of the gods is like Yahweh?

Both questions mean the same thing. The writer is using question to emphasize that there is no one in heaven like Yahweh.

sons of the gods

Here "sons of" means having the characteristics of. This is a way of referring to other spiritual beings that live in heaven. Alternate translation: "angels" or "divine beings"

Psalms 89:7

He is a God who is greatly honored in the council of the holy ones

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"The council of the holy ones greatly honors God"

the council of the holy ones

"the gathering of heavenly beings" or "the gathering of angels"

Psalms 89:8

who is strong like Yah?

The writer asks the question to emphasize there is no one as strong as Yahweh.

Your truthfulness surrounds you

Yahweh always doing what he promises to do is spoken of as if his truthfulness were a cloak or garment that wraps around him.

Psalms 89:9

You rule the raging sea

"You control the raging sea"

Psalms 89:10

You crushed Rahab as one who is killed

The word "Rahab" here refers to a monster of the sea.

with your strong arm

Here "arm" represents power. Alternate translation: "with your great power"

Psalms 89:11

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 89:12

the north and the south

The writer uses the words "north" and "south" together to mean that God created everything everywhere.

Tabor and Hermon rejoice in your name

Tabor is a mountain southwest of the sea of Galilee and Hermon is a mountain northeast of the sea of Galilee. The writer describes these mountains as if they were persons who could rejoice. Alternate translation: "It is as if Mount Tabor and Mount Hermon were rejoicing in your name"

in your name

Here "name" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "in you"

Psalms 89:13

You have a mighty arm and a strong hand, and your right hand is high

The words "mighty arm," "strong hand," and "right hand" all represent God's power.

right hand is high

To raise the right hand high into the air is a gesture that indicates power.

Psalms 89:14

Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne
God ruling as king and doing what is right and just is spoken of as if God's throne were a building, and righteousness and justice were its foundation.

your throne

The throne represents God's rule as king.

Steadfast love and faithfulness come before you

The abstract nouns "love" and "faithfulness" are spoken of as if they come and meet with God. Alternate translation: "You are always faithful to your covenant and are worthy of people trusting you"

Psalms 89:15

who know the joyful sound

Here the words "joyful sound" refer to the sound of people shouting and blowing horns. These were common acts of worship during Israelite festivals.

they walk

Here people living their lives is spoken of as if they were walking. Alternate translation: "they live" in the light of your face

The writer speaks of Yahweh acting favorably towards them as if Yahweh's face shone a light on them. Alternate translation: "knowing that you act favorably towards them"

Psalms 89:16

in your name

Here "name" represents the person. Alternate translation: "in you" in your righteousness they exalt you

The abstract noun "righteousness" can be stated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "they exalt you because you always do what is right"

Psalms 89:17

You are their glorious strength

The abstract noun "strength" can be stated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "You make them wonderfully strong"

You are their

Here "their" refers to the Israelites. The writer would have included himself as a member of the Israelites. Alternate translation: "You are our"

our horn is exalted

This metaphor speaks of the Israelites winning a battle as if they were a wild ox that has defeated an enemy. Alternate translation: "we win the battle"

our horn

Here "our" refers to the writer and the Israelites but not to Yahweh, to whom he speaks.

Psalms 89:18

For our shield belongs to Yahweh

The king who protects his people and whom Yahweh chose is spoken of as if he were a shield that belongs to Yahweh.

Psalms 89:19

General Information:

The writer assumes that the reader knows the history of how David became the chosen king.

I have set a crown on a mighty one

To place a crown on a person's head is a sign of making him king. Alternate translation: "I have made a mighty man king" set a crown on a mighty one

Some Bible translations have "given strength to a mighty one" or "helped a mighty one."

I have raised up one chosen from among the people

Here "raised up" means appointed. It is implied that God chose this person to be king. Alternate translation: "I have chosen one from among the people to be king"

Psalms 89:20

with my holy oil have I anointed him

Here to pour oil on someone's head is a sign that God is appointing the person to be king.

Psalms 89:21

My hand will support him; my arm will strengthen him

Here "hand" and "arm" both means the power and control of Yahweh. Alternate translation: "I will support him and make him strong"

Psalms 89:22

son of wickedness

The writer refers to those who have the nature or character of wickedness as "sons of wickedness." Alternate translation: "wicked person"

Psalms 89:23

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 89:24

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues speaking about David.

My truth and my covenant faithfulness will be with him

God always being loyal and doing what he promises for David is spoken of as if truth and faithfulness were objects that would be with David. The abstract nouns "truth" and "faithfulness" can be translated as adjectives. Alternate translation: "I will always be truthful with him and I will always act faithfully towards him"

by my name

Here "name" represents God' power. Alternate translation: "I, God, will cause him to be victorious" his horn will be exalted

This metaphor speaks of David winning a battle as if he were a wild ox that has defeated an enemy. See how you translated similar words in [Psalm 89:17]

Psalms 89:25

I will place his hand over the sea and his right hand over the rivers

Here "hand" and "right hand" represent power and authority. Here "the sea" seems to refer to the Mediterranean Sea west of Israel, and "rivers" refers to the Euphrates river in the east. This means David will have authority over everything from the sea to the river. Alternate translation: "I will give him authority over everything from the Mediterranean sea to the Euphrates river"

Psalms 89:26

He will call out to me, 'You are my Father, my God, and the rock of my salvation.'

This has a quotation within a quotation. It can be stated as an indirect quotation. Alternate translation: "He will say that I am his Father, his God, and the rock of his salvation." the rock of my salvation

Yahweh protecting and saving David is spoken of as if Yahweh were a high rock that David could stand on top of for protection from enemies.

Psalms 89:27

Connecting Statement:

Yahweh continues speaking about David.

I also will place him as my firstborn son

Yahweh giving David special rank and privileges over all other people is spoken of as if David would be Yahweh's firstborn son.

Psalms 89:28

I will extend my covenant faithfulness to him forever

Yahweh speaks of continuing to act faithfully towards David is spoken of as if Yahweh's covenant faithfulness were an object that he extends or makes longer. The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adverb. Alternate translation: "I will continue to act faithfully towards him forever"

Psalms 89:29

his throne as enduring as the skies above

Someone from David's family always ruling as king is spoken of as if his throne would last as long as the sky will last.

his throne

Here "throne" represents the power to rule as king.

Psalms 89:30

his children

"David's descendants"

Psalms 89:31

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 89:32

punish their rebellion with a rod

God punishing David's descendants is spoken of as if he would hit them with a rod. The abstract noun "rebellion" can be stated as a verb. Alternate translation: "punish them for rebelling against me"

their iniquity with blows

God punishing David's descendants is spoken of as if God would literally hit them. This can be stated as a complete sentence. Alternate translation: "I will punish them because they sinned against me"

Psalms 89:33

I will not remove my steadfast love from him or be unfaithful to my promise

This can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: "I will always love David, and I will do what I promised to him"

Psalms 89:34

the words of my lips

Here "lips" represent the whole mouth and the person speaking. Alternate translation: "what I said"

Psalms 89:35

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 89:36

his throne as long as the sun before me

The words "will continue" are understood. Alternate translation: "his throne will continue as long as the sun before me"

his throne

Here "throne" represents the power to rule as king. God is promising that one of David's descendants will always be king.

as long as the sun before me

God compares David's rule as king to the sun to emphasize that someone from David's descendants will always rule as king.

Psalms 89:37

It will be established forever

Here "It" stands for David's throne or power to rule as king. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "I will cause it to last forever"

forever like the moon

God compares David's rule as king to the moon to emphasize that someone from David's descendants will always rule as king.

the moon, the faithful witness in the sky

The moon is spoken of as if it were a person who witnesses God making this promise to David. Alternate translation: "the moon, which is like a faithful witness in the sky"

Psalms 89:38

you have refused and rejected

The words "the king" are understood. Alternate translation: "you have refused and rejected the king"

with your anointed king

"with the king you chose"

Psalms 89:39

You have renounced the covenant

"You have rejected the covenant"

You have desecrated his crown on the ground

To push down into the ground or dust is a sign of great humiliation. Alternate translation: "You have defiled his crown on the ground" or "You have caused his crown to fall into the dirt"

his crown

This represents the king's power as king and his right to rule.

Psalms 89:40

You have broken down all his walls. You have ruined his strongholds

This implies that God allowed enemies to destroy the defenses at Jerusalem. Alternate translation: "You have allowed enemies to break down his walls and ruin his strongholds in Jerusalem"

Psalms 89:41

the scorn of his neighbors

The abstract noun "scorn" may be translated using a verb. The metonymy speaks of the king as if he were the way that his neighbors react to him. Alternate translation: "the one whom his neighbors scorn" or "the one his neighbors mock" his neighbors

Here "neighbors" means people of nearby nations.

Psalms 89:42

raised the right hand of his enemies

Here "right hand" represents power. To "raise the right hand" means that Yahweh has made his enemies strong enough to defeat God's chosen king.

Psalms 89:43

turn back the edge of his sword

Here "sword" represents the king's power in battle. To turn the sword back represents making the king unable to win in battle.

the edge of his sword

Here "edge" represents the whole sword. Alternate translation: "his sword" have not made him stand when in battle

Here "stand" represents being victorious in battle. Alternate translation: "You have not helped him to be victorious in battle"

Psalms 89:44

you have brought down his throne to the ground

Here "throne" represents the power to rule as king. Alternate translation: "you, Yahweh, have ended his reign as king"

Psalms 89:45

You have shortened the days of his youth

This is a way of saying God made the king seem old even while he was still young. Alternate translation: "Even while he is young you have made him weak like an old man"

the days of his youth

"the time when he was young and strong"

covered him with shame

Yahweh completely humiliating the king is spoken of as if shame were a garment that God used to cover the king.

Psalms 89:46

How long, Yahweh? Will you hide yourself forever?

The writer uses these questions to emphasize that he does not want God to continue to refuse the king. Alternate translation: "Please, Yahweh, do not refuse to help the king forever."

Will you hide yourself

God not helping the king is spoken of as if God were hiding from him. Alternate translation: "Will you refuse to help the king"

How long will your anger burn like fire?

The writer uses a question to emphasize that he does not want God to remain angry. Alternate translation: "Please do not continue being angry"

your anger burn like fire

God being very angry is spoken of as if his anger were a hot fire.

Psalms 89:47

for what vanity you have created all the children of mankind

The abstract noun "vanity" can be stated as "short life."

Alternate translation: "that you have created all people for such a short life"

the children of mankind

This refers to humans in general. Alternate translation: "humans" or "people"

Psalms 89:48

Who can live and not die, or rescue his own life from the hand of Sheol?

The writer uses these questions to emphasize that all people will die. Alternate translation: "No one can live forever or bring himself back to life after dying"

rescue his own life from the hand of Sheol

Here "hand" refers to power. The writer speaks of Sheol as if it were a person who has power over those who die.

Possible meanings are 1) a person cannot bring himself back to life after dying or 2) a person cannot keep himself from dying.

Psalms 89:49

Lord, where are your former acts of covenant faithfulness that you swore to David in your truthfulness?

The writer uses a question to request the Lord to be faithful to his covenant with David. Alternate translation: "Lord, be faithful to your covenant with David as you have been in the past"

your former acts of covenant faithfulness

The abstract nouns "acts" and "faithfulness" can be translated with a verb and an adverb. Alternate translation: "the things that you did before that showed that you are faithful to your covenant"

Psalms 89:50

Call to mind

The writer asks Yahweh to bring this up in his memory. Alternate translation: "Remember" or "Consider" the mocking directed against your servants

Here "your servants" refers to the people of Israel.

Alternate translation: "how they mock us, your servants"

how I bear in my heart so many insults from the nations

Here "heart" represents the person's emotions. Alternate translation: "I endure so many insults from the people of the nations" or "I suffer because the people from the nations insult me"

from the nations

Here "nations" represents the people of the nations.

Psalms 89:51

Your enemies hurl insults

The enemies shouting insults at the king is spoken of as if insults were an object that the enemies throw violently at the king.

Chapter 90

they mock the footsteps of your anointed one

Here "footsteps" represents where the king goes. Alternate translation: "they mock your anointed one wherever he goes"

Psalms 89:52

General Information:

This verse is more than the end of this psalm. It is the closing statement for all of Book 3 of the Psalms, which starts at Psalm 73 and ends with Psalm 89.

Blessed be Yahweh forever

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"May people praise Yahweh forever"

Amen and Amen

The word "Amen" is repeated to emphasize approval of what has been said. See how you translated this in Psalms 41:13.

Chapter 90

A prayer of Moses the man of God.

¹ Lord, you have been our refuge
throughout all generations.

² Before the mountains were formed, or you formed the earth and the world,
from everlasting to everlasting, you are God.

³ You return man to dust, and you say, "Return, you descendants of mankind."

⁴ For a thousand years in your sight are as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night.

⁵ You sweep them away as with a flood and they sleep;
in the morning they are like the grass that sprouts up.

⁶ In the morning it blooms and grows up;
in the evening it withers and dries up.

⁷ Truly, we are consumed in your anger, and in your wrath we are terrified.

⁸ You have set our iniquities before you,
our hidden sins in the light of your presence.

⁹ Our life passes away under your wrath;
our years quickly pass like a sigh.

¹⁰ Our years are seventy,
or even eighty if we are healthy;
but even our best years are marked by trouble and sorrow.
Yes, they pass quickly, and we fly away.

¹¹ Who knows the power of your anger, and your wrath that is equal to the fear of you?

¹² So teach us to consider our life so that we might gain a heart of wisdom.

- ¹³ Turn back, Yahweh! How long will it be?
Have pity on your servants.
- ¹⁴ Satisfy us in the morning with your covenant faithfulness so that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
- ¹⁵ Make us glad in proportion to the days you afflicted us and to the years we have experienced trouble.
- ¹⁶ Let your servants see your work,
and let our children see your majesty.
- ¹⁷ May the favor of the Lord our God be ours;
prosper the work of our hands;
indeed, prosper the work of our hands.

Psalm 90 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm is a wisdom psalm. God is eternal but a human's life is short. (See: wise and eternity)

Special concepts in this chapter

Life's shortness

Because life is so short, people need to spend it as God wants them to spend it.

Links:

Psalms 90:1

Psalms 90:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A prayer of Moses the man of God

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

Lord, you have been our refuge

God protecting his people is spoken of as if God were a refuge or shelter. Alternate translation: "Lord, you have been like a shelter for us"

throughout all generations

"always"

Psalms 90:2

Before the mountains were formed

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Before you formed the mountains"

were formed

"were created" or "were shaped"

the world

This represents everything that is in the world.

from everlasting to everlasting

This phrase represents all time past, present, and future.

Psalms 90:3

You return man to dust

This implies that just as God created the first man, Adam, from the soil, God will cause people's bodies to turn back into soil after they die. Alternate translation: "You return people to dust when they die"

return man

Here "man" means people in general.

Return, you descendants

The words "to dust" or "to soil" are understood. Alternate translation: "Return to dust, you descendants" or "Return to soil, you descendants"

you descendants of mankind

This is a way of referring to humans in general. Alternate translation: "you humans" or "you people"

Psalms 90:4

For a thousand years in your sight are as yesterday when it is past, and as a watch in the night

The writer means that a long period of time seems like a short period of time to God. Alternate translation: "You consider a thousand years the same as one day in the past, or as a few short hours in the night" or "Even a thousand years is not a long time to you"

a thousand years

"1,000 years"

in your sight

Here sight represents judgment or evaluation. Alternate translation: "to you"

Psalms 90:5

You sweep them away as with a flood and they sleep

God causing people to die suddenly is spoken of as if he swept them away with a broom. This sweeping is also spoken of as if it were a flood that carried people away.

Alternate translation: "Lord, you destroy the people as with a flood and they die"

they sleep

This is a polite way of speaking of people dying.

Psalms 90:6

it blooms and grows up

Both of these phrases refer to how the grass grows.

Alternate translation: "it begins to grow and develop"

it withers and dries up

Both of these phrases refer to how the grass dies. Alternate translation: "it fades and dries up"

Psalms 90:7

we are consumed in your anger

God destroying people in his anger is spoken of as if God's anger were a fire that completely burns up the people. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "You destroy us in your anger"

in your wrath we are terrified

"when you are angry we are greatly afraid"

Psalms 90:8

You have set our iniquities before you, our hidden sins in the light of your presence

God considering people's sins is spoken of as if sins were an objects he could place in front of himself and look at them.

Alternate translation: "You see every sinful thing we do, even the sinful things we do in secret"

Psalms 90:9

Our life passes away under your wrath

The word "because" can be used to make clear that God's wrath causes human life to end. Alternate translation: "Our lives come to an end because of your wrath"

like a sigh

The writer compares human life to a sigh to emphasize that life is very brief.

Psalms 90:10

seventy

"70"

eighty

"80"

even our best years are marked by trouble and sorrow

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"Even in our best years we experience trouble and sorrow"

we fly away

This is a polite way of referring to people dying. Alternate translation: "we die"

Psalms 90:11

Who knows the power of your anger, and your wrath that is equal to the fear of you?

The writer uses a question to emphasize that no one has fully experienced God anger. Therefore no one truly reveres God and fears his anger when people sin. Alternate translation: "No one knows the power of your anger.

Therefore no one fears your wrath when they sin."

Psalms 90:12

we might gain a heart of wisdom

The word "heart" is a metonym for the person's thoughts and feelings. Alternate translation: "we might want to be wise and act wisely"

Psalms 90:13

Turn back, Yahweh! How long will it be?

Asking Yahweh to no longer be angry is spoken of as if the writer wants God to turn physically away from his anger.

Alternate translation: "Yahweh, please do not be angry any longer"

How long will it be?

The writer uses a question to state that he wants God to stop being angry.

Have pity on your servants

Here "your servants" refers to the people of Israel.

Alternate translation: "Be merciful to us, your servants"

Psalms 90:14

Satisfy us in the morning

"Satisfy us every morning"

with your covenant faithfulness

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be stated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "by being faithful because of your covenant with us"

Psalms 90:15

in proportion to the days you afflicted us and to the years we have experienced trouble

Both of these phrases mean the same thing. The writer is asking Yahweh to make them happy for the same amount of time he punished them. Alternate translation: "for the same amount of time that you afflicted us and caused us to suffer"

Psalms 90:16

Let your servants

Here "your servants" refer to the people of Israel. Alternate translation: "Let us, your servants" or "Let us"

let our children

Here "children" means children and descendants.

see your majesty

The abstract noun "majesty" can be stated as "great things."

Alternate translation: "see the great things you do"

Psalms 90:17

May the favor of the Lord our God be ours

The abstract noun "favor" can be stated as "be kind."

Alternate translation: "May the Lord our God be kind to us" prosper the work of our hands

Here "hands" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "cause us to be successful"

Chapter 91

¹ He who lives in the shelter of the Most High will stay in the shadow of the Almighty.

² I will say of Yahweh, "He is my refuge and my fortress,

my God, in whom I trust."

- ³ For he will rescue you from the snare of the hunter and from the destructive plague.
- ⁴ He will cover you with his wings,
and under his wings you will find refuge.
His faithfulness is a shield and protection.
- ⁵ You will not be afraid of terror in the night,
or of the arrow that flies by day,
- ⁶ or of the plague that stalks in the darkness,
or of the destruction that lays waste at noon.
- ⁷ A thousand may fall at your side and ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not reach you.
- ⁸ You will only observe and see the punishment of the wicked.
- ⁹ For Yahweh is my refuge!
Make the Most High your refuge also.
- ¹⁰ No evil will overtake you;
no affliction will come near your tent.
- ¹¹ For he will put his angels in charge over you,
to guard you in all your ways.
- ¹² They will lift you up with their hand
so that you will not hit your foot on a stone.
- ¹³ You will crush lions and asps under your feet;
you will trample on young lions and serpents.
- ¹⁴ Because he delights in me, I will rescue him.
I will protect him because he acknowledges my name.
- ¹⁵ When he calls to me, I will answer him.
I will be with him in trouble;
I will give him victory and will honor him.
- ¹⁶ I will satisfy him with the length of his days,
and show him my salvation.

Psalm 91 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 91 is a wisdom psalm. Those who depend on God are protected by him. (See: wise)

Special concepts in this chapter

Fear

No matter what dangers befall a person, they do not need to fear. God is protecting them from all harm.

Links:

Psalms 91:1

Psalms 91:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

He who lives ... will stay ... of the Almighty

Because "live" and "stay" mean almost the same thing, as do "shelter" and "shadow," which are both metaphors for protection, you may need to combine the two lines into one. Alternate translation: "The Most High, the Almighty, will care for all those who live where he can protect them" who lives in the shelter of the Most High

The word "shelter" is a metaphor for protection. Alternate translation: "who lives where the Most High protects him"

the Most High

The words "the Most High" refer to Yahweh. See how this is translated in Psalms 18:13.

will stay in the shadow of the Almighty

The word "shadow" here is a metaphor for protection.

Alternate translation: "will stay where the Almighty can protect him"

the Almighty

the one who has power and control over everything. See how this was translated in Psalms 68:14

Psalms 91:2

I will say of Yahweh

"I will say about Yahweh"

my refuge and my fortress

A "refuge" is any place a person can go and have someone or something protect him. A "fortress" is something that people make so they can protect themselves and their property. Asaph uses them here as metaphors for protection. Alternate translation: "the one to whom I can go and he will protect me"

Psalms 91:3

For he will rescue you from the snare of the hunter and from the destructive plague

The words that have been left out can be put in. Alternate translation: "For God will rescue you from the snare of the hunter and he will rescue you from the plagues that can destroy you" destructive deadly

the snare of the hunter

"from the snare that the hunter has set to catch you"

Psalms 91:4

He will cover you with his wings, and under his wings you will find refuge

God's protection is here referred to as "wings" which a bird uses to cover its' young from danger. "Cover you with his wings" and "under his wings" mean basically the same thing. Alternate translation: "He will keep you safe and protect you"

His faithfulness is a shield and protection

God's faithfulness is here referred to as a "shield" which can protect people who rely on him. The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be stated as "trust." Alternate translation: "You can trust him to protect you"

protection

No one knows for sure what this word means. Possible meanings are 1) a small shield strapped to the forearm that soldiers used to defend themselves against arrows and swords or 2) a wall of stones set in a circle inside which soldiers could hide and shoot arrows.

Psalms 91:5

terror in the night

The psalmist speaks of "terror" as if it were a spirit or fierce animal that could attack at night and so terrify people.

Alternate translation: "things attacking you at night"

in the night ... by day

These two phrases taken together refer to all possible times of night and day.

the arrow that flies by day

"Arrow" here is a metonym for the people who shoot the arrows. Alternate translation: "people attacking you with arrows during the day"

Psalms 91:6

or of the plague that stalks

The psalmist speaks of illness as if it were a person who went about at night killing other people. Alternate translation: "You will not be afraid of dying from illness"

stalks

sneaks up to attack prey or a victim

in the darkness ... at noon

These two phrases taken together refer to all possible times of night and day.

plague

an illness that makes many people ill at the same time

Psalms 91:7

A thousand may fall at your side and ten thousand at your right hand "Many people may fall all around you." If translating the exact numbers confuses the readers, you may omit them.

it will not reach you

"the evil will not harm you"

Psalms 91:8

You will only observe and see

"You yourself will not suffer, but you will watch carefully, and you will see"

the punishment of the wicked

The abstract noun "punishment" can be translated with a verbal phrase. Alternate translation: "how God punishes the wicked"

Psalms 91:9

Yahweh is my refuge

The writer speaks of Yahweh protecting him as if Yahweh were a safe place for him to find protection from his enemies. Alternate translation: "Yahweh protects me, like a person finds protection in a place of refuge"

Make the Most High your refuge also

"You should make the Most High your refuge also." The psalmist stops speaking to God and speaks to the reader. Psalms 91:10

No evil will overtake you

The writer speaks of a person experiencing bad or evil things as if evil were a person who overtakes another person. Alternate translation: "Nothing evil will happen to you"

no affliction will come near your tent

The psalmist speaks of people who afflict others as though they were the harm they cause. Alternate translation: "no one will be able to harm your family" tent

This is an idiom. The Israelites were living in solid houses when this was written. Alternate translation: "home"

Psalms 91:11

in all your ways

The psalmist speaks of the way a person lives his life as if it were a path down which the person walked. Alternate translation: "in everything you do" or "at all times"

Psalms 91:12

They will lift you

"Yahweh's angels will lift you"

you will not hit your foot on a stone

The angels will protect not only the reader's foot but the rest of his body as well. The words "not ... hit your foot on a stone" is an exaggerated metonym to say that not even small bad things will happen. This should probably not be taken as a promise that no bad things will ever happen again. Alternate translation: "you will not even hit your foot on a stone" or "not even the smallest bad thing will happen to you"

Psalms 91:13

You will crush lions and asps under your feet; you will trample on young lions and serpents

Where "hit your foot on a stone" is a minor problem, lions and snake are examples of great dangers. The psalmist speaks of lions and snakes as if they were small enough to be crushed under a person's foot. Alternate translation: "You will be able kill lions and asps as if they were small animals you could crush under your feet"

asps

types of poisonous snake.

trample

crush by walking heavily on

Psalms 91:14

he acknowledges my name

"he is loyal to me" or "he considers me holy"

Psalms 91:15

I will be with him in trouble

This can be made explicit. Alternate translation: "I will be with him when he is in trouble"

I will give him victory

The abstract noun "victory" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "I will cause him to be victorious" or "I will enable him to defeat his enemies"

Psalms 91:16

will satisfy him with the length of his days

The idiom "the length of his days" here refers to the duration of his life. It may imply a long life. Alternate translation: "I will satisfy him by giving him a long life" or "I will make him happy by letting him live a very long time" and show him my salvation

"and I will show him my salvation." The psalmist speaks of the work God does to save people as if it were a physical object. Alternate translation: "I will save him so that he knows I am the one who saved him"

Chapter 92

A psalm, a song for the Sabbath day.

¹ It is a good thing to give thanks to Yahweh
and to sing praises to your name, Most High,

² to proclaim your covenant faithfulness in the morning and your truthfulness every night,

³ with a lute of ten strings and the resounding music of the harp.

⁴ For you, Yahweh, have made me glad through your deeds.
I will sing for joy because of the deeds of your hands.

⁵ How great are your deeds, Yahweh!
Your thoughts are very deep.

⁶ A brutish person does not know, nor does a fool understand this:

⁷ When the wicked sprout like the grass, and even when all those who behave wickedly thrive,
still they are doomed to eternal destruction.

⁸ But you, Yahweh, will reign forever.

⁹ Indeed, look at your enemies, Yahweh!
Indeed, look at your enemies. They will perish!
All those who behave wickedly will be scattered.

¹⁰ You have lifted up my horn like the horn of the wild ox;
I am anointed with fresh oil.

¹¹ My eyes have seen the downfall of my enemies;
my ears have heard of the doom of my evil foes.

¹² The righteous will flourish like the palm tree;
they will grow like a cedar in Lebanon.

¹³ They are planted in the house of Yahweh;
they flourish in the courts of our God.

¹⁴ They bear fruit even when they are old;
they stay fresh and green,

¹⁵ to proclaim that Yahweh is just.
He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

Psalm 92 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 92 is a psalm of praise for God's kindness and faithfulness. (See: faithful)

Special concepts in this chapter

Justice

God causes evil people to be destroyed and good people to be happy and useful, even after they grow old. (See: justice and evil)

Links:

Psalms 92:1

Psalms 92:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm, a song for the Sabbath day

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

to sing praises to your name

The words "your name" are a metonym for "you." Alternate translation: "to sing praises to you"

Psalms 92:2

proclaim your covenant faithfulness in the morning

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with the adjective "faithful." Alternate translation: "proclaim in the morning that you are faithful to your covenant" your truthfulness every night

The verb may be supplied from the previous phrase. The abstract noun "truthfulness" can be translated with the adjective "true." Alternate translation: "proclaim every night that everything you say is true"

Psalms 92:3

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 92:4

glad happy

through your deeds

The abstract noun phrase "your deeds" can be translated with the relative clause "what you have done." Alternate translation: "by what you have done"

the deeds of your hands

The abstract noun phrase "the deeds of your hands" can be translated with the relative clause "what your hands have done." The word "hands" is a synecdoche for the whole person. Alternate translation: "What you have done"

your deeds

The abstract noun phrase "your deeds" can be translated with a relative clause. Alternate translation: "what you have done"

Psalms 92:5

Your thoughts are very deep

"We cannot understand what you plan to do until you do it"

Your thoughts

The abstract noun phrase "your thoughts" can be translated with a relative clause. Alternate translation: "What you think" or "What you plan"

Psalms 92:6

brutish

animal-like

Psalms 92:7

When the wicked sprout like the grass

This compares evil people to grass, which grows quickly and in many places. Alternate translation: "When evil people appear quickly and seem to be everywhere, like grass"

they are doomed to eternal destruction

This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "God has decided that he will destroy them completely"

Psalms 92:8

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 92:9

Indeed, look at your enemies, Yahweh

Many texts do not have these words.

They will perish

"They will die" or "You will kill them"

All those who behave wickedly will be scattered

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"you will scatter all those who behave wickedly"

will be scattered

Many texts read, "have been scattered."

be scattered

"driven away"

Psalms 92:10

You have lifted up my horn like the horn of the wild ox

The psalmist speaks of God as if he had made him as strong as a wild animal. Here his "horn" represents his strength. Alternate translation: "You have made me as strong as a wild ox"

I am anointed with fresh oil

Possible meanings are that the oil that God has put on the psalmist is a metaphor for God 1) making him happy "you have made me very happy" or 2) making him strong, "you have made me strong" or 3) enabling him to defeat his enemies, "you have enabled me to defeat my enemies."

Psalms 92:11

My eyes have seen the downfall of my enemies; my ears have heard of the doom of my evil foes

The words "eyes" and "ears" are synecdoches for the person who sees and hears. The lines may be combined. Alternate translation: "I have seen and heard of the defeat of my evil enemies"

Psalms 92:12

The righteous will flourish like the palm tree

Possible meanings are that righteous people will be like a healthy palm tree because they will 1) be strong or 2) live for long time.

they will grow like a cedar in Lebanon

Possible meanings are that righteous people will be like a healthy cedar tree growing in the land of Lebanon because 1) they will be strong or 2) people will honor them.

Psalms 92:13

They are planted

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"Yahweh has planted them" or "Yahweh takes care of them as if they were trees he had planted"

in the house of Yahweh ... in the courts of our God

The psalmist speaks of people who truly worship God as if they were trees growing in Yahweh's house.

they flourish

The psalmist speaks of righteous people as if they were healthy trees. Alternate translation: "they are growing well" or "they are very strong"

in the courts of our God in the courtyard of the temple in Jerusalem.

Psalms 92:14

They bear fruit

The psalmist speaks of righteous people as if they were trees that produce food. Alternate translation: "They please God"

they stay fresh and green

The psalmist speaks of righteous people as if they were trees. Alternate translation: "they remain strong and healthy" or "they always do what pleases God"

Psalms 92:15

to proclaim that

These words continue the thought begun by the words

"they stay fresh and green" in (Psalms 92:14). Possible meanings are 1) "they stay fresh and green, so that they can proclaim" or 2) "they stay fresh and green. This shows that."

He is my rock

"Yahweh is the one who protects me." The psalmist speaks of Yahweh as if he were a rock that would protect him. See how this is translated in [Psalms 18:2]

Chapter 93

¹ Yahweh reigns; he is robed in majesty;

Yahweh has clothed and girded himself with strength.
The world is firmly established; it cannot be moved.

² Your throne is established from ancient times;
you are from everlasting.

³ The oceans rise, Yahweh;
they have lifted up their voice;
the oceans' waves crash and roar.

⁴ Above the crashing of many waves,
the mighty breakers of the sea,
Yahweh on high is mighty.

⁵ Your solemn commands are very trustworthy;
holiness adorns your house,
Yahweh, for the length of your days.

Psalm 93 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 93 is a worship psalm about the power of Yahweh.

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's power

Yahweh is all powerful; He even controls the ocean.

Links:

Psalms 93:1

Psalms 93:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

he is robed in majesty; Yahweh has clothed and girded himself with strength

The psalmist speaks of Yahweh's strength and majesty as if they were things Yahweh wears. Alternate translation: "he shows everyone that he is a powerful king" or "his majesty is there for all to see, like the robe a king wears; everything about Yahweh shows that he is strong and he is ready to do great work" majesty

the power of a king and the way a king acts girded himself

put on a belt—a band of leather or another material that a person wears around his waist—to prepare for work or battle

The world is firmly established

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "You have firmly established the world"

it cannot be moved

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "no one will ever move it"

Psalms 93:2

Your throne is established from ancient times

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"You established your throne in ancient times"

you are from everlasting

"you have always existed"

Psalms 93:3

oceans ... oceans'

Some modern translations read "floods ... floods'." The word often refers to a river (See: "the River" in Psalms 72:8), but "oceans ... oceans'" has been chosen here because oceans, not rivers, have "waves" that "crash and roar."

have lifted up their voice; the oceans' waves crash and roar

The psalmist speaks of the ocean as if it were a person who could speak. Alternate translation: "have made a mighty noise because their waves crash and roar" roar

make a long, loud sound.

Psalms 93:4

Above the crashing of many waves, the mighty breakers of the sea

The phrase "the mighty breakers of the sea" means basically the same thing as "many waves" and emphasizes how great these waves are. Alternate translation: "Above the crashing of all of the very great waves of the sea" breakers

large waves coming to land on high

Chapter 94

The psalmist speaks of where God lives as if it were high above the earth. Alternate translation: "in heaven"

Psalms 93:5

solemn very serious

are very trustworthy

"always stay the same" or "never change"

holiness adorns your house

The psalmist speaks of Yahweh's house as if it were a woman wearing beautiful clothing or jewelry and of Yahweh's holiness as the beautiful clothing or jewelry.

Alternate translation: "your house is beautiful because you are holy" or "your holiness makes your house beautiful the way beautiful clothes and jewelry make a woman more beautiful" adorns

makes beautiful

your house

This refers to the temple in Jerusalem.

for the length of your days

This idiom refers to the duration of God's life. Since God lives forever, it can also be translated as forever. Alternate translation: "for as long as you live" or "forever"

Chapter 94

- ¹ Yahweh, God who avenges,
God who avenges, shine over us.
- ² Rise up, judge of the earth,
give recompense to the proud.
- ³ How long will the wicked, Yahweh,
how long will the wicked rejoice?
- ⁴ They pour out their arrogant words;
all those who behave wickedly boast.
- ⁵ They crush your people, Yahweh;
they afflict your heritage.
- ⁶ They kill the widow and foreigner who lives in their country,
and they murder the fatherless.
- ⁷ They say, "Yah does not see;
the God of Jacob does not take notice of it." ¹
- ⁸ Pay attention, you stupid people!
You fools, when will you gain understanding?
- ⁹ He who made the ear, does he not hear?
He who formed the eye, does he not see?
- ¹⁰ He who disciplines the nations, does he not correct?
He is the one who gives knowledge to man.
- ¹¹ Yahweh knows the thoughts of men,
that they are vapor.
- ¹² Blessed is the one whom Yah instructs,
the one whom you teach from your law. ²
- ¹³ You give him rest in times of trouble until a pit is dug for the wicked.

- ¹⁴ For Yahweh will not abandon his people or abandon his inheritance.
- ¹⁵ For judgment will again be righteous;
and all the upright in heart will follow it.
- ¹⁶ Who will rise up to defend me against the evildoers?
Who will stand up for me against those who behave wickedly?
- ¹⁷ Unless Yahweh had been my help,
I would soon be lying down in the place of silence.
- ¹⁸ When I said, "My foot is slipping,"
Your covenant faithfulness, Yahweh, held me up.
- ¹⁹ When cares within me are many,
your consolations delight my soul.
- ²⁰ Can a throne of destruction be allied with you,
one that creates trouble by statute?
- ²¹ They conspire together to take the life of the righteous and they declare guilty the blood of the innocent.
- ²² But Yahweh has been my high tower, and my God has been the rock of my refuge.
- ²³ He will bring on them their own iniquity and will cut them off in their own wickedness.
Yahweh our God will cut them off.

¹Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

²Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

Psalm 94 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 94 is a prayer requesting that evil people be punished. (See: evil)

Special concepts in this chapter

Justice

Evil people expect God to ignore their injustices. But God knows what they are doing and will punish them for their evil deeds. (See: justice and works)

Links:

Psalms 94:1

Psalms 94:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

shine over us

Here "shine" is a metaphor for God revealing himself.

Alternate translation: "show yourself" or "reveal your glory"

Psalms 94:2

Rise up

The psalmist speaks of starting to do something as getting up. If your language has a word for beginning to act, use it here. Alternate translation: "Take action" or "Do something" give recompense to the proud

"give to the proud what they deserve" or "punish people who are proud"

Psalms 94:3

How long will the wicked, Yahweh, how long will the wicked rejoice?

The psalmist repeats the question to show that he is unhappy with how long Yahweh has allowed the wicked to rejoice. This rhetorical question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "You have waited too long Yahweh; you have waited too long to stop the wicked from rejoicing."

will the wicked rejoice

Why the wicked rejoice can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "will the wicked rejoice because you never punish them for the evil deeds they do"

Psalms 94:4

They pour out

"All those who do evil pour out"

They pour out their arrogant words

The psalmist writes of the wicked speaking as if their words were a liquid being poured out.

all those who behave wickedly boast

The translation can make explicit that these people boast about their evil actions. Alternate translation: "all those who behave wickedly boast about their evil deeds"

Psalms 94:5

afflict your heritage

Here the metaphor "heritage" refers to the nation of Israel. The nation is a metonym for the people of the nation.

Alternate translation: "afflict the people of the nation"

They crush

The psalmist speaks of powerful people treating powerless people badly as if it were crushing them or breaking them in pieces. See how "break in pieces" is translated in [Psalms 72:4]

Psalms 94:6

the widow

"women whose husbands have died"

the fatherless

"children without fathers"

Psalms 94:7

the God of Jacob does not take notice of it

"the God of Israel does not see what we do"

Psalms 94:8

General Information:

The writer now instructs the wicked people.

when will you gain understanding?

This rhetorical question emphasizes the anger of the writer with the wicked people he is speaking to. This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "stop your foolish ways!" or "learn from your mistakes!"

Psalms 94:9

He who made the ear, does he not hear? He who formed the eye, does he not see?

These rhetorical questions can be translated as statements or commands. Alternate translation: "God made ears, so he can hear. God made eyes, so he can see." or "God made ears, so stop acting as if he does not hear. God made eyes, so stop acting as if he does not see."

Psalms 94:10

General Information:

The writer continues instructing the wicked people.

He who disciplines the nations, does he not correct?

This question can be translated as a statement. It is implied that Yahweh corrects his people. Alternate translation: "You know that Yahweh corrects the nations, so you can be sure that he will correct his people!" or "he will punish his people!"

does he not correct

This can be stated in positive form. Possible meanings are 1) God corrects. Alternate translation: "he corrects" or 2)

God punishes. "he punishes"

Psalms 94:11

that they are vapor

Here the thoughts of men are compared to vapor or steam that disappears into the air. This metaphor shows how unimportant and useless they are.

vapor

"mist." See how this word is translated in Psalms 39:11

Psalms 94:12

General Information:

Now the writer again talks to Yahweh.

Psalms 94:13

until a pit is dug for the wicked

The psalmist speaks of Yahweh's punishing the wicked as if Yahweh were trapping an animal in a pit. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "until you dig a pit for the wicked" or "until you destroy the wicked"

Psalms 94:14

his inheritance

"those whom he has chosen to be with him forever"

Psalms 94:15

judgment will again be righteous

The psalmist speaks of those who judge as if they were the decisions they make. The abstract noun "judgment" can be translated with the verb "judge." Alternate translation: "judges will again judge righteously" or "judges will again make righteous decisions"

the upright in heart

The adjective phrase "upright in heart" can be translated as a noun phrase. Alternate translation: "those whose hearts are right with God" will follow it

"will want the judges to judge righteously"

Psalms 94:16

Who will rise up to defend me against the evildoers? Who will stand up for me against those who behave wickedly?

This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "No one will defend me against the evildoers. No one will help me fight against those who behave wickedly."

Psalms 94:17

Unless Yahweh had been my help ... silence

This statement describes something that could have happened but did not. Yahweh did help him, so he was not lying in the place of silence. Alternate translation: "If Yahweh had not been my help ... silence"

Unless Yahweh had been my help

The abstract noun "help" can be expressed as a verb.

Alternate translation: "If Yahweh had not helped me"

I would soon be lying down in the place of silence

Here "would be lying down" refers to "death" and "in the place of silence" refers to the grave." Alternate translation: "in a short time, I would be dead, lying in a silent grave"
Psalms 94:18

Your covenant faithfulness, Yahweh, held me up
The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "You, Yahweh, held me up because you are faithful to your covenant"
Psalms 94:19

When cares within me are many, your consolations delight my soul
The psalmist speaks of care as if he could count separate cares. The abstract noun "consolations" can be translated with the verb "console" or "comfort." Alternate translation: "When I have been worried about many things, you have comforted me and made me happy"
Psalms 94:20

Can a throne of destruction be allied with you, one that creates trouble by statute?

The writer uses this rhetorical question is used to assure Yahweh that the writer knows that Yahweh loves justice. It can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "A throne of destruction, one that creates trouble by statute, cannot be allied with you"

a throne of destruction

Here the metonym "throne" refers to a king or ruler.
Alternate translation: "a wicked ruler" or "corrupt judge"
Psalms 94:21

conspire
secretly plan with a person something harmful or illegal take the life of

This is an idiom which means to kill someone.

they declare guilty the blood of the innocent

The nominal adjective "innocent" may be translated "innocent person." The word "blood" is a metaphor for the violent death of the innocent person and a metonym for the person himself. Alternate translation: "they declare the innocent person guilty and then kill him"

Psalms 94:22

Yahweh has been my high tower

Here "tower" is a metaphor for protection. Alternate translation: "Yahweh has protected me from my enemies"

God has been the rock of my refuge

The psalmist speaks of having God protect him as if God were a place where the psalmist could go to be safe. See how "rock" and "refuge" are translated in Psalms 62:7.

Alternate translation: "I have asked God to protect me, and he has kept me safe by his power"

Psalms 94:23

will bring on them their own iniquity

Possible meanings are 1) "will do to them the evil things they have done to others" or 2) "will punish them for all the evil things he has done to others."

cut them off

This is an idiom which means "kill them."

in their own wickedness

Possible meanings are 1) "while they are doing wicked things" or 2) "because they have done wicked things."

Chapter 95

¹ Oh come, let us sing to Yahweh;
let us shout joyfully to the rock of our salvation.

² Let us enter his presence with thanksgiving;
let us shout joyfully to him with psalms of praise.

³ For Yahweh is a great God and a great King superior to all gods.

⁴ In his hand are the depths of the earth;
the heights of the mountains are his.

⁵ The sea is his, for he made it,
and his hands formed the dry land.

⁶ Oh come, let us worship and bow down;
let us kneel before Yahweh, our Creator:

⁷ For he is our God,
and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.
Today—oh, that you would hear his voice!

- ⁸ "Do not harden your heart, as at Meribah, or as on the day of Massah in the wilderness,
- ⁹ where your forefathers tested me;
they put me to the test, though they had seen my deeds.
- ¹⁰ For forty years I was angry with that generation and said, 'This is a people whose hearts wander astray;
they have not known my ways.'
- ¹¹ Therefore I swore in my anger that they would never enter into my resting place."

Psalms 95 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalms 95 is the first in a series of six worship psalms (Psalms 95-100).

Special concepts in this chapter

God's care

God made everything and takes good care of people. People should not be stubborn like the Israelites were in the days of Moses. The Israelites with Moses wandered in the desert for forty years.

Links:

Psalms 95:1

Psalms 95:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

the rock of our salvation

The psalmist speaks of Yahweh as if Yahweh were a mountain the people could climb so they would be safe. See how "rock" and "of my salvation" are translated in [Psalms 18:46]

Psalms 95:2

enter his presence

The psalmist speaks as if he is telling the readers to go into the throne room of a king. Alternate translation: "go to where he is"

with thanksgiving

"thanking him as we enter his presence"

Psalms 95:3

superior to all gods

Possible meanings are that Yahweh is a great king 1) "who rules over all other gods," or 2) "who is much better than all gods."

Psalms 95:4

In his hand

This is an idiom which means "in his control" or "he is responsible for."

depths

deep places heights

high places

Psalms 95:5

his hands formed

The word "hands" is a metonym for Yahweh himself.

Alternate translation: "he himself formed"

Psalms 95:6

kneel

put both knees on the ground, often to show submission

Psalms 95:7

the people of his pasture

The word "pasture" is a metonym for the food that animals eat in the pasture, which in turn is a synecdoche for everything that Yahweh provides for his people. Alternate translation: "we are the people whose needs he meets"

pasture

an area where animals find grass to eat

the sheep of his hand

The word "hand" here refers to how Yahweh protects his people the way a shepherd protects his sheep. Alternate translation: "the people whom he protects like a shepherd protects his sheep"

Today—oh, that you would hear his voice!

"Oh, that you would hear his voice today!" The psalmist purposely interrupts what he is saying.

hear his voice

Here "his voice" represents God speaking or what he says. Alternate translation: "listen to God speak" or "hear what God says"

Psalms 95:8

General Information:

Now the writer writes the words that Yahweh spoke.

harden your heart

"become stubborn"

Meribah, ... Massah

These are places in the desert that Moses named because the Israelites rebelled against God.

Psalms 95:9

tested me ... put me to the test

These two phrases are both metaphors for the people

Chapter 96

seeing how much evil they could do before Yahweh would punish them. "wanted to see if they could do evil things without me punishing them ... tested me to see if I would continue to be patient with them"

my deeds

"the amazing things I had done"

Psalms 95:10

General Information:

Yahweh continues speaking directly to his people.

forty years

"40 years"

that generation

"all of those people" or "that entire generation of people"

wander astray

God speaks of the people as if they were sheep, which will go wherever they want to and not stay near their shepherd. Alternate translation: "move away from me" or "go their own way"

they have not known my ways

Yahweh's commands are spoken of as if they were paths on which the people should walk. The people not obeying Yahweh's commands is spoken of as if they did not know these paths. Alternate translation: "they have not obeyed my commands"

Psalms 95:11

my resting place

"the place where I would have allowed them to rest"

Chapter 96

- ¹ Oh, sing to Yahweh a new song;
sing to Yahweh, all the earth.
- ² Sing to Yahweh, bless his name;
announce his salvation day after day.
- ³ Declare his glory among the nations,
his marvelous deeds among all the nations.
- ⁴ For Yahweh is great and is to be praised greatly.
He is to be feared above all other gods.
- ⁵ For all the gods of the nations are idols,
but it is Yahweh who made the heavens.
- ⁶ Splendor and majesty are in his presence.
Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.
- ⁷ Ascribe to Yahweh, you clans of peoples, ascribe praise to Yahweh for his glory and strength.
- ⁸ Give to Yahweh the glory that his name deserves.
Bring an offering and come into his courts.
- ⁹ Bow down to Yahweh in the splendor of holiness;
tremble before him, all the earth.
- ¹⁰ Say among the nations, "Yahweh reigns."
The world also is established; it cannot be shaken.
He judges the peoples fairly.
- ¹¹ Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice;
let the sea roar and that which fills it shout with joy.
- ¹² Let the fields rejoice and all that is in them.
Then let all the trees in the forest shout for joy

- ¹³ before Yahweh, for he is coming.
 He is coming to judge the earth.
 He will judge the world with righteousness
 and the peoples with his faithfulness.

Psalm 96 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 96 is one of six worship psalms (Psalms 95-100).

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh, the king

Yahweh is king over all the earth and is worthy of all praise.

Links:

Psalms 96:1

Psalms 96:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

a new song

a song no one has ever sung before

all the earth

This refers to the people of the earth. Alternate translation:

"all you people who live on the earth"

Psalms 96:2

bless his name

The word "name" is a metonym for Yahweh himself.

Alternate translation: "bless Yahweh" or "do what makes Yahweh happy" See how "may his glorious name be blessed" is translated in [Psalms 72:19]

announce his salvation

The abstract noun "salvation" can be translated using the verb "save." Alternate translation: "announce that he has saved us" or "tell people that he is the one who saves"

Psalms 96:3

Declare his glory among the nations

"Tell all the people in every nation about his great glory"

Psalms 96:4

Yahweh is great and is to be praised greatly

This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation:

"Yahweh is great. Praise him greatly" or "Yahweh is great, and people should praise him greatly"

He is to be feared above all other gods

This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation:

"Fear him above all other gods"

Psalms 96:5

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 96:6

in his presence

"where he is"

Splendor and majesty are in his presence

The psalmist speaks as if splendor and majesty are people who can stand before a king. Alternate translation:

"Everyone knows of his splendor and majesty"

Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary

The words "strength" and "beauty" are metonyms for the ark of the covenant decrees, which is found in the sanctuary. Alternate translation: "It is his sanctuary that contains the ark of the covenant decrees"

Psalms 96:7

Ascribe to Yahweh ... ascribe praise to Yahweh for his glory and strength

This can be restated to removed the abstract nouns

"praise," "glory," and "strength." See how these words are translated in [Psalms 29:1]

Psalms 96:8

Give to Yahweh the glory that his name deserves

The abstract noun "glory" can be stated as a verb or adjective. See how these words are translated in [Psalms 29:2]

his name deserves

Here "name" refers to the person of God. Alternate translation: "he deserves" his courts

the temple courtyard where the priests sacrificed animals to Yahweh

Psalms 96:9

Bow down to Yahweh

The implied information is that the people were to bow down in worship. Alternate translation: "Bow down to worship Yahweh"

in the splendor of holiness

The abstract nouns "splendor" and "holiness" can be translated as adjectives. Alternate translation: "because he is gloriously beautiful and holy"

tremble

to shake because of fear

all the earth

Here "earth" represents the people. Alternate translation:

"all the people of the earth"

Psalms 96:10

The world also is established

This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "He also established the world"

it cannot be shaken

This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "nothing can shake it"

Psalms 96:11

Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice

Possible meanings are 1) the heavens and the earth are spoken of as if they have emotions like people. Alternate translation: "Let it be as if the heavens are glad and the earth rejoices" or 2) "the heavens" and "the earth" are metonyms for those who dwell in those places. Alternate translation: "Let those who live in the heavens be glad and let those who live on the earth rejoice" that which fills it shout with joy

The implied information is that this refers to all the creatures living in the sea. They are spoken of as if they should shout with joy like people might do. Alternate translation: "the sea creatures shout joyfully"

Psalms 96:12

Let the fields rejoice and all that is in them

"Let the fields and all that is in them rejoice." The psalmist speaks as if "the fields" and the animals that live in them have emotions like people. Alternate translation: "Let it be as if the fields themselves and all the animals that live in them are rejoicing"

let all the trees in the forest shout for joy

This speaks about the trees as if they were people who could shout for joy. Alternate translation: "let it be as if all the trees in the forest shout for joy"

Psalms 96:13

He is coming to judge the earth. He will judge the world ... and the peoples

The three phrase have similar meanings; the last two phases are used to strengthen the first.

to judge ... will judge

Another possible meaning is "to rule ... will rule."

He will judge the world with righteousness

Here "the world" is a metonym for all the people in the world. See how these words are translated in [Psalms 9:8] the peoples with his faithfulness

The words "he will judge" are understood. Alternate translation: "he will judge the peoples with his faithfulness" with his faithfulness

The can be restated to remove the abstract noun

"faithfulness." Possible meanings are 1) Alternate translation: "fairly, according to what he knows is true" or 2) Alternate translation: "using the same standard for all people"

Chapter 97

- ¹ Yahweh reigns; let the earth rejoice;
let the many coastlands be glad.
- ² Clouds and darkness surround him.
Righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.
- ³ Fire goes before him and consumes his adversaries on every side.
- ⁴ His lightning lights up the world;
the earth sees and trembles.
- ⁵ The mountains melt like wax before Yahweh,
the Lord of the whole earth.
- ⁶ The skies declare his justice, and all the nations see his glory.
- ⁷ All those who worship carved figures will be shamed, those who boast in worthless idols—bow down to him, all you gods!
- ⁸ Zion heard and was glad,
and the towns of Judah rejoiced because of your righteous decrees, Yahweh.
- ⁹ For you, Yahweh, are most high above all the earth.
You are exalted far above all gods.
- ¹⁰ You who love Yahweh, hate evil!

He protects the lives of his faithful ones,
and he takes them out of the hand of the wicked.

¹¹ Light is sown for the righteous and gladness for those with honest hearts.

¹² Be glad in Yahweh, you righteous;
and give thanks when you remember his holiness.

Psalm 97 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 97 is one of six worship psalms (Psalms 95-100)

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's authority

All people who worship idols are disgraced because Yahweh rules over all the world.

Links:

Psalms 97:1

Psalms 97:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

let the earth rejoice; let the many coastlands be glad

The earth and the coastlands are said to have emotions like people. Alternate translation: "Rejoice and be glad every person on the earth and near the seas"

coastlands

Possible meanings are 1) "lands near the seas" or 2) "islands."

Psalms 97:2

Clouds and darkness surround him

"We cannot see him; it is as if he were sitting in the dark with clouds all around him"

Righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne

The word "throne" is a metonym for the deeds and words of the one who sits on it. The psalmist speaks as if righteousness and justice were physical objects that made the throne secure. Alternate translation: "He is righteous and just in everything he does" or "He is able to rule because he rules righteously and justly"

the foundation of his throne

Here "the foundation of his throne" refers to how Yahweh rules his kingdom.

Psalms 97:3

Fire goes before him

The psalmist speaks as if fire were a person walking before King Yahweh and telling people that the king was coming.

consumes his adversaries

"burns up his enemies"

Psalms 97:4

the earth sees and trembles

The writer speaks of the earth as if it were a person who sees what Yahweh does and trembles in fear. Alternate translation: "like a person, the earth sees and trembles" trembles shakes with fear

Psalms 97:5

The mountains melt like wax before Yahweh

The writer speaks of the mountains crumbling before Yahweh as if they were wax that was exposed to a fire.

Alternate translation: "The mountains are unable to stand as Yahweh comes near" or "The mountains crumble in Yahweh's presence"

Psalms 97:6

The skies declare his justice

Possible meanings are 1) the psalmist speaks as if the skies are Yahweh's messengers who declare that Yahweh is just.

Alternate translation: "Everyone can see that God is just, the same way that everyone can see the skies" or 2) the skies refer to the beings that live in the heavens. Alternate translation: "All those who live in heaven declare that Yahweh is just"

Psalms 97:7

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 97:8

Zion heard ... the towns of Judah

This refers to the people who live in these lands. Alternate translation: "The people of Zion heard ... the people of Judah"

Psalms 97:9

are most high above all

The psalmist speaks as if those who were strong enough to rule were the physically higher than others. Alternate translation: "rule over all the people who live on"

You are exalted far

The psalmist speaks as if those who were strong enough to rule were the physically higher than others. Alternate translation: "You are high, far"

Psalms 97:10

he takes them out of the hand of the wicked

Here the word "hand" represents power. Yahweh rescuing people from the power of wicked people is spoken of as if he took them out of their hands. Alternate translation: "he rescues them from the power of the wicked"

Psalms 97:11

Light is sown for ... and gladness for

These two phrases have similar meanings and are used together for emphasis. Alternate translation: "Yahweh sows light for those who do right, and he sows gladness for those with honest hearts"

Light is sown for the righteous

The word "sown" is a metaphor for actions with future results. "Light" is a metaphor for good things. Alternate translation: "Yahweh plans for good things to happen to the righteous in the future"

the righteous

The adjective "righteous" can be translated as a noun phrase. Alternate translation: "righteous people" gladness for those with honest hearts

The words "is sown" are understood. The word "sown" is a metaphor for actions with future results. The abstract noun "gladness" can be stated as "happy." Alternate translation: "gladness is sown for those with honest hearts" or "Yahweh plans for people with honest hearts to be happy in the future"

those with honest hearts

The heart is a synecdoche for the whole person. Alternate translation: "honest people"

Psalms 97:12

General Information:

This verse has a command followed by the reason for the command. If your language requires the reason to precede the command: "Because of what Yahweh has done for you, you righteous people, be glad and give thanks when you remember his holiness."

Be glad in Yahweh

This idiom means to be glad because of what Yahweh has done. Alternate translation: "Be glad because of what Yahweh has done"

when you remember his holiness

Possible meanings are 1) "when you remember how holy he is" or 2) "to his holy name," a metonym for "to him."

Chapter 98

A psalm.

¹ Oh, sing to Yahweh a new song,
for he has done marvelous things;
his right hand and his holy arm
have given him victory.

² Yahweh has made known his salvation;
he has openly showed his justice to all the nations.

³ He calls to mind his steadfast love and faithfulness for the house of Israel;
all the ends of the earth will see the victory of our God.

⁴ Shout for joy to Yahweh, all the earth;
burst into song, sing for joy, and sing praises.

⁵ Sing praises to Yahweh with the harp, with the harp and melodious song.

⁶ With trumpets and the sound of the horn, shout joyfully before the King, Yahweh.

⁷ Let the sea shout and everything in it,
the world and those who live in it!

⁸ Let the rivers clap their hands, and let the mountains shout for joy.

⁹ Yahweh is coming to judge the earth;
he will judge the world with righteousness
and the nations with fairness.

Psalm 98 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 98 is one of six worship psalms (Psalms 95-100).

Special concepts in this chapter

Praise

Everyone and every thing should sing praises to Yahweh because he is worthy of all praise.

Links:

Psalms 98:1

Psalms 98:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

a new song

a song no one has ever sung before. See how this is translated in Psalms 96:1.

his right hand and his holy arm have

The words "right hand" and "holy arm" refer to Yahweh's strength. Together they emphasize how great his strength is. Alternate translation: "his very great power has"

right hand

the more powerful and skilled hand

holy arm

Here "arm" is a metonym for power. Alternate translation: "the power that is his alone"

have given him victory

This can be restated to remove the abstract noun "victory." Alternate translation: "have enabled him to be victorious over his enemies" or "has enabled him to defeat his enemies"

Psalms 98:2

made known his salvation

The abstract noun "salvation" can be translated using the verb "save." Alternate translation: "showed people that he saves his people" showed his justice to all the nations

The abstract noun "justice" can be translated using the adjective "just." The word "nations" is a metonym for "the people who live in all the nations." Alternate translation: "showed the people who live in all the nations that he is just"

Psalms 98:3

He calls to mind his steadfast love and faithfulness for the house of Israel

See how the idiom "call to mind" is translated in [Psalms 20:3]

all the ends of the earth

This is a metonym for the people of the earth. Alternate translation: "people from all over the world" will see the victory of our God

The abstract noun "victory" can be translated using the verb "defeat." Alternate translation: "will see our God defeat his enemies"

Psalms 98:4

all the earth

This is a metonym for the people of the earth. Alternate translation: "all people in the world"

burst into song

"suddenly begin singing happily"

sing for joy

"sing because you are happy"

sing praises

"sing praises to God"

Psalms 98:5

melodious

delightful or pleasing musical sound

Psalms 98:6

the horn

an animal horn used as a musical instrument

Psalms 98:7

Let the sea shout and everything in it

The psalmist speaks as if the sea were a person who could shout to God. Alternate translation: "Let it be as if the sea and everything in it were shouting"

the world and those who live in it

The psalmist speaks as if the world were a person.

Alternate translation: "and let it be as if the world and those who live in it were shouting"

the world

This is a metonym for the people who live in the world.

Alternate translation: "the people in the world"

Psalms 98:8

Let the rivers clap their hands, and let the mountains shout for joy

The psalmist speaks as if the rivers and mountains were people who could clap and shout. Alternate translation:

"Let it be as though the rivers are clapping their hands and mountains were shouting for joy"

Psalms 98:9

the nations with fairness

The verb may be supplied from the previous phrase.

Alternate translation: "he will judge the nations with fairness"

the nations

This is a metonym for "the people who live in the nations."

with fairness

"honestly" or "using the same standard for everyone"

Chapter 99

- ¹ Yahweh reigns;
let the nations tremble.
He sits enthroned above the cherubim;
the earth quakes.
- ² Yahweh is great in Zion;
he is exalted above all the nations.
- ³ Let them praise your great and awesome name;
he is holy.
- ⁴ The king is strong, and he loves justice.
You have established fairness;
you have done righteousness and justice in Jacob.
- ⁵ Praise Yahweh our God and worship at his footstool.
He is holy.
- ⁶ Moses and Aaron were among his priests,
and Samuel were among those who called on his name.
They called to Yahweh,
and he answered them.
- ⁷ He spoke to them from the pillar of cloud.
They kept his solemn commands and the statutes that he gave them.
- ⁸ You answered them,
Yahweh our God.
A forgiving God you were to them,
but also an avenger of their sinful deeds.
- ⁹ Praise Yahweh our God,
and worship at his holy hill, for Yahweh our God is holy.

Psalm 99 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 99 is one of six worship psalms (Psalms 95-100).

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's justice

God is just and fair. Moses, Aaron and Samuel each prayed to him and obeyed him and he answered their prayers. (See: justice)

Links:

Psalms 99:1

Psalms 99:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

the nations

This refers to the people of all nations. Alternate translation: "the people of all nations"

tremble

shake with fear

He sits enthroned above the cherubim

You may need to make explicit that the cherubim are those on the lid of the ark of the covenant. The biblical writers often spoke of the ark of the covenant as if it were Yahweh's footstool upon which he rested his feet as he sat on his throne in heaven above. Alternate translation: "He sits on his throne above the cherubim on the ark of the covenant"

quakes

shakes

Psalms 99:2

Yahweh is great in Zion; he is exalted above all the nations

"Not only is Yahweh great in Zion, he is exalted above all the nations" or "Not only does Yahweh rule in Zion, he rules over all the nations"

he is exalted above all the nations

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"people in all the nations exalt him" or "people in all nations praise him greatly"

Psalms 99:3

Let them praise your great and awesome name

Here the author shifts from speaking about God, to speaking to God. After this phrase though, he shifts back to speaking about God.

Psalms 99:4

he loves justice

The abstract noun "justice" can be translated using the phrase "what is just." Alternate translation: "he loves doing what is just"

You have established fairness

The abstract noun "fairness" is a metonym for the laws that are fair. Alternate translation: "The laws you have established are fair"

Psalms 99:5

worship at his footstool

Here the word "footstool" likely refers to the ark of the covenant, which the biblical writers often spoke of as if it were Yahweh's footstool upon which he rested his feet as he sat on his throne in heaven above. The translation can make explicit that the people are to worship Yahweh.

Alternate translation: "worship Yahweh at his footstool" or

"worship Yahweh before his throne in the temple"

Psalms 99:6

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 99:7

solemn important, given seriously

Psalms 99:8

You answered them

"You answered your people"

Psalms 99:9

his holy hill

"Mount Zion"

Chapter 100

A psalm of thanksgiving.

¹ Shout joyfully to Yahweh, all the earth.

² Serve Yahweh with gladness;
come before his presence with joyful singing.

³ Know that Yahweh is God;
he made us, and we are his.
We are his people and the sheep of his pasture.

⁴ Enter into his gates with thanksgiving and into his courts with praise.
Give thanks to him and bless his name.

⁵ For Yahweh is good; his covenant faithfulness endures forever and his truthfulness through all generations.

Psalm 100 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 100 is the last of six worship psalms (Psalms 95-100).

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's care for his creation

God made mankind and takes good care of people.

Links:

Psalms 100:1

Psalms 100:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of thanksgiving

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

Shout joyfully to Yahweh

"Raise a shout to Yahweh." See how "shout" is translated in Psalms 47:1.

all the earth

This refers to all the people of the earth. Alternate translation: "everyone on the earth"

Psalms 100:2

come before his presence

The psalmist speaks as if he is telling the readers to go into the throne room of a king. Alternate translation: "go to where he is with joyful singing" or "he can hear you, so sing joyfully"

Psalms 100:3

the sheep of his pasture

God's people are like his sheep. Alternate translation: "the people God provides for and protects"

pasture

a grassy area for feeding animals

Psalms 100:4

with thanksgiving

"while thanking him" or "while giving thanks to him"

bless his name

The word "name" is a metonym for Yahweh himself.

Alternate translation: "bless Yahweh" or "do what makes Yahweh happy" See how "may his glorious name be blessed" is translated in [Psalms 72:19]

Psalms 100:5

his covenant faithfulness endures forever

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "he is faithful to his covenant forever"

his truthfulness through all generations

The verb may be supplied from the previous phrase. The abstract noun "truthfulness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "his truthfulness endures through all generations" or "he is truthful through all generations"

through all generations

"generation after generation." See how this is translated in Psalms 89:4.

Chapter 101

A psalm of David.

¹ I will sing of covenant faithfulness and justice;
to you, Yahweh, I will sing praises.

² I will pay attention to the way of integrity.
Oh, when will you come to me?
I will walk with integrity of heart within my house.

³ I will not put wrongdoing before my eyes;
I hate worthless evil;
it will not cling to me.

⁴ A perverse heart will leave me;
I am not loyal to evil.

⁵ I will destroy whoever secretly slanders his neighbor.
I will not tolerate the haughty of eye and arrogant of heart.

⁶ I will look to the faithful of the land to sit at my side.

Those who walk in the way of integrity may serve me.

⁷ Deceitful people will not remain within my house;
liars will not be welcome before my eyes.

⁸ Morning by morning
I will destroy all the wicked from the land;
I will remove all who behave wickedly
from the city of Yahweh.

Psalm 101 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 101 is a psalm asking God's help in living as a person should.

Special concepts in this chapter

Encouragement

The psalmist wanted to encourage all the good people in the land restrain all the evil people. (See: evil)

Links:

Psalms 101:1

Psalms 101:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

I will sing of covenant faithfulness and justice

The abstract nouns "faithfulness" and "justice" can be translated with adjectives. Alternate translation: "I will sing that you are faithful to your covenant and that you are just"

Psalms 101:2

I will pay attention to the way of integrity

Here the words "pay attention to" are a metonym for the way that David will live because he has paid attention to the way of integrity. Alternate translation: "I will live in a way that is honest and right" or "I will live a life full of integrity"

I will walk with integrity of heart within my house

Here David speaks about living as if it were "walking." The word "heart" here is a metonym for the way he thinks and feels. Alternate translation: "I will live in my house with integrity"

Psalms 101:3

I will not put wrongdoing before my eyes

This can be restated to remove the abstract noun "wrongdoing." The idiom, "put evil before my eyes," means to approve of it. Alternate translation: "I will not approve of anyone doing anything that is wrong in my presence"

it will not cling to me

David describes "evil" as if it were something unable to cling to him. This means that he would avoid evil things and people doing evil things. Alternate translation: "I will completely avoid evil" cling

hold on to something or someone very tightly

Psalms 101:4

A perverse heart

The word "heart" here is a metonym for the thoughts and feelings of the person. This generic noun phrase refers to any perverse person or people. Alternate translation: "Perverse people" to evil

"to anything that is evil"

Psalms 101:5

the haughty of eye and arrogant of heart

The words "eye" and "heart" here are metonyms for the person whose eye and heart they are. The generic noun phrase refers to any haughty and arrogant person or people. Alternate translation: "people who are haughty and arrogant"

Psalms 101:6

I will look to the faithful of the land to sit at my side

This means that David would allow those people to be around him and live with him. Alternate translation: "I will allow the faithful of the land to live with me"

the faithful

This refers to the people who are faithful to God. Alternate translation: "the faithful people" walk in the way of integrity

Here David speaks about "living" as if it were "walking." Alternate translation: "live in a way that is honest and right" or "live lives full of integrity"

Psalms 101:7

Deceitful people will not ... liars will not

Chapter 102

These two phrases have the same idea and are used together to emphasize how David will not tolerate deceitful people.

liars will not be welcome

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "I will not welcome liars" before my eyes

Here "my eyes" refers to David himself. Alternate translation: "before me" or "in my presence"

Psalms 101:8

Morning by morning

"Every day"

the wicked

This refers to wicked people. Alternate translation: "the wicked people"

from the city of Yahweh

David is referring to the city that he is in as "the city of Yahweh." This can be made clear. Alternate translation: "from this city, which is Yahweh's city"

Chapter 102

A prayer of the afflicted when he is faint and pours out his lament before Yahweh.

¹ Hear my prayer, Yahweh;
hear my cry to you.

² Do not hide your face from me in my time of trouble.
Listen to me.
When I call out to you,
answer me quickly.

³ For my days pass away like smoke, and my bones burn like fire.

⁴ My heart is crushed, and I am like grass that has withered.
I forget to eat any food.

⁵ With my continual groaning,
I have become very thin.

⁶ I am like a pelican of the wilderness;
I have become like an owl in the ruins.

⁷ I lie awake like a solitary bird, alone on the housetop.

⁸ My enemies taunt me all day long;
those who mock me use my name in curses.

⁹ I eat ashes like bread and mix my drink with tears.

¹⁰ Because of your raging anger,
you have lifted me up to throw me down.

¹¹ My days are like a shadow that fades, and I have withered like grass.

¹² But you, Yahweh, live forever, and your fame is for all generations.

¹³ You will rise up and have mercy on Zion.
Now is the time to have mercy upon her;
the appointed time has come.

- ¹⁴ For your servants hold her stones dear and feel compassion for the dust of her ruins.
- ¹⁵ The nations will respect your name, Yahweh, and all the kings of the earth will honor your glory.
- ¹⁶ Yahweh will rebuild Zion and will appear in his glory.
- ¹⁷ At that time, he will respond to the prayer of the destitute;
he will not reject their prayer.
- ¹⁸ This will be written for future generations, and a people not yet created will praise Yah. ¹
- ¹⁹ For he has looked down from the holy heights;
from heaven Yahweh has viewed the earth,
- ²⁰ to hear the groaning of the prisoners,
to release those who were condemned to death.
- ²¹ Then men will proclaim the name of Yahweh in Zion and his praise in Jerusalem
- ²² when the peoples and kingdoms gather together to serve Yahweh.
- ²³ He has taken away my strength in the middle of life.
He has shortened my days.
- ²⁴ I said, "My God, do not take me away in the middle of life;
you are here throughout all generations.
- ²⁵ In ancient times you established the earth;
the heavens are the work of your hands.
- ²⁶ They will perish, but you will remain;
they will all grow old like a garment;
like clothing, you will remove them,
and they will disappear.
- ²⁷ But you are the same,
and your years will have no end.
- ²⁸ The children of your servants will live on,
and their descendants will live in your presence."

¹Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

Psalm 102 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 102 is a psalm of deliverance from sickness. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Salvation

The author does not want to die young. He also wants to see Jerusalem saved. (See: save)

Links:

Psalms 102:1

Psalms 102:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A prayer of the afflicted when he is faint and pours out his lament before Yahweh

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

the afflicted

This refers to a man who is afflicted. Alternate translation: "the afflicted man"

Psalms 102:2

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 102:3

my days pass away like smoke

Here "my days" refers to the author's life and the idea of "smoke" is something that quickly disappears. Alternate translation: "my life passes away quickly"

my bones burn like fire

Here the author refers to his "body" as his "bones."

Alternate translation: "my body feels like it is burning"

Psalms 102:4

My heart is crushed

Here the author refers to himself as his "heart." This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "I am in despair"

I am like grass that has withered

This is another way to describe his despair. Alternate translation: "I feel like I am drying up like withered grass"

Psalms 102:5

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 102:6

I am like a pelican of the wilderness

He compares his loneliness to that of a pelican, which is often seen alone instead of with other birds. Alternate translation: "I am lonely and despised like a pelican in the wilderness"

a pelican

a large fish-eating bird

I have become like an owl in the ruins

The author continues to describe loneliness by comparing himself to an owl in abandoned ruins. Alternate translation: "I have become alone like an owl in abandoned ruins"

an owl

This is a bird that is awake at night. Alternate translation: "a night bird"

Psalms 102:7

I lie awake like a solitary bird

The writer compares himself to a bird to emphasize his feeling of loneliness.

Psalms 102:8

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 102:9

I eat ashes like bread

David would have sat in ashes as an act of mourning, therefore ashes would have fallen on his food. Alternate translation: "I eat ashes like I eat bread" or "As I mourn, ashes fall on the bread that I eat"

mix my drink with tears

David did not purposefully mix his drink with tears; rather his tear would have fallen into his cup while he mourned and wept. Alternate translation: "my tears fall into the cup that I drink"

Psalms 102:10

you have lifted me up to throw me down

God has not literally lifted and thrown David's body to the ground; rather David says this to describe what he is feeling and experiencing. Alternate translation: "it is like you have lifted me up to throw me down"

Psalms 102:11

My days are like a shadow that fades

David compares his time left to live on earth to a fading shadow. Alternate translation: "My time to remain alive is short like an evening shadow that will soon be gone"

I have withered like grass

As David's body becomes weak and he is nearing the end of his life, he compares himself to withering grass. Alternate translation: "my body has become weak like withered grass" withered

dry and wrinkled

Psalms 102:12

your fame is for all generations

"you will be recognized for all generations to come"

fame

being known by many people

Psalms 102:13

have mercy on Zion

Here "Zion" refers to the people who live in Zion. Alternate translation: "have mercy on the people of Zion" upon her

The word "her" refers to Zion.

Psalms 102:14

hold her stones dear

The "stones" refer to the stones that were part of the city walls before they were destroyed. Alternate translation: "still love the stones that were formerly in the city walls"

Psalms 102:15

your name

Chapter 103

Here "your name" refers to Yahweh. Alternate translation: "you" will honor your glory

The people will honor Yahweh because of his glory. Here Yahweh is referred to by his glory. Alternate translation: "will honor you because you are glorious"

Psalms 102:16

will appear in his glory

"will be seen as glorious" or "people will see his glory"

Psalms 102:17

the destitute

This refers to destitute people.

he will not reject their prayer

"Yahweh will accept their prayers"

Psalms 102:18

This will be written for future generations

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "I will write this for future generations"

Psalms 102:19

For he has looked down from the holy heights; from heaven Yahweh has viewed

These two phrases have similar meaning and are used together for emphasize how God looks down from heaven. the holy heights

"his holy place high above the earth"

Psalms 102:20

those who were condemned to death

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"those whom the authorities had sentenced to die"

Psalms 102:21

proclaim the name of Yahweh in Zion and his praise in Jerusalem

These two phrases have the same meaning and emphasize the idea of praising the name of Yahweh.

Psalms 102:22

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 102:23

taken away my strength

David describes God causing him to become weak as if his strength were a physical item that could be taken away from him. Alternate translation: "has caused me to become weak"

my days

The word "days" here refers to his life. Alternate translation: "my life"

Psalms 102:24

do not take me away

David is asking God to not let him die. Alternate translation: "do not take me away from the earth" or "do not let me die"

you are here throughout all generations

"you are present throughout all generations"

Psalms 102:25

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 102:26

they will all grow old

The word "they" refers to "the earth" and "the heavens."

Psalms 102:27

your years will have no end

"you will live forever"

Psalms 102:28

will live on

"will continue to live"

live in your presence

Here David describes the descendants being protected by Yahweh as being in his presence. Alternate translation: "be protected as they live in your presence"

Chapter 103

A psalm of David.

¹ I give praise to Yahweh with all my life,
and with all that is within me,
I give praise to his holy name.

² I give praise to Yahweh with all my life,
and I remember all of his good deeds.

³ He forgives all your iniquities;
he heals all your diseases.

⁴ He redeems your life from the pit;
he crowns you with covenant faithfulness and acts of tender mercy.

⁵ He satisfies your life with good things so that your youth is renewed like the eagle.

⁶ Yahweh does what is fair and does acts of justice for all who are oppressed.

- ⁷ He made known his ways to Moses,
his deeds to the descendants of Israel.
- ⁸ Yahweh is merciful and gracious;
slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.
- ⁹ He will not discipline forever;
he will not be angry to eternity.
- ¹⁰ He does not deal with us as our sins deserve or repay us for what our iniquities demand.
- ¹¹ For as the skies are high above the earth,
so great is his covenant faithfulness toward those who honor him.
- ¹² As far as the east is from the west,
this is how far he has removed the guilt of our sins from us.
- ¹³ As a father has compassion on his children,
so Yahweh has compassion on those who honor him.
- ¹⁴ For he knows how we are formed;
he knows that we are dust.
- ¹⁵ As for man, his days are like grass;
he flourishes like a flower in a field.
- ¹⁶ The wind blows over it, and it disappears,
and no one can even tell where it once grew.
- ¹⁷ But the covenant faithfulness of Yahweh is from everlasting to everlasting on those who honor him.
His righteousness extends to their descendants.
- ¹⁸ They keep his covenant and remember to obey his instructions.
- ¹⁹ Yahweh has established his throne in the heavens, and his kingdom rules over everyone.
- ²⁰ Give praise to Yahweh, you his angels,
you mighty ones who are strong and do his word,
and obey the sound of his word.
- ²¹ Give praise to Yahweh, all his hosts, his servants who do his will.
- ²² Give praise to Yahweh, all his creatures,

in all the places where he reigns.

I will give praise to Yahweh with all my life.

Psalm 103 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 103 is the first in a series of five psalms of praise to God. (Psalm 103-107)

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's grace

God is good to us by forgiving our sins and not punishing us as much as we deserve. His loving-kindness goes on from generation to generation. (See: grace and forgive and sin)

Links:

Psalms 103:1

Psalms 103:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

I give praise to Yahweh with all my life, and with all that is within me, I give praise to his holy name

These two phrases mean basically the same thing and emphasize how much he will praise Yahweh. Alternate translation: "I will praise Yahweh with all that I am"

give praise to his holy name

This refers to praising Yahweh's name as Yahweh.

all that is within me

"all of me" or "all that I am." David uses this phrase to refer to himself and to emphasize his devotion to Yahweh.

Psalms 103:2

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 103:3

your ... you

David is speaking to himself, so he uses the words "your" and "you" to refer to himself. Many translations express this with "my" and "me" as the UDB does.

Psalms 103:4

your ... you

David is speaking to himself, so he uses the words "your" and "you" to refer to himself. Many translations express this with "my" and "me," as the UDB does.

He redeems your life from the pit

Here the words "your life" are a metonym for the person. The words "redeems ... from the pit" here are a metaphor that speaks of Yahweh saving the writer from certain death as if the writer were already dead and Yahweh had paid the one who keeps the dead in a pit so that the writer could come back to life. Alternate translation: "He saves me from dying"

he crowns you with covenant faithfulness and acts of tender mercy

Here blessing someone and treating them with great honor is described as if it were placing a crown on that person's head. The abstract nouns "faithfulness" and "mercy" can be translated with adverbs. Alternate translation: "he blesses you by acting faithfully and mercifully towards you"

Psalms 103:5

He satisfies your life with good things

The phrase "your life" refers to "you," but it emphasizes that Yahweh gives blessings throughout life. Alternate translation: "He satisfies you with good things through your life"

your youth is renewed like the eagle

Having your "youth renewed" means to feel young again.

Here David compares this feeling of youth to the swiftness and strength of an eagle. Alternate translation: "you feel young and are strong like an eagle"

your youth

The word "youth" refers to the strength one had as a young adult.

Psalms 103:6

does acts of justice for

"causes justice to happen to"

all who are oppressed

Who is doing the oppressing can be stated explicitly.

Alternate translation: "all who are oppressed by men"

Psalms 103:7

his deeds to the descendants of Israel

The words "he made known" are understood from the previous phrase. They may be repeated here. Alternate translation: "he made known his deeds to the descendants of Israel"

Psalms 103:8

abounding in steadfast love

The abstract noun "love" can be restated with the verb "love." Alternate translation: "he always loves his people"

Psalms 103:9

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 103:10

He does not deal with us ... or repay us

These two phrases are parallel and emphasize that God does not punish us as we deserve. Alternate translation:

"He does not repay us with the punishment we deserve for our sins"

deal with us

"punish us"

Psalms 103:11

For as the skies are high ... toward those who honor him

The simile compares the great distance between heaven and earth to the greatness of God's love for his people.

so great is his covenant faithfulness

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "so he is very faithful to his covenant"

Psalms 103:12

As far as the east ... removed the guilt of our sins from us

The distance between east and west is so far that it cannot be measured. In this simile, that distance is being compared to how far God moves our guilt away from us.

Psalms 103:13

As a father has compassion ... on those who honor him

Here the author compares a father's compassion for his children to Yahweh's compassion for those who honor him.

Psalms 103:14

how we are formed

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "what our bodies are like" or "how he formed our bodies" he knows that we are dust

When Yahweh created Adam the first man he created him from dust. Alternate translation: "he remembers that he created us from dust"

Psalms 103:15

As for man, his days are like grass

In this simile, the length of man's life is being compared to the short length of time that grass grows before it dies. Alternate translation: "The length of man's life is short like that of grass"

he flourishes like a flower in a field

In this simile, how man grows over time is compared to how a flower grows.

flourishes

To "flourish" is to grow well or be healthy.

Psalms 103:16

The wind blows over it, and it disappears ... where it once grew

These phrases continue to talk about flowers and grass.

They compare how flowers and grass die to how man dies.

Alternate translation: "The wind blows over the flowers and grass and they disappear, and no one can tell where they once grew—it is the same way with man"

Psalms 103:17

the covenant faithfulness of Yahweh is

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "Yahweh is faithful to his covenant" is from everlasting to everlasting

This means that Yahweh's love continues forever. Alternate translation: "will continue forever"

their descendants

"the descendants of those who honor him"

Psalms 103:18

They keep his covenant and remember to obey his instructions

These two phrases have similar meanings.

Psalms 103:19

Yahweh has established his throne in the heavens

Here Yahweh's reign as king is referred to as his "throne."

Alternate translation: "Yahweh has taken his seat in the heavens where he rules as king" has established

"has made"

his kingdom rules

Here Yahweh is referred to by "his kingdom" to emphasize his authority as king. Alternate translation: "he rules"

Psalms 103:20

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 103:21

all his hosts

"all his armies." Here "hosts" refers to the living beings that God created in the heavens. Possible meanings are that they are called hosts 1) because they fight as armies.

Alternate translation: "all his angel armies" or 2) because there are so many of them, just as armies have many soldiers. Alternate translation: "all his multitude of angels"

Psalms 103:22

in all the places where he reigns

"praise him in all the places where he reigns"

with all my life

This phrase means that he will praise Yahweh wholeheartedly and is used to emphasize his devotion to him. Alternate translation: "with all of me" or "with all my soul"

Chapter 104

¹ I give praise to Yahweh with all my life,
Yahweh my God, you are very magnificent;
you are clothed with splendor and majesty.

² You cover yourself with light as with a garment;
you spread out the heavens like a tent curtain.

³ You lay the beams of your chambers on the clouds;
you make the clouds your chariot;
you walk on the wings of the wind.

- ⁴ He makes the winds his messengers, flames of fire his servants.
- ⁵ He laid the foundations of the earth,
so that it will not totter forever and ever.
- ⁶ You covered the earth with water like a garment;
the water covered the mountains.
- ⁷ At your rebuke the waters retreated;
at the sound of your thunder they hurried away.
- ⁸ The mountains rose and the valleys went down to the places that you had appointed for them.
- ⁹ You have set a boundary for them that they will not cross;
they will not cover the earth again.
- ¹⁰ He made springs flow into the valleys;
the streams flow between the mountains.
- ¹¹ They supply water for all the animals of the field;
the wild donkeys quench their thirst.
- ¹² By the riverbanks the birds build their nests;
they sing among the branches.
- ¹³ He waters the mountains from his water chambers in the sky.
The earth is filled with the fruit of his labor.
- ¹⁴ He makes the grass grow for the cattle and plants for man to cultivate,
so that man may produce food from the earth.
- ¹⁵ He makes wine to make man happy,
oil to make his face shine,
and food to sustain his life.
- ¹⁶ The trees of Yahweh get plenty of rain;
the cedars of Lebanon which he planted.
- ¹⁷ There the birds make their nests.
The stork makes the cypress tree her home.
- ¹⁸ The wild goats live on the high mountains;
the mountain heights are a refuge for the hyraxes.
- ¹⁹ He appointed the moon to mark the seasons;
the sun knows its time for setting.

- ²⁰ You make the darkness of the night when all the beasts of the forest come out.
- ²¹ The young lions roar for their prey
and seek their food from God.
- ²² When the sun rises, they retreat and sleep in their dens.
- ²³ Meanwhile, people go out to their work and labor away until the evening.
- ²⁴ Yahweh, how many and varied are your works!
With wisdom you made them all;
the earth overflows with your works.
- ²⁵ Over there is the sea, deep and wide,
teeming with innumerable creatures,
both small and great.
- ²⁶ The ships travel there,
and Leviathan is also there, which you formed to play in the sea.
- ²⁷ All these look to you in hope that you will give them their food on time.
- ²⁸ When you give to them, they gather;
when you open your hand, they are satisfied.
- ²⁹ When you hide your face, they are troubled;
if you take away their breath, they die and return to dust.
- ³⁰ When you send out your Spirit,
they are created,
and you renew the surface of the ground.
- ³¹ May the glory of Yahweh last forever;
may Yahweh enjoy his creation.
- ³² He looks down on the earth, and it shakes;
he touches the mountains, and they smoke.
- ³³ I will sing to Yahweh all my life;
I will sing praise to my God as long as I live.
- ³⁴ May my thoughts be sweet to him;
I will rejoice in Yahweh.
- ³⁵ May sinners vanish from the earth, and let the wicked be no more.
I give praise to Yahweh with all my life.

Give praise to Yah. ¹

¹Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

Psalm 104 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 104 is the second in the series of five psalms of praise to God. (Psalm 103-107)

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's creation

God has created everything good on earth, in the sky and in the sea.

Links:

Psalms 104:1

Psalms 104:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry. This psalm is a song of praise.

with all my life

This phrase means that he will praise Yahweh wholeheartedly and is used to emphasize his devotion to him. Alternate translation: "with all of me" or "with all my soul"

you are clothed with splendor and majesty

The words "splendor" and "majesty" have similar meanings and emphasize the greatness of Yahweh's glory. They are described as clothing Yahweh like a garment. Alternate translation: "you have splendor and majesty all around you"

Psalms 104:2

You cover yourself with light as with a garment

Yahweh is described as being covered with light as if the light were a garment around him. Alternate translation: "You are covered in light"

you spread out the heavens like a tent curtain

Here God is described as spreading out the heavens like someone spreads out a tent when setting it up. Alternate translation: "you spread out the heavens like someone sets up a tent"

Psalms 104:3

You lay the beams of your chambers on the clouds

"You build your upper rooms in the heavens." This is referring to his house is so tall that the upper floor extends into the clouds.

you make the clouds your chariot

Here the clouds are described as carrying Yahweh as if they were a chariot. Alternate translation: "you make the clouds carry you like a chariot"

you walk on the wings of the wind

Here the blowing of the wind is described as wings on which Yahweh walks. Alternate translation: "you walk upon the wind"

Psalms 104:4

He makes the winds his messengers

Possible meanings are 1) he causes the wind to be able to carry a message like a messenger, "He makes the winds to be like his messengers" or 2) "He makes his messengers swift like the wind"

flames of fire his servants

Possible meanings are 1) "he causes flames of fire to be like his servants." He causes fire to serve him like a servant would or 2) "he makes his servants to be like flames of fire"and

flames of fire his servants

This can be stated with the implied information from the previous line. Alternate translation: "He makes the flames of fire his servants"

Psalms 104:5

He laid the foundations of the earth

Here the phrase "laid the foundations" means "created."

Alternate translation: "He created the whole earth"

it will not totter

It will not sway like it is about to fall down.

Psalms 104:6

You covered the earth with water like a garment

Here the water that covered the earth is being compared to how a large garment is able to completely cover something. Alternate translation: "You completely covered the earth with water"

Psalms 104:7

the waters retreated

The word "retreated" refers to a person moving backward.

Alternate translation: "rushed away"

Psalms 104:8

The mountains rose and the valleys went down

This tells about how the land changed. Some of the land became mountains and some of it became valleys.

Alternate translation: "The mountains grew and the valleys sank"

Psalms 104:9

a boundary for them that they will not cross

Here the psalmist speaks of God causing the waters not to cross the boundary that he created for them as if the waters themselves chose not to cross it. They are described this way to emphasize God's authority over them. Alternate translation: "a boundary for them that they cannot cross"

boundary

border

Psalms 104:10

streams

small rivers

Psalms 104:11

the wild donkeys quench their thirst

It can be stated clearly that they quench their thirst by drinking the water. Alternate translation: "the wild donkeys drink the water to quench their thirst"

Psalms 104:12

riverbanks

the ground at the edges of a river

they sing among the branches

Here David describes birds chirping as if they were singing. Alternate translation: "they chirp among the tree branches"

Psalms 104:13

He waters the mountains from his water chambers in the sky

This means that God causes it to rain. The waters are described as residing in chambers in the sky. Alternate translation: "He waters the mountains by causing the rains to fall from the sky"

the fruit of his labor

"the many good things that you create"

Psalms 104:14

and plants for man to cultivate

The words "he makes" and "grow" are understood from the previous phrase, and can be repeated here. Alternate translation: "and he makes the plants grow for man to cultivate"

Psalms 104:15

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 104:16

The trees of Yahweh get plenty of rain

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"Yahweh provides plenty of rain for his trees"

Psalms 104:17

There the birds make their nests

They makes their nests in the cedars. This can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "The birds make their nests in the cedars" stork

This is a type of bird. Alternate translation: "bird"

Psalms 104:18

hyraxes

I hyrax is a small animal that looks like a large rodent.

Alternate translation: "rock badger"

Psalms 104:19

seasons

This word refers to different weather changes through the year. Some places have rainy season and dry season, while others have spring, summer, fall, and winter.

the sun knows its time

Here David describes the sun as if it knows what time of day it is. Alternate translation: "he made the sun to set when it is time"

Psalms 104:20

You make

"Yahweh, you make." Here the authors switches from speaking about Yahweh to speaking to him.

Psalms 104:21

prey

an animal that is food for another animal

and seek their food from God

"but they rely on God to provide their food"

Psalms 104:22

retreat

go back to their dens

dens

the homes of some mammals and small animals

Psalms 104:23

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 104:24

overflows with your works

Here David describes the amount of things that Yahweh had created as if they were a liquid overflowing out of a container. Alternate translation: "is filled with your work"

Psalms 104:25

deep and wide

"it is very deep and very wide." The depth and width of the sea emphasizes how large it is.

teeming with innumerable creatures

"having in them more creatures than anyone could count" innumerable more than anyone can count

both small and great

This means creatures of all sizes.

Psalms 104:26

The ships travel there

"The ships travel on the sea"

Psalms 104:27

All these

"All these creatures"

give them their food on time

"give them their food when they need it"

Psalms 104:28

When you give to them, they gather

It may be helpful to state that it is food that is given.

Alternate translation: "When you give food to them, they gather it" gather collect

when you open your hand

This describes Yahweh as opening his hand to give food to the creatures. Alternate translation: "when you open your hand to feed them"

Psalms 104:29

hide your face

This means that Yahweh does not look at them or pay attention to them. Alternate translation: "when you do not look upon them" or "when you ignore them"

return to dust

This means that their bodies decay and are and become soil again. Alternate translation: "their bodies decay and return to the ground"

Psalms 104:30

When you send out your Spirit

This refers to his Spirit being sent to give life to creatures. they are created

It is Yahweh's spirit that created them.

you renew the surface of the ground
"you cause the land to be full of new life"
Psalms 104:31
General Information:
This page has intentionally been left blank.
Psalms 104:32
General Information:
This page has intentionally been left blank.
Psalms 104:33
General Information:
This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 104:34
my thoughts be sweet
He is comparing his thoughts to something that tastes sweet. Alternate translation: "my thoughts be pleasing"
Psalms 104:35
vanish disappear
let the wicked be no more
The phrase "the wicked" refers to wicked people. Alternate translation: "may wicked people disappear"

Chapter 105

- ¹ Give thanks to Yahweh, call on his name;
make known his deeds among the nations.
- ² Sing to him, sing praises to him;
speak of all his marvelous deeds.
- ³ Boast in his holy name;
let the heart of those who seek Yahweh rejoice.
- ⁴ Seek Yahweh and his strength;
seek his presence continually.
- ⁵ Recall the marvelous things he has done,
his miracles and the decrees from his mouth,
- ⁶ you descendants of Abraham his servant,
you people of Jacob, his chosen ones.
- ⁷ He is Yahweh, our God.
His decrees are on all the earth.
- ⁸ He keeps in mind his covenant forever,
the word that he commanded for a thousand generations.
- ⁹ He calls to mind the covenant that he made with Abraham and his oath to Isaac.
- ¹⁰ This is what he confirmed to Jacob as a statute and to Israel as an everlasting covenant.
- ¹¹ He said, "I will give you the land of Canaan as your share of your inheritance."
- ¹² He said this when they were only few in number,
so very few, and were strangers in the land.
- ¹³ They went from nation to nation and from one kingdom to another.
- ¹⁴ He did not allow anyone to oppress them;
he rebuked kings for their sakes.

- ¹⁵ He said, "Do not touch my anointed ones, and do not harm my prophets."
- ¹⁶ He called for a famine on the land;
he cut off the whole staff of bread.
- ¹⁷ He sent a man ahead of them;
Joseph was sold as a servant.
- ¹⁸ His feet were bound by shackles;
on his neck was put an iron collar,
- ¹⁹ until what he had said came to pass.
The word of Yahweh tested him.
- ²⁰ The king sent servants to release him;
the ruler of the people set him free.
- ²¹ He put him in charge of his house as ruler of all his possessions
- ²² to instruct his princes as he wished and to teach his elders wisdom.
- ²³ Then Israel came into Egypt, and Jacob lived for a time in the land of Ham.
- ²⁴ Yahweh made his people fruitful, and made them stronger than their enemies.
- ²⁵ He caused their enemies to hate his people,
to mistreat his servants.
- ²⁶ He sent Moses, his servant,
and Aaron, whom he had chosen.
- ²⁷ They performed his signs among the Egyptians,
his wonders in the land of Ham.
- ²⁸ He sent darkness and made that land dark,
and they did not rebel against his commands.
- ²⁹ He turned their water into blood and killed their fish.
- ³⁰ Their land swarmed with frogs,
even in the rooms of their rulers.
- ³¹ He spoke, and swarms of flies and gnats came throughout their country.
- ³² He turned their rain into hail,

with fire flaming on their land.

³³ He destroyed their vines and fig trees;
he broke the trees of their country.

³⁴ He spoke, and the locusts came,
so many locusts.

³⁵ The locusts ate up all of the vegetation in their land;
They ate up all the crops of the ground.

³⁶ He killed every firstborn in their land,
the firstfruits of all their strength.

³⁷ He brought the Israelites out with silver and gold;
none of his tribes stumbled on the way.

³⁸ Egypt was glad when they went away,
for the Egyptians were afraid of them.

³⁹ He spread a cloud for a covering and made a fire to light up the night.

⁴⁰ The Israelites asked for food, and he brought quail and satisfied them with bread from heaven.

⁴¹ He split the rock, and waters gushed from it;
they flowed in the wilderness like a river.

⁴² For he called to mind his holy promise that he made to Abraham his servant.

⁴³ He led his people out with joy, his chosen with shouts of triumph.

⁴⁴ He gave them the lands of the nations;
they took possession of the fruit of the peoples' labors

⁴⁵ so that they might keep his statutes and obey his laws.
Give praise to Yah. ¹

¹Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

Psalm 105 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 105 is the third in a series of five psalms of praise to God. (Psalm 103-107)

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's protection

God protected Abraham and Jacob. He worked throughout Israel's history to bring Israel into the Promised Land. (See: promisedland)

Links:

Psalms 105:1

Psalms 105:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

call on his name

Here "name" represents Yahweh. Alternate translation: "call on him"

the nations

This refers to the people in the nations. Alternate translation: "the people of the nations"

Psalms 105:2

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 105:3

Boast in his holy name

Here "name" represents Yahweh. Alternate translation: "Boast in Yahweh"

let the heart of those who seek Yahweh rejoice

Here "the heart" represents the person who seeks Yahweh. Alternate translation: "let the people who seek Yahweh rejoice"

Psalms 105:4

Seek Yahweh and his strength

To "seek Yahweh's strength" means to ask him to strengthen you. Alternate translation: "Seek Yahweh and ask him to give you his strength"

Psalms 105:5

Recall

remember and think about his miracles and

The word "recall" is understood from the previous phrase.

Alternate translation: "recall his miracles and"

the decrees from his mouth

Here "mouth" refers to the things that he spoke. Alternate translation: "the decrees that he has spoken"

Psalms 105:6

you descendants of Abraham ... you people of Jacob

The author is speaking to the Israelites, calling them these names.

Abraham his servant

"Abraham, Yahweh's servant"

Psalms 105:7

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 105:8

He keeps in mind ... the word that he commanded

These two phrases share similar meanings and are used together for emphasis. The word "word" refers to the covenant. Alternate translation: "He keeps in mind his covenant forever, the promise he made"

keeps in mind

This means to remember and think about something.

Alternate translation: "remembers"

a thousand generations

"1,000 generations"

Psalms 105:9

He calls to mind

The phrase "call to mind" means to remember something.

Alternate translation: "he remembers"

the covenant that he made with Abraham ... his oath to Isaac

Both of these phrases "the covenant" and "the oath" refer to the same promise that Yahweh made to his people.

his oath to Isaac

The words "that he made" are understood from the previous phrase. They can be repeated. Alternate translation: "his oath that he made to Isaac" or "his oath that he gave to Isaac"

Psalms 105:10

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 105:11

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 105:12

Connecting Statement:

The psalmist is writing about Israel.

when they were only few in number

The word "they" refers to the Israelites.

were strangers in the land

It is implied that "the land" refers to Canaan. Alternate translation: "were foreigners in the land of Canaan"

Psalms 105:13

They went from

"They continued to wander"

from nation to nation and from one kingdom to another

These two phrases have similar meanings and are used together for emphasis.

Psalms 105:14

Connecting Statement:

The psalmist is writing about Israel.

for their sakes

"for their own well-being." This is referring to Israel.

Psalms 105:15

Do not touch my anointed ones

Here "touch" means to harm, it's an exaggeration Yahweh used to strengthen his warning to not harm his people.

Alternate translation: "Do not harm the people I have anointed"

Psalms 105:16

He called for

"He sent." This means that caused a famine to happen in the land.

the whole staff of bread

Here "staff" is a metaphor for the supply of bread on which the people depend, and "bread" refers to food in general.

Alternate translation: "the whole supply of food"

Psalms 105:17

He sent a man ahead of them; Joseph

It may be helpful to state that he sent him ahead of them to Egypt. Alternate translation: "He sent a man ahead of them to Egypt; he sent Joseph who"

Joseph was sold as a servant

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"Joseph's brothers sold him as a slave"

Psalms 105:18

shackles

metal restraints used to fasten a prisoner's wrists or ankles together

His feet were bound by shackles; on his neck was put an iron collar

These statements can be restated as active. Alternate translation: "The Egyptians bound his feet in shackles; they put an iron collar around his neck.

Psalms 105:19

The word of Yahweh tested him

"The message of Yahweh tested him"

Psalms 105:20

The king sent servants to release him; the ruler of the people set him free

These two phrases have basically the same meaning and are used together to emphasize that the king set Joseph free.

Psalms 105:21

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 105:22

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 105:23

Then Israel came into Egypt

Here "Israel" refers to Jacob. Jacob also brought his family with him. Alternate translation: "Then Israel and his family came into Egypt"

Psalms 105:24

Yahweh made his people fruitful

The writer speaks of the increase of Israel as if they were a plant that produced a lot of fruit. "God increased the number of his people greatly"

Psalms 105:25

to hate his people, to mistreat his servants

"to hate his people and to mistreat his servants"

Psalms 105:26

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 105:27

They performed his signs among the Egyptians ... his wonders in the land of Ham

These two phrases have basically the same meaning.

Alternate translation: "Moses and Aaron performed God's miracles in Egypt among the descendants of Ham"

his wonders in the land of Ham

The words "they performed" are understood from the previous phrase. They may be repeated here. Alternate translation: "and they performed his wonders in the land of Ham"

the land of Ham

Ham was an ancestor of the people of Egypt. Alternate translation: "the land of Ham's descendants"

Psalms 105:28

made that land dark

"made the sky dark"

they did not rebel

Moses and Aaron did not rebel

Psalms 105:29

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 105:30

frogs

a small jumping reptile

even in the rooms of their rulers

"they were even in the rooms of their rulers"

Psalms 105:31

Connecting Statement:

The psalmist continues to describe Yahweh's judgment on Egypt.

swarms

large flying groups

gnats

small flying insects like flies but smaller

Psalms 105:32

hail

ice that falls from the sky like rain

Psalms 105:33

He destroyed ... he broke

God caused the hail, rain, and lightning to ruin the vines and trees. Alternate translation: "He caused it to destroy ... and to break"

Psalms 105:34

so many locusts

"there were so many locusts"

Psalms 105:35

The locusts ate up all of the vegetation ... They ate up all the crops of the ground

These two phrase have basically the same meaning and are used together for emphasis. Alternate translation: "The insects ate all the plants and all the crops in the land"

Psalms 105:36

He killed every firstborn in their land, the firstfruits of all their strength

Here the second phrase about the "firstfruits" is used to describe the "firstborn" in the first phrase. Alternate translation: "He killed every firstborn in their land, which were the firstfruits of all their strength" or "Then Yahweh killed the oldest son in every house of the people of Egypt"

Psalms 105:37

He brought the Israelites out with silver and gold

When the Israelites left Egypt they took silver and gold with them. Alternate translation: "He brought the Israelites out of Egypt with silver and gold in their possession"

none of his tribes stumbled on the way

"every one of his tribes was able to make the journey"

Psalms 105:38

Egypt was glad

Here "Egypt" refers to the people who live in Egypt.

Alternate translation: The people of Egypt were glad

Psalms 105:39

He spread a cloud for a covering

Here the psalmist describes Yahweh placing a cloud in the sky as if he were spreading out a garment. The cloud was a "covering" to protect them from the sun. Alternate translation: "He placed a cloud in the sky to protect them from the sun and heat"

made a fire to light up the night

Yahweh placed a pillar of fire in the sky to give light during the night. Alternate translation: "placed a fire in the sky to light up the night"

Psalms 105:40

he brought quail

It may be helpful to make clear that quail are small birds

Yahweh sent for them to eat. Alternate translation:

"Yahweh sent small birds to eat"

with bread from heaven

Yahweh caused manna, a type of bread, to fall from the sky.

Alternate translation: "with bread that fell from the sky"

Psalms 105:41

they flowed

"the waters flowed"

Psalms 105:42

called to mind

This means to remember. Alternate translation:

"remembered"

Psalms 105:43

He led his people out ... his chosen with shouts of triumph

These two phrases have basically the same meaning and are used together to emphasize that God's people were joyful when he led them out of Egypt. The people were shouting joyfully. Alternate translation: "He led his chosen people out with shouts of joy and triumph"

his chosen

Here "chosen" refers to Yahweh's chosen people. Alternate translation: "his chosen people" shouts of triumph

the sound that people make when they are shouting with joy because they have defeated their enemies

Psalms 105:44

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 105:45

keep his statutes and obey his laws

These two phrases have basically the same meaning and are used together for emphasis. "To keep" his statutes means to obey them. Alternate translation: "obey his laws and statutes"

Chapter 106

¹ Give praise to Yah. ¹

Give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

² Who can recount the mighty acts of Yahweh or proclaim in full all his praiseworthy deeds?

³ Blessed are those who do what is right, and whose deeds are always just.

⁴ Call me to mind, Yahweh, when you show favor to your people;
help me when you save them.

⁵ Then I will see the prosperity of your chosen, rejoice in the gladness of your nation,
and glory with your inheritance.

⁶ We have sinned like our ancestors;
we have done wrong, and we have done evil.

⁷ Our fathers did not pay attention to your marvelous deeds in Egypt;
they ignored your many acts of covenant faithfulness;
they were rebellious at the sea, the Sea of Reeds.

⁸ Nevertheless, he saved them for his name's sake so that he might reveal his power.

⁹ He rebuked the Sea of Reeds, and it dried up.
Then he led them through the depths, as through a wilderness.

¹⁰ He saved them from the hand of those who hated them, and he rescued them from the hand of the enemy.

¹¹ But the waters covered their adversaries;
not one of them survived.

¹² Then they believed his words, and they sang his praise.

¹³ But they quickly forgot his deeds;
they did not wait for his instructions.

¹⁴ They had insatiable cravings in the wilderness, and they challenged God in the desert.

¹⁵ So he gave them what they requested,
but he sent a horrible disease upon them.

¹⁶ In the camp they became jealous of Moses and Aaron, the holy priest of Yahweh.

¹⁷ The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan and covered the company of Abiram.

¹⁸ Fire broke out in their company;
the fire consumed the wicked.

¹⁹ They made a calf at Horeb and worshiped a cast metal figure.

²⁰ They traded the glory of God for the image of a bull that eats grass.

²¹ They forgot God their Savior, who had done great deeds in Egypt.

²² He had done wonderful things in the land of Ham and awesome deeds at the Sea of Reeds.

²³ So he said he would destroy them—had not Moses, his chosen one, stood in the breach before him, to turn away his anger from destroying them.

²⁴ Then they despised the delightful land;
they did not believe his promise,

²⁵ but grumbled in their tents,
and did not obey Yahweh.

²⁶ Therefore he raised his hand and swore to them that he would let them die in the desert,

- ²⁷ scatter their descendants among the nations,
and scatter them in foreign lands.
- ²⁸ They worshiped the Baal of Peor and ate the sacrifices offered to the dead.
- ²⁹ They provoked him to anger with their actions, and a plague broke out among them.
- ³⁰ Then Phinehas stood up and mediated, and the plague subsided.
- ³¹ It was counted to him as a righteous deed to all generations forever.
- ³² They also angered Yahweh at the waters of Meribah, and Moses suffered because of them.
- ³³ They made his spirit bitter,
and he spoke thoughtlessly with his lips.
- ³⁴ They did not destroy the nations
as Yahweh had commanded them,
- ³⁵ but they mingled with the nations,
learned their practices,
- ³⁶ and worshiped their idols,
which became a snare to them.
- ³⁷ They sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons.
- ³⁸ They shed innocent blood,
the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan, desecrating the land with blood.
- ³⁹ They were defiled by their deeds;
in their actions they were like prostitutes.
- ⁴⁰ So Yahweh was angry with his people,
and he abhorred his inheritance.
- ⁴¹ He gave them into the hand of the nations,
and those who hated them ruled over them.
- ⁴² Their enemies oppressed them,
and they were brought into subjection to their authority.
- ⁴³ Many times he came to help them,
but they were rebellious in their purposes and were brought low by their own iniquity.

44 Nevertheless, he paid attention to their distress
when he heard their cry for help.

45 He called to mind his covenant with them and relented because of his steadfast love.

46 He caused all their captors to have pity on them.

47 Save us, Yahweh, our God.
Gather us from among the nations so that we may give thanks to your holy name and glory in your praises.

48 May Yahweh, the God of Israel, be praised
from everlasting to everlasting.
All the people said, "Amen."
Give praise to Yah. ²

BOOK FIVE

(Psalms 107-150)

¹Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.
²Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

Psalm 106 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 106 is the fourth in a series of five psalms of praise to God. (Psalm 103-107)

Special concepts in this chapter

Israel's sin

Although Israel continually sinned in the desert, God still took them to the Promised Land. (See: sin and promisedland)

Links:

Psalms 106:1

Psalms 106:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

for his covenant faithfulness endures forever

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "for he remains faithful to his covenant forever"

Psalms 106:2

Who can recount the mighty acts of Yahweh ... deeds?

The author asks this question to praise God and does not expect an answer. Alternate translation: "No one can recount the mighty acts of Yahweh ... deeds."

praiseworthy deeds

"deeds that are worthy of praise"

Psalms 106:3

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 106:4

Call me to mind

The phrase "call to mind" means to remember something.

Alternate translation: "remember me"

Psalms 106:5

of your chosen

The word "chosen" refers to Yahweh's chosen people.

Alternate translation: "of your chosen people"

rejoice in the gladness ... and glory

These are things that David says he will do, along with "seeing the prosperity of your chosen." The words "I will" may be repeated here. "I will rejoice in the gladness ... and I will glory"

gladness

joy, delight

glory with your inheritance

Here the phrase "your inheritance" refers to the Israelites, who are Yahweh's chosen people. Here "glory" means "to boast about" something; in this case they are boasting about Yahweh. Alternate translation: "boast of your greatness with your people" or "boast with your people about you"

Psalms 106:6

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 106:7

they ignored your many acts of covenant faithfulness

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "they ignored the many things that you did because you are faithful to your covenant"

at the sea ... the Sea of Reeds

These two phrases refer to the same sea. The second is the name of the sea.

Psalms 106:8

Nevertheless, he

"Even though what I have just said is true, he"

for his name's sake

Here "his name" refers to Yahweh. Alternate translation: "for the sake of his own reputation"

Psalms 106:9

through the depths, as through a wilderness

Here David compares the way that Yahweh led the Israelites through the Sea of Reeds to the way people can be led across the dry ground of a wilderness. "The depths" refers the riverbed that appeared after Yahweh parted the waters. Alternate translation: "through the Seas of Reeds on dry ground"

Psalms 106:10

He saved them from the hand ... and he rescued them from the hand

These two phrases mean basically the same thing and are used together to emphasize that Yahweh saved them from their enemies.

the hand of those who hated them

Here "hand" refers to power or control. Alternate translation: "the power of those who hated them" or "the control of those who hated them"

Psalms 106:11

covered their adversaries

This is a polite way to talk about them drowning. Alternate translation: "drowned their enemies"

Psalms 106:12

Then they believed his words

Here the word "they" refers to "their ancestors" and the word "his" refers to "Yahweh."

Psalms 106:13

they did not wait for his instructions

It is implied that they did things without waiting to find out what Yahweh wanted them to go. Alternate translation:

"they did things without first waiting for Yahweh's instructions"

Psalms 106:14

insatiable cravings

"cravings that could not be satisfied"

they challenged God

"They rebelled against God"

Psalms 106:15

but he sent a horrible disease

Here David speaks about Yahweh causing the people to be afflicted by a disease as if Yahweh sent a disease to them in the same way that someone sends a person or a messenger. Alternate translation: "but he caused them to suffer from a horrible disease"

a horrible disease

a disease that caused people to slowly become weak and caused some of them to die

Psalms 106:16

In the camp

This refers to the Israelites' camp in the wilderness.

Alternate translation: "In the camp in the wilderness"

Psalms 106:17

The earth opened and swallowed up

Here how the ground opens up and buries the people is being compared to how a creature swallows something.

Alternate translation: "The earth opened and buried"

Dathan

This was an official who rebelled against Moses.

covered the company of Abiram

The followers of Abiram were also buried when the earth opened and buried Dathan. Alternate translation: "it also covered the company of Abiram" or "it also buried the company of Abiram"

Abiram

This was an official who rebelled against Moses.

Psalms 106:18

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 106:19

They made a calf at Horeb and worshiped a cast metal figure

This information can be reordered so that it is clear that the calf was the cast metal figure. Alternate translation: "At Horeb, they made a cast metal figure of a calf and worshiped it"

Psalms 106:20

They traded the glory of God for the image of a bull

This means that instead of worshiping God they worshiped the image of the bull. Alternate translation: "They traded worshiping the glory of God to worship the image of a bull" the glory of God

Here God is referred to by his glory. Alternate translation: "their glorious God" or "God who is glorious"

Psalms 106:21

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 106:22

the land of Ham

This refers to the land where Ham's descendants lived.

Alternate translation: "the land where Ham's descendant live"

Psalms 106:23

stood in the breach before him, to turn away his anger from destroying them

Here David speaks about Moses persuading Yahweh not to destroy the Israelites as intervening with him in the breach.

Alternate translation: "stood between Yahweh and the Israelites and begged Yahweh to not destroy them"

Psalms 106:24

his promise

This refers to Yahweh's promise that he would allow them to take the land of Canaan as their possession.

Psalms 106:25

grumbled complained

Psalms 106:26

raised his hand

The word "his" refers to Yahweh. Also, it was custom to raise a hand when swearing an oath.

Psalms 106:27

scatter their descendants ... in foreign lands

These two phrases have basically the same meaning and are used together for emphasis. Alternate translation: "and that he would make their descendants live in foreign lands" scatter

This means to disperse or spread out something.

Psalms 106:28

the sacrifices offered to the dead

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "the sacrifices that they offered to the dead"

to the dead

"The dead" refers to the idols and gods that the Israelites were worshiping. Alternate translation: "to gods who are dead" or "to lifeless gods"

Psalms 106:29

a plague broke out

"a plague spread"

provoked him to anger

"angered him"

Psalms 106:30

Then Phinehas stood up and mediated

Phinehas stood between God and the people, punishing the people for their sin. This can be made clear. Alternate translation: "Then Phinehas rose to punish the people on God's behalf because of their sin"

Psalms 106:31

It was counted to him as a righteous deed

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"People credited it to him as a righteous deed"

Psalms 106:32

Meribah

This is a place.

suffered because of them

Moses suffered because of the peoples' sin. Here the word "them" is a pronoun for the people and a metonym referring to their sin. Alternate translation: "suffered because of their actions"

Psalms 106:33

They made his spirit bitter

Possible meanings: 1) The word "his" refers to Moses.

Alternate translation: "They were rebellious against Moses."

Or 2) The word "his" refers to God. Alternate translation:

"They were rebellious against the Spirit of God."

Psalms 106:34

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 106:35

but they mingled with the nations

Hey David speaks of the people intermarrying with the women from other nations as "mingling" with them.

Alternate translation: "but they mixed in marriage with the other nations"

Psalms 106:36

which became a snare to them

The idols became a snare to them.

Psalms 106:37

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 106:38

They shed innocent blood, the blood of their sons and of their daughters

The phrase "shedding blood" is a descriptive euphemism used for "killing." Alternate translation: "They shed innocent blood when they killed their sons and daughters"

Psalms 106:39

They were defiled by their deeds

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"Their deeds defiled them"

in their actions they were like prostitutes

Here David compares their unfaithfulness to Yahweh to the unfaithfulness of a prostitute. Alternate translation: "they were as unfaithful to Yahweh as prostitutes"

Psalms 106:40

So Yahweh was angry with his people ... he abhorred his inheritance

"So Yahweh was angry with his people and despised them"

Psalms 106:41

He gave them into the hand of the nations

Here "hand" refers to power or control. Alternate translation: "God allowed the nations to take control of them"

those who hated them

"people who hated them"

Psalms 106:42

they were brought into subjection to their authority

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"their enemies caused them to be subject to their authority"

Psalms 106:43

were brought low by their own iniquity

Here the phrase "brought low" means to be destroyed. Also, this can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"their iniquity ruined them"

Psalms 106:44

Nevertheless, he

"Even though what I have just said is true, he." See how you translated this in Psalms 106:8.

their distress

"their affliction" or "their suffering"

Psalms 106:45

Chapter 107

called to mind

The phrase "call to mind" means to remember something.

Alternate translation: "remembered"

He ... relented because of his steadfast love

"He ... decided that because he still loved them very much he would not punish them"

Psalms 106:46

to have pity on them

"to be compassionate on them"

Psalms 106:47

General Information:

Here 106:48 is more than the end of this psalm. It is the closing statement for all of Book 4 of the Psalms, which starts at Psalm 90 and ends with Psalm 106.

to your holy name

Here Yahweh is referred to by his "holy name." Alternate translation: "to you"

Psalms 106:48

May Yahweh, the God of Israel, be praised

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"May people praise Yahweh the God of Israel"

from everlasting to everlasting

This refers to two extremes and means for all time. See how you translated this in [Psalms 41:13]

Chapter 107

- ¹ Give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good,
and his covenant faithfulness endures forever.
- ² Let the redeemed of Yahweh speak out, those he has rescued from the hand of the enemy.
- ³ He has gathered them out of foreign lands,
from the east and from the west,
from the north and from the south.
- ⁴ They wandered in the wilderness on a desert road and found no city in which to live.
- ⁵ Because they were hungry and thirsty,
they fainted from exhaustion.
- ⁶ Then they called out to Yahweh in their trouble, and he rescued them out of their distress.
- ⁷ He led them by a direct path so that they would go to a city to live in.
- ⁸ Oh that people would praise Yahweh for his covenant faithfulness and for the amazing things he has done for humanity!
- ⁹ For he satisfies the longings of those who are thirsty, and the desires of those who are hungry he fills up with good things.
- ¹⁰ Some sat in darkness and in the shadow of death, prisoners in affliction and chains.
- ¹¹ This was because they had rebelled against God's word and rejected the instruction of the Most High.
- ¹² He humbled their hearts through hardship;
they stumbled and there was no one to help them up.
- ¹³ Then they called out to Yahweh in their trouble,
and he saved them out of their distress.

- ¹⁴ He brought them out of darkness and gloom and broke their bonds.
- ¹⁵ Oh that people would praise Yahweh for his covenant faithfulness
and for the amazing things he has done for humanity!
- ¹⁶ For he has broken the gates of bronze and cut through the bars of iron.
- ¹⁷ They were foolish in their rebellious ways and afflicted because of their iniquities.
- ¹⁸ Their soul abhorred all food,
and they came close to the gates of death.
- ¹⁹ Then they called out to Yahweh in their trouble,
and he saved them out of their distress.
- ²⁰ He sent his word and healed them, and he rescued them from the pits in which they were trapped.
- ²¹ Oh that people would praise Yahweh for his covenant faithfulness and for the amazing things he has done for humanity!
- ²² Let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving and proclaim his deeds with shouts of joy.
- ²³ Some travel on the sea in ships and do business overseas.
- ²⁴ These saw the deeds of Yahweh and his wonders on the seas.
- ²⁵ For he commanded and aroused the windstorm
that stirs up the seas.
- ²⁶ They reached up to the sky; they went down to the depths.
Their lives melted away in distress.
- ²⁷ They swayed and staggered like drunkards and were at their wits' end.
- ²⁸ Then they called out to Yahweh in their trouble, and he brought them out of their distress.
- ²⁹ He calmed the storm,
and the waves were stilled.
- ³⁰ Then they rejoiced because the sea was calm, and he brought them to their desired harbor.
- ³¹ Oh that people would praise Yahweh for his covenant faithfulness and for the amazing things he has done for humanity!
- ³² Let them exalt him in the assembly of the people and praise him in the council of the elders.

- ³³ He turns rivers into a wilderness, springs of water into dry land,
- ³⁴ and a fruitful land into a barren place
because of the wickedness of its people.
- ³⁵ He turns the wilderness into a pool of water and dry land into springs of water.
- ³⁶ He settles the hungry there,
and they build a city to live in.
- ³⁷ They sowed fields and planted vineyards that yielded a fruitful harvest.
- ³⁸ He blesses them so they are very numerous.
He does not let their livestock decrease in number.
- ³⁹ They were diminished and brought low by oppression, distress, and suffering.
- ⁴⁰ He pours contempt on the leaders and causes them to wander in the wilderness, where there are no roads.
- ⁴¹ But he protects the needy from affliction and cares for his families like a flock.
- ⁴² The upright will see this and rejoice, and all wickedness shuts its mouth.
- ⁴³ Whoever is wise should take note of these things and meditate on Yahweh's acts of covenant faithfulness.

Psalm 107 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 107 is the last in a series of five psalms of praise to God (Psalm 103-107).

Special concepts in this chapter

Praise

The psalmist praises Yahweh for saving people lost in the desert, in prison, sick, in a storm at sea, homeless and oppressed. (See: save and oppress)

Links:

Psalms 107:1

Psalms 107:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

his covenant faithfulness endures forever

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "he remains faithful to his covenant forever"

Psalms 107:2

the redeemed of Yahweh

"The redeemed" refers to the people whom Yahweh has saved. Alternate translation: "those whom Yahweh has saved"

Speak out

This means to tell others about something. Alternate translation: "tell about what Yahweh has done"

from the hand of the enemy

Here "hand" refers to power. Alternate translation: "from the power of the enemy"

Psalms 107:3

from the east ... and from the south

Here the four directions are given to emphasize that he has gathered them from nations in every direction. Alternate translation: "from every direction" or "from every part of the world"

Psalms 107:4

They wandered

"Some people wandered"

on a desert road

"on a road that was in the desert"

in which to live

"that they could live in"

Psalms 107:5

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 107:6

Then they called out to Yahweh in their trouble

It is implied that they are praying to Yahweh so that he will help them. Alternate translation: "Then they prayed to Yahweh to help them in their trouble"

their distress

"their difficulties" or "their afflictions"

Psalms 107:7

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 107:8

Oh that people would praise Yahweh for his covenant faithfulness

Here the word "Oh" is used to show that the writer has a strong desire for people to praise Yahweh. The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective.

Alternate translation: "Let people praise Yahweh because he is faithful to his covenant" or "People should praise Yahweh because he is faithful to his covenant"

for humanity

"for all people"

Psalms 107:9

For he satisfies the longings of those who are thirsty

"For he gives water to those who desire it—to those who are thirsty"

the desires of those who are hungry he fills up with good things

"to those who are very hungry and desire food, he give them good things to eat"

Psalms 107:10

Some sat

It is implied that these are people that Yahweh has rescued. Alternate translation: "Yahweh also rescued people who sat" in the shadow of death

Possible meanings are 1) they thought that their captors would kill them or 2) the prison had no light and was very dark.

Psalms 107:11

they had rebelled against God's word ... rejected the instruction of the Most High

These phrases have similar meanings and emphasize how much they had rebelled against God, which is why they had been imprisoned.

Psalms 107:12

He humbled their hearts through hardship

Here the heart represents a person, but specifically his will.

Alternate translation: "He humbled them by allowing them to suffer hardship" hardship

Possible meanings are 1) "trouble" or 2) "hard labor."

they stumbled and there was no one to help them up

The word "stumbled" refers to times when these people got into very difficult situations. Alternate translation: "they got into trouble and there was no one to help them out of it"

Psalms 107:13

Then they called out to Yahweh in their trouble

It is implied that they are praying to Yahweh so that he will help them. See how you translated this in [Psalms 107:6]

their distress

"difficulties" or "afflictions." See how you translated this in

Psalms 107:6

Psalms 107:14

He brought them

"Yahweh brought those in prison"

darkness and gloom

Both "darkness" and "gloom" have basically the same meaning and are used to emphasize how dark the prison was. See how you translated this in [Psalms 107:10]

Psalms 107:15

Oh that people would praise Yahweh for his covenant faithfulness

Here the word "Oh" is used to show that the writer has a strong desire for people to praise Yahweh. The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. See how you translated this in [Psalms 107:8]

Psalms 107:16

For he

"because he"

For he has broken the gates of bronze and cut through the bars of iron

Both of these phrases describe Yahweh freeing his people from prison and are used to emphasize that Yahweh truly freed them. Alternate translation: "He freed his people from prison"

Psalms 107:17

They were foolish in their rebellious ways

"They were foolish in the way they rebelled against Yahweh"

and afflicted

"and they suffered." Specifically they were afflicted by becoming sick. Alternate translation: "and they became sick"

Psalms 107:18

they came close to the gates of death

Here the act of "dying" is described as a place, "the gates of death" Alternate translation: "they almost died"

Psalms 107:19

Then they called out to Yahweh in their trouble
 It is implied that they are praying to Yahweh so that he will help them. See how you translated this in [Psalms 107:6]
 Psalms 107:20
 He sent his word and healed them
 Here David describes Yahweh speaking as sending his words as if they were a messenger. Possible meanings are 1) "He commanded for them to be healed and they were healed" or 2) "He encouraged them and healed them"
 Psalms 107:21
 Oh that people would praise Yahweh for his covenant faithfulness
 Here the word "Oh" is used to show that the writer has a strong desire for people to praise Yahweh. The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. See how you translated this in [Psalms 107:8]
 Psalms 107:22
 of thanksgiving
 "that show that they are thankful" with shouts of joy
 "by singing about them"
 Psalms 107:23
 and do business overseas
 They would sail to places and buy and sell things with the people there. Alternate translation: "selling things in cities far away"
 Psalms 107:24
 General Information:
 This page has intentionally been left blank.
 Psalms 107:25
 he commanded and aroused the windstorm that stirs up the seas
 "he commanded the wind and caused it become a great windstorm that stirred up the sea" windstorm
 a strong wind, like the wind that accompanies a strong rain storm
 that stirs up the seas
 Here David describes the winds causing the waves to become high as if the wind was an object fiercely stirring something. Alternate translation: "that caused the waves of the sea to become very high"
 Psalms 107:26
 They reached up to the sky; they went down to the depths
 This describes the ships rising and falling with the waves. The extremes of rising to the sky and falling to the depths are an exaggeration to express how horrible the windstorm was and how large the waves were. Alternate translation: "their ships would rise very high on the waves and then they would fall very low between the waves"
 Their lives melted away in distress
 This idiom describes the sailors' great fear. Alternate translation: "The men were terrified and greatly distressed"
 Psalms 107:27
 were at their wits' end
 The phrase "at their wit's end" means that they did not know what to do. Alternate translation: "and they did not know what to do" or "they had no idea what to do"
 Psalms 107:28
 Then they called out to Yahweh in their trouble
 It is implied that they are praying to Yahweh so that he will help them. See how you translated this in [Psalms 107:6]

 Then they
 The word "they" refers to the sailors.
 he brought them
 "he guided them"
 Psalms 107:29
 He calmed the storm
 "He made the wind stop"
 the waves were stilled
 This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "he made the waves still"
 Psalms 107:30
 their desired harbor
 "to the harbor where they wanted to go"
 Psalms 107:31
 Oh that people would praise Yahweh for his covenant faithfulness
 Here the word "Oh" is used to show that the writer has a strong desire for people to praise Yahweh. The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. See how you translated this in [Psalms 107:8]
 Psalms 107:32
 praise him in the council of the elders
 "when the elders sit together." The elders sat together to discuss issues in the community and to make decisions for the community.
 Psalms 107:33
 He turns
 "Yahweh makes"
 Psalms 107:34
 because of the wickedness of its people
 "because the people that live there are wicked"
 Psalms 107:35
 He turns the wilderness into a pool of water and dry land into springs of water
 Both of these phrases have similar meaning and emphasize how Yahweh makes water appear in the wilderness. Alternate translation: "He make springs and lakes in land that used to be desert"
 Psalms 107:36
 He settles the hungry there
 The word "there" refers to the places where Yahweh made springs and lakes appear. Also, the phrase "the hungry" refers to people who are hungry. Alternate translation: "Yahweh makes people who are hungry live there"
 Psalms 107:37
 that yielded a fruitful harvest
 "that produced a plentiful harvest"
 Psalms 107:38
 so they are very numerous
 "so that their people are very numerous"
 He does not let their livestock decrease in number
 This can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: "He keeps their livestock very numerous"
 Psalms 107:39
 They
 The word "They" refers to the people who were hungry that Yahweh had settled in the land. This sentence describes how they were before Yahweh settled them in the land.
 They were diminished and brought low

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:
 "Their leaders diminished their number and brought them low"
 were diminished
 "became fewer in number"
 brought low
 This means to be humiliated. Alternate translation:
 "humiliated"
 Psalms 107:40
 pours contempt on
 Here David speaks of Yahweh showing contempt for the leaders as if contempt were a liquid he poured out on them.
 Alternate translation: "shows contempt for"
 the leaders
 "the nobles." This refers to the leaders who oppressed the people. Alternate translation: "the leaders who oppressed them" where there are no roads
 "where people never go"
 Psalms 107:41
 But he
 "But Yahweh"
 the needy
 This refers to needy people. Alternate translation: "needy people" or "poor people" cares for his families like a flock

Here David compares how Yahweh cares for his people to how a shepherd cares for his sheep. Possible meanings are 1) "makes the number of people in their families increase like flocks" or 2) "takes care of them like a shepherd cares for his sheep"
 Psalms 107:42
 The upright
 This refers to people who live in an upright way. Alternate translation: "Upright people" or "People who do what is right" all wickedness
 Here wicked people are referred to as "wickedness."
 Alternate translation: "all wicked people" shuts its mouth
 This means to not say anything in response. Alternate translation: "has nothing to say against Yahweh in reply"
 Psalms 107:43
 take note of these things
 This means to think about these things. Alternate translation: "think about these things" or "remember these things" meditate on Yahweh's acts of covenant faithfulness
 The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "meditate on the things that Yahweh has done that show that he is faithful to his covenant"

Chapter 108

A song, a psalm of David.

- ¹ My heart is fixed, God!
 I will sing, yes, I will sing praises with all my glory.
- ² Wake up, lute and harp;
 I will wake up the dawn.
- ³ I will give thanks to you, Yahweh, among the peoples;
 I will sing praises to you among the nations.
- ⁴ For your covenant faithfulness is great above the heavens;
 and your trustworthiness reaches to the skies.
- ⁵ Be exalted, God, above the heavens,
 and may your glory be exalted over all the earth.
- ⁶ So that those you love may be rescued,
 rescue us with your right hand and answer me.
- ⁷ God has spoken in his holiness; "I will rejoice;
 I will divide Shechem
 and apportion out the Valley of Sukkoth.
- ⁸ Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine;
 Ephraim also is my helmet;
 Judah is my scepter.

⁹ Moab is my washbasin;
over Edom I will throw my sandal;
I will shout in triumph because of Philistia.

¹⁰ Who will bring me into the fortified city?
Who will lead me to Edom?"

¹¹ God, have you not rejected us?
You do not go into battle with our army.

¹² Give us help against the enemy,
for man's help is futile.

¹³ We will triumph with God's help;
he will trample down our enemies.

Psalm 108 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 108 is a psalm of war.

Special concepts in this chapter

Victory

God promised success to the psalmist, but Yahweh failed to help him conquer the country of Edom. He needed God to give him victory over Edom.

Links:

Psalms 108:1

Psalms 108:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A song, a psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

My heart is fixed, God

Here David is referring to himself by his heart. Also, the word "fixed" means to trust completely. Alternate translation: "My heart is fixed on you, God" or "I am trusting completely in you, God"

I will sing, yes, I will sing praises with all my glory

Here David is represented by his "glory." David refers to himself as having the honor of praising God. Alternate translation: "You honor me by allowing me to sing praises to you"

Psalms 108:2

Wake up, lute and harp

Here David describes playing his instruments as waking them up from sleep. Alternate translation: "I will praise you by playing the lute and the harp"

I will wake up the dawn

Here David is describing the dawn waking up like a person waking up in the morning. Alternate translation: "I will be praising you when the dawn comes"

dawn

when the sun rises

Psalms 108:3

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 108:4

your covenant faithfulness is great above the heavens; and your trustworthiness reaches to the skies

These two phrases have similar meanings. They speak of the greatness of Yahweh's covenant faithfulness and trustworthiness as if they were objects that were tall enough to reach up to the sky. The abstract nouns "faithfulness" and "trustworthiness" can be translated as adjectives. Alternate translation: "For your covenant faithfulness and trustworthiness are greater than the distance between heaven and earth" or "For you are more faithful to your covenant and more worthy of people trusting you than the sky is higher than the earth"

Psalms 108:5

Be exalted, God, above the heavens

The psalmist is asking God to show that he is exalted. Being exalted above the heavens represents being great.

Alternate translation: "God, show that you are exalted above the heavens" or "God, show that you are great in the heavens"

may your glory be exalted

Here Yahweh is referred to by his "glory." Alternate translation: "may you be exalted"

Psalms 108:6

So that those you love may be rescued

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

Because those you love need rescuing" or "Rescue those you love"

with your right hand

Here Yahweh's "right hand" refers to his power. Alternate translation: "by your power"

answer me

Answering here represents responding to his request.

Alternate translation: "respond to my request" or "answer my prayer"

Psalms 108:7

General Information:

This verse is the same as Psalms 60:6.

God has spoken in his holiness

Here David describes God speaking something because he is holy as speaking "in his holiness," as if his holiness were something that he was physically inside of. Alternate translation: "God, because he is holy, has said"

I will divide Shechem and apportion out the Valley of Sukkoth

Here God is speaking about dividing the land of Shechem and the Valley of Sukkoth.

apportion to divide into portions

Psalms 108:8

General Information:

This verse is the same as Psalms 60:7.

Ephraim also is my helmet

God speaks of the tribe of Ephraim as if it were his army. The helmet symbolizes equipment for war. Alternate translation: "Ephraim is like a helmet I have chosen" or "The tribe of Ephraim is my army"

helmet

a hard hat that soldiers wear to protect their heads from injury

Judah is my scepter

God chose men from the tribe of Judah to be the kings of his people, and he speaks of that tribe as if it were his scepter. Alternate translation: "The tribe of Judah is like my scepter" or "Judah is the tribe through whom I rule my people"

Psalms 108:9

General Information:

This verse is the same as Psalms 60:8.

Moab is my washbasin

God speaks of Moab being unimportant as if Moab were a washbasin or a lowly servant. Alternate translation: "Moab is like a bowl that I use for washing"

over Edom I will throw my sandal

God was probably speaking of taking ownership of Edom as if he were symbolically throwing his sandal onto that land to show that he owns it. However some versions have other interpretations. Alternate translation: "I take ownership of the land of Edom" or "I throw my sandal onto the land of Edom to show that it is mine"

Psalms 108:10

General Information:

This verse is the same as Psalms 60:9.

Psalms 108:11

General Information:

This verse is almost the same as Psalms 60:10.

God, have you not rejected us?

The psalmist uses this question to express his sadness that it seems that God has rejected them. Alternate translation: "It seems like you have rejected us!" or "God, you seem to have abandoned us!"

You do not go into battle with our army

The psalmist speaks of God helping their army as if God were to go and fight with them. Alternate translation: "you do not help our army when we go into battle"

Psalms 108:12

General Information:

This verse is the same as Psalms 60:11.

is futile

"is worthless"

Psalms 108:13

General Information:

This verse is the same as Psalms 60:12.

will triumph

"will defeat our enemies"

he will trample down our enemies

The psalmist speaks of God helping their army defeat their enemies as if God were to trample down the enemies.

Alternate translation: "he will enable us to trample down our enemies" or "he will make us able to defeat our enemies."

Chapter 109

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

¹ God whom I praise,
do not be silent.

² For the wicked and deceitful attack me;
they speak lies against me.

³ They surround me and say hateful things, and they attack me without cause.

⁴ In return for my love they accuse me,
but I pray for them.

- ⁵ They repay me evil for good,
and hatred for my love.
- ⁶ Appoint a wicked man over such an enemy as these people;
appoint an accuser to stand at his right hand.
- ⁷ When he is judged, may he be found guilty;
may his prayer be considered sinful.
- ⁸ May his days be few;
may another take his office.
- ⁹ May his children be fatherless, and may his wife be a widow.
- ¹⁰ May his children wander about and beg, seeking food far from their ruined home.
- ¹¹ May the creditor seize all he owns;
may strangers plunder the product of his labor.
- ¹² May no one extend any kindness to him;
may no one have pity on his fatherless children.
- ¹³ May his descendants be cut off;
may their name be blotted out in the next generation.
- ¹⁴ May his ancestors' iniquity be remembered before Yahweh;
and may the sin of his mother not be forgotten.
- ¹⁵ May their sins always be before Yahweh;
may he cut off their memory from the earth.
- ¹⁶ May Yahweh do this, for that man never bothered to show any covenant faithfulness, but harassed the oppressed, the needy,
and the brokenhearted to death.
- ¹⁷ He loved cursing;
may it come back upon him.
He hated blessing;
may it be far from him.
- ¹⁸ He clothed himself with cursing as his garment, and his curse came into his body like water,
like oil into his bones.
- ¹⁹ May his curses be to him like the clothes he wears to cover himself, like the belt he always wears.
- ²⁰ May this be the reward of my accusers from Yahweh, of those who say evil things about me.

- ²¹ Yahweh my Lord, deal kindly with me for your name's sake.
Because your covenant faithfulness is good, save me.
- ²² For I am oppressed and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.
- ²³ I am fading away like the shadow of the evening;
I am shaken off like a locust.
- ²⁴ My knees are weak from fasting;
my body has become thin and has no fat.
- ²⁵ I have become an object of scorn to my accusers;
when they see me, they shake their heads.
- ²⁶ Help me, Yahweh my God;
save me by your covenant faithfulness.
- ²⁷ Let them know that this is your hand,
that you, Yahweh, have done this.
- ²⁸ They curse, but you bless;
when they attack, may they be put to shame,
but may your servant rejoice.
- ²⁹ May my adversaries be clothed with shame;
may they wear their shame like a robe.
- ³⁰ With my mouth I give great thanks to Yahweh;
I will praise him in the midst of a crowd.
- ³¹ For he will stand at the right hand of the one who is needy, to save him from those who condemn him.

Psalm 109 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 109 is a psalm of vengeance against an enemy who has lied about him. (See: avenge)

Special concepts in this chapter

Enemies destroyed

This enemy lied about the psalmist. So he asked God to completely destroy his enemy and his enemy's family.

Links:

Psalms 109:1

Psalms 109:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician. A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship."

Psalms 109:2

For the wicked and deceitful

The words "wicked" and "deceitful" refer to people. They have similar meanings and emphasize how bad these people are. Alternate translation: "For wicked and deceitful men"

Psalms 109:3

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 109:4

In return for my love

"Although I loved them"

my love

"my love for them"

they accuse me

The word "they" refers to the people who are wicked and deceitful. You may need to make explicit that those who accuse the psalmist do so falsely. Alternate translation:

"they accuse me falsely" or "they slander me"

Psalms 109:5

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 109:6

Appoint a wicked man ... appoint an accuser

These two phrases are parallel and the phrases "a wicked man" and "an accuser" refer to the same person.

at his right hand

"at my enemy's right hand"

Psalms 109:7

When he is judged, may he be found guilty

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"When he is on trial, may the judge find him guilty"

may his prayer be considered sinful

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"consider his prayer sinful"

Psalms 109:8

May his days be few

The phrase "his days" refers to the length of his life.

Alternate translation: "May he not live a long time"

his office

"his position of authority"

Psalms 109:9

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 109:10

their ruined home

"their destroyed homes"

Psalms 109:11

the creditor

someone who lends money to another person but expects that the person will pay the money back

plunder

steal by force

Psalms 109:12

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 109:13

May his descendants be cut off; may their name be blotted out

These two phrases have similar meanings and emphasize his descendants being destroyed.

May his descendants be cut off

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"Cause his descendants to be cut off" or "Cause his descendants to die"

may their name be blotted out in the next generation

Here the idea of there being no one to carry on the family name is spoke of as "their name being blotted out."

Alternate translation: "may there be no one to carry on his name"

Psalms 109:14

May his ancestors' iniquity be remembered before Yahweh

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"May Yahweh remember the iniquity of this man's ancestors" or "May you remember the iniquity of his ancestors, Yahweh"

may the sin of his mother not be forgotten

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"May you not forget the sins that his mother committed"

Psalms 109:15

May their sins always be before Yahweh

Here David speaks about Yahweh thinking about their sins as if their sins were something physically present before him. Alternate translation: "May Yahweh always see their sins" or "May Yahweh always think about their sins"

may he cut off their memory from the earth

David uses the word "earth" to refer to all the people that live on the earth. Also, the phrase "their memory" refers to people remembering the wicked after they have died.

Alternate translation: "may Yahweh make it so that no one on earth remembers those wicked people"

Psalms 109:16

that man never bothered to show any covenant faithfulness

This refers to him showing covenant faithfulness to people.

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. Sometimes this idea is expressed simply as "kindness" or "mercy. Alternate translation: "that man never did anything to show that he was faithful to his covenant with people" or "that man never bothered to be kind to people"

the oppressed, the needy

This refers to oppressed and needy people. Alternate translation: "oppressed people, needy people"

the brokenhearted

Possible meanings are 1) people who are very sad or 2) people who are discouraged and have no hope. Alternate translation: "brokenhearted people" or "people who have lost hope"

to death

"until they died." This means that he harassed them until they died.

Psalms 109:17

may it come back upon him

"may his curses come upon him"

Psalms 109:18

He clothed himself with cursing as his garment

David speaks of the wicked person's behavior as if it were his clothing. This probably means he cursed people very often. Alternate translation: "Curses were like his clothing" or "He cursed people all the time"

his curse came into his body like water, like oil into his bones

Possible meanings are: 1) He spoke curses so often that they became a part of his identity. "the curses that he speaks are part of who he is" or 2) David prays that the wicked man will experience his own curses. Alternate translation: "may his curse come into his body like water, like oil into his bones"

like oil into his bones

People believed that oil rubbed on the skin went into the bones.

Psalms 109:19

May his curses be to him like the clothes he wears to cover himself

People wore their clothes everyday. David speaks of a wicked person always being cursed as if his curses always covered him as his clothing does. Alternate translation: "Let his curses be on him every day like the garment he wears" like the belt he always wears

The words "may his curses be to him" are understood from the previous phrase. They may be repeated here. Alternate translation: "may his curses be to him like the belt he always wears" or "and let his curses always be on him like the belt he always wears"

Psalms 109:20

May this be the reward

"May these curses be the reward"

Psalms 109:21

deal kindly with me

This is a request for Yahweh to treat him kindly. Alternate translation: "treat me kindly"

your name's sake

"the sake of your reputation"

Because your covenant faithfulness is good

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "Because you are good and are faithful to your covenant"

Psalms 109:22

oppressed and needy

These two words have similar meanings and emphasize that he is unable to help himself.

my heart is wounded within me

Here David speaks of being in great despair as his heart being wounded. Alternate translation: "I am full of grief and despair"

Psalms 109:23

I am fading away like the shadow ... like a locust

David feels like he is going to die soon and describes this feeling by comparing himself to a fading shadow and to how the wind blows away locust. Alternate translation: "I feel like I am about to die, like an evening shadow that will soon disappear, like a locust is easily blown away by the wind"

Psalms 109:24

My knees are weak

This means that he is weak and it is difficult for him to stand. Alternate translation: "My legs are weak" or "I have difficulty standing"

from fasting

"because I am not eating any food"

Psalms 109:25

I have become an object of scorn to my accusers

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "My accusers ridicule me" shake their heads

This is an act of disapproval.

Psalms 109:26

save me by your covenant faithfulness

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "save me because you are faithful to your covenant"

Psalms 109:27

Let them know

The word "them" refers to David's accusers and the people who say bad things about him.

this is your hand

The word "this" refers to God saving him. The phrase "your hand" is a metonym for what God has done. Alternate translation: "this is your work" or "this salvation is your doing" have done this

"have saved me"

Psalms 109:28

They curse, but you bless

The word "they" refers to the people who accuse David and say bad things about him. Alternate translation: "They curse me, but you bless me"

may they be put to shame

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "put the to shame" or "may they be ashamed"

but may your servant rejoice

"but may I, your servant, rejoice" or "I am your servant, let me rejoice." David uses the phrase "your servant" to refer to himself.

Psalms 109:29

May my adversaries be clothed ... may they wear

These two phrase have them same meaning and are used together for emphasize how greatly he wishes for them to be ashamed.

be clothed with shame

Here David speaks of them being ashamed as if were clothing they wore. Alternate translation: "be very ashamed"

may they wear their shame like a robe

David speaks of them being ashamed as if it were a robe that they wore. Alternate translation: "may their shame cover them just like their robe is wrapped around them"

Psalms 109:30

With my mouth I give

This means that he will speak. Alternate translation: "I will speak and give"

Psalms 109:31

will stand at the right hand of the one who is needy

This means that he will help and defend the poor person. Alternate translation: "will defend the one who is needy"

Chapter 110

A psalm of David.

¹ The declaration of Yahweh to my lord:
"Sit at my right hand

until I make your enemies your footstool."

- ² Yahweh will hold out the scepter of your strength from Zion;
rule among your enemies.
- ³ Your people will follow you in holy garments of their own free will on the day of your power;
from the womb of the dawn your youth will be to you like the dew.
- ⁴ Yahweh has sworn and will not change his mind:
"You are a priest forever,
after the manner of Melchizedek."
- ⁵ The Lord is at your right hand.
He will kill kings on the day of his anger.
- ⁶ He will judge the nations;
he will fill the battlegrounds with dead bodies;
he will kill the leaders in many countries.
- ⁷ He will drink of the brook along the road,
and then he will lift his head up high after victory.

Psalm 110 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 110 is a psalm honoring the king as he becomes king and also a prophecy about Christ. (See: prophet and christ)

Special concepts in this chapter

King

The king will be able to conquer his enemies. Christ is seen as both high priest and king. (See: highpriest)

Links:

Psalms 110:1

Psalms 110:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

Sit at my right hand

The phrase "my right hand" refers to the place of honor. Alternate translation: "Sit at the place of honor which I have for you" make your enemies your footstool

Here David describes Yahweh placing his master's enemies under his power and control as putting them under his feet like a footstool. Alternate translation: "put your enemies under your power"

Psalms 110:2

General Information:

David continues speaking to the king.

Yahweh will hold out the scepter of your strength

Here David speaks of Yahweh extending the area that the king rules as holding out his scepter. Alternate translation: "Yahweh will extend the area over which you powerfully rule"

rule among your enemies

"King, rule among your enemies." This is spoken to the king as a command.

Psalms 110:3

of their own free will

"by their own choice." This means that they will chose to follow the king.

on the day of your power

This refers to the day that the king will lead his armies into battle. This can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "on the day that you lead your armies into battle" from the womb of the dawn ... like the dew

David describes the dew as a baby to whom the dawn gives birth. Alternate translation: "in the morning ... like the dew" from the womb of the dawn your youth will be to you like the dew

David is telling the king that he will have youthful strength each morning by comparing it to how the dew appears early each morning. Alternate translation: "each morning you will be filled with youthful strength to sustain you just like each morning the dew appears to water and sustain the earth"

Psalms 110:4

You are

Yahweh is speaking to the lord, the one David calls "my master" in Psalms 110:1.

will not change

This means that he will not change what he has said.

Alternate translation: "will not change his mind" or "will not change what he has said"

after the manner of Melchizedek

The idea of being priest is understood from the previous phrase. It can be stated clearly here. Alternate translation: "after the manner that Melchizedek was priest" or "in the same way that Melchizedek was priest"

Psalms 110:5

The Lord is at your right hand

When the lord goes to battle, Yahweh stands at his right hand in order to help him. Alternate translation: "The Lord helps you in battle"

The Lord

The word "Lord" refers to Yahweh.

He will kill

The word "He" refers to Yahweh. He will cause the kings to be defeated and die, but he will allow the king's armies to kill the enemy kings. Alternate translation: "He will cause the kings to die" or "He will allow your armies to kill the kings"

kings

This refers to his enemies. Alternate translation: "enemy kings"

on the day of his anger

Here David speaks of the day when Yahweh will become angry and defeat the kings as "the day of his anger."

Alternate translation: "on the day of judgment when his patience turns to anger"

Psalms 110:6

he will fill the battlegrounds with dead bodies

This means that Yahweh will cause this to happen, not that he will personally kill all of the people who die on the battleground. Alternate translation: "he will cause the battlegrounds to be filled with death bodies"

he will kill the leaders in many countries

This means that Yahweh will cause this to happen, not that he will personally kill the leaders. Alternate translation: "he will cause the leaders in many countries to be killed" or "he will allow the leaders in many countries to die"

Psalms 110:7

He will drink of the brook along the road

The king only stops briefly for a drink and then he continues the pursuit of his enemies. Alternate translation: "As he pursues his enemies, he will only stop to drink quickly from a brook"

of the brook

This means the he will drink water from the brook. A brook is a small stream. Alternate translation: "he will drink water from the brook" and then

"and so" or "therefore"

he will lift his head

Possible meanings are 1) the king lifts up his own head or 2) Yahweh lifts up the head of the king.

he will lift his head up high after victory

People raised their heads when they are victorious, confident, and joyful. Alternate translation: "he will confidently lift his head after victory" or "he will be victorious"

Chapter 111

¹ Give praise to Yah. ¹

I will give thanks to Yahweh with my whole heart
in the assembly of the upright, in their gathering.

² The works of Yahweh are great,
eagerly awaited by all those who desire them.

³ His work is majestic and glorious,
and his righteousness endures forever.

⁴ He does wonderful things that will be remembered;
Yahweh is gracious and merciful.

⁵ He gives food to his faithful followers.
He will always call to mind his covenant.

⁶ He showed his powerful works to his people in giving them the inheritance of the nations.

⁷ The works of his hands are trustworthy and just;

all his instructions are reliable.

⁸ They are established forever,
to be observed faithfully and properly.

⁹ He sent redemption to his people;
he ordained his covenant forever;
holy and awesome is his name.

¹⁰ To honor Yahweh is the beginning of wisdom;
those who carry out his instructions have good understanding.
His praise endures forever.

¹Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

Psalm 111 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 111 is a psalm of praise to God for his miracles and care. (See: miracle)

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's character

God is great. He has given his people food and a land always keeps his promises to his people. (See: promise and peopleofgod)

Links:

Psalms 111:1

Psalms 111:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

with my whole heart

Here the word "heart" represents the person's entire inner being and emotions. Alternate translation: "with all that I am"

in the assembly of the upright, in their gathering

These two phrases mean that same thing and may be combined if necessary. Alternate translation: "in the gathering of upright people"

Psalms 111:2

eagerly awaited by all those who desire them

The word "them" refers to the "works of Yahweh." This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "all those who desire the works of Yahweh eagerly await them" eagerly awaited

Possible meanings are 1) "sought after" or 2) "studied."

Psalms 111:3

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 111:4

that will be remembered

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "that people will always remember"

Psalms 111:5

call to mind

This is an idiom that means to remember. Alternate translation: "remember"

Psalms 111:6

his powerful works

"his works that demonstrated his power"

the inheritance of the nations

The writer speaks of the land that belonged to the nations in Canaan as if it were their inheritance. Alternate translation: "the land that belonged to other nations"

Psalms 111:7

The works of his hands

Here the word "hands" refers to Yahweh, himself. Alternate translation: "The works that he does"

Psalms 111:8

They are established forever

This means that Yahweh's instructions are unchangeable and will last forever. This can be stated in active form.

Alternate translation: "He has established them forever" or "They will last forever"

to be observed faithfully and properly

Possible meanings are 1) Yahweh has given his instructions in a faithful and proper manner or 2) his people are to observe Yahweh's instructions in a faithful and proper manner. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "for his people to observe them faithfully and properly"

Psalms 111:9

holy and awesome is his name

Here the word "name" refers to Yahweh, himself. Alternate translation: "Yahweh is holy and awesome"

Psalms 111:10

the beginning of wisdom

The word "wisdom" can be translated as "wise." Alternate translation: "the first step to becoming wise" or "the most important thing to become wise"

those who carry out his instructions
"those who obey his instructions"
His praise endures forever

The word "praise" can be translated as a verb. Alternate translation: "People will praise him forever"

Chapter 112

- ¹ Give praise to Yah. ¹
Blessed is the man who fears Yahweh, who greatly delights in his commandments.
- ² His descendants will be powerful on earth;
the descendants of the godly man will be blessed.
- ³ Wealth and riches are in his house;
his righteousness will endure forever.
- ⁴ Light shines in the darkness for the godly person;
he is gracious, merciful, and just.
- ⁵ It goes well for the man who deals graciously and lends money, who conducts his affairs with honesty.
- ⁶ For he will never be moved;
the righteous person will be remembered forever.
- ⁷ He does not fear bad news;
he is confident, trusting in Yahweh.
- ⁸ His heart is tranquil, without fear,
until he looks in triumph over his adversaries.
- ⁹ He gives freely to the poor;
his righteousness endures forever;
his horn will be exalted with honor.
- ¹⁰ The wicked person will see this and be angry;
he will grind his teeth in rage and he will melt away;
the desire of the wicked people will perish.

¹Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

Psalm 112 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 112 is a wisdom psalm teaching the value of a righteous life. (See: wise and righteous)

Special concepts in this chapter

Righteous people

The righteous people will be well-known for their generosity and they will not have to worry about bad news because God is taking care of them.

Links:

Psalms 112:1

Psalms 112:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

greatly delights

"takes great pleasure"

Psalms 112:2

the descendants of the godly man will be blessed

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"Yahweh will bless the descendants of the godly man"

Psalms 112:3

General Information:

The person who sings this song continues to describe a person who reveres Yahweh.

Wealth and riches are in his house

Here the word "house" represents the family. The words "Wealth" and "riches" mean basically the same thing and indicate an abundance of wealth. Alternate translation: "His family is very wealthy"

Psalms 112:4

Light shines in the darkness for the godly person

The writer speaks of God blessing the godly person in difficult times as if it were a light shining in darkness.

Alternate translation: "The blessings that a godly person receives from God are like a light that shines in the darkness"

Psalms 112:5

lends money

The understood information can be made clear. Alternate translation: "lends his money to other people"

Psalms 112:6

General Information:

The person who sings this song continues to describe a person who reveres Yahweh.

For he will never be moved

he will not be troubled or overwhelmed by circumstances for his trust is in Yahweh? This can be stated in active form.

Alternate translation: "For nothing will ever move him" the righteous person will be remembered forever

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "people will remember the righteous person forever"

Psalms 112:7

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 112:8

General Information:

The person who sings this song continues to describe a person who reveres Yahweh.

His heart is tranquil

"His heart is supported." Here the word "heart" refers to the person. Possible meanings are 1) "He is at peace" or 2) "He is confident"

Psalms 112:9

his righteousness endures forever

"his righteous deeds will endure forever." See how you translated this in Psalms 112:3.

his horn will be exalted with honor

The word "horn" here speaks of the person winning a military victory as if he were a wild ox raising his head.

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"Yahweh will give him honor by enabling him to win battles" or "Yahweh will give him honor by defeating his enemies"

Psalms 112:10

will see this

"will see that things go well for the godly person." The word "this" refers to everything good that the writer has described in the previous verses about the godly person.

he will grind his teeth in rage

The grinding of teeth is an expression of extreme anger. See how you translated a similar phrase in [Psalms 35:16]

melt away

The writer speaks of the wicked person's eventual death as if that person were something, such as ice, that can melt.

Alternate translation: "eventually die"

the desire of the wicked people will perish

Possible meanings of "desire" are 1) the emotional desire that wicked people have. Alternate translation: "the things that wicked people want to do will never happen" or 2) it is a metonym for the things that wicked people have desired.

Alternate translation: "wicked people will lose the things that they desired"

Chapter 113

¹ Give praise to Yah. ¹

Praise him, you servants of Yahweh;
praise the name of Yahweh.

² Blessed be the name of Yahweh, both now and forevermore.

³ From the rising of the sun to its setting,
Yahweh's name should be praised.

⁴ Yahweh is exalted above all nations, and his glory reaches above the skies.

⁵ Who is like Yahweh our God,
who has his seat on high,

- ⁶ who humbles himself to look down at the sky and at the earth?
- ⁷ He raises up the poor out of the dirt and lifts up the needy from the ash heap,
- ⁸ so that he may seat him with princes, with the princes of his people.
- ⁹ He gives a home to the barren woman of the house;
he makes her a joyful mother of children.
Give praise to Yah! ²

¹Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

²Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

Psalm 113 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 113 is a psalm of praise to God for his goodness. (See: good)

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's help

God helps the poor and gives children to the wife who cannot conceive children.

Links:

Psalms 113:1

Psalms 113:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

the name of Yahweh

Here the word "name" represents Yahweh, himself.

Alternate translation: "Yahweh"

Psalms 113:2

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 113:3

From the rising of the sun to its setting

This phrase refers to the directions east, where the sun rises, and west, where the sun sets. The writer uses these two extremes to represent everywhere on earth. See how you translated this in [Psalms 50:1]

Yahweh's name should be praised

Here the word "name" represents Yahweh, himself. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "people should praise Yahweh"

Psalms 113:4

his glory reaches above the skies

The glory of God is spoken of as if it was very high.

Alternate translation: "his glory is higher than the skies" or "his glory is enormously great"

Psalms 113:5

Who is like Yahweh our God, who has his seat on high

This is the first part of a rhetorical question that the writer asks to emphasize that there is no one like Yahweh. It may be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "There is no one like Yahweh our God, who has his seat on high"

who has his seat on high

"who is enthroned on high" or "who rules in the highest position"

Psalms 113:6

who humbles himself to look down at the sky and at the earth

This is the second part of a rhetorical question that the writer asks to emphasize that there is no one like Yahweh.

It may be translated as a statement that begins a new sentence. Alternate translation: "There is no one like Yahweh our God, who humbles himself to look down at the sky and at the earth."

humbles himself to look down

Possible meanings are 1) the writer is speaking literally of Yahweh's thoughts and emotions. Alternate translation: "is not too proud to look down" Or 2) this is a hyperbolic metaphor that speaks as if Yahweh needs to work to look at the sky and earth from heaven. Alternate translation: "needs to bow so he can look"

Psalms 113:7

He raises up the poor ... from the ash heap

These two phrases are parallel. The writer speaks of Yahweh helping and honoring people who are poor as if Yahweh caused them to stand up from sitting in dirt and ashes.

out of the dirt ... from the ash heap

Sitting in dirt and ashes represents either poverty or despair.

Psalms 113:8

so that he may seat him with princes, with the princes of his people

Here the second phrase clarifies that the first phrase refers to the princes of Yahweh's people. These two statements can be combined. Alternate translation: "so that Yahweh may seat him next to rulers of his people"

Psalms 113:9
He gives a home to the barren woman of the house

Here "home" refers to the children that live in a home.
Alternate translation: "He gives children to the woman who had none"

Chapter 114

- ¹ When Israel left Egypt,
the house of Jacob from a people who spoke a foreign language,
- ² Judah became his holy place,
Israel his kingdom.
- ³ The sea looked and fled;
the Jordan turned back.
- ⁴ The mountains skipped like rams,
the hills skipped like lambs.
- ⁵ Why did you flee, sea?
Jordan, why did you turn back?
- ⁶ Mountains, why did you skip like rams?
You little hills, why did you skip like lambs?
- ⁷ Tremble, earth, before the Lord,
at the presence of the God of Jacob.
- ⁸ He turned the rock into a pool of water,
the hard rock into a spring of water.
-

Psalm 114 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 114 is a psalm of praise to God for his miracles in bringing the people of Israel to the promised land. (See: miracle and promisedland)

Special concepts in this chapter

Praise

The psalmist praised God for opening up the Red Sea for the people to cross, for providing the earthquake that stopped the Jordan River so the people could cross and providing water from a rock for the people to drink.

Links:

Psalms 114:1

Psalms 114:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

When Israel left Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people who spoke a foreign language

These two lines are parallel, with "Israel" and "the house of Jacob" meaning the same thing and "Egypt" and "that foreign people" referring to the same people.

the house of Jacob from a people who spoke a foreign language

The word "house" here represents the family or descendants. The verb may be supplied to this phrase.

Alternate translation: "the descendants of Jacob left people who spoke a language that the descendants of Jacob did not understand"

Psalms 114:2

Judah became his holy place, Israel his kingdom

Possible meanings for "Judah" and "Israel" are 1) they refer to the land. Alternate translation: "The land of Judah became Yahweh's holy place, the land of Israel became his kingdom" or 2) they are metonyms for the people of Judah and Israel. Alternate translation: "The people of Judah became those among whom Yahweh lived, the people of Israel became those over whom he ruled"

Psalms 114:3

The sea looked and fled

The writer speaks of the Sea of Reeds as if it were a person who fled away as Yahweh led the people of Israel through on dry ground. Alternate translation: "It was as though the sea looked and fled"

the Jordan turned back

The writer speaks of the Jordan River as if it were a person who retreated as Yahweh led the people of Israel through on dry ground. Alternate translation: "it was as though the Jordan retreated"

Psalms 114:4

The mountains skipped like rams, the hills skipped like lambs

The writer speaks of the mountains and hills as if they are alive. He is probably speaking of an earthquake when he describes their fear at the presence of Yahweh as if they were jumping like rams and lambs. Alternate translation: "It was as if the mountains shook like jumping rams and the hills shook like jumping lambs"

Psalms 114:5

General Information:

Verses 5-6 contain four rhetorical questions. The expected answer to each question is found in verse 7, "because of the presence of the Lord."

Psalms 114:6

skip like rams ... skip like lambs

The writer speaks of the mountains and hills as if they are alive. He is probably speaking of an earthquake when he describes their fear at the presence of Yahweh as if they were jumping like rams and lambs. See how you translated similar phrases in [Psalms 114:4]

Psalms 114:7

Tremble, earth, before the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob

The last two phrases are parallel. The verb may be supplied in the second line. Alternate translation: "Tremble, earth, before the Lord, tremble at the presence of the God of Jacob"

Tremble, earth

Possible meanings are 1) the writer is speaking to the earth as if it were a person and commands it to tremble with fear before God or 2) the word "earth" is a metonym for those who live on the earth. Alternate translation: "Tremble, everyone one earth"

Psalms 114:8

He turned the rock into a pool of water, the hard rock into a spring of water

These two phrases are parallel. The writer describes Yahweh causing water to flow from the rock as if he turned the rock into water.

the hard rock into a spring of water

The verb may be supplied from the previous phrase.

Alternate translation: "He turned the hard rock into a spring of water"

Chapter 115

¹ Not to us, Yahweh, not to us,
but to your name bring honor,
for your covenant faithfulness and for your trustworthiness.

² Why should the nations say,
"Where is their God?"

³ Our God is in heaven;
he does whatever he pleases.

⁴ The nations' idols are silver and gold,
the work of men's hands.

⁵ Those idols have mouths, but they do not speak;
they have eyes, but they do not see;

⁶ they have ears, but they do not hear;
they have noses, but they do not smell.

⁷ Those idols have hands, but do not feel;
they have feet, but they cannot walk;

nor do they speak from their mouths.

⁸ Those who make them are like them,
as is everyone who trusts in them.

⁹ Israel, trust in Yahweh;
he is your help and shield.

¹⁰ House of Aaron, trust in Yahweh;
he is your help and shield.

¹¹ You who honor Yahweh, trust in him;
he is your help and shield.

¹² Yahweh takes notice of us and will bless us;
he will bless the family of Israel;
he will bless the family of Aaron.

¹³ He will bless those who honor him,
both young and old.

¹⁴ May Yahweh increase your numbers more and more,
yours and your descendants'.

¹⁵ May you be blessed by Yahweh,
who made heaven and earth.

¹⁶ The heavens belong to Yahweh;
but the earth he has given to mankind.

¹⁷ The dead do not give praise to Yah, ¹
nor do any who go down into silence;

¹⁸ But we will give praise to Yah,
now and forevermore.
Give praise to Yah! ²

¹Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

²Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

Psalm 115 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 115 is a psalm of praise.

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's power

God is in heaven and is able to do whatever he wants. Idols can not do anything. Therefore, people and priests should trust God for their protection. (See: heaven and priest and trust)

Links:

Psalms 115:1

Psalms 115:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

Not to us, Yahweh, not to us

The writer repeats the phrase "Not to us" in order to emphasize that they are not worthy to receive the honor that is due only to Yahweh. If necessary, a verbal phrase may be supplied here. Alternate translation: "Do not bring honor to us, Yahweh"

to us

The word "us" refers to the people of Israel.

but to your name bring honor

Here the word "name" represents Yahweh, himself.

Alternate translation: "but bring honor to yourself"

for your covenant faithfulness and for your trustworthiness

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated as an adjective. The abstract noun "trustworthiness" can be translated with a verbal phrase. Alternate translation: "because you are faithful to your covenant and you are worthy of people trusting you"

Psalms 115:2

Why should the nations say, "Where is their God?"

This rhetorical question emphasizes that there should be no reason for the nations to say what they say. This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "The people of the nations should not be able to say, 'Where is their God?'"

Where is their God?

The people of other nations use this question to mock the people of Israel and to express that they do not see Yahweh helping them. This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "Your God is not here to help you."

Psalms 115:3

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 115:4

the work of men's hands

Here the word "hands" represents the people who made the idols. Alternate translation: "things which men have made"

Psalms 115:5

Those idols have mouths

The idols do not have real mouths, eyes, ears, or noses.

Rather, people made them with the likeness of mouths, eyes, ears, and noses. The writer is emphasizing that these idols are not really alive. You can make clear the implied information. Alternate translation: "People have given mouths to those idols"

Psalms 115:6

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 115:7

Those idols have hands

The idols do not have real hands, feet, or mouths. Rather, people made them with the likeness of hands, feet, and mouths. The writer is emphasizing that these idols are not really alive. You can make this implicit information clear.

Alternate translation: "People have given hands to those idols"

but do not feel

"but those hands do not feel"

Psalms 115:8

Those who make them are like them, as is everyone who trusts in them

Those who make and worship idols become lifeless and powerless, just like those idols. The full meaning of this statement can be made clear. Alternate translation: "Those who make them become lifeless like they are, as does everyone who trusts in them"

Psalms 115:9

Israel, trust in Yahweh

The word "Israel" represents the people of Israel. Alternate translation: "People of Israel, trust in Yahweh"

your help and shield

The writer speaks of Yahweh as if he were a shield because he protects his people as a shield would protect them from harm. Alternate translation: "the one who helps you and protects you"

Psalms 115:10

House of Aaron

Here the word "House" represents the family or descendants. This phrase refers to the priests, who were descendants of Aaron. Alternate translation: "Descendants of Aaron" or "Priests"

Psalms 115:11

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 115:12

takes notice of us

"has paid attention to us"

the family of Israel

This refers to the people of Israel, who are descendants of Jacob, who also called Israel. Alternate translation: "the people of Israel"

the family of Aaron

This refers to the priests, who are descendants of Aaron. Alternate translation: "the descendants of Aaron" or "the priests"

Psalms 115:13

both young and old

"both small and great." Possible meanings are that this refers 1) to social status or 2) to age. In either case, the two extremes represent every person, regardless of age or social status.

Psalms 115:14

May Yahweh increase your numbers more and more

The writer is speaking of the number of children that the people of Israel would have. Alternate translation: "May Yahweh increase the number of your children more and more"

yours and your descendants'

"both your children and your descendants' children." The writer clarifies that his request for more children applies not only to the present generation, but to their descendants, as well.

Psalms 115:15

May you be blessed by Yahweh, who made heaven and earth

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"May Yahweh, who made heaven and earth, bless you"

Psalms 115:16

the earth he has given to mankind

This does not mean that the earth does not belong to Yahweh, but that has given the earth to mankind as a dwelling place.

Psalms 115:17

The dead

The adjective "dead" may be translated with a noun phrase.

Alternate translation: "People who are dead"

nor do any who go down into silence

This parallel phrase has a similar meaning to phrase before it. The verb may be supplied from that previous phrase to make the meaning clear. Alternate translation: "nor do any who go down into silence praise Yahweh"

nor do any who go down into silence

The writer speaks of the grave or the place of the dead as a place of silence where no one can speak. This is a euphemism for death. Alternate translation: "nor do any who go to the place of the dead"

Psalms 115:18

But we

The word "we" refers to the people of Israel who are still alive.

Chapter 116

¹ I love Yahweh because he hears my voice and my pleas for mercy.

² Because he listened to me,
I will call on him as long as I live.

³ The cords of death surrounded me,
and the snares of Sheol confronted me;
I felt anguish and sorrow.

⁴ Then I called on the name of Yahweh:
"I beg you, Yahweh, rescue my life."

⁵ Yahweh is gracious and just;
our God is compassionate.

⁶ Yahweh protects the naive;
I was brought low, and he saved me.

⁷ My soul can return to its resting place, for Yahweh has been good to me.

⁸ For you rescued my life from death,
my eyes from tears,
and my feet from stumbling.

⁹ I will serve Yahweh
in the land of the living.

¹⁰ I believed in him, even when I said,
"I am greatly afflicted."

¹¹ In my alarm I said,
"All men are liars."

- ¹² How can I repay Yahweh for all his kindnesses to me?
- ¹³ I will raise the cup of salvation, and call on the name of Yahweh.
- ¹⁴ I will fulfill my vows to Yahweh
in the presence of all his people.
- ¹⁵ Precious in the sight of Yahweh is the death of his faithful ones.
- ¹⁶ Yahweh, indeed, I am your servant;
I am your servant, the son of your servant woman;
you have taken away my bonds.
- ¹⁷ I will offer to you the sacrifice of thanksgiving and will call on the name of Yahweh.
- ¹⁸ I will fulfill my vows to Yahweh
in the presence of all his people,
- ¹⁹ in the courts of the house of Yahweh,
in your midst, Jerusalem.
Give praise to Yah! ¹

¹Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

Psalm 116 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 116 is a psalm of praise for saving the psalmist's life. (See: save)

Special concepts in this chapter

Healing

The author was very sick and expected to die but God healed him. So he will pay his vow and sacrifice an offering of thanks. (See: vow)

Links:

Psalms 116:1

Psalms 116:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

he hears my voice and my pleas for mercy

Here the word "voice" represents the person who is speaking. The abstract nouns "pleas" and "mercy" can be stated as "plead" and "merciful." Alternate translation: "he hears me when I plead for him to be merciful to me"

Psalms 116:2

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 116:3

General Information:

The person who composed this psalm continues to speak.

The cords of death surrounded me

The writer speaks of death as if it were a person who could capture him and bind him with ropes. See how you translated this in [Psalms 18:4]

the snares of Sheol confronted me

The writer speaks of "Sheol," the place of the dead, as if it were a person who could trap him with snares. Alternate translation: "I felt as if I were ready to enter the grave"

Psalms 116:4

called on the name of Yahweh

Here the word "name" represents Yahweh himself.

Alternate translation: "called out to Yahweh"

rescue my life

Here the word "life" represents the person. Alternate translation: "rescue me" or "keep me from dying"

Psalms 116:5

General Information:

The person who made this song continues to speak.

Psalms 116:6

the naive

This refers to people who are inexperienced or who cannot care for themselves. The adjective can be translated as a noun phrase. Alternate translation: "those who are naive" or "those who are helpless"

I was brought low

The writer speaks of being humbled as in being in a lower position. Alternate translation: "I was helpless"

Psalms 116:7

General Information:

The person who composed this psalm continues to speak.

My soul can return to its resting place

The writer speaks of having peace and confidence as if it were a place where his soul can rest. The word "soul" represents the person. Alternate translation: "I can rest in peace again"

Psalms 116:8

you rescued my life from death

Here the word "you" refers to Yahweh. The word "life" represents the person. Alternate translation: "you have saved me from death" or "you have kept me from dying"

my eyes from tears

"you have kept me from crying"

my feet from stumbling

The feet here represent the person. Stumbling here probably represents being killed by his enemies. Alternate translation: "you have rescued me from stumbling" or "you have kept me from being killed by my enemies"

Psalms 116:9

General Information:

The person who composed this psalm continues to speak.

in the land of the living

"in this world where people are alive." This is in contrast to the place of the dead.

Psalms 116:10

I am greatly afflicted

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "I suffer greatly" or "People afflict me very much"

Psalms 116:11

In my alarm I said

"I said too quickly" or "I said without considering"

All men are liars

"Every person is a liar" or "All people are liars"

Psalms 116:12

General Information:

The person who made this song continues to speak.

How can I repay Yahweh ... to me?

The writer asks this leading question to introduce how he will respond to what Yahweh has done for him. This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "This is how I will repay Yahweh ... to me."

Psalms 116:13

I will raise the cup of salvation

This is probably a reference to a drink offering, which was a sacrifice that involved pouring wine on the altar, and which the writer will offer in response to Yahweh saving him. The full meaning of this statement can be made explicit. Alternate translation: "I will present a drink offering to Yahweh because he saved me"

call on the name of Yahweh

Here the word "name" represents Yahweh himself.

Alternate translation: "call on Yahweh"

Psalms 116:14

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 116:15

Precious in the sight of Yahweh is the death of his faithful ones

The word "Precious" here does not imply that Yahweh values the death of his saints, but that the death of his saints is costly to him and grieves him. Here sight represents judgment or evaluation. Alternate translation: "Yahweh considers the death of his saints to be a costly thing"

Psalms 116:16

General Information:

The person who composed this psalm continues to speak.

the son of your servant woman

This is likely a reference to the writer's mother and indicates that she faithfully worshiped Yahweh. The full meaning of this can be made clear. Alternate translation: "as my mother was"

you have taken away my bonds

The writer speaks of being in danger of dying as if he had been chained in prison. Alternate translation: "you have saved me from death"

Psalms 116:17

the sacrifice of thanksgiving

"a sacrifice to express my thankfulness"

will call on the name of Yahweh

Here the word "name" represents Yahweh himself.

Alternate translation: "will call on Yahweh"

Psalms 116:18

General Information:

The person who made this song continues to speak.

I will fulfill ... all his people

See how you translated Psalms 116:14.

Psalms 116:19

in the courts of the house of Yahweh

The word "house" refers to Yahweh's temple. Alternate translation: "in the courtyards of Yahweh's temple"

in your midst, Jerusalem

The writer speaks to Jerusalem as though it were a person. Alternate translation: "in Jerusalem"

Chapter 117

¹ Praise Yahweh, all you nations;
exalt him, all you peoples.

- ² For his covenant faithfulness is great toward us,
and the trustworthiness of Yahweh endures forever.
Give praise to Yah! ¹

¹Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

Psalm 117 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 117 is a psalm of praise.

Special concepts in this chapter

Praise

Everyone should praise God for his love and unending faithfulness. (See: love and faithful)

Links:

Psalms 117:1

Psalms 117:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

Psalms 117:2

For his

"Because his"

his covenant faithfulness is great toward us

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "he does great things for us because he is faithful to his covenant"

the trustworthiness of Yahweh endures forever

The abstract noun "trustworthiness" can be translated with an adjective or a verbal phrase. Alternate translation: "Yahweh remains trustworthy forever" or "Yahweh will forever be worthy of people trusting him"

Chapter 118

- ¹ Give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good,
his covenant faithfulness endures forever.
- ² Let Israel say,
"His covenant faithfulness endures forever."
- ³ Let the house of Aaron say,
"His covenant faithfulness endures forever."
- ⁴ Let the loyal followers of Yahweh say,
"His covenant faithfulness endures forever."
- ⁵ In my distress I called out to Yah;
Yah answered me and set me in a spacious place. ¹
- ⁶ Yahweh is with me; I will not be afraid;
what can man do to me?
- ⁷ Yahweh is on my side as my helper;
I will look in triumph on those who hate me.
- ⁸ It is better to take shelter in Yahweh than to put confidence in man.

- ⁹ It is better to take refuge in Yahweh than to put one's trust in princes.
- ¹⁰ All the nations surrounded me;
in Yahweh's name I cut them off.
- ¹¹ They surrounded me; yes, they surrounded me;
in Yahweh's name I cut them off.
- ¹² They surrounded me like bees;
they disappeared as quickly as fire among thorns;
in Yahweh's name I cut them off.
- ¹³ "You attacked me to knock me down,
but Yahweh helped me.
- ¹⁴ Yah is my strength and joy, and he is the one who rescues me." ²
- ¹⁵ The joyful shout of victory is heard in the tents of the righteous;
the right hand of Yahweh conquers.
- ¹⁶ The right hand of Yahweh is exalted;
the right hand of Yahweh conquers.
- ¹⁷ I will not die, but live and declare what Yah has done. ³
- ¹⁸ Yah has punished me harshly, but he has not handed me over to death. ⁴
- ¹⁹ Open to me the gates of righteousness;
I will enter them and I will give thanks to Yah. ⁵
- ²⁰ This is the gate of Yahweh;
the righteous enter through it.
- ²¹ I will give thanks to you, for you answered me,
and you have become my salvation.
- ²² The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.
- ²³ This is Yahweh's doing;
it is marvelous in our eyes.
- ²⁴ This is the day on which Yahweh has acted;
we will rejoice and be glad in it.

- ²⁵ We beg you, Yahweh, please give us victory!
We beg you, Yahweh, please give us success!
- ²⁶ Blessed is he who comes in the name of Yahweh;
we bless you from the house of Yahweh.
- ²⁷ Yahweh is God, and he has given us light;
bind the sacrifice with cords to the horns of the altar.
- ²⁸ You are my God, and I will give thanks to you;
you are my God; I will exalt you.
- ²⁹ Oh, give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good,
for his covenant faithfulness endures forever.

¹Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.
²Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.
³Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.
⁴Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.
⁵Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

Psalm 118 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 118 is a psalm of war and is about Christ. (See: christ)

Special concepts in this chapter

Rejected stone

The author praised Yahweh for his rescuing him. God enabled him to overpower his enemies. The new Testament, and even Jesus himself, saw the rejected stone as a reference to the Messiah's rejection by the Jewish leaders. (See: christ)

Links:

Psalms 118:1

Psalms 118:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

Give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good

"Thank Yahweh because of the good things he does"

his covenant faithfulness endures forever

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "he remains faithful to his covenant forever"

Psalms 118:2

Let Israel say

The word "Israel" represents the people of Israel. Alternate translation: "Let the people of Israel say"

Psalms 118:3

Let the house of Aaron say

Here the word "house" represents the family and descendants of a person. This phrase refers to the priests, who were descendants of Aaron. Alternate translation: "Let the descendants of Aaron say" or "Let the priests say"

His covenant faithfulness endures forever

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. See how you translated this in [Psalms 118:1-2]

Psalms 118:4

the loyal followers of Yahweh

"those who fear Yahweh" or "those who worship Yahweh"

Psalms 118:5

set me in a spacious place

The writer speaks of Yahweh saving him from distress as if Yahweh had taken him from a place of confinement to a wide open space where he could move about freely.

Psalms 118:6

what can man do to me?

The writer asks this rhetorical question to emphasize that there is nothing that man can do to hurt him since Yahweh is with him. This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "people cannot do anything to harm me."

Psalms 118:7

Yahweh is on my side as my helper

To be on one's side is an idiomatic expression that indicates that that person approves of and will help another.

Alternate translation: "Yahweh approves of me and will help me"

I will look in triumph on those who hate me

It is implied that Yahweh is the one who will defeat the writer's enemies, while the writer looks on. The full meaning of this can be made clear. Alternate translation: "I will see Yahweh defeating all those who hate me"

Psalms 118:8

to take shelter in Yahweh

God is spoken of as if he were a shelter, a place where people can be protected. Alternate translation: "to seek protection from Yahweh"

Psalms 118:9

to take refuge in Yahweh

This verse is parallel to the one preceding it. God is spoken of as if he were a refuge, a place where people can be protected. Alternate translation: "to seek protection from Yahweh"

Psalms 118:10

All the nations

Here the word "nations" represents the armies of those nations. The writer uses hyperbole to emphasize the great number of armies that surrounded him. Alternate translation: "The armies of many nations"

in Yahweh's name

Here the word "name" represents Yahweh's power.

Alternate translation: "by Yahweh's power"

I cut them off

The writer speaks of defeating the enemy armies as if he were cutting them off like a person would cut a branch off of a plant. Alternate translation: "I defeated them"

Psalms 118:11

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 118:12

They surrounded me like bees

The writer compares the enemy armies to a swarm of bees. Alternate translation: "They surrounded me like a swarm of bees would surround a person"

they disappeared as quickly as fire among thorns

Just like dry thorns burn out quickly, the attack of the enemy armies was quickly over. Alternate translation: "their attack lasted only a short time, as a fire that consumes thorns quickly dies"

Psalms 118:13

to knock me down

The writer speaks of the enemy armies trying to defeat him as if they were trying to push him down onto the ground. Alternate translation: "in order to defeat me"

Psalms 118:14

Yah is my strength and joy

"Yah gives me strength and joy"

Psalms 118:15

The joyful shout of victory is heard in the tents of the righteous

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "People hear the joyful shout of victory in the tents of the righteous" or "The righteous shout joyfully for victory in their tents"

the right hand of Yahweh conquers

Here the word "hand" represents Yahweh's power.

Alternate translation: "Yahweh has conquered by his great strength"

Psalms 118:16

The right hand of Yahweh is exalted

Here, to raise one's hand is a gesture of victory. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Yahweh has exalted his right hand" or "Yahweh has raised his right hand in victory"

Psalms 118:17

I will not die, but live

The writer states the same idea both negatively and positively to emphasize that he will certainly live.

Psalms 118:18

Yah has punished me

"Yah has disciplined me"

he has not handed me over to death

The writer speaks of death as if it were a person under whose power Yahweh could place the writer. Alternate translation: "he has not allowed me to die" or "he has not allowed my enemies to kill me"

Psalms 118:19

Open to me the gates of righteousness

"Open to me the gates through which the righteous people enter." This is a reference to the gates of the temple, and the writer is addressing the gatekeepers. The full meaning of this can be made clear. Alternate translation: "Open for me the temple gates"

Psalms 118:20

the gate of Yahweh

"the gate that leads to Yahweh's presence" or "Yahweh's gate"

Psalms 118:21

I will give thanks to you

Here the writer begins to speak to Yahweh.

you have become my salvation

The word "salvation" can be translated with a verbal phrase. Alternate translation: "you have saved me"

Psalms 118:22

The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone

This is likely a proverb that the writer has used to describe either the king or the nation of Israel. That which others have considered worthless, Yahweh has made to be the most important.

Psalms 118:23

it is marvelous in our eyes

Possible meanings are 1) "it is a marvelous thing for us to see" or 2) "we consider it to be a marvelous thing."

Psalms 118:24

rejoice and be glad

These two phrases mean basically the same thing and emphasize the intensity of joy. Alternate translation: "be very glad"

Psalms 118:25

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 118:26

Blessed is he who comes in the name of Yahweh

Here the priests begin to address the king.

he who comes in the name of Yahweh

Here the word "name" represents Yahweh's power.

Alternate translation: "the one who comes in the power of the Yahweh"

we bless you from the house of Yahweh

Here the priests address the people.

the house of Yahweh

The word "house" refers to the temple. Alternate translation: "Yahweh's temple"

Psalms 118:27

he has given us light

The writer speaks of Yahweh blessing his people as if Yahweh were shining a light on them. Alternate translation:

"he has blessed us"

bind the sacrifice with cords

"tie the sacrifice with rope"

Psalms 118:28

You are my God

Here the writer begins to speak again and addresses

Yahweh directly.

Psalms 118:29

Oh

This is an exclamation that should be translated with whatever exclamation of emphasis you have in your language to make it sound natural.

give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good

"thank Yahweh because of the good things he does." See how you translated this in Psalms 118:1.

his covenant faithfulness endures forever

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. See how you translated this in [Psalms 118:1-2]

Chapter 119

ALEPH

- ¹ Blessed are those whose ways are blameless,
who walk in the law of Yahweh.
- ² Blessed are they who keep his solemn commands,
who seek him with all their heart.
- ³ They do no wrong;
they walk in his ways.
- ⁴ You have commanded us to keep your instructions
so that we should carefully observe them.
- ⁵ Oh, that I would be firmly established in the observance of your statutes!
- ⁶ Then I would not be put to shame
when I think of all your commandments.
- ⁷ I will give thanks to you with an upright heart
when I learn your righteous decrees.
- ⁸ I will observe your statutes;
do not leave me alone.

BETH

- ⁹ How can a young person keep his path pure?
By obeying your word.
- ¹⁰ With my whole heart I seek you;
Do not let me stray from your commandments.
- ¹¹ I have stored up your word in my heart
so that I might not sin against you.

- ¹² Blessed you are, Yahweh;
teach me your statutes.
- ¹³ With my mouth I have declared
all the righteous decrees that you have revealed.
- ¹⁴ I rejoice in the way of your covenant decrees
more than in all riches.
- ¹⁵ I will meditate on your instructions and pay attention to your ways.
- ¹⁶ I delight in your statutes;
I will not forget your word.

GIMEL

- ¹⁷ Be kind to your servant so that I may live and keep your word.
- ¹⁸ Open my eyes so that I may see marvelous things in your law.
- ¹⁹ I am a foreigner in the land;
do not hide your commandments from me.
- ²⁰ My desires are crushed by the longing to know your righteous decrees at all times.
- ²¹ You rebuke the proud, who are cursed,
who wander from your commandments.
- ²² Spare me from disgrace and contempt, for I have obeyed your solemn commands.
- ²³ Though rulers plot and slander me, your servant meditates on your statutes.
- ²⁴ Your solemn commands are my delight, and they are my counselors.

DALETH

- ²⁵ My life clings to the dust!
Give me life by your word.
- ²⁶ I told you my ways, and you answered me;
teach me your statutes.
- ²⁷ Make me understand the ways of your instructions,
so that I can meditate on your wondrous teachings.
- ²⁸ I am overwhelmed with grief!

Strengthen me by your word.

²⁹ Turn from me the path of deceit;
graciously teach me your law.

³⁰ I have chosen the way of faithfulness;
I have always kept your righteous decrees before me.

³¹ I cling to your covenant decrees;
Yahweh, do not let me be shamed.

³² I will run in the path of your commandments, for you enlarge my heart to do so.

HE

³³ Teach me, Yahweh, the way of your statutes, and I will keep them to the end.

³⁴ Give me understanding, and I will keep your law;
I will observe it with all my heart.

³⁵ Guide me in the path of your commandments, for I delight to walk in it.

³⁶ Direct my heart toward your covenant decrees and away from unrighteous gain.

³⁷ Turn my eyes from looking at worthless things;
revive me in your ways.

³⁸ Carry out for your servant the word that you gave to those who revere you.

³⁹ Take away the disgrace I dread, for your judgments are good.

⁴⁰ See, I have longed for your instructions;
revive me in your righteousness.

VAV

⁴¹ Yahweh, give me your unfailing love—your salvation, according to your word;

⁴² then I will have a reply for the one who mocks me, for I trust in your word.

⁴³ Do not take the word of truth from my mouth, for my hope is in your righteous decrees.

⁴⁴ I will observe your law continually,
forever and ever.

- ⁴⁵ I will walk securely,
for I seek your instructions.
- ⁴⁶ I will speak of your solemn commands before kings and will not be ashamed.
- ⁴⁷ I delight in your commandments,
which I love dearly.
- ⁴⁸ I will lift up my hands to your commandments, which I love;
I will meditate on your statutes.

ZAYIN

- ⁴⁹ Call to mind your word to your servant
because you have given me hope.
- ⁵⁰ This is my comfort in my affliction:
that your word has kept me alive.
- ⁵¹ The proud have scoffed at me,
yet I have not turned away from your law.
- ⁵² I have thought about your righteous decrees from ancient times, Yahweh, and I comfort myself.
- ⁵³ Hot anger has taken hold of me because of the wicked who reject your law.
- ⁵⁴ Your statutes have been my songs in the house of my sojourn.
- ⁵⁵ I think about your name during the night, Yahweh, and I keep your law.
- ⁵⁶ This has been my practice because I have observed your instructions.

HETH

- ⁵⁷ Yahweh is my portion;
I have determined to observe your words.
- ⁵⁸ I earnestly request your favor with my whole heart;
be merciful to me according to your word.
- ⁵⁹ I examined my ways
and turned my feet to your solemn commands.
- ⁶⁰ I hurry and do not delay to keep your commandments.

- ⁶¹ The cords of the wicked have ensnared me;
I have not forgotten your law.
- ⁶² At midnight I rise to give thanks to you
because of your righteous decrees.
- ⁶³ I am a companion of all who honor you,
to all who observe your instructions.
- ⁶⁴ The earth, Yahweh, is full of your covenant faithfulness;
teach me your statutes.

TETH

- ⁶⁵ You have done good to your servant,
Yahweh, by means of your word.
- ⁶⁶ Teach me proper discernment and understanding, for I have believed in your commandments.
- ⁶⁷ Before I was afflicted I went astray,
but now I observe your word.
- ⁶⁸ You are good, and you are one who does good;
teach me your statutes.
- ⁶⁹ The arrogant have smeared me with lies,
but I keep your instructions with my whole heart.
- ⁷⁰ Their hearts are hardened,
but I delight in your law.
- ⁷¹ It is good for me that I have suffered so that I would learn your statutes.
- ⁷² Instruction from your mouth is more precious to me than thousands of pieces of gold and silver.

YOD

- ⁷³ Your hands have made and fashioned me;
give me understanding so that I may learn your commandments.
- ⁷⁴ Those who honor you will be glad when they see me because I find hope in your word.
- ⁷⁵ I know, Yahweh, that your decrees are just,
and that in faithfulness you afflicted me.
- ⁷⁶ Let your covenant faithfulness comfort me,
according to your word to your servant.
- ⁷⁷ Show me compassion so that I may live,

for your law is my delight.

⁷⁸ Let the proud be put to shame,
for they have slandered me;
but I will meditate on your instructions.

⁷⁹ May those who honor you turn to me,
those who know your solemn commands.

⁸⁰ May my heart be blameless with respect to your statutes so that I may not be put to shame.

KAPH

⁸¹ I faint with longing that you might rescue me!
I hope in your word.

⁸² My eyes long for your word;
when will you comfort me?

⁸³ For I have become like a wineskin in the smoke;
I do not forget your statutes.

⁸⁴ How long must your servant endure this;
when will you judge those who persecute me?

⁸⁵ The proud have dug pits for me, defying your law.

⁸⁶ All your commandments are reliable;
those people persecute me wrongfully; help me.

⁸⁷ They have almost made an end to me on earth,
but I do not reject your instructions.

⁸⁸ By your steadfast love, keep me alive,
so that I may obey the solemn commands that come from your mouth.

LAMEDH

⁸⁹ Yahweh, your word stands forever;
your word is established firmly in heaven.

⁹⁰ Your faithfulness lasts for all generations;
you have established the earth, and it remains.

⁹¹ All things continue to this day, just as you said in your righteous decrees, for all things are your servants.

⁹² If your law had not been my delight,
I would have perished in my affliction.

⁹³ I will never forget your instructions,

for through them you have kept me alive.

⁹⁴ I am yours; save me,
for I seek your instructions.

⁹⁵ The wicked prepare to destroy me,
but I will seek to understand your solemn commands.

⁹⁶ All perfection I have seen has an end;
but your command is exceedingly broad.

MEM

⁹⁷ Oh how I love your law!
It is my meditation all day long.

⁹⁸ Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies, for your commandments are always with me.

⁹⁹ I have more understanding than all my teachers, for I meditate on your covenant decrees.

¹⁰⁰ I understand more than those older than I am;
this is because I have kept your instructions.

¹⁰¹ I have kept my feet back from every evil path
so that I might observe your word.

¹⁰² I have not turned aside from your righteous decrees, for you have instructed me.

¹⁰³ How sweet are your words to my taste,
yes, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

¹⁰⁴ Through your instructions I gain discernment;
therefore I hate every false way.

NUN

¹⁰⁵ Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path.

¹⁰⁶ I have sworn and have confirmed it, that I will observe your righteous decrees.

¹⁰⁷ I am very afflicted;
keep me alive, Yahweh, as you have promised in your word.

¹⁰⁸ Yahweh, please accept the freewill offerings of my mouth, and teach me your righteous decrees.

¹⁰⁹ My life is always in my hand,
yet I do not forget your law.

¹¹⁰ The wicked have set a snare for me,
but I have not strayed from your instructions.

¹¹¹ I claim your covenant decrees as my heritage forever, for they are the joy of my heart.

¹¹² My heart is set on obeying your statutes forever to the very end.

SAMEKH

¹¹³ I hate those who have a double mind,
but I love your law.

¹¹⁴ You are my hiding place and my shield;
I hope in your word.

¹¹⁵ Get away from me, you evildoers,
so that I may observe the commandments of my God.

¹¹⁶ Sustain me by your word so that I may live and not be ashamed of my hope.

¹¹⁷ Support me, and I will be safe;
I will always meditate on your statutes.

¹¹⁸ You reject all those who stray from your statutes, for their deceit is vain.

¹¹⁹ You remove all the wicked of the earth like slag;
therefore I love your solemn commands.

¹²⁰ My body trembles in fear of you, and I am afraid of your righteous decrees.

AYIN

¹²¹ I do what is just and right;
do not abandon me to my oppressors.

¹²² Guarantee the welfare of your servant;
do not let the proud oppress me.

¹²³ My eyes grow tired as I wait for your salvation and for your righteous word.

¹²⁴ Show your servant your covenant faithfulness,
and teach me your statutes.

¹²⁵ I am your servant; give me understanding so that I may know your solemn commands.

- ¹²⁶ It is time for Yahweh to act,
for people have broken your law.
- ¹²⁷ Truly I love your commandments more than gold, more than fine gold.
- ¹²⁸ Therefore I carefully follow all your instructions, and I hate every path of falsehood.

PE

- ¹²⁹ Your rules are wonderful,
that is why I obey them.
- ¹³⁰ The unfolding of your words gives light;
it gives understanding to the untrained.
- ¹³¹ I open my mouth and pant,
for I long for your commandments.
- ¹³² Turn to me and have mercy on me, as you always do for those who love your name.
- ¹³³ Direct my footsteps by your word;
do not let any wickedness rule me.
- ¹³⁴ Redeem me from human oppression
so that I may observe your instructions.
- ¹³⁵ Let your face shine on your servant,
and teach me your statutes.
- ¹³⁶ Streams of tears run down from my eyes because people do not observe your law.

TSADHE

- ¹³⁷ You are righteous, Yahweh, and your decrees are fair.
- ¹³⁸ You have given your solemn commands righteously and faithfully.
- ¹³⁹ Zeal has destroyed me because my adversaries forget your words.
- ¹⁴⁰ Your word has been tested very much,
and your servant loves it.
- ¹⁴¹ I am insignificant and despised,
yet I do not forget your instructions.
- ¹⁴² Your justice is forever justice, and your law is trustworthy.

¹⁴³ Though distress and anguish have found me, your commandments are still my delight.

¹⁴⁴ Your covenant decrees are righteous forever;
give me understanding that I may live.

QOPH

¹⁴⁵ I cried out with my whole heart, "Answer me, Yahweh,
I will keep your statutes.

¹⁴⁶ I call to you; save me,
and I will observe your solemn commands."

¹⁴⁷ I rise before the dawn of the morning and cry for help.
I hope in your words.

¹⁴⁸ My eyes are open before the night watches change
so that I might meditate on your word.

¹⁴⁹ Hear my voice in your covenant faithfulness;
keep me alive, Yahweh, as you have promised in your righteous decrees.

¹⁵⁰ Those who are persecuting me are coming closer to me, but they are far from your law.

¹⁵¹ You are near, Yahweh, and all your commandments are trustworthy.

¹⁵² Long ago I learned from your solemn commands that you had set them in place forever.

RESH

¹⁵³ Look on my affliction and help me, for I do not forget your law.

¹⁵⁴ Plead my cause and redeem me;
keep me alive according to your word.

¹⁵⁵ Salvation is far from the wicked, for they do not love your statutes.

¹⁵⁶ Great are your merciful actions, Yahweh;
keep me alive, as you always do.

¹⁵⁷ My persecutors and my foes are many,
yet I have not turned from your covenant decrees.

¹⁵⁸ I view the treacherous with disgust because they do not keep your word.

¹⁵⁹ See how I love your instructions;
keep me alive, Yahweh, as you have promised by your covenant faithfulness.

¹⁶⁰ The essence of your word is truth;
every one of your righteous decrees lasts forever.

SHIN

¹⁶¹ Princes persecute me without cause, but my heart stands in awe of your word.

¹⁶² I rejoice at your word like one who finds great plunder.

¹⁶³ I hate and abhor falsehood,
but I love your law.

¹⁶⁴ Seven times a day I praise you because of your righteous decrees.

¹⁶⁵ Great peace they have, those who love your law;
nothing makes them stumble.

¹⁶⁶ I hope for your salvation, Yahweh, and I obey your commandments.

¹⁶⁷ I observe your solemn commands, and I love them greatly.

¹⁶⁸ I keep your instructions and your solemn commands, for you are aware of everything I do.

TAV

¹⁶⁹ Listen to my cry for help, Yahweh;
give me understanding into your word.

¹⁷⁰ May my plea come before you;
help me according to your word.

¹⁷¹ May my lips pour out praise, for you teach me your statutes.

¹⁷² Let my tongue sing about your word, for all your commandments are right.

¹⁷³ May your hand help me,
for I have chosen your instructions.

¹⁷⁴ I long for your rescue, Yahweh, and your law is my delight.

¹⁷⁵ May I live and praise you,
and may your righteous decrees help me.

¹⁷⁶ I have wandered off like a lost sheep;
seek your servant,
for I have not forgotten your commandments.

Psalm 119 General Notes

Formatting in this chapter

This is a certain kind of psalm called an acrostic. The Hebrew language has twenty-two letters, and this psalm has twenty-two groups of verses, one group for each letter of the alphabet. Each group has eight verses, and each verse in a group begins with the same letter. The verses in the first group begin with the first letter of the Hebrew alphabet, the verses in the second group begin with the second letter of the Hebrew alphabet, and so on through the whole alphabet.

In the ULB, the names of the Hebrew letters are written in uppercase letters before each group of verses that begin with that letter. The names of the first four Hebrew letters are ALEPH, BETH, GIMEL, and DALETH. You will be able to recognize the names of the other Hebrew letters as you see them because they, too, are written in uppercase letters. These letter names are not actually part of the psalm, but many translations use them to help the readers see its structure.

Type of psalm

Psalm 119 is a wisdom psalm about the Law of God. (See: wise and lawofmoses)

Special concepts in this chapter

The Law

The author loved the law of God and was blessed by obeying it. (See: love and bless)

Links:

Psalms 119:1

Psalms 119:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

General Information:

"Aleph" is the name of the first letter in the Hebrew alphabet. Each of verses 1 through 8 begins with this Hebrew letter. See "Formatting in this chapter" in Psalm 119 General Notes.

Blessed are those

"How good it is for those"

those whose ways are blameless

How a person behaves is spoken of as "ways" or "paths."

Alternate translation: "those whose behavior is blameless" or "those whom no one can blame for doing wrong"

who walk in the law of Yahweh

The way a person lives or behaves is spoken of as walking.

Alternate translation: "who live according to the law of Yahweh" or "who obey the law of Yahweh." This phrase clarifies the meaning of "whose ways are blameless"

Psalms 119:2

who seek him with all their heart

To "seek" God means to want to know him.

with all their heart

This is an idiom which means intensely or sincerely.

Alternate translation: "with all their being" or "with everything in them" or "sincerely"

Psalms 119:3

General Information:

Most of this psalm is addressed to God, and the words "you" and "your" almost always refer to him.

They do no wrong

They do not disobey Yahweh.

they walk in his ways

"they walk in Yahweh's ways." Here their behavior is spoken of as "walking," and the way God wants them to behave is spoken of as "his ways." Alternate translation: "they behave as Yahweh wants them to"

Psalms 119:4

keep your instructions

"obey all the things that you have declared that we should do"

carefully observe them

This is to carefully know and understand the commandments and to obey those commandments.

Psalms 119:5

I would be firmly established

The writer speaks of being established in God's commandments as if no one could physically make him move.

observance of your statutes

"in obeying your statutes"

Psalms 119:6

I would not be put to shame

The writer does not want to be ashamed when he is in God's presence.

all your commandments

"all that you have commanded us"

Psalms 119:7

an upright heart

"a sincere heart." A person who is sincere will do what is right. The heart refers to the center of emotions in a person. See how you translated "uprightness" in [Psalms 25:21]

Psalms 119:8
your statutes
"Statutes" refers to God's laws or commands.

Psalms 119:9
General Information
"Beth" is the name of the second letter in the Hebrew alphabet. Each of verses 9 through 16 begins with this Hebrew letter. See "Formatting in this chapter" in Psalm 119 General Notes.
How can a young person keep his path pure?
This question is used to introduce a new value to the word of God. This rhetorical question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "This is how a young person can keep his path pure" keep his path pure
The writer compares living according to God's law as a path kept clear of obstructions.

Psalms 119:10
With my whole heart
This is an idiom. The heart refers to all of one's emotions, feelings, desires, and will. Alternate translation: "with all my being" or "with everything in me" or "sincerely"
Do not let me stray from your commandments
Here to disobey God's commandments is described as straying off a path. Alternate translation: "Do not let me disobey your commandments"

Psalms 119:11
I have stored up your word in my heart
"I have put your words in my heart." This is a metaphor that means "I have memorized your word." The heart is pictured as a container that can hold what people think.

Psalms 119:12
General Information:
This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 119:13
General Information:
This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 119:14
more than in all riches
"more than all the wealth"

Psalms 119:15
I will meditate ... and pay attention
These are parallel thoughts that have similar meanings, which are repeated for emphasis.
meditate on your instructions
"think carefully about what you have instructed us"
pay attention
This idiom refers to thinking clearly about what is being discussed. Alternate translation: "give careful thought"

Psalms 119:16
I delight
to take pleasure

Psalms 119:17
General Information
"Gimel" is the name of the third letter in the Hebrew alphabet. Each of verses 17 through 24 begins with this Hebrew letter. See "Formatting in this chapter" in Psalm 119 General Notes.

your servant
The writer called himself "your servant" to show his humility.

Psalms 119:18
Open my eyes so that I may see
The author speaks of gaining understanding, knowledge and wisdom as being able to see. Alternate translation: "Help me to understand"
marvelous things in your law
The author speaks of insight into the law as objects to marvel at.

in your law
"in your instructions" or "in your commands"

Psalms 119:19
I am a foreigner in the land
Possible meanings are 1) the writers speaks of his short life on earth as if he were a foreigner who would not stay long in the land. Alternate translation: "I am like a foreigner living a short time in the land" or 2) the writer's ignorance of God's law as if he were a foreigner who did not know the laws of the land. Alternate translation: "I am ignorant like a foreigner in the land"

Psalms 119:20
My desires are crushed by the longing
The writer speaks of his desires being very strong as if they were in pain. Alternate translation: "My inner being strongly desires to know" or "My soul aches because I want so much to know"

Psalms 119:21
who are cursed Possible meanings are that 1) God will curse them or 2) they deserve God's punishment. Alternate translation: "who deserve your punishment"
who wander from your commandments
The writer speaks of disobeying God's commandments as if they were a path that can be wandered off from. Alternate translation: "who go away from the path of your commandments" or "who disobey your commandments"

Psalms 119:22
Spare me from
"Keep me from" or "Rescue me from"

Psalms 119:23
Though rulers plot and slander me
"Though rulers make plans to harm me and say bad things about me"

Psalms 119:24
Your solemn commands are my delight
"Your solemn commands make me very happy."
they are my counselors
God's decrees are spoken of as if they were people. Alternate translation: "they are like wise counselors to me" or "they give me wise counsel"

Psalms 119:25
General Information
"Daleth" is the name of the fourth letter in the Hebrew alphabet. Each of verses 25 through 32 begins with this Hebrew letter. See "Formatting in this chapter" in Psalm 119 General Notes.

My life clings to the dust

This is an idiom. Possible meanings are that 1) he thought that he would die soon, or 2) he lay in the dust because he was very sad, or 3) he realized that he desired the worthless things of the earth.

Give me life by your word

This is an idiom. Here "life" refers to purpose and significance, not just biological life.

by your word

"according to your promise"

Psalms 119:26

my ways

What a person does or how he behaves is spoken of as if it were a road or way. Alternate translation: "what I have done"

Psalms 119:27

wondrous teachings

"amazing teachings"

Psalms 119:28

with grief

"because I am so sad"

Strengthen me

"Make me strong." This may refer to physical strength or spiritual strength.

Psalms 119:29

Turn from me the path of deceit

The word "path" here refers to a way of behaving. Alternate translation: "Keep me from following the path of deceit" or "Prevent me from being deceptive"

deceit

Possible meanings are 1) "lying" or 2) "believing lies" or "following lies."

Psalms 119:30

the way of faithfulness

How a person behaves or acts is spoken as if it were a road or way. Alternate translation: "to be faithful to you"

Psalms 119:31

I cling to your covenant decrees

Holding tightly to them refers to being committed to obeying them. Alternate translation: "I hold tightly to your covenant decrees" or "I am committed to obeying your covenant decrees"

covenant decrees

This refers to the law of Moses.

Psalms 119:32

I will run in the path of your commandments

The writer speaks of being focused or committed to obeying God's commands as if one is running on a path. Alternate translation: "I will be committed to obey your commands" you enlarge my heart

This is an idiom. Possible meanings are 1) "you help me gain greater understanding of your commands" or 2) "you give me greater desire to obey your commands"

Psalms 119:33

your statutes

This is another way of describing the law of Moses.

to the end

Possible meanings are 1) "completely" or 2) "to the end of my life" or 3) "to the end of time."

Psalms 119:34

keep your law

"obey your law"

I will observe it with all my heart

"I will surely observe your law" or "I am completely committed to doing what it says"

with all my heart

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "with all my being" or "with everything in me" or "sincerely"

Psalms 119:35

Guide me in the path of your commandments

"Guide me according to your commandments" or "Teach me to obey your commandments." God's commandments are compared to a path that a person walks in obedience to God.

Psalms 119:36

Direct my heart toward

This is an idiom. The "heart" here refers to the will, desires, and choices that directs one's life. Alternate translation:

"Make me want"

your covenant decrees

"to obey your covenant decrees." This is referring to obeying the law of Moses.

unrighteous gain

"the desire for riches." This is referring to wealth gained by illegal methods or wrongdoing towards others.

Psalms 119:37

Turn my eyes from looking at worthless things

This is a metaphor that refers to one desiring things that have no eternal value.

revive me in your ways

"make me able to live as you wish me to live"

revive me

"make my life strong" or "give me strength"

Psalms 119:38

Carry out for your servant the word that you gave to those who revere you

The word "word" here is a metonym for the promise that Yahweh gave by speaking words. Alternate translation: "Do for your servant what you promised to do for those who revere you"

your servant

The writer referred to himself as God's servant to show his humility. Alternate translation: "me, your servant"

Psalms 119:39

I dread

"I am very afraid of"

your judgments are good

God judges rightly and his decisions are good. Alternate translation: "Your judge rightly"

Psalms 119:40

See

This refers to being aware of the situation. The focus is on knowledge or understanding, rather than just observing.

I have longed for your instructions

Possible meanings are 1) "I want very much to know your instructions" or 2) "I want very much to obey what you teach us to do."

revive me in your righteousness

The word "righteousness" is an abstract noun and refers to being righteous. Alternate translation: "revive me because you are righteous"

revive me

Possible meanings are 1) "Keep me alive" or 2) "Make me strong."

Psalms 119:41

your salvation

You may make clear the understood information. Alternate translation: "give me your salvation" or "save me"

according to your word

The word "word" here is a metonym for the promise that Yahweh made using words. Alternate translation: "as you promised"

Psalms 119:42

a reply

"an answer" or "a response"

Psalms 119:43

Do not take the word of truth from my mouth

Here the writer is represented by his "mouth." Possible meanings are 1) "never prevent me from speaking the message about the truth" or 2) "never prevent me from speaking the true message."

Psalms 119:44

I will observe

"I will obey"

Psalms 119:45

I will walk securely

To walk securely is to live one's life securely. Alternate translation: "I will live securely in God"

I seek your instructions

To "seek" is to perceive, or gain understanding of God's instructions as if one can see them.

Psalms 119:46

solemn commands before kings

"serious commands to kings" or "instructions to kings"

Psalms 119:47

I delight in your commandments

Possible meanings are 1) "I find delight in studying your commandments" or 2) "I am delighted that I have the opportunity to study your commandments."

Psalms 119:48

lift up my hands to

This is an idiom which means to honor, cherish or respect God's commandments.

Psalms 119:49

Call to mind your word

The word "word" here is a metonym for the promise Yahweh gave by speaking words. See how you translated this in [Psalms 20:3]

Psalms 119:50

This is my comfort in my affliction: that your word has kept me alive

The word "word" here is a metonym for the promise Yahweh gave by speaking words. This clause can be restructured. Alternate translation: "The reason for my comfort is that your promise has kept me alive in my affliction"

Psalms 119:51

The proud

This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective.

Alternate translation: "The proud people"

scoffed at

to mock someone or something that is looked down on, doubted, or not honored

Psalms 119:52

from ancient times

This is a reference to when the decrees, the Law, were given to Moses many years before.

Psalms 119:53

Hot anger has taken hold of me

This is an idiom. Anger is expressed as if it is a person that can grab another person. Alternate translation: "I have become very angry"

Psalms 119:54

Your statutes have been my songs

"I have used your statutes as lyrics to my music" or "I have created songs from your statutes"

Psalms 119:55

I think about your name

Here the word "name" represents Yahweh himself.

Alternate translation: "I think about you, Yahweh"

I keep your law

This is an idiom which means to obey the law. Alternate translation: "I obey your law"

Psalms 119:56

my practice

"my habit"

I have observed your instructions

This is an idiom which means to follow or to obey those instructions. Alternate translation: "I have obeyed your instructions"

Psalms 119:57

Yahweh is my portion

This means Yahweh is all he wants. Just as the Levites did not receive vast territories of land for the Lord was to be their portion so the writer claims Yahweh as the satisfier of his needs.

Psalms 119:58

according to your word

The word "word" here is a metonym for the promise that Yahweh made using words. Alternate translation: "as you promised"

Psalms 119:59

turned my feet

Here "feet" represent the whole person. To repent and choose to obey God's laws is like turning one's feet on a path to head in another direction. Alternate translation: "changed my direction"

Psalms 119:60

I hurry and do not delay

The writer expresses the same idea both positively and negatively in order to emphasize the urgency with which he obeys Yahweh's commands.

Psalms 119:61

The cords of the wicked have ensnared me

In this metaphor, wicked or evil people tried to cause the writer to sin like a hunter seeking to catch an animal with a trap. Alternate translation: "My enemies have tried to catch me"

Psalms 119:62

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 119:63

I am a companion of all who honor you

"I am a friend of all who honor you"

Psalms 119:64

The earth, Yahweh, is full of your covenant faithfulness

People everywhere in the world being able to see evidence of Yahweh's covenant faithfulness is spoken of as if his covenant faithfulness filled the earth. The abstract noun "covenant faithfulness" can be translated as an adjective. See how you translated a similar phrase in [Psalms 33:5]

Psalms 119:65

to your servant

The writer refers to himself as "your servant." Alternate translation: "to me, your servant" or "to me" by means of your word

This is an idiom. "Your word" refers to the promises Yahweh has made to the writer. Alternate translation: "as you have promised"

Psalms 119:66

Teach me proper discernment and understanding, for I have believed in your commandments

Some languages may require change in logical progression.

Alternate translation: "Since I have believed in your commandments, teach me proper discernment and understanding"

Psalms 119:67

Before I was afflicted

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"Before you afflicted me" or "Before you punished me"

I went astray

Disobeying God is spoken of as if the person walked on the wrong path. Alternate translation: "I disobeyed you"

I observe your word

Here "word" represents commandments. Alternate translation: "I obey your commandments"

Psalms 119:68

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 119:69

The arrogant

This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective.

Alternate translation: "Arrogant people"

smeared me with lies

People telling many lies about a person is spoken of as if they made the person dirty by spreading lies over him.

with my whole heart

Here "heart" represents a person's will. Alternate translation: "with complete commitment" or "completely"

Psalms 119:70

Their hearts are hardened

Here "hearts" represents the people's wills. A person being stubborn is spoken of as if their hearts or wills were hard like a rock. Alternate translation: "They are stubborn"

Psalms 119:71

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 119:72

Instruction from your mouth is Here "mouth" represents what God says. Alternate translation: "The instructions you have spoken are" or "Your instructions are"

than thousands of pieces of gold and silver

This can be stated more generally. Alternate translation:

"than a large amount of money" or "than great wealth"

Psalms 119:73

Your hands have made and fashioned me

God creating a person is spoken of as if God used his hands to shape the person the way someone may shape clay into an object.

Your hands

Here "hands" represents God's power or action. Alternate translation: "You"

Psalms 119:74

because I find hope in your word

"because I trust what you say" or "I confidently believe what you say"

Psalms 119:75

in faithfulness you afflicted me

God promises to reward the righteous and punish wrongdoers, so he is faithful to do what he says he will. The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "you punished me because you are faithful"

Psalms 119:76

Let your covenant faithfulness comfort me

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "Comfort me by showing me that you are faithful to your covenant"

according to your word to

The word "word" here is a metonym for the promise that Yahweh made using words. Alternate translation: "as you promised"

your servant

The writer refers to himself as "your servant." Alternate translation: "me, your servant" or "me"

Psalms 119:77

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 119:78

Let the proud be put to shame

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Put the proud to shame" or "Cause those who are proud to be ashamed"

the proud

This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective.

Alternate translation: "proud people" or "those who are proud"

Psalms 119:79

turn to me

People returning in friendship to the writer is spoken of as if they physically turn towards him. Alternate translation: "come to me" or "unite with me"

those who know your solemn commands

Possible meanings are 1) this further describes those who honor God or 2) this indicates the purpose for those who honor God to return to the writer. Alternate translation: "so that they may learn your solemn commands"

Psalms 119:80

May my heart be blameless

Here "heart" represents a person's thoughts and motives.

Alternate translation: "May I be blameless"

I may not be put to shame

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "I may not be ashamed"

Psalms 119:81

I hope in your word

"I confidently trust in what you say"

Psalms 119:82

My eyes long for your word

Here the word "eyes" represents the whole person and the word "word" is a metonym for the promise Yahweh made by speaking words. Alternate translation: "I wait and wait for you to do what you promised to do"

Psalms 119:83

I have become like a wineskin in the smoke

A wineskin is ruined when it hangs for a long time in a smoke-filled place. The writer compares himself to a wineskin that has been ruined by smoke to emphasize that he feels useless.

Psalms 119:84

How long must your servant endure this; when will you judge those who persecute me?

The writer uses a question to request God to punish those who persecute him. This rhetorical question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "Please do not make wait any longer. Punish those who persecute me." must your servant

The writer refers to himself as "your servant." Alternate translation: "must I, your servant" or "must I"

Psalms 119:85

The proud have dug pits for me

The proud are seeking to capture the writer or cause him to do wrong. This is spoken of as if they were hunters digging holes to trap the writer like an animal.

The proud

This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective.

Alternate translation: "Proud people" or "Those who are proud"

Psalms 119:86

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 119:87

They have almost made an end to me on earth

This is a polite way of speaking about someone killing someone else. Alternate translation: "They have almost killed me"

Psalms 119:88

By your steadfast love

"According to your steadfast love." The phrase "steadfast love" or "faithfulness" can be stated as an adverb. Alternate translation: "because you faithfully love me"

Psalms 119:89

your word stands forever

"what you have said will be true forever"

your word is established firmly in heaven

This speaks about what God has said as if it were an object that stands firmly upright. Alternate translation: "what you have said will be true in heaven forever"

Psalms 119:90

for all generations

"for all future generations." This is an idiom that means "forever."

Psalms 119:91

all things are your servants

All created things are spoken of as if they were persons who can serve God. Alternate translation: "all things serve you" or "all things obey your commands"

Psalms 119:92

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 119:93

I will never forget

This can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: "I will always remember"

for through them you have kept me alive

It is implied that the writer obeys God's instructions. The full meaning of this statement can be made explicit.

Alternate translation: "for you have kept me alive because I obey them"

Psalms 119:94

for I seek your instructions

Trying hard to obey God's instructions is spoken of as if instructions were an object for which a person must search.

Psalms 119:95

I will seek to understand

"I will try hard to understand"

Psalms 119:96

All perfection I have seen has an end

Possible meanings are 1) "I have seen that all perfect things eventually cease," referring to the best things that people can do, or 2) "I have seen that everything has limits."

but your command is exceedingly broad

God's command always being true and perfect is spoken of as if God's command were an object that is very wide.

Alternate translation: "but your command is without limits" or "but your command is eternal"

Psalms 119:97

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 119:98

your commandments are always with me

Constantly thinking about God's commandments is spoken of as if the commandments were an object that the writer keeps with him always.

Psalms 119:99

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 119:100

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 119:101

I have kept my feet back from every evil path Avoiding doing what is evil is spoken of as if it were avoiding walking on paths that are evil. Alternate translation: "I have avoided doing what is evil" kept my feet

Here "feet" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "kept myself"

observe your word

"obey your word" or "observe your commands"

Psalms 119:102

I have not turned aside from your righteous decrees Continuing to obey God's righteous decrees is spoken of as if the writer has not physically turned away from the righteous decrees. This can be stated in positive form.
Alternate translation: "I always obey your righteous decrees"

Psalms 119:103

How sweet are your words to my taste, yes, sweeter than honey to my mouth!

The writer delighting in what God says is spoken of as if God's words were food that tasted sweet to the writer.
Alternate translation: "Your words are good and delightful!"

Psalms 119:104

I gain discernment

The abstract noun "discernment" can be stated as a verb.
Alternate translation: "I learn to discern what is right"

therefore I hate every false way

Evil behavior is spoken of as if it were a false way or road.

Psalms 119:105

Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path

These two phrases have similar meanings. They speak about God telling a person how to live as if the person were walking on a path and God's words were a light that helps the person see where to go. Alternate translation: "Your words tell me how to live my life"

Your word

Here "word" represents all that God communicates to people.

Psalms 119:106

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 119:107

as you have promised in your word

"as you have promised to do"

Psalms 119:108

freewill offerings of my mouth

The writer speaks of his prayer as if it were a sacrifice that he is offering to God. Alternate translation: "my prayer as a sacrifice to you"

of my mouth

Here "mouth" represents the whole person.

Psalms 119:109

My life is always in my hand

This is an idiom that means the writer's life is always in danger. Alternate translation: "My enemies are often trying to kill me"

I do not forget your law

This can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: "I always remember your laws"

Psalms 119:110

The wicked have set a snare for me

Wicked people trying to capture and kill the writer is spoken of as if they were hunters setting a trap to catch an animal.

The wicked

This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective.

Alternate translation: "Wicked people"

I have not strayed from your instructions

Not disobeying God's instructions is spoken of as if the writer has not walked away from God's instructions. This can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: "I obey your instructions"

Psalms 119:111

I claim your covenant decrees as my heritage forever

The writer always cherishing and obeying God's decrees is spoken of as if the decrees are land or a possession that the writer will inherit. Alternate translation: "Your laws will belong to me forever" or "Your covenant decrees are like a heritage I will keep forever"

they are the joy of my heart

Here "heart" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "they make me joyful" or "I delight in them"

Psalms 119:112

My heart is set on obeying

Here "heart" represents the writer's will. The phrase "heart is set" is an idiom. It is a way of saying the writer is determined. Alternate translation: "I am determined to obey"

to the very end

Possible meanings are 1) "every one of them" 2) "to the very end of my life" or 3) "to the very end of time"

Psalms 119:113

who have a double mind

A person who is not sincere and not fully committed to obeying God is spoken of as if the person has two minds.
Alternate translation: "who are not completely committed to obeying you" or "who are insincere"

Psalms 119:114

my hiding place

God making the writer safe is spoken of as if God were a place where the writer could go and hide.

my shield

God protecting the writer is spoken of as if God were the writer's shield.

I hope in your word

Here "wait" means to wait expectantly. This has the idea of hope and trust. Alternate translation: "I trust in your word"

your word

Here "word" represents what God communicates to people.

Psalms 119:115

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 119:116

Sustain me by your word

"Give me strength as you said you would" or "Enable me to be strong as you promised"

and not be ashamed of my hope

Here "my hope" represents the writer's trust in God and his promises. This can be stated as a complete sentence.

Alternate translation: "Do not disappoint me" or "Do not cause me shame by not doing what you promised to do"

Psalms 119:117

Support me

"Help me" or "Strengthen me"

Psalms 119:118

their deceit is vain

Possible meanings are 1) "those people lie and no one can trust them" or 2) "those people make deceitful plans but they will fail"

Psalms 119:119

You remove all the wicked of the earth like slag

Slag is the waste or undesired leftovers in the process of refining gold or other metals. Yahweh removes the wicked people as if they were trash.

the wicked

This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective.

Alternate translation: "the wicked people" like slag

"like trash" or "like waste"

Psalms 119:120

My body trembles in fear of you

Here "body" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "I shake because I fear you"

I am afraid of your righteous decrees

It is implied that the writer is afraid of God's righteous decrees because the writer knows that God punishes those who disobey his decrees. You can make the full meaning of this statement explicit.

Psalms 119:121

do not abandon me to my oppressors

"do not allow people to oppress me"

Psalms 119:122

Guarantee the welfare of your servant

The writer speaks about himself as "your servant."

Alternate translation: "Guarantee my welfare" or "Help and protect me, your servant"

the proud

This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective.

Alternate translation: "those who are proud" or "proud people"

Psalms 119:123

My eyes grow tired as I wait

Here "eyes" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "I grow tired because I wait and wait" for your salvation and for your righteous word

The abstract noun "salvation" can be stated as a verb.

Alternate translation: "for you to save me as you promised to do" your righteous word

"your righteous promise"

Psalms 119:124

Show your servant

The writer speaks about himself as "your servant."

Alternate translation: "Show me" or "Show me, your servant"

your covenant faithfulness

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be stated as an adverb or adjective. Alternate translation: "that you faithfully love me" or "that you are faithful to your covenant"

Psalms 119:125

give me understanding

The abstract noun "understanding" can be stated as a verb.

Alternate translation: "enable me to understand what you want me to know"

Psalms 119:126

It is time for Yahweh to act

The writer is speaking to Yahweh in the third person. This can be stated in second person. Alternate translation: "It is time for you to act, Yahweh" people have broken your law

This is an idiom. Here "have broken" means "disobeyed."

This is a way of saying the people have disobeyed God's law.

Psalms 119:127

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 119:128

I carefully follow all your instructions

A person carefully obeying all of God's instructions is spoken of as if as if the instructions were leading a person and that person follows behind. Alternate translation: I carefully obey all of your instructions"

every path of falsehood

People doing what is evil is spoken of as if they are walking on the wrong path. Alternate translation: "all the bad ways some people live"

Psalms 119:129

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 119:130

The unfolding of your words gives light

The writer speaks of Yahweh's words as if those words were fabric that is folded, and of the person who explains Yahweh's words as if they are unfolding that fabric.

Alternate translation: "The explanation of your words gives light" or "When someone explains your words, they give light"

The unfolding of your words gives light

The writer speaks of Yahweh's words giving wisdom to a person as if his words were shining a light on them.

Alternate translation: "The explanation of your words gives people wisdom"

Psalms 119:131

I open my mouth and pant, for I long for your commandments

The writer speaks of his desire for Yahweh's commandments as if he were a dog panting for water.

Alternate translation: "I earnestly long for your commandments"

Psalms 119:132

Turn to me

To turn towards someone means to pay attention to that person. Alternate translation: "Pay attention to me"

love your name

Here the word "name" represents Yahweh himself.

Alternate translation: "love you"

Psalms 119:133

Direct my footsteps

Here the word "footsteps" represents the writer as he is walking. He speaks of the way he lives, or his conduct, as if he were walking on a path. Alternate translation: "Direct me" or "Teach me how to live"

do not let any wickedness rule me

The writer speaks of wickedness as if it were a person who has authority over him. Possible meanings are 1) "do not let me habitually do wicked deeds" or 2) "do not let wicked men rule me"

Psalms 119:134

Redeem me from human oppression

The word "oppression" can be translated as a verb. Alternate translation: "Save me from people who oppress others"

Psalms 119:135

Let your face shine on your servant

The writer speaks of Yahweh acting favorably towards him as if Yahweh's face shone a light on him. Alternate translation: "Act favorably towards your servant"

Psalms 119:136

Streams of tears

The writer speaks of his many tears as if they were streams of water. Alternate translation: "Many tears" observe your law

"obey your law"

Psalms 119:137

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 119:138

solemn commands

Other possible meanings are "testimonies" or "laws." See how you translated this in Psalms 78:5.

Psalms 119:139

Zeal has destroyed me

This is an idiom. The phrase is an exaggeration for "I am extremely angry."

Psalms 119:140

has been tested very much

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "I have tested your word many times"

your servant loves

The writer speaks of himself as if he were another person.

Alternate translation: "I, your servant, love" or "I love"

Psalms 119:141

I am ... despised

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "People despise me"

Psalms 119:142

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 119:143

distress and anguish have found me

The psalmist speaks of distress and anguish as if they were people. Alternate translation: "I have become distressed and anguished" or "my body and my mind are suffering"

Psalms 119:144

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 119:145

with my whole heart

The psalmist speaks of his whole being as if it were only his heart. Alternate translation: "completely"

Psalms 119:146

solemn commands

Other possible meanings are "testimonies" or "laws." See how you translated this in Psalms 78:5.

Psalms 119:147

dawn of the morning

"before the sun first appears"

Psalms 119:148

My eyes are open before the night watches change

This is an idiom. In Hebrew culture, the night was usually divided into three "watches" or periods. Alternate translation: "I am awake all night"

Psalms 119:149

in your covenant faithfulness

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "because you are faithful to your covenant"

Psalms 119:150

they are far from your law

"they have strayed from your law" or "they do not pay any attention to your laws"

Psalms 119:151

all your commandments are trustworthy

"I can trust your commandments"

Psalms 119:152

solemn commands

Other possible meanings are "testimonies" or "laws." See how you translated this in Psalms 78:5

set them in place

The psalmist speaks of Yahweh's commands as if they were posts set in the ground. Alternate translation: "given them for people to obey"

Psalms 119:153

Look on my affliction

The psalmist speaks of affliction as if it were an object that people could see. Alternate translation: "Look at how much I am suffering"

Psalms 119:154

Plead my cause

"Defend me against those who accuse me"

keep me

"protect my life" or "give me life"

according to your word

The word "word" here is a metonym for the promise that Yahweh made using words. Alternate translation: "as you promised"

Psalms 119:155

Salvation is far from the wicked

God not saving a person is spoken of as if salvation were far from the person. The abstract noun "Salvation" can be stated as "save." Alternate translation: "You will certainly not save the wicked"

Psalms 119:156

Great are your merciful actions

Here "great" means "many." Alternate translation: "You have shown mercy to people many times" or "You have done many merciful things"

as you always do

Another possible meaning is "because you do what is just."

Psalms 119:157

My persecutors

"Those who persecute me"

I have not turned from

This is an idiom. "I have not stopped obeying" or "I have not stopped believing"

covenant decrees

Other possible meanings are "testimonies" or "laws." See how this is translated in Psalms 78:5.

Psalms 119:158

the treacherous

The adjective "treacherous" can be translated as a noun phrase. Alternate translation: "treacherous people" or "those who betray me" or "my enemies" do not keep

"do not obey"

Psalms 119:159

See

"Look at me so you can see"

by your covenant faithfulness

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "because you are faithful to your covenant"

Psalms 119:160

The essence of your word is truth

"Your word is completely true" or "Your word can be trusted"

Psalms 119:161

my heart stands in awe of your word

The psalmist speaks of the heart as if it could be amazed.

The heart is a synecdoche for the whole person. Alternate translation: "I am amazed at your word"

Psalms 119:162

plunder

Possible meanings are 1) things that soldiers and robbers take from those they have defeated in battle or 2) things of great value or "treasure."

Psalms 119:163

hate and abhor

These two words mean almost the same thing. Alternate translation: "hate very strongly"

falsehood

Possible meanings are this is a metonym for 1) "people who lie" or 2) "the false words that people say."

Psalms 119:164

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 119:165

nothing makes them stumble

Possible meanings are 1) "nothing makes them do wrong" or 2) "nothing causes them trouble."

Psalms 119:166

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 119:167

I observe your solemn commands

"I obey your solemn commands"

solemn commands

Other possible meanings are "testimonies" or "laws." See how you translated this in Psalms 119:2.

Psalms 119:168

I keep your instructions

"I obey your instructions"

Psalms 119:169

give me understanding into your word

The psalmist speaks of the ability to understand as if it were a solid object. Alternate translation: "help me understand your word"

Psalms 119:170

May my plea come before you

The psalmist speaks of the words he says in prayer as if they were people who want to speak to a king. Alternate translation: "May you hear my prayer"

according to your word

The word "word" here is a metonym for the promise that Yahweh made using words. Alternate translation: "as you promised"

Psalms 119:171

May my lips pour out praise

The psalmist speaks of his lips as if they were a container and his praise a liquid that could be poured out. Here the word "lips" is a synecdoche which represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "I desire to praise you much"

Psalms 119:172

my tongue sing

The psalmist speaks of his tongue either 1) as if it were a person or 2) as a synecdoche for his whole being. Alternate translation: "me sing"

Psalms 119:173

May your hand help me

The hand is a synecdoche for the whole person. Alternate translation: "Please help me" have chosen

"have chosen to obey"

Psalms 119:174

for your rescue

"you to rescue me"

your law is my delight

The abstract noun "delight" can be stated as a verb. "I very much enjoy obeying your law"

Psalms 119:175

may your righteous decrees help me

The psalmist speaks of Yahweh's decrees as if they were a person who could help him. Alternate translation: "may I listen to your righteous decrees and so become wise and strong"

Psalms 119:176

I have wandered off like a lost sheep

The psalmist compares his disobedience to Yahweh to a sheep that has wandered away from the flock. Alternate translation: "I have left your way like a sheep that has left its flock"

seek your servant

"because I am your servant, come and search for me"

Chapter 120

A song of ascents.

¹ In my distress I called out to Yahweh, and he answered me.

² Rescue my life, Yahweh, from those who lie with their lips and deceive with their tongues.

³ How will he punish you,
and what more will he do to you,
you who have a lying tongue?

⁴ He will punish you with the arrows of a warrior sharpened over burning coals of the broom tree.

⁵ Woe is me because I temporarily live in Meshech;
I lived previously among the tents of Kedar.

⁶ For too long I have lived with those who hate peace.

⁷ I am for peace,
but when I speak, they are for war.

Psalm 120 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 120 is a psalm of deliverance from liars. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Fighting

The author did not want to fight, but the people he lived with wanted to fight him.

Links:

Psalms 120:1

Psalms 120:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A song of ascents

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

In my distress

"In my trouble" or "When I was in trouble"

Psalms 120:2

Rescue my life

Here the word "life" represents the person. Alternate translation: "Rescue me" those who lie with their lips and deceive with their tongues

Here the phrases "their lips" and "their tongues" represent the people who speak lies and deceit. Alternate translation:

"those who lie to me and try to deceive me"

Psalms 120:3

How will he punish you, and what more will he do to you, you who have a lying tongue?

The writer asks this as a leading question to explain what God will do to liars. This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "This is how God will punish you, and this is what he will do to you, you who have a lying tongue."

you who have a lying tongue

Here "a lying tongue" represents the person who speaks lies. Alternate translation: "you who tell lies"

Psalms 120:4

He will punish you with the arrows of a warrior

The writer speaks of God severely punishing liars as if God were shooting them with arrows. Alternate translation: "He will punish you severely, as if he were shooting you with warrior's arrows"

sharpened over burning coals of the broom tree

This refers to how people forged the tip of the arrow in a fire. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "that he sharpened over burning coals of the broom tree"

Psalms 120:5

I temporarily live in Meshech; I lived previously among the tents of Kedar

These two places were far away from each other. The writer is likely using the names metaphorically to represent living among cruel and barbaric people. Alternate translation: "It is as if I live in Meshech or among the tents of Kedar"

the tents of Kedar

This phrase represents the people of Kedar who live in those tents. Alternate translation: "the people who live in Kedar"

Psalms 120:6

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 120:7

I am for peace

"I want peace"

they are for war

"they want war"

Chapter 121

A song of ascents.

¹ I will lift up my eyes to the mountains.
From where will my help come?

² My help comes from Yahweh,
who made heaven and earth.

³ He will not allow your foot to slip;
he who protects you will not slumber.

⁴ See, the guardian of Israel
never slumbers or sleeps.

⁵ Yahweh is your guardian;
Yahweh is the shade at your right hand.

⁶ The sun will not harm you by day,
nor the moon by night.

⁷ Yahweh will protect you from all harm,
and he will protect your life.

⁸ Yahweh will protect you in all you do
now and forevermore.

Psalm 121 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 121 is a worship psalm.

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's protection

God always watches over those who believe in him and protects them from harm. (See: believe)

Links:

Psalms 121:1

Psalms 121:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A song of ascents

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

lift up my eyes

This expression means "look at" or "focus my attention on."

From where will my help come?

The writer uses this question to focus attention on the source of his help. This rhetorical question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "I will tell you from where my help comes."

Psalms 121:2

My help comes from Yahweh

This is the answer to the previous question.

Psalms 121:3

General Information:

There is a shift here to the second person. This may mean 1) the writer begins speaking to the people of Israel or 2) the writer is quoting another person speaking to the writer. your foot to slip

The slipping of a foot is associated with falling. Alternate translation: "you to fall"

he who protects you will not slumber

Here "slumber" is a metaphor for "stop protecting." The negative form strengthens the statement. Alternate translation: "he will always protect you"

he who protects you

God

Psalms 121:4

the guardian

God

See

This word alerts us to pay attention to the important information that follows.

never slumbers or sleeps

These two words mean the same thing. Here to "slumber" is a metaphor for "stop protecting." The negative form strengthens the statement. Alternate translation: "will not stop protecting you" or "will always protect you"

Psalms 121:5

Yahweh is the shade at your right hand

Here "shade" refers to protection. Alternate translation: "God is beside you to protect you from things that would hurt you"

at your right hand

Here this expression means to be beside or near to the writer.

Psalms 121:6

The sun will not harm you by day, nor the moon by night

The contrasting terms "day" and "night" refer to those extremes and everything in between. Alternate translation: "God protects you from the elements at all times"

nor the moon by night

It implies that "will not harm you" is implied here. The full meaning of this statement may be made clear.

Alternate translation: "nor will the moon harm you by night"

Psalms 121:7

your life

This refers to the writer. Alternate translation: "you"

Psalms 121:8

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Chapter 122

A song of ascents, of David.

¹ I was glad when they said to me,
"Let us go to the house of Yahweh."

² Jerusalem, our feet are standing within your gates!

³ Jerusalem, built as a city carefully planned!

⁴ The tribes go up to Jerusalem—the tribes of Yah—¹
as a testimony for Israel, to give thanks to the name of Yahweh.

⁵ There thrones of judgment were set, thrones of the house of David.

⁶ Pray for the peace of Jerusalem!

"May those who love you be at ease.

⁷ May there be peace within the walls that defend you,
and may they have peace within your fortresses."

⁸ For the sake of my brothers and my friends
I will say, "May there be peace within you."

⁹ For the sake of the house of Yahweh our God,
I will seek good for you.

Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

Psalm 122 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 122 is a psalm about Jerusalem.

Special concepts in this chapter

Jerusalem

Jerusalem is an important city, the center of government and religious activities; so the author prays for peace for the city.

Links:

Psalms 122:1

Psalms 122:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A song of ascents, of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

A song of ascents

Possible meanings are 1) "song people sang while going up to Jerusalem for a celebration" or 2) "song people sang while going up the steps into the temple" or 3) "song whose words are like steps." See how you translated this in Psalms 120:1

Psalms 122:2

Jerusalem, our feet are standing within your gates!

The writer briefly stops speaking to his audience and speaks directly to the city of Jerusalem. Jerusalem is spoken to as if it was a person who could hear the writer.

our feet are standing

Here "feet" refers to the whole person. Alternate translation: "we are standing"

within your gates

Here "gates" refers to the city. Alternate translation: "inside you, Jerusalem"

Psalms 122:3

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 122:4

the name of Yahweh

Here "name" refers to Yahweh himself. Alternate translation: "Yahweh"

Psalms 122:5

the house of David

Here "house" refers to the descendants of David. Alternate translation: "the descendants of David"

Psalms 122:6

May those who love you be at ease

This section states the content of the prayer that the writer wants his audience to pray. He asks them to speak directly to the city of Jerusalem, as if the city were a person who could hear them.

Psalms 122:7

Connecting Statement:

This verse finishes the prayer that the writer wants his audience to pray. He asks them to speak directly to the city of Jerusalem, as if the city was a person who could hear them.

May there be peace within ... may they have peace within

These two phrases have the same meanings and are used together to strengthen each other. Alternate translation:

"May the people in Jerusalem live in peace" within the walls that defend you ... within your fortresses

Here Jerusalem is referred to by the fortress walls that protects it. The terms "walls" and "fortress" refer to the same thing. Alternate translation: "within Jerusalem"

Psalms 122:8

General Information:

In this section, the writer speaks directly to the city of Jerusalem, as if the city was a person who could hear them.

For the sake

"For the well-being"

May there be peace within you

"May the people in you live in peace"

Psalms 122:9

I will seek good for you

The abstract noun "good" can be stated as an action.

Alternate translation: "I will pray that people treat you well"

Chapter 123

A song of ascents.

- 1

To you I lift up my eyes, you who are enthroned in the heavens.
- 2

See, as the eyes of servants look to their master's hand, as the eyes of a servant girl look to the hand of her mistress, so our eyes look to Yahweh our God until he has mercy on us.
- 3

Have mercy on us, Yahweh, have mercy on us, for we are filled with humiliation.
- 4

We are more than full
of the scoffing of the insolent and with the contempt of the proud.

Psalm 123 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 123 is a psalm asking for deliverance from the contempt of proud people. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Trust

Just as a servant trusts his master to protect him, so the author is trusting God to stop proud people from insulting him. (See: trust)

Links:

Psalms 123:1

Psalms 123:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A song of ascents

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

I lift up my eyes

Here the author refers to his eyes because that is the part of the body used for seeing. Alternate translation: "I look to you"

enthroned

sitting on a throne and ruling as king

Psalms 123:2

as the eyes of servants ... as the eyes of a servant girl ... so our eyes look

These three phrases have similar meanings. The third phrase, about the Israelites, is being compared to how the servants and maids look to their masters and mistresses for help. In each case "eyes" refers to the whole person.

master's hand ... hand of her mistress

Here "hand" refers to the provision for needs. Alternate translation: "master's provision ... provision of her mistress"

mistress

woman who has authority over servant girls

has mercy on us

The abstract noun "mercy" can be stated as an action.

Alternate translation: "act mercifully toward us"

Psalms 123:3

Have mercy on us

The abstract noun "mercy" can be stated as an action. See how you translated a similar phrase in [Psalms 123:2]

we are filled with humiliation

Here humiliation is spoken of as if it were something that could be fill up a person. "we are very disgraced"

Psalms 123:4

We are more than full

This idiom means that the amount is excessive, in a negative sense. Alternate translation: "We have had too much" of the scoffing ... and with the contempt

There two phrases have very similar meanings and are used together to emphasize how much they have been mocked by the people.

scoffing

"mocking" or "insults"

the insolent

This refers to the insolent people. Alternate translation:
"rude and arrogant people"
the proud

This refers to the proud people. Alternate translation: "the people who are proud"

Chapter 124

A song of ascents. Of David.

- ¹ "If Yahweh had not been on our side,"
let Israel say now,
- ² "if it had not been Yahweh who was on our side
when men rose up against us,
- ³ then they would have swallowed us up alive
when their anger raged against us.
- ⁴ The water would have swept us away;
the torrent would have overwhelmed us.
- ⁵ Then the raging waters would have drowned us."
- ⁶ Blessed be Yahweh,
who has not allowed us to be torn by their teeth.
- ⁷ We have escaped like a bird out of the snare of the fowlers;
the snare has been broken,
and we have escaped.
- ⁸ Our help is in the name of Yahweh,
who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 124 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 124 is a psalm of praise for God's delivering the Israelites from their enemy's attack. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh saves

God saved the Israelites from their enemy who wanted to completely destroy them. (See: save)

Links:

Psalms 124:1

Psalms 124:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A song of ascents. Of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

song of ascents

Possible meanings are 1) "song people sang while going up to Jerusalem for a celebration" or 2) "song people sang while going up the steps into the temple" or 3) "song whose words are like steps." See how you translated this in Psalms 120:1

If Yahweh had not been on our side

This is the beginning of a statement about what could have happened but did not. Yahweh really was on their side.

Psalms 124:2

if it had not been Yahweh who was on our side

This is the continuation of a statement about something that did not actually happen.

Psalms 124:3

then they would have swallowed us up alive

This is the end of a statement that begins with the words "If Yahweh had not been on our side" in [Psalms 124:1] swallowed us up alive

This metaphor describes how the enemies could have attacked and killed the Israelites to how a fierce animal attacks a smaller animal and eats it. Alternate translation: "killed us all"

their anger raged against us

Here "their anger" refers to the enemies who were angry.

Alternate translation: "they were very angry with us"

Psalms 124:4

General Information:

In these two verses the author compares the enemies of Israel to a flood of water.

The water would have swept us away; the torrent would have overwhelmed us

This is another result of the situation described in [Psalms 124:1]

The water would have swept us away

Here the enemies of the writer are spoken of as if they were a flood of water. Alternate translation: "Our enemies would have easily defeated us"

the torrent would have overwhelmed us

Here the enemies of the writer are spoken of as if they were a flood of water that would have drowned the Israelites.

Alternate translation: "our enemies would have overwhelmed us"

Psalms 124:5

Then the raging waters would have drowned us

This is another result of the situation described in [Psalms 124:1]

the raging waters would have drowned us

Here the enemies of the writer are spoken of as if they were a raging river that would have drowned the Israelites.

Alternate translation: "our enemies would have destroyed us"

Psalms 124:6

torn by their teeth

The enemies are spoken of as if they were wild animals that would destroy the Israelites by eating them. Alternate translation: "destroyed as if we were eaten by wild animals"

Psalms 124:7

escaped like a bird out of the snare of the fowlers

The writer describes his escape from the enemies as if he was a bird that had escaped from the snare of the hunters.

Alternate translation: "escaped from our enemies as a bird escapes from the trap that hunters have set"

snare

a small trap of string or wire made for catching small animals or birds

the snare has been broken

The plot of the enemies to catch the writer failed as if it was a snare that had broken.

Psalms 124:8

the name of Yahweh

The word "name" here is a metonym for the power and authority of the person or for the person himself. Alternate translation: "the power and authority of Yahweh" "Yahweh himself"

Chapter 125

A song of ascents.

¹ Those who trust in Yahweh are like Mount Zion, unshakable, forever enduring.

² As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so Yahweh surrounds his people
now and forever.

³ The scepter of wickedness must not rule in the assigned portion of the righteous.
Otherwise the righteous might do what is wrong.

⁴ Do good, Yahweh, to those who are good and to those who are upright in their hearts.

⁵ But as for those who turn aside to their crooked ways,
Yahweh will lead them away with the those who behave wickedly.
May peace be on Israel.

Psalms 125 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalms 125 is a psalm of praise.

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's protection

God protects good people. He will not allow the evil people to rule over the good people because they might make them do evil. (See: good and evil)

Links:

Psalms 125:1

Psalms 125:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A song of ascents

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

Those who trust in Yahweh are like Mount Zion, unshakable, forever enduring

People who trust in Yahweh are spoken of as if they they were Mount Zion. Mountains are unable to be moved.

Psalms 125:2

As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so Yahweh surrounds his people Yahweh's protection is spoken of as if he was the mountains surrounding Jerusalem. Jerusalem was surrounded by several mountains, which protected it from attack.

Alternate translation: "As the hills that surround Jerusalem protect it, so Yahweh protects his people"

now and forever

Here, this phrase means "always."

Psalms 125:3

The scepter of wickedness

Here the scepter of wickedness represents the rule of wicked people. Alternate translation: "Wicked people" or "Wicked rulers"

the assigned portion

the land that Yahweh assigned to the people of Israel

Psalms 125:4

Do good, Yahweh

This is a request. Alternate translation: "Yahweh, please do good things" or "Yahweh, I beg you to do good things" are upright in their hearts

Here, "hearts" refers to their desires. Alternate translation: "desire to do the right"

Psalms 125:5

turn aside

Refusing to obey Yahweh is spoken of as turning away from a good path. Alternate translation: "leave good and go" their crooked ways

Here wicked ways are spoken of as if they were a path that is not straight. Alternate translation: "their wicked ways"

lead them away

People are lead away in order to punish them. The full meaning of this statement can be made clear. Alternate translation: "lead them away to punish them"

Chapter 126

A song of ascents.

¹ When Yahweh reversed the captivity of Zion, we were like those who dream.

² Then our mouths were filled with laughter and our tongues with joyful shouting.
Then they said among the nations,
"Yahweh has done great things for them."

³ Yahweh did great things for us;
how glad we were!

⁴ Reverse our captivity, Yahweh, like the streams in the Negev.

⁵ Those who sow in tears will reap with shouts of joy.

⁶ He who goes out weeping, carrying seed for sowing,
will return again with shouts of joy,
bringing his bundles of grain with him.

Psalm 126 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 126 is a psalm of praise for Yahweh bringing captives home.

Special concepts in this chapter

Sorrow and joy

People may have sorrow now; but later it will turn into joy. (See: joy)

Links:

Psalms 126:1

Psalms 126:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A song of ascents

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

reversed the captivity of Zion

This is an idiom that means that Yahweh restored Zion's good life. Alternate translation: "made Zion prosperous again"

Zion

This is a metonym for the people who lived in Zion.

Alternate translation: "the people of Zion"

Psalms 126:2

our mouths were filled with laughter

Laughing is spoken of as if their mouths were a container and their laughter was in it. It can be made clear that this laughter was a response to their joy. Alternate translation: "we laughed for joy" our tongues with joyful shouting

The verbs "were filled" can be stated clearly. Joyful shouting is spoken of as if their tongues were containers and joyful shouting was in them. Alternate translation: "our tongues were filled with joyful shouting" or "we shouted for joy"

they said among the nations

"the people of the nations said among themselves." The pronoun is used before introducing what it references. This is very unusual.

Psalms 126:3

Yahweh did great things for us; how glad we were!

"How glad we were, because Yahweh did these great things for us!"

Psalms 126:4

Reverse our captivity

This is an idiom for a request that Yahweh restore the speakers' good life. See how you translated similar words in [Psalm 126:1]

Psalms 126:5

Those who sow in tears

"Those who weep as they sow"

Psalms 126:6

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Chapter 127

A song of ascents, of Solomon.

¹ Unless Yahweh builds the house, they work uselessly, those who build it.
Unless Yahweh guards the city,
the watchman stands guard uselessly.

² It is useless for you to rise up early,
to come home late,
or to eat the bread of hard work,
for Yahweh provides for his beloved as they sleep.

³ See, children are a heritage from Yahweh, and the fruit of the womb is a reward from him.

⁴ Like arrows in the hand of a warrior, so are the children of one's youth.

⁵ How blessed is the man that has his quiver full of them.

He will not be put to shame
when he confronts his enemies in the gate.

Psalm 127 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 127 is a wisdom psalm. (See: wise)

Special concepts in this chapter

Blessings

God wants his people to have rest. It is a blessing to have many children. (See: rest and bless)

Links:

Psalms 127:1

Psalms 127:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A song of ascents, of Solomon

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

song of ascents

Possible meanings are 1) "song people sang while going up to Jerusalem for a celebration" or 2) "song people sang while going up the steps into the temple" or 3) "song whose words are like steps." See how you translated this in Psalms 120:1

Psalms 127:2

to rise up early, to come home late

A person who works hard often has to wake up earlier in the morning and return home late at night.

eat the bread of hard work

This is an idiom. Bread often represents the food a person needs every day in order to live. Alternate translation:

"work hard for your daily needs"

Psalms 127:3

heritage

property that a person can inherit from his ancestors. Children normally receive an inheritance from their parents. Inheritance goes from parents to children. This passage uses parents inheriting children from Yahweh as a metaphor for Yahweh being the only one who can give children.

Psalms 127:4

Like arrows in the hand of a warrior, so are the children of one's youth. Arrows are very important to a warrior because they protect him in battle. Children are spoken of as if they are a warrior's arrow. Alternate translation: "Having many children will help to protect you"

Psalms 127:5

his quiver full of them

A quiver is a container for arrows. Having many children is spoken of as if the children were arrows in a quiver.

Alternate translation: "a home full of children" or "many children"

Chapter 128

A song of ascents.

¹ Blessed is everyone who honors Yahweh,
who walks in his ways.

² The labor of your hands you will enjoy;
you will be blessed and prosper.

³ Your wife will be like a fruitful vine
in your house;
your children will be like olive plants
as they sit around your table.

⁴ Yes, indeed, the man will be blessed who honors Yahweh.

⁵ May Yahweh bless you from Zion;

may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem
all the days of your life.

- ⁶ May you live to see your children's children.
May peace be on Israel.

Psalm 128 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 128 is a wisdom psalm. (See: wise)

Special concepts in this chapter

Respect

Those people who respect God will live well and have many children. (See: life)

Links:

Psalms 128:1

Psalms 128:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A song of ascents

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

Blessed is everyone who honors Yahweh

This phrase occurs in the passive voice to avoid implying that Yahweh is obligated to bless those who honor him. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Yahweh will bless everyone who honors him"

who walks in his ways

Walking here represents behaving. The phrase "his ways" represents what Yahweh wants people to do. Alternative translation: "who behaves the way Yahweh wants people to behave" or "who does what Yahweh commands"

Psalms 128:2

The labor of your hands

This phrase is a metonym for the food that the labor of the hands produces. Alternate translation: "The food that you work hard to produce"

you will be blessed and prosper

The words "be blessed" and "prosper" share similar meanings and emphasize God's favor. Alternate translation: "Yahweh will bless you and prosper you" or "Yahweh will make you blessed and prosperous"

Psalms 128:3

like a fruitful vine in your house

The wife is spoke of as a vine producing a lot of fruit. This implies that children are like fruit and the wife will have many children. Alternate translation: "very productive and give you many children"

your children will be like olive plants

Children are compared to olive plants because of the way they grow to surround something. Children will surround the table and make it full. Alternate translation: "you will have many children who will grow and prosper"

around your table

This refers to the place where a family gathers to eat. Often, all those who eat a man's table are under his authority or control.

Psalms 128:4

the man will be blessed who honors Yahweh

This can be stated as an active verb. "Yahweh will bless the man who honors him"

Psalms 128:5

all the days of your life

"throughout your lifetime"

Psalms 128:6

May peace be on Israel

"May Israel have peace"

Chapter 129

A song of ascents.

- ¹ "Often since my youth they have attacked me,"
let Israel say.

- ² "Often since my youth they have attacked me,
yet they have not defeated me.

- ³ The plowers plowed on my back;
they made their furrows long.

- ⁴ Yahweh is righteous;

he has cut off the ropes of the wicked."

⁵ May they all be put to shame and turned back, those who hate Zion.

⁶ May they be like the grass on the housetops that withers before it grows up,

⁷ that cannot fill the reaper's hand or the chest of the one who binds bundles of grain together.

⁸ May those who pass by not say,
"May the blessing of Yahweh be on you;
we bless you in the name of Yahweh."

Psalm 129 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 129 is a psalm of deliverance from Israel's many enemies. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh saves

Israel's enemies have always persecuted them but God has saved them from their enemies. He prays that this enemy will be destroyed with no one to wish them well. (See: save)

Links:

Psalms 129:1

Psalms 129:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A song of ascents

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

Psalms 129:2

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 129:3

The plowers plowed on my back

The cuts from a whipping are spoken of as the plow of a plowman. A farmer plowed deep lines into a field.

Alternate translation: "My enemies have cut me deeply on my back"

they made their furrows long

This is a continuation of the plowing metaphor. The "furrow" is the line the farmer plowed. Alternate translation: "they made their cuts long"

Psalms 129:4

he has cut off the ropes of the wicked

Israel is spoken of as being bound by evil people. Alternate translation: "he has freed us from our enemies"

Psalms 129:5

May they all be put to shame and turned back

Yahweh is not explicitly mentioned as the one who does these things. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "May Yahweh shame them and defeat them"

Psalms 129:6

May they be like the grass on the housetops that withers before it grows up

The psalmist speaks of his enemies dying and being few in number. He compares them to the little bit of grass that grows on the roof of a house and withers and is not enough to cut or bundle. Alternate translation: "May they die and may there be few of them"

Psalms 129:7

that cannot fill ... together

These words finish the simile that begins in

Psalms 129:8

the blessing of Yahweh be on you

"Yahweh bless you"

Chapter 130

A song of ascents.

¹ Out of the depths I cry to you, Yahweh.

² Lord, hear my voice;
let your ears be attentive

to my pleas for mercy.

³ If you, Yah, would mark iniquities,
Lord, who could stand? ¹

⁴ But there is forgiveness with you, that you may be revered.

⁵ I wait for Yahweh, my soul waits, and in his word I hope.

⁶ My soul waits for the Lord more than watchmen wait for the morning.

⁷ Israel, hope in Yahweh.
Yahweh is merciful,
and with him is great redemption.

⁸ It is he who will redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

¹Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

Psalm 130 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 130 is a psalm of praise that God forgives sins. (See: forgive and sin)

Special concepts in this chapter

Forgive

God forgives sin and helps the sinner. So Israel should trust in God for his forgiveness. (See: trust)

Links:

Psalms 130:1

Psalms 130:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A song of ascents

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

Out of the depths I

The author's sadness is spoken of as if it were a container. His sadness comes from the bottom of the container.

Sadness is often spoken of as being a container that fills from the top to the bottom. Alternate translation: "Because I am very sad, I"

Psalms 130:2

let your ears be attentive

The ears represent Yahweh, but because the author knows that Yahweh hears everything, he is really asking for Yahweh to respond. Alternate translation: "please listen" or "please respond"

to my pleas for mercy

The abstract noun "mercy" can be stated as "merciful."

Alternate translation: "to my pleas and be merciful to me"

Psalms 130:3

who could stand?

The speaker uses this question to express the futility of thinking that anyone could stand in this situation. This rhetorical question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "no one could stand."

who could stand

"Stand" often represents escaping or surviving when someone attacks. In this case, it would be to escape from being being punished. Alternate translation: "no one could escape from your punishment" or "no one could survive your punishment"

Psalms 130:4

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 130:5

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 130:6

My soul

"My soul" represents the psalmist. Alternate translation: "I"

My soul waits

The psalmist is spoken of as if he were waiting on something with expectation. Alternate translation: "I hope" or "I trust" or "I desire for something"

My soul waits ... more than watchmen wait for the morning

The psalmist speaks of his desire for the Lord to help him as being greater than the desire that those who work all night have for the morning to come.

watchmen

These are men who guard towns or fields against enemies or robbers. Here it refers to men who have to stay awake at night doing this.

Psalms 130:7

Israel, hope in Yahweh

The people of Israel are spoken of as if they were a man.

Alternate translation: "You people of Israel, hope in Yahweh" with him is great redemption

The abstract noun "redemption" here refers to forgiveness, and it can be translated as a verb. Alternate translation: "he is very willing to redeem" or "he is very willing to forgive"

Psalms 130:8

who will redeem Israel from all his iniquities

The people of Israel are spoken of as if they were a man.

Alternate translation: "who will redeem the people of Israel from all their iniquities"

Chapter 131

A song of ascents; of David.

¹ Yahweh, my heart is not proud or my eyes haughty.
I do not have great hopes for myself
or concern myself with things that are beyond me.

² Indeed I have stilled and quieted my soul;
like a weaned child with his mother,
my soul within me is like a weaned child.

³ Israel, hope in Yahweh
now and forever.

Psalm 131 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 131 is a wisdom psalm teaching trust in Yahweh. (See: wise and trust)

Special concepts in this chapter

Trust

This psalm focuses on the concept of trust. A quiet trust in Yahweh is best.

Links:

Psalms 131:1

Psalms 131:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A song of ascents; of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

song of ascents

Possible meanings are 1) "song people sang while going up to Jerusalem for a celebration" or 2) "song people sang while going up the steps into the temple" or 3) "song whose

words are like steps." See how you translated this in Psalms 120:1

my heart is not proud or my eyes haughty

The heart and the eyes represent the person. Alternate translation: "I am not proud or haughty"

I do not have great hopes for myself

Possible meanings are "I do not expect to do great things" or "I do not think I am great."

things that are beyond me

Things that are too hard for a person to understand are spoken of as if they are beyond the person or too far away from the person to be able to reach them. Alternate translation: "things that are too hard to understand"

Psalms 131:2

I have stilled and quieted my soul

The soul represents the person or his emotions. Being calm and peaceful is spoken of as having making one's soul still and quiet. Alternate translation: "I am calm and peaceful" my soul within me

The soul represents the person or his emotions. Alternate translation: "I" a weaned child with his mother

The psalmist speaks of himself being content and resting as if he were a young child that no longer demands breast milk from his mother. Alternate translation: "content like a young child that no longer cries for breast milk but rests in his mother's arms" or "content and resting"

Psalms 131:3

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Chapter 132

A song of ascents.

¹ Yahweh, for David's sake call to mind
all his afflictions.

² Call to mind how he swore to Yahweh, how he vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob.

³ He said, "I will not enter the tent of my house or get on the couch of my bed,

⁴ I will not give sleep to my eyes or rest to my eyelids

⁵ until I find a place for Yahweh, a tabernacle for the Mighty One of Jacob."

⁶ See, we heard about it in Ephrathah;
we found it in the fields of Jaar.

⁷ We will go into God's tabernacle;
we will worship at his footstool.

⁸ Arise, Yahweh, to your resting place,
you and the ark of your strength!

⁹ May your priests be clothed with integrity;
may your faithful ones shout for joy.

¹⁰ For your servant David's sake,
do not turn away from your anointed king.

¹¹ Yahweh swore a sure oath to David,
a sure oath that he will not revoke:
"I will place one of your descendants on your throne.

¹² If your sons keep my covenant and the solemn commands that I will teach them, their children also will sit on your throne forevermore."

- ¹³ Certainly Yahweh has chosen Zion,
he has desired her for his seat.
- ¹⁴ "This is my resting place forever.
I will live here, for I desire her.
- ¹⁵ I will abundantly bless her with provisions.
I will satisfy her poor with bread.
- ¹⁶ I will clothe her priests with salvation,
her faithful ones will shout aloud for joy.
- ¹⁷ There I will make a horn to sprout for David and set up a lamp for my anointed one.
- ¹⁸ I will clothe his enemies with shame, but on him his crown will shine."

Psalm 132 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 132 is a royal psalm praising David. It might have been sung when David brought the ark to Jerusalem.

Special concepts in this chapter

Ark

The Ark had been moved from one place to another several times. David wanted to make a permanent home for it. God had promised David that his son would be king after him. (See: promise)

Links:

Psalms 132:1

Psalms 132:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A song of ascents

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

for David's sake

"because of what happened to David"

call to mind

"remember" or "think about"

Psalms 132:2

the Mighty One of Jacob

This refers to God.

Psalms 132:3

He said

"King David said"

the tent of my house or ... the couch of my bed,

Possible meanings are 1) these are two ways of saying the same thing. Alternate translation: "my tent—that is, my house—or ... my couch—that is, my bed—" or "my house or ... my bed." Or 2) These are metonyms for the comfort that David enjoyed in his house and bed. Alternate translation: "the comfort of my own house or ... my comfortable bed."

Psalms 132:4

I will not give sleep to my eyes or rest to my eyelids

Sleep and rest are spoken of as if they are things that can be given. Here eyes and eyelids represent the whole person.

Alternate translation: "I will not allow my eyes to sleep or my eyelids to rest" or "I will not sleep or close my eyes and rest"

Psalms 132:5

until I find a place for Yahweh

Building a place for Yahweh is spoken of as finding a place for him. Alternate translation: "until I build a place for Yahweh"

the Mighty One of Jacob

This refers to God.

Psalms 132:6

we heard about it in Ephrathah

The word "it" probably refers to where God's sacred chest was. The phrase "in Ephrathah" probably refers to where they were when they heard about it. This can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "we who were in Ephrathah heard about where the sacred chest was" or "we in Ephrathah heard that the holy box was in Jaar"

fields of Jaar

Jaar is probably another name for the city of Kiriath Jearim. This probably refers to the fields surrounding the city.

Psalms 132:7

we will worship at his footstool

Worshiping God at the covenant box is spoken of as bowing at the feet of the king who is sitting on his throne. This communicates humility and submission to God. Alternate translation: "we will go to God's covenant box and worship him as king"

Psalms 132:8

Arise, Yahweh, to your resting place

The verb "come" can be stated clearly. "Arise, Yahweh, and come to your resting place" your resting place

The place God chose for people to worship him is spoken of as if it were a place where he rests or lives eternally.

Alternate translation: "the place where you stay" or "your tabernacle"

you and the ark of your strength!

Possible meanings are 1) "come to the ark of your strength" or 2) "come, and make the ark of your strength come."

the ark of your strength

"the ark that shows your great power"

Psalms 132:9

May your priests be clothed with integrity

Integrity is spoken of as if it were clothing. Alternate translation: "May people recognize that your priests have integrity" or "I want people see how your priests always do what is right"

Psalms 132:10

For your servant David's sake

"Because of what happened to your servant David." See how you translated a similar phrase in Psalms 132:1.

do not turn away from your anointed king

Here "turning away" means to reject someone. Alternate translation: "do not abandon the king that you anointed"

Psalms 132:11

I will place one of your descendants on your throne

Making a king's descendant become king in his place is spoken of as placing him on that king's throne. Alternate translation: "I will cause one of your descendants to rule Israel in your place"

Psalms 132:12

sit on your throne

Ruling as king is spoken of as sitting on the throne.

Alternate translation: "rule as king"

your sons

Here "your sons" represents the descendants of David that would become king. Alternate translation: "your descendants"

Psalms 132:13

General Information:

"He", "my" and "I" refer to Yahweh and "her" refers to Zion.

Zion ... her

The author writes as though the city of Zion were a woman. he has desired her for his seat

"Yahweh has desired Zion for Yahweh's seat." Here "seat" represents either 1) his throne where he would rule, or 2) the place where he would stay.

Psalms 132:14

her

The author writes as though the city of Zion

my resting place

The place God chose for people to worship him is spoken of as if it were a place where he rests or lives eternally.

Alternate translation: "the place where I stay" or "my tabernacle"

Psalms 132:15

Connecting Statement:

God continues to speak about the city of Zion as if Zion was a woman.

will abundantly bless her

"will abundantly bless Zion"

will satisfy her poor with bread

Here "poor" refers to the poor people in Zion and "bread" probably represents food in general. Alternate translation:

"will satisfy the poor people in Zion with food"

Psalms 132:16

I will clothe her priests with salvation

Salvation is spoken of as if it is clothing. Possible meanings are 1) "I will cause the priests to behave in a manner worthy of ones whom I have saved" or 2) "I will save her priests"

Psalms 132:17

I will make a horn to sprout for David

God speaks of a powerful descendant of David as if he was the powerful horn of an animal. Alternate translation: "I will make a descendant of David become king after him" or "I will cause David to have a descendant who will be a powerful king" set up a lamp for my anointed one

God speaks of causing David's descendants to continue to rule as king as if they were a lamp that would continue to shine. Alternate translation: "I will cause my anointed one's descendants to continue to rule as king"

my anointed one

"my chosen king" or "the king I have chosen"

Psalms 132:18

I will clothe his enemies with shame

Shame is spoken of as if it was clothing. This shame would result from losing in war. Alternate translation: "I will cause his enemies to be ashamed" or "I will cause his enemies to be defeated and ashamed"

his crown will shine

The crown represents his rule, and greatness is spoken of as shining. Alternate translation: "he will be a great king" or "his greatness will shine"

Chapter 133

A song of ascents. Of David.

¹ Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to live together!

² It is like fine oil on the head pouring down on the beard—

Aaron's beard,
and then it pours down on the collar of his robes.

- ³ It is like the dew of Hermon which falls on the mountains of Zion.
For there Yahweh commanded the blessing—life forevermore.

Psalm 133 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 133 is a wisdom psalm about harmony. (See: wise)

Special concepts in this chapter

Harmony

Harmony between relatives is refreshing and brings a blessings from God. (See: bless)

Links:

Psalms 133:1

Psalms 133:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A song of ascents. Of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

song of ascents

Possible meanings are 1) "song people sang while going up to Jerusalem for a celebration" or 2) "song people sang while going up the steps into the temple" or 3) "song whose words are like steps." See how you translated this in Psalms 120:1

Behold

This word is used to stress the importance of the statement that follows.

for brothers to live together

The relationships among fellow God's people is spoken of as if they were brothers. Alternate translation: "for God's people to live together peacefully as brothers"

Psalms 133:2

It is like fine oil on the head

The goodness of unity among God's people is spoken of as if it were like the fine oil that was poured on Aaron's head.

Alternate translation: "This unity is precious like the oil that was poured on Aaron's head"

Psalms 133:3

like the dew of Hermon

The goodness of unity among God's people is spoken of as if it were refreshing like dew. Alternate translation:

"refreshing like the dew of Hermon"

Hermon

This is a mountain in Israel that has snow on its peak year-round.

Chapter 134

A song of ascents.

- ¹ Come, bless Yahweh, all you servants of Yahweh, you who serve during the night in the house of Yahweh.

- ² Lift up your hands to the holy place and bless Yahweh.

- ³ May Yahweh bless you from Zion,
he who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 134 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 134 is a temple psalm. (See: temple)

Special concepts in this chapter

Watchmen

The watchmen who work at night should praise God. Then he will bless them. (See: bless)

Links:

Psalms 134:1

Psalms 134:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A song of ascents

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

all you servants of Yahweh

"all you who serve Yahweh"

Psalms 134:2

Lift up your hands

This is how people prayed or praised God.

to the holy place

Possible meanings are 1) "to the temple" or 2) "to the holy place in the temple."

Psalms 134:3

heaven and earth

The phrase "heaven and earth" here represents all things.

Alternate translation: "everything in heaven and earth"

Chapter 135

- ¹ Give praise to Yah! ¹
Praise the name of Yahweh.
Praise him, you servants of Yahweh,
- ² you who stand in the house of Yahweh,
in the courtyards of the house of our God.
- ³ Give praise to Yah, for he is good; ² sing praises to his name, for it is pleasant to do so.
- ⁴ For Yah has chosen Jacob for himself, ³
Israel as his own possession.
- ⁵ I know that Yahweh is great,
that our Lord is above all gods.
- ⁶ Whatever Yahweh desires, he does in heaven, on earth,
in the seas and all the ocean depths.
- ⁷ He brings the clouds from far away, making lightning bolts accompany the rain and bringing the wind out of his storehouse.
- ⁸ He killed the firstborn of Egypt,
both of man and animals.
- ⁹ He sent signs and wonders into your midst, Egypt, against Pharaoh and all his servants.
- ¹⁰ He attacked many nations and killed mighty kings,
- ¹¹ Sihon king of the Amorites and Og king of Bashan and all the kingdoms of Canaan.

¹² He gave us their land as an inheritance,
an inheritance to Israel his people.

¹³ Your name, Yahweh, endures forever;
your renown, Yahweh, endures throughout all generations.

¹⁴ For Yahweh defends his people and has compassion on his servants.

¹⁵ The nations' idols are silver and gold,
the work of men's hands.

¹⁶ Those idols have mouths, but they do not speak;
they have eyes, but they do not see;

¹⁷ they have ears, but they do not give ear, nor is there breath in their mouths.

¹⁸ Those who make them are like them,
as is everyone who trusts in them.

¹⁹ Descendants of Israel, bless Yahweh; descendants of Aaron, bless Yahweh.

²⁰ Descendants of Levi, bless Yahweh;
you who honor Yahweh, bless Yahweh.

²¹ Blessed be Yahweh in Zion,
he who lives in Jerusalem.
Give praise to Yah. ⁴

¹Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

²Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

³Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

⁴Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

Psalm 135 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 135 is a worship psalm focusing on worshiping God because his greatness.

Special concepts in this chapter

Praise

The people, priests and their helpers should praise God because he is so great. He defeated the Egyptians and led his people to the promise land. Idols have no power. (See: priest and promisedland)

Links:

Psalms 135:1

Psalms 135:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

Praise the name of Yahweh

Yahweh's name represents him. "Praise Yahweh" or "Praise him"

Psalms 135:2

stand in the house of Yahweh

This represents serving Yahweh in his temple.
 our God
 These words refer to Yahweh (Psalms 135:1).
 Psalms 135:3
 for it is pleasant to do so
 "because we get pleasure from praising his name"
 Psalms 135:4
 Yah has chosen Jacob
 "Jacob" here refers to his descendants, the people of Israel.
 Alternate translation: "Yah has chosen Jacob's descendants"
 Israel as his own possession
 The beginning of the sentence can be stated clearly.
 Alternate translation: "he has chosen Israel to be his own possession"
 Psalms 135:5
 that our Lord is above all gods
 "I know that our Lord is above all gods." Being greater than something is spoken of as being above it. Alternate translation: "that our Lord is greater than all gods"
 Psalms 135:6
 General Information:
 This page has intentionally been left blank.
 Psalms 135:7
 bringing the wind out of his storehouse
 A storehouse is a place where things are kept for future use. This imagery shows God's power to control the wind.
 Alternate translation: "causing the wind to blow by his power"
 Psalms 135:8
 General Information:
 This page has intentionally been left blank.
 Psalms 135:9
 signs and wonders
 These two words mean basically the same thing and refer to the miraculous troubles that God had caused in Egypt.
 into your midst, Egypt
 The psalmist speaks as if the people of Egypt were listening to him. Alternate translation: "among you people of Egypt" or "among the people of Egypt" against Pharaoh
 "to punish Pharaoh"
 Psalms 135:10
 General Information:
 This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 135:11
 Sihon ... Og
 These are the names of two men.
 Psalms 135:12
 He gave us their land as an inheritance
 God's gift of the land to the Israelites is spoken of as if it were inheritance from father to son. Alternate translation: "He gave us their land to have forever" or "He gave us their land to be ours forever"
 Psalms 135:13
 Your name
 His name here represents his fame or reputation. Alternate translation: "Your fame" or "Your reputation"
 Psalms 135:14
 General Information:
 This page has intentionally been left blank.
 Psalms 135:15
 General Information:
 This page has intentionally been left blank.
 Psalms 135:16
 General Information:
 This page has intentionally been left blank.
 Psalms 135:17
 General Information:
 This page has intentionally been left blank.
 Psalms 135:18
 Those who make them are like them
 Being ignorant and powerless is spoken of as being like idols, which cannot speak, see, hear, or breathe. Alternate translation: "Those who make them are stupid and powerless like their idols"
 as is everyone who trusts in them
 "and so are those who trust in the idols"
 Psalms 135:19
 General Information:
 This page has intentionally been left blank.
 Psalms 135:20
 General Information:
 This page has intentionally been left blank.
 Psalms 135:21
 he who lives in Jerusalem
 God is spoken of as if he lived in Jerusalem because the temple where the Israelites worshiped him was there.
 Alternate translation: "he whose temple is in Jerusalem"

Chapter 136

- ¹ Give thanks to Yahweh, for he is good.
 (His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)
- ² Give thanks to the God of gods.
 (His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)
- ³ Give thanks to the Lord of lords;
 (His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)
- ⁴ to him who alone does great wonders;

(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)

⁵ to him who by wisdom made the heavens;
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)

⁶ to him who spread out the earth above the waters;
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)

⁷ to him who made great lights;
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)

⁸ to him who gave the sun to rule by day,
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)

⁹ the moon and stars to rule by night;
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)

¹⁰ to him who killed the firstborn of Egypt
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)

¹¹ and brought out Israel from among them
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)

¹² with a strong hand and a raised arm;
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)

¹³ to him who divided the Sea of Reeds
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)

¹⁴ and made Israel to pass through the middle of it,
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)

¹⁵ but overthrew Pharaoh and his army in the Sea of Reeds;
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)

¹⁶ to him who led his people through the wilderness;
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)

¹⁷ to him who killed great kings;
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)

¹⁸ to him who killed majestic kings,
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)

¹⁹ Sihon king of the Amorites
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)

²⁰ and Og king of Bashan;
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)

²¹ to him who gave their land as an inheritance,
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)

²² an inheritance to Israel his servant;

(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)

²³ to him who called us to mind and helped us in our humiliation;
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)

²⁴ to him who has rescued us from our enemies,
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)

²⁵ who gives food to all living beings.
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)

²⁶ Give thanks to the God of heaven.
(His covenant faithfulness endures forever.)

Psalm 136 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 136 is a worship psalm. It was written to be sung by two parts of the choir. One part would sing the first part of each of the lines and then the other part of the choir would sing the repeated refrain.

Special concepts in this chapter

Israel blessed

God has blessed Israel throughout its history and taken care of the needy people. (See: bless)

Links:

Psalms 136:1

Psalms 136:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

His covenant faithfulness endures forever

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "He remains faithful to his covenant forever"

Psalms 136:2

the God of gods

the God who is greater than the gods that other people worship

Psalms 136:3

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 136:4

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 136:5

by wisdom

That is, because he is wise.

Psalms 136:6

spread out the earth above the waters

The ancient Israelites thought that the earth's dry land was on top of the sea. Alternate translation: "placed the earth over the waters"

Psalms 136:7

great lights

This is a reference to the sources of light for the earth, especially the sun and the moon. Alternate translation: "the sun and the moon and the stars"

Psalms 136:8

to rule by day

The sun is spoken of as if it were a king. Alternate translation: "to mark the time of day"

His covenant faithfulness endures forever

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. See how you translated this in [Psalms 136:1]

Psalms 136:9

to rule by night

The moon, and stars are spoken of as if they were kings.

Alternate translation: "to mark the time of night"

Psalms 136:10

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 136:11

from among them

"from among the people of Egypt"

Psalms 136:12

with a strong hand and a raised arm

Here "hand" and "arm" represent power. Alternate translation: "with great power"

Psalms 136:13

the Sea of Reeds

The soldiers of Pharaoh drowned in the Sea of Reeds.

Psalms 136:14

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 136:15

overthrew Pharaoh

Here defeat is spoken of as if it were tipping someone over.

Chapter 137

Alternate translation: "defeated Pharaoh" or "defeated the king of Egypt"

Psalms 136:16

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 136:17

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 136:18

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 136:19

Sihon

a man's name

Psalms 136:20

Og

a man's name

Psalms 136:21

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 136:22

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 136:23

called us to mind

"thought about us"

helped us in our humiliation

The condition of feeling shame is spoken of as if it were a place that the Israelites had been in. This is a reference to the many times when the Israelites' enemies had defeated them in battle and shamed them. Alternate translation:

"cared when we were shamed"

Psalms 136:24

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 136:25

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 136:26

the God of heaven

"the God who lives in heaven" or "the God whom the heavenly beings worship"

Chapter 137

- ¹ By the rivers of Babylon
we sat down and wept
when we thought about Zion.
- ² There on the poplars in the midst of it
we hung our harps.
- ³ There our captors required songs from us,
and those who mocked us required joy from us, saying,
"Sing us one of the songs of Zion."
- ⁴ How could we sing a song about Yahweh in a foreign land?
- ⁵ If I ignore the memory of you, Jerusalem,
let my right hand forget her skill.
- ⁶ Let my tongue cling to the roof of my mouth
if I think about you no more,
if I do not prefer Jerusalem more than my greatest delights.
- ⁷ Call to mind, Yahweh, what the Edomites did on the day Jerusalem fell.
They said, "Tear it down, tear it down to its foundations."
- ⁸ Daughter of Babylon, soon to be destroyed—may the person be blessed, whoever pays you back for what you have done to us.

- ⁹ May the person be blessed,
whoever takes and dashes your little ones against a rock.

Psalm 137 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 137 is a psalm of mourning and vengeance. (See: avenge)

Special concepts in this chapter

Songs of Zion

The captives are told to sing songs of Zion there in Babylon but they felt too unhappy to want to sing. The army from Babylon was cruel when it destroyed Jerusalem and the people of Edom encouraged them to destroy Jerusalem. They prayed that God will be cruel to the people of Edom and Babylon.

Links:

Psalms 137:1

Psalms 137:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

By the rivers of Babylon

"Next to one of the rivers near Babylon"

we sat ... wept ... we thought

The writer does not include the readers.

Psalms 137:2

we hung

The writer does not include the readers.

There on the poplars

Poplar trees do not grow in Israel. "Poplars" may here stand for all the trees in Babylon. Alternate translation: "On the trees in Babylon"

Psalms 137:3

our captors required songs from us

"our captors required us to sing"

required joy from us

"made us pretend to be happy"

one of the songs of Zion

This probably refers to songs that the Israelites had used in worship at the temple in Jerusalem.

Psalms 137:4

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 137:5

If I ignore the memory of you, Jerusalem

The writer speaks as if Jerusalem is listening to him.

Alternate translation: "If I act as if I did not remember you, Jerusalem" or "If I try to forget you, Jerusalem"

right hand

the hand most people use most often

Psalms 137:6

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 137:7

Call to mind

"Remember" or "Think about"

Call to mind, Yahweh, what the Edomites did

Here remembering what the Edomites did represents punishing them for what they did. Alternate translation:

"Punish the Edomites, Yahweh, for what they did"

the day Jerusalem fell

Jerusalem being captured by an enemy army is spoken of as if it had fallen. Who captured Jerusalem can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "the day Jerusalem was captured" or "the day the Babylonian army entered Jerusalem"

Psalms 137:8

General Information:

The psalmist addresses the people of Babylon as if they were there listening to him.

Daughter of Babylon

This represents the city of Babylon and its people.

may the person be blessed

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"may God bless the person"

pays you back for what you have done to us

The writer speaks of someone doing to others what they have done as if were payment. Alternate translation: "does to you what you did to us"

Psalms 137:9

dashes your little ones against a rock

"smashes your babies' heads against rocks"

Chapter 138

A psalm of David.

- ¹ I will give you thanks with my whole heart;
before the gods I will sing praises to you.

- ² I will bow down toward your holy temple and give thanks to your name
for your covenant faithfulness and for your trustworthiness.

You have made your word and your name more important than anything else.

³ On the day that I called you, you answered me;
you made me bold and strengthened my soul.

⁴ All the kings of the earth will give you thanks, Yahweh, for they will hear the words from your mouth.

⁵ Indeed, they will sing of the deeds of Yahweh, for great is the glory of Yahweh.

⁶ For though Yahweh is high, yet he cares for the lowly,
but the proud he knows from far off.

⁷ Though I walk in the middle of trouble,
you will preserve my life;
you will reach out with your hand against the anger of my enemies,
and your right hand will save me.

⁸ Yahweh is with me to the end;
your covenant faithfulness, Yahweh, endures forever.
Do not abandon the works of your hands.

Psalm 138 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm is a psalm of praise.

Special concepts in this chapter

Answered prayers

God answers prayers and he protects the psalmist from his enemies.

Links:

Psalms 138:1

Psalms 138:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

I will give you thanks with my whole heart

The heart here represents the emotions. Doing something sincerely or completely is spoken of as doing it with all one's heart. Alternate translation: "I will sincerely thank you"

before the gods

Possible meanings are 1) "in spite of the false idols that exist" or 2) "before the heavenly assembly," which means "in the knowledge of the angels in heaven."

Psalms 138:2

I will bow down

Bowing down is a symbolic action that represents worship and giving honor. Alternate translation: "I will worship you"

give thanks to your name

Here the word "name" represents Yahweh himself.

Alternate translation: "give thanks to you"

for your covenant faithfulness and for your trustworthiness

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. The abstract noun "trustworthiness" can be translated with a verbal phrase. Alternate translation: "because you are faithful to your covenant and you are worthy of people trusting you"

your word

"what you have said" or "your commands and promises"

your name

Possible meanings are 1) "yourself" or 2) "your fame."

Psalms 138:3

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 138:4

your mouth

This expression stands for God himself. Alternate translation: "you"

Psalms 138:5

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 138:6

Yahweh is high, yet he cares for the lowly

Yahweh is above all creation in power, position, and authority. Yet his interest is in those who are humble in spirit, servants to all. This is a simple contrast.

the proud he knows from far off

This expression probably means that God is not faithful to those who are proud.

Psalms 138:7

walk

live, exist

in the middle of trouble

Being in danger is spoken of as being in a physical place.

you will reach out with your hand against the anger of my enemies

God is spoken of as if he will strike the enemies with his hand.

anger of my enemies

The abstract noun "anger" can be stated as "angry."

Alternate translation: "my enemies, who are angry"

Psalms 138:8

your covenant faithfulness, Yahweh, endures forever

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "you, Yahweh, remain faithful to your covenant forever"

the works of your hands

This expression probably refers to the people of Israel. God is spoken of as if he had physically used hands to create them. Alternate translation: "the people you have created"

Chapter 139

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

¹ Yahweh, you have examined me,
and you know me.

² You know when I sit down and when I get up;
you understand my thoughts from far away.

³ You observe my path and my lying down;
you are familiar with all my ways.

⁴ For before there is a word on my tongue,
you know it completely, Yahweh.

⁵ Behind me and before me you surround me and place your hand upon me.

⁶ Such knowledge is incomprehensible to me;
it is too high, and I cannot reach it.

⁷ Where can I go from your Spirit?
Where can I flee from your presence?

⁸ If I ascend up to the heavens, you are there;
if I make my bed in Sheol, behold, you are there.

⁹ If I fly away on the wings of the dawn and go to live in the uttermost parts across the sea,

¹⁰ even there your hand will lead me, your right hand will hold on to me.

¹¹ If I said, "Surely the darkness will cover me, and the light will become night around me,"

¹² even the darkness would not be dark to you.
The night would shine like the day,

for the darkness and the light are both alike to you.

- ¹³ You formed my inner parts;
you formed me in my mother's womb.
- ¹⁴ I will praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made.
Your works are wonderful.
My soul knows this very well.
- ¹⁵ My bones were not hidden from you when I was made in private, when I was intricately made in the depths of the earth.
- ¹⁶ You saw me inside the womb;
all the days assigned to me were recorded in your book even before the first one happened.
- ¹⁷ How precious are your thoughts to me, God!
How vast is their sum!
- ¹⁸ If I tried to count them,
they would be more in number than the sand.
When I awake, I am still with you.
- ¹⁹ If only you would kill the wicked, God;
get away from me, you men of bloodshed.
- ²⁰ They rebel against you and act deceitfully;
your enemies tell lies.
- ²¹ Do I not hate those, Yahweh, who hate you?
Do I not despise those who rise up against you?
- ²² I hate them completely;
they have become my enemies.
- ²³ Examine me, God, and know my heart;
test me and know my thoughts.
- ²⁴ See if there is any wicked way in me,
and lead me in the everlasting way.

Psalm 139 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 139 is a psalm of praise.

Special concepts in this chapter

God's care

God created the psalmist in his mother's womb and has taken care of him all of his life. No matter where he goes, God is always with him.

Links:

Psalms 139:1

Psalms 139:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician. A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

"This is for the director of music to use in worship."

have examined

"have tested"

Psalms 139:2

when I sit down and when I get up

The psalmist uses these two actions to represent everything he does. Alternate translation: "everything I do" or "everything about me"

Psalms 139:3

my path and my lying down

Here "path" stands for one's behavior. "My path and my lying down" together represent everything about the psalmist.

Psalms 139:4

before there is a word on my tongue

Here "word on the tongue" represents speech. Alternate translation: "before I say anything"

Psalms 139:5

Behind me and before me you surround me

This expression refers to God's presence everywhere.

place your hand upon me

This expression refers to guidance and help. Alternate translation: "you guide and help me"

Psalms 139:6

incomprehensible to me

"too much for me to understand"

it is too high, and I cannot reach it

Being high and out of reach is an expression, in this case, about some knowledge that human beings cannot have. Alternate translation: "it is too difficult to understand"

Psalms 139:7

Where can I go from your Spirit? ... Where can I flee from your presence?

These two questions are in parallel. The psalmist says that he cannot go away from God's presence. Alternate translation: "I cannot escape from your Spirit."

Psalms 139:8

if I make my bed in Sheol

"Making one's bed" refers to staying somewhere. Alternate translation: "even if I stay in Sheol"

Psalms 139:9

If I fly away on the wings of the dawn and go to live in the uttermost parts across the sea

The author uses exaggeration to explain that wherever he is, God is there too.

If I fly away on the wings of the dawn

In the ancient near east, the sun was often imagined as if it had wings which enabled it to fly across the sky. Alternate translation: "If the sun could carry me with itself across the sky"

in the uttermost parts across the sea

"very far away to the west"

Psalms 139:10

will hold on to me

"will help me"

Psalms 139:11

If I said, "Surely the darkness will cover me

The psalmist speaks of the night as if it were a blanket that could conceal him.

Psalms 139:12

The night would shine like the day

The night, which is dark, is spoken of as if it were bright with light.

Psalms 139:13

You formed my inner parts

"Inner parts" refers to the interior organs of a person, but here the expression probably stands for the entire body.

Alternate translation: "You made my entire body"

Psalms 139:14

My soul knows this very well

Here "soul" probably refers to the psalmist's innermost ability to be certain about God's love and guidance. The translator may, however, treat "soul" here as metonymy for the psalmist's mind and heart. Alternate translation: "I know this with all my heart"

Psalms 139:15

intricately made

"made with great complexity"

the depths of the earth

This is probably a way of speaking about a mother's womb

Psalms 139:16

all the days assigned to me were recorded in your book even before the first one happened

This expression implies that ancient Israelites imagined that God wrote down his plans in a book.

Psalms 139:17

How precious are your thoughts to me

"I consider your thoughts very important" or "Your thoughts are very valuable to me"

How vast is their sum!

"Your thoughts are so many."

Psalms 139:18

they would be more in number than the sand

This hyperbole means that the writer would be unable to count God's thoughts. Alternate translation: "there would be more than I could count"

Psalms 139:19

get away from me, you men of bloodshed

The psalmist is only pretending to speak directly to the violent men whom he has in mind. Translators may decide to express this command as a wish.

Chapter 140

Psalms 139:20

They rebel against you

"They rebel against your authority, God"

your enemies tell lies

"your enemies lie about you"

Psalms 139:21

Do I not hate those, Yahweh, who hate you? Do I not despise those who rise up against you?

These two sentences have similar meanings. The second one strengthens the thought in the first. Both of these questions actually make statements. Alternate translation:

"Yahweh, I hate those who hate you! I despise those who rise up against you!"

rise up against rebel against

Psalms 139:22

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 139:23

Examine me

This is a request for God to tell the psalmist about any sinful thoughts that he may have. Alternate translation:

"Please search me" or "I beg you to search me"

Examine me, God, and know my heart; test me and know my thoughts

These two sentences have similar meanings. The second one strengthens the thought in the first.

Psalms 139:24

any wicked way

Here "way" stands for behavior.

the everlasting way

Here "way" refers to trust and obedience in God. Anyone who "walks" this way will have everlasting life.

Chapter 140

For the chief musician. A psalm of David.

¹ Yahweh, rescue me from the wicked;
preserve me from violent men.

² They plan evil in their hearts;
they cause battles every day.

³ Their tongues wound like serpents;
vipers' poison is on their lips.

Selah

⁴ Keep me from the hands of the wicked, Yahweh;
preserve me from violent men
who plan to push down my steps.

⁵ The proud have set a trap for me;
they have spread a net;
they have set a snare for me.

Selah

⁶ I said to Yahweh, "You are my God;
give ear to the sound of my pleas."

⁷ Yahweh, my Lord, you are powerfully able to save me;
you shield my head in the day of battle.

⁸ Yahweh, do not grant the desires of the wicked;
do not let their evil plans succeed.

Selah

- ⁹ Those who surround me raise their heads;
let the mischief of their own lips cover them.
- ¹⁰ Let burning coals fall on them;
throw them into the fire,
into bottomless pits, never more to rise.
- ¹¹ May men of tongues not be made secure on the earth;
may evil hunt down the violent man to strike him dead.
- ¹² I know that Yahweh will judge in favor of the afflicted, and that he will give justice to the needy.
- ¹³ Surely the righteous people will give thanks to your name;
the upright people will live in your presence.

Psalm 140 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 140 is a deliverance psalm. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's protection

He prayed that God would save him from his enemies who are lying about him. (See: save)

Links:

Psalms 140:1

Psalms 140:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

For the chief musician. A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

For the chief musician

This is for the director of music to use in worship."

Psalms 140:2

they cause battles

Here "battles" probably refers to conflict of any kind, including quarrels.

Psalms 140:3

Their tongues wound like serpents

People who cause conflict by what they say are spoken of as if they had tongues of serpents. Of course, snakes do not do damage with their tongues, but with their bites and especially with poison. Neither can a person make his tongue sharp. Instead, here the idea of a sharp tongue stands for speaking in a way to cause trouble. And the idea the snakes have sharp tongues stands for the fact that many of them have poison.

Psalms 140:4

the hands of the wicked

That is, the power of the wicked push down my steps

Possible meanings are 1) "cause my feet to trip so I fall over" or 2) "cause me to fall."

Psalms 140:5

have set a trap ... have spread a net ... have set a snare

The exact kinds of traps are less important than the idea that wicked and proud people are planning to make trouble for the psalmist. If your readers do not know much about different ways of trapping, you may need to reduce this to one line. Alternate translation: "have set a trap to catch me"

Psalms 140:6

give ear to the sound of my pleas

This is a call for help. Alternate translation: "listen to me as I call to you now for help"

Psalms 140:7

you shield my head in the day of battle

A person's head is in great danger during battle. Protecting the person's head represents protecting the whole person.

Alternate translation: "you protect me when I go to war" battle

Here "battle" probably stands for any kind of severe trouble

Psalms 140:8

do not grant the desires of the wicked

"please do not allow the wicked to have what they desire"

the wicked

The adjective "wicked" can be translated as a noun phrase.

Alternate translation: "wicked people"

Psalms 140:9

raise their heads

This is a sign of being arrogant. Alternate translation: "are arrogant"

Chapter 141

let the mischief of their own lips cover them
This is a prayer that God would make the evildoers suffer from the trouble that they caused by the things they said.
the mischief of their own lips
The trouble that they themselves caused by what they said.
cover them
That is, stop them from causing any more trouble.
Psalms 140:10
Let burning coals fall on them; throw them into the fire
Images of fire stand for severe punishment for the wicked.
bottomless pits
This is probably a reference to Sheol, the world of the dead.
Psalms 140:11
men of tongues

those who speak evil of others without cause secure on the earth
"safe in this life"
may evil hunt down the violent man Here evil is spoken of as if it were someone taking revenge on another person.
Psalms 140:12
he will give justice to the needy
The abstract noun "justice" can be stated as "just." Alternate translation: "He will act in a just manner to help the needy"
Psalms 140:13
to your name
This represents Yahweh. Alternate translation: "to you"

Chapter 141

A psalm of David.

- ¹ Yahweh, I am crying out to you; come quickly to me.
Give ear to my voice when I call to you.
 - ² May my prayer be like incense before you;
may my lifted hands be like the evening sacrifice.
 - ³ Yahweh, place a guard over my mouth;
guard the door of my lips.
 - ⁴ Do not let my heart desire any evil thing or participate in wicked deeds with men who behave wickedly.
May I not eat any of their delicacies.
 - ⁵ Let a righteous man hit me; it will be a kindness to me.
Let him correct me; it will be like oil on my head;
may my head not refuse to accept it.
But my prayer is always against their wicked deeds.
 - ⁶ Their judges will be thrown down from the top of cliffs;
they will hear that my own words are pleasant.
 - ⁷ They will have to say, "As when one plows and breaks up the ground, so our bones have been scattered at the mouth of Sheol."
 - ⁸ Surely my eyes are on you, Yahweh, Lord;
in you I take refuge; do not leave my soul defenseless.
 - ⁹ Protect me from the snares that they have laid for me,
from the traps of those who behave wickedly.
 - ¹⁰ Let the wicked fall into their own nets
while I escape.
-

Psalm 141 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 141 is a psalm of deliverance from his enemies and from sin. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's correction

The author prayed that God would keep him from sinning. He is glad to be corrected by good people. He asked God to show that he is right by destroying the evil leaders of the people. (See: sin, good and righteous and evil)

Links:

Psalms 141:1

Psalms 141:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

crying out

"asking you for help"

come quickly to me

The psalmist speaks as if Yahweh were a person who needed to come from another place to help him. What the psalmist wanted Yahweh to do can be stated clearly.

Alternate translation: "come quickly to help me"

Give ear to my voice when I call

"Please hear me when I call" or "I beg you to hear me when I call"

Psalms 141:2

May my prayer be like incense

The psalmist asks Yahweh to accept and be pleased with his prayer the way he would accept and be pleased with incense. Alternate translation: "May the my prayer please you the way the sweet smell of incense pleases people"

my prayer

The psalmist wants Yahweh to be pleased with him because he is praying and because of the words of his prayer.

my lifted hands

"the hands that I have lifted up." Lifted hands are a metonym for prayer. People lifted their hands when they prayed or praised Yahweh. See how you translated "lift up your hands" in Psalms 134:2.

be like the evening sacrifice

The means to be like the animal that was burned on the altar in the evening. The psalmist speaks as if he wants Yahweh to be as pleased with him as he is with those who bring animals to sacrifice. He wants Yahweh to be pleased because the psalmist is praying or because of the words of his prayer.

Psalms 141:3

place a guard over my mouth

The psalmist speaks as if evil words were prisoners trying to escape from his mouth. Alternate translation: "please help me not to say things that are evil"

place a guard over

"tell someone to guard"

guard the door of my lips

The psalmist speaks as if evil words were prisoners trying to escape from his mouth. Alternate translation: "please help me not to say things when I should not"

Psalms 141:4

participate in wicked deeds

"do evil things"

their delicacies

"their special foods"

Psalms 141:5

hit me

The psalmist speaks as if giving a rebuke were physically hitting someone. Alternate translation: "rebuke me" or "hit me so I will listen when he corrects me"

it will be a kindness to me

The abstract noun "kindness" can be translated with an adverb. Alternate translation: "he will be acting kindly to me"

it will be like oil on my head

Possible meanings are that the psalmist speaks as if a person correcting him were putting oil on his head 1) to honor him. Alternate translation: "when he corrects me, I will know that the one who corrects me is doing a good deed to me" or 2) to make his head feel better.

may my head not refuse to accept it

The head is a synecdoche for the person. The litotes can be translated as a positive statement. Alternate translation: "may I accept it gladly"

my prayer is always against their wicked deeds

The words "wicked deeds" are a metonym for the people who do the wicked deeds. Alternate translation: "I always pray that Yahweh will stop wicked people from doing evil deeds"

Psalms 141:6

Their judges will be thrown down

Possible meanings are 1) "Someone will throw their judges down" or 2) "Their judges will throw them down."

judges

political leaders cliffs

ground that goes straight down a long way

Psalms 141:7

our bones have been scattered

Possible meanings are 1) "people have thrown our bones around in different directions" or 2) as a result of the fall from the cliffs (141:6) "our bodies are broken and our bones lie in disorder."

Psalms 141:8

my eyes are on you

The eyes are a synecdoche for the whole person. Alternate translation: "I am looking to see what you will do" or "I expect you to help me"

in you I take refuge

"I am asking you to protect me" See how "take refuge" is translated in [Psalms 118:9]

my soul

The soul is a metonym for the whole person. Alternate translation: "me"

Psalms 141:9

the snares that they have laid for me

The psalmist speaks of deceiving a good man so the good man will sin or so that the evil people can defeat him as if it were laying a trap for an animal. The word "snares" is a metonym for the people themselves. Alternate translation: "people who are looking for ways to harm me"

snares ... traps

Bible experts disagree on the exact meanings of these words. It would be best either to translate one of them with the word for a net or cage that contains the prey and the other as a rope or vine that catches the prey by the leg or neck or to translate both with the general word for "traps." See how these words are translated in Psalms 140:5.

from the traps of those who behave wickedly

The verb may be supplied from the previous phrase.

Alternate translation: "and protect me from the traps that those who do evil have set"

Psalms 141:10

Let the wicked fall into their own nets

The psalmist speaks of evil people deceiving good people as if hunters were trapping animals. Alternate translation: "Let the wicked fall into the net traps they have made to trap other people" or "Let the bad things the wicked planned for the righteous happen to the wicked instead"

Chapter 142

A maschil of David, when he was in the cave; a prayer.

¹ With my voice I cry out for help to Yahweh;
with my voice I plead for Yahweh's favor.

² I pour out my lament before him;
I tell him my troubles.

³ When my spirit is weak within me,
you know my path.
In the way that I walk
they have hidden a trap for me.

⁴ I look to my right and see that there is no one who cares about me.
There is no escape for me;
no one cares about my life.

⁵ I called out to you, Yahweh;
I said, "You are my refuge,
my portion in the land of the living.

⁶ Listen to my cry,
for I have been brought very low;
rescue me from my persecutors,
for they are stronger than I.

⁷ Bring my soul out of prison
so that I may give thanks to your name.
The righteous will gather around me because you have been good to me."

Psalm 142 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 142 is a psalm of deliverance from his enemies. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's help

The psalmist is alone, and has many enemies surrounding him. Despite this, Yahweh will help him. Then, good people will join the author. (See: good)

Links:

Psalms 142:1

Psalms 142:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A maschil of David, when he was in the cave; a prayer

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

A maschil

This may refer to a style of music. See how you translated this in Psalms 32:1.

cave

open place under the earth large enough for people to walk around in

I cry out for help to Yahweh ... I plead for Yahweh's favor

If these two lines are so much the same that the reader will get the wrong meaning, you can translate them as one line.

with my voice

"using my voice" -

Psalms 142:2

pour out my lament before him ... I tell him my troubles

If these two lines are so much the same that the reader will get the wrong meaning, you can translate them as one line.

pour out my lament before him

The psalmist speaks of telling Yahweh why he is sad as if he were pouring all of a liquid out of a container. Alternate translation: "I tell him all about why I am sad"

tell him my troubles

"tell him about everything that makes me worry"

Psalms 142:3

my spirit is weak within me

"I am weak" or "I am extremely discouraged"

you know my path

"you know the path I should take." The psalmist speaks as if what a person does were a path that that person walked along. Alternate translation: "you know the way I should live"

In the way that I walk they have hidden a trap for me

The psalmist speaks of people wanting to harm him as if they were trying to trap an animal. Alternate translation: "They are making plans so that whatever I do they can harm me"

Psalms 142:4

my life

This is a metonym for "me."

Psalms 142:5

called out to you

This is a call for help. Alternate translation: "called to you now for help" my portion

Possible meanings are 1) "all I want" or 2) "all I need" or 3) "all I have."

in the land of the living

This idiom refers to a person being alive, as opposed to a person who is dead and in the place of the dead. Alternate translation: "while I am living"

Psalms 142:6

Listen to my cry

This is a call for help. See how you translated this in [Psalms 5:1]

I have been brought very low

Possible meanings are 1) "I am very needy" and 2) "I am very weak." See how "we are very low" is translated in Psalms 78:8.

Psalms 142:7

Bring my soul out of prison

This is a request. The "soul" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "bring me out of prison"

give thanks to your name

The word "name" is a metonym for the person. See how you translated this in [Psalms 5:11]

Chapter 143

A psalm of David.

¹ Hear my prayer, Yahweh;

give ear to my pleas.

Because of your faithfulness and righteousness,
answer me!

² Do not enter into judgment with your servant,

for in your sight no one is righteous.

³ The enemy has pursued my soul;
he has crushed me to the ground;
he has made me to live in darkness like those who have been dead a long time.

⁴ My spirit is overwhelmed within me;
my heart is appalled.

⁵ I call to mind the old days;
I meditate on all your deeds;
I reflect on your accomplishments.

⁶ I spread my hands out to you;
my soul thirsts for you in a parched land.

Selah

⁷ Answer me quickly, Yahweh, because my spirit faints.
Do not hide your face from me,
or I will become like those who go down into the pit.

⁸ Let me hear your covenant faithfulness in the morning, for I trust in you.
Show me the way where I should walk,
for I lift up my soul to you.

⁹ Rescue me from my enemies, Yahweh;
I flee to you to hide.

¹⁰ Teach me to do your will,
for you are my God.
May your good Spirit
lead me in the land of uprightness.

¹¹ Yahweh, for your name's sake, keep me alive;
in your righteousness bring my soul out of trouble.

¹² In your covenant faithfulness cut off my enemies and destroy all the enemies of my life, for I am your servant.

Psalm 143 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 143 is a deliverance psalm. The author prays for deliverance from his enemies. (See: deliverer)

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's help

The author prayed for help from Yahweh against his enemies because he is God's servant.

Links:

Psalms 143:1

Psalms 143:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

Hear my prayer

The words "my prayer" are a metonym for the person who is praying. See how these words are translated in [Psalms 39:12]

Psalms 143:2

Do not enter into judgment

To "enter into judgment" is an idiom that means to pronounce judgment. Alternate translation: "Please do not judge" or "I beg you not to judge"

your servant

The psalmist speaks of himself as if he were speaking of another person. Alternate translation: "me" in your sight no one is righteous

Here sight represents judgment or evaluation. Alternate translation: "in your judgment no one is righteous"

Psalms 143:3

pursued my soul

Here the word "soul" represents the person. Alternate translation: "pursued me" has crushed me to the ground

Defeating an enemy is spoken of as a heavy object crushing a lighter object on the ground. Alternate translation: "has completely defeated me"

Psalms 143:4

My spirit is overwhelmed within me

"I am weak" or "I am extremely discouraged"

my heart is appalled

"I no longer have any hope"

Psalms 143:5

call to mind

"think about"

your accomplishments

"all that you have accomplished" or "all the great things you have done"

Psalms 143:6

spread my hands out to you

What one does with one's body here is a metonym for the purpose of doing so. The Israelites would commonly pray while standing with their hands raised and spread out at their sides. Alternate translation: "pray to you with my hands lifted up at my sides"

my soul thirsts for you in a parched land

The psalmist speaks of wanting to be with God as if he were in a parched land and he also was about to die of thirst.

Alternate translation: "I want to be with you the way a person in a parched land who is very thirsty wants water" my soul thirsts for you

The psalmist desires to know Yahweh. The intensity of his desire to know Yahweh is like one who is very thirsty.

Alternate translation: "I long for you"

my soul

The soul is a metonym for the person.

parched land

A land where everything has died because there is no water.

Psalms 143:7

my spirit faints

Here the "spirit" refers to the whole person. Alternate translation: "I am weak" or "I am very discouraged"

Do not hide your face from me

This is a request. "I beg you not to hide from me" or "Please, do not hide from me"

Do not hide your face from me

The psalmist speaks of Yahweh refusing to do what the psalmist asks as if Yahweh were refusing to even look at the psalmist. This litotes can be stated as a positive. Alternate translation: "Do not refuse to listen to me" or "Please listen to me"

I will become like those who go down into the pit

Here the word "pit" refers to the place of the dead. This phrase is a euphemism for death. Alternate translation: "I will become just another dead person"

Psalms 143:8

Let me hear your covenant faithfulness

"Cause me to hear of your covenant faithfulness" or "Tell me of your covenant faithfulness." The abstract noun

"faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation: "Let me hear of how you are faithful to your covenant"

in the morning

Possible meanings are 1) "in the morning," at the time many people thought was the best time to pray, or 2) "morning by morning," every day.

Show me

"Tell me"

the way where I should walk

The psalmist speaks of the way people live as if it were a path on which they walk. Alternate translation: "how you want me to live"

for I lift up my soul to you

Possible meanings are 1) "I pray to you" or 2) "I believe that you will guide and protect me."

Psalms 143:9

I flee to you to hide

Possible meanings are 1) "I flee to you so I can hide" and 2) "I flee to you so you will hide and protect me."

Chapter 144

Psalms 143:10

to do your will

"to do what you want me to do"

lead me in the land of uprightness

Possible meanings are 1) "help me to live righteously" or 2) "may my life be free of trouble"

the land of uprightness

Possible meanings are 1) this is a metaphor for righteous living or 2) "a level land," a metaphor for life free of trouble.

Psalms 143:11

for your name's sake

Yahweh's name represents his reputation and character.

Alternate translation: "because of who you are"

Psalms 143:12

the enemies of my life

"the enemies who want to take my life"

In your covenant faithfulness cut off my enemies

"Show your covenant faithfulness by cutting off my enemies." The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with an adjective. Alternate translation:

"Because you are faithful to your covenant, cut off my enemies"

the enemies of my life

"the enemies of my soul." My "life" may be understood as representing the speaker. Alternate translation: "my enemies"

Chapter 144

A psalm of David.

- ¹ Blessed be Yahweh, my rock, who trains my hands for war and my fingers for battle.
- ² You are my covenant faithfulness and my fortress,
 my high tower and the one who rescues me,
 my shield and the one in whom I take refuge,
 the one who subdues nations under me.
- ³ Yahweh, what is man that you take notice of him or the son of man that you think about him?
- ⁴ Man is like a breath;
 his days are like a passing shadow.
- ⁵ Cause the sky to sink and come down, Yahweh;
 touch the mountains and make them smoke.
- ⁶ Send flashes of lightning and scatter my enemies;
 shoot your arrows and drive them back in confusion.
- ⁷ Reach out your hand from above;
 rescue me out of many waters,
 from the hand of foreigners.
- ⁸ Their mouths speak lies,
 and their right hand is falsehood.
- ⁹ I will sing a new song to you, God;
 on a lute of ten strings I will sing praises to you,
- ¹⁰ who gives salvation to kings,
 who rescues David your servant from an evil sword.
- ¹¹ Rescue me and free me

from the hand of foreigners.
Their mouths speak lies,
and their right hand is falsehood.

- ¹² May our sons be like plants who grow to full size in their youth and our daughters like carved corner pillars, shapely like those of a palace.
- ¹³ May our storehouses be full with every kind of produce, and may our sheep produce thousands and ten thousands in our fields.
- ¹⁴ Then our oxen will have many young.
No one will break through our walls; there will be no exile and no outcry in our streets.
- ¹⁵ Blessed is the people with such blessings;
happy is the people whose God is Yahweh.

Psalm 144 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 144 is a worship psalm. It is the first worship psalm in a series consisting of the final seven psalms (Psalms 144-150).

Special concepts in this chapter

Safety

Psalm 144 is a prayer for safety and prosperity for the nation of Israel.

Links:

Psalms 144:1

Psalms 144:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

my rock

Possible meanings are 1) "the one who keeps me safe" or 2) "the one who gives me strength"

who trains my hands for war and my fingers for battle

The words "hands" and "fingers" are synecdoches for "me." If "war" and "battle" are the same word in your language, you can translate this as one line. Alternate translation: "who trains me for war and trains me for battle" or "who trains me for war"

Psalms 144:2

my covenant faithfulness

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with anadverb. Possible meanings are 1) "the one who faithfully loves me" or 2) "the one who faithfully protects me."

my fortress ... take refuge

The psalmist uses many metaphors to emphasize that Yahweh will protect him.

my high tower

David speaks of Yahweh as if he were a fortress that protects him from attack. Yahweh is the one who protects David from harm.

my shield

David speaks of Yahweh as if he were a shield that protects a soldier. Yahweh is the one who protects David from harm. See how this is translated in Psalms 18:2.

the one in whom I take refuge

Going to Yahweh for protection is spoken of as taking refuge in him. Alternate translation: "the one to whom I go so he will protect me"

the one who subdues nations under me

"the one who enables me to defeat other nations"

Psalms 144:3

Yahweh, what is man that you take notice of him or the son of man that you think about him?

These questions can be translated as statements. Alternate translation: "Man is so small compared to everything else you have made that I am surprised that you take notice of man and that you think about the son of man"

man ... son of man
 two words for human beings.
 Psalms 144:4
 like a breath ... like a passing shadow
 The writer compares humans to these thing to emphasize how short their lives are.
 Psalms 144:5
 Cause ... come down ... touch ... make These words should probably be translated as requests, not commands, since the psalmist knows that God is greater than he is.
 Cause the sky to sink
 Possible meanings are 1) tear the sky open or 2) bend the heavens like a tree branch bends when someone walks on it or as one bends a bow before shooting arrows.
 Psalms 144:6
 Send ... scatter ... shoot ... drive
 These should probably be translated as requests, not commands, since the psalmist knows that God is greater than he is.
 in confusion
 "so they do not know what to think or what to do"
 Psalms 144:7
 Reach out your hand from above; rescue me out of many waters
 David speaks as if God were on land above a flood and had physical hands with which he could pull David out of a flood. The flood is a metaphor for the troubles caused by the "foreigners." Alternate translation: "You who are able to act, help me overcome my troubles"
 from the hand of foreigners
 Here "hand" refers to power. Alternate translation: "from the power of foreigners"
 Psalms 144:8
 Their mouths speak lies
 Here the word "mouths" represent the people who speak. Alternate translation: "They speak lies"
 their right hand is falsehood
 Possible meanings are 1) David speaks of the custom of raising the right hand to swear that what one is about to say in court is true, "they lie even when they swear to tell the truth," or 2) the "right hand" is a metaphor for power, "everything they have gotten, they have gotten by telling lies."
 Psalms 144:9
 new song
 Possible meanings are 1) "a song no one has ever sung before" or 2) "a song I have never sung before."
 Psalms 144:10
 who gives ... kings, who rescues
 You may end a sentence at the end of Psalms 144:9 and start a new sentence here. "you. It is you who gives ... kings.

It is you who rescues"
 David your servant
 David speaks of himself as if he were someone else. "me, David, your servant" from an evil sword
 David speaks of evil people as if they were the swords they use as weapons. Alternate translation: "from evil people who were trying to kill him"
 Psalms 144:11
 Rescue me and free me
 "Please rescue me and free me"
 from the hand of foreigners
 Here "hand" refers to power. See how you translated these words in [Psalms 144:7]
 Their mouths speak lies
 The people are represented by their "mouths." See how you translated these words in [Psalms 144:8]
 their right hand is falsehood
 Possible meanings are 1) David speaks of the custom of raising the right hand to swear that what one is about to say in court is true, "they lie even when they swear to tell the truth," or 2) the "right hand" is a metaphor for power, "everything they have gotten, they have gotten by telling lies." See how you translated these words [Psalms 144:8]
 Psalms 144:12
 like plants who grow to full size healthy and strong in their youth
 the time when people develop our daughters like carved corner pillars
 "may our daughters be like carved corner pillars" carved corner pillars
 "beautiful posts that hold up the corners of a large house" pillars, shapely like those of a palace
 "pillars that are carved to make a palace beautiful"
 Psalms 144:13
 thousands and ten thousands in our fields
 "thousands—even tens of thousands!—and fill up our fields"
 Psalms 144:14
 No one will break through our walls
 "No one will be able to invade our city"
 no outcry
 Here the outcry is associated with a severe problem that causes the person to cry out. Alternate translation: "no one crying in pain" or "no one crying for help" or "no one calling out for justice"
 Psalms 144:15
 General Information:
 This page has intentionally been left blank.

Chapter 145

A psalm of praise. Of David.

¹ I will extol you, my God, King;
 I will bless your name forever and ever.

² Every day will I bless you;

I will praise your name forever and ever.

³ Great is Yahweh and greatly to be praised;
his greatness is unsearchable.

⁴ One generation will praise your deeds to the next and will proclaim your mighty actions.

⁵ I will meditate on the majesty of your glory and on your marvelous deeds.

⁶ They will speak of the power of your awesome works, and I will declare your greatness.

⁷ They will declare your abounding goodness, and they will shout joyfully about your righteousness.

⁸ Yahweh is gracious and merciful, slow to anger and great in steadfast love.

⁹ Yahweh is good to all;
his tender mercies are over all his works.

¹⁰ All your works will give thanks to you, Yahweh;
your faithful ones will bless you.

¹¹ They will speak of the glory of your kingdom, and they will tell of your power.

¹² They will make known to mankind God's mighty deeds and the glorious splendor of his kingdom.

¹³ Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and your dominion endures throughout all generations.

¹⁴ Yahweh supports all who are falling and raises up all those who are bent over.

¹⁵ The eyes of all wait for you;
you give them their food at the right time.

¹⁶ You open your hand and satisfy the desire of every living thing.

¹⁷ Yahweh is righteous in all his ways and faithful in all his deeds.

¹⁸ Yahweh is near to all those who call to him,
to all who call to him in trustworthiness.

¹⁹ He fulfills the desire of those who honor him;

he hears their cry and saves them.

²⁰ Yahweh watches over all those who love him, but he will destroy all the wicked.

²¹ My mouth will speak out the praise of Yahweh;
let all mankind bless his holy name
forever and ever.

Psalm 145 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 145 is a worship psalm. This is the second in a series of worship psalms consisting of the final seven psalms (Psalms 144-150).

Special concepts in this chapter

Praise

God is worthy of all praise. This is in part because he does such wonderful things for all who worship him.

Links:

Psalms 145:1

Psalms 145:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

A psalm of praise. Of David

This is a superscription that tells about the psalm. Some scholars say that this is part of the scripture and some say that it is not. (See "What are Superscriptions in Psalms" in Introduction to Psalms.)

extol you

"tell people how wonderful you are"

bless your name

The word "name" is a metonym for Yahweh himself. See how "may his glorious name be blessed" is translated in [Psalms 72:19]

Psalms 145:2

praise your name

The word "name" is a metonym for Yahweh himself.

Alternate translation: "praise you" or "tell people how great you are"

Psalms 145:3

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 145:4

your mighty actions

"the things you can do because you are strong"

Psalms 145:5

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 145:6

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 145:7

declare your abounding goodness

"tell others how very good you are"

Psalms 145:8

great in steadfast love

The psalmist speaks of great in steadfast love as if it were a physical object of which one could possess a large amount. The abstract noun "love" can be translated with the verb "love." Alternate translation: "loving your people without ceasing"

Psalms 145:9

his tender mercies are over all his works

"people can see him showing mercy in everything he does"

Psalms 145:10

All your works will give thanks

"All the people you have made will give thanks" or "It will be as if everything you have made will give you thanks"

Psalms 145:11

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 145:12

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 145:13

endures throughout all generations

"remains forever"

Psalms 145:14

supports all who are falling ... raises up all those who are bent over

The psalmist speaks of Yahweh encouraging people as if he were helping people who were physically weak. You may need to translate both lines using only one line. Alternate translation: "encourages those who are discouraged"

Psalms 145:15

The eyes of all wait

Here the word "eyes" represents those who watch and wait for Yahweh to act. Alternate translation: "Everyone watches and waits"

Psalms 145:16

You open your hand

"You generously provide"

satisfy the desire of every living thing

"you give everyone more than they need and as much as they want"

Psalms 145:17

Yahweh is righteous in all his ways

"People can see from everything that Yahweh does that he is righteous" faithful in all his deeds

"and he is gracious in all he does" or "people can see from everything that Yahweh does that he is gracious"

Psalms 145:18

is near to all those who call to him

Here "is near" means "ready to help." Alternate translation:

"is always ready to help all those who call to him"

to all who call to him in trustworthiness

The abstract noun "trustworthiness" can be stated as an action. Alternate translation: "to all who tell only the truth when they pray" or "to all whom he trusts when they pray"

Psalms 145:19

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 145:20

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 145:21

My mouth will speak

Here the words "My mouth" represent the one speaking.

Alternate translation: "I will speak"

will speak out the praise of Yahweh

"tell everyone how good Yahweh is"

let all mankind bless his holy name

The word "name" is a metonym for Yahweh himself. See how "may his glorious name be blessed" is translated in [Psalms 72:19]

Chapter 146

¹ Give praise to Yah. ¹

Praise Yahweh, my soul.

² I give praise to Yahweh with all my life;

I will sing praises to my God as long as I exist.

³ Do not put your trust in princes or in mankind, in whom there is no salvation.

⁴ When a person's life's breath stops, he returns to the ground;

on that day his plans end.

⁵ Blessed is he who has the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in Yahweh his God.

⁶ Yahweh made heaven and earth,

the sea, and all that is in them;

he observes trustworthiness forever.

⁷ He executes justice for the oppressed and gives food to the hungry.

Yahweh frees the prisoners;

⁸ Yahweh opens the eyes of the blind;

Yahweh raises up those who are bowed down;

Yahweh loves the righteous people.

⁹ Yahweh protects the foreigners in the land;

he supports the fatherless and widow,

but he opposes the wicked.

¹⁰ Yahweh will reign forever, your God, Zion, for all generations.
Give praise to Yah. ²

¹Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

²Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

Psalm 146 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 146 is a worship psalm. It is the third in series of seven worship psalms. (Psalms 144-150)

Special concepts in this chapter

Trust

Trusting people for protection is useless because they die. But God blesses everyone who trusts in him. He provides everything people need. (See: trust and save and bless)

Links:

Psalms 146:1

Psalms 146:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

Praise Yahweh, my soul

Here "soul" represents the writer's inner being. The writer is commanding his inner being to praise Yahweh. This can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "I will praise Yahweh with all my soul" or "I give praise to Yahweh with all my life"

Psalms 146:2

with all my life

"until I die" or "while I live"

Psalms 146:3

in princes

Here "princes" represents all human leaders.

in mankind, in whom there is no salvation

The abstract noun "salvation" can be stated as "save."

Alternate translation: "in any person because they cannot save you"

in mankind

"in humankind" or "in people"

Psalms 146:4

When a person's life's breath stops

This is a polite way to refer to someone dying. Alternate translation: "When a person dies"

he returns to the ground

This means that just as God made the first human, Adam, from the soil, so will a person's body decay and become soil again when he dies.

Psalms 146:5

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 146:6

Yahweh made heaven and earth

The words "heaven" and "earth" represent everything that exists in the physical universe.

observes trustworthiness

The abstract noun "trustworthiness" can be stated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "remains trustworthy" or "remains faithful"

Psalms 146:7

He executes justice

"He decides matters fairly"

for the oppressed

This nominal adjective can be stated as adjectives.

Alternate translation: "for oppressed people" or "for those whom other people oppress" to the hungry

This nominal adjective can be stated as adjectives.

Alternate translation: "to hungry people" or "to those who are hungry"

Psalms 146:8

opens the eyes of the blind

Causing a blind person to see is spoken of as if Yahweh were opening the person's eyes. Alternate translation: "causes the blind to see"

the blind

This nominal adjective can be stated as adjectives.

Alternate translation: "blind people" or "those who are blind"

Yahweh raises up those who are bowed down

Yahweh helping someone is spoken of as if he were physically helping someone to stand up. Alternate translation: "Yahweh helps those who are discouraged" or "Yahweh helps those who are weak"

who are bowed down

This action is a sign of distress or mourning.

Psalms 146:9

supports

God helping someone is spoken of as if he were physically keeping them from falling to the ground.

Psalms 146:10

your God, Zion

Here "Zion" represents all the people of Israel. The writer is speaking to the people of Israel as if they were there listening to him. Alternate translation: "your God, people of Israel"

for all generations

The words "will reign" are understood. Alternate translation: "will reign for all generations" or "will reign forever"

Chapter 147

- ¹ Give praise to Yah, ¹
for it is good to sing praises to our God;
it is pleasant, and praise is suitable.
- ² Yahweh rebuilds Jerusalem;
he gathers together the scattered people of Israel.
- ³ He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds.
- ⁴ He counts the stars;
he gives names to all of them.
- ⁵ Great is our Lord and awesome in power;
his understanding cannot be measured.
- ⁶ Yahweh supports the oppressed;
he brings the wicked down to the ground.
- ⁷ Sing to Yahweh with thanksgiving;
sing praises to our God with a harp.
- ⁸ He covers the heavens with clouds and prepares rain for the earth, making the grass to grow on the mountains.
- ⁹ He gives food to the animals and to the young ravens when they cry.
- ¹⁰ He finds no delight in the strength of a horse;
he takes no pleasure in the strong legs of a man.
- ¹¹ Yahweh takes pleasure in those who honor him,
who hope in his covenant faithfulness.
- ¹² Praise Yahweh, Jerusalem;
praise your God, Zion.
- ¹³ For he strengthens the bars of your gates;
he blesses your children among you.
- ¹⁴ He brings prosperity inside your borders;
he satisfies you with the finest of wheat.
- ¹⁵ He sends out his commandment to earth;
his command runs very swiftly.
- ¹⁶ He makes the snow like wool;
he scatters the frost like ashes.

- ¹⁷ He dispenses the hail like crumbs;
who can withstand the cold he sends?
- ¹⁸ He sends out his command and melts them;
he makes the wind to blow and the water to flow.
- ¹⁹ He proclaimed his word to Jacob,
his statutes and his righteous decrees to Israel.
- ²⁰ He has not done so with any other nation,
and as for his decrees, they do not know them.
Give praise to Yah. ²

¹Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

²Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

Psalm 147 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 147 is a worship psalm. It is the fourth in a series of seven worship psalms. (Psalms 144-150)

Special concepts in this chapter

Yahweh's control

Yahweh has created everything and controls all of nature. He provides for the animals and people.

Links:

Psalms 147:1

Psalms 147:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

it is pleasant

The object may be supplied from the previous phrase.

Alternate translation: "it is pleasant to sing praises"

praise is suitable

"praise is fitting" or "praise is appropriate"

Psalms 147:2

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 147:3

He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds

The writer speaks of the people's sorrow and discouragement as if they were physical wounds, and of Yahweh encouraging them as if he were healing those wounds. Alternate translation: "He encourages those who are sad and helps them to heal from their emotional wounds"

Psalms 147:4

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 147:5

his understanding cannot be measured

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "no one can measure his understanding" or "his understanding has no limit"

Psalms 147:6

Yahweh supports the oppressed

The writer speaks of Yahweh honoring those who are oppressed as if Yahweh were keeping them from falling to the ground. Alternate translation: "Yahweh honors the oppressed"

he brings the wicked down to the ground

The writer speaks of Yahweh humiliating the wicked as if Yahweh were forcing them to lie on the ground. Alternate translation: "he humiliates the wicked"

Psalms 147:7

with a harp

"while playing a harp"

Psalms 147:8

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Psalms 147:9

animals and to the young ravens when they cry

"animals, and he gives food to the young ravens when they cry"

when they cry

"when they chirp" or "when they call"

Psalms 147:10

He finds no delight in the strength of a horse

"Strong horses do not delight him"

the strong legs of a man

Possible meanings are 1) "strong legs" is a metonym that represents how swiftly a man can run. Alternate translation: "men who can run swiftly" or 2) "strong legs" represents the strength of the whole man. Alternate translation: "how strong a man is"

Psalms 147:11

who hope in his covenant faithfulness

The abstract noun "faithfulness" can be translated with and adjective. Alternate translation: "who trust him because he is faithful to his covenant"

Psalms 147:12

Jerusalem ... Zion

The writer speaks to Jerusalem, which he also calls Zion, as if it were a person. The names of the city are metonyms for the people who live in it. Alternate translation: "people of Jerusalem ... people of Zion"

Psalms 147:13

For he strengthens the bars of your gates

The phrase "the bars of your gates" represent the city as a whole. Yahweh will make Jerusalem secure from enemy invasion. Alternate translation: "For he protects Jerusalem" he blesses ... among you

The writer speaks of those who live in Jerusalem as if they were Jerusalem's children. Alternate translation: "he blesses those who live in Jerusalem"

Psalms 147:14

He brings prosperity

"He brings peace." Possible meanings are 1) Yahweh causes the people who live in Jerusalem to prosper materially and financially or 2) the word translated as "prosperity" means "peace" and Yahweh keeps Jerusalem safe from enemy attack.

Psalms 147:15

his command runs very swiftly

The writer describes God's command as if it were a messenger that moves quickly to deliver God's message.

Psalms 147:16

He makes the snow like wool; he scatters the frost like ashes

These emphasize how easy it is for him to do these things.

He covers the ground with snow as easily as a person covers something with a wool blanket. And, he removes the frost as easily as the wind blows ashes.

Psalms 147:17

He dispenses the hail like crumbs

Yahweh scatters hail as easily as a person would scatter bread crumbs. Alternate translation: "He dispenses the hail easily, as if it were crumbs"

He dispenses

"He sends"

hail

small pieces of ice that fall from the sky like rain

who can withstand the cold he sends?

The writer uses this question to emphasize that it is difficult to endure the cold weather that Yahweh causes. Alternate translation: "no one can live in the cold he sends."

Psalms 147:18

He sends out his command and melts them

The writer speaks of Yahweh's command as if it were his messenger. The word "command" can be translated with a verb. Alternate translation: "He commands the ice to melt"

Psalms 147:19

He proclaimed his word to Jacob, his statutes and his righteous decrees to Israel

These two lines mean the same thing and emphasize that Yahweh gave his law only to Israel.

his statutes and his righteous decrees to Israel

The verbal phrase can be supplied from the previous line. Alternate translation: "He proclaimed his statutes and his righteous decrees to Israel"

his statutes and his righteous decrees

The words "statutes" and "righteous decrees," along with "word" in the previous line, all refer to the law of Moses. If your language does not have different words for these terms, you may combine the two lines into one, using either "Jacob" or "Israel" for the people who received them.

Psalms 147:20

they do not know them

The other nations do not know Yahweh's decrees.

Chapter 148

¹ Give praise to Yah. ¹

Praise Yahweh, you in the heavens; praise him, you in the heights.

² Praise him, all his angels;
praise him, all his hosts.

³ Praise him, sun and moon;
praise him, all you shining stars.

⁴ Praise him, highest heaven and you waters that are above the sky.

⁵ Let them praise the name of Yahweh, for he gave the command, and they were created.

- ⁶ He has also established them forever and ever;
he issued a decree that will never change.
- ⁷ Praise him from the earth,
you sea monsters and all ocean depths,
- ⁸ fire and hail, snow and clouds,
stormy wind fulfilling his word.
- ⁹ Praise him, mountains and all hills,
fruit trees and all cedars,
- ¹⁰ Wild animals and all livestock, creatures that crawl and birds with wings.
- ¹¹ Praise Yahweh, you kings of the earth and all nations, you princes, and all you judges of the earth,
- ¹² both young men and young women, elderly and children.
- ¹³ Let them all praise the name of Yahweh, for his name alone is exalted and his glory extends over the earth and the heavens.
- ¹⁴ He has lifted up the horn of his people
for praise from all his faithful ones,
the people of Israel, the people near to him.
Give praise to Yah. ²

¹Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

²Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

Psalm 148 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 148 is a worship psalm. It is the fifth in a series of seven worship psalms. (Psalms 144-150)

Special concepts in this chapter

Praise

All creation, including humans, should praise God for his greatness.

Links:

Psalms 148:1

Psalms 148:1

General Information:

Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

Praise Yahweh, you in the heavens ... you in the heights

"Praise Yahweh, you in the heavens ... you in the sky." These two lines are parallel, with phrase "the heights" meaning the same thing as "the heavens" in the previous line.

Psalms 148:2

all his hosts

"all his armies." Here "hosts" refers to the living beings that God created in the heavens. Possible meanings are that they are called hosts 1) because they fight as armies.

Alternate translation: "all his angel armies" or 2) because there are so many of them, just as armies have many soldiers. Alternate translation: "all his multitude of angels"
Psalms 148:3

Praise him, sun and moon

The writer speaks to the sun and moon as if they were people and commands them to praise Yahweh. Alternate translation: "Praise Yahweh, sun and moon, as people do" praise him, all you shining stars

The writer speaks to the shining stars as if they were people and commands them to praise Yahweh. Alternate translation: "Praise Yahweh, shining stars, as people do"
Psalms 148:4

Praise him, highest heaven

The phrase "highest heaven" is an idiom that refers to heaven itself. The writer speaks to heaven as if it were a person and commands it to praise Yahweh. Alternate translation: "Praise Yahweh, highest heaven, as people do" you waters that are above the sky

The writer speaks to "the waters that are above the sky" as if they are people and commands them to praise Yahweh. The verbal phrase can be supplied from the previous line. Alternate translation: "praise him, you waters that are above the sky, as people do" waters that are above the sky

The writer speaks of a place above the sky where water is stored and from which the rain comes.

Psalms 148:5

Let them praise the name of Yahweh

Here the word "name" represents Yahweh himself.

Alternate translation: "Let them praise Yahweh"

they were created

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "he created them"

Psalms 148:6

he issued a decree that will never change

Possible meanings are 1) "he gave a command that is permanent" or 2) "he gave a command that they will not disobey."

he issued

"he gave"

Psalms 148:7

all ocean depths

This phrase represents every creature that lives in the depths of the oceans. Alternate translation: "all creatures in the ocean depths"

Psalms 148:8

fire and hail, snow and clouds, stormy wind

The writer speaks to these natural phenomena as if they are people and commands them to praise Yahweh.

stormy wind fulfilling his word

"stormy wind that does what Yahweh commands"

Psalms 148:9

Connecting Statement:

The writer continues to speak to things that are not human as if they were people and commands them to praise Yahweh.

Psalms 148:10

Wild animals ... all livestock

Together these two phrases encompass all animals.

Alternate translation: "all animals"

Psalms 148:11

Connecting Statement:

The writer commands all people to praise Yahweh.

all nations

The word "nations" represents the people who live in those nations. Alternate translation: "people of every nation"

Psalms 148:12

young men and young women, elderly and children

The writer uses two merisms, one related to gender and one related to age, to represent every person.

Psalms 148:13

the name of Yahweh, for his name alone

Here the word "name" represents Yahweh himself.

Alternate translation: "Yahweh, for he alone"

his glory extends over the earth and the heavens

The writer speaks of Yahweh's greatness as his glory being high above earth and heaven.

Psalms 148:14

He has lifted up the horn of his people

The writer speaks of strength as if it were the horn of an animal. Lifting up an animal horn was a symbolic action that represented military victory. Alternate translation: "He has made his people strong" or "He has given his people victory"

for praise from all his faithful ones

"so that all his faithful ones praise him"

the people near to him

The writer speaks of Yahweh loving his people as if his people were physically close to him. Alternate translation: "the people he loves"

Chapter 149

¹ Give praise to Yah! ¹
Sing to Yahweh a new song;
sing his praise in the assembly of the faithful ones.

² Let Israel rejoice in the one who made them;
let the people of Zion rejoice in their king.

³ Let them praise his name with dancing;
let them sing praises to him with tambourine and harp.

- ⁴ For Yahweh takes pleasure in his people;
he glorifies the humble with salvation.
- ⁵ Let the faithful ones rejoice in this honor;
let them sing for joy on their beds.
- ⁶ May the praises of God be in their mouths and a two-edged sword in their hand
- ⁷ to execute vengeance on the nations and acts of punishment on the peoples.
- ⁸ They will bind their kings with chains and their nobles with iron shackles.
- ⁹ They will execute the judgment that is written.
This will be an honor for all his faithful ones.
Give praise to Yah. ²

¹Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

²Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

Psalm 149 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 149 is a worship psalm. It is the sixth in a series of seven worship psalms. (Psalms 144-150)

Special concepts in this chapter

Praise

The people of Israel should praise God and conquer the other nations.

Links:

Psalms 149:1

Psalms 149:1

General Information:

The psalmist is speaking to all of God's people, so you should use the plural command form if your language has one. Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

a new song

Possible meanings are 1) "a song you have never sung before" or 2) a song no one has ever sung before.

sing his praise

"praise him with songs"

Psalms 149:2

rejoice in the one who made them

Possible meanings are 1) "rejoice because he made them" or 2) "rejoice because the one who made them is good."

rejoice in their king

The words "their king" is likely a reference to God. Possible meanings are 1) "rejoice because he is their king" or 2) "rejoice because their king is good."

Psalms 149:3

praise his name

The word "name" is a metonym for Yahweh himself.

Alternate translation: "praise him" or "tell people how great he is"

tambourine

a musical instrument with a head like a drum that can be hit and with pieces of metal around the side that sound when the instrument is shaken

Psalms 149:4

glorifies the humble with salvation

The abstract noun "salvation" can be translated with a verbal phrase. Alternate translation: "glorifies the humble by saving them"

the humble

This can be restated to remove the nominal adjective.

Alternate translation: "those who are humble"

Psalms 149:5

on their beds

The translation can make explicit that this refers to when a person lies down at night to sleep in a bed. Alternate translation: "as they lie down to sleep at night"

Psalms 149:6

May the praises of God be in their mouths

The mouth represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "May they always be ready to praise God"

a two-edged sword in their hand

If swords are not known, use the name of a local weapon.

The word "sword" is a metonym for being ready to fight in war. Alternate translation: "may there be a two-edged sword in their hand" or "may they always be ready to go to war for him"

Psalms 149:7

the nations

The phrase "the nations" is a metonym for the people who live in the nations. Alternate translation: "the people of the nations"

Psalms 149:8

chains

These are made of heavy metal and restrict the movement of prisoners.

shackles

a pair of chains or bands with a chain between that limits the movement of both a person's hands or feet.

Psalms 149:9

They will execute the judgment that is written

The abstract noun "judgment" can be stated as "judge."

Alternate translation: "They will judge and punish the people of those nations as God wrote should be done"

Chapter 150

- ¹ Give praise to Yah! ¹
Praise God in his holy place;
praise him in the mighty heavens.
- ² Praise him for his mighty acts;
praise him for his surpassing greatness.
- ³ Praise him with the blast of the horn;
praise him with lute and harp.
- ⁴ Praise him with tambourines and dancing;
praise him with stringed instruments and pipe.
- ⁵ Praise him with loud cymbals;
praise him with high sounding cymbals.
- ⁶ Let everything that has breath give praise to Yah!
Give praise to Yah! ²

¹Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

²Yah is a short form of the name Yahweh.

Psalm 150 General Notes

Type of psalm

Psalm 150 is a worship psalm. It is last in a series of worship psalms. (Psalms 144-150)

Special concepts in this chapter

Instruments

People should praise Yahweh with every type of musical instrument.

Links:

Psalms 150:1

Psalms 150:1

General Information:

This focuses on praise or worship that is most commonly held in the temple. Parallelism is common in Hebrew poetry.

Praise God in his holy place

God's temple was often referred to as his holy place. This was the most common place to go to worship God.

Psalms 150:2

his mighty acts

"the great things he has done." God's "mighty acts" can possibly mean 1) natural such as thunderstorms and earthquakes or 2) miraculous such as healings and great victories in battle.

Psalms 150:3

General Information:

Verses 3 to 5 focus on praising or worshiping God with musical instruments and dance.

Psalms 150:4

tambourines

A tambourine is a musical instrument with a head like a drum that can be hit and with pieces of metal around the side that sound when the instrument is shaken.

Psalms 150:5

Chapter 1

cymbals

two thin, round metal plates that are hit together to make a loud sound

Psalms 150:6

General Information:

This verse is more than the end of this psalm. It is the closing statement for all of Book 5 of the Psalms, which starts at Psalm 107 and ends with Psalm 150.

everything that has breath

This is an exaggeration that calls on all people who are alive to praise God.

Proverbs

Chapter 1

¹The proverbs of Solomon son of David, the king of Israel.

² These proverbs are to teach wisdom and instruction,
to teach words of insight,

³ that you may receive instruction in prudent behavior, righteousness, justice, and uprightness.

⁴ These proverbs are also to give wisdom to the naive, and to give knowledge and discretion to the youth.

⁵ Let wise people listen and increase their learning, and let discerning people get wise counsel,

⁶ to understand proverbs, parables, and words of wise people and their riddles.

⁷ The fear of Yahweh is the beginning of knowledge—fools despise wisdom and instruction.

⁸ My son, hear the instruction of your father and do not abandon the rules of your mother;

⁹ they will be a graceful wreath for your head and pendants hanging from your neck.

¹⁰ My son, if sinners try to entice you into their sin,
do not go with them.

¹¹ If they say, "Come with us, let us lie in wait for blood,
let us hide and attack innocent people for no reason;

¹² let us swallow them up alive, like Sheol takes away those who are healthy, and make them like those who go down into the pit;

¹³ we will find all kinds of valuable things;
we will fill our houses with plunder;

¹⁴ throw in your lot with us, and we will all have one purse together"—

Chapter 1

- ¹⁵ my son, do not walk down that path with them;
do not let your foot touch where they walk;
- ¹⁶ their feet run to evil and they hurry to shed blood.
- ¹⁷ For it is useless to spread the net
in the sight of any bird.
- ¹⁸ These men lie in wait for their own blood—
they set an ambush for their own lives.
- ¹⁹ So are the ways of everyone who gains profit by violence;
unjust gain takes away the lives of those who hold on to it.
- ²⁰ Wisdom cries aloud in the street,
she raises her voice in the open places;
- ²¹ at the head of the noisy streets she cries out,
at the entrance of the city gates she speaks her sayings,
- ²² "How long, you naive people, will you love being naive?
How long, you mockers, will you delight in mockery,
and how long, you fools, will you hate knowledge?
- ²³ Turn at my correction;
I will pour out my spirit to you;
I will make my words known to you.
- ²⁴ I have called, and you have refused to listen;
I reached out with my hand, but there was no one who paid attention.
- ²⁵ But you have ignored all my instruction and paid no attention to my correction.
- ²⁶ I will laugh at your calamity,
I will mock you when the terror comes—
- ²⁷ when your fearful dread comes like a storm and disaster sweeps over you like a whirlwind, when distress and anguish come upon you.
- ²⁸ Then they will call upon me, and I will not answer;
they will diligently seek me, but they will not find me.
- ²⁹ Because they hate knowledge and did not choose the fear of Yahweh,
- ³⁰ they would not follow my instruction, and they despised all my correction.
- ³¹ They will eat the fruit of their ways, and with the fruit of their schemes they will be filled.

³² For the naive are killed when they turn away,
and the indifference of fools will destroy them.

³³ But whoever listens to me will dwell in safety and will rest secure with no fear of disaster."

Proverbs 1 General Notes

Structure and formatting

The first chapter of proverbs begins with a type of introduction in verses 1-7. It mentions Solomon, son of David. Verse 7 contains a foundational verse for the whole book. It defines wisdom.

Special concepts in this chapter

Parallelism

Proverbs are often written without any surrounding context and in two lines of text. Each line will have a certain relationship to the other line.

Links:

Proverbs 1:1 Notes Proverbs intro

Proverbs 1:1

General Information:

Verses 2-33 are poetry.

Proverbs 1:2

to teach wisdom and instruction

This can be reworded so that the abstract nouns "wisdom" and "instruction" can be stated as adjectives or verbs.

Alternate translation: "to teach you how to be wise and to instruct you about how to live moral lives"

to teach words of insight

"to help you understand wise teachings"

Proverbs 1:3

that you may receive

Here "you" refers to the readers. If it is more natural in your language you can state it as an inclusive "we."

Alternate translation: "that we may receive" may receive instruction in prudent behavior

This can be reworded so that the abstract noun "behavior" is stated as a verb. Alternate translation: "may receive instruction in how to live prudently"

Proverbs 1:4

are also to give wisdom to the naive

This can be reworded so that the abstract noun "wisdom" can be stated as the adjective "wise." This can also be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "also teach to those who are naive how to be wise"

naive

inexperienced or immature

to give knowledge and discretion to the youth

The abstract nouns "knowledge" and "discretion" can be stated as verbs. Alternate translation: "and to teach to the youth what he needs to know and how to discern the right thing to do" the youth

"every young person" or "young people"

discretion

knowing what should be done in a particular situation

Proverbs 1:5

Let wise people listen and increase their learning

"Let those who are wise pay attention and learn even more"

let discerning people get wise counsel

"let people who have understanding learn from these proverbs how to make good decisions"

Proverbs 1:6

riddles

sayings that one can understand only after thinking about them

Proverbs 1:7

General Information:

A father teaches his child.

Yahweh

This is the name of God that he revealed to his people in the Old Testament. See the translationWord page about Yahweh concerning how to translate this.

fools despise wisdom and instruction

"those who do not value what is wise and instructive are fools"

Proverbs 1:8

do not abandon

"do not ignore" or "do not reject"

Proverbs 1:9

they will be a graceful wreath for your head and pendants hanging from your neck

The rules and instructions that parents teach their children are so valuable and important that they are spoken of as if they were a beautiful wreath or pendant that a person wears. Alternate translation: "they will make you wise just as wearing a wreath on your head or a pendant around your neck makes you beautiful"

wreath

an woven circle made of leaves or flowers pendants

jewelry that is worn around the neck

Proverbs 1:10

try to entice you into their sin

"try to persuade you to sin as they do"

do not go with them

"refuse to go them" or "do not listen to them"

Proverbs 1:11

If they say

Here the speaker gives an example of what sinners may try to entice someone to do.

lie in wait

"hide and wait for the right time"

Proverbs 1:12

General Information:

Verses 12-14 end the imagined statement of the sinners who are trying to entice others to sin.

let us swallow them up alive, like Sheol takes away those who are healthy

The sinners speak of murdering innocent people as if they were Sheol and they would take a living and healthy person down to the place where dead people go.

let us swallow ... like Sheol takes away

This speaks of the grave as if it were a person that swallows humans and takes them down to the place of the dead.

like Sheol takes away those who are healthy

The wicked expect to destroy their victims in the same way Sheol, the place of the dead, takes away even healthy people.

those who go down into the pit

These words could be 1) a literal reference to travelers who fall into a deep hole where no one will ever find them or 2) a euphemism for people who die and enter Sheol, the place of the dead.

Proverbs 1:13

we will find

The word "find" is a euphemism or metonym for "get" or "seize" by violence.

Proverbs 1:14

throw in your lot with us

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "join us"

we will all have one purse together

Here "purse" represents everything that they steal.

Alternate translation: "we will equally share everything that we steal"

purse

a bag for carrying money

Proverbs 1:15

General Information

This is the continuation of the sentence that started in 1:11 with "If they say:"

do not walk down that path with them; do not let your foot touch where they walk

To avoid behaving the same way as the sinners do is spoken of as if the son were to avoid walking on or even touching the paths that sinners walk on. Alternate translation: "do not go with the sinners, and do not do what they do"

Proverbs 1:16

their feet run to evil

The sinners having an eager interest in doing evil things is spoken of as if they were running to evil. Alternate translation: "they are eager to do wicked things"

their feet run

Here "feet" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "they run"

to shed blood

Here "blood" represents a person's life. To "shed blood" means to murder someone.

Proverbs 1:17

For it is useless to spread the net in the sight of any bird

This metaphor compares the wisdom of birds who avoid traps that they see to the foolishness of sinners who get caught in traps they make for themselves.

Proverbs 1:18

These men lie in wait for their own blood—they set an ambush for their own lives

This finishes the comparison started in [Proverbs 1:17]

These men lie in wait for their own blood

To lie in wait is to hide, ready to do something wicked.

Alternate translation: "It is as if they are looking for an opportunity to kill themselves" or "They themselves will be killed because they try to kill others"

their own blood

Here "blood" is a metonym for a violent death. Alternate translation: "to kill themselves violently"

they set an ambush for their own lives

Here "their own lives" is a metonym for themselves.

Alternate translation: "it is as if they are the ones who are waiting to suddenly attack and kill them"

Proverbs 1:19

So are the ways of everyone

A person's fate or destiny is spoken of as if it were a road a person walks on. Alternate translation: "This is what happens to everyone" gains profit by violence

If your language has a word for "profit" that has been gained by unjust means, you should use it here.

unjust gain takes away the lives of those who hold on to it

A person destroying themselves by trying to gain wealth through violence, theft, and deceit is spoken of as if the unjust gains will kill those who take it. Alternate translation: "it is like the unjust gains will destroy those who hold on to it"

Proverbs 1:20

General Information:

In 1:20-1:33 Wisdom is spoken of as if it were a woman speaking to the people.

Wisdom cries aloud

If your language does not allow you to treat wisdom as a woman shouting to the people in the city, you might try something like "Grandmother Wisdom cries aloud" or "Honored Miss Wisdom cries aloud" or "Wisdom is like a woman who cries aloud"

raises her voice

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "speaks with a loud voice" in the open places

This means places where there would be a lot of people.

Chapter 1

Alternate translation: "in the markets" or "in the town squares"

Proverbs 1:21

at the head of the noisy streets

Possible meanings are 1) "head" refers to the place where busy streets intersect or 2) "head" refers to the top of a wall where people on noisy streets could see and hear wisdom speaking.

Proverbs 1:22

How long, you naive people, will you love being naive?

Wisdom uses this question to rebuke those who are not wise. Alternate translation: "You who are naive must stop loving being naive."

naive

inexperienced or immature

How long, you mockers, will you delight in mockery, and how long, you fools, will you hate knowledge?

Wisdom uses this question to rebuke the mockers and the fools. Alternate translation: "You who mock must stop delighting in mockery, and you fools must stop hating knowledge."

Proverbs 1:23

General Information:

Wisdom continues to speak.

Turn at my correction

Possible meanings are 1) "Repent when you hear me correct you" or 2) "Listen carefully to me when I correct you."

I will pour out my spirit to you

Wisdom telling the people everything she thinks about them is spoken of as if her spirit were a liquid that she would pour out.

spirit

This is a metonym for thoughts. This and the word "words" form a merism of thoughts and words, meaning that wisdom is teaching people everything she has to teach. This word does not refer to the Holy Spirit. Alternate translation: "thoughts"

I will make my words known to you

"I will tell you what I think"

Proverbs 1:24

I reached out with my hand

This phrase is an idiom that means to beckon someone or to invite a person to come. Alternate translation: "I invited you to come to me"

Proverbs 1:25

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 1:26

General Information:

Wisdom continues to speak, describing what happens to those who ignore her.

I will laugh

This can be stated with the word "therefore" to show that the woman wisdom laughs at them because they ignored her. Alternate translation: "Therefore I will laugh"

at your calamity

"when bad things happen to you"

Proverbs 1:27

when your fearful dread comes like a storm ... like a whirlwind ... come upon you

Terrible things happening to the people is compared to a storm hitting them and causing fear and suffering.

whirlwind

a very strong wind storm that causes damage

Proverbs 1:28

Connecting Statement:

Wisdom continues speaking.

Then they will call upon me

"Then those who ignored me will cry out to me for help"

Proverbs 1:29

Because they hate knowledge

The abstract noun "knowledge" can be stated as the verb "learn." Alternate translation: "Because they refused to learn to be wise"

did not choose the fear of Yahweh

The abstract noun "fear" can be stated as a verb. Alternate translation: "did not fear Yahweh" or "did not honor and respect Yahweh"

Proverbs 1:30

would not follow my instruction

"would not accept my instruction" or "rejected my advice"

Proverbs 1:31

General Information:

Verse 33 ends wisdom's statement that began in Proverbs 1:22.

eat the fruit of their ways

Here a person's behavior is spoken of as if it were a way or road. Also, a person receiving the results of their behavior is spoken as if the person were eating the fruit of their behavior. Alternate translation: "experience the consequences of their actions" with the fruit of their schemes they will be filled

"they will eat the fruit of their schemes until they are full."

A person receiving the results of their own evil plans is spoken of as eating the fruit of their schemes. Alternate translation: "they will suffer the consequences of their own evil plans"

Proverbs 1:32

naive

inexperienced or immature

are killed when they turn away

A person rejecting wisdom is spoken of as if the person physically turns away from wisdom. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "die because they refuse to learn" the indifference of fools will destroy them

The abstract noun "indifference" can be stated as a verb. Alternate translation: "fools will die because they do not care about what should be done" indifference

a lack of interest about something

Proverbs 1:33

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Chapter 2

- ¹ My son, if you receive my words and treasure up my commandments with you,
- ² make your ears pay attention to wisdom and incline your heart to understanding.
- ³ If you cry out for discernment and raise your voice for understanding,
- ⁴ if you seek it like you would seek silver and search for understanding as you would seek hidden treasures,
- ⁵ then you will understand the fear of Yahweh and you will find the knowledge of God.
- ⁶ For Yahweh gives wisdom;
from his mouth comes knowledge and understanding.
- ⁷ He stores up sound wisdom for the upright;
he is a shield for those who walk in integrity;
- ⁸ he guards the paths of justice and he will preserve the way of his faithful ones.
- ⁹ Then you will understand righteousness, justice, and equity, and every good path.
- ¹⁰ For wisdom will come into your heart, and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.
- ¹¹ Discretion will watch over you;
understanding will guard you.
- ¹² They will rescue you from the way of evil,
from those who speak perverse things,
- ¹³ who abandon the paths of uprightness and walk in the ways of darkness.
- ¹⁴ They rejoice when they do evil and delight in the perversities of evil.
- ¹⁵ They follow crooked paths,
and using deception they hide their tracks.
- ¹⁶ Wisdom and discretion will save you from an adulteress, from an immoral woman and her flattering words.
- ¹⁷ She abandons the companion of her youth and forgets the covenant of her God.

¹⁸ For her house sinks down to death, and her tracks will lead you to those in the grave.

¹⁹ All who go to her will not return again and they will not reach the paths of life.

²⁰ So you will walk in the way of good people and follow the paths of righteous people.

²¹ For the upright will make a home in the land, and those with integrity will remain in it.

²² But the wicked will be cut off from the land, and the faithless will be cut off from it.

Proverbs 2 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 2 continues a collection of proverbs that ends in chapter nine.

Special concepts in this chapter

My Son

Occasionally, the author addresses a proverb to "my son." This is not intended to restrict the words of that proverb to only males. Instead, it is simply a form used to pass on advice as a father does to his son.

Links:

Proverbs 2:1 Notes

Proverbs 2:1

General Information:

A father teaches his child using poetry.

if you receive my words

"if you listen to what I am teaching you"

treasure up my commandments with you

Valuing what is commanded is spoken of as if the commandments were a treasure and the person were a safe place to store the treasure. Alternate translation: "consider my commands to be as valuable as a treasure"

Proverbs 2:2

make your ears pay attention

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "force yourself to listen carefully" to wisdom

This abstract noun can be stated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "to the wise things I am teaching you" incline your heart to understanding

Here "heart" represents a person's mind. The phrase "incline your heart" is an idiom that means to commit or fully dedicate one's mind to a task. Alternate translation: "try hard to understand what is wise" or "fully dedicate yourself to understanding wise teachings"

Proverbs 2:3

raise your voice

This is an idiom that means to speak loudly or to shout.

Proverbs 2:4

if you seek it like you would seek silver and search for understanding as you would seek hidden treasures

Both phrases have the same meaning. These similes emphasize the great effort a person should make to understand what is wise. Alternate translation: "if you seek understanding with as much effort as you search for a valuable object"

you seek it ... search for understanding

Trying very hard to understand what is wise is spoken of as if understanding were an object for which a person must search.

Proverbs 2:5

you will find the knowledge of God

To succeed in knowing God is spoken of as if the knowledge of God were an object that a person finds after searching.

Proverbs 2:6

from his mouth comes knowledge and understanding

Here "mouth" represents Yahweh himself or what he says. Alternate translation: "from Yahweh comes knowledge and understanding" or "Yahweh tells us what we need to know and understand"

Proverbs 2:7

He stores up sound wisdom for the upright

Yahweh teaching wisdom to people is spoken of as if wisdom were an item that Yahweh stores and gives to people. Alternate translation: "He teaches what is truly wise to the upright"

the upright

"the person who lives rightly" or "people who live rightly"

sound

"dependable"

Chapter 2

he is a shield for those

Yahweh being able to protect his people is spoken of as if he were a shield. Alternate translation: "God protects those" who walk in integrity

A person behaving with integrity is spoken of as if they were walking in integrity. Alternate translation: "who behave with integrity" or "who live their lives as they should"

Proverbs 2:8

he guards the paths of justice

Possible meanings are 1) justice itself is spoken of as if it were a path. Alternate translation: "God makes sure that people act justly" or 2) a person's life is spoken of as if it were a path. Alternate translation: "God protects those who act justly" preserve the way of his faithful ones

A person's life is spoken of as if it were a way or road.

Alternate translation: "protect those who are faithful to him"

Proverbs 2:9

equity

fairness

every good path

A behavior that is wise and pleases Yahweh is spoken of as if it were a good path. Alternate translation: "ways to live that are pleasing to God"

Proverbs 2:10

wisdom will come into your heart

Here "heart" represents a person's inner being. A person becoming wise is spoken of as if wisdom would enter into a person's heart. Alternate translation: "you will gain much wisdom" or "you will learn how to be truly wise" pleasant to your soul

Here "soul" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "pleasing to you" or "enjoyable to you"

Proverbs 2:11

Discretion will watch over you; understanding will guard you

This speaks of "discretion" and "understanding" as if they were persons who could watch over someone else. Both statements mean basically the same thing. Alternate translation: "Because you think carefully and understand what is right and wrong, you will be safe"

Discretion

the quality of being careful in actions and speech watch over to guard, protect or take care of someone or something

Proverbs 2:12

They will rescue you from the way of evil

"They" refers to discretion and understanding, which are spoken of as if they were persons who could rescue someone else. Alternate translation: "You will know to stay away from what is evil"

from the way of evil

Evil behaviors are spoken of as if evil were a way or path on which a person walks.

Proverbs 2:13

who abandon the paths of uprightness and walk in the ways of darkness

A person no longer doing what is right but deciding to do what is evil is spoken of as if the person stops walking on the correct path and chooses to walk down a dark path. who abandon

The word "who" refers to the people who speak perverse things.

abandon

to leave and never return to someone or something

Proverbs 2:14

They rejoice

"They" refers to the same people as in Proverbs 2:12.

delight in the perversities of evil

This means basically the same thing as the first part of the sentence. Alternate translation: "delight in doing what they know is evil"

Proverbs 2:15

They follow crooked paths

People who lie to others are spoken of as if they walk on crooked or twisted paths. Alternate translation: "They deceive other people"

using deception they hide their tracks

People lying so that others will not find out what they did is spoken of as if they covered the tracks on a path so that no one could follow them. Alternate translation: "they lie so that no one will know what they have done"

Proverbs 2:16

General Information:

The father continues to teach his child how wisdom will protect him.

Wisdom and discretion will save you

The writer speaks of wisdom and discretion as if they were people who save the one who possesses them. Alternate translation: "If you have wisdom and discretion, you will save yourself"

Proverbs 2:17

the companion of her youth

This refers to her husband, whom she married when she was young.

the covenant of her God

This likely refers to the marriage covenant that she made with her husband in the presence of God.

Proverbs 2:18

her house sinks down to death

Possible meanings are 1) "going to her house leads to death" or 2) "the road to her house is the road to death."

her tracks will lead you

Possible meanings are 1) "the paths to her house will lead you." This refers to the tracks or path that lead to her house, or 2) this is a metaphor that speaks of her way of life as if it were a path on which she walks. Alternate translation: "her way of life will lead you" to those in the grave

This refers to the spirits of dead people and is a metonym for the place of the dead. Alternate translation: "to the grave"

Proverbs 2:19

go to her

This is a polite way of speaking about having sexual relations. Alternate translation: "have sexual relations with her" or "lie with her"

Chapter 3

they will not reach the paths of life

Possible meanings are 1) "they will not return to the land of the living" or 2) "they will never live a happy life again."

Proverbs 2:20

So

The writer tells the result of getting understanding and discretion.

you will walk in the way ... follow the paths

A person's conduct is spoken of as if it were walking on a path. Alternate translation: "you will live in the way ... follow the example"

Proverbs 2:21

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 2:22

the wicked will be cut off from the land

The writer speaks of Yahweh removing people from the land as if he were cutting the people off, like a person might cut a branch from a tree. This can be stated in active form.

Alternate translation: "Yahweh will remove the wicked from the land"

the wicked ... the faithless

These are nominal adjectives that can be stated as adjectives. Alternate translation: "those who are wicked ...

those who are faithless" or "wicked people ... faithless people"

the faithless will be cut off from it

The writer speaks of Yahweh removing people from the land as if he were cutting the people off, like a person might cut a branch from a tree. This can be stated in active form.

Alternate translation: "he will remove the faithless from it"

Chapter 3

- ¹ My son, do not forget my teaching,
and keep my commandments in your heart,
- ² for the length of your days and years of your life,
they will add peace to you.
- ³ Do not let steadfast love and faithfulness ever leave you;
tie them together about your neck;
write them on the tablet of your heart.
- ⁴ Then you will find favor and a good reputation
in the sight of God and man.
- ⁵ Trust in Yahweh with all your heart and do not lean on your own understanding;
- ⁶ in all your ways acknowledge him and he will make your paths straight.
- ⁷ Do not be wise in your own eyes;
fear Yahweh and turn away from evil.
- ⁸ It will be healing to your flesh and refreshment for your bones.
- ⁹ Honor Yahweh with your wealth and with the firstfruits of all your produce,
- ¹⁰ and your storehouses will be filled up and your vats will be bursting, full of new wine.

- ¹¹ My son, do not despise Yahweh's instruction and do not hate his rebuke,
- ¹² for Yahweh disciplines those he loves,
as a father deals with a son who pleases him.
- ¹³ The one who finds wisdom is blessed;
he also gets understanding.
- ¹⁴ What you gain from wisdom is better than what silver will give in return and its profit is better than gold.
- ¹⁵ Wisdom is more precious than jewels and nothing you desire can compare to her.
- ¹⁶ She has the length of her days in her right hand;
in her left hand are riches and honor.
- ¹⁷ Her ways are ways of pleasantness and all her paths are peace.
- ¹⁸ She is a tree of life to those who take hold of it;
those who hold on to it are happy.
- ¹⁹ By wisdom Yahweh founded the earth;
by understanding he established the heavens.
- ²⁰ By his knowledge the depths broke open and the clouds dropped their dew.
- ²¹ My son, do not let these depart from your eyes:
guard sound wisdom and discretion.
- ²² They will be life to your soul and an adornment of favor to wear around your neck.
- ²³ Then you will walk on your way in safety and your foot will not stumble;
- ²⁴ when you lie down, you will not be afraid;
when you lie down, your sleep will be sweet.
- ²⁵ Do not be afraid of sudden terror or devastation caused by the wicked, when it comes,
- ²⁶ for Yahweh will be on your side and will keep your foot from being caught in a trap.
- ²⁷ Do not withhold good from those who deserve it,
when it is in your power to act.

- ²⁸ Do not say to your neighbor,
"Go, and come again, and tomorrow I will give it,"
when you have the money with you.
- ²⁹ Do not make a plan to harm your neighbor—
the one who dwells in safety with you.
- ³⁰ Do not argue with a person without a reason,
when he has done nothing to harm you.
- ³¹ Do not envy a violent person or choose any of his ways.
- ³² For the devious person is an abomination to Yahweh, but he brings the upright person into his confidence.
- ³³ The curse of Yahweh is on the house of the wicked person, but he blesses the home of righteous people.
- ³⁴ He mocks mockers,
but he gives his favor to humble people.
- ³⁵ Wise people inherit honor,
but fools will be lifted up in their shame.

Proverbs 3 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 3 continues a collection of proverbs that ends in chapter nine.

Special concepts in this chapter

My Son

Occasionally, the author addresses a proverb to "my son." This is not intended to restrict the words of that proverb to only males. Instead, it is simply a form used to pass on advice as a father does to his son.

Wisdom is feminine

You may notice that wisdom is referenced using a feminine pronoun. This is a feature that is carried in from the Hebrew language. This may apply well in your language but if it does not, follow the conventions of your language. (See: wise)

Links:

Proverbs 3:1 Notes

Proverbs 3:1

General Information:

The writer speaks as a father teaching his child using poetry.

do not forget my teaching

The word "teaching" can be translated as a verb. Alternate translation: "do not forget what I have taught you" keep my commandments in your heart

This phrase says in positive terms what the previous phrase says in negative terms. Here the word "heart" represents the mind. The word "commandments" can be translated as a verb. Alternate translation: "always remember what I have commanded you" for the length of your days and years of your life

Proverbs 3:2

These two phrases share similar meanings and refer to the duration of a person's life. Alternate translation: "all your life" or "as long as you live"

Proverbs 3:3

Do not let steadfast love and faithfulness ever leave you

The writer speaks of "steadfast love" and "faithfulness" as if they were people who could leave someone. The abstract nouns "love" and "faithfulness" can be stated with the verb "love" and the adjective "faithful." Also, the negative command can be stated positively. Alternate translation: "Love God without ceasing and be faithful to him"

tie them together about your neck

The writer speaks of faithfulness and trustworthiness as if they were objects that a person could tie around the neck like a necklace. The image suggests that these are valuable things that the person displays outwardly. Alternate translation: "display them proudly like one would wear a necklace"

write them on the tablet of your heart

Here the heart represents a person's mind. The mind is spoken of as if it were a tablet upon which someone can write messages and commands. Alternate translation: "always remember them, as if you had written them permanently on a tablet"

Proverbs 3:4

in the sight of God and man

Here sight represents judgment or evaluation. Alternate translation: "in the judgment of God and man"

Proverbs 3:5

all your heart

Here the word "heart" represents the inner person.

Alternate translation: "your whole being"

do not lean on your own understanding

The writer speaks of relying on one's own understanding as if "understanding" were an object on which a person can lean. Alternate translation: "do not rely on your own understanding" or "do not trust your own understanding"

Proverbs 3:6

in all your ways

The writer speaks of a person's actions as if they were paths on which the person walks. Alternate translation: "in everything you do"

he will make your paths straight

The writer speaks of Yahweh making a person's actions prosperous as if that person's actions were paths on which he walks and which Yahweh makes free of obstacles.

Alternate translation: "he will give you success"

Proverbs 3:7

Do not be wise in your own eyes

The writer speaks of a person's opinion as if that person were seeing something with his eyes. Alternate translation: "Do not be wise in your own opinion"

turn away from evil

The writer speaks of not committing evil actions as if it were turning away from evil. Alternate translation: "do not commit evil"

Proverbs 3:8

It will be healing to your flesh

The word "it" refers to the instructions that the writer gives in the previous verse. The full meaning of this can be made clear. The word "flesh" represents the whole body.

Alternate translation: "If you do this, it will be healing for your body"

flesh ... bones

These words form a merism that refers to the entire person through metonymy for the outer man and the inner man.

Proverbs 3:9

all your produce

"all the food you harvest"

Proverbs 3:10

your storehouses will be filled up

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"your storehouses will be full"

storehouses

buildings or rooms where food is stored

your vats will be bursting your storage containers will be extremely full, as if ready to break open.

Proverbs 3:11

General Information:

The writer writes as a father teaching his son.

Proverbs 3:12

a son who pleases him

"a son in whom he delights." This refers to the father's affection for the son, and not to the father's approval of the son's behavior. Alternate translation: "a son whom he loves"

Proverbs 3:13

The one who finds wisdom

The writer speaks of "wisdom" as if it were an object that one finds. Alternate translation: "The one who attains wisdom"

Proverbs 3:14

what silver will give in return

This refers to the profit that one can make from trading or investing silver.

Proverbs 3:15

General Information:

The author speaks of wisdom as if it were a woman.

more precious

"more valuable"

Proverbs 3:16

She has the length of her days in her right hand; in her left hand are riches and honor

The writer speak of the benefits that one gains from having wisdom as if wisdom were a woman who held these qualities in her hands and offered them to people. Alternate translation: "Wisdom gives a person length of days and riches and honor"

length of her days

This idiom refers to the duration of person's life and may imply a long life. Alternate translation: "long life"

Proverbs 3:17

Her ways are ways of pleasantness and all her paths are peace

The writer speaks of wisdom as if it were a woman and of the benefits that wisdom gives a person as if wisdom were leading that person along a way or a path. Alternate translation: "Wisdom will always treat you pleasantly and give you peace"

ways of pleasantness

"pleasant ways"

Proverbs 3:18

She is a tree of life to those who take hold of it

The writer speaks of wisdom as if it were a tree that bears life-giving fruit and of a person who benefits from wisdom as if that person ate of the fruit. Alternate translation:

"Wisdom is like a tree that sustains the life of those who eat of its fruit"

a tree of life

"a tree that gives life" or "a tree whose fruit sustains life"

those who hold on to it

"those who hold on to its fruit"

Proverbs 3:19

Yahweh founded the earth ... established the heavens

The writer speaks of Yahweh creating the earth and the heavens as if he were laying the foundation of a building. Alternate translation: "Yahweh created the earth ... made the heavens"

Proverbs 3:20

the depths broke open

In ancient thought, water existed under the earth. This phrase refers to Yahweh causing that water to come out of the earth and make the oceans and rivers exist. Alternate translation: "he caused the rivers to flow" or "he caused the oceans to exist"

dew

water that forms on the ground at night

Proverbs 3:21

do not let these depart from your eyes ... wisdom ... discretion

The word "eyes" is a metonym for what the eyes see, and "wisdom" and "discretion" are spoken of as if they were animals able to escape or wander away. Alternate translation: "do not let these out of your sight ... wisdom ... discretion" or "never forget ... wisdom ... discretion" or "always remember ... wisdom ... discretion"

Proverbs 3:22

They will be life to your soul

Here the word "soul" represents the person. Alternate translation: "They will be life for you"

an adornment of favor to wear around your neck

The writer speaks of "sound judgment" and "discernment" as if they were objects that a person could tie around the neck like a necklace. The image suggests that these are valuable things that the person displays outwardly. Alternate translation: "a display of favor like one would adorn themselves with a necklace"

adornment of favor

Possible meanings are 1) "a favorable adornment" or 2) "an adornment that displays Yahweh's favor."

Proverbs 3:23

you will walk on your way in safety

The writer speaks of living one's life as if the person were walking along a path. Alternate translation: "you will live your life in safety"

your foot will not stumble

The word "foot" represents the whole person. The writer speaks of doing wrong as if a person stumbled over an object in his path. Alternate translation: "you will not do things that are wrong"

Proverbs 3:24

when you lie down

It is implied that a person lies down in order to sleep. The meaning of this can be made clear. Alternate translation: "when you lie down to sleep"

your sleep will be sweet

The writer speaks of sleep that is peaceful and refreshing as if it tasted sweet to the person sleeping. The word "sleep" can be translated as a verb. Alternate translation: "your sleep will be pleasant" or "you will sleep peacefully"

Proverbs 3:25

devastation caused by the wicked, when it comes

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"when the wicked cause devastation"

the wicked

This refers to wicked persons in general. This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "wicked people"

Proverbs 3:26

Yahweh will be on your side

"Yahweh will be by your side." A person standing by another person's side is an idiom that means that the one person will help and support the other. Alternate translation: "Yahweh will support and defend you" will keep your foot from being caught in a trap

The writer speaks of a person experiencing harm from "terror" and "devastation" as if the person were caught in a trap. The word "foot" represents the whole person.

Alternate translation: "will protect you from those who want to harm you"

Proverbs 3:27

Do not withhold good

"Do not withhold good things" or "Do not withhold good actions"

when it is in your power to act

"when you are able to help"

Proverbs 3:28

when you have the money with you

"when you have the money with you now." The meaning here is that the person has the money to help today, but tells his neighbor to come back tomorrow.

Proverbs 3:29

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 3:30

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 3:31

Do not ... choose any of his ways

It is implied that he is not to choose to imitate the actions of the violent person. Alternate translation: "Do not ... choose to imitate any of his ways"

Proverbs 3:32

the devious person is an abomination to Yahweh

"Yahweh strongly hates the devious person"

the devious person

the person who is dishonest or deceitful

he brings the upright person into his confidence

Yahweh shares his thoughts with the those who do right as with a close, trusted friend. Alternate translation: "Yahweh is a close friend to the upright"

Proverbs 3:33

The curse of Yahweh is on the house of the wicked person

The writer speaks of Yahweh's curse as if it were an object that he placed on top of the wicked person's house. The word "house" is a metonym for family. Alternate translation: "Yahweh has cursed the family of the wicked person"

Chapter 4

he blesses the home of righteous people

The word "home" represents the family. Alternate translation: "he blesses the families of righteous people" Proverbs 3:34

he gives his favor to humble people

The writer speaks of Yahweh's favor as if it were an object that he gives to people. Alternate translation: "he shows his favor to humble people" or "he is gracious to humble people"

Proverbs 3:35

Wise people inherit honor

The writer speaks of wise people obtaining a reputation of honor as if they inherited honor as a permanent possession. Alternate translation: "Wise people will obtain honor" or "Wise people will gain an honorable reputation" fools will be lifted up in their shame

The writer speaks of Yahweh making the shame of fools evident to everyone as if Yahweh were lifting fools up for everyone to see them. This can be stated in active form.

Alternate translation: "Yahweh will cause everyone to see the shame of fools"

Chapter 4

¹ Listen, sons, to a father's instruction, and pay attention so you will know what understanding is.

² I am giving you good instructions;
do not abandon my teaching.

³ When I was a son of my father,
the tender and only child of my mother,

⁴ he taught me and said to me,
"Let your heart hold fast to my words;
keep my commands and live.

⁵ Acquire wisdom and understanding;
do not forget and do not reject the words of my mouth;

⁶ do not abandon wisdom and she will watch over you;
love her and she will keep you safe.

⁷ Wisdom is the most important thing, so acquire wisdom and spend all you own so you can get understanding.

⁸ Cherish wisdom and she will exalt you;
she will honor you when you embrace her.

⁹ She will put a wreath of honor on your head;
she will give you a beautiful crown."

¹⁰ Listen, my son, and receive my words, and you will have many years in your life.

¹¹ I am teaching you in the way of wisdom;
I am leading you in upright paths.

¹² When you walk, no one will stand in your way and if you run, you will not stumble.

¹³ Hold on to instruction, do not let it go;
guard it, for it is your life.

¹⁴ Do not follow the path of the wicked and do not go along the way of those who do evil.

- ¹⁵ Avoid it, do not go on it;
turn away from it and go another way.
- ¹⁶ For they cannot sleep until they do evil and they are robbed of sleep until they cause someone to stumble.
- ¹⁷ For they devour the bread of wickedness and drink the wine of violence.
- ¹⁸ But the path of righteous people is like the first light that grows brighter;
it shines more and more until the fullness of the day comes.
- ¹⁹ The way of the wicked is like darkness—
they do not know what it is they stumble over.
- ²⁰ My son, pay attention to my words;
incline your ear to my sayings.
- ²¹ Do not let them turn away from your eyes;
keep them in your heart.
- ²² For my words are life to those who find them and health to their whole body.
- ²³ Keep your heart safe and guard it with all diligence, for from it flow the springs of life.
- ²⁴ Put crooked speech away from you and put corrupt talk far from you.
- ²⁵ Let your eyes look straight ahead and fix your gaze straight before you.
- ²⁶ Make a level path for your foot;
then all your ways will be established.
- ²⁷ Do not turn aside to the right or to the left;
turn your foot away from evil.

Proverbs 4 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 4 continues a collection of proverbs that ends in chapter nine.

Special concepts in this chapter

My Son

Occasionally, the author addresses a proverb to "my son." This is not intended to restrict the words of that proverb to only males. Instead, it is simply a form used to pass on advice as a father does to his son.

Wisdom is feminine

You may notice that wisdom is referenced using a feminine pronoun. This is a feature that is carried in from the Hebrew language. This may apply well in your language but if it does not, follow the conventions of your language. (See: wise)

Links:

Proverbs 4:1 Notes

Proverbs 4:1

General Information:

The writer speaks as a father teaching his children.

pay attention

"listen carefully"

you will know what understanding is

"you will know how to understand" or "you will gain understanding"

Proverbs 4:2

I am giving you good instructions

"What I am teaching you is good"

Proverbs 4:3

When I was a son of my father

This refers to the time when the writer was a child still living under his father's care. Alternate translation: "When I was still a boy learning from my father"

the tender and only child

Here the word "tender" refers to a young age at which the child is still weak. It forms a hendiadys with the word "only." Alternate translation: "the tender only child"

Proverbs 4:4

Let your heart hold fast to my words

Here the word "heart" represents the person's mind. The writer speaks of remembering words as if the heart were holding on tightly to them. Alternate translation: "Always remember what I am teaching you"

Proverbs 4:5

General Information:

The father continues to teach his children what his father taught him.

Acquire wisdom

"Work hard to gain for yourself wisdom" or "Get wisdom"

do not forget

"remember"

do not reject

"accept"

the words of my mouth

Here the word "mouth" represents the person who speaks.

Alternate translation: "what I am saying"

Proverbs 4:6

do not abandon wisdom and she will watch over you; love her and she will keep you safe

The writer speaks of wisdom as if it were a woman who protects the person who is faithful to her.

do not abandon wisdom

This can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation:

"hold tightly to wisdom" or "be faithful to wisdom"

love her

"love wisdom"

Proverbs 4:7

General Information:

The father finishes teaching his children what his father taught him.

spend all you own so you can get understanding

"value understanding more than all you own"

Proverbs 4:8

Cherish wisdom and she will exalt you

The writer speaks of wisdom as if it were a woman and of wisdom giving great honor to a person as if wisdom lifted that person to a high position. Alternate translation: "If you cherish wisdom, she will give you great honor" to feel or show great love for someone or something

Cherish

she will honor you when you embrace her

The writer speaks of wisdom as if it were a woman and of a person valuing wisdom as if the person placed his arms around her. Alternate translation: "if you love wisdom greatly, wisdom will cause people to honor you"

Proverbs 4:9

She will put a wreath of honor on your head

The writer speaks of the honor that a person will have from gaining wisdom as if wisdom placed a wreath upon that person's head. Alternate translation: "Wisdom will be like a wreath on your head that shows your great honor"

wreath

a woven circle made of leaves or flowers

she will give you a beautiful crown

The writer speaks of the honor that a person will have from gaining wisdom as if wisdom placed a crown upon that person's head. Alternate translation: "wisdom will be like a beautiful crown on your head"

Proverbs 4:10

receive my words

"be willing to listen carefully to what I teach you"

you will have many years in your life

"you will live many years"

Proverbs 4:11

I am teaching you in the way of wisdom; I am leading you in upright paths

The writer speaks of teaching his son to live wisely as if he were leading his son along the paths where one may find wisdom. Alternate translation: "I am teaching you how to live wisely; I am explaining the right way to live"

I am teaching ... I am leading

If your language has a way of specifying that it is by his words Proverbs 4:10 and that the writer is teaching and leading, you may want to use it here. Alternate translation: "With these words I am teaching ... with them I am leading"

Proverbs 4:12

When you walk, no one will stand in your way and if you run, you will not stumble

These two lines share similar meanings. The writer speaks of the decisions and actions that a person makes as if that person were walking or running along a path and of the person being successful as if the path were free of obstacles that might make the person stumble. Alternate translation: "When you plan something, you will succeed in doing it"

Proverbs 4:13

Hold on to instruction, do not let it go

The writer speaks of a person remembering what he has learned as if "instruction" were an object that the person can hold tightly. Alternate translation: "Continue to obey what I have taught you and never forget it" for it is your life

The writer speaks of discipline preserving a person's life as if it were that person's life. Alternate translation: "for it will preserve your life"

Proverbs 4:14

Do not follow the path of the wicked and do not go along the way of those who do evil

The writer speaks of a person's actions as if that person were walking along a path. Alternate translation: "Do not do what wicked people do and do not join in the actions of people who do evil"

Proverbs 4:15

Avoid it

"Avoid the path of the wicked"

Proverbs 4:16

they cannot sleep until they do evil

They probably could literally sleep, but the writer uses an exaggeration to express how intensely they desire to commit evil actions.

they are robbed of sleep

The writer speaks of people being unable to sleep as if sleep were an object that someone stole from them. They probably could literally sleep, but the writer uses an exaggeration to express how intensely they desire to commit evil actions. Alternate translation: "they are unable to sleep"

until they cause someone to stumble

The writer speaks of causing harm to another person as if it were causing that person to stumble. Alternate translation: "until they harm someone"

Proverbs 4:17

they devour the bread of wickedness and drink the wine of violence Possible meanings are 1) this is a metaphor in which the writer speaks of these people constantly committing wickedness and violence as if they ate and drank them like one would drink bread and wine. Alternate translation: "wickedness is like the bread that they eat and violence is like the wine that they drink" or 2) these people get their food and drink by committing wickedness and violence. Alternate translation: "they eat bread that they obtain by doing wicked things and drink wine that they obtain through violence" devour

eat a great amount quickly

Proverbs 4:18

the path of righteous people

The writer speaks of the actions and lifestyles of righteous people as if they were a "path" or "way" upon which they walk. Alternate translation: "the lifestyle of righteous people" the path of righteous people is like the first light that grows brighter

The writer compares the path of righteous people to the sunrise, meaning that they are safe because they have light to see where they are walking. Alternate translation: "righteous people walk along their path safely because the morning sun shines on it and grows brighter"

the first light

This refers to the dawn or sunrise.

until the fullness of the day comes

This refers to the time of day at which the sun shines the brightest. Alternate translation: "until the sun shines most brightly" or "until full daylight"

Proverbs 4:19

The way of the wicked

The writer speaks of the actions and lifestyles of wicked people as if they were a "path" or "way" upon which they walk. Alternate translation: "The lifestyle of the wicked"

The way of the wicked is like darkness

The writer compares the way of wicked people to darkness, meaning that they are always in danger because they have no light to see where they are walking. Alternate translation: "Wicked people walk dangerously along their path because they have no light to be able to see"

they do not know what it is they stumble over

The writer speaks of experiencing harm as if it were stumbling over an object in the path along which the person walks. Alternate translation: "they do not know why they experience harm and misfortune"

Proverbs 4:20

pay attention

"listen carefully"

incline your ear to my sayings

Here the word "ear" represents the person who is listening.

The writer speaks of listening attentively to someone as if it were leaning forward so that the ear is closer to the one speaking. The word "sayings" can be translated as a verb. Alternate translation: "listen attentively to the things that I am saying"

Proverbs 4:21

Do not let them turn away from your eyes

The writer speaks of always thinking about something as if it were keeping it where one can see it. Alternate translation: "Do not stop thinking about them"

keep them in your heart

The writer speaks of remembering something as if it were keeping it within one's heart. Alternate translation: "always remember them"

Proverbs 4:22

my words are life

The writer speaks of his words preserving a person's life as if they were that person's life. Alternate translation: "my words give life" or "the things I say give life"

to those who find them

The writer speaks of fully understanding his words as if the person searches for them and finds them. Alternate translation: "to those who understand and practice them" health to their whole body

The word "their" refers to "those who find them." The subject for this phrase can be supplied from the previous phrase. Alternate translation: "my words will give health to the whole body of those who find them"

Proverbs 4:23

Keep your heart safe and guard it

Here the word "heart" represents a person's mind and thoughts. Alternate translation: "Keep your mind safe and guard your thoughts"

with all diligence

Chapter 5

with constant and earnest effort

from it flow the springs of life

The word "it" refers to the heart, which is a metonym for the mind and thoughts. The writer speaks of a person's life as if it were a flowing spring that originates from the heart. Alternate translation: "from your thoughts comes everything you say and do" or "your thoughts determine your course of life"

Proverbs 4:24

Put crooked speech away from you and put corrupt talk far from you

The writer speaks of lying or deceitful speech as if it were crooked and of a person not using this kind of language as if it were removing it far away from oneself. Alternate translation: "Do not lie and do not speak deceitfully"

Proverbs 4:25

Let your eyes look straight ahead and fix your gaze straight before you

Here the word "eyes" represents the person who is looking.

The writer speaks of a person being committed to doing the right thing as if that person were constantly looking forward without turning his head to look in another direction. Alternate translation: "Always look straight ahead and fix your gaze straight before you"

Proverbs 4:26

Make a level path for your foot

Here the word "foot" represents the person who is walking.

The writer speaks of a person's actions as if he were walking along a path, and of planning those actions carefully as if it were making that path level. Alternate translation: "Make a level path to walk on" or "Prepare well what you want to do"

a level path

"a smooth path" or "an even path"

then all your ways will be established

The writer speaks of a person's actions as if the person were walking along a path and of those actions being successful as if the path were safe and secure. Alternate translation: "then everything that you do will be right"

Proverbs 4:27

Do not turn aside to the right or to the left

The directions "right" and "left" form a merism, meaning that the person is not to leave the level path in any direction. Alternate translation: "Walk straight ahead and do not leave the level path"

turn your foot away from evil

Here the word "foot" represents the person who walks. The writer speaks of not committing evil actions as if the person were walking away from evil. Alternate translation: "turn away from evil" or "stay away from evil"

Chapter 5

- ¹ My son, pay attention to my wisdom;
incline your ears to my understanding,
- ² so you may learn about discretion and your lips may protect knowledge.
- ³ For the lips of an adulteress drip with honey and her mouth is smoother than oil,
- ⁴ but in the end she is as bitter as wormwood,
cutting like a sharp sword.
- ⁵ Her feet go down to death;
her steps go all the way to Sheol.
- ⁶ She gives no thought to the path of life.
Her footsteps wander;
she does not know where she is going.
- ⁷ Now, my sons, listen to me;
do not turn away from listening to the words of my mouth.
- ⁸ Keep your path far away from her and do not come near the door of her house.
- ⁹ In that way you will not give away your honor to others or years of your life to a cruel person;
- ¹⁰ strangers will not feast on your strength;
your labor will not go into the house of foreigners.

- ¹¹ At the end of your life you will groan
when your flesh and your body waste away.
- ¹² You will say, "How I hated instruction and my heart despised correction!
- ¹³ I would not listen to the voice of my teachers or incline my ear to my instructors.
- ¹⁴ I was almost completely ruined
in the midst of the assembly,
among the gathering of the people."
- ¹⁵ Drink water from your own cistern and drink running water from your own well.
- ¹⁶ Should your springs be dispersed everywhere and your streams of water flow in the public squares?
- ¹⁷ Let them be for yourself alone and not for strangers with you.
- ¹⁸ May your fountain be blessed and may you rejoice in the wife of your youth,
- ¹⁹ for she is a loving deer and a graceful doe.
Let her breasts satisfy you at all times;
may you be continually intoxicated by her love.
- ²⁰ For why should you, my son, be captivated by an adulteress?
Why should you embrace the bosom of an immoral woman?
- ²¹ Yahweh sees everything a person does and watches all the paths he takes.
- ²² A wicked person will be seized by his own iniquities;
the cords of his sin will hold him tight.
- ²³ He will die because he lacks instruction;
he is led astray by his great foolishness.

Proverbs 5 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 5 continues a collection of proverbs that ends in chapter nine.

Special concepts in this chapter

My Son

Occasionally, the author addresses a proverb to "my son." This is not intended to restrict the words of that proverb to only males. Instead, it is simply a form used to pass on advice as a father does to his son.

Adulteress

This chapter is unusual because it holds a theme about the adulteress and warns the young man to avoid her. An adulteress is a woman who commits adultery. (See: adultery)

Links:

Proverbs 5:1 Notes

Proverbs 5:1

General Information:

The writer speaks as a father teaching his children.

incline your ears

Here the word "ears" represents the person who is listening. The writer speaks of listening attentively to someone as if it were leaning forward so that the ears are closer to the one speaking. See how you translated this in [Proverbs 4:20]

Proverbs 5:2

discretion

Discretion is the quality of being careful with regard to one's actions and speech. See how you translated this in Proverbs 1:4.

your lips may protect knowledge

Here the word "lips" represents the person who speaks. The writer speaks of a person being careful only to say what is true as if the person's lips were protecting knowledge.

Alternate translation: "you will speak only what is true"

Proverbs 5:3

the lips of an adulteress drip with honey

Possible meanings are 1) the word "lips" represents the words of the adulteress and the writer speaks of the attractiveness of her words as if her lips dripped with honey. Alternate translation: "the words of an adulteress are sweet, as if dripping with honey" or 2) the writer speaks of the allure of kissing the adulteress as if her lips dripped with honey. Alternate translation: "the kisses of an adulteress are sweet, as if her lips dripped with honey"

her mouth is smoother than oil

Possible meanings are 1) the word "mouth" represents the speech of the adulteress and the writer speaks of the persuasiveness of her speech as if her mouth were smoother than olive oil. Alternate translation: "her speech is persuasive and smoother than olive oil" or 2) the writer speaks of the pleasure of kissing the adulteress as if her mouth were smoother than oil. Alternate translation: "her kisses are smoother than olive oil"

Proverbs 5:4

but in the end she is as bitter as wormwood

The writer speaks of the harm that comes from having a relationship with an adulteress as if she tasted as bitter as wormwood. Alternate translation: "but in the end, she is like bitter-tasting wormwood and will cause you harm"

wormwood

a plant that tastes bitter

cutting like a sharp sword

The writer speaks of the pain that the adulteress will cause to the one who has a relationship with her as if she were a sharp weapon that cuts the person. Alternate translation: "she wounds a person, as if she were a sharp sword"

Proverbs 5:5

Her feet go down to death

Here "her feet" represent the adulteress as she walks. The writer speaks of her conduct as if she were walking along a path. Alternate translation: "She is walking along a path that leads to death" or "Her lifestyle leads to death"

her steps go all the way to Sheol

The writer speaks of her conduct as if she were walking along a path. Alternate translation: "she walks all the way to Sheol" or "her conduct takes her all the way to Sheol"

Proverbs 5:6

She gives no thought to the path of life

The writer speaks of behavior that gives a person long life as if it were a path that leads to life. Alternate translation: "She does not think about walking along the path that leads to life" or "She is not concerned about conduct that leads to life"

Her footsteps wander

Possible meanings are 1) "She wanders about as if she were lost" or 2) "She walks along the wrong path."

Proverbs 5:7

Now

Here the teacher shifts from warning about the adulteress to giving advice.

listen to me ... do not turn away from listening

These two phrases express the same idea to make the student pay attention.

do not turn away from listening

The writer speaks of stopping an action as if the person physically turned away from it. Alternate translation: "do not stop listening"

the words of my mouth

Here the word "mouth" represents the person who is speaking. Alternate translation: "my words" or "what I am saying"

Proverbs 5:8

Keep your path far away from her

Here the word "path" represents the person's daily conduct and circumstances. Alternate translation: "Keep yourself far away from her" or "Stay away from her"

do not come near the door of her house

Here "the door of her house" represents the house itself. It may be more appropriate to use the word "go" instead of "come" since the latter might imply that the speaker is at the door of her house. Alternate translation: "do not go near the door of her house" or "do not even go near her house"

Proverbs 5:9

In that way

"If you do this." This phrase refers to what he has just said in previous verses.

you will not give away your honor to others

Possible meanings for the word "honor" are 1) it refers to one's reputation. Alternate translation: "You will not lose your good reputation among other people" or 2) it refers to one's wealth and possessions. Alternate translation: "You will not give away your wealth to other people" or 3) it refers to strength and represents the prime years of one's life. Alternate translation: "You will not give away the best times of your life to other people"

or years of your life to a cruel person

The writer speaks of a person dying prematurely, possibly by murder, as if the years of his life were items that he gives away to another person. The verb may be supplied from the previous phrase. Alternate translation: "or give years of your life to a cruel person" or "or cause a cruel person to kill you while you are still young"

a cruel person

This may refer to the husband of the adulteress, who will deal cruelly with the person who sleeps with her.

Proverbs 5:10

strangers will not feast on your strength

The word "strength" is a metonym for the wealth for which the reader has labored with his strength, and the word "feast" is a metaphor for enjoying. Alternate translation: "strangers will not enjoy all of the wealth you labored hard for"

strangers

unknown people from the same people group or nation

your labor will not go into the house of foreigners

Here the word "labor" is a metonym for the goods and profit that a person has labored to produce, and "house" represents the person's family. Alternate translation: "the things that you have labored for will not end up belonging to the families of strangers" foreigners

unknown people from other people groups or nations

Proverbs 5:11

your flesh and your body waste away

The words "flesh" and "body" mean basically the same thing and represent the whole person. Alternate translation: "your body wastes away" or "you waste away"

waste away

"physically wear down" or "become weak and unhealthy"

Proverbs 5:12

I hated instruction ... my heart despised correction

These two phrases express the same idea and emphasize how much this person disliked what the teacher had said.

How I hated instruction

The word "How" is an exclamation that emphasizes the strength of his hatred. The word "instruction" can be translated with a verbal phrase. Alternate translation: "I hated it so much when someone would instruct me"

my heart despised correction

Here the word "heart" represents the person and his emotions. The word "correction" can be translated with a verbal phrase. Alternate translation: "I despised people when they corrected me"

Proverbs 5:13

incline my ear to my instructors

Here the word "ear" represents the person who is listening. The writer speaks of listening attentively to someone as if it were leaning forward so that the ear is closer to the one speaking. See how you translated a similar phrase in [Proverbs 4:20]

Proverbs 5:14

in the midst of the assembly, among the gathering of the people

These two phrases mean basically the same thing and refer to the person's community that has gathered together either 1) to worship God or 2) to judge him for his offense.

Proverbs 5:15

water from your own cistern ... running water from your own well

These two phrases mean basically the same thing. The writer speaks of a man sleeping only with his wife as if he drank water only from his own cistern or well.

running water

The writer speaks of fresh or flowing water as if the water were running. Alternate translation: "fresh water" or "flowing water"

Proverbs 5:16

General Information:

The writer speaks of adultery using metaphors about wasting the water that was so precious in Israel, where rain was rare.

Should your springs ... your streams of water flow in the public squares?

The writer asks this rhetorical question to emphasize that his son should not do these things. Alternate translation:

"Your springs should not ... your streams of water should not flow in the public squares."

Should your springs ... your streams of water flow in the public squares?

Here the words "springs" and "streams of water" are likely euphemisms for male reproductive fluids. Possible meanings for these metaphorical phrases are 1) sleeping with women other than one's wife is spoken of as if it were allowing one's water to flow in the public streets or 2) having children with women other than one's wife is spoken of as if it were allowing one's water to flow in the public streets.

Should your springs be dispersed everywhere and your ... squares?

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Should you disperse your springs ... everywhere? Should your ... squares?" or "You should not disperse your springs everywhere, and you ... squares."

public squares

Open areas in a city or town where two or more streets meet. A common place for people to meet each other and talk.

Proverbs 5:17

Let them be

The word "them" refers to the "springs" and "streams of water" and what they stand for.

not for strangers with you

"do not share them with strangers"

Proverbs 5:18

May your fountain be blessed

The writer speaks of the son's wife as if she were a fountain. Here the word "blessed" refers to the sense of joy that the man has in his wife. Alternate translation: "May you always find joy with your wife"

the wife of your youth

Possible meanings are 1) "the wife whom you married when you were young" or 2) "your young wife."

Proverbs 5:19

she is a loving deer and a graceful doe

The writer speaks of the son's wife as if she were "a loving deer and a graceful doe." Here "deer" and "doe" mean a female deer. They were symbols of beauty both in their appearance and in their movements. Alternate translation: "she is as beautiful and graceful as a deer or a doe" or "she is as beautiful and graceful as a female deer" graceful

This word does not mean "full of grace," but "beautiful while moving."

Let her breasts satisfy you

Possible meanings are 1) the wife's breasts excite the husband's sexual desire and possibly represent the wife's entire body. Alternate translation: "Let her breasts satisfy your desires" or "Let her body satisfy your desires" or 2) this is a metaphor in which the writer speaks of the wife's breasts satisfying the husband's desires as they would satisfy the thirst of a hungry baby. Alternate translation: "Let her breasts fill you with delight as a mother's breasts fill her child with food"

may you be continually intoxicated by her love

Intense excitement and joy from the romantic love of one's wife is spoken of as if he was drunk from that love. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "let her love control you as alcohol controls someone who is drunk"

by her love

Possible meanings are 1) "by your love for her" or 2) "by her love for you."

Proverbs 5:20

For why should you, my son, be captivated by an adulteress?

The writer asks this rhetorical question to emphasize that his son must not do this. Alternate translation: "My son, do not be captivated by an adulteress!"

be captivated by an adulteress

Intense excitement that arises from the desire for a woman is spoken of as if he were being held captive by that woman. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "allow an adulteress to captivate you" or "allow an adulteress to fascinate you"

Why should you embrace the bosom of an immoral woman?

The writer asks this rhetorical question to emphasize that his son must not do this. Alternate translation: "Do not embrace the bosom of an immoral woman!"

embrace the bosom of an immoral woman

Here the word "embrace the bosom" is probably a euphemism for handling the breasts and a synecdoche for all kinds of sexual activity. Alternate translation: "have sexual relations with an immoral woman" bosom

chest, shoulders, and arms

an immoral woman

Possible meanings are 1) "a woman who is not your wife" or 2) "a woman who is another man's wife."

Proverbs 5:21

sees everything ... watches all the paths

These two phrases mean the same thing and emphasize that God knows everything that everyone does.

all the paths he takes

The writer speaks of a person's actions or lifestyle as if it were a path on which the person walks. Alternate translation: "everywhere he goes" or "everything he does"

Proverbs 5:22

A wicked person will be seized by his own iniquities

The writer speaks of a wicked person being unable to avoid the consequences of his iniquities as if those iniquities were people who capture the wicked person. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "A wicked person's own iniquities will seize him" or "A wicked person will be unable to avoid the consequences of his iniquities"

the cords of his sin will hold him tight

The writer speaks of a wicked person being unable to avoid the consequences of his sin as if that sin were a trap made of cords in which the person is caught. Alternate translation: "because of his sin, he will be like an animal caught in a trap"

Proverbs 5:23

he is led astray by his great foolishness

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "his great foolishness leads him astray"

by his great foolishness

"because he is very foolish"

Chapter 6

¹ My son, if you set aside your money as a guarantee for your neighbor's loan, if you gave your promise for a loan of someone you do not know,

² then you have laid a trap for yourself by your promise and you have been caught by the words of your mouth.

³ When you are caught by your words, my son,
do this and save yourself,
since you have fallen into the hand of your neighbor;
go and humble yourself and make your case before your neighbor.

⁴ Give your eyes no sleep and your eyelids no slumber.

⁵ Save yourself like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter,

like a bird from the hand of the fowler.

⁶ Look at the ant, you lazy person, consider her ways, and be wise.

⁷ It has no commander, officer, or ruler,

⁸ yet it prepares its food in the summer and during the harvest it stores up what it will eat.

⁹ How long will you lie down, you lazy person?
When will you rise from your sleep?

¹⁰ "A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to rest"—

¹¹ and your poverty will come like a robber and your needs like an armed soldier.

¹² A worthless person—a wicked man—lives by the crookedness of his speech,

¹³ winking his eyes, making signals with his feet and pointing with his fingers.

¹⁴ He plots evil with perversity in his heart;
he always stirs up strife.

¹⁵ Therefore his disaster will overtake him in an instant;
in a moment he will be broken beyond healing.

¹⁶ There are six things that Yahweh hates, seven that are an abomination to him:

¹⁷ the eyes of a proud person, a tongue that lies,
hands that shed the blood of innocent people,

¹⁸ a heart that invents wicked schemes, feet that quickly run to do evil,

¹⁹ a witness who breathes out lies and one who sows discord among brothers.

²⁰ My son, obey the command of your father and do not abandon the teaching of your mother.

²¹ Always bind them on your heart;
tie them about your neck.

- ²² When you walk, they will guide you;
when you lie down, they will watch over you;
and when you wake up, they will teach you.
- ²³ For the commands are a lamp,
and the teaching is a light;
the corrections that come by instruction are the way of life.
- ²⁴ It keeps you from the evil woman,
from the smooth tongue of an immoral woman.
- ²⁵ Do not lust in your heart after her beauty and do not let her capture you with her eyelashes.
- ²⁶ The price of a prostitute is the cost of a loaf of bread, but the wife of another man hunts for a precious life.
- ²⁷ Can a man carry a fire against his chest without burning his clothes?
- ²⁸ Can a man walk on hot coals without scorching his feet?
- ²⁹ So is the man who goes to his neighbor's wife;
the one who touches her will not go unpunished.
- ³⁰ People do not despise a thief if he steals to satisfy his need when he is hungry.
- ³¹ Yet if he is caught, he will pay back seven times what he stole;
he must give up everything of value in his house.
- ³² The one who commits adultery lacks sense;
the one who does it destroys himself.
- ³³ Wounds and shame are what he deserves and his disgrace will not be blotted out.
- ³⁴ For jealousy makes a man furious;
he will show no mercy on the day of vengeance.
- ³⁵ He will accept no ransom and he cannot be bought off, though you offer him many gifts.

Proverbs 6 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 6 continues a collection of proverbs that ends in chapter nine.

Special concepts in this chapter

My Son

Occasionally, the author addresses a proverb to "my son." This is not intended to restrict the words of that proverb to only males. Instead, it is simply a form used to pass on advice as a father does to his son.

Adulteress

The latter part of this chapter comes back to the theme about the adulteress and warns the young man to avoid her. An adulteress is a woman who commits adultery. (See: adultery)

Numbers

Occasionally, the author will mention a list of six things, or seven things, that Yahweh hates. These numbers are used to draw attention to the list of things. It is not important whether there are six or seven things in the list.

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

The author will use rhetorical questions to draw the reader's attention to important points.

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

Animals used as types

The gazelle and the ant have certain characteristics which the author uses to give wisdom. If your language does not recognize these characteristics in those animals, you could add a footnote to explain or possibly substitute another animal from your culture that would help explain the same concept. (See: wise)

Links:

Proverbs 6:1 Notes

Proverbs 6:1

set aside your money

Implied here is that your promise and the circumstances forced you to save up your money. Alternate translation: "had to save up some of your money"

a guarantee for your neighbor's loan

Possible meanings are 1) your neighbor may come to you to ask for a loan or 2) your neighbor wants to take out a loan from someone else, but you promise to pay the lender back if your neighbor cannot.

neighbor

This same Hebrew word can also mean "friend."

Proverbs 6:2

you have laid a trap for yourself

This is a figure of speech saying that you are going to trap yourself. Alternate translation: "you have made a trap in which you yourself are caught"

the words of your mouth

"what you said" or "what you promised to do"

Proverbs 6:3

save yourself

"protect yourself" or "help yourself out of these problems"

you have fallen into the hand of your neighbor

This is a figure of speech using the term "hand" to mean "harm." Alternate translation: "your neighbor can bring harm to you if he wants to" or "your neighbor has power over you"

neighbor

"friend"

Proverbs 6:4

Give your eyes no sleep and your eyelids no slumber

"Do not let your eyes sleep; do not let your eyelids slumber." These two phrases mean the same thing and are repeated to emphasize how important it is not to be lazy. It is also stated negatively for even more emphasis. Alternate translation: "Stay awake, and do what you can"

your eyes ... your eyelids

This is a figure of speech using parts of your face to mean your whole body. Alternate translation: "yourself ... yourself"

Proverbs 6:5

Save yourself like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter

"Escape from your neighbor like a gazelle that flees from a hunter"

gazelle

This is a big, lean animal that eats grass and that people often hunt for meat. It is famous for running away quickly. from the hand of the hunter

The hand of the hunter refers to the hunter's control.

Alternate translation: "from the control of the hunter"

like a bird from the hand of the fowler

"and escape like a bird that flies away from a bird-hunter"

Proverbs 6:6

Look at ... consider

"Study ... think about" or "carefully observe ... ponder"

ant

An ant is a small insect that lives underground or in a self-built hill. They usually live in groups of thousands, and they can lift things that are much bigger than they are.

consider her ways

This is a figure of speech using the "ways" of an ant to refer to the behavior of the ant. Alternate translation: "consider how the ant behaves"

Proverbs 6:7

commander, officer, or ruler

These three words mean basically the same thing and are used to emphasize that no one has formal authority over an individual ant.

Proverbs 6:8

it prepares its food in the summer ... during the harvest it stores up what it will eat

These two phrases mean basically the same thing and are repeated to show how responsible the ant is.

summer

Summer is the time of the year when some trees bear their fruit.

Proverbs 6:9

How long will you lie down, you lazy person? When will you rise from your sleep?

The teacher uses these questions to scold the lazy person for sleeping too much. Alternate translation: "You should not just lie there, you lazy person. You should rise up from your sleep." or "Wake up, you lazy person! Get out of your bed!"

Proverbs 6:10

A little sleep ... of the hands to rest

These are the kinds of things that lazy people say.

A little sleep, a little slumber

Both of these statements mean the same thing. They can be stated as complete sentences. Alternate translation: "I will just sleep a little longer. Let me sleep lightly a little longer" folding of the hands to rest

People often fold their hands while reclining in order to rest more comfortably. Alternate translation: "I will just cross my arms comfortably and rest a little"

Proverbs 6:11

and your poverty will come

This can be stated as a new sentence to make clear that this is a result of being lazy. Alternate translation: "If you continue to be lazy, your poverty will come" or "While you sleep, poverty will come"

your poverty will come like a robber

The sudden way a lazy person becomes poor is like the sudden way a robber comes and steals things. Alternate translation: "you will suddenly become poor, just as if a robber came and stole everything you have"

and your needs like an armed soldier

The sudden way a lazy person becomes in need of things is like the sudden way an armed soldier takes things from a person. This can be stated as a complete sentence. Alternate translation: "and your needs will come to you like an armed soldier" or "and you will become needy just as if an armed soldier stole all your things"

an armed soldier

"a soldier who is holding a weapon" or "a man with a weapon"

Proverbs 6:12

A worthless person—a wicked man

These two words have the same meaning and emphasize how bad this person is. Alternate translation: "A person with no value—an evil man"

lives by the crookedness of his speech

Here lies are spoken of as speech that is crooked. Alternate translation: "constantly tells lies"

Proverbs 6:13

winking his eyes, making signals with his feet and pointing with his fingers

All three of these phrases describe a way in which the evil person communicates secretly to deceive other people.

winking his eyes

If someone winks, he closes one eye very briefly as a secret signal to another person. This might be a sign of trust, of approval, or of something else.

Proverbs 6:14

He plots evil

"He plans evil" or "He prepares to do evil deeds"

he always stirs up strife

"he always causes strife" or "he is constantly looking for arguments and making them worse"

Proverbs 6:15

Therefore

"For that reason"

his disaster will overtake him

This implies that the disaster is chasing him like a person or an animal, and that it will catch him soon. Alternate translation: "his disaster will catch him"

his disaster

This refers to the disaster that will happen to him, but also the disaster that he himself caused.

in an instant; in a moment

Both mean the same thing, and one or both of them can be replaced by "suddenly" or "very quickly."

Proverbs 6:16

six things that Yahweh hates, seven that

This whole verse is a parallelism that emphasizes that God hates several things and not just one. Alternate translation: "six things that Yahweh hates; seven things that" that are an abomination to him "that he strongly hates." See how you translated "abomination" in Proverbs 3:32.

Proverbs 6:17

Connecting Statement:

This begins the list of things that Yahweh hates that was introduced in Proverbs 6:16.

eyes ... tongue ... hands

All of these body parts refer to a whole person. You can translate each of these with "people."

shed the blood of

"kill" or "murder"

Proverbs 6:18

heart ... feet

All of these body parts refer to a whole person. You can translate each of these with "people."

wicked schemes

"evil plans"

Proverbs 6:19

breathes out lies

This figure of speech uses "breathes" to refer to lying constantly. Alternate translation: "constantly lies"

discord

See how you translated this in Proverbs 6:14.

one who sows discord

This figure of speech is using "sows" to refer to causing or bringing about discord. Alternate translation: "a person who causes discord"

Proverbs 6:20

obey the command of your father ... do not abandon the teaching of your mother

These two phrases are very similar in meaning, but the use of both "father" and "mother" explicitly includes women in the teaching process.

do not abandon the teaching of your mother

The abstract noun "teaching" can be expressed as a verb. Alternate translation: "Do not reject what your mother teaches you"

Proverbs 6:21

bind them on your heart; tie them about your neck

These two phrases mean basically the same thing. They describe the commands and instructions as if they are written down so that you can put it in or on your body to remind yourself.

bind them on your heart

"love them" or "think about them"

Proverbs 6:22

When you walk ... when you lie down ... when you wake up

These three phrases are used together to emphasize that the lessons are valuable all the time.

they will guide you ... they will watch over you ... they will teach you

The repetition of these phrases is to show that the lessons are valuable for all sorts of things. It also speaks of those lessons as if they were people.

Proverbs 6:23

the commands ... the teaching ... the corrections that come by instruction

These three phrases mean basically the same thing, and together they show the various types of lessons a father and a mother teach.

a lamp ... a light ... the way of life

All three of these mean basically the same thing and are repeated to emphasize the fact that the lessons make life better and easier. Alternate translation: "as useful as a lamp ... as helpful as light in the darkness ... as necessary to follow as the way of life"

the way of life

"the way that leads to life" or "the way of living that God approves of"

Proverbs 6:24

It keeps you from

Here the word "it" refers to the lessons taught by the father and mother in [Proverbs 6:20]

smooth tongue

The word "tongue" here is a metonym for the words the woman uses her tongue to speak. Alternate translation: "deceptive words" immoral

sexually immoral

Proverbs 6:25

do not let her capture you with her eyelashes

The writer speaks of the woman's eyelashes as if they were a trap into which the young man could fall. They are a synecdoche for her beauty and a metonym for the way the woman looks at the young man to make her want her.

Alternate translation: "do not allow her to gain control over you by being beautiful and by the way she looks at you"

in your heart

Here "heart" represents the mind. Alternate translation: "in your thoughts"

her beauty

"what is beautiful about her." This can also be a metonym for the woman. Alternate translation: "her"

capture you

"gain control over you"

her eyelashes

The "eyelashes" stand for the beautiful things about her body that she uses to catch a man's attention. Alternate translation: "her beautiful eyes"

Proverbs 6:26

Connecting Statement:

The writer tells why his son should not have sexual relations with the wife of another man.

General Information:

Be sure your translation clearly communicates that having sexual relations with the wife of another man is much worse than having sexual relations with a prostitute.

The price of a prostitute is the cost of a loaf of bread, but the wife of another man hunts for a precious life

"A prostitute will be satisfied to receive enough money for a loaf of bread, but the wife of another man will be satisfied only when she has taken a precious life" or "Having sexual relations with a prostitute will cost you only as much as a loaf of bread, but having sexual relations with another man's wife will cost you your precious life"

the cost of a loaf of bread ... a precious life

Possible meanings are 1) the reader thinks that the money a prostitute takes is little and his own life is precious or 2) the prostitute is looking only for money so she can eat, while an adulterous wife gives her body hoping to receive love.

the cost of a loaf of bread

This is a metaphor for a small amount of money or something else unimportant. If your language has a common way of saying this, you may want to use it here.

Alternate translation: "very small"

hunts for a precious life

The writer speaks of the woman's jealous husband wanting to kill the reader as if it were the woman herself who were trying to kill him. Alternate translation: "is giving her husband the opportunity to kill you" or "is putting you in danger"

Proverbs 6:27

Can a man carry a fire against his chest without burning his clothes?

This action would be very dangerous and would cause harm. The implied answer to the question is "no." Alternate translation: "Every man who carries a fire in his chest will burn his clothes."

without burning

"without destroying" or "and not destroy"

his clothes

His clothes stand for him as a whole person.

Proverbs 6:28

Can a man walk on hot coals without scorching his feet?

Walking on hot coals will scorch a person's feet, so the implied answer is "no." Alternate translation: "Every man who walks on hot coals will have scorched feet."

walk on hot coals

This stands for committing adultery.

walk

That is to slowly walk a long distance, without using tricks or magic.

scorching

"burning"

Proverbs 6:29

the man who goes to his neighbor's wife

This is a polite way of talking about having sexual relations.

Alternate translation: "the man who has sexual relations with his neighbor's wife" or "the man who lies with his neighbor's wife"

Proverbs 6:30

despise a thief

"do not regard a thief with contempt" or "do not think a

Chapter 7

thief is evil"

Proverbs 6:31

if he is caught

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "if someone catches him" in his house

This figure of speech is saying that everything in his house is all that he owns. Alternate translation: "that he owns"

Proverbs 6:32

The one

"The person" or "The man"

Proverbs 6:33

what he deserves

"the appropriate punishment for what he has done"

his disgrace

This figure of speech is using the term "disgrace" to refer to the feeling of him acting shamefully. Alternate translation:

"the memory of his shameful act"

will not be blotted out

This figure of speech is using the negative "will not be blotted out" to refer to it always being there. Alternate translation: "will never go away" or "will always be there"

Proverbs 6:34

furious

very angry

he will show no mercy

The "he" is the neighbor whose wife has committed adultery with another man. Alternate translation: "he will not limit the pain he will cause you" or "he will hurt you as much as he can"

on the day of vengeance

"when he takes revenge"

Proverbs 6:35

General Information:

The writer speaks as if the jealous husband has captured the one who had sexual relations with his wife.

ransom

money to buy the freedom of someone who has been captured

he cannot be bought off

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"you cannot pay him enough money to change his mind"

off, though

"off. This will be true even if"

Chapter 7

- ¹ My son, keep my words and store up my commands within yourself.
- ² Keep my commands and live,
and keep my instruction as the apple of your eye.
- ³ Tie them on your fingers;
write them on the tablet of your heart.
- ⁴ Say to wisdom, "You are my sister,"
and call understanding your kinsman,
- ⁵ in order to keep yourself from the adulterous woman,
from the immoral woman who makes her words smooth.
- ⁶ At the window of my house
I was looking out through the lattice.
- ⁷ I looked at the naive people, and I noticed among the young men
a youth who had no sense.
- ⁸ That young man passed down the street near her corner,
and he went toward her house.
- ⁹ It was twilight, in the evening of the day,
at the time of night and darkness.
- ¹⁰ There a woman met him, dressed like a prostitute, with a false heart.

- ¹¹ She was loud and rebellious;
her feet did not stay at home.
- ¹² Now in the streets, then in the marketplace, and at every corner she waited in ambush.
- ¹³ So she grabbed him and kissed him, with a strong face she said to him,
- ¹⁴ "I made my peace offering today,
I fulfilled my vows,
- ¹⁵ so I came out to meet you,
to eagerly seek your face,
and I have found you.
- ¹⁶ I have spread coverings on my bed,
colored linens from Egypt.
- ¹⁷ I have sprinkled my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
- ¹⁸ Come, let us drink our fill of love until morning;
let us take great pleasure in acts of love.
- ¹⁹ For my husband is not at his house;
he has gone on a long journey.
- ²⁰ He took a bag of money with him;
he will come home on the day of the full moon."
- ²¹ With her great persuasiveness she turned him;
with her smooth lips she compelled him.
- ²² Suddenly he went after her like an ox going to slaughter, and like a fool is punished with shackles, ¹
- ²³ until an arrow pierces through his liver.
He was like a bird rushing into a snare.
He did not know that it would cost him his life.
- ²⁴ Now, my sons, listen to me;
pay attention to the words of my mouth.
- ²⁵ May your heart not turn aside onto her paths;
do not be led astray onto her paths.
- ²⁶ She has caused many people to fall down pierced;
those she has killed are numerous.
- ²⁷ Her house is on the paths to Sheol;
they go down to the dark bedrooms of death.

The Hebrew text is difficult to understand. The ancient Greek translation has: like a dog to the muzzle. Some translations have like a deer to the trap.

Proverbs 7 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 7 continues a collection of proverbs that ends in chapter nine.

Special concepts in this chapter

Parallelism

Proverbs are often written without any surrounding context and in two lines of text. Each line will have a certain relationship to the other line.

Many of the proverbs are stated as promises or commands, but they are intended to be advice.

My Son

Occasionally the author addresses a proverb to "my son." This is not intended to restrict the words of that proverb to only males, but is still given in the context of a father warning his son.

Adulteress

This chapter continues the theme about the adulteress and warns the young man to avoid her.

Links:

Proverbs 7:1 Notes

Proverbs 7:1

keep my words

Here keeping represents obeying. Alternate translation: "obey my words" store up my commands within yourself

Here God's commands are spoken of as if they were objects that someone could put into a storeroom. Alternate translation: "memorize my commands"

Proverbs 7:2

keep my instruction

Here keeping represents obeying. Alternate translation: "obey my instructions"

as the apple of your eye

The apple of the eye is the pupil inside the eye, which people normally instinctively protect when an object flies at their face. Here "the apple of the eye" represents whatever a person values and protects the most. Alternate translation: "as your most valuable possession"

Proverbs 7:3

Tie them on your fingers

Possible meanings are 1) that the writer wanted his son to engrave certain commands from God on a ring and wear it, or 2) that the writer wanted his son to always remember God's commands, as if he always wore a certain ring.

write them on the tablet of your heart

Here the heart represents a person's mind, and remembering something well is spoken of as if the person were writing it on a stone tablet. See how you translated this in Proverbs 3:3. Alternate translation: "remember my commands well as if you were writing them in stone"

Proverbs 7:4

Say to wisdom, "You are my sister

Here wisdom is spoken of as if it were a person. Alternate translation: "Value wisdom as you would love your sister"

call understanding your kinsman

Here the quality of understanding is spoken of as if it were a kinsman or relative. Alternate translation: "treat understanding as you would treat your kinsman"

kinsman

"relative" or "family member"

Proverbs 7:5

who makes her words smooth

Words intended to deceive are spoken of as if they were smooth objects. Alternate translation: "who praises you to deceive you" or "who flatters you with her words"

Proverbs 7:6

lattice

a covering over a window made of thin strips of wood that cross one another in a slanted pattern that forms square-shaped openings in the pattern

Proverbs 7:7

naive

inexperienced or immature

Proverbs 7:8

her corner

Here "her" refers to any female stranger, as referred to in Proverbs 7:5. She was standing at a certain corner, waiting for a suitable man to pass by. Alternate translation: "the corner where a female stranger was standing"

corner

This refers to where two roads meet.

Proverbs 7:9

twilight

the time of day when it is getting darker and about to become night

Proverbs 7:10

with a false heart

Here "heart" represents intentions or plans. Alternate translation: "she planned to deceive someone"

Proverbs 7:11

She was loud and rebellious

"She talked loudly and showed contempt for her husband"

her feet did not stay at home

The phrase "her feet" represent the woman. Alternate translation: "she did not stay at home"

Proverbs 7:12

she waited in ambush

Here the woman is spoken of as if she were preparing to physically trap a person or an animal. Also, the idea of trapping someone here represents persuading someone to commit sin. Alternate translation: "she waited to trap someone" or "she waited to find someone she could persuade to sin"

Proverbs 7:13

she

the woman who was introduced in Proverbs 7:10

grabbed him

"took hold of him firmly"

with a strong face

Here "strong" represents "stubborn." A "strong face" means a stubborn expression on a person's face. This implies that the woman is acting in a stubborn way, that she is deliberately doing what she knows is wrong. Alternate translation: "with a shameless expression on her face"

Proverbs 7:14

I fulfilled my vows

Here "vows" represents what the person promised to sacrifice to God. Alternate translation: "I made the sacrifices I promised to God"

Proverbs 7:15

seek your face

Here "face" represents the person and especially the person's presence. Alternate translation: "look for you" or "find out where you are"

Proverbs 7:16

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 7:17

sprinkled my bed with

"scattered on my bed"

aloes

a substance from aloe plants that has a nice smell

cinnamon

This is a spice made from the bark of a tree that smells and tastes good.

Proverbs 7:18

let us drink our fill of love

Here the pleasures of romantic love are spoken of as if they were something good to drink. Alternate translation: "let us make love to each other as much as we want"

acts of love

caresses and sexual relations

Proverbs 7:19

is not at his house

"is not at home"

Proverbs 7:20

full moon

The moon is said to be full when it is a perfectly round disk, shining at its brightest.

Proverbs 7:21

her ... she ... him

The female is the married woman who wants to sleep with "him," the young man.

she turned him ... she compelled him

These two phrases form a merism that emphasizes that she was able to get him to willingly do exactly what she wanted.

she turned him

Causing him to stop doing what is right and start doing what is wrong is spoken of as if she caused him to turn off of the correct path and on to a wrong path. Alternate translation: "she persuaded him"

smooth lips

Here "lips" represents what a person says. When a person flatters someone else by saying things that are not sincere, these words are spoken of as if they were a smooth object. Alternate translation: "flattering, deceiving words"

she compelled him

This hyperbole speaks of the woman flattering the young man so that his desire was so strong he could not resist it as if she were forcing him to sin.

Proverbs 7:22

Suddenly he went after her

This seems to imply that the young man took very little time to think about what he should do. Alternate translation: "He quickly decided to go after her"

like an ox going to slaughter

The naive and unsuspecting way the young man follows the adulteress is compared to the way an animal is unaware of the danger it is in.

slaughter

This refers to killing an animal in order to eat its meat.

like a fool is punished with shackles

The Hebrew for this sentence is not clear. Many translations say, "like a deer walks into a trap."

Proverbs 7:23

like a bird rushing into a snare

The naive and unsuspecting way the young man follows the adulteress is compared to the way an animal is unaware of the danger he is in.

until an arrow pierces through his liver

This passage implies that a hunter has trapped the deer in order to shoot it with arrows. Alternate translation: "until a hunter shoots it in its most important part"

liver

Here this organ represents a very important part of the deer's body.

it would cost him his life

This is a way of saying that this person will die as a result. Alternate translation: "it would kill him" or "he would die because of it"

Proverbs 7:24

Now

This is to focus the attention of the speaker's sons on the conclusion of this lesson.

Proverbs 7:25

May your heart not turn aside onto her paths

Here "ways" means the paths that a person chooses to walk on. It represents the person's behavior, the things that he decides to do in life. Alternate translation: "Make your heart stay far away from the ways of the adulterous woman" or "Do not let your heart want to do the things that the adulterous woman does"

Chapter 8

your heart

Here "heart" represents a person, emphasizing his desires.

Alternate translation: "you"

do not be led astray onto her paths

This means the same as the sentence before it. It strengthens the first warning. Alternate translation: "do not leave the right path in order to go on her paths"

Proverbs 7:26

She has caused many people to fall down pierced

Being pierced by spears or arrows represents being killed.

Alternate translation: "She has caused many people to fall dead"

Proverbs 7:27

Her house is on the paths to Sheol ... they go down

Here "paths" represents the kinds of behavior that foolish people participate in. Sheol was the name for the world of the dead.

on the paths to Sheol ... down to the dark bedrooms of death

These two phrases basically mean the same thing and are repeated to emphasize that the woman's victims will be destroyed.

the dark bedrooms of death

This expression pictures the dead as sleeping in many different rooms in Sheol.

Chapter 8

- ¹ Does not Wisdom call out?
Does not Understanding raise her voice?
- ² On the hilltops beside the road,
at the crossroads, Wisdom has taken her stand.
- ³ Before the gates at the entrance into the city,
at the entrances into the city, she cries out.
- ⁴ "It is to you, people, that I call;
my voice is for the sons of mankind.
- ⁵ You who are naive, learn wisdom;
and you who are foolish, you must get an understanding mind.
- ⁶ Listen, because I will speak of noble things, and when my lips open I will say upright things.
- ⁷ For my mouth speaks what is trustworthy, and wickedness is an abomination to my lips.
- ⁸ All the words of my mouth are just;
in them is nothing twisted or perverse.
- ⁹ All of them are straight for the person who understands;
my words are upright for those who find knowledge.
- ¹⁰ Acquire my instruction rather than silver; acquire knowledge rather than choicest gold.
- ¹¹ For Wisdom is better than jewels;
no desirable thing is equal to her.
- ¹² I, Wisdom, live with Prudence, and I possess knowledge and discretion.
- ¹³ The fear of Yahweh is to hate evil.
I hate pride and arrogance, the evil way,
and perverted speech. I hate them.
- ¹⁴ I have good advice and sound wisdom;

Chapter 8

I am insight; strength belongs to me.

¹⁵ By me kings reign, and rulers make laws that are just.

¹⁶ By me princes rule,
nobles, and all who judge with justice.

¹⁷ I love those who love me,
and those who diligently seek me, find me.

¹⁸ With me are riches and honor,
lasting wealth and righteousness.

¹⁹ My fruit is better than gold, even fine gold;
my produce is better than pure silver.

²⁰ I walk in the path of righteousness,
in the midst of the paths of justice.

²¹ As a result, I make those who love me inherit wealth;
I fill up their treasuries.

²² Yahweh created me at the beginning,
the first of his deeds long ago.

²³ In ages long ago I was established—from the first,
from the beginnings of the earth.

²⁴ Before there were oceans, I was given birth—before there were springs abounding with water.

²⁵ Before the mountains were settled and before the hills, I was born.

²⁶ I was born before Yahweh had made the earth or the fields, or even the first dust in the world.

²⁷ I was there when he established the heavens,
when he drew a circle on the surface of the deep.

²⁸ I was there when he established the clouds above and when the springs in the deep became fixed.

²⁹ I was there when he made his limit for the sea,
so the waters should not spread beyond his command, and when there was set the limit for the foundations of the dry land.

³⁰ I was beside him, as a skilled craftsman;
I was his delight day after day, always rejoicing before him.

³¹ I was rejoicing in his whole world,
and my delight was in the sons of mankind.

- ³² Now, my sons, listen to me,
for those who keep my ways will be blessed.
- ³³ Listen to my instruction and be wise;
do not neglect it.
- ³⁴ The one who listens to me will be blessed.
He will be watching every day at my doors, waiting beside the posts of my doors.
- ³⁵ For whoever finds me, finds life,
and he will find the favor of Yahweh.
- ³⁶ But he who fails, harms his own life;
all who hate me love death."

Proverbs 8 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 8 continues a collection of proverbs that ends in chapter nine. These chapters operate more as a unit than many of the following chapters in this book.

Special concepts in this chapter

Wisdom calls out

The addressee of this chapter is broader than "my son," but is personal like the previous chapters' use of "my son." In this case, Wisdom is calling out for all to come and learn of her, in contrast to the adulteress mentioned in chapters 5-7. (See: wise)

Links:

Proverbs 8:1 Notes

Proverbs 8:1

General Information:

In chapter 8 wisdom is spoken of as a woman who teaches people how to be wise. Many verses in chapter 8 have parallelisms.

Does not Wisdom call out?

This question is used to remind the readers of something they should already know. Alternate translation: "Wisdom calls out"

Does not Wisdom call out?

Here wisdom is imagined as a woman. If a language does not allow this kind of metaphor, other possible translations are: 1) "Is not wisdom like a woman who calls out?" 2) "Does not a woman named Wisdom call out?"

Does not Understanding raise her voice?

Here "Understanding" means the same as "Wisdom."
raise her voice

"speak"

Proverbs 8:2

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 8:3

the gates at the entrance into the city

In ancient times, cities usually had outer walls with gates in them.

she cries out

This continues to refer to Wisdom, personified as a woman.

Proverbs 8:4

General Information:

Wisdom speaks to the people in verses 4-36.

my voice is for the sons of mankind

Here "voice" represents the words that are spoken.

Alternate translation: "my words are for the sons of mankind"

the sons of mankind

This is metonymy representing all human beings. Alternate translation: "all people"

Proverbs 8:5

naive

inexperienced or immature

learn wisdom

The abstract word "wisdom" refers to what a wise person believes and to the way in which he acts. Alternate translation: "learn how a wise person acts" or "learn what it means to be wise"

you must get an understanding mind

"you must begin to understand things with your mind"

Proverbs 8:6

when my lips open

Here "lips" represents a person's mouth, with which he speaks. Alternate translation: "when I open my mouth to speak"

upright

proper or just

Proverbs 8:7

my mouth speaks

Chapter 8

Here "mouth" represents a person who speaks. Alternate translation: "I speak"

what is trustworthy

"what people should believe"

wickedness is an abomination to my lips

Here "lips" represents a person who is speaking. See how you translated "abomination" in Proverbs 3:32. Alternate translation: "wickedness is an abomination to me" or "saying wicked things would be an abomination to me"

wickedness

Here the abstract noun "wickedness" represents wicked speech.

Proverbs 8:8

the words of my mouth

The "mouth" stands for the person who is speaking.

Alternate translation: "The things I teach"

nothing twisted

Twisting a message is a metaphor for changing a true message into a false one. Alternate translation: "nothing false"

Proverbs 8:9

straight honest and clear

my words are upright for those who find knowledge

This probably means that those who find knowledge will easily understand that the speaker's words are upright.

Here "words" represent a message or teaching. Alternate translation: "those who know what is right and what is wrong consider what I teach to be right"

upright

true and honest

Proverbs 8:10

Acquire my instruction rather than silver

"You should try much harder to understand my instructions than to get silver"

choicest gold

"the best gold you could ever find"

Proverbs 8:11

For Wisdom is better than jewels; no desirable thing is equal to her

Here Wisdom, personified as a woman, is not speaking.

However, it is possible to make Wisdom the speaker here as well. Alternate translation: "For I, Wisdom, am better than jewels; no desirable thing is equal to me"

desirable thing

treasuries

Proverbs 8:12

I, Wisdom, live with Prudence

Prudence is also represented here as a person.

Prudence

caution or good judgment

I possess knowledge and discretion

The abstract ideas "knowledge" and "discrete" can be expressed in other ways. Alternate translation: "I am knowledgeable and discreet" or "I know many things, and I am careful"

discretion

being careful about what we say and do; being cautious not to cause hurt or harm to others

Proverbs 8:13

perverted speech

"wicked talk"

perverted

turned from what is right

Proverbs 8:14

good advice

"wise suggestions"

advice

counsel that is given to help someone

sound

good, reliable

I am insight

Here Wisdom is spoken of as if she were insight. Alternate translation: "I have insight"

Proverbs 8:15

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 8:16

nobles, and all who judge with justice

Translators can supply the missing words. Alternate translation: "and by me nobles and all who judge with justice also rule" nobles

noblemen, leading members of important families in the nation

Proverbs 8:17

love

This refers to brotherly love or love for a friend or family member. This is natural human love between friends or relatives.

diligently with careful and continued effort

Proverbs 8:18

With me are riches and honor

"I have riches and honor"

lasting wealth and righteousness

This explains what is meant by "riches and honor." This can be made clear with the connecting word "therefore."

Alternate translation: "therefore, I will give lasting wealth and righteousness to those who find me" righteousness

"the ability to live in a right way"

Proverbs 8:19

My fruit

what wisdom produces or causes

my produce

the benefit or gain that wisdom causes

Proverbs 8:20

I walk in the path of righteousness

Living the right way is spoken of as walking on the right road. Alternate translation: "I live right" or "I do what is right"

in the midst of the paths of justice

This tells more of what is meant by "the path of righteousness." Alternate translation: "I do what is perfectly just" or "I only do what is just"

Proverbs 8:21

treasuries

storehouses for valuable things. Wisdom is spoken of as a woman who fills the storehouses of her followers with valuable things.

Proverbs 8:22

the first of his deeds long ago

"creating me was one of the first things he did long ago"

Proverbs 8:23

In ages long ago

"Very long ago"

ages

The word "age" refers to a general, extended period of time.

from the beginnings of the earth

The idea of beginnings can be translated in a less abstract way. Alternate translation: "from when God created the earth"

Proverbs 8:24

General Information:

Wisdom continues to speak.

Proverbs 8:25

Before the mountains were settled

"Before the bases of the mountains were put into place."

This can also be put into active form. Alternate translation:

"Before God made the foundations of the mountains and put them into their proper places"

Proverbs 8:26

I was born

This is wisdom speaking about herself.

was born

"I was alive"

Proverbs 8:27

I was there

This is wisdom speaking about herself.

established

To establish something is to bring into being on a stable basis. Alternate translation: "created" or "made"

when he drew a circle on the surface of the deep

This refers to setting a limit to how far someone in a ship at sea can see all around himself. Alternate translation: "when he marked on the ocean's surface how far a person at sea can see in every direction"

the deep

"the ocean"

Proverbs 8:28

General Information:

Wisdom continues to speak.

established

brought into permanent being when the springs in the deep became fixed

This can be put into active form. Alternate translation:

"when God fixed the springs in the deep"

the springs in the deep

The ancient Hebrews thought that the ocean got its water from springs at the bottom of the sea.

Proverbs 8:29

when he made his limit for the sea

"when he created the shorelines for the oceans. The "limit for the sea" divided the oceans from the dry land.

when there was set the limit for the foundations of the dry land

The Hebrew word for "earth" also often means "land."

when there was set the limit for the foundations of the dry land

This can be put into active form. Alternate translation:

"when God set the limit for the foundations of the earth"

Proverbs 8:30

I was beside him

This is still wisdom speaking. Wisdom now says she was right next to Yahweh, implying that she was his assistant in creating the world.

skilled craftsman

This is a person who has trained for years to make useful things very well, like furniture or houses.

I was his delight

"I was what made him happy." The word "delight" is an abstract noun that can be stated as a verb. Alternate translation: "he was happy because of me"

day after day

This is a way to express the idea of a habitual action or of a continuous condition. Alternate translation: "continually" or "the whole time"

Proverbs 8:31

his whole world

"the whole world he created" or "everything he created"

the sons of mankind

This refers to human beings in general. Alternate translation: "the people he brought into existence"

Proverbs 8:32

Now

This is to focus the attention of the children to the conclusion of this lesson.

listen to me

This is still wisdom talking about herself.

those who keep my ways

Here "my ways" represents wisdom's behavior. Alternate translation: "those who do what I teach" or "the people who follow my example"

Proverbs 8:33

do not neglect

"do not disregard" Alternate translation: "be sure to pay attention to" or "be sure to follow"

Proverbs 8:34

watching every day at my doors, waiting beside the posts of my doors

These two phrases basically mean the same thing. Wisdom is described as having a home; possible meanings of

"watching" are 1) a wise person waits outside wisdom's home in the morning in order to serve her, or 2) a wise person waits outside wisdom's house for her to come and teach him.

Proverbs 8:35

finds me

This is still wisdom talking about herself.

Proverbs 8:36

hate me

This is still wisdom talking about herself.

he who fails

The complete thought is, "he who fails to find me"

his own life

Here "life" represents the person's self.

Chapter 9

- ¹ Wisdom has built her own house;
she has carved seven pillars out of rocks.
- ² She has slaughtered her animals, she has mixed her wine, and she has set her table.
- ³ She has sent out her maids; she calls out from the highest points of the city,
- ⁴ "Who is naive? Let him turn aside here!"
To the one lacking good sense she speaks.
- ⁵ "Come, eat my food,
and drink the wine I have mixed.
- ⁶ Leave your naive actions and live;
walk in the path of understanding.
- ⁷ Whoever disciplines a mocker receives dishonor, and whoever rebukes a wicked person receives abuse.
- ⁸ Do not reprove a mocker, or he will hate you;
reprove a wise man, and he will love you.
- ⁹ Give to a wise person, and he will become even wiser;
teach a righteous person, and he will add to his learning.
- ¹⁰ The fear of Yahweh is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.
- ¹¹ For through me your days will be multiplied, and years of life will be added to you.
- ¹² If you are wise, you are wise for yourself, and if you mock, you will carry it by yourself."
- ¹³ The woman of foolishness is ignorant;
she is untaught and knows nothing.
- ¹⁴ She sits at the door of her house,
on a seat in the highest places of the town.
- ¹⁵ She is calling out to those who pass by in the streets, to people walking straight on their way.
- ¹⁶ "Let anyone who is naive turn aside here," she says to those who have no sense.
- ¹⁷ "Stolen waters are sweet, and bread of secrecy is delicious."

¹⁸ But he does not know that the dead are there, that her invited guests are in the depths of Sheol.

Proverbs 9 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 9 concludes a collection of proverbs that operate as a unit about wisdom. (See: wise)

Special concepts in this chapter

Wisdom calls out

The addressee of chapters 8 and 9 is broader than "my son," but is personal like the previous chapters' use of "my son." In this case, Wisdom is calling out for all to come and learn of her.

Links:

Proverbs 9:1 Notes

Proverbs 9:1

General Information:

These verses begin a parable in which wisdom is imagined to be a woman who is giving good advice to people.

Wisdom has built

The writer speaks about wisdom as if it were a woman who has built her own house.

Proverbs 9:2

She has slaughtered her animals

This refers to animals whose meat will be eaten in the dinner that Wisdom will give. Alternate translation: "She has killed the animals for meat at dinner"

mixed her wine

In ancient Israel, people often mixed wine with water.

Alternate translation: "prepared her wine by mixing it with water"

she has set her table

"she has prepared her table"

Proverbs 9:3

General Information:

These verses begin to give the message of Wisdom, who is personified as a woman.

She has sent out her maids

These maids went out and invited people to come to the feast that Wisdom had prepared.

her maids

Young women or girls who are in the service of a respectable, adult woman, such as Wisdom.

she calls out

"she proclaims" or "she summons" Alternate translation: "she loudly recites her invitation"

the highest points of the city

The invitation is shouted from the highest points so that it will be best heard by all the people.

Proverbs 9:4

Who is naive? Let ... the one lacking good sense

These two phrases describe the same group of people, those who need more wisdom in their lives. Here the question is addressed to all such people. Alternate translation: "Anyone who is naive, let ... anyone lacking good sense"

is naive

"is inexperienced or immature"

turn aside here

"leave his path and come into my house"

Proverbs 9:5

General Information:

These verses continue the message of Wisdom.

Come ... eat ... drink

All of these commands are plural; Wisdom is addressing many people at the same time.

the wine I have mixed

In ancient Israel, people often mixed wine with water.

Alternate translation: "prepared her wine by mixing it with water"

Proverbs 9:6

Leave ... live ... walk

All of these commands are plural; Wisdom is addressing many people at the same time.

Leave your naive actions

Here naive actions are spoken of as if they were a place that a person could leave. Alternate translation: "Stop your naive behavior"

naive actions

"inexperienced, immature actions"

the path of understanding

Here the process of understanding wisdom is spoken of as if it were a path that a person could follow. Alternate translation: "the manner of living that a wise person has"

Proverbs 9:7

General Information:

These verses continue the message of Wisdom.

Whoever disciplines a mocker receives dishonor

The abstract noun "dishonor" is spoken of as if it were a solid object that one person can give to another. It can be translated as a verb. Alternate translation: "A mocker will dishonor anyone who disciplines him" or "Whoever disciplines a mocker can expect the mocker to dishonor him" or "Whoever disciplines a mocker can expect the mocker to insult him"

a mocker

Someone who habitually mocks people. Alternate translation: "someone who says insulting things about other people" or "someone who likes to make other people look bad" whoever rebukes a wicked person receives abuse

The writer speaks of "abuse" here as if it were a solid object that one person could give to another. Possible meanings are 1) a wound resulting from physical abuse or 2) a metonym for the disgrace that comes from verbal abuse. Alternate translation: "a wicked person will abuse whoever rebukes him" or "anyone who rebukes a wicked person can expect the wicked person to abuse him"

whoever rebukes
"whoever corrects"

Proverbs 9:8
Do not reprove
"Do not correct"

Proverbs 9:9
Give to a wise person, and he ... teach a righteous person, and he
These two commands actually represent conditional statements. Alternate translation: "If you give to a wise person, he ... if you teach a righteous person, he"
Give to a wise person ... teach a righteous person
These two phrases basically say the same thing.
Give to a wise person
This refers to giving instruction to a wise person.

Proverbs 9:10
General Information:
These verses finish the message of Wisdom.
The fear of Yahweh
See how you translated this phrase in Proverbs 1:7.

Proverbs 9:11
through me your days will be multiplied
This may be put into active form. Alternate translation: "I will multiply your days" or "I will cause you to live many more days" through me

Wisdom, personified as a woman, continues to speak here.
your days will be multiplied, and years of life will be added to you
These two phrases basically mean the same thing and are used to emphasize the great benefits wisdom has.
years of life will be added to you

Wisdom speaks of years of life as if they were physical objects. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "I will add years of life to you" or "I will add years to your life" or "I will enable you to live longer"

Proverbs 9:12
If you are wise ... and if you mock
These two statements seem to mean that wise people gain advantages for themselves because of their wisdom, and mockers suffer because of their behavior.
you will carry it
This speaks of the consequence of one's bad behavior as if it were a heavy load that one had to carry on his back.

Proverbs 9:13
General Information:
These verses begin to describe foolishness, which is also personified as a woman.
The woman of foolishness
It is possible to translate "foolishness" as a description such as "A foolish woman." However, if a language allows wisdom to be personified, as in the previous part of this chapter, it may also allow foolishness to be personified.
Alternate translation: "The woman Foolishness"

she is untaught and knows nothing
These two expressions basically mean the same thing, which is repeated to show how useless the foolish woman is. Alternate translation: "she does not know anything at all"
she is untaught
"she has not learned from experience" or "she is young and naive"

Proverbs 9:14
General Information:
This page has intentionally been left blank.
Proverbs 9:15
walking straight on their way
This seems to be an idiom for "thinking only of their own affairs" or "minding their own business."

Proverbs 9:16
is naive
"is inexperienced or immature"
turn aside here
"leave his path and come here"
she says
This is the foolish woman who was introduced in Proverbs 9:13.

those who have no sense
"those who do not have wisdom" or "those who are not wise"

Proverbs 9:17
Stolen waters are sweet, and bread of secrecy is delicious
The foolish woman speaks of the pleasure of stolen waters and bread of secrecy to tell men that if they sleep with her, they will have pleasure. This can be stated clearly in a simile: "You can enjoy me just as you enjoy water that you have stolen or bread that is secret"

Proverbs 9:18
that the dead are there
"that the men who have gone to her are now dead"
in the depths of Sheol
"Sheol" refers to the world of the dead.

Chapter 10

¹The proverbs of Solomon.

A wise son makes his father rejoice
but a foolish son brings grief to his mother.

² Treasures accumulated by wickedness give no profit,

but doing what is right delivers from death.

³ Yahweh does not let the soul of the righteous person go hungry, but he frustrates the cravings of the wicked.

⁴ A lazy hand causes a person to be poor,
but the hand of the diligent person gains riches.

⁵ A wise son gathers a crop in the summer, but it is disgraceful for him to sleep during harvest.

⁶ Blessings from God are upon the head of the righteous person,
but the mouth of the wicked covers up violence.

⁷ The righteous person makes those who remember him happy,
but the name of the wicked will rot away.

⁸ The wise of heart accept commands,
but a talkative fool will come to ruin.

⁹ He who walks in integrity walks in safety, but the one who makes his ways crooked, he will be found out.

¹⁰ He who winks the eye causes grief,
but a talkative fool will come to ruin.

¹¹ The mouth of the righteous person is a water spring of life,
but the mouth of the wicked covers up violence.

¹² Hatred stirs up conflicts,
but love covers over all transgressions.

¹³ Wisdom is found on the lips of a discerning person, but a rod is for the back of the one who has no sense.

- ¹⁴ Wise men store up knowledge,
but the mouth of a fool brings destruction near.
- ¹⁵ The wealth of a rich man is his fortified city;
the poverty of the poor is their destruction.
- ¹⁶ The wage of the righteous person leads to life;
the income of the wicked leads them to sin.
- ¹⁷ There is a path to life for the one who follows discipline,
but the one who rejects correction is led astray.
- ¹⁸ Whoever conceals hatred has lying lips,
and whoever spreads slander is a fool.
- ¹⁹ When there are many words, transgression is not lacking, but he who is careful in what he says is wise.
- ²⁰ The tongue of the righteous person is pure silver;
there is little value in the heart of the wicked.
- ²¹ The lips of the righteous person nourish many,
but fools die because of their lack of sense.
- ²² The blessings of Yahweh bring wealth and he adds no pain to it.
- ²³ Wickedness is a game a fool plays,
but wisdom is a pleasure to a man of understanding.
- ²⁴ The fear of the wicked person will overtake him,
but the desire of righteous people will be granted.
- ²⁵ The wicked are like the storm that passes by, and they are no more,
but the righteous person is a foundation that lasts forever.

- ²⁶ Like vinegar on the teeth and smoke in the eyes,
so is the lazy person to those who send him.
- ²⁷ The fear of Yahweh prolongs life,
but the years of the wicked will be short.
- ²⁸ The hope of righteous people is their joy,
but the hope of wicked people will perish.
- ²⁹ The way of Yahweh is a stronghold for those who have integrity, but it is destruction for those who behave wickedly.
- ³⁰ The righteous person will never be overthrown,
but the wicked will not remain in the land.
- ³¹ Out of the mouth of the righteous person comes the fruit of wisdom, but the perverse tongue will be cut out.
- ³² The lips of the righteous person know what gains favor, but the mouth of the wicked, they know what is perverse.

Proverbs 10 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 10 starts a new section of the book, which is attributed to Solomon and is filled mainly with short, individual proverbs.

Special concepts in this chapter

Themes

There are individual proverbs that run along common themes, often using contrasting elements: wise/foolish, money, lazy/diligent, truth telling, and wicked/righteous. (See: wise, foolish and evil and righteous)

Links:

Proverbs 10:1 Notes

Proverbs 10:1

General Information:

Many verses in Chapter 10 are contrasting parallelisms

The proverbs of Solomon

After the introduction of Chapters 1-9, Chapter 10 begins the collection of the proverbs; short sayings that teach wisdom.

Proverbs 10:2

accumulated

acquired over time

Proverbs 10:3

Yahweh does not let the soul of the righteous person go hungry

Here "soul" refers to the person. This can be stated in positive form. Alternate translation: "Yahweh makes sure those who do what is right have food to eat"

Proverbs 10:4

A lazy hand

"Hand" represents the strength and ability of a person.

Alternate translation: "A person unwilling to work" hand of the diligent

"Hand" represents the strength and ability of a person.
 Alternate translation: "person who works hard"
 Proverbs 10:5
 General Information:
 This page has intentionally been left blank.
 Proverbs 10:6
 are upon the head
 The "head" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "are given to"
 mouth of the wicked
 The "mouth" represents what a person says. Alternate translation: "words the wicked speak" covers up hides the truth
 Proverbs 10:7
 name
 The word "name" represents a person's reputation.
 Alternate translation: "memory"
 Proverbs 10:8
 come to ruin
 "be destroyed" or "be made useless"
 Proverbs 10:9
 crooked
 not straight; deformed; dishonest; deceitful
 Proverbs 10:10
 He who winks the eye
 "Winking the eye" represents a secretive sign for being cruel to someone else. Alternate translation: "He who makes a signal with a gesture" will come to ruin will lose all the good things he now has
 Proverbs 10:11
 The mouth of the righteous
 Here "mouth" represents what a persons says. Alternate translation: "The speech of a righteous person"
 the righteous
 This refers to righteous people in general. Alternate translation: "righteous people" is a water spring of life
 This person's speech is spoken of as if it preserved living animals or people, as a water spring would do in a dry land.
 the mouth of the wicked covers up violence
 That is, the wicked person appears to say harmless things, but plans to violent things against other people.
 the mouth of the wicked
 Here "mouth" represents what a persons says. Alternate translation: "the speech of a wicked person"
 the wicked
 This refers to wicked people in general. Alternate translation: "wicked people"
 Proverbs 10:12
 Hatred stirs up conflicts
 Here the word "hatred" represents anyone who hates others. Alternate translation: "Anyone who hates others stirs up conflict" stirs up conflicts
 "Stirs up conflicts" is a metaphor meaning causes people to quarrel or fight. Alternate translation: "starts fights"

love covers over all transgressions
 Here the word "love" represents anyone who loves others.
 Alternate translation: "Anyone who loves others covers all transgressions" covers over all transgressions
 "Covers over" is a metaphor meaning forgives. Alternate translation: "forgives all wrongs"
 Proverbs 10:13
 on the lips of a discerning person
 "Lips" represents what a person says. Alternate translation: "in what a sensible person says" a rod is for the back
 "Rod" represents strong, physical punishment and "the back" represents the person who receives the punishment.
 Alternate translation: "a person who has no sense needs forceful punishment"
 Proverbs 10:14
 the mouth of a fool
 "Mouth" represents what a person says. Alternate translation: "the words from a foolish person"
 Proverbs 10:15
 his fortified city
 This represents wealth as a safe place. Alternate translation: "his safety" their destruction
 "what destroys them"
 Proverbs 10:16
 The wage ... the income
 These terms normally refer to the money a worker earns. Here they represents the results of either doing what is right or doing what is wrong.
 income
 "what comes in" when a person sells his labor or something he has produced
 Proverbs 10:17
 There is a path to life for the one who follows discipline
 "The person who obeys wise instruction will have a long and happy life"
 but the one who rejects correction is led astray
 This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "but the one who does not obey wise instruction will not have a good life"
 Proverbs 10:18
 has lying lips
 "Lips" represent what a person says. Alternate translation: "tells lies"
 Proverbs 10:19
 transgression is not lacking
 This phrase uses a negative to emphasize a positive idea. Alternate translation: "there is much sin"
 Proverbs 10:20
 The tongue of the righteous person
 "Tongue" represents what a person says. Alternate translation: "Whatever a righteous person says" is pure silver
 "Silver" represents valuable sayings. Alternate translation: "is extremely valuable"
 Proverbs 10:21
 The lips of the righteous

Chapter 11

"Lips" represents what a person says. Alternate translation:
"The sayings of a righteous man" nourish
cause them to develop or grow stronger
Proverbs 10:22
General Information:
This page has intentionally been left blank.
Proverbs 10:23
Wickedness is a game a fool plays
A game is an activity people do for pleasure. Alternate translation: "Fools find pleasure in wickedness"
Proverbs 10:24
overtake overcome someone
Proverbs 10:25
The wicked are like the storm
Just as storm comes and sweeps everything away so wicked people will disappear.
is a foundation that lasts forever
"Foundation" represents the base or a beginning of something that people build over. Alternate translation: "is a start for something that lasts forever"
Proverbs 10:26
Like vinegar on the teeth and smoke in the eyes, so is the lazy person to those who send him
"Vinegar" and "smoke" represent things that hurt a person's teeth and eyes. Alternate translation: "A lazy person will make those who send him wish they had not" vinegar
a sour liquid used to flavor or preserve foods, too much of which is painful to drink
Proverbs 10:27

the years of the wicked
"Years" represent the time a person lives. Alternate translation: "the lifetime of the evil person"
Proverbs 10:28
the hope of wicked people Here "hope" represents what a person hopes for. Alternate translation: "what wicked people hope to obtain"
Proverbs 10:29
General Information:
This page has intentionally been left blank.
Proverbs 10:30
will never be overthrown
This can be stated as active and positive: Alternate translation: "will be secure"
Proverbs 10:31
Out of the mouth of the righteous person
"Mouth" represents what a person says. Alternate translation: "From the righteous man's words" the perverse tongue will be cut out
"Tongue" represents what a person says. Alternate translation: "God will shut the mouths of people who say what is false"
Proverbs 10:32
lips of the righteous person know what gains favor
"Lips" represent what a person says. Alternate translation:
"righteous person knows how to speak in a way that gains favor"
gains favor
"makes people think well of them"
mouth of the wicked
"Mouth" represents what a person says. Alternate translation: "the words of the wicked"

Chapter 11

- ¹ False scales are an abomination to Yahweh,
but he delights in a precise weight.
- ² When pride comes, then comes disgrace,
but with humility comes wisdom.
- ³ The integrity of the upright guides them,
but the crooked ways of the treacherous destroy them.
- ⁴ Wealth is worthless on the day of wrath,
but doing right delivers you from death.
- ⁵ The right conduct of a blameless person makes his way straight,
but the wicked will fall because of their own wickedness.

- ⁶ The right conduct of the upright keeps them safe,
but the treacherous are trapped by their cravings.
- ⁷ When a wicked man dies, his hope perishes and the hope that was in his strength comes to nothing.
- ⁸ The righteous person is delivered from trouble and it comes upon the wicked instead.
- ⁹ With his mouth the godless person destroys his neighbor,
but through knowledge righteous people are kept safe.
- ¹⁰ When righteous people prosper, a city rejoices;
when the wicked perish, there are shouts of joy.
- ¹¹ Through the blessings of the upright the city is exalted;
by the mouth of the wicked the city is thrown down.
- ¹² The man who has contempt for his friend has no sense, but a man of understanding keeps quiet.
- ¹³ Whoever goes around slandering reveals secrets,
but the trustworthy in spirit keeps a matter covered.
- ¹⁴ Where there is no counsel, a nation falls,
but victory comes through many counselors.
- ¹⁵ Whoever guarantees a loan for a stranger will surely suffer harm, but the one who hates giving a pledge in that kind of promise is safe.
- ¹⁶ A gracious woman gets honor,
but violent people grasp for wealth.
- ¹⁷ A merciful person benefits himself,

but one who is cruel hurts himself.

¹⁸ The wicked person lies to get his wages, but one who sows what is right reaps the wages of truth.

¹⁹ An honest person who does what is right will live, but the one who pursues evil will die.

²⁰ Those whose hearts are perverse are an abomination to Yahweh, but he delights in those whose ways are blameless.

²¹ Be sure of this—the wicked person will not go unpunished, but the descendants of righteous people will be kept safe.

²² Like a gold ring in a pig's nose is a beautiful woman without discretion.

²³ The desires of righteous people result in good,
but wicked people can only hope for wrath.

²⁴ There is one who scatters—he will accumulate even more;
another withholds what is just—he comes to poverty.

²⁵ The generous person will prosper and the one who gives water to others will have water for himself.

²⁶ People curse the man who refuses to sell grain, but good gifts crown the head of him who sells it.

²⁷ The one who diligently seeks good is also seeking favor, but the one who searches for evil will find it.

²⁸ Those who trust in their riches will fall, but like the leaf, righteous people will flourish.

²⁹ The one who brings trouble on his own household will inherit the wind and the fool will become a servant to the wise of heart.

³⁰ The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life,
but violence takes away lives.

³¹ Behold! The righteous person is rewarded on earth;
how much more the wicked and the sinner!

Proverbs 11 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 11 continues the section of the book which is attributed to Solomon and is filled mainly with individual proverbs.

Special concepts in this chapter

Themes

There are individual proverbs that run along common themes, often using contrasting elements: wise/foolish, money, lazy/diligent, truth telling, wicked/righteous, sluggard, pride/humility, integrity/crookedness. (See: wise, foolish and evil and righteous)

Links:

Proverbs 11:1 Notes

Proverbs 11:1

General Information:

Many verses in Chapter 11 are contrasting parallelisms

False scales are an abomination to Yahweh

"Scales" represent measuring accurately in negotiating. See how you translated "abomination" in [Proverbs 3:32]

but he delights in a precise weight

"Precise weight" represents accuracy in negotiating.

Alternate translation: "but he delights in honest ways" or "but he is happy when people are honest"

Proverbs 11:2

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 11:3

the upright

This refers to upright persons in general. This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "upright people" or "righteous people" or "honest people"

the treacherous

This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective.

Alternate translation: "treacherous people" or "those who are treacherous"

Proverbs 11:4

Wealth is worthless on the day of wrath

The "day of wrath" represents a specific event, such as the "day of Yahweh" or "judgment day" or "last days." Alternate translation: "A person's wealth will do him no good when God comes to judge"

Proverbs 11:5

makes his way straight

"has clear direction"

the wicked

This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective.

Alternate translation: "those who are wicked"

Proverbs 11:6

the treacherous

This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective.

Alternate translation: "those who are treacherous"

the treacherous are trapped by their cravings

"those who do evil are captured by their passions" treacherous

ready to betray trust; traitorous; deceptive

Proverbs 11:7

the hope that was in his strength

"the confidence he has in his own power" or "the hope for what he could gain by his power"

comes to nothing

"disappears"

Proverbs 11:8

The righteous person is delivered from trouble

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"God delivers from trouble the person who does what is right"

it comes

"trouble comes"

Proverbs 11:9

With his mouth the godless

"Mouth" represents what a person says. Alternate translation: "The words of the godless"

Proverbs 11:10

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 11:11

Through the blessings of the upright

Possible meanings are 1) The upright do good things that cause the people in the city to be prosperous or 2) God blesses the people of the city because of the actions of the upright.

the city is exalted

"City" represents the community or people group. The phrase "is exalted" can be translated in active form.

Alternate translation: "God exalts the people of the city" or "God makes the people in the city prosperous"

by the mouth of the wicked

"Mouth" represents what a person says. Alternate translation: "the words of evil people"

Proverbs 11:12

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 11:13

the trustworthy in spirit

Here the word "spirit" is a synecdoche for the whole person. Alternate translation: "a trustworthy person" keeps a matter covered

"Covered" represents keeping things concealed as much as possible. Alternate translation: "does not tell" or "does not speak about the matter"

Proverbs 11:14

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 11:15

one who hates giving

"one who refuses to give"

Proverbs 11:16

violent people

people without pity or compassion; cruel people grasp for wealth

"are greedy for wealth"

Proverbs 11:17

one who

"a person who"

Proverbs 11:18

sows what is right

To "sow" represents spreading out to gain more. Alternate translation: "spreads out what is right"

reaps the wages of truth

To "reap" represents acquiring or gathering in" Alternate translation: "will surely be rewarded"

Proverbs 11:19

the one who

"the person who"

pursues evil

"chases after evil" or "seeks to do evil"

Proverbs 11:20

Those whose hearts are perverse are an abomination to Yahweh

"Yahweh strongly hates those whose hearts are perverse."

See how you translated "abomination" in Proverbs 3:32.

whose hearts are perverse

"Heart" represents the feelings, attitudes and motivations of a person. Alternate translation: "who have wicked thoughts"

Proverbs 11:21

will not go unpunished

This phrase uses a negative to emphasize a positive idea.

Alternate translation: "will certainly be punished"

Proverbs 11:22

Like a gold ring ... without discretion

A beautiful woman without discretion is compared to a useless and unsuitable golden ring in a pig's nose.

without discretion

"without common sense" or "who is foolish"

Proverbs 11:23

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 11:24

There is one who scatters—he will accumulate even more

This is a metaphor for a person who becomes more wealthy by being generous. Alternate translation: "Some people give freely to others and yet become more wealthy"

one who scatters

You may need to make explicit that the person scatters seeds for crops to grow. This is a metaphor for being generous. Alternate translation: "one who scatters much seed" or "one who is generous"

will accumulate even more

"will gain even more"

withholds what is just

"what he should give" or "wrongly refuses to give." Being unjust is possibly a hyperbole for simply not being generous.

Proverbs 11:25

will prosper

"will gain more"

the one who

"the generous person who" or "anyone who"

Proverbs 11:26

the man who refuses to sell

This describes the person who hoards his wealth instead of helping those in need.

good gifts crown the head of him who sells it

"Crown" represents the reward or award for the person who is willing to sell grain. Alternate translation: "good gifts are given as a crown of honor to him who sells it" or "the person who sells it is honored with many blessings"

Proverbs 11:27

The one who diligently seeks the one who seeks with careful and continued effort

Proverbs 11:28

will fall

This is an idiom. Here "fall" represents destruction or failure. Alternate translation: "will be destroyed" or "awaits a bad future" like the leaf, righteous people will flourish

"Leaf" represents growth and prosperity. Alternate translation: "righteous people will prosper in the same way a healthy green leaf grows" righteous people will flourish

This means that righteous people will thrive or prosper.

Proverbs 11:29

inherit the wind

The "wind" is a metaphor for something that cannot be

Chapter 12

grasped or has no value. Alternate translation: "inherit nothing"

Proverbs 11:30

The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life

The word "fruit" here is a metonym for the tree that produces the fruit, and the tree is a metaphor for a person who does what is right. Alternate translation: "Those who do right will bring life to themselves and others"

tree of life

See how you translated this in Proverbs 3:18.

but violence takes away lives

"but the one who kills people is violent." Some modern translations read, "and the one who wins souls is wise," that is, a wise person will convince other people to do what is right.

Proverbs 11:31

The righteous person is rewarded on earth

This can be translated using an active verb. Alternate translation: "God rewards the righteous person on earth" or "People reward the righteous person on earth" righteous person is rewarded on earth

Some translations read, "person who is righteous on earth is rewarded."

is rewarded ... on earth

The phrase "on earth" is a metonym for the life that a person lives on earth. Alternate translation: "is rewarded ... in this life"

how much more

"even more so"

Chapter 12

¹ Whoever loves discipline loves knowledge, but the one who hates correction is stupid.

² Yahweh gives favor to a good man,
but he condemns a man who makes evil plans.

³ A person cannot be established by wickedness, but righteous people cannot be uprooted.

⁴ A worthy wife is her husband's crown, but she who brings shame is like a disease that rots his bones.

⁵ The plans of the righteous are just,
but the advice of the wicked is deceitful.

⁶ The words of wicked people are an ambush waiting for bloodshed, but the words of the upright keep them safe.

⁷ Wicked people are overthrown and they are gone,
but the house of the righteous person will stand.

⁸ A man is praised for prudent lips,
but the perverse heart is despised.

⁹ Better the person of low position who has a servant than the one who honors himself but has no food.

¹⁰ The righteous person cares about the needs of his animal,
but even the compassion of the wicked is cruel.

¹¹ The one who works his land will have plenty of food, but whoever chases after worthless projects has no sense.

¹² The evil person desires the plunder of the wicked, but the righteous root endures.

¹³ An evil person is trapped by the transgression of his lips, but the righteous person escapes from trouble.

¹⁴ From the fruit of his words a person is filled with good things, just as the work of his hands rewards him.

¹⁵ The way of a fool is right in his own eyes,
but a wise man listens to advice.

¹⁶ A fool shows his anger at once, but one who ignores an insult is prudent.

¹⁷ The one who speaks the truth says what is right, but a false witness, deceit.

¹⁸ The words of one who speaks rashly are like the thrusts of a sword, but the tongue of the wise brings healing.

¹⁹ Truthful lips last forever,
but a lying tongue is only for a moment.

²⁰ There is deceit in the hearts of those who plan to do evil, but joy comes to the advisors of peace.

- ²¹ No ill comes upon the righteous,
but the wicked are filled with distress.
- ²² Lying lips are an abomination to Yahweh,
but those who live faithfully are his delight.
- ²³ A prudent man conceals his knowledge,
but the heart of fools shouts out folly.
- ²⁴ The hand of the diligent will rule, but lazy people will be put to forced labor.
- ²⁵ Anxiety in the heart of a person weighs him down,
but a good word makes him glad.
- ²⁶ The righteous person is a guide for his friend,
but the way of the wicked leads them astray.
- ²⁷ Lazy people would not roast their own game,
but the diligent man will obtain precious wealth.
- ²⁸ Those who walk in the right way find life and in its path there is no death.

Proverbs 12 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 12 continues the section of the book (Chapter 10-22) which is attributed to Solomon and is filled mainly with short, individual proverbs.

Special concepts in this chapter

Themes

There are individual proverbs that run along common themes, often using contrasting elements: wise/foolish, money, lazy/diligent, truth telling, wicked/righteous, sluggard, pride/humility and integrity/crookedness. (See: wise, foolish and evil and righteous)

Links:

Proverbs 12:1 Notes

Proverbs 12:1

General Information:

The author uses throughout this chapter. Verses 1-15 contrast wisdom and foolishness.

Whoever

"Any person who"

the one who hates correction

"the person who does not want to be told what to do" is stupid

"is foolish" or "is unwise"

Proverbs 12:2

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 12:3

A person cannot be established by wickedness

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "No one can become safe and secure by doing what is wicked" cannot be uprooted

"Uprooted" represents being pulled out of the ground like a plant or a tree. This cannot happen to those who do right.

Alternate translation: "are as stable as a tree with deep roots"

Proverbs 12:4

A worthy wife is her husband's crown

A crown represents the greatest honor a person can receive. Alternate translation: "A good wife is a sign of great honor for her husband" she who brings shame is like a disease that rots his bones

A disease that rots the bones represents the spoiling of a person's life. Alternate translation: "a wife's shameful acts destroy her husband's influence and happiness"

Proverbs 12:5

the righteous

This refers to righteous persons in general. This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "righteous people"

Proverbs 12:6

The words of wicked people are an ambush waiting for bloodshed

The deceitful things that wicked people say in order to harm other people are spoken of as if their words are waiting to kill someone by surprise. Alternate translation: "The deceitful things wicked people say are like a person waiting to murder someone by surprise" the words of the upright keep them safe

"advice from the upright keeps people safe"

the upright

This refers to upright persons in general. This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "upright persons" or "righteous persons" or "honest persons"

Proverbs 12:7

Wicked people are overthrown

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "People will overthrow the wicked people" or "People will remove the wicked people from power" house

The term "house" is often used figuratively in the Bible to refer to a person's ancestors, descendants or other relatives. Alternate translation: "family" or "descendants"

Proverbs 12:8

A man is praised for prudent lips

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "People will praise a man with prudent lips"

for prudent lips

The lips here are either 1) a synecdoche for the man himself. Alternate translation: "because he is prudent" Or 2) a metonym for the words he speaks Alternate translation: "because he speaks prudently."

the perverse heart is despised

The word "heart" here is a synecdoche for the whole person. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "people will despise the one who always thinks evil thoughts" or "people will despise the one who takes good things and twists them into bad"

Proverbs 12:9

the person of low position

"the person whom others despise"

the one who honors himself

"the one who boasts about himself"

Proverbs 12:10

is cruel

"causes suffering"

Proverbs 12:11

worthless projects

"worthless plans" or "worthless tasks"

Proverbs 12:12

the plunder of the wicked

"what wicked people steal." That is, what they desire is what they themselves can steal. The writer is not referring to these evil people stealing from other wicked people.

the righteous root endures

This metaphor refers to a person who acts righteously whether people are watching him or not. Alternate translation: "the righteous person endures" or "righteous people endure"

Proverbs 12:13

An evil person is trapped by the transgression of his lips

"Trapped" represents being caught in a snare or being tricked. The evil words a person says are spoken of as if the person's lips themselves were transgressing. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "The wicked things an evil person says will trap him"

Proverbs 12:14

just as the work of his hands rewards him

The phrase, "the work of his hands" represents work done by physical labor. Alternate translation: "just as the good work he does rewards him"

Proverbs 12:15

in his own eyes

This phrase represents the idea he has from his own observation, imagination or memory. Alternate translation: "in his own opinion"

advice

wise suggestions

Proverbs 12:16

is prudent

"is wise" or "has good sense."

Proverbs 12:17

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 12:18

The words of one who speaks rashly are like the thrusts of a sword

The phrase, "thrusts of a sword" represents cruel words that hurt another. Alternate translation: "What a person says without thinking can hurt as much as if he stabbed with a sword"

the tongue of the wise

"Tongue" represents what a person says. Alternate translation: "what wise people say"

brings healing

"comforts and heals"

Proverbs 12:19

Truthful lips last forever

"Lips" represents what a person says. Alternate translation:

"A truthful person endures forever"

a lying tongue is only for a moment

"Tongue" represents what a person says. Alternate translation: "the one who lies lasts only for a moment"

Proverbs 12:20

advisors

those who give recommendations as a guide to action;

counselors

Proverbs 12:21

No ill comes

The negative, "No" cancels out the idea of "ill"

Proverbs 12:22

Lying lips are an abomination to Yahweh

"Yahweh strongly hates lying lips." See how you translated "abomination" in Proverbs 3:32.

Lying lips

"Lips" are either a metonym for the words a person says or a synecdoche for the person himself. Alternate translation:

"Lies" or "People who tell lies"

Proverbs 12:23

conceals his knowledge

"does not tell everything he knows"

Proverbs 12:24

The hand of the diligent

"Hand" represents what a person does—his works.

Alternate translation: "Diligent people" will be put to forced labor

"Forced labor" describes what a person must do who is not free to do what he wants. Alternate translation: "will become a slave"

Proverbs 12:25

Anxiety

uneasy feeling of fear or dread, worry weighs him down

"Weighing down" represents the idea of putting a very heavy load on a person so he cannot move freely. This phrase means to make a person sad or depressed. Alternate translation: "causes him to become sad or depressed"

but a good word makes him glad

The abstract noun "word" can be stated as the verb "speak."

Alternate translation: "but when others speak kindly to him, he is cheerful again"

Proverbs 12:26

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 12:27

would not roast their own game

"Game" means animals caught and killed while hunting.

And "roast" is a way of cooking food.

precious wealth

"valuable treasure"

Proverbs 12:28

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Chapter 13

¹ A wise son hears his father's instruction,
but a mocker will not listen to rebuke.

² From the fruit of his mouth a person enjoys good things, but the appetite of the treacherous is for violence.

³ The one who guards his mouth protects his life, but the one who opens wide his lips will ruin himself.

⁴ The appetite of the lazy person craves but gets nothing, but the appetite of the diligent person will be richly satisfied.

⁵ The righteous person hates deceptive words, but a wicked person makes himself repugnant, and he does what is shameful.

⁶ Righteousness protects those who are faultless in their path, but wickedness ruins those who commit sin.

⁷ There is someone who enriches himself, but has nothing at all,
and there is someone who gives everything away, yet has much wealth.

⁸ The ransom of a rich man's life is his wealth, but a poor person does not hear a threat.

⁹ The light of righteous people rejoices,
but the lamp of wicked people will be put out.

¹⁰ Pride only breeds conflict, but for those who listen to good advice there is wisdom.

¹¹ Wealth dwindles away when there is too much vanity, but the one who makes money by working with his hand will make his money grow.

¹² When hope is postponed, it breaks the heart, but a longing fulfilled is a tree of life.

¹³ Whoever despises instruction brings destruction on himself, but he who respects the commandment will be rewarded.

¹⁴ The teaching of a wise person is a fountain of life, turning you away from the snares of death.

¹⁵ Good insight wins favor,
but the way of the treacherous is disaster. 1

¹⁶ Prudent people act out of knowledge in every decision, but a fool parades his folly.

¹⁷ A wicked messenger falls into trouble,
but a faithful envoy brings healing.

¹⁸ The one who ignores instruction will have poverty and shame, but honor will come to him who learns from correction.

¹⁹ A longing realized is sweet to the appetite,
but turning away from evil is an abomination to fools.

²⁰ Walk with wise people and you will be wise, but the companion of fools will suffer harm.

²¹ Disaster runs after sinners, but righteous people are rewarded with good.

²² A good person leaves an inheritance for his grandchildren, but a sinner's wealth is stored up for the righteous person.

²³ An unplowed field owned by the poor could produce much food,
but it is swept away by injustice.

²⁴ The one who does not use his rod hates his son, but one who loves his son is careful to instruct him.

²⁵ The righteous person eats until he satisfies his appetite, but the stomach of the wicked is always hungry.

¹The ULB is following the ancient Greek translation because the Hebrew is difficult to understand. The Hebrew has: the way of the treacherous is unending.

Proverbs 13 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 13 continues the section of the book which is attributed to Solomon and is filled mainly with short, individual proverbs.

Special concepts in this chapter

Themes

There are individual proverbs that run along common themes, often including contrasting elements: wise/foolish, money, lazy/diligent, truth telling, wicked/righteous, sluggard, pride/humility, integrity/crookedness. (See: wise, foolish and evil and righteous)

Links:

Proverbs 13:1 Notes

Proverbs 13:1

A wise son hears

Here "hears" represents listening in order to do it. Alternate translation: "A wise son obeys"

will not listen to rebuke

Here "listen" represents paying attention in order to do it.

Alternate translation: "will not learn from rebuke" or "will not obey, despite rebuke"

Proverbs 13:2

From the fruit of his mouth

Here "fruit" represents what a person says. Alternate translation: "From the words of his mouth" or "From what he says"

the appetite

the desire or liking for something

the treacherous

This nominal adjective can be translated as an adjective.

Alternate translation: "the treacherous person"

Proverbs 13:3

his mouth

Here "mouth" represents what a person says. Alternate translation: "what he says"

opens wide his lips

Opening the lips represents speaking, and opening them wide represents speaking too often or too much. Alternate translation: "speaks a lot" or "talks too much"

Proverbs 13:4

The appetite ... the appetite

See how you translated this in Proverbs 13:2.

craves but gets nothing

"strongly desires but gets nothing"

the appetite of the diligent person will be richly satisfied

Here "appetite" represents desire. Alternate translation:

"the diligent person will have a richly satisfied life" or

"being diligent will make a person richly satisfied"

the diligent person

this refers to any person who works with careful and continued effort

Proverbs 13:5

repugnant

causing a strong feeling of disgust

Proverbs 13:6

Righteousness protects those

"Righteousness" represents a way of life approved by Yahweh. This quality acts like a person who protects.

Alternate translation: "A way of life approved by Yahweh protects"

who are faultless in their path

Here "path" represents how a person directs his life.

Alternate translation: "who are faultless in their way of living" or "who live lives of integrity" wickedness ruins those who commit sin

Here "wickedness" represents an evil conduct of life. This quality acts like a person who ruins those who commit sin.

Alternate translation: "wickedness ruins sinners' lives" or "sinners ruin their lives by committing wickedness"

Proverbs 13:7

who enriches himself

"who makes himself rich"

Proverbs 13:8

does not hear a threat

Possible meanings are 1) no one will threaten to steal from him because he has nothing anyone would want to steal or 2) he will not listen when people correct him because he has nothing to lose if they punish him. Alternate translation: "does not listen to rebuke"

Proverbs 13:9

The light of righteous people rejoices

Here the light represents the righteous person's life or good behavior, and rejoicing represents causing people to rejoice. Alternate translation: "The life of a righteous person is like a light that causes people to rejoice"

the lamp of wicked people will be put out

Here the lamp represents the life or behavior of wicked people, and "be put out" is an idiom that means that a fire is stopped. The lamp being put out represents either the person dying or the person's life not giving any joy.

Alternate translation: "the lives of wicked people are like a lamp whose fire will be stopped"

Proverbs 13:10

Pride only breeds conflict

"Pride always causes conflict" listen to

"heed" or "follow"

good advice

suggestions that are helpful and profitable

Proverbs 13:11

Wealth dwindles away

"Wealth decreases" or "Wealth slowly disappears"

working with his hand

The phrase "working with his hand" refers to physical work instead of only mental or other types of work. Many people give physical work a low value. Alternate translation:

"working with physical strength"

make his money grow

Money is compared to a tree that grows. Alternate translation: "make his money increase"

Proverbs 13:12

When hope is postponed

Here "hope" represents the thing a person hopes for. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "When a person hopes for something but does not receive it for a very long time"

it breaks the heart

Breaking a person's heart represents overwhelming that person with sadness. Alternate translation: "it causes intense sadness"

a longing fulfilled is a tree of life

Someone receiving what they hoped for and becoming very happy is spoken of as if the fulfillment of their hope were a tree that gives life. Alternate translation: "a longing fulfilled is like a tree of life"

tree of life

"a tree that gives life" or "a tree whose fruit sustains life."

See how you translated this in Proverbs 3:18.

Proverbs 13:13

he who respects the commandment will be rewarded

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"they will reward the one who respects the command"

Proverbs 13:14

fountain of life

A fountain is a good source of water and here represents a source of life. Alternate translation: "a bountiful source of life"

Chapter 14

snares of death

Here "snares" represent dangers that will kill. Alternate translation: "traps that lead to death"

Proverbs 13:15

but the way of the treacherous is disaster

Here a person's behavior or conduct is spoken of as if it were a way or path that a person walks. A person being ruined by their own treachery is spoken of as if they are on a way or path that never ends. Alternate translation: "but the behavior of the treacherous will cause their own destruction"

the treacherous

This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective.

Alternate translation: "the treacherous person"

Proverbs 13:16

a fool parades his folly

To "parade" means to display in front of everyone.

Alternate translation: "a fool displays his foolishness to everyone"

Proverbs 13:17

falls into trouble

"is unreliable" or "does something evil"

a faithful envoy

"a faithful messenger" or "a faithful ambassador"

brings healing

The word "healing" here is probably a metaphor for reconciliation between the one who sends the envoy and the person to whom the envoy is sent..Alternate translation: "brings reconciliation"

Proverbs 13:18

learns from correction

The abstract noun "correction" can be stated as an action.

Alternate translation: "learns when someone corrects him"

Proverbs 13:19

is sweet

"is a delight" or "brings joy"

the appetite

the desire or liking for something

turning away from evil is an abomination to fools

"fools strongly hate to turn away from evil." See how you translated "abomination" in Proverbs 3:32.

Proverbs 13:20

will suffer harm

"will experience harm" or "will be ruined"

Proverbs 13:21

Disaster runs after sinners

"Disaster" is given human characteristics like the ability to run. Alternate translation: "Sinners have trouble wherever they go" righteous people are rewarded with good

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"God rewards righteous people with good"

Proverbs 13:22

his grandchildren

"the sons of his sons" or "the children of his children" or

"his descendants"

a sinner's wealth is stored up for the righteous person

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "the one who does right will receive the wealth that a sinner has stored up"

Proverbs 13:23

An unplowed field

"A field that is not prepared for food production" or "An empty field not ready for planting"

but it is swept away by injustice

"Swept away" represents completely removing something.

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "but injustice takes away that food" or "but unjust people take the food away"

Proverbs 13:24

is careful to instruct him

"makes sure to instruct him"

Proverbs 13:25

he satisfies his appetite

"he has satisfied himself" or "he fulfills his desires"

the stomach of the wicked is always hungry

Here "stomach" represents the desires of a person.

Alternate translation: "the wicked person is always hungry for more"

Chapter 14

¹ The wise woman builds her house, but a foolish woman tears it down with her own hands.

² The one who walks uprightly fears Yahweh, but the one who is dishonest in his ways despises him.

³ From the mouth of a fool comes a rod for his back, but the lips of the wise will preserve them.

⁴ Where there are no cattle, the feeding trough is clean, but an abundant crop comes from the strength of an ox.

⁵ A faithful witness does not lie,
but a false witness breathes out lies.

⁶ A mocker seeks wisdom and there is none, but knowledge comes easily to the one who is discerning.

⁷ Walk away from a foolish person, for you will not find knowledge on his lips.

⁸ The wisdom of the prudent person is to understand his own way, but the folly of fools is deception.

⁹ Fools mock when the guilt offering is sacrificed,
but among the upright favor is shared.

¹⁰ The heart knows its own bitterness and no stranger shares its joy.

¹¹ The house of wicked people will be destroyed,
but the tent of the upright will flourish.

¹² There is a way that seems right to a man,
but its end only leads to death.

¹³ A heart can laugh but still be in pain and joy may end up being grief.

¹⁴ The faithless in heart will get what his ways deserve, but a good person will get what is his.

¹⁵ The one who is naive believes everything, but the prudent man thinks about his steps.

Chapter 14

- ¹⁶ A wise man fears and turns away from evil,
but the fool confidently dismisses a warning.
- ¹⁷ One who is quick to become angry does foolish things, and a person who makes evil schemes is hated.
- ¹⁸ The naive inherit foolishness,
but prudent people are crowned with knowledge.
- ¹⁹ Evil people will bow down before those who are good and those who are wicked will bow down at the gates of the righteous person.
- ²⁰ The poor person is hated even by his own companions, but the rich people have many friends.
- ²¹ The one who shows contempt for his neighbor is sinning, but the one who shows favor to the poor is blessed.
- ²² Do not those who plot evil go astray?
But those who plan to do good will receive steadfast love and faithfulness.
- ²³ With all hard work comes a profit,
but when there is only talk, it leads to poverty.
- ²⁴ The crown of wise people is their wealth,
but the folly of fools brings them only more folly.
- ²⁵ A truthful witness saves lives,
but he who breathes out lies brings betrayal.
- ²⁶ In the fear of Yahweh is strong confidence;
it will be a refuge for his children.
- ²⁷ The fear of Yahweh is a fountain of life, so that a person may turn away from the snares of death.

²⁸ The glory of a king is found in the great number of his people, but without people the prince is ruined.

²⁹ A patient person has great understanding, but the quick-tempered person exalts folly.

³⁰ A tranquil heart is life for the body,
but envy rots the bones.

³¹ The one who oppresses the poor insults his Maker, but the one who shows favor to the needy honors him.

³² The wicked person is brought down by his evil actions, but the righteous person has a refuge even in death.

³³ Wisdom rests in the heart of the discerning,
but even among fools she lets herself be known.

³⁴ Doing what is right exalts a nation,
but sin is a disgrace to any people.

³⁵ The favor of the king is with the servant who acts prudently, but his anger is for the one who acts shamefully.

Proverbs 14 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 14 continues the section of the book which is attributed to Solomon and is filled mainly with short, individual proverbs.

Special concepts in this chapter

Themes

There are individual proverbs that run along common themes, often including contrasting elements: wise/foolish, money, lazy/diligent, truth telling, wicked/righteous, sluggard, pride/humility, integrity/crookedness. (See: wise, foolish and evil and righteous)

Links:

Proverbs 14:1 Notes

Proverbs 14:1

builds her house

"builds up her house" or "makes her house better"

house

Possible meanings are 1) this may refer to her actual house, that is the building she lives in or 2) this may refer to her family.

with her own hands

The woman is represented by her "hands." Alternate translation: "by herself" or "by the way she behaves"

Proverbs 14:2

The one who ... the one who

"The person who ... the person who"

walks uprightly

"Walks" represents the conduct of life. Alternate translation: "conducts his life in a just and honest way"

despises him

"grossly disrespects him" or "shows that he hates him"

in his ways despises him

The word "his" refers to the dishonest man and "him" refers to Yahweh.

Proverbs 14:3

the mouth of ... the lips of

The mouth and the lips both refer to what a person says.

a rod for his back

The rod with which people will punish the fool by hitting him on his back for his foolish words is a metonym for the words that come out of his mouth. Alternate translation:

"words that will cause people to punish him"

the wise

This word is plural. "wise men" or "wise people" will preserve them

"will keep them from harm" or "will keep them safe"

Proverbs 14:4

the feeding trough

A "trough" is a container in which you put the food for animals.

an abundant crop

"a good harvest"

from the strength of an ox

"Strength" represents the strong work an ox can do.

Alternate translation: "because of the work an ox does"

Proverbs 14:5

breathes out lies

This figure of speech uses "breathes" to refer to lying constantly. Alternate translation: "constantly lies" See how you translated this phrase in Proverbs 6:19.

Proverbs 14:6

and there is none

"and wisdom is not there" or "but he will not find wisdom"

knowledge comes easily to the one who is discerning

"the one who is discerning acquires knowledge easily"

the one who is discerning

"the one who is wise" or "a person who has understanding"

Proverbs 14:7

on his lips

The word "lips" represents what a person says. Alternate translation: "from his speech" or "with his comments"

Proverbs 14:8

the prudent

a person who has good judgment or sense

his own way

The word "way" represents the conduct of life of a person.

Alternate translation: "his conduct" or "how he lives"

the folly of fools is deception

The foolishness of fools is that they think they are wise, when they are not.

Proverbs 14:9

when the guilt offering is sacrificed

"at guilt" or "at the guilt offering" The meaning behind this phrase is that fools do not apologize to God or men for the things they do wrong.

but among the upright favor is shared

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "but the upright enjoy favor together" or "but God's favor is experienced together among the upright"

the upright

This refers to upright persons in general. This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "upright people" or "righteous people" or

"honest people"

Proverbs 14:10

its own bitterness

"its own sorrow" or "its own sadness"

no stranger

"those who do not know him"

Proverbs 14:11

the tent

The word "tent" represents everything that happens within it. Alternate translation: "the household" flourish

The word "flourish" means vigorous blooming of flowers and so represents anything that grows strongly. Alternate translation: "to do well and last long" or "to be healthy" or

"to be very successful"

Proverbs 14:12

There is a way that seems right to a man

The word "way" represents the conduct of life a person follows. Alternate translation: "People think that the way they are living is the right way"

Proverbs 14:13

A heart can laugh

The word "heart" represents a person's feelings, attitudes and motivations. Alternate translation: "A person's feelings can show laughter"

be in pain

"experience pain" or "hurt"

Proverbs 14:14

The faithless in heart

"The person who is faithless"

what his ways deserve

The word "ways" represents a person's conduct of life.

Alternate translation: "what he deserves, based on how he lived"

what is his

"what belongs to him" or "what he has a right to"

Proverbs 14:15

naive

inexperienced or immature

his steps

Here the idea of footsteps represents a person's behavior.

Alternate translation: "his actions"

Proverbs 14:16

turns away from evil

Here evil is spoken of as if it were a place. Alternate translation: "avoids doing evil" confidently dismisses

"boldly ignores"

Proverbs 14:17

is quick to become angry

"becomes angry quickly"

Proverbs 14:18

naive

inexperienced or immature

inherit foolishness

Here "inherit" represents having permanent possession of something.

foolishness

The word "foolishness" is an abstract noun that represents foolish thinking and foolish actions.

prudent people

"wise people"

are crowned with knowledge

Here knowledge is spoken of as if it were a beautiful ornament worn on one's head, such as a turban with jewels. Alternate translation: "wear knowledge as a turban"

Proverbs 14:19

bow down

This means to bend over to humbly express respect and submission toward someone.

at the gates of the righteous

The word "gates" represents an entrance to meet with another. This means the wicked will have to wait for the righteous person and beg to enter his presence. Alternate translation: "to meet with the righteous person"

Proverbs 14:20

The poor person is hated even by his own companions

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"Everyone hates the poor person even his own neighbors"

Proverbs 14:21

The one ... the one

"The person ... the person"

the poor

"poor people"

Proverbs 14:22

Do not those who plot evil go astray?

The assumed answer to this question is "yes." Alternate translation: "Those who plot evil will go astray."

who plot evil

"who make evil plans" or "who make plans to do evil things"

those who plan to do good will receive steadfast love and faithfulness

The abstract nouns "love" and "faithfulness" can be stated with the verb "love" and the adjective "faithful." Alternate translation: "God will show those who plan to do what is good that he loves them without ceasing, and he will be faithful to them"

Proverbs 14:23

but when there is only talk

"but if you only talk" or "but when all a person does is talking"

Proverbs 14:24

The crown of wise people

The word "crown" represents the highest achievement possible and visible to all. Alternate translation: "The reward of wise people"

the folly of fools

See how you translated this phrase in Proverbs 14:8.

Proverbs 14:25

breathes out lies

This figure of speech uses "breathes" to refer to lying constantly. See how you translated this phrase in [Proverbs 6:19]

Proverbs 14:26

In the fear of Yahweh is strong confidence

The abstract nouns "fear" and "confidence" can be translated as verbs. Alternate translation: "The person who fears Yahweh also knows that he can trust Yahweh"

it will be a refuge for his children

The confidence that a person who fears Yahweh has is spoken of as if it were a place to which that person's children can go to be safe. Alternate translation: "his children can know that Yahweh will protect them"

Proverbs 14:27

fountain of life

A "fountain" is a bountiful source of water and represents here the source of life. Alternate translation: "source of life" from the snares of death

A "snare" is a sort of trap used to hunt animals and represents something tricky and dangerous that will kill.

Alternate translation: "from the trap that will kill"

Proverbs 14:28

the great number of his people

"how many people he rules"

the prince is ruined

"the prince has nothing and his kingdom will fall"

Proverbs 14:29

the quick-tempered

a person who is quick to become angry

Proverbs 14:30

A tranquil heart

"A peaceful mindset" or "An attitude that is at peace"

rots the bones

The word "rots" represents the decay of a person and

"bones" represents the whole person. Alternate translation:

"causes a person to be unhealthy in body and spirit"

Proverbs 14:31

The one who ... the one who

"The person who ... the person who"

the poor ... the needy

"a poor person ... a needy person" shows favor to

"is kind to" or "helps"

Proverbs 14:32

is brought down by his evil actions

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"evil actions push over" or "evil actions destroy"

Proverbs 14:33

Wisdom rests in the heart

The word "heart" represents the feelings, attitudes and motivations of a person. Alternate translation: "Wisdom is in the attitude"

the discerning

"a discerning person"

she lets herself be known

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "she makes sure people know her"

Chapter 15

she

The word "she" refers to wisdom.

Proverbs 14:34

is a disgrace

"brings shame upon to any people" or "should cause any people to be ashamed"

Proverbs 14:35

who acts prudently

"who acts wisely" or "who makes sure bad things do not happen"

the one who

"the servant who"

Chapter 15

¹ A gentle answer turns away wrath,
but a harsh word stirs up anger.

² The tongue of wise people compliments knowledge, but the mouth of fools pours out folly.

³ The eyes of Yahweh are everywhere, keeping watch over the evil and the good.

⁴ A healing tongue is a tree of life,
but a deceitful tongue crushes the spirit.

⁵ A fool has contempt for his father's instruction,
but he who learns from correction is prudent.

⁶ In the house of the righteous person there is great treasure, but the earnings of the wicked person give him trouble.

⁷ The lips of wise people scatter knowledge about,
but not so the hearts of fools.

⁸ The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to Yahweh, but the prayer of the upright is his delight.

⁹ The way of wicked people is an abomination to Yahweh, but he loves the one who pursues what is right.

¹⁰ Harsh discipline awaits anyone who abandons the way and he who hates correction will die.

- ¹¹ Sheol and destruction are open before Yahweh;
how much more the hearts of the sons of mankind?
- ¹² The mocker does not love the one who corrects him;
he will not go to the wise.
- ¹³ A joyful heart makes the face cheerful,
but by an injured heart the spirit is broken.
- ¹⁴ The heart of the discerning seeks knowledge,
but the mouth of fools feeds on folly.
- ¹⁵ All the days of the afflicted are miserable,
but a cheerful heart has an unending feast.
- ¹⁶ Better is little with the fear of Yahweh than great treasure with tumult.
- ¹⁷ Better is a meal with vegetables where there is love than a fattened calf served with hatred.
- ¹⁸ An angry man stirs up strife,
but a person who is slow to anger quiets a quarrel.
- ¹⁹ The path of the lazy person is like a place with a hedge of thorns, but the path of the upright is a built-up highway.
- ²⁰ A wise son brings joy to his father,
but a foolish person despises his mother.
- ²¹ Folly delights a person who lacks sense,
but the one who has understanding walks a straight path.
- ²² Plans go wrong where there is no advice,

but with numerous advisors they succeed.

²³ A person finds joy when he gives a pertinent reply;
how good is a timely word!

²⁴ The path of life leads upward for prudent people, that they may turn away from Sheol beneath.

²⁵ Yahweh tears down the house of the proud,
but he protects the property of the widow.

²⁶ The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to Yahweh, but pleasant words are pure.

²⁷ The person who profits from unjust gain brings trouble to his family, but the one who hates bribes will live.

²⁸ The heart of the righteous person ponders before it answers, but the mouth of wicked people pours out all its evil.

²⁹ Yahweh is far away from wicked people,
but he hears the prayer of righteous people.

³⁰ The light of the eyes brings joy to the heart and good news is health to the body.

³¹ The ear that listens to life-giving rebuke will dwell among wise people.

³² The one who rejects discipline despises himself, but he who listens to correction gains understanding.

³³ The fear of Yahweh instructs in wisdom, and humility comes before honor.

Proverbs 15 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 15 continues the section of the book which is attributed to Solomon and is filled mainly with short, individual proverbs.

Special concepts in this chapter

Themes

There are individual proverbs that run along common themes, often including contrasting elements: wise/foolish, money, lazy/diligent, truth telling, wicked/righteous, sluggard, pride/humility, integrity/crookedness. (See: wise, foolish and evil and righteous)

Links:

Proverbs 15:1 Notes

Proverbs 15:1

A gentle answer turns away wrath

Causing a person to stop being angry is spoken of as if it were turning that person's wrath away. Alternate translation: "Answering a person gently will calm that person's wrath"

but a harsh word stirs up anger

Causing a person to become more angry is spoken of as if it were stirring up or awakening anger. Alternate translation: "but speaking harshly causes that person to become more angry"

Proverbs 15:2

The tongue of wise people compliments knowledge

Here the word "tongue" refers to the person who speaks.

Alternate translation: "Wise people compliment knowledge when they speak" compliments knowledge

Possible meanings are 1) "makes knowledge attractive" or 2) "uses knowledge correctly."

the mouth of fools pours out folly

The writer speaks of fools' mouths as if they were containers and of folly as if it were the liquid that filled them. When fools speak, their mouths pour out the liquid. The word "mouth" represents those who speak. Alternate translation: "fools are always speaking folly"

Proverbs 15:3

The eyes of Yahweh are everywhere

Here the word "eyes" represents Yahweh and emphasizes his ability to see everything. Alternate translation: "Yahweh sees everything" the evil and the good

The words "evil" and "good" refer to people. Alternate translation: "evil people and good people"

Proverbs 15:4

A healing tongue is a tree of life

The word "tongue" refers to speech. The writer speaks of the words of a person who says things that help and encourage others as if they were a tree that provides life-giving nourishment. Alternate translation: "Kind words are like a tree that gives life"

a deceitful tongue crushes the spirit

The phrase "a deceitful tongue" refers to speech that is deceitful or hurtful. The writer speaks of a person being hurt or in despair as if that person's spirit were an object that words have crushed. Alternate translation: "deceitful speech causes a person to despair"

Proverbs 15:5

he who learns from correction

The word "correction" can be translated as a verb. Alternate translation: "he who learns when someone corrects him"

is prudent

"is wise"

Proverbs 15:6

the earnings of the wicked person give

The word "earnings" can be translated as a verbal phrase. Alternate translation: "the wealth that a wicked person earns gives"

Proverbs 15:7

The lips of wise people scatter knowledge about

The word "lips" represents what wise people say. The writer speaks of knowledge as if it were seeds that wise people scatter around when they speak. Alternate translation: "The speech of wise people spreads knowledge"

not so the hearts of fools

Possible meanings are 1) the word "hearts" is synecdoche for the fools themselves and means that they do not scatter knowledge like wise people do. Alternate translation: "fools do not scatter knowledge about" or 2) fools do not have knowledge in their hearts, with "hearts" being a metonym for the thoughts. Alternate translation: "fools do not understand knowledge"

Proverbs 15:8

The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to Yahweh

"Yahweh strongly hates the sacrifices that wicked people offer." See how you translated "abomination" in Proverbs 3:32.

the upright

"the person who lives rightly" or "people who live rightly"

is his delight

"pleases him"

Proverbs 15:9

The way of wicked people is an abomination to Yahweh

The lifestyles of wicked people are spoken of as if they are paths on which those people walk. See how you translated "abomination" in [Proverbs 3:32]

the one who pursues what is right

Being diligent to live rightly is spoken of as if it were chasing after right things. Alternate translation: "the person who strives to live rightly"

Proverbs 15:10

anyone who abandons the way

Here "the way" refers to the way of righteousness. A person who stops doing what is right is spoken of as if he has left the correct path. Alternate translation: "anyone who stops living rightly"

he who hates correction

The word "correction" can be translated as a verb. Alternate translation: "the person who hates it when others correct him"

Proverbs 15:11

Sheol and destruction are open before Yahweh

The words "Sheol and destruction" both refer to the place of the dead. Yahweh knowing everything about the place of the dead is spoken of as if it were open before Yahweh.

Alternate translation: "Yahweh knows everything about the place where dead people are"

how much more the hearts of the sons of mankind?

This rhetorical question emphasizes that since Yahweh knows everything about the place of the dead, it is more obvious that he knows everything about the hearts of men. Alternate translation: "so he certainly knows the hearts of the sons of mankind!"

the hearts of the sons of mankind

Here the word "hearts" represents the thoughts and motivations. The phrase "the sons of mankind" is an idiom for humanity. Alternate translation: "the thoughts of humans"

Proverbs 15:12

he will not go to the wise

It is implied that he will not go to the wise to seek their counsel or advice. Alternate translation: "he will not go to the wise to seek their counsel"

Proverbs 15:13

A joyful heart makes the face cheerful

Here the word "heart" represents the person. Alternate translation: "When a person is joyful, his face is cheerful" by an injured heart the spirit is broken

The writer speaks of a person being discouraged as if that person's spirit were an object that is broken. Possible meanings are 1) The "injured heart" is spoken of as if it were a person who broke the spirit or 2) a person whose heart has been injured will also be discouraged. This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "an injured heart makes a person become discouraged"

Proverbs 15:14

The heart of the discerning

Here the word "heart" represents the mind and thoughts. Alternate translation: "The mind of the discerning person" or "The discerning person"

the mouth of fools feeds on folly

Here the word "mouth" represents the person. The writer speaks of fools desiring foolish things as if they ate foolish things. Alternate translation: "foolish people desire folly as if it were the food that they eat"

Proverbs 15:15

All the days of the afflicted are miserable

"Oppressed people are miserable all of their days"

a cheerful heart has an unending feast

Here the word "heart" represents the person. The writer speaks of a cheerful person enjoying life as if that person were celebrating a feast that does not end. Alternate translation: "the cheerful person enjoys life, as if he were celebrating an unending feast"

an unending feast

"a feast that never ends"

Proverbs 15:16

with tumult

"with confusion and disorder"

Proverbs 15:17

a meal with vegetables

The vegetables represent a small meal with very little food.

Alternate translation: "a small meal" or "very little food"

where there is love

The word "love" can be translated with a verbal phrase.

Alternate translation: "where people love one another"

a fatted calf served with hatred

This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "a fatted calf that someone serves with hatred"

a fatted calf

This refers to a calf that has been fed a lot of food so that it will become fat. Here it represents a delicious meal or a feast. Alternate translation: "a luxurious meal" or "a feast" with hatred

The word "hatred" can be translated with a verbal phrase. Alternate translation: "where people hate one another"

Proverbs 15:18

stirs up strife

Causing people to disagree with each other and to be angry is spoken of as if it were stirring up strife. The abstract noun "strife" can be expressed with the verbs "argue" or "fight." Alternate translation: "causes people to argue" or "makes people want to fight"

Proverbs 15:19

The path of the lazy person ... the path of the upright

The writer speaks of a person's life as if it were a path on which the person walks. Alternate translation: "The life of the lazy person ... the life of the upright"

The path of the lazy person is like a place with a hedge of thorns

The writer compares the way the lazy person lives with trying to walk through a hedge of thorns. Both cause the person to suffer pain. Alternate translation: "Life for the lazy person is like walking through a hedge of thorns"

the path of the upright is a built-up highway

The writer speaks of the blessings that upright people experience in life as if they were walking on a smooth road. the upright

This refers to upright persons in general. This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "upright people" or "righteous people" or "honest people"

built-up highway

This is a road that is wide, flat, smooth, and free of obstacles.

Proverbs 15:20

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 15:21

the one who has understanding walks a straight path
The writer speaks of a person doing the right thing as if he were walking straight ahead on a path. Alternate translation: "the person who has understanding does what is right"

Proverbs 15:22

Plans go wrong
"Plans fail"
where there is no advice
"when there is no one to give advice"
advisors

people who give recommendations as a guide to action they succeed
"plans succeed"

Proverbs 15:23

a pertinent reply
"a fitting reply" or "an appropriate answer"
how good is a timely word
This exclamation emphasizes that a word spoken at the right time is very good. Alternate translation: "a word that a person speaks at the right time is very good"

Proverbs 15:24

The path of life leads upward ... from Sheol beneath
The writer speaks of a lifestyle that results in life as if it were a path that goes upward towards life and of a lifestyle that results in death as if it were a path that leads down to the place of the dead.

Proverbs 15:25

house
This is a synecdoche for the person's household, property, and wealth.

Proverbs 15:26

The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to Yahweh
"Yahweh strongly hates the thoughts of wicked people." See how you translated "abomination" in Proverbs 3:32.
pleasant words are pure "kind words are pure"

Proverbs 15:27

General Information:
This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 15:28

The heart of the righteous person ponders before it answers
Here the word "heart" is a metonym for the mind and thoughts. This represents the person who thinks. Alternate translation: "The person who does right ponders what to say before he answers"
the mouth of wicked people pours out all its evil
The writer speaks of wicked people's mouths as if they were containers and speaks of evil as if it were the liquid that filled them. When wicked people speak, their mouths pour out the liquid. The word "mouths" represents those who speak. Alternate translation: "wicked people are always saying evil things"

the mouth of wicked people pours out all its evil
It may be more natural in your language to translate all these words as either singular or plural. Alternate translation: "the mouth of the wicked person pours out all its evil" or "the mouths of wicked people pour out all their evil"

Proverbs 15:29

Yahweh is far away from wicked people
The writer speaks of Yahweh not listening to wicked people as if he were physically far away from them. Alternate translation: "Yahweh does not listen to wicked people" or "Yahweh does not answer wicked people"

Proverbs 15:30

The light of the eyes
The writer speaks of an expression of joy on one's face as if the person's eyes emitted light. Alternate translation: "A cheerful expression" brings joy to the heart

The word "heart" represents the person. Possible meanings are 1) the person who has a cheerful expression becomes joyful or 2) other people become joyful when they see someone with a cheerful expression. Alternate translation: "causes a person to be joyful" good news is health to the body

Here the word "body" represents the person. Alternate translation: "receiving good news makes a person feel good"

Proverbs 15:31

The ear that listens ... will dwell
The "ear" here is a synecdoche for the whole person. Alternate translation: "The person who listens ... will dwell" will dwell among
"will always be welcome to be with"

Proverbs 15:32

listens to correction
The word "correction" can be translated with a verbal phrase. Alternate translation: "listens when others correct him"

Proverbs 15:33

The fear of Yahweh instructs in wisdom
The words "fear" and "wisdom" can be translated with verbal phrases. Alternate translation: "When a person fears Yahweh, he will learn to be wise"
The fear of Yahweh
See how you translated this phrase in Proverbs 1:7.
humility comes before honor
This means that a person must first learn humility before Yahweh will honor him.

Chapter 16

¹ The plans of the heart belong to a person,
but the answer from his tongue comes from Yahweh.

- ² All of a person's ways are pure in his own eyes,
but Yahweh weighs the spirits.
- ³ Commit your works to Yahweh and your plans will succeed.
- ⁴ Yahweh has made everything for its purpose,
even the wicked for the day of trouble.
- ⁵ Every exalted heart is an abomination to Yahweh,
but be sure of this, they will not go unpunished.
- ⁶ By steadfast love and faithfulness iniquity is atoned for and by the fear of Yahweh people turn away from evil.
- ⁷ When a person's ways are pleasing to Yahweh,
he makes even that person's enemies to be at peace with him.
- ⁸ Better is a little with what is right,
than a large income with injustice.
- ⁹ In his heart a person plans out his way,
but Yahweh directs his steps.
- ¹⁰ Insightful decisions are on the lips of a king;
his mouth should not betray justice.
- ¹¹ Honest scales come from Yahweh;
all the weights in the bag are his work.
- ¹² Doing evil is an abomination to kings,
for a throne is established by doing what is right.
- ¹³ Righteous lips are the delight of the king, and he loves the person who speaks upright words.
- ¹⁴ A king's wrath is a messenger of death

but a wise man will try to calm his anger.

¹⁵ In the light of a king's face is life and his favor is like a cloud that brings a spring rain.

¹⁶ How much better it is to get wisdom than gold.
To get understanding should be chosen more than silver.

¹⁷ The highway of the upright turns away from evil;
the one who guards his way preserves his life.

¹⁸ Pride comes before destruction and a haughty spirit before a downfall.

¹⁹ It is better to be of humble spirit among poor people than to divide the plunder with proud people.

²⁰ Whoever contemplates what they are taught will find what is good,
and those who trust in Yahweh will be blessed.

²¹ The one who is wise in heart is called discerning and sweetness of speech improves the ability to teach.

²² Understanding is a fountain of life to the one who has it, but the instruction of fools is their foolishness.

²³ The heart of a wise person gives insight to his mouth and adds persuasiveness to his lips.

²⁴ Pleasant words are a honeycomb—sweet to the soul and healing to the bones.

²⁵ There is a way that seems right to a man,
but its end is the way to death.

²⁶ The laborer's appetite works for him;
his hunger urges him on.

²⁷ A worthless person digs up mischief and his speech is like a scorching fire.

²⁸ A perverse person stirs up conflict and a gossip separates close friends.

²⁹ A man of violence lies to his neighbor and leads him down a path that is not good.

³⁰ The one who winks the eye is plotting perverse things;
those who purse the lips will bring evil to pass.

³¹ Gray hair is a crown of glory;
it is gained by living the right way.

³² It is better to be slow to anger than to be a warrior and one who rules his spirit is stronger than one who conquers a city.

³³ The lots are cast into the lap,
but the decision is from Yahweh.

Proverbs 16 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 16 continues the section of the book which is attributed to Solomon and is filled mainly with short, individual proverbs.

Special concepts in this chapter

King and royalty

Some of these proverbs mention a king. As in other cases, this is intended to apply to all rulers.

Themes

There are individual proverbs that run along common themes, often including contrasting elements: wise/foolish, money, lazy/diligent, truth telling, wicked/righteous, sluggard, pride/humility, integrity/crookedness. (See: wise, foolish and evil and righteous)

Links:

Proverbs 16:1 Notes

Proverbs 16:1

The plans of the heart belong to a person

Here the word "heart" represents the person's mind and thoughts. Alternate translation: "A person makes plans in his mind"

the answer from his tongue comes from Yahweh

Possible meanings are 1) Yahweh speaks his answer to a person's plans, which is a metaphor meaning that Yahweh determines the outcome of that person's plans or 2) Yahweh enables a person to speak words about the plans that he has made.

the answer from his tongue

The person is represented by his "tongue" to emphasize his speech. Alternate translation: "the answer that he speaks" Proverbs 16:2

All of a person's ways are pure in his own eyes

The eyes represent seeing, and seeing represents thoughts or judgment. The writer speaks of what a person does as if that person were walking down a path. Alternate translation: "A person thinks that everything he does is pure" or "A person judges everything he does as pure"

Yahweh weighs the spirits

Here the word "spirits" represents people's desires and motives. The writer speaks of Yahweh discerning and judging a person's desires and motives as if he were weighing that person's spirit. Alternate translation: "Yahweh judges the person's motives"

Proverbs 16:3

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 16:4

even the wicked for the day of trouble

The verbal phrase may be supplied from the previous phrase. Alternate translation: "he has made even the wicked for the day of trouble"

Proverbs 16:5

Every exalted heart is an abomination to Yahweh

"Yahweh strongly hates every exalted heart." See how you translated "abomination" in Proverbs 3:32.

Every exalted heart

Here the word "exalted" is a metaphor for "arrogant" because the person himself exalts his heart rather than allowing God or other people to exalt it. The word "heart" represents the person. Alternate translation: "everyone who is arrogant" or "every arrogant person"

they will not go unpunished

The two negatives in this phrase strongly emphasize the positive. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Yahweh will certainly punish them"

Proverbs 16:6

By steadfast love and faithfulness iniquity is atoned for

The abstract nouns "love" and "faithfulness" can be stated with the verb "love" and the adjective "faithful." This can be stated in active form. Possible meanings are 1) Alternate translation: "Because Yahweh loves his people without ceasing and is faithful to them, he forgives their sins" or 2) Alternate translation: "Yahweh will forgive the sins of those who love him without ceasing and are faithful to him"

people turn away from evil

The writer speaks of people no longer doing evil things as if they were turning away from evil. Alternate translation: "people stop doing evil things"

Proverbs 16:7

he makes

"Yahweh makes"

Proverbs 16:8

a large income

"earning a lot of money"

with injustice

"with wrongdoing"

Proverbs 16:9

In his heart a person plans out his way

Here the word "heart" represents the mind and thoughts.

The writer speaks of a person's actions as if the person were walking on a path. Alternate translation: "A person plans in his mind what he will do"

Yahweh directs his steps

The writer speaks of Yahweh determining the outcome of a person's plans as if Yahweh were telling that person where to walk.

Proverbs 16:10

Insightful decisions are on the lips of a king

Here the word "lips" is a metonym for what the king says.

Alternate translation: "What a king says are insightful decisions"

his mouth should not betray justice

The word "mouth" represents the king himself. Alternate translation: "he should not speak deceitfully when he judges"

Proverbs 16:11

Honest scales come from Yahweh

Yahweh requires justice and fairness when doing business.

Dishonest people used heavier or lighter weights in their scales in order to gain more when buying or selling.

all the weights in the bag are his work

Merchants carried their weights in bags. Possible meanings are 1) Yahweh has determined how much every weight must weigh or 2) Yahweh is concerned with every weight that a merchant uses.

Proverbs 16:12

Doing evil is an abomination to kings

Possible meanings are 1) kings hate evil deeds that their subjects commit or 2) Yahweh hates kings who commit evil deeds.

for a throne is established by doing what is right

Here the word "throne" represents the king's rule. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "for the king establishes his reign by doing what is right"

Proverbs 16:13

Righteous lips

Here the word "lips" represents the person who speaks.

Alternate translation: "A person who speaks the truth"

Proverbs 16:14

A king's wrath is a messenger of death

The writer speaks of an angry king causing someone to die as if the king's wrath were a messenger that he sends out to kill someone. Alternate translation: "An angry king can put people to death"

Proverbs 16:15

General Information:

Verse 15 contrasts with verse 14.

In the light of a king's face is life

The writer speaks of an expression of joy on the king's face as if his face emitted light. Alternate translation: "When the king is cheerful, people live"

his favor is like a cloud that brings a spring rain

The writer compares the king showing favor towards someone with a cloud that brings rain to make crops grow. Both promise blessing to those who receive them.

Proverbs 16:16

How much better it is to get wisdom than gold

This exclamation emphasizes that having wisdom is much better than having gold. Alternate translation: "It is much better to get wisdom than to get gold"

To get understanding should be chosen more than silver

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "A person should choose to get understanding more than to get silver"

Proverbs 16:17

The highway of the upright

The writer speaks of the lifestyle of upright people as if it were a well-built road, free of obstacles. Alternate translation: "The righteous way that upright people live" turns away from evil

The writer speaks of avoiding or no longer doing evil things as if it were turning away from evil. Alternate translation: "keeps them from doing evil"

the one who guards his way preserves his life

The word "way" here is a metaphor that speaks of a person's actions and words as if they were a road that he walks on. A person who "guards his way" is careful to make sure he does not do what his own evil thoughts or others' evil words or actions tempt him to do. Alternate translation: "the one who does not allow evil people to lead him to sin will live a long time"

Proverbs 16:18

a haughty spirit

Here the word "spirit" represents the person's attitude and temperament. Alternate translation: "an arrogant attitude" a downfall

"ruin" or "failure"

Proverbs 16:19

to be of humble spirit

"to have a humble spirit" or "to be a humble person"

plunder

goods taken in battle

Proverbs 16:20

what they are taught

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "what someone has taught them" or "what they have learned"

Proverbs 16:21

The one who is wise in heart is called discerning

This person will have a reputation of being a discerning person. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "People will call the one who is wise in heart discerning" or "The one who is wise in heart will have a reputation of being a discerning person"

The one who is wise in heart

Here the heart represents the mind and thoughts. Alternate translation: "The one who is wise" or "The one who is wise in his thinking" sweetness of speech

The writer speaks of kind or pleasant speech as if it were something that tastes sweet. Alternate translation: "kind speech" or "pleasant speech"

Proverbs 16:22

Understanding is a fountain of life

The writer speaks of "Understanding" as if it were a fountain that continuously flows with water and which sustains the life of those who drink from it. Alternate translation: "Understanding is like a fountain flowing with life-giving water"

Proverbs 16:23

The heart of a wise person gives

Here the word "heart" represents the mind and thoughts.

Alternate translation: "The thoughts of a wise person gives" gives insight to his mouth

Here the word "mouth" is a metonym for speech. Alternate translation: "makes his speech wise" to his lips

Here the word "lips" is a metonym for speech. Alternate translation: "to what he says"

Proverbs 16:24

sweet to the soul

Possible meanings for the word "soul" are 1) it represents a person's inward desires and pleasures. Alternate translation: "sweet enough to make a person happy" or 2) it can mean "throat" and is a metonym for a person's tongue and ability to taste. Alternate translation: "sweet to a person's taste"

healing to the bones

Here the word "bones" represent a person's body. Alternate translation: "healing to the body"

Proverbs 16:25

There is a way that seems right to a man

The writer speaks of a person's conduct or behavior as if it were a road on which the person is traveling. Alternate translation: "A person thinks that the way he is living is right"

but its end is the way to death

The word "its" refers to "way" in the previous line. This "way" is the road that leads to death.

Proverbs 16:26

The laborer's appetite works for him

The writer speaks of the appetite as if it were a person who works on behalf of the laborer. This means that the person who labors is motivated by his desire to eat. Alternate translation: "The laborer works to satisfy his appetite" his hunger urges him on

The writer speaks of "hunger" as if it were a person who urges the laborer to continue working. Alternate translation: "he keeps on working because he is hungry"

Proverbs 16:27

A worthless person digs up mischief

The writer speaks of a person trying to find ways to harm other people as if that person were digging in the ground to find something buried. Alternate translation: "A worthless person looks for mischief as if he were digging for something in the ground"

worthless

"useless" or "wicked" mischief

trouble

Chapter 17

his speech is like a scorching fire

The writer compares the way this person's words hurt others with the way that fire burns things. Alternate translation: "he hurts people with his words, like a fire scorches the things it touches"

Proverbs 16:28

a gossip

a person who gossips or spreads rumors

Proverbs 16:29

A man of violence lies to his neighbor

It is implied that this man lies to his neighbor in order to get his neighbor to join him in violent actions. Alternate translation: "A man of violence entices his neighbor"

A man of violence

"A violent man" or "A man who practices violence"

leads him down a path that is not good

The writer speaks of a person's actions as if they were a road on which the person walks. Alternate translation: "gets him to do things that are not good"

a path that is not good

The writer uses an understatement to emphasize how bad this path is. Alternate translation: "a very bad path" or "a terrible path"

Proverbs 16:30

The one who winks the eye ... those who purse the lips

Both of these are facial gestures which people might use to signal their plans to others. See how you translated "winks the eye" in Proverbs 10:10.

will bring evil to pass

"will do evil things"

Proverbs 16:31

Gray hair is a crown of glory

The writer speaks of gray hair as if it were a crown. "Gray hair" is a metonym for old age. Alternate translation: "A person who has lived long enough to have gray hair is like one who wears a glorious crown on his head"

it is gained

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "a person gains it"

Proverbs 16:32

one who rules his spirit

The writer speaks of a person being able to control his own temper and emotions as if he ruled over his spirit like a king rules his people. Alternate translation: "one who controls his temper"

Proverbs 16:33

The lots are cast into the lap

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "A person throws the lots into his lap"

the decision is from Yahweh

Possible meanings are 1) Yahweh decides how the lots will land or 2) it is not the lots, but Yahweh who determines what will happen.

Chapter 17

¹ It is better to have quiet with a dry morsel of bread than a house full of feasting with strife.

² A wise servant will rule over a son who acts shamefully and will share the inheritance as one of the brothers.

³ The crucible is for silver and the furnace is for gold, but Yahweh tests hearts.

⁴ The evildoer pays attention to wicked lips;
a liar gives ear to a destructive tongue.

⁵ Whoever mocks the poor insults his Maker and the one who rejoices at misfortune will not go unpunished.

⁶ Grandchildren are the crown of the aged and parents bring honor to their children.

- ⁷ Eloquent speech is not suitable for a fool;
much less are lying lips suitable for a prince.
- ⁸ A bribe is like a magic stone to the one who gives it;
wherever he turns, he succeeds.
- ⁹ Whoever overlooks an offense seeks love,
but the one who repeats a matter alienates close friends.
- ¹⁰ A rebuke goes deeper into a person who has understanding than a hundred blows go into a fool.
- ¹¹ An evil person only seeks rebellion,
so a cruel messenger will be sent against him.
- ¹² It is better to meet a bear robbed of her cubs than to meet a fool in his foolishness.
- ¹³ When someone returns evil for good,
evil will never leave his house.
- ¹⁴ The beginning of conflict is like one who releases water everywhere, so walk away from the dispute before it has broken out.
- ¹⁵ The person who acquits the wicked person and the person who condemns the righteous person—both are an abomination to Yahweh.
- ¹⁶ Why should a fool pay money to learn about wisdom
when he has no sense?
- ¹⁷ A friend is loving at all times and a brother is born for times of trouble.
- ¹⁸ A man having no sense makes binding promises and becomes responsible for his neighbor's debts.

¹⁹ Whoever loves conflict loves sin;
whoever raises his door seeks destruction.

²⁰ A person who has a crooked heart finds nothing that is good;
the one who has a perverse tongue falls into calamity.

²¹ Whoever is the parent of a fool brings grief to himself;
and the father of a fool has no joy.

²² A joyful heart is good medicine,
but a broken spirit dries up the bones.

²³ A wicked man accepts a secret bribe to pervert the ways of justice.

²⁴ The one who has understanding sets his face toward wisdom, but the eyes of a fool are set on the ends of the earth.

²⁵ A foolish son is a grief to his father and bitterness to the woman who bore him.

²⁶ Also, it is never good to punish the righteous;
neither is it good to flog the noble for their integrity.

²⁷ One who has knowledge uses few words and he who is cool of spirit has understanding.

²⁸ Even a fool is thought to be wise if he keeps silent;
when he keeps his mouth shut, he is considered to be intelligent.

Proverbs 17 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 17 continues the section of the book which is attributed to Solomon and is filled mainly with short, individual proverbs.

Special concepts in this chapter

Themes

There are individual proverbs that run along common themes, often including contrasting elements: wise/foolish, money, lazy/diligent, truth telling, wicked/righteous, sluggard, pride/humility, integrity/crookedness. (See: wise, foolish and evil and righteous)

Links:

Proverbs 17:1 Notes

Proverbs 17:1

to have quiet

Here "quiet" refers to "peace." Alternate translation: "to have peace"

than a house full of feasting with strife

The words "to have" are understood from the previous phrase. They can be repeated. Alternate translation: "than to have a house full of feasting with strife" or "than to be in a house full of feasting where there is strife"

Proverbs 17:2

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 17:3

The crucible is for silver and the furnace is for gold

This refers to how gold and silver are refined. A metal is refined by heating it to a high temperature so that it melts and the impurities may be removed. Alternate translation: "The crucible is used to refine silver and the furnace is used to refine gold"

crucible

a pot in which metals are melted at a very high temperature

Yahweh tests hearts

This speaks of Yahweh testing people to help them stop being evil and foolish as if their hearts were a metal that Yahweh was refining to remove everything that is impure. Alternate translation: "Yahweh tests people's hearts" or "Yahweh refines people's hearts"

Proverbs 17:4

wicked lips

The word "lips" can be translated as either 1) a synecdoche for the person or 2) a metonym for the words that come out from those lips. Alternate translation: "a wicked person" or "wicked talk"

gives ear

This idiom means "listens."

destructive tongue

The word "tongue" can be translated as either 1) a synecdoche for the person or 2) a metonym for the words that the tongue produces. Alternate translation: "a destructive person" or "destructive talk"

Proverbs 17:5

the poor

This refers to poor people. Alternate translation: "those who are poor"

his Maker

This is a name that refers to Yahweh. This is also an abstract noun that can be written as a verb. Alternate translation: "the one who made him"

at misfortune

This refers to the misfortune of others. Alternate translation: "at others' misfortune" or "at other peoples' troubles"

will not go unpunished

This litotes emphasizes that the person will surely be punished. Alternate translation: "will certainly be punished"

Proverbs 17:6

are the crown of

This speaks of older peoples' grandchildren being a sign of honor for them as if their grandchildren were a crown.

Alternate translation: "bring honor and respect to" the aged

This refers to older people. Alternate translation: "those who are older" or "older people"

Proverbs 17:7

Eloquent speech

"Fine speech" or "Excellent speech"

much less are lying lips suitable for a prince

This describes people lying as if it were actually their "lips" that were lying. Alternate translation: "even more it is not suitable for a prince to lie"

Proverbs 17:8

A bribe is like a magic stone to the one who gives it

This speaks of a person's bribe working by comparing it to a magical stone or amulet. Alternate translation: "A bribe works like a magical stone for the one who gives it" or "A bribe works like magic for the one who is giving the bribe" wherever he turns

Here "turning" refers to the various things the person does. Specifically, this refers to the different things the person does by bribery. Alternate translation: "in whatever he does" or "in everything he tries to do by giving bribes"

Proverbs 17:9

an offense

an action or word that has hurt him who repeats a matter

This refers to bringing up a past situation in which a friend was hurt or offended. Alternate translation: "who repeats a past offense"

alienates close friends

"causes people to stop being close friends" or "causes close friends to stop liking each other"

Proverbs 17:10

A rebuke goes deeper into a person ... than a hundred blows go into a fool

This compares how a rebuke effects a man of understanding to how a beating effects a fool. This speaks of the effect on these people as if it could be measured by the depth that it goes into them. Alternate translation: "A rebuke has more effect on a person ... than a hundred blows have on a fool"

a person who has understanding

"a person who has good judgment." The word "understand" can be expressed as a verb. Alternate translation: "a person who understands"

a hundred blows go into a fool

"beating a fool a hundred times makes him change his ways"

Proverbs 17:11

seeks rebellion

The word "rebellion" can be expressed as a verb. Alternate translation: "seeks to rebel"

a cruel messenger will be sent against him

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "a cruel messenger will come against him"

will be sent against him

To be "sent against" someone means to be sent to harm them. Alternate translation: "will be sent to harm him"

Proverbs 17:12

a bear robbed of her cubs

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "a bear who has just lost her cubs"

in his foolishness

The word "foolishness" can be expressed as an adjective. Alternate translation: "who is acting foolish"

Proverbs 17:13

evil will never leave his house

Here "evil" is spoken of as if it were a person who would not leave the man's house. Here the word "house" may be taken literally, but it is also a metonym for his family. Alternate translation: "bad things will continue to happen to him and his family" or "bad things will never stop happening to him and his family"

Proverbs 17:14

The beginning of conflict is like one who releases water everywhere

This compares how easily a conflict spreads to how spilled water flows everywhere. Alternate translation: "Starting a conflict is like pumping water and letting it run everywhere"

has broken out

"starts" or "begins"

Proverbs 17:15

acquits

justifies, declares someone not guilty

Proverbs 17:16

Why should a fool pay money to learn about wisdom when he has no sense?

This rhetorical question emphasizes that the fool should not do this. This question may be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "A fool should not pay money to learn about wisdom because he does not have any sense."

sense

Possible meanings are 1) desire to learn wisdom or 2) ability to learn wisdom.

Proverbs 17:17

a brother is born for times of trouble

One of the purposes of a brother is to be there to help his brother or sister in times of trouble. Alternate translation: "a brother is there for times of trouble"

Proverbs 17:18

no sense

"no good judgement"

binding promises

This refers to promises that must be kept and are often a burden on the person who made them.

Proverbs 17:19

whoever raises his door seeks destruction

Possible meanings are 1) this may represent that person making the entrance to their home look more lofty or fancy.

Alternate translation: "the one who makes his doorway more impressive is giving others the opportunity to ruin him" or "the one who makes the entrance to his house high is trying to harm other people" Or 2) the word "door" is a metaphor for the person's mouth. Alternate translation: "the one who speaks proudly is giving others the opportunity to ruin him" or "the one who speaks proudly is trying to harm other people"

raises his door

Possible meanings are 1) literally making either the door itself or the threshold of the entrance high or 2) metaphorically making either the door itself or the house of which it is a part seem great or 3) the word "door" is a metaphor for the person's mouth, which in turn is a metonym for the words the person speaks with his mouth.

Proverbs 17:20

who has a crooked heart

The "heart" represents a person's feelings, attitudes and motivations. Alternate translation: "who is deceptive" or "who is dishonest"

has a perverse tongue

The "tongue" represents a person's speech. Alternate translation: "speaks perversely" or "speaks wickedly" falls into calamity

"falls into trouble" To "fall into" something means to get into that situation. Alternate translation: "will have calamity"

Proverbs 17:21

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 17:22

A joyful heart is good medicine

This speaks of a joyful heart as being good medicine because it makes a person feel better. Alternate translation: "A joyful heart is like medicine that makes a person feel better"

A joyful heart

The "heart" represents a person's feelings, attitudes and motivations. Alternate translation: "Being joyful"

a broken spirit

Here the "spirit" represents a person's feelings and emotional state. A broken spirit refers to a poor emotional state. Alternate translation: "depression"

dries up the bones

A person's bones represent their physical health and strength. If a person's bones dry up it means that they are very sick and unhealthy. Alternate translation: "makes a person unhealthy and weak"

Proverbs 17:23

to pervert the ways of justice

"to prevent justice from being rendered" or "to pervert justice"

Proverbs 17:24

sets his face toward wisdom

This speaks of a person's focus on acting wisely as if he were looking at wisdom. Alternate translation: "focuses on acting wisely" the eyes of a fool are

This refers to a fool by his eyes to emphasize what he is focusing on. Alternate translation: "the fool is"

the ends of the earth

This speaks of a fool's impossible dreams as if they were the ends of the earth to emphasize that they are unrealistic. Alternate translation: "strive for things that are as far from him as the ends of the earth" or "focus on impossible things"

Proverbs 17:25

A foolish son is a grief to his father

This speaks of a son causing his father grief as if the son himself were "grief." Alternate translation: "A foolish son brings grief to his father"

A foolish son ... and bitterness to the woman

This speaks of a son causing his mother bitterness as if the son himself were "bitterness." Alternate translation: "A foolish son ... and brings bitterness to the woman" who bore him

"who gave birth to him"

bitterness emotional pain, sorrow

Proverbs 17:26

it is never good ... neither is it good

These statements can be written in positive form. Alternate translation: "it is always wrong ... and it is evil"

to punish the righteous

"to force the righteous to give up his property."

the righteous

This is a nominal adjective that refers to any righteous person. Another possible meaning is "the innocent," anyone whom others have accused of a crime that he did not commit.

flog

whip severely

the noble

This nominal adjective refers to any noble people. Alternate translation: "noble people" for their integrity

The word "integrity" can be expressed with the adjective "honest." Alternate translation: "because they are honest"

Proverbs 17:27

uses few words

This refers to the way he speaks. Alternate translation: "speaks with few words" is cool of spirit

Having a cool spirit is a metaphor for being able to control anger. Alternate translation: "is able to control himself" or "is able to stay calm" or "does not become angry easily"

Proverbs 17:28

Even a fool is thought to be wise

This can be written in active form. Alternate translation: "People even think a fool is wise" keeps his mouth shut

This means that he does not speak. Alternate translation: "does not speak"

he is considered to be intelligent

This can be written in active form. Alternate translation: "people consider him to be intelligent"

Chapter 18

¹ One who isolates himself seeks his own desire, and he quarrels with all sound wisdom.

² A fool finds no pleasure in understanding,
but only in revealing what is in his own heart.

³ When a wicked person comes, contempt comes with him—along with shame and disgrace.

⁴ The words of a man's mouth are deep waters;
the fountain of wisdom is a flowing stream.

⁵ It is not good to be partial to the wicked person, nor to deny justice to the righteous person.

⁶ A fool's lips bring him conflict and his mouth invites a beating.

⁷ A fool's mouth is his ruin and he ensnares himself with his lips.

⁸ The words of a gossip are like delicious morsels and they go down into the inner parts of the body.

⁹ Also, one who is slack in his work is a brother to the one who destroys the most.

¹⁰ The name of Yahweh is a strong tower;
the righteous person runs into it and is safe.

¹¹ The wealth of the rich is his fortified city and in his imagination it is like a high wall.

¹² Before his downfall a person's heart is proud,
but humility comes before honor.

¹³ One who answers before listening—
it is his folly and shame.

¹⁴ A person's spirit will endure sickness,
but who can bear a broken spirit?

¹⁵ The heart of the intelligent acquires knowledge and the hearing of the wise seeks it out.

¹⁶ A man's gift may open the way and bring him before great men.

- ¹⁷ The first to plead his case seems just until his opponent comes and examines him.
- ¹⁸ Casting the lot settles disputes and separates strong opponents.
- ¹⁹ An offended brother is harder to be won than a strong city,
and quarrels are like the bars of a castle.
- ²⁰ From the fruit of his mouth one's stomach is filled;
with the harvest of his lips he is satisfied.
- ²¹ Death and life are controlled by the tongue, and those who love the tongue will eat its fruit.
- ²² He who finds a wife finds a good thing and receives favor from Yahweh.
- ²³ A poor person pleads for mercy,
but a rich person answers harshly.
- ²⁴ The one who claims many friends is brought to ruin by them, but there is a friend who comes closer than a brother.

Proverbs 18 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 18 continues the section of the book which is attributed to Solomon and is filled mainly with short, individual proverbs.

Special concepts in this chapter

Themes

There are individual proverbs that run along common themes, often including contrasting elements: wise/foolish, money, lazy/diligent, truth telling, wicked/righteous, sluggard, pride/humility, integrity/crookedness. (See: wise, foolish and evil and righteous)

Links:

Proverbs 18:1 Notes

Proverbs 18:1

isolates himself

"keeps away from other people"

quarrels with all sound wisdom

This speaks of a person disagreeing with sound judgment as if "sound judgment" were a person he fought with.

Alternate translation: "he disagrees with all sound judgment"

sound wisdom

"good judgment" or "wise choices"

Proverbs 18:2

A fool finds no pleasure in understanding, but only

"A fool does not care about understanding, but only about"
This means the fool considers "understanding" the opposite of pleasure. Alternate translation: "A fool detests understanding and only finds pleasure in"

but only in revealing what is in his own heart

This means that the fool only finds pleasure in telling other people what he feels and desires in his heart. Alternate translation: "but only in telling others what is in his own heart"

what is in his own heart

The contents of a person's heart refers to the person's thoughts and feelings. Alternate translation: "what he thinks"

Proverbs 18:3

contempt comes with him—along with shame and disgrace

Here "contempt," "shame," and "disgrace" are spoken of as if they are people who accompany a wicked man. Possible meanings are 1) people show contempt towards the wicked man and cause him to feel shame and disgrace. Alternate translation: "people feel contempt for him along with shame and disgrace" or 2) the wicked man shows contempt for others and causes them to feel shame and disgrace.

Alternate translation: "he shows his contempt for other people and causes them to feel shame and disgrace"

shame and disgrace

These two words have similar meaning and are used together to emphasize the "shame" felt by either the wicked man or other people.

Proverbs 18:4

The words of a man's mouth are deep waters; ... the fountain of wisdom is a flowing stream

These two lines are parallel and it is implied that the man in the first line is a wise man. Alternate translation: "The words of a wise man's mouth are deep waters; ... the fountain of wisdom is a flowing stream"

The words of a man's mouth are deep waters

This speaks of a wise man's words being profound as if they were profound and as deep as deep waters. Alternate translation: "The words of a man's mouth are as profound as deep waters" or "The words of a man's mouth are deep and profound"

a man's mouth

Here the man is referred to by his mouth to emphasize what he says. Alternate translation: "of a man"

the fountain of wisdom is a flowing stream

This speaks of the source of wisdom being plentiful as if it were a gushing spring. The gushing of the spring is spoken of as if it were a flowing stream. Alternate translation: "the source of wisdom is as plentiful as the water of a gushing spring"

Proverbs 18:5

It is not good to ... to the righteous person

These phrases can be written in positive form. Alternate translation: "It is good to treat the wicked person as he deserves, and to be just to the righteous person"

Proverbs 18:6

A fool's lips bring

Here the fool is referred to by his "lips" to emphasize what he says. Alternate translation: "what a fool says brings"

bring

"cause"

his mouth invites a beating

This speaks of the fool saying things that cause people to want to beat him as if he were inviting them to beat him.

Alternate translation: "his mouth makes people want to beat him"

his mouth

Here what the fool says is referred to as his "mouth."

Alternate translation: "what he says"

Proverbs 18:7

A fool's mouth ... with his lips

Both of these phrases refer to what a fool says. Alternate translation: "What a fool says ... by what he says" is his ruin

"will ruin him"

he ensnares himself

This speaks of the man causing problems and trouble for himself as if he were trapping himself like a man traps an animal. Alternate translation: "he will cause problems for himself"

Proverbs 18:8

The words of a gossip are like delicious morsels

This speaks of the words of a gossip being desirable to listen to as if they were delicious food to eat. Alternate translation: "The words of a gossip are desirable to listen to" or

The words of a gossip

This refers to what a gossiping person says. Alternate translation: "The words that a gossiping person speaks" morsels

small bites of food

they go down into the inner parts of the body

This speaks of the words of a gossip going into a person's mind and affecting his thoughts as if they were food that was going into his stomach. Alternate translation: "and they enter a person's mind and affect his thoughts"

Proverbs 18:9

one who is slack in his work is a brother to the one who destroys

This speaks of the one who is slack being similar to the one who destroys as if they were actually related. Alternate translation: "is closely related to" or "is very similar to"

is slack

"is lazy" or "is not interested"

the one who destroys the most

"the one who destroys everything" or "the one who is always destructive"

Proverbs 18:10

The name of Yahweh is a strong tower

This speaks of Yahweh protecting his people as if he were a strong tower in which they could take refuge. Alternate translation: "Yahweh protects like a strong tower" or "Yahweh protects his people like a strong tower"

The name of Yahweh

Here Yahweh is referred to by his name. Alternate translation: "Yahweh"

the righteous

This refers to righteous people. Alternate translation: "those who are righteous" or "righteous people"

runs into it and is safe

This speaks of people seeking safety from Yahweh and Yahweh protecting them as if he were a strong tower that they ran into for safety. Alternate translation: "run to him and they are safe" or "seek him and they are safe"

Proverbs 18:11

The wealth of the rich is his fortified city

This speaks of a rich person depending on his wealth as if his wealth were a fortified wall that protects him. Alternate translation: "The wealthy person depends on his wealth as a city depends on its fortified wall"

the rich

This refers to people who are rich. Alternate translation: "the rich person" fortified city

a city with strong defenses like walls and towers

in his imagination it is like a high wall

This speaks of the rich person believing his wealth will keep him safe like a high wall keeps those inside a city safe. Alternate translation: "he thinks it protects him as well as a high wall"

Proverbs 18:12

Before his downfall a person's heart is proud

"First a person's heart is proud, but then comes his downfall"

downfall

This refers to a significant decline in a person's reputation or health.

a person's heart

Here a person is referred to by his heart to emphasize his thoughts and feelings. Alternate translation: "a person"

humility comes before honor

The word "humility" may be expressed as an adjective and the word "honor" may be expressed as a verb. Alternate translation: "a person must be humble before he can be honored"

Proverbs 18:13

it is his folly and shame

The abstract nouns "folly" and "shame" may be expressed as adjectives. Alternate translation: "it is foolish of him, and he should be ashamed"

Proverbs 18:14

A person's spirit will endure sickness

Possible meanings are 1) the word "spirit" refers to a person's desire to stay alive. Alternate translation: "Even if a person is sick, he will still want to keep living" Or 2) the word "spirit" refers to the hope a person has that he will survive. Alternate translation: "A person who has hope will be able to survive sickness"

but who can bear a broken spirit?

This is a rhetorical question, expecting the answer that few can bear it. This can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "but it is very hard to bear a broken spirit."

a broken spirit

This refers to being depressed. Alternate translation: "being depressed"

Proverbs 18:15

The heart of the intelligent acquires

Here the intelligent person is referred to by his heart to emphasize his desires. Alternate translation: "The intelligent desire to acquire" the intelligent

This refers to people who are intelligent. Alternate translation: "those who are intelligent" or "intelligent people" acquires

"gains" or "obtains"

the hearing of the wise seeks it out

Here the wise person is referred to by his hearing to emphasize what he desires to listen to. Alternate translation: "the wise seeks to learn about it"

the wise

This refers to people who are wise. Alternate translation: "those who are wise" or "wise people" seeks it out

Here the word "it" refers to "knowledge"

Proverbs 18:16

may open the way

Here to "open the way" means to create an opportunity.

Alternate translation: "may create an opportunity for him"

bring him before

This means to be allowed to see someone. Alternate translation: "let him meet" or "let him be introduced to"

Proverbs 18:17

The first to plead his case

This refers to the person who pleads his case before his opponent pleads his case. Alternate translation: "The first person to plead his case" or "The person who pleads his case first"

examines him

asks him questions

Proverbs 18:18

Casting the lot

"Casting lots"

separates strong opponents

This refers to people who are fighting harshly over a dispute. When they are separated, they are no longer fighting over their dispute. Alternate translation: "causes opponents to stop fighting over their dispute"

Proverbs 18:19

An offended brother is harder to be won than a strong city

This speaks of the difficulty of making peace with a brother you have offended by comparing it to the difficulty of winning a war against a strong city. Alternate translation: "If you offend your brother, finding a way to have peace with him again may be harder than waging a battle to win a city"

quarrels are like the bars of a castle

This speaks of the difficulty of resolving quarrels by comparing it to the difficulty of breaking down the bars of a castle. Alternate translation: "resolving quarrels is as difficult as breaking down the bars of a castle" castle

a fortified palace

Proverbs 18:20

From the fruit of his mouth one's stomach is filled; with the harvest of his lips he is satisfied

These two lines have the same meaning and are used together to emphasize what is said. They can be combined.

Alternate translation: "A person is satisfied by the results of the good things that he says"

the fruit of his mouth

This speaks of the good things that a person says as if they were fruit that came from his mouth. Alternate translation: "his wise speech" or "his good words"

one's stomach is filled

This speaks of a person being satisfied or content by the result of what they have said as if they had eaten and become satisfied" Alternate translation: "a person is satisfied"

the harvest of his lips

This speaks of the good things that a person says as if they were fruit that is harvested. Alternate translation: "his wise speech" or "his good words"

he is satisfied

"he is pleased"

Proverbs 18:21

Death and life are controlled by the tongue

This can be written in active form. Alternate translation: "The tongue can lead to life or death" or "What people say can lead to life or death"

by the tongue ... love the tongue

Here the "tongue" refers to speech. Alternate translation:

"by what people say ... love speaking"

will eat its fruit

This speaks of a person receiving the consequence for what he says as if the consequences were fruit that he receives.

Alternate translation: "will receive its consequences"

Proverbs 18:22

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 18:23

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 18:24

many friends is brought to ruin by them

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"many friends—they will bring him to ruin" or "many friends—his friends will destroy him"

comes closer than

"is more faithful than" or "stays more loyal than"

Chapter 19

¹ Better is a poor person who walks in his integrity than one who is perverse in speech and is a fool.

² Also, it is not good to have desire without knowledge and the one who runs too fast misses the path.

³ A person's folly ruins his life and his heart rages against Yahweh.

⁴ Wealth adds many friends,
but a poor person is separated from his friends.

⁵ A false witness will not go unpunished and he who breathes out lies will not escape.

⁶ Many will ask for a favor from a generous person and everyone is a friend of the one who gives gifts.

⁷ All the brothers of a poor man hate him;
how much more do his friends who go far away from him!
He pursues them with words,

but they are gone.

⁸ He who gets wisdom loves his own life;
he who keeps understanding will find what is good.

⁹ A false witness will not go unpunished,
but the one who breathes out lies will perish.

¹⁰ It is not fitting for a fool to live in luxury—much less for a slave to rule over princes.

¹¹ Discretion makes a person slow to anger and it is his glory to overlook an offense.

¹² The wrath of the king is like the roaring of a young lion, but his favor is like dew on the grass.

¹³ A foolish son is ruin to his father and a quarreling wife is a constant dripping of water.

¹⁴ A house and wealth are inherited from parents,
but a prudent wife is from Yahweh.

¹⁵ Laziness throws a person into a deep sleep,
but the one not willing to work will go hungry.

¹⁶ The one who obeys the command guards his life, but the one who despises his ways will die.

¹⁷ Whoever is gracious to the poor lends to Yahweh and he will repay him for what he has done.

¹⁸ Discipline your son while there is hope and do not set your desire on putting him to death.

- ¹⁹ A person with great anger must bear the penalty;
if you rescue him, you will have to do it a second time.
- ²⁰ Listen to advice and accept instruction,
so you may become wise by the end of your life.
- ²¹ Many are the plans in a person's heart,
but it is the purpose of Yahweh that will stand.
- ²² Loyalty is what a person desires and a poor person is better than a liar.
- ²³ Honor for Yahweh leads people to life;
anyone who has it will rest satisfied and not afflicted by harm.
- ²⁴ The lazy person buries his hand in the dish;
he will not even bring it back up to his mouth.
- ²⁵ Strike a mocker, and the naive person will become prudent;
discipline one who is discerning, and he will gain knowledge.
- ²⁶ The one who robs his father and drives his mother away is a son who brings shame and disgrace.
- ²⁷ If you cease to hear instruction, my son,
you will stray from the words of knowledge.
- ²⁸ A corrupt witness mocks justice and the mouth of the wicked swallows iniquity.
- ²⁹ Judgments are ready for mockers and flogging for the backs of fools.

Proverbs 19 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 19 continues the section of the book which is attributed to Solomon and is filled mainly with short, individual proverbs.

Special concepts in this chapter

Themes

There are individual proverbs that run along common themes, often including contrasting elements: wise/foolish, money, lazy/diligent, truth telling, wicked/righteous, sluggard, pride/humility, integrity/crookedness. (See: wise, foolish and evil and righteous)

Links:

Proverbs 19:1 Notes

Proverbs 19:1

Better is a poor person

"It is better to be a poor person" who walks in his integrity

This is an idiom. Here walking refers to living. Alternate translation: "who lives in his integrity" or "who lives an honest life" is perverse in speech

The word "speech" may be expressed as a verb. Alternate translation: "speaks perversely" or "speaks in an evil way"

Proverbs 19:2

to have desire without knowledge

This refers to people trying to do something without the knowledge for how to correctly do it. Alternate translation: "to work hard without knowing what you are doing" the one who runs too fast misses the path

This speaks of a person doing something too quickly and making mistakes as if running too quickly and missing the path. Alternate translation: "the one who acts too quickly makes mistakes" or "the one who acts too quickly makes poor choices"

Proverbs 19:3

his heart rages

Here a person is referred to by his "heart" to emphasize his emotions. Alternate translation: "he rages"

Proverbs 19:4

Wealth adds many friends

This means that a person who is wealthy will have many friends because wealth attracts people. The full meaning of this can be made clear. Alternate translation: "Those who are wealthy easily find many friends"

a poor person is separated from his friends

A poor person is separated from many of his friends because of his poverty. The meaning of this can be made explicit. Alternate translation: "poverty causes a person to lose his friends"

Proverbs 19:5

A false witness will not go unpunished

The double negative here emphasizes the positive. This can be written in positive and active form. Alternate translation: "A false witness will certainly be punished" or "They will certainly punish a false witness"

he who breathes out lies will not escape

This means that he will be captured. Alternate translation: "they will capture the one who breathes out lies"

breathes out lies

This is an idiom. Here "breathes" refers to lying constantly. See how you translated this phrase in [Proverbs 6:19]

Proverbs 19:6

a generous person

someone who often gives away things everyone is a friend

The word "everyone" is an exaggeration. Alternate translation: "it seems that everyone is a friend" or "almost everyone is a friend"

Proverbs 19:7

He pursues them with words

Using words to pursue people is a metaphor for calling out to them or pleading with them for help. Alternate translation: "He calls out to them" or "He pleads with them to help him"

how much more do his friends who go far away from him!

This phrase is an exclamation to show that this is more likely than the previous phrase. Alternate translation: "therefore his friends will certainly hate him and go far away from him!"

Proverbs 19:8

loves his own life

Here the person is referred to by his "life" to emphasize himself being alive. Alternate translation: "loves himself" keeps understanding

"has understanding"

Proverbs 19:9

A false witness will not go unpunished

This can be written in positive and active form. See how you translated this phrase in [Proverbs 19:5]

breathes out lies

This figure of speech uses "breathes" to refer to lying constantly. See how you translated this phrase in [Proverbs 6:19]

Proverbs 19:10

It is not fitting

"It is not right"

much less for a slave

The words "it is" and "fitting" are understood from the previous phrase. They can be repeated. Alternate translation: "it is much less fitting for a slave" or "it is even worse for a slave"

Proverbs 19:11

Discretion makes a person slow to anger

"A person who has discretion is slow to become angry"

Discretion

This means to know what should be done in a particular situation. See how you translated this word in Proverbs 1:4.

it is his glory to overlook

"it will bring him glory to overlook" or "others will consider it honorable if he overlooks"

to overlook

to forget on purpose

Proverbs 19:12

The wrath of the king is like the roaring of a young lion
Here the lion's roaring refers to attacking. The wrath of a king is compared to the unpredictable and dangerous attack of a young lion. Alternate translation: "The wrath of the king is as dangerous as the attack of a young lion" but his favor is like dew on the grass

The favor of the king is compared to the refreshing water that appears on grass in the morning. Alternate translation: "but his favor is refreshing like dew on grass" or "but his favor is refreshing like the dew on the ground in the morning"

Proverbs 19:13

is ruin to his father

"will ruin a father"

a quarreling wife is a constant dripping of water

This speaks of an annoying wife as if she were the constant dripping of water. Alternate translation: "a quarreling wife is as annoying and distracting as a constant dripping of water"

a quarreling wife

"an arguing wife" or "a disagreeing wife"

Proverbs 19:14

A house and wealth are inherited from parents

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Children inherit a house and wealth from their parents" prudent

See how you translated this word in Proverbs 12:23.

a prudent wife is from Yahweh

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Yahweh gives a prudent wife"

Proverbs 19:15

Laziness throws a person into a deep sleep

This speaks of how laziness causes a person to sleep a lot as if laziness forcefully throws the person into sleep. Alternate translation: "Laziness makes a person sleep a lot" or "A lazy person sleeps a lot"

go hungry

This is an idiom which means to not eat. Alternate translation: "not eat" or "be hungry"

Proverbs 19:16

the command

"the command that he was taught"

guards his life

"protects his life"

despises his ways

Possible meanings are 1) the phrase "his ways" refers to the ways of Yahweh, the way in which Yahweh commands his people to live. Alternate translation: "despises the ways of Yahweh" Or 2) the phrase "his ways" refers to the ways of "the one." Alternate translation: "does not care how he lives"

Proverbs 19:17

Whoever is gracious to the poor lends to Yahweh

Yahweh considers kindness shown to the poor to be kindness shown to him. One of the ways people are kind to the poor is by giving. Alternate translation: "The person who gives to the poor is giving to Yahweh"

the poor

This refers to poor people. Alternate translation: "those who are poor" or "poor people"

Proverbs 19:18

while there is hope

This refers to while the child is young and will still accept discipline and instruction. The full meaning of this can be made clear. Alternate translation: "while he is young" or "while he can still be taught"

and do not set your desire on putting him to death

Possible meanings are 1) this phrase describes punishing your child. Alternate translation: "but do not punish him so severely that he might die" or 2) this phrase describes what it is like if you do not punish your child. Alternate translation: "for if you do not punish him you are helping him destroy himself" set your desire on putting him

This idiom means to be determined to cause something to happen. Alternate translation: "be determined to put him"

Proverbs 19:19

A person with great anger

This idiom refers to a person who is easily angered.

Alternate translation: "A person who does not control his temper" or "A person who becomes angry quickly"

must bear the penalty

This refers to the person bearing the consequences for what happens when he gets angry. The full meaning of this statement can be made clear. Alternate translation: "must bear the consequences of his anger" or "must bear the consequences of what he does in his anger"

if you rescue him

"if you save him." This refers to rescuing him when he has acted out of his anger. The meaning of this can be made explicit. Alternate translation: "if you rescue him after he has had an outburst"

a second time

"another time" or "again"

Proverbs 19:20

Listen to advice and accept instruction

These two phrases mean basically the same and are repeated to emphasize how important it is.

Listen to advice

This is an idiom. Here "listening" does not mean to merely listen, but to learn from the advice you are given and to follow it. Alternate translation: "Pay attention to advice" or "Follow advice"

Proverbs 19:21

in a person's heart

Here the "heart" is used to refer to the "mind" to emphasize a person's desire. Alternate translation: "in a person's mind" or "that a person desires"

the purpose of Yahweh

"Yahweh's purpose" or "Yahweh's plans"

that will stand

This idiom means to "happen." Alternate translation: "that will happen"

Proverbs 19:22

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 19:23

Honor for Yahweh leads people to life; anyone who has it will rest

satisfied

This means that they will live a long time if they honor Yahweh. The full meaning of this statement can be made clear. Alternate translation: "Those who honor Yahweh will live a long time; anyone who honors Yahweh will rest satisfied"

anyone who has it

Here the word "it" refers to "honor for Yahweh."

rest satisfied

Here "rest" or sleep is a metaphor for living. Alternate translation: "live satisfied" satisfied and not afflicted by harm

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "satisfied; nothing will harm him" or "satisfied; he will be safe"

Proverbs 19:24

buries his hand in the dish

"dips his hand in the dish" or "puts his hand in his plate." In the Biblical culture people usually ate with their hands as people do in many cultures today.

he will not even bring it back up to his mouth

He does not bring his hand back to his mouth because he is too lazy. Alternate translation: "but he is too lazy to bring his hand up to his mouth to feed himself"

Proverbs 19:25

Strike a mocker, and the naive person

"If you strike a mocker, the naive person"

Strike a mocker

"Punish a mocker"

naive person

"inexperienced person" or "immature person" prudent

See how you translated this word in Proverbs 12:23.

discipline one who is discerning, and

"if you discipline one who is discerning,"

he will gain knowledge

The abstract noun "knowledge" can be stated as "know."

Alternate translation: "he will know more"

Proverbs 19:26

brings shame and disgrace

Possible meanings are 1) he brings it to himself. Alternate translation: "brings shame and disgrace to himself" or 2) he brings it to his family. Alternate translation: "brings shame and disgrace to his family"

Proverbs 19:27

If you cease to hear instruction

Here "listening and obeying" is spoken of as if it were "hearing." Alternate translation: "If you stop paying attention to instruction" or "If you stop obeying instruction" you will stray from

"you will abandon" or "you will turn your back on" the words of knowledge

"knowledge"

Proverbs 19:28

the mouth of the wicked swallows iniquity

This speaks of how wicked people enjoy doing evil by saying that they swallow iniquity as easily as they swallow food. Alternate translation: "the wicked enjoy doing evil as much as they enjoy eating food"

the mouth of the wicked swallows

The phrase "the mouth of the wicked" represents wicked people. Alternate translation: "wicked people swallow" or "the wicked swallow"

the wicked

This refers to wicked people. Alternate translation: "the wicked person"

Proverbs 19:29

Judgments are ready for mockers and flogging for

The word "Judgments" is probably a metonym for the condemnation or punishment that will follow the judgments. The words "judgments" and "flogging" may be expressed as verbs. Alternate translation: "Yahweh is ready to judge mockers and to flog"

Judgments are ready for Alternate translation: "Punishment is ready for" or

"Condemnation is ready for" or "Yahweh is ready to punish" or "Yahweh is ready to condemn"

flogging for the backs of fools

The words "is ready" are understood from the previous phrase and may be repeated. Alternate translation:

"flogging is ready for the backs of fools" or "he is ready to flog the backs"

flogging beating with a whip or stick

Chapter 20

¹ Wine is a mocker and strong drink is a brawler; whoever is led astray by drink is not wise.

² The fear of a king is like the fear of a young lion that is roaring; the one who makes him angry forfeits his life.

³ It is an honor for anyone to avoid conflict, but every fool jumps into an argument.

- ⁴ The lazy person does not plow in autumn;
he seeks a crop at harvest time but will have nothing.
- ⁵ The purpose in a human heart is like deep water,
but someone with understanding will draw it out.
- ⁶ Many a person proclaims he is loyal,
but who can find one who is faithful?
- ⁷ The righteous person walks in his integrity, and his sons who follow after him will be blessed.
- ⁸ A king who sits on the throne performing the duties of a judge is winnowing with his eyes all the evil that is before him.
- ⁹ Who can say, "I have kept my heart pure;
I am clean from my sin"?
- ¹⁰ Differing weights and unequal measures—
both are abominations to Yahweh.
- ¹¹ Even a youth is known by his actions,
by whether his conduct is pure and upright.
- ¹² Ears that hear and eyes that see—Yahweh made them both.
- ¹³ Do not love sleep or you will come to poverty;
open your eyes and you will have plenty to eat.
- ¹⁴ "Bad! Bad!" says the buyer, but when he goes away he boasts.
- ¹⁵ There is gold and an abundance of costly stones,

but lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.

¹⁶ Take a garment of one who has put up security for a stranger, and hold it in pledge when he puts up security for an immoral woman.

¹⁷ Bread gained by deceit tastes sweet,
but afterward his mouth will be full of gravel.

¹⁸ Plans are established by advice and only with wise guidance should you wage war.

¹⁹ A slanderer reveals secrets, and so you should not associate with people who talk too much.

²⁰ If a person curses his father or his mother,
his lamp will be put out in the middle of darkness.

²¹ An inheritance gained quickly at the beginning will not be blessed in the end.

²² Do not say, "I will pay you back for this wrong!"
Wait for Yahweh and he will rescue you.

²³ Unequal weights are an abomination to Yahweh, and deceptive scales are not good.

²⁴ A person's steps are directed by Yahweh;
how then can he understand his way?

²⁵ It is a snare for a person to say rashly, "This thing is holy," and begin to think about what it means only after making his vow.

²⁶ A wise king winnows the wicked and he turns a threshing wheel over them.

²⁷ The spirit of a person is the lamp of Yahweh, searching all his inmost parts.

²⁸ Steadfast love and faithfulness preserve the king;
he makes his throne strong by love.

²⁹ The glory of young men is their strength and the splendor of old people is their gray hair.

³⁰ Blows that make a wound cleanse away evil and beatings make the innermost parts clean.

Proverbs 20 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 20 continues the section of the book which is attributed to Solomon and is filled mainly with short, individual proverbs.

Special concepts in this chapter

Themes

There are individual proverbs that run along common themes, often including contrasting elements: wise/foolish, money, lazy/diligent, truth telling, wicked/righteous, sluggard, pride/humility, integrity/crookedness. (See: wise, foolish and evil and righteous)

Links:

Proverbs 20:1 Notes

Proverbs 20:1

Wine is a mocker and strong drink is a brawler

These two phrases mean basically the same thing and are combined to emphasize the danger of too much alcohol.

Wine is a mocker

Here "wine" refers to the person who is drunk with wine.

Alternate translation: "A person who is drunk with wine mocks"

strong drink is a brawler

Here "strong drink" refers to a person who is drunk with strong drink. Alternate translation: "a person who is drunk with strong drink starts fights"

a brawler

a person who fights noisily, usually in a public place

whoever is led astray by drink is not wise

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "whoever drinks until they can no longer think clearly"

by drink

Here "drink" refers to alcoholic drinks

is not wise

This means the opposite of "wise" which is "foolish."

Alternate translation: "is foolish"

Proverbs 20:2

The fear of a king is like the fear of a young lion that is roaring

This compares how people fear a king's wrath to how they fear a young roaring lion. Alternate translation: "The king's wrath makes people as afraid as if they were facing a young lion roaring at them" makes him angry

"makes the king angry"

forfeits his life

This refers to being killed. "Life" here refers to physical life.

Alternate translation: "will die"

Proverbs 20:3

It is an honor

"It is honorable." This means that a person will be honored.

every fool jumps into an argument

This speaks of entering an argument quickly as if the argument were something the fool physically jumped into.

Alternate translation: "every fool quickly gets into an argument" or "every fool is quick to join an argument"

Proverbs 20:4

plow

to prepare land for planting in autumn

"during the season for planting crops"

but will have nothing

This means that there will be nothing growing in his field for him to harvest. Alternate translation: "but will have nothing to harvest"

Proverbs 20:5

The purpose in a human heart is like deep water

This speaks of how difficult it is to understand the reasons for a person's actions by comparing it to the difficulty of reaching the water in a deep well. Alternate translation: "It is as difficult to understand the purpose in the human heart as it is to reach the water in a deep well" or "The purpose of in the human heart is very difficult to understand"

someone with understanding

"a person who has understanding"

will draw it out

This speaks of figuring out the purpose of the human heart as if it was water being drawn from a deep well. Alternate translation: "will cause the purpose to be known" or "will figure it out"

Proverbs 20:6

is loyal

"is faithful" or "is trustworthy"

but who can find one who is faithful?

The implicit answer is "few can find someone like that."

This rhetorical question can be written as a statement.

Alternate translation: "but few men can find a person who is faithful!" or "but it is hard to find a person who really is faithful!"

Proverbs 20:7

walks in his integrity

Here walking refers to living. See how you translated this phrase in [Proverbs 19:1]

his sons who follow after him

This simply means that they "follow after him" since they are younger than he and his children. If this phrase is awkward in your language it may be left to be implied.

Alternate translation: "his sons after him" or "his sons"

Proverbs 20:8

is winnowing with his eyes all the evil that is before him

This speaks of the king judging between various types of evil as if he were separating them as a person winnows grain. Alternate translation: "sees and sorts the different kinds of evils that are brought before him"

Proverbs 20:9

Who can say, "I have kept my heart pure; I am clean from my sin"?

The implicit answer to this question is, "No one can say that." This rhetorical question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "No one can say that his heart is clean and that he is free from sin"

my heart

Here a person's "heart" refers to his thoughts and desires.

Alternate translation: "my thoughts"

clean

A person who God considers spiritually acceptable is spoken of as if the person were physically clean.

I am clean from my sin

"I am without sin" or "I have not sinned"

Proverbs 20:10

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 20:11

Even a youth is known by his actions

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"People know a young man by his actions"

whether his conduct is pure and upright

"whether his conduct is pure and upright or not"

his conduct

"his deeds" or "what he does"

pure and upright

These two words basically mean the same thing and emphasize how good this young person is. They can be combined into one word if necessary. Alternate translation: "pure"

Proverbs 20:12

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 20:13

come to poverty

The phrase "come to" here means to transition into a new situation; to become. Alternate translation: "become poor"

open your eyes

Here "opening one's eyes" is spoken of as "being awake."

Alternate translation: "stay awake" or "be alert"

Proverbs 20:14

"Bad! Bad!" says the buyer, but when he goes away he boasts

Here a buyer is criticizing what someone is selling to get a low price from him. After he buys he boasts about the good price that he persuaded the seller to give him. The full meaning of this can be made clear. Alternate translation: "'Bad! Bad!' says the buyer criticizing the seller's wares, but after he buys he goes away he boasting about the low price that he paid"

Proverbs 20:15

lips of knowledge are a precious jewel

This speaks of the value of lips of knowledge by comparing them to a precious jewel. Alternate translation: "lips of knowledge are as valuable as an expensive jewel" lips of knowledge

Here "words" are referred to as "lips." Alternate translation: "wise words" or "words of knowledge"

Proverbs 20:16

Take a garment of one who has put up security for a stranger

When lending money, the lender would take something from the borrower, such as a garment, as a guarantee of repayment. He would return it after the money was repaid. If the borrower was too poor, someone else could give something to the lender as a guarantee for him. The full meaning of this statement can be made clear. Alternate translation: "Take a garment as security from the one who guarantees that what a stranger has borrowed will be paid back"

puts up security

This is an idiom. It means that someone gives something to a lender as a guarantee that what was borrowed will be paid. Alternate translation: "guarantees that what has been borrowed will be paid back" or "promises to pay a loan"

hold it in pledge

This is an idiom. To "hold something in pledge" means to hold on to something that someone has given as a pledge, or promise, that he will pay a debt. Alternate translation: "hold onto his coat as a guarantee of repayment" for an immoral woman

One Hebrew tradition and some English translations read, "for foreigners."

Proverbs 20:17

Bread gained by deceit

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Bread that someone gained by deceit"

by deceit

The word "deceit" can be expressed as a verb. Alternate translation: "by deceiving others"

Bread

Here "bread" refers to food in general. Alternate translation: "Food" tastes sweet

"tastes good"

but afterward his mouth will be full of gravel

This speaks of the food tasting unpleasant as if his mouth were actually full of gravel instead of food. Alternate translation: "but afterwards it tastes like gravel in his mouth" or "but soon it tastes like sand in his mouth" gravel

small pieces of rock

Proverbs 20:18

Plans are established by advice

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "People establish plans based on advice"

Proverbs 20:19

A slanderer

Because the problem is that the person talks too much, not that what he says is false, many English translations read, "A gossip."

you should not associate with

"you should not be friends with"

Proverbs 20:20

If a person curses

This means if a someone express a desire that bad things will happen to someone else.

his lamp will be put out in the middle of darkness

This speaks of a person dying suddenly and unexpectedly as if his life were a lamp put out in the dark. Alternate translation: "his life will end as suddenly as the light of a lamp that is put out in the dark" or "he will die suddenly"

his lamp will be put out

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "his lamp will go out" his lamp

This refers to a lamp with a burning flame. Here the lamp's flame is referred to as the lamp itself. Alternate translation: "the flame of his lamp"

Proverbs 20:21

at the beginning

This refers to a person receiving his inheritance before he is supposed to receive it. The full meaning of this statement can be made clear. Alternate translation: "before the right time"

Proverbs 20:22

I will pay you back

This means to do wrong to someone because they have done wrong to you. Alternate translation: "I will punish you"

Wait for Yahweh

This means to have faith that Yahweh will deal with the situation. Alternate translation: "Have faith in Yahweh" or "Hope in Yahweh"

Proverbs 20:23

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 20:24

A person's steps are directed by Yahweh

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Yahweh directs a person's steps"

A person's steps

This refers to the various things a person does. Alternate translation: "A person's actions"

how then can he understand his way?

The implicit answer is that he cannot understand it. This rhetorical question may be written as a statement.

Alternate translation: "therefore, a person cannot understand his way" understand his way

This is an idiom. The phrase "his way" refers to the person's life. Alternate translation: "understand why some things happen in his life"

Proverbs 20:25

It is a snare

This speaks of something being dangerous as if it were a trap or a snare. Alternate translation: "It is dangerous" to say rashly

to say something quickly and without careful consideration of what it might mean making his vow

The person has made a vow declaring that something is holy and dedicated to Yahweh. Alternate translation:

"dedicating it to Yahweh" or "declaring it holy"

Proverbs 20:26

winnows the wicked

This speaks of the king separating the wicked people as if they were grain that he was winnowing. Alternate translation: "separates the wicked"

the wicked

This refers to wicked people. Alternate translation: "those who are wicked" or "the wicked people" he turns a threshing wheel over them

This speaks of the king punishing the wicked as if he were driving a threshing wheel over them. Alternate translation: "he severely punishes them"

threshing wheel

"threshing cart." This is a tool used to crush grain and help separate it from the chaff.

Proverbs 20:27

The spirit of a person is the lamp of Yahweh, searching all his inmost parts

This speaks of a person's spirit as if it were a lamp. A person's spirit helps him to understand his inner self.

Alternate translation: "Yahweh has given us a spirit to understand our deepest selves, just as a lamp makes you see in the dark"

Proverbs 20:28

Steadfast love and faithfulness preserve the king

The abstract nouns "love" and "faithfulness" can be stated with the verb "love" and the adjective "faithful." This can also be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "The king preserves himself by loving Yahweh without ceasing and by being faithful to him" preserve the king

Chapter 21

keep the king safe from harm
he makes his throne strong by love
Here "throne" represents the king's power to rule. The abstract noun "love" can be stated as a verb. Also, this can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "he ensures that he will rule for a long time by loving others"
Proverbs 20:29

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 20:30

Blows that make a wound cleanse away evil and beatings make the innermost parts clean

Both statements mean the same thing and are repeated for emphasis. Using physical punishment to correct a person is spoken of as if the evil were dirt and the beatings cleansed him. Alternate translation: "Beating a person who has done wrong will correct him and cause him to be a better person"

Chapter 21

¹ The king's heart is a stream of water in the hand of Yahweh;
he turns it wherever he pleases.

² Every person's way is right in his own eyes, but it is Yahweh who weighs the hearts.

³ To do what is right and just is more acceptable to Yahweh than sacrifice.

⁴ Haughty eyes and a proud heart—
the lamp of the wicked—are sin.

⁵ The plans of the diligent lead only to prosperity,
but everyone who acts too quickly comes only to poverty.

⁶ Acquiring treasures by a lying tongue is a fleeting vapor and a deadly snare.

⁷ The violence of the wicked will drag them away, for they refuse to do what is just.

⁸ The way of a guilty person is crooked,
but the one who is pure does what is right.

⁹ It is better to live on a corner of the roof than in a house shared with a quarrelsome wife.

- ¹⁰ The appetite of the wicked craves evil;
his neighbor finds no favor in his eyes.
- ¹¹ When the mocker is punished, the naive become wise, and when the wise person is instructed, he lays hold of knowledge.
- ¹² The righteous person watches the house of the wicked person;
he brings wicked people to disaster.
- ¹³ The one who shuts his ears to the cry of the poor,
he also will cry out, but he will not be answered.
- ¹⁴ A gift in secret appeases anger and a concealed gift appeases strong wrath.
- ¹⁵ When justice is done, it brings joy to the righteous person,
but it brings terror to workers of iniquity.
- ¹⁶ The one who wanders from the way of understanding,
he will rest in the assembly of the dead.
- ¹⁷ Whoever loves pleasure will become poor;
the one who loves wine and oil will not be rich.
- ¹⁸ A wicked person is ransom for the righteous, and the treacherous person is ransom for the upright.
- ¹⁹ It is better to live in the desert than with a quarreling and angry wife.
- ²⁰ Desirable treasure and oil are kept in the dwelling of the wise, but a foolish person swallows it all up.
- ²¹ The one who does right and is kind—this person finds life, righteousness, and honor.

²² A wise man scales the city of the mighty ones, and he brings down the stronghold in which they trusted.

²³ Whoever guards his mouth and tongue keeps himself out of trouble.

²⁴ The proud and haughty person—"Mocker" is his name—acts with arrogant pride.

²⁵ The desire of the lazy person kills him, for his hands refuse to work.

²⁶ All day long he craves and craves more,
but the righteous person gives and does not hold back.

²⁷ The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination;
it is even more detestable when he brings it with evil motives.

²⁸ A false witness will perish,
but the one who listens will speak for all time.

²⁹ A wicked man makes his face hard,
but the upright is certain about his ways. ¹

³⁰ There is no wisdom, there is no understanding, and there is no advice that can stand against Yahweh.

³¹ The horse is prepared for the day of battle, but the victory belongs to Yahweh.

¹Some ancient copies of the Hebrew text have but the upright thinks about his way .

Proverbs 21 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 21 continues the section of the book which is attributed to Solomon and is filled mainly with short, individual proverbs.

Special concepts in this chapter

Themes

There are individual proverbs that run along common themes, often including contrasting elements: wise/foolish, money, lazy/diligent, truth telling, wicked/righteous, sluggard, pride/humility, integrity/crookedness. (See: wise, foolish and evil

and righteous)

Links:

Proverbs 21:1 Notes

Proverbs 21:1

The king's heart is a stream of water in the hand of Yahweh
The writer speaks of the king's heart as if it were an irrigation ditch in a dry area through which people direct water to plants that need it. Alternate translation: "Yahweh controls the king's heart as a man directs water for irrigation"

The king's heart

The heart is a metaphor for what a person thinks and what he wants to do. Alternate translation: "The king's thoughts and actions" or "What the king thinks and what he wants to do"

Proverbs 21:2

Every person's way is right in his own eyes

The eyes represent seeing, and seeing represents thoughts or judgment. The writer speaks of what a person does as if it that person were walking down a path. Alternate translation: "Every person thinks that what he does is good" or "Every person judges what he does as good"

who weighs the hearts

The writer speaks of Yahweh deciding whether a person desires to do what is right as if Yahweh were looking at a physical object and deciding whether it is of good quality. Alternate translation: "who will judge the motives"

Proverbs 21:3

To do what is right

"To do what Yahweh thinks is right"

To do what is ... just

"To treat people the way Yahweh wants people to treat other people"

just is more acceptable to Yahweh

"just—Yahweh wants this more"

Proverbs 21:4

Haughty eyes and a proud heart

The words "eyes" and "heart" are synecdoches for a person who considers himself better than other people and wants other people to know it. Alternate translation: "People who want others to think that they are better than other people"

Haughty eyes

This is a synecdoche for a person who wants others to know that he thinks he is better than they are.

proud heart

This is a synecdoche for a person who thinks he is better than others.

the lamp of the wicked

The things that help the wicked are spoken of as a lamp. Alternate translation: "the things that help a wicked person like a lamp helps to see in the dark"

Proverbs 21:5

the diligent

This nominal adjective can be translated as a noun phrase. Alternate translation: "a diligent man" or "a man who works hard"

comes only to poverty

The abstract noun "poverty" can be translated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "only becomes poor"

Proverbs 21:6

Acquiring treasures

"Gaining wealth" or "Getting rich"

by a lying tongue

The tongue is a metonym for what a person says. Alternate translation: "by deceitful words" or "by telling lies"

is a fleeting vapor

A fleeting vapor is a mist that quickly goes away in the morning. If someone tells lies in order to get wealth, that wealth will not last. Alternate translation: "is like a disappearing mist"

and a deadly snare

A snare is a kind of trap. If someone tells lies in order to get wealth, he puts himself in terrible danger. Alternate translation: "and is like a snare that kills"

Proverbs 21:7

The violence of the wicked will drag them away

The writer speaks as though violence were a person who could drag other people away. God will punish wicked people who harm their innocent neighbors.

violence of the wicked

The abstract noun "violence" refers to violent deeds or things people do to harm their innocent neighbors. The word "wicked" is a nominal adjective that refers to wicked people. Alternate translation: "The violent actions of wicked people"

drag them away

This phrase refers to dragging a net through water to catch fish. The wicked being destroyed by their own actions is spoken of as if their actions trapped them in a net like one would catch fish. Alternate translation: "drag them away like fish" or "destroy them as easily as one catches fish in a net"

Proverbs 21:8

The way of a guilty person is crooked

This compares the way one lives to a crooked road one may travel. This is also an idiom. Alternate translation: "The way a guilty person lives is crooked"

crooked

Here "crooked" means bent or not straight. This is a metaphor for morally wrong. Alternate translation: "wrong"

Proverbs 21:9

a corner of the roof

Houses in those days had flat roofs. Ancient Israelites spent much time on their roofs, where it was often cooler than inside the house, and sometimes people would build a shelter large enough for a person to sleep in on one corner of the roof.

quarrelsome wife

"wife who often argues and complains"

Proverbs 21:10

The appetite of the wicked craves evil

The writer speaks of a person's appetite, the physical desire for food and drink, as if it were a person who could desire something. The word "wicked" is a nominal adjective that refers to evil people, and the word "evil" is a nominal adjective that refers to evil deeds. Alternate translation: "Evil people desire to do evil deeds just as they desire to eat and drink"

craves

desires strongly

his neighbor finds no favor in his eyes

The idiom to "find favor" means to have someone approve of and act kindly towards the one who finds favor. Also, the eyes represent seeing, and seeing represents a person's thoughts and attitude towards another person. Alternate translation: "his neighbor does not receive favor from him" or "he does not act kindly towards his neighbor"

Proverbs 21:11

the naive

"those who have no experience" or "those who are not mature"

the mocker

"the person who mocks others"

when the wise person is instructed

This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "when someone instructs the wise person" lays hold of knowledge

Here knowledge is spoken of as if it were an object that someone could grasp and keep for himself.

Proverbs 21:12

The righteous

Possible meanings are 1) any righteous person or 2)

"Yahweh the one who is righteous."

watches the house

"pays careful attention to the house" "looks to see what happens to the house"

he brings wicked people to disaster

Here disaster is spoken of as if it were a place that someone could be brought to. Alternate translation: "he destroys them"

Proverbs 21:13

The one who shuts his ears to the cry of the poor

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "The one who will not listen when poor people ask for help"

he will not be answered

The word "answered" is a metonym for a person hearing another person ask for help and acting to help. This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "no one will do anything to help him"

Proverbs 21:14

appeases anger

"makes an angry person feel better so he is no longer angry"

Proverbs 21:15

When justice is done

The abstract noun "justice" can be translated as a noun phrase. These words can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "When rulers do what is just"

workers of iniquity

"those who do evil" or "evildoers"

Proverbs 21:16

wanders from the way of understanding

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "no longer lives wisely"

he will rest in the assembly of the dead

"he will remain in the assembly of dead spirits"

Proverbs 21:17

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 21:18

is ransom for

The word "ransom" is a metaphor for one person who takes the place of another person. Here the person who does what is wrong is punished instead of the person who does what is right.

the treacherous

a person who harms those who trust him by lying and otherwise dealing falsely

the upright

"the person who lives rightly" or "people who live rightly"

Proverbs 21:19

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 21:20

wise

This nominal adjective can be translated as a noun phrase.

Alternate translation: "wise person"

swallows it all up

"uses it all for no good purpose" or "wastes it"

Proverbs 21:21

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 21:22

scales the city

"climbs up and over the wall that surrounds the city"

the city of the mighty ones

"a city in which mighty men are living" or "a city of mighty warriors"

he brings down

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "he destroys"

the stronghold in which they trusted

"the walls and towers around the city that they did not think anyone would be able to get past into the city, so they felt safe"

Proverbs 21:23

Whoever guards his mouth and tongue

Both "mouth" and "tongue" refer to what a person says.

Alternate translation: "Whoever is careful in what he says"

Proverbs 21:24

The proud and haughty person ... acts with arrogant pride

"You can expect a proud and haughty people to act with arrogant pride"

proud and haughty

These two words mean basically the same thing and emphasize how prideful the person is.

"Mocker" is his name

The word "name" is a metonym for what people would call him. Alternate translation: "a mocker is what you should call him"

Proverbs 21:25

The desire of the lazy person kills him

The writer speaks of what a person wants as if it were a person who could kill a lazy person. Here the lazy person wants to be idle and not work. Alternate translation: "A lazy person only wants to be idle, and because of that he will die" or "A lazy person will die because he does not want to work"

his hands refuse

The hand is a synecdoche for the person. Alternate translation: "he refuses"

Proverbs 21:26

craves

desires strongly

gives and does not hold back

The phrase "does not hold back" can be stated positively, and what he gives can be made explicit. Alternate translation: "gives everything he should" or "gives generously"

Proverbs 21:27

The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination

The writer does not mention Yahweh here, as in Proverbs 15:8, but the reader should understand that it is Yahweh who detests the sacrifice of the wicked.

the wicked

The nominal adjective "wicked" can be translated as a noun phrase. Alternate translation: "the wicked person" or "wicked people"

it is even more detestable

"Yahweh detests the sacrifice even more"

Proverbs 21:28

will speak for all time

This is because people will never forget what he said.

Proverbs 21:29

makes his face hard

Possible meanings are 1) "pretends to be courageous" or 2) "will not listen to correction."

is certain about his ways

A person's actions are spoken of as if they were a path upon which the person walks. Alternate translation: "is certain about what he does" or "is confident about what he does"

Proverbs 21:30

There is no wisdom, there is no understanding, and there is no advice that

The words "there is" are repeated to emphasize the abstract nouns "wisdom," "understanding," and "advice." Yahweh is greater than anything that anyone can know or think or say. Your language may require that you not repeat "there is no." The abstract nouns can be translated as adjectives or verbs. Alternate translation: "There is no wise person, there is no one who understands anything, and there is no one who tells others what to do who" or "There is no wisdom, understanding, or advice that" stand against Yahweh

"defeat Yahweh" or "work against what Yahweh wants to do" or "show that he is right and Yahweh is wrong"

Proverbs 21:31

The horse is prepared for the day of battle

These words can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "Soldiers prepare horses for the day of battle" the day of battle

The word "day" refers to time that may be longer or shorter than a day. Alternate translation: "when there is a battle"

Chapter 22

¹ A good name is to be chosen over great riches and favor is better than silver and gold.

² Rich and poor people have this in common—
Yahweh is the maker of all of them.

³ The prudent sees trouble and hides himself, but the naive go on and suffer because of it.

⁴ The reward for humility and fear of Yahweh is riches, honor, and life.

⁵ Thorns and snares lie in the path of the perverse;
whoever guards his life will keep far from them.

⁶ Teach a child the way he should go and when he is old he will not turn away from that instruction.

⁷ Rich people rule over poor people and one who borrows is a slave to the one who lends.

⁸ He who sows injustice will reap trouble and the rod of his fury will fade away.

⁹ The one who has a generous eye will be blessed,
for he shares his bread with the poor.

¹⁰ Drive away the mocker, and out goes strife;
disputes and dishonor will cease.

¹¹ The one who loves a pure heart and whose speech is gracious, he will have the king for his friend.

¹² The eyes of Yahweh keep watch over knowledge, but he overthrows the words of the treacherous.

¹³ The lazy person says, "There is a lion in the street!
I will be killed in the open places."

¹⁴ The mouth of an adulteress is a deep pit;
Yahweh's anger is stirred up against anyone who falls into it.

¹⁵ Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a child,
but the rod of discipline drives it far away.

¹⁶ The one who oppresses poor people to increase his wealth, or gives to rich people, will come to poverty.

¹⁷ Incline your ear and listen to the words of the wise and apply your heart to my knowledge,

- ¹⁸ for it will be pleasant for you if you keep them within you,
if all of them are ready on your lips.
- ¹⁹ So your trust may be in Yahweh,
I teach them to you today—even to you.
- ²⁰ Have I not written for you thirty sayings of instruction and knowledge,
- ²¹ to teach you truth in these trustworthy words, so you may give trustworthy answers
to those who sent you?
- ²² Do not rob the poor because he is poor,
or crush the needy at the gate,
- ²³ for Yahweh will plead their case,
and he will rob of life those who robbed them.
- ²⁴ Do not make a friend of someone who is ruled by anger and you must not go with one who rages,
- ²⁵ or you will learn his ways and entangle yourself in a snare.
- ²⁶ Do not be one who strikes hands in making a pledge, or who puts up security for debts.
- ²⁷ If you lack the means to pay,
what could stop someone from taking away your bed from under you?
- ²⁸ Do not remove the ancient boundary stone that your fathers have set.
- ²⁹ Do you see a man skilled at his work? He will stand before kings;
he will not stand before common people.

Proverbs 22 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 22 ends the section of the book which is attributed to Solomon and is filled mainly with short, individual proverbs.

The second half of this chapter and the first half of the next chapter are attributed to the "Wise Men." The exact identity of the men is unknown.

Special concepts in this chapter

Themes

There are individual proverbs that run along common themes, often including contrasting elements: wise/foolish, money, lazy/diligent, truth telling, wicked/righteous, sluggard, pride/humility, integrity/crookedness. (See: wise, foolish and evil

and righteous)

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Rhetorical questions

With this new section of proverbs, the author begins to use many rhetorical questions. The obvious answers should convince the reader.

Links:

Proverbs 22:1 Notes

Proverbs 22:1

A good name is to be chosen over great riches

These words can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "A person should choose a good name rather than great riches"

A good name

"To have others think that one is a good person"

Proverbs 22:2

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 22:3

The prudent

This nominal adjective refers to any prudent person. See how you translated "prudent" in [Proverbs 12:16]

the naive

This nominal adjective refers to any naive person. To be naive is to lack experience and to not be mature.

Proverbs 22:4

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 22:5

Thorns and snares lie in the path of the perverse

The writer speaks of the way perverse people live as if it were a path on which the perverse will have trouble because of the natural "thorns" and man-made "snares."

snares

traps to catch animals

the perverse

This nominal adjective can be translated as a noun phrase. Alternate translation: "perverse people"

whoever guards his life

A person doing what he needs to do so he can live a long time is spoken of as if that person were keeping thieves away from a physical object. Alternate translation: "people who want to live a long time"

Proverbs 22:6

the way he should go

How a person lives is spoken of as if it were a path on which he walks. Alternate translation: "how he should live"

Proverbs 22:7

borrowes ... lends

You may need to make explicit what it is that is borrowed or lent. Alternate translation: "borrowes money ... lends money"

Proverbs 22:8

He who sows injustice will reap trouble

The writer speaks of a ruler or other powerful person treating those less powerful unjustly as if he were planting seeds that will give birth to plants that bring trouble.

Alternate translation: "If a person treats those less powerful than he is unjustly, they will cause him trouble later on"

the rod of his fury will fade away

The word "rod" is a metonym for power over other people.

Possible meanings are 1) the unjust ruler will lose the power that he had that allowed him to treat other people unjustly or 2) when the people respond to the injustice he had done by harming him, he will have no power to stop them. Alternate translation: "he will no longer have the power that he had used to harm people"

rod of his fury

The word "rod" is a metonym for power over other people.

The unjust man was harming innocent people as if he were very angry with them. Alternate translation: "the rod he had used as if he were punishing people" or "the power he used to harm others"

will fade away

The word translated "fade away" is also used of plants drying up.

Proverbs 22:9

The one who has a generous eye will be blessed

These words can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "God will bless the one who has a generous eye"

one who has a generous eye

The eye is a metonym for seeing what other people need, and the "generous eye" not only sees but gives what the other people need. The eye is also a synecdoche for the whole person. Alternate translation: "generous person" or "person who is willing to give things to other people"

bread

Since bread was the main food for many people in biblical times, it is often used to refer to food in general.

Proverbs 22:10

disputes and dishonor will cease

The abstract nouns "disputes" and "dishonor" can be translated as verbs. Alternate translation: "people will no longer argue with each other or say things that dishonor each other"

Proverbs 22:11

loves a pure heart

It is his own heart that the person wants to be pure. The heart is a synecdoche for the person. Alternate translation: "loves having a pure heart" or "wants to be pure"

is gracious

"is kind"

Proverbs 22:12

The eyes of Yahweh keep watch over

The eyes are a synecdoche for the person. The writer speaks as if Yahweh had physical eyes like a person.

Alternate translation: "Yahweh keeps watch over" or

"Yahweh guards knowledge"

keep watch over knowledge

Keeping watch is a metonym for protecting. Alternate translation: "protect knowledge"

he overthrows

"he destroys"

the treacherous

The nominal adjective treacherous can be translated as a noun phrase. Translate "treacherous" as in [Proverbs 11:3] Proverbs 22:13

The lazy person says

The quote that follows is a lie and an excuse for not working. If your language introduces false statements in a special way, you can use that here.

Proverbs 22:14

The mouth of an adulteress is a deep pit

The word "mouth" is a metonym for the words that come out of the mouth. The writer speaks of a person being unable to escape having people punish him for evil deeds as if that person had fallen into a hole someone had dug in the ground from which he could not escape. Alternate translation: "The words spoken by an adulteress will draw you in, and it will be as if you have fallen into a deep and dangerous pit"

an adulteress

See how you translated this in Proverbs 5:3.

Yahweh's anger is stirred up

Here "stirred up" means that his anger increased. Alternate translation: "Yahweh is angry" falls into it

Adultery is spoken of as if it is something that a person can fall into. Alternate translation: "sins because of the adulteress"

Proverbs 22:15

Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a child

"The heart of a child is full of foolish things"

the rod of discipline

The writer speaks of a parent using any form of discipline as if that parent were hitting the child with a wooden rod. drives it far away

The writer speaks as if foolishness were a person that another person could use a physical rod to drive away. Alternate translation: "will make a child wise"

Proverbs 22:16

to increase his wealth

"to become richer" or "to gain more money"

gives to rich people

"gives money to rich people"

will come to poverty

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "will become poor" Proverbs 22:17

General Information:

Verse 17 begins the introduction to a new section of the Book of Proverbs.

Incline your ear and listen

Here the word "ear" represents the person who is listening. The writer speaks of listening attentively to someone as if it were leaning forward so that the ear is closer to the one speaking. See how you translated "incline your ear" in the words of the wise

[Proverbs 4:20]

"what wise people say"

apply your heart to

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "do your best to understand and remember"

my knowledge

The person speaking is probably the same as the father from [Proverbs 1:8]

Proverbs 22:18

all of them are ready on your lips

The person being ready to speak is spoken of as if it were the words that were ready. Alternate translation: "you are able to speak of them at any time"

Proverbs 22:19

today—even to you

"today. Yes, I am teaching you," The speaker is emphasizing that it is the hearer, not someone else whom he is teaching, and he is teaching the hearer because the hearer needs to learn. If it is awkward in your language to emphasize in this way, you can emphasize in another way or the words "even to you" can be left untranslated.

Proverbs 22:20

General Information:

These verses continue and end the introduction that began in Proverbs 22:17.

thirty sayings

Some translations read, "excellent sayings."

Proverbs 22:21

to teach you ... who sent you?

These words end the rhetorical question that began with the words "Have I not written" in Proverbs 22:20. It can be translated as a statement. "You need to know that I have written ... to teach you ... who sent you."

to those who sent you

This implies that the hearer is or will be one whom others send to gain and bring back information.

Proverbs 22:22

General Information:

These verses begin the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).

Do not rob ... or crush

If your language has a way of showing that this is the way one person would speak strongly to another, different from a general rule that people are supposed to obey, you should use it here.

the poor

This nominal adjective can be translated as a noun phrase. Alternate translation: "any poor person" or "poor people" crush grind into powder. This is a metaphor for "treat unjustly."

the needy

This nominal adjective can be translated as a noun phrase. Alternate translation: "any needy person" or "any person who does not have what he needs to live" at the gate

The place where people bought and sold items and settled legal arguments is used as a metonym for business and legal activity. Alternate translation: "in court"

Proverbs 22:23

Chapter 23

Yahweh will plead their case

The metaphor is of a lawyer defending the needy in front of a judge. Alternate translation: "Yahweh will defend the needy from those who oppress them" or "Yahweh will see that the needy receive justice"

he will rob of life those who robbed them

Yahweh is not a thief, but like a thief he will take life from those who do not choose to give it. Alternate translation: "he will destroy those who oppress poor people"

Proverbs 22:24

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).

someone who is ruled by anger someone who is unable to control his anger rages

shows violent anger

Proverbs 22:25

you will ... entangle yourself in a snare

A person who wants to be like an angry person is like an animal taking the bait in a trap. Alternate translation: "you will be like an animal that eats bait that closes a trap and then is unable to escape"

Proverbs 22:26

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).

strikes hands

A person would strike his hand against another person's hand to bind himself to do what he had agreed to do. Here the speaker warns the hearer not to strike hands as a way to promise to pay off someone's debts.

in making a pledge

"and agree to pay what someone owes to another person"

Proverbs 22:27

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 22:28

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).

ancient

very old

boundary stone

a large stone that shows where one person's land ends and another person's land begins fathers ancestors

Proverbs 22:29

Do you see a man skilled at his work?

This rhetorical question is actually a command. Alternate translation: "Think of someone you know who is skilled at his work"

stand before

This represents becoming a servant of the important person. Kings and other important people will think so highly of him that they will use his services.

Chapter 23

- ¹ When you sit to eat with a ruler, observe carefully what is before you,
- ² and put a knife to your throat
if you are a person who likes to eat a lot of food.
- ³ Do not crave his delicacies, for it is the food of lies.
- ⁴ Do not work too hard to gain wealth;
be wise enough to know when to stop.
- ⁵ Will you let your eyes light upon it? It will be gone, for it will surely take up wings like an eagle and fly off to the sky.
- ⁶ Do not eat the food of one with an evil eye—
and do not crave his delicacies,
- ⁷ for he is the kind of man who counts the price of the food.
"Eat and drink!" he says to you,
but his heart is not with you.
- ⁸ You will vomit up the little you have eaten and you will have wasted your compliments.

⁹ Do not speak in the hearing of a fool,
for he will despise the wisdom of your words.

¹⁰ Do not move an ancient boundary stone or encroach on the fields of orphans,

¹¹ for their Redeemer is strong and he will plead their case against you.

¹² Apply your heart to instruction and your ears to words of knowledge.

¹³ Do not withhold instruction from a child, for if you beat him with the rod, he will not die.

¹⁴ It is you who must beat him with the rod and save his soul from Sheol.

¹⁵ My son, if your heart is wise, then my heart also will be glad;

¹⁶ my kidneys will rejoice
when your lips speak what is right.

¹⁷ Do not let your heart envy sinners,
but continue in the fear of Yahweh all the day.

¹⁸ Surely there is a future
and your hope will not be cut off.

¹⁹ Hear—you!—my son, and be wise and direct your heart in the way.

²⁰ Do not associate with those who drink much wine, or with gluttonous eaters of meat,

²¹ for the drunkard and the glutton become poor and slumber will clothe them with rags.

²² Listen to your father who begot you and do not despise your mother when she is old.

- ²³ Buy the truth, but do not sell it;
buy wisdom, instruction, and understanding.
- ²⁴ The father of the righteous person will greatly rejoice, and he who begets a wise child will be glad in him.
- ²⁵ Let your father and your mother be glad and let her who bore you rejoice.
- ²⁶ My son, give me your heart and let your eyes observe my ways.
- ²⁷ For a prostitute is a deep pit,
and an immoral woman is a narrow well.
- ²⁸ She lies in wait like a robber and she increases the number of the treacherous among humanity.
- ²⁹ Who has woe? Who has sorrow?
Who has strife? Who has complaining?
Who has wounds for no reason? Who has bloodshot eyes?
- ³⁰ Those who linger over wine,
those who try the mixed wine.
- ³¹ Do not look at the wine when it is red,
when it sparkles in the cup and goes down smoothly.
- ³² In the last it bites like a serpent and it stings like an adder.
- ³³ Your eyes will see strange things and your heart will utter perverse things.
- ³⁴ You will be as one who sleeps on the high seas or lies down on the top of a mast.
- ³⁵ "They hit me," you will say, "but I was not hurt.
They beat me, but I did not feel it.
When will I wake up?
I will seek another drink."

Proverbs 23 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 23 continues the section beginning in the previous chapter of the book and is filled mainly with short, individual proverbs.

The second half of this chapter and the first half of the next chapter are attributed to general sayings.

Special concepts in this chapter

Themes

There are individual proverbs that run along common themes, often including contrasting elements: wise/foolish, money, lazy/diligent, truth telling, wicked/righteous, sluggard, pride/humility, integrity/crookedness. (See: wise, foolish and evil

and righteous)

Links:

Proverbs 23:1 Notes

Proverbs 23:1

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).

Proverbs 23:2

put a knife to your throat

Possible meanings of this exaggeration are 1) "be very careful not to eat too much" or 2) "do not eat anything at all"

Proverbs 23:3

Do not crave

"Do not strongly desire." See how you translated "craves" in Proverbs 21:9.

his delicacies

"his special and expensive food"

it is the food of lies

This is an idiom. "he is giving it to you so he can deceive you"

Proverbs 23:4

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).

Do not work too hard

"Do not work so much that you are always tired"

Proverbs 23:5

light upon it

land like a bird upon the wealth

it will surely take up wings like an eagle and fly off

A person losing his wealth is spoken of as if the wealth were a bird. Alternate translation: "the wealth will disappear as quickly as an eagle can fly away" wings like an eagle

wings like an eagle's wings

Proverbs 23:6

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).

do not crave

"do not strongly desire." See how you translated "craves" in Proverbs 21:9.

his delicacies

"his special and expensive food." See how you translated this in Proverbs 23:3.

Proverbs 23:7

he is the kind of man who counts the price of the food

Some modern translations read, "eating with him is like getting hair stuck in your throat" or "giving you food is like getting hair stuck in his throat."

his heart is not with you

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "he really does not want you to enjoy the meal"

Proverbs 23:8

You will vomit up the little you have eaten

This is an exaggeration for wishing one had not eaten anything. Alternate translation: "You will wish that you had not eaten anything" you will have wasted your compliments

Compliments are spoken of as if they were valuable objects.

The abstract noun "compliments" can be translated as a verb. Alternate translation: "he will not be happy even if you say good things about him and the food"

Proverbs 23:9

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20). in the hearing of a fool

The abstract noun "hearing" can be translated as a verb.

Alternate translation: "where a fool can hear you"

Proverbs 23:10

ancient

very old. See how you translated this in Proverbs 22:28.

boundary stone

This is a large stone to show where one person's land ends and another person's land begins. See how you translated this in Proverbs 22:28.

encroach

This means to slowly take or begin to use land (or some thing) that belongs to someone else.

orphans

children whose parents are dead

Proverbs 23:11

their Redeemer

Yahweh

he will plead their case against you

The metaphor is of a lawyer defending the needy in front of a judge. Alternate translation: "he will defend the orphans against you" or "he will see that the orphans receive justice and punish you"

Proverbs 23:12

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).

Apply your heart to

This is an idiom. See how you translated this in [Proverbs 22:17]

instruction

Possible meanings are 1) "what people who know what is right and what is wrong tell you" or 2) "what people say and do when they correct you."

your ears

The ellipsis can be filled in. Alternate translation: "apply your ears" or "listen carefully" to words of knowledge

"to me when I tell you what I know"

Proverbs 23:13

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).

Do not withhold instruction from a child

The abstract noun "instruction" can be translated as a verb.

Alternate translation: "Do not neglect to instruct a child" or "Do not refuse to instruct a child" withhold refuse to give something that one knows another person needs

beat him with the rod

These words are either 1) a metaphor for training and disciplining him even when he considers the training and discipline painful or 2) to be taken literally. Alternate translation: "discipline him"

Proverbs 23:14

rod

piece of wood

It is you who must beat him ... and save his soul

"You are the one who must beat him ... and save his soul."

No one else will do it. The hearer is responsible to save the child's soul from Sheol, and the way to save him is to beat him.

save his soul from Sheol

If the hearer beats his children with the rod, they will not die young because they have done foolish or evil things. The word "soul" is a metonym for the person. Sheol is the world of the dead; going to the world of the dead is a euphemism for dying. Alternate translation: "you will keep him from the world of the dead" or "you will keep him from dying"

Proverbs 23:15

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).

Proverbs 23:16

my kidneys

The "kidneys" are a metonym for the person's inner being.

Alternate translation: "my inner being"

when your lips speak

"Your lips" means the whole person. Alternate translation:

"when you speak"

Proverbs 23:17

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).

Do not let your heart envy sinners

The word "heart" is a synecdoche for the whole person.

Alternate translation: "Do not allow yourself to envy sinners" or "Make sure you do not envy sinners"

Proverbs 23:18

your hope will not be cut off

This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation:

"God will not allow anyone to cut off your hope" or "God will keep the promises he made to you"

Proverbs 23:19

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).

Hear—you!—my son

"Listen carefully, my son." The speaker speaks an extra word to make sure the hearer is paying attention.

direct your heart in the way

Deciding to do what is right is spoken of as if one person were showing another person the correct path to follow.

Alternate translation: "make sure you do what is wise"

Proverbs 23:20

gluttonous eaters of meat

Possible meanings are 1) "people who eat more meat than they need to" or 2) "meat" represents food in general.

Alternate translation: "people who eat more food than they need to"

Proverbs 23:21

slumber will clothe them with rags

The word "slumber" is an exaggeration for a person spending so much time enjoying food and drink that he does not do necessary work. This activity is spoken of as if it were a parent putting clothes on a child. Alternate translation: "because they spend so much time eating and drinking, they will do no work and so will become poor"

Proverbs 23:22

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).

do not despise

This can be stated positively. Alternate translation: "show respect for"

Proverbs 23:23

Buy the truth, but do not sell it; buy wisdom, instruction, and understanding

Another possible meaning is "Buy the truth, and do not sell wisdom, instruction, or understanding." The words "truth," "wisdom," "instruction," and "understanding" are abstract nouns that are spoken of as if they were physical items that a person can buy and sell in a market. They can be translated as verbs. Alternate translation: "Do what you need to do so you can know what is true, so you can be wise, so you can learn how to act, and so you can tell good from bad; never think of anything else as more important than these things"

Proverbs 23:24

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).

The father of the righteous person will greatly rejoice, and he who begets a wise child will be glad in him

Another possible meaning is that the words "he that begets a wise child" explain who "the father of the righteous person" is. Alternate translation: "The father of the righteous person, he who begets a wise child, will greatly rejoice and will be glad in him" will be glad in him

"will be glad because of him"

Proverbs 23:25

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 23:26

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).

give me your heart

The word "heart" is a metonym for what a person thinks and decides to do. Possible meanings are 1) "pay careful attention" or 2) "trust me completely."

let your eyes observe

The eyes are a synecdoche for the whole person. Alternate translation: "observe" or "look carefully at"

observe

Some modern translations read, "delight in."

Proverbs 23:27

prostitute ... immoral woman

There are two types of sexually immoral women. The "prostitute" is unmarried, "another man's wife" is married.

Together they form a merism for any kind of sexually immoral woman.

a prostitute is a deep pit

The word "pit" is a metaphor for what happens to men who sleep with prostitutes. Alternate translation: "sleeping with a prostitute is like falling into a deep pit" prostitute

Here the word refers to any unmarried woman who engages in sexual activity, not only those who do so for money.

deep pit ... narrow well

These are two places easy to fall into and hard to get out of, the "pit" because it is "deep" and the "well" because it is "narrow."

an immoral woman is a narrow well

Doing evil for which one will be punished is spoken of as falling into a narrow place from which one cannot escape. Alternate translation: "Sleeping with another man's wife is like falling into a narrow well"

well

a hole in the ground that people have dug to get to water
Proverbs 23:28

lies in wait

stays hidden, ready to attack when a victim approaches
the treacherous

This nominal adjective can be translated as an adjective or verb. Alternate translation: "treacherous people" or "those who harm others by deceiving them"

Proverbs 23:29

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).

Who has woe? Who has sorrow? Who has strife? Who has complaining?

Who has wounds for no reason? Who has bloodshot eyes?

The writer uses these questions to prepare the reader for the point he is about to make about a particular type of person. He does not expect an answer to each question. Your language may have a different way of introducing a lesson. Alternate translation: "Listen to me while I tell you what kind of person has woe, sorrow, fights, complaining, wounds for no reason, and bloodshot eyes."

bloodshot eyes

"eyes red, like the color of blood"

Proverbs 23:30

Those who linger over wine, those who try the mixed wine

These words answer the questions in verse 29 and describe people who drink too much wine.

linger over wine

spend much time drinking wine and so drink much wine
the mixed wine

Possible meanings are 1) different wines mixed together or 2) other drinks that are stronger than wine.

Proverbs 23:31

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).

Proverbs 23:32

In the last

"After you drink it"

it bites like a serpent ... it stings like an adder

The word "it" refers to "the wine when it is red." "Bites" and "stings" are metaphors for the way too much wine makes people feel. Alternate translation: "it makes you feel as bad as if a serpent had bitten you or an adder had stung you"

adder

a type of poisonous snake

Proverbs 23:33

your heart will utter perverse things

The "heart" represents the person and emphasize what he thinks and decides to do. Alternate translation: "you will think about and decide to do perverse things" perverse things

things that God says are morally wrong and bad; things that are wicked

Proverbs 23:34

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).

It is the continuation of the description of a drunk person.

lies down on the top of a mast

The place on the mast where the person lies can be made explicit. Alternate translation: "lies down in the basket near the top of a mast" mast

the long wooden pole to which are attached the sails of a sailing ship

Proverbs 23:35

They hit me, ... but I was not hurt. They beat me, but I did not feel it. Because the drunk person is not thinking clearly, he is imagining that people are hitting and beating him, yet he feels no pain and cannot remember anything.

When will I wake up?

The drunk person is wondering when he will be sober again; when the effect of the wine will stop.

Chapter 24

¹ Do not be envious of those who are evil, nor desire to associate with them,

² because their hearts plot violence and their lips talk about trouble.

³ Through wisdom a house is built and by understanding it is established.

- ⁴ By knowledge the rooms are filled with all precious and pleasant riches.
- ⁵ A warrior of wisdom is strong,
and a man of knowledge increases his strength;
- ⁶ for with guidance you can wage your war and with many advisors there is victory.
- ⁷ Wisdom is too high for a fool;
in the gate he does not open his mouth.
- ⁸ There is one who plans to do evil—people call him a master of schemes.
- ⁹ A foolish plan is sin and a mocker is an abomination to people.
- ¹⁰ If you become weak with fear in the day of trouble, then your strength is small.
- ¹¹ Rescue those who are being taken away to death and hold back those who are staggering to the slaughter.
- ¹² If you say, "Behold, we knew nothing about this,"
does not the one who weighs the heart understand what you are saying?
The one who guards your life, does he not know it?
Will God not give to each one what he deserves?
- ¹³ My son, eat honey because it is good, because the drippings of the honeycomb are sweet to your taste.
- ¹⁴ Such is wisdom for your soul—
if you find it, there will be a future
and your hope will not be cut off.
- ¹⁵ Do not lie in wait like the wicked person who attacks the house of the righteous person.
Do not destroy his home!
- ¹⁶ For the righteous person falls down seven times and rises again, but wicked people stumble at calamity.

- ¹⁷ Do not rejoice when your enemy falls and let not your heart be glad when he stumbles,
- ¹⁸ or Yahweh will see and disapprove and turn away his wrath from him.
- ¹⁹ Do not be angry because of evildoers, and do not envy wicked people,
- ²⁰ for the evil person has no future and the lamp of wicked people will go out.
- ²¹ Fear Yahweh, and fear the king, my son;
do not associate with those who rebel against them,
- ²² for suddenly their disaster will come,
and who knows the extent of the destruction that will come from both of them?
- ²³ These also are sayings of the wise.
- Partiality in judging a case at law is not good.
- ²⁴ Whoever says to the wicked person, "You are a righteous person," will be cursed by peoples and abhorred by nations.
- ²⁵ But those who discipline the wicked will have delight and gifts of goodness will come to them.
- ²⁶ The one who gives a straight answer gives a kiss on the lips.
- ²⁷ Prepare your outdoor work,
and make everything ready for yourself in the field;
after that, build your house.
- ²⁸ Do not bear witness against your neighbor without cause and do not deceive with your lips.
- ²⁹ Do not say, "I will do to him what he has done to me;
I will pay him back for what he has done."
- ³⁰ I went by the field of a lazy person, past the vineyard of the man having no sense.
- ³¹ Thorns had grown up everywhere,
the ground was covered with nettles,
and its stone wall was broken down.

- ³² Then I saw and considered it;
I looked and received instruction.
- ³³ A little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to rest—
- ³⁴ and poverty comes marching upon you,
and your needs like an armed soldier.

Proverbs 24 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 24 continues the section beginning in the previous chapter and is mainly filled with short, individual proverbs. The second half of this chapter finishes the section.

Special concepts in this chapter

Lazy man story

Unlike much of Proverbs, verses 30-34 tell a short story about a lazy man, which ends in a very memorable proverb.

Themes

There are individual proverbs that run along common themes, often including contrasting elements: wise/foolish, money, lazy/diligent, truth telling, wicked/righteous, sluggard, pride/humility, integrity/crookedness. (See: wise, foolish and evil and righteous)

Links:

Proverbs 24:1 Notes

Proverbs 24:1

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).

Proverbs 24:2

their hearts

The words "their hearts" refer to the whole person.

Alternate translation: "they"

their lips

The words "their lips" refer to the whole person. Alternate translation: "they"

talk about trouble

"talk about causing harm" or "talk about creating problems"

Proverbs 24:3

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).

Through wisdom a house is built

The abstract noun "wisdom" can be translated as an adjective. These words can be translated in active form.

Alternate translation: "People need to be wise if they are to build a good house"

by understanding it is established

The abstract noun "understanding" can be translated as a verb. These words can be translated in active form.

Alternate translation: "People need to understand what is morally good and what is morally bad if they are to establish a house"

it is established

The word "established" means made stable and strong. The word "house" is a metonym for the family that lives in the house, and the house being physically stable and strong is a metaphor for a family that lives in peace.

Proverbs 24:4

By knowledge the rooms are filled

The abstract noun "knowledge" can be translated as a verb.

These words can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "People need to know what is precious and pleasant if they are to fill their rooms"

Proverbs 24:5

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).

warrior of wisdom

The abstract noun "wisdom" can be translated as "wise."

Alternate translation: "wise warrior"

a man of knowledge increases his strength

The abstract nouns "knowledge" and "strength" can be translated as the verb "know" and the adjective "strong."

Alternate translation: "a man who knows many things is stronger because he knows these things"

Proverbs 24:6

with guidance

The abstract noun "guidance" can be translated with a verb.

Alternate translation: "if wise people guide you"

wage your war

"fight your war"

advisors

those who tell government officials what those officials should do

Proverbs 24:7

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).

too high for a fool

This is an idiom. "too difficult for a fool to understand"

open his mouth

The mouth is a metonym for the words that come from the mouth. Alternate translation: "speak"

Proverbs 24:8

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).
a master of schemes

one who is skillful at making evil plans. Alternate translation: "a mischievous person" or "a troublemaker"

Proverbs 24:9

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 24:10

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).
your strength is small

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "you have very little strength" or "you are certainly weak"

Proverbs 24:11

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).
those who are being taken away

These words can be translated in active form by using the term "they" which could be anyone, but are probably government officials. Alternate translation: "those whom they are taking away"

taken away

Another possible meaning is "dragged away."

staggering

walking unsteadily and almost falling. This word would also describe the way a person walks when he is being dragged away.

the slaughter

The abstract noun "slaughter" can be translated as a verb.

The writer speaks as if those who take them away think of them as no better than animals. If your language has a word for killing animals that would fit here, you might want to use it. Alternate translation: "where people will kill them as they would kill animals"

Proverbs 24:12

If you say, "Behold, ... this," does

The writer is answering something that the reader may wrongly be thinking. Alternate translation: "You may say, 'Behold, ... this,' but does"

Behold, we

"Listen to us! We" or "But we" or "We have done nothing wrong, because we"

does not the one who weighs the heart understand what you are saying?

The writer assumes the readers know the answer and asks this for emphasis. Alternate translation: "the one who weighs the heart understands what you are saying."

the one who

The writer expects the reader to know that "the one" is Yahweh. Alternate translation: "Yahweh, who" weighs the heart

The word "heart" is a metonym for what a person thinks and desires. The writer speaks as if what a person thinks and desires were a physical object that a person could weigh, and weighing an object is a metaphor for looking closely at something to see how good it is. Alternate translation: "knows how good what people really think and desire is"

The one who guards your life, does he not know it?

The writer assumes the readers know the answer and asks this for emphasis. Alternate translation: "The one who guards your life knows it."

Will God not give to each one what he deserves?

The writer assumes the readers know the answer and asks this for emphasis. Alternate translation: "God will give to each one what he deserves."

Proverbs 24:13

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).
Proverbs 24:14

your hope will not be cut off

Possible meanings are 1) this is a simple passive that can be translated as in active form. Alternate translation: "no one will take your hope away" or 2) this is litotes that can be translated in positive form. Alternate translation: "your hope will surely continue"

Proverbs 24:15

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).

Do not lie in wait

The words "lie in wait" are an idiom. Translate "lie in wait" as in [Proverbs 1:11]

his home

the home of the righteous person

Proverbs 24:16

General Information:

Bad things happen to righteous people, but God gives them
the courage to continue doing good. God uses the bad things that happen to wicked people to discourage them.

rises again

"gets back on his feet" or "stands up again"

wicked people stumble at calamity

Possible meanings are 1) "wicked people stumble in times of calamity" or 2) "wicked people stumble because of calamity." Some modern translations understand "calamity" as the means by which the wicked people stumble. This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "wicked people are brought down by calamity" or "God uses calamity to bring wicked people down" calamity

times when bad things happen to people and their property

Proverbs 24:17

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).
your enemy falls

"something bad happens to your enemy"

let not your heart be glad

This is a strong command. The word "heart" represents the person. Alternate translation: "do not allow yourself to be glad" or "stop yourself from being glad"

Proverbs 24:18

turn away his wrath from him

The words "turn away his wrath" are an idiom for no longer being angry. What Yahweh would do instead can be made explicit. Alternate translation: "stop being angry with him and be angry with you instead"

Proverbs 24:19

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).

Do not be angry

Many modern translations read, "Do not fret," which is advice not to worry so much that one becomes angry.

Proverbs 24:20

the lamp of wicked people will go out or "the lamp of wicked people will be put out" or "they will put out the lamp of wicked people"

the lamp ... go out

This is a metaphor for either 1) life. Alternate translation:

"the life ... will end" Or 2) the person's accomplishments.

Alternate translation: "the hard work ... come to nothing"

Proverbs 24:21

General Information:

These verses continue the "thirty sayings" (Proverbs 22:20).

Fear

a deep respect and awe for a person in authority

Proverbs 24:22

who knows the extent of the destruction that will come from both of them?

The writer asks this question to emphasize the disaster.

Alternate translation: "no one knows the extent of the destruction that will come from both of them."

both of them

these words refer to Yahweh and the king

Proverbs 24:23

These also are sayings of the wise

This sentence starts a new collection of proverbs.

a case at law

a situation that is brought before a judge in which someone is accused of breaking the law

Proverbs 24:24

Whoever says to the wicked person, ... will be cursed by peoples and abhorred by nations

The word "nations" is a metonym for the people who live in the nations. These words can be translated in active form.

Alternate translation: "People will curse whoever says to the wicked person, ... , and the people of other nations will abhor him"

the wicked person ... a righteous person

Possible meanings are 1) people should never call any wicked person a righteous person or 2) no one should say of a person guilty of a crime that he is innocent. Alternate translation: "a person guilty of a crime ... innocent"

Proverbs 24:25

will have delight

"will be very happy"

gifts of goodness will come to them

Gifts are spoken of as if they were people who could move by themselves. The abstract noun "goodness" can be translated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "people will give them good gifts" gifts of goodness

"good things" or "blessings"

Proverbs 24:26

straight answer

The word "straight" here is a metaphor for either 1)

"honest" or 2) "correct."

gives a kiss on the lips

A kiss was a sign of respect and devotion in that culture.

Alternate translation: "shows true friendship"

Proverbs 24:27

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 24:28

with your lips

The lips are a metonym for the words a person speaks.

Alternate translation: "by what you say"

Proverbs 24:29

pay him back

This is an idiom. "take revenge against him"

Proverbs 24:30

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 24:31

Thorns

useless plants with sharp spines nettles

plants that are covered with stinging leaves and hairs was broken down

"had fallen down"

Proverbs 24:32

received instruction

"learned a lesson"

Proverbs 24:33

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 24:34

and poverty comes

This finishes a thought begun with the words "A little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest"

[Proverbs 24:33]

poverty comes marching upon you

Some translations read, "poverty comes upon you like a robber." Poverty is spoken of as if it were a person or animal that can attack a lazy person.

your needs like an armed soldier

Needs are spoken of as if they were a person who could attack the lazy person. Alternate translation: "your needs will come to you like an armed soldier"

Chapter 25

¹These are more proverbs of Solomon, copied by the men of Hezekiah, king of Judah.

² It is the glory of God to conceal a matter, but the glory of kings to search it out.

³ Like the heavens are for height and the earth is for depth, so the heart of kings is unsearchable.

⁴ Remove the dross from the silver and a metal worker can use the silver in his craft.

⁵ Even so, remove wicked people from the presence of the king and his throne will be established by doing what is right.

⁶ Do not honor yourself in the king's presence and do not stand in the place designated for great people.

⁷ It is better for him to say to you, "Come up here," than for him to humiliate you before a nobleman.

What you have witnessed,

⁸ do not bring quickly to trial.
For what will you do in the end when your neighbor puts you to shame?

⁹ Argue your case between you and your neighbor himself and do not reveal another's secret,

¹⁰ or else the one who hears you will bring shame upon you and an evil report about you that cannot be silenced.

¹¹ Apples of gold in settings of silver is a word spoken in the right situation.

¹² A gold ring or jewelry made of fine gold is a wise rebuke to a listening ear.

¹³ Like the cold of snow at harvest time is a faithful messenger for those who sent him;
he brings back the life of his masters.

¹⁴ Clouds and wind without rain is the one who boasts about a gift he does not give.

- ¹⁵ With patience a ruler can be persuaded and a soft tongue can break a bone.
- ¹⁶ If you find honey, eat just enough—otherwise, having too much of it, you vomit it up.
- ¹⁷ Do not set your foot in your neighbor's house too often;
he may become tired of you and hate you.
- ¹⁸ A man who bears false witness against his neighbor is like a club used in war, or a sword, or a sharp arrow.
- ¹⁹ An unfaithful man in whom you trust in a time of trouble is like a bad tooth or a foot that slips.
- ²⁰ Like a person who takes off a garment in cold weather, or like vinegar poured upon carbonate of soda,
is the one who sings songs to a heavy heart.
- ²¹ If your enemy is hungry, give him food to eat, and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink,
- ²² for you will shovel coals of fire on his head and Yahweh will reward you.
- ²³ As surely as the north wind brings rain, so a tongue that tells secrets will result in angry faces.
- ²⁴ It is better to live on a corner of the roof than in a house shared with a quarreling wife.
- ²⁵ Like cold waters to one who is thirsty,
so is good news from a far country.
- ²⁶ Like a fouled spring or a ruined fountain is a righteous person tottering before wicked people.
- ²⁷ It is not good to eat too much honey;

that is like searching for honor after honor. ¹

²⁸ A person without self-control is like a city breached and without walls.

Many modern translations have different interpretations of this difficult verse.

Proverbs 25 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 25 begins the second section of the book (Chapter 25-29) which is attributed to Solomon.

Special concepts in this chapter

Themes

There are individual proverbs that run along common themes, often including contrasting elements: wise/foolish, money, lazy/diligent, truth telling, wicked/righteous, sluggard, pride/humility, integrity/crookedness. (See: wise, foolish and evil and righteous)

Links:

Proverbs 25:1 Notes

Proverbs 25:1

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 25:2

to conceal a matter

"to keep some things secret"

but the glory

The ellipsis can be filled in. Alternate translation: "but it is the glory"

search it out

"search that matter out" or "search for those things that God has concealed"

Proverbs 25:3

Like the heavens are for height and the earth is for depth, so the heart of kings is unsearchable

The hearts of kings are compared to the size of the heavens and the earth. Alternate translation: "Just as no one can measure the height of the heavens or the depth of the earth, even so no one can understand the heart of kings" heavens

This refers to everything we see above the earth, including the sun, moon, and stars.

Proverbs 25:4

dross

the material in a metal that people do not want and they remove by heating the metal

Proverbs 25:5

his throne will be established by doing

The throne is a metonym for the power to rule. These words can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "the king will establish his throne by doing" or "he will have the power to rule because he does"

Proverbs 25:6

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 25:7

It is better for him to say to you, "Come up here," than

Here "up" means to move to a place at the table that is closer to the king. It is a great honor for a person to sit closer to the king. Alternate translation: "It is better for someone to invite you to sit closer to the king than"

before a nobleman

"in front of a nobleman"

Proverbs 25:8

For what will you do in the end when your neighbor puts you to shame?

This question is asked to make the reader consider the possibility that he may have misunderstood the situation.

The way in which the neighbor might put the reader to shame can be stated plainly. Alternate translation: "For you will not know what to do in the end when your neighbor puts you to shame." or "For if your neighbor has an explanation, he will put you to shame, and you will have nothing to say to defend yourself."

Proverbs 25:9

your case

"your disagreement"

do not reveal another's secret

"do not share your neighbor's secret with other people"

Proverbs 25:10

an evil report about you that cannot be silenced

Here "evil report" refers to harmful things that the person will tell others. The phrase "cannot be silenced" can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "you will not be able to stop him from telling other people harmful things about you" or "he will tell people evil things about you and you will never have a good reputation again"

Proverbs 25:11

Apples of gold in settings of silver is a word spoken in the right situation
The goodness of "a word spoken at the right time" is spoken of as if it were the physical beauty of "apples of gold in settings of silver." Most translations translate this metaphor as a simile and change the order of the phrases. Alternate translation: "A word spoken at the right time is beautiful like apples of gold in settings of silver"

Apples of gold in settings of silver

The ancient Israelites did not know the apples that most people know today. Possible meanings are 1) "apples" should be translated as "design." Alternate translation: "a golden design carved into a silver bowl" or 2) "apples" refers to another type of fruit with a golden color that someone has placed on a silver plate or bowl. Alternate translation: "Golden colored fruit placed in a silver bowl"

is a word spoken

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "is a message that someone speaks"

Proverbs 25:12

A gold ring or jewelry made of fine gold is a wise rebuke to a listening ear

The value and importance of "a wise rebuke" is spoken of as if it had the beauty and value of gold. Most translations translate this metaphor as a simile and change the order of the phrases. Alternate translation: "A wise rebuke to a listening ear is beautiful and valuable like a golden ring or golden jewelry" listening ear

The ear is a synecdoche for the whole person. Alternate translation: "person who is willing to listen"

Proverbs 25:13

Like the cold of snow at harvest time is a faithful messenger

Here a faithful messenger is being compared to the cold of snow, because both are pleasant.

the cold of snow

Snow only fell on the tops of mountains, and the harvest took place in hot weather, so this is probably a metaphor for cool, fresh water from a clean stream. If your language has no word for snow, consider "cool, fresh, clean water."

snow

white flakes of ice that fall from the sky like rain brings back the life of his masters

This means he makes his masters, who are weak and tired, to be strong and rested again.

Proverbs 25:14

Clouds and wind without rain is the one who boasts ... not give

Most translations translate this metaphor as a simile and change the order of the phrases. Rain was important to the Israelites because only small amounts of it fell, so a cloud without rain was useless and brought disappointment to the Israelites. Alternate translation: "The one who boasts ... not give is like clouds and wind without rain" or "The one who boasts ... not give is useless and a disappointment, like clouds and wind without rain"

Proverbs 25:15

With patience a ruler can be persuaded

These words can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "Someone who is patient can persuade a ruler" or "Someone who is patient can speak to a ruler and change his mind"

a soft tongue can break a bone

The word "tongue" is a metonym for the words the person speaks using the tongue. The word "bone" is a metaphor for strong opposition. Alternate translation: "gentle speech can overcome strong opposition"

Proverbs 25:16

General Information:

Verse 16 states a general principle, and verse 17 gives one specific example. The idea of eating too much honey and then vomiting it up is a metaphor for taking too much of any good thing and regretting it later.

Proverbs 25:17

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 25:18

A man who bears false witness against his neighbor is like a club used in war, or a sword, or a sharp arrow

A false witness is compared to three weapons that can hurt or kill people.

Proverbs 25:19

An unfaithful man in whom you trust in a time of trouble is like a bad tooth or a foot that slips

A foolish man is compared to a part of the body that causes trouble for a person. Alternate translation: "Trusting in an unfaithful man in time of trouble will bring you pain like a bad tooth or a foot that slips"

Proverbs 25:20

carbonate of soda

This is a kind of mineral that hisses and bubbles violently when it comes into contact with acids like vinegar. Many translations translate this phrase as "a wound."

sings songs

You may need to make explicit what kind of songs the singer sings. Alternate translation: "sings happy songs"

a heavy heart

The heart is a synecdoche for the whole person. Alternate translation: "a sad person"

Proverbs 25:21

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 25:22

shovel coals of fire on his head

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "cause him to have a guilty conscience and be ashamed of what he has done"

Proverbs 25:23

the north wind

In Israel, wind from the north often brought rain.

Translators are free to substitute different kinds of wind for the same effect, for example, "a cold wind."

a tongue that tells secrets

Some modern translations read "someone who tells secrets."

result in angry faces

The face is a synecdoche for the person. Alternate translation: "makes other people so angry you can see it in their faces"

Proverbs 25:24

a corner of the roof

Houses in those days had flat roofs. Ancient Israelites spent much time on their roofs, where it was often cooler than inside the house, and sometimes people would build a shelter large enough for a person to sleep in on one corner of the roof.

Chapter 26

a quarreling wife

a wife who often argues or complains

Proverbs 25:25

Like cold waters to one who is thirsty, so is good news from a far country

Cold water is compared to good news that is both refreshing and delightful.

Proverbs 25:26

Like a fouled spring or a ruined fountain is a righteous person tottering before wicked people

One expects a spring or fountain to have clear water, just as one expects a righteous man to stand for what he believes.

A polluted spring or fountain is compared to a righteous man who falls.

tottering before wicked people

Tottering is a metaphor for either 1) refusing to fight wicked people or 2) joining in their wickedness. Alternate translation: "who allows wicked people to do wickedness" or "who starts to do what wicked people do"

tottering

Swaying and about to fall down. This is a metaphor for being unable to continue to do good. Alternate translation:

"unable to stand"

before wicked people

Possible meanings are 1) "when wicked people attack him" or 2) "when wicked people urge him to do evil."

Proverbs 25:27

It is not good to eat too much honey; that is like searching for honor after honor.

Both wanting others to honor you and eating honey are good, but you can eat too much honey, and you can try too hard to have people honor you.

It is not good

This can be stated positively. Alternate translation: "It is a bad thing" that is like searching for honor after honor

"that is like always thinking about how others should honor you." The meaning of the original language is uncertain.

Some versions of the Bible translate this as "that is like speaking too many compliments to people."

Proverbs 25:28

A person without self-control is like a city breached and without walls.

Both a person without self-control and a city without walls are weak and vulnerable.

breached and without walls

"whose walls an army has knocked down and destroyed"

Chapter 26

¹ Like snow in summer or rain in harvest, so a fool does not deserve honor.

² As the sparrow flutters and the swallow darts when they fly,
so an undeserved curse does not alight.

³ A whip is for the horse, a bridle is for the donkey and a rod is for the back of fools.

⁴ Do not answer a fool according to his folly, or you will become like him.

⁵ Answer a fool and join in on his folly,
so he will not become wise in his own eyes.

⁶ Whoever sends a message by the hand of a fool cuts off his own feet and drinks violence.

⁷ Like the legs of a paralytic which hang down

is a proverb in the mouth of fools.

⁸ Like tying a stone in a sling is giving honor to a fool.

⁹ Like a thorn that goes into the hand of a drunkard
is a proverb in the mouth of fools.

¹⁰ Like an archer who wounds all those around him is one who hires a fool or hires anyone who passes by.

¹¹ As a dog returns to his own vomit,
so is a fool who repeats his folly.

¹² Do you see someone who is wise in his own eyes?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.

¹³ The lazy person says, "There is a lion on the road!
There is a lion between the open places!"

¹⁴ As the door turns on its hinges, so is the lazy person upon his bed.

¹⁵ The lazy person puts his hand into the dish and yet he has no strength to lift it up to his mouth.

¹⁶ The lazy person is wiser in his own eyes than seven men who respond with good judgment.

¹⁷ Like one who takes hold of the ears of a dog is a passerby who becomes angry at a dispute that is not his own.

¹⁸ Like a madman who throws firebrands, arrows, and death

¹⁹ is the one who deceives his neighbor and says, "Was I not telling a joke?"

²⁰ For lack of wood, the fire goes out;
and where there is no gossip, quarreling ceases.

²¹ As charcoal is to burning coals and wood is to fire, so is a quarrelsome person for kindling strife.

²² The words of a gossip are like delicious morsels;
they go down into the inner parts of the body.

²³ Like the glaze overlaying an earthen vessel,
so are burning lips and an evil heart.

²⁴ One who hates others disguises his feelings with his lips and he lays up deceit within himself.

²⁵ He will speak graciously, but do not believe him,
for there are seven abominations in his heart.

²⁶ Though his hatred is covered with deception,
his wickedness will be revealed in the assembly.

²⁷ Whoever digs a pit will fall into it and the stone will roll back on the one who pushed it.

²⁸ A lying tongue hates the people it crushes and a flattering mouth brings about ruin.

Proverbs 26 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 26 continues the second section of the book (Chapter 25-29) which is attributed to Solomon.

Special concepts in this chapter

Themes

There are individual proverbs that run along common themes, often including contrasting elements: wise/foolish, money, lazy/diligent, truth telling, wicked/righteous, sluggard, pride/humility, integrity/crookedness. Wisdom and folly are particularly prominent in this chapter.(See: wise, foolish and evil and righteous)

Links:

Proverbs 26:1 Notes

Proverbs 26:1

Like snow in summer or rain in harvest

Normally snow does not fall during the summer and rain does not fall during the harvest. This can be stated clearly.

Alternate translation: "Just as it would be very strange to have snow in summer or rain during the harvest"

Proverbs 26:2

so an undeserved curse does not alight

A curse that does not harm a person is spoken of as if it were a bird that does not land. Alternate translation: "so an undeserved curse does not land on its mark"

an undeserved curse

This can be stated with an active form. Alternate translation: "a curse on a person who does not deserve it" alight

land on someone or something

Proverbs 26:3

A whip is for the horse, a bridle is for the donkey and a rod is for the back of fools

A whip, a bridle, and a rod are things that people use to make the horse, donkey, and fool do what they want.

a bridle is for the donkey

A bridle is made of straps. People put it on a donkey's head and hold one of the straps to make the donkey go the way they want it to go.

a rod is for the back of fools

In the Bible, people would hit their children or their slaves with a wooden rod in order to discipline them.

Proverbs 26:4

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 26:5

Answer a fool and join in on his folly

Joining in on a fool's folly when answering him represents answering him in a foolish way. Alternate translation: "Answer a fool according to his folly" or "Answer a fool foolishly"

so he will not become wise in his own eyes

The eyes represent seeing, and seeing represents thoughts or judgment. Alternate translation: "so that he will not become wise according to his judgement" or "so that he does not consider himself to be wise"

Proverbs 26:6

Whoever sends a message by the hand of a fool

Here the hand represents the fool's responsibility to deliver the message. Alternate translation: "Whoever sends a fool to deliver a message"

cuts off his own feet

Cutting off one's own feet is an exaggeration for harming one's self. Alternate translation: "harms himself like a person who cuts off his own feet and drinks violence"

drinks violence

Violence is spoken of as if it were a poisonous liquid that someone might drink. Alternate translation: "harms himself by being violent"

Proverbs 26:7

Like the legs ... is a proverb in the mouth of fools

The phrases can be reordered. Alternate translation: "A proverb in the mouth of fools is like the legs of a paralytic which hang down" or "A proverb in the mouth of fools is as useless as the legs of a paralytic which hang down"

a paralytic

a person who is unable to move or feel all or part of his body

in the mouth of fools

Here "mouth" is a metonym for speaking. Alternate translation: "in the speech of fools" or "that fools say"

Proverbs 26:8

tying a stone in a sling

In order to throw a stone very far, people put it into a sling and swing the sling so that the stone will fly from it very quickly. The result of tying a stone in a sling can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "tying a stone in a sling so that it cannot be thrown"

giving honor to a fool

"honoring a fool"

Proverbs 26:9

Like a thorn ... is a proverb in the mouth of fools

How the two are alike can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "A proverb in the mouth of fools is as dangerous as a thorn that goes into the hand of a drunkard"

a thorn that goes into the hand of a drunkard

Possible meanings are 1) if a drunk person holds a thornbush, a thorn will prick his hand, or 2) if a drunk person is angry, he will pick up a thornbush and swing it at people. For the second meaning, the word "thorn" represents a thornbush.

in the mouth of fools

Here "mouth" is a metonym for speaking. Alternate translation: "in the speech of fools" or "that fools say"

Proverbs 26:10

hires a fool

"gives a job to a fool"

Proverbs 26:11

As a dog returns to his own vomit

"As a dog eats its own vomit"

Proverbs 26:12

Do you see someone who is wise in his own eyes?

This question is used to lead the reader to think about someone who is wise in his own eyes. The phrase "is wise in his own eyes" means "thinks he is wise," and here it implies that the person is not truly wise. Alternate translation: "Consider the person who thinks he is wise but is not."

There is more hope for a fool than for him

"A fool can become wise more easily than he can"

Proverbs 26:13

The lazy person says, "There is a lion ... between the open places!"

The lazy person lies and says that he cannot go outside and work because there is a lion on the road or between the open places.

There is a lion on the road

See how you translated this in Proverbs 22:13.

the open places

This refers to the places in town where there is a lot of room for people to walk around or where people gather.

Alternate translation: "the town plazas" or "the streets"

Proverbs 26:14

hinges

metal pieces that attach a door to something and allow it to open and close

As the door turns on its hinges, so is the lazy person upon his bed
Both the door and the lazy person move, but they do not go anywhere.

Proverbs 26:15

puts his hand into the dish

"puts his hand into the dish to get food" or "reaches for food"

he has no strength to lift it up to his mouth

This is an exaggeration for doing necessary work that would clearly do him good.

Proverbs 26:16

The lazy person is wiser in his own eyes than seven men

The phrase "his own eyes" represents his thoughts.

Alternate translation: "The lazy person thinks he is wiser than seven men"

Proverbs 26:17

Like one who takes hold of the ears of a dog is a passerby who becomes angry at a dispute that is not his own

This can be reordered. Alternate translation: "A passerby who becomes angry at some other people's dispute is like a person who grabs hold of a dog's ears"

Like one who takes hold of the ears of a dog

The implied information is that the dog will get angry and bite the person. Alternate translation: "Like a person who angers a dog by grabbing its ears" or "Like a person who grabs a dog's ears and is bitten by the dog"

is a passerby who becomes angry at a dispute that is not his own

The implied information is that the passerby will start arguing, and the people who were fighting will get angry with him and hurt him.

Proverbs 26:18

throws firebrands, arrows, and death

If your language cannot have "firebrands," "arrows," and "death" as objects of "throws," you may need to supply different verbs, or you may need to treat this as a hendiadys. Alternate translation: "throws firebrands, shoots arrows, and tries to kill people" or "shoots flaming arrows that can kill people" firebrands

burning pieces of wood

Proverbs 26:19

the one who deceives

Both the "madman" (Proverbs 26:18) and the one who deceives hurt people but do not take responsibility for it. Was I not telling a joke?

The deceiver uses this question to imply that since he his joke was only for fun, he should not be blamed for any harm he has caused. Alternate translation: "I did nothing wrong. I was only telling a joke."

Proverbs 26:20

gossiper

a person who gossips a lot

Proverbs 26:21

As charcoal is to burning coals and wood is to fire

What charcoal does to coals and what wood does to fire can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "As charcoal helps coals burn and as wood helps fire burn"

kindling strife

To kindle something means to set it on fire. Setting strife on fire is a metaphor for causing people to fight or argue.

Alternate translation: "causing people to fight" or "causing people to argue"

Proverbs 26:22

The words of a gossip are like delicious morsels

This speaks of gossip being desirable to listen to as if it were delicious food to eat. Alternate translation: "The words of a gossip are desirable to listen to" or

they go down into the inner parts of the body

This speaks of the words that a gossip says going into a person's mind and affecting his thoughts as if they were food that was going into his stomach. This sentence is equivalent to [Proverbs 18:8]

Proverbs 26:23

Like the glaze overlaying an earthen vessel, so are burning lips and an evil heart

This simile means that a person who says things to hide the evil in their heart are like a earthen vessel covered in glaze to make it look good. These phrases can be reordered.

Alternate translation: "People who have burning lips and an evil heart are like an earthen vessel covered with glaze" the glaze overlaying an earthen vessel

"the shiny glaze that covers a clay pot." A clay pot is cheap and common. So people covered it was a glaze to make it shiny and appear more expensive.

so are burning lips and an evil heart

This represents a person who has burning lips and an evil heart. Alternate translation: "so is a person who has burning lips and an evil heart" or "so is a person who says nice things but whose heart is evil"

burning lips

The word "burning" is a metaphor for "strongly emotional" and the word "lips" is a metonym for "speech." Alternate translation: "emotional speech" or "saying nice things"

an evil heart

The heart represents a person's thoughts, attitudes, desires, or feelings. Alternate translation: "evil thoughts" or "evil desires"

Proverbs 26:24

disguises his feelings with his lips

Disguising his feelings represents keeping people from knowing what his feelings are. The phrase "his lips" is a metonym for what he says. Alternate translation: "hides his feelings with what he says" or "speaks in such a way that people cannot know his true feelings"

he lays up deceit within himself

Being deceitful is spoken of as if he were storing deceit within himself. Possible meanings are that "deceit" refers to lies. Alternate translation: "he likes his many lies" or 2) deceit refers secret plans to harm people. Alternate translation: "he secretly plans to harm people"

Proverbs 26:25

but do not believe him

"but do not believe what he says"

for there are seven abominations in his heart

The number seven represents completeness. Possible meanings are 1) "abominations" refers to attitudes that God hates. Alternate translation: "for his heart is completely filled with hateful things" or 2) "abominations" refers to his hatred for people. Alternate translation: "for his heart is completely filled with hatred"

Proverbs 26:26

Though his hatred is covered with deception

This can be stated actively. Alternate translation: "Though deception covers his hatred" or "Though he covers his hatred with deception"

Though his hatred is covered with deception

Keeping people from knowing that he hates them is spoken of as covering his hatred. Alternate translation: "Though he lies to keep people from knowing that he hates them" or "Though he lies so that people will not know that he hates them"

his wickedness will be revealed in the assembly

Being exposed represents being discovered or becoming known. Alternate translation: "his wickedness will become known in the assembly" or "the assembly will discover his wickedness"

the assembly

"the community of Israel"

Proverbs 26:27

Whoever digs a pit will fall into it

It is implied that the person digs the pit as a trap so that someone will fall into it. Alternate translation: "Whoever digs a pit to trap someone will fall into it" or "If someone digs a pit in order to trap someone, the one who dug it will fall into it"

the stone will roll back on the one who pushed it

It is implied that the person pushed a large stone so that it would roll downhill and crush someone there. Alternate translation: "if someone pushed a stone so that it would roll downhill and crush someone, the stone will roll back on him instead" or "if someone maked a stone roll so that it would hurt someone, the stone will crush him instead"

Proverbs 26:28

A lying tongue hates the people it crushes

The phrase "a lying tongue" represents a person who tells lies. Crushing people represents causing them trouble. Alternate translation: "A liar hates those he hurts by his lies"

a flattering mouth brings about ruin

The phrase "a flattering mouth" represents a person who flatters people. Possible meanings are 1) a person who flatters others causes trouble or 2) a person who flatters others ruins them flattering

praising someone in a manner that is not sincere, or praising someone about things that are not true

Chapter 27

- ¹ Do not boast about tomorrow, for you do not know what a day may bring.
- ² Let someone else praise you and not your own mouth;
a stranger and not your own lips.
- ³ Consider the heaviness of a stone and the weight of sand—the provocation of a fool is heavier than both.
- ⁴ There is the cruelty of rage and the flood of anger, but who is able to stand before jealousy?
- ⁵ Better is a rebuke that is clearly seen than hidden love.
- ⁶ Faithful are the wounds caused by a friend,
but many are the kisses of an enemy.
- ⁷ A person who has eaten to the full rejects even a honeycomb,

but to the hungry person, every bitter thing is sweet.

⁸ Like a bird that wanders from its nest is a man who strays from where he lives.

⁹ Perfume and incense make the heart rejoice, but the sweetness of a friend comes from his sincere counsel. ¹

¹⁰ Do not abandon your friend and your friend's father, and do not go to your brother's house on the day of your calamity.
Better is a neighbor who is nearby than a brother who is far away.

¹¹ Be wise, my son, and make my heart rejoice;
then I will give back an answer to the one who mocks me.

¹² The prudent sees trouble and hides himself, but the naive go on and suffer for it.

¹³ Take a garment of one who has put up security for a stranger, and hold it in pledge when he puts up security for an immoral woman.

¹⁴ Whoever gives his neighbor a blessing with a loud voice early in the morning, that blessing will be considered to be a curse!

¹⁵ A quarreling wife is like the constant dripping on a rainy day;

¹⁶ restraining her is like restraining the wind, or trying to catch oil in your right hand.

¹⁷ Iron sharpens iron;
in the same way, a man sharpens his friend.

¹⁸ The one who tends a fig tree will eat its fruit, and the one who protects his master will be honored.

- ¹⁹ Just as water reflects a person's face,
so a person's heart reflects the person.
- ²⁰ Just as Sheol and Abaddon are never satisfied,
so a man's eyes are never satisfied.
- ²¹ A crucible is for silver and a furnace is for gold;
and a person is tested when he is praised.
- ²² Even if you crush a fool with the pestle—along with the grain—yet his foolishness will not leave him.
- ²³ Be sure you know the condition of your flocks and be concerned about your herds,
- ²⁴ for wealth is not forever.
Does a crown endure for all generations?
- ²⁵ You should know when the hay is gone and the new growth appears, and the time when the grass from the hills is gathered in.
- ²⁶ Those lambs will provide your clothing and the goats will provide the price of the field.
- ²⁷ There will be goats' milk for your food
—the food for your household—and nourishment for your servant girls.

¹Many modern translations have different interpretations of this difficult verse.

Proverbs 27 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 27 continues the second section of the book (Chapter 25-29) which is attributed to Solomon.

Special concepts in this chapter

Themes

There are individual proverbs that run along common themes, often including contrasting elements: wise/foolish, money, lazy/diligent, truth telling, wicked/righteous, sluggard, pride/humility, integrity/crookedness. (See: wise, foolish and evil and righteous)

Links:

Proverbs 27:1 Notes

Proverbs 27:1

Do not boast about tomorrow

This is a warning not to brag about what you expect to happen tomorrow. This can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "Do not speak proudly about your plans for tomorrow"

what a day may bring

Something happening on a certain day is spoken of as if the day were to bring that event. Alternate translation: "what will happen on a day" or "what will happen tomorrow"

Proverbs 27:2

and not your own mouth ... and not your own lips

Here a person is represented by his "mouth" and "lips" because those are the parts of the body used to speak. Alternate translation: "and do not let your own mouth praise you ... and do not let your own lips praise you" or "and do not praise yourself ... and do not praise yourself" a stranger

The words "let ... praise you" are understood from the first phrase. The words can be repeated here. Alternate translation: "let a stranger praise you" Proverbs 27:3

the provocation of a fool is heavier than both The difficulty of being patient with a fool who provokes you is spoken of as if that difficulty were heavy. Alternate translation: "the provocation of a fool is harder to tolerate than either of them" or "It is harder to be patient when a fool provokes you than it is to be patient while carrying them" the provocation of a fool "the trouble caused by a fool." "Provocation" means actions or words that cause anger or irritation. Proverbs 27:4

There is the cruelty of rage and the flood of anger, but who is able to stand before jealousy? The abstract nouns "rage", "anger" and "jealousy" can be translated as adjectives. Alternate translation: "A raging person is cruel and an angry person is overwhelming, but who can stand before a jealous person?" cruelty

"harshness" the flood of anger "the destructiveness of anger." Anger is spoken of here as if it were a powerful flood.

but who is able to stand before jealousy? This question implies that no one can stand before jealousy. It can be reworded as a statement. Alternate translation: "but no one is able to stand before jealousy" to stand before jealousy Here standing represents being strong and resisting being harmed by a jealous person who attacks. Alternate translation: "to resist a jealous person" or "to remain strong when a jealous person attacks him"

Proverbs 27:5 Better is a rebuke that is clearly seen The abstract noun "rebuke" can be expressed with the verb "rebuke." Alternate translation: "It is better to be openly rebuked" than hidden love "than love that is not openly shown." The abstract noun "love" can be translated as a verbal phrase. Alternate translation: "than to be loved secretly"

Proverbs 27:6 Faithful are the wounds caused by a friend "The wounds that a friend causes are trustworthy." The word "wounds" here represents the pain and sadness that a person feels when a friend rebukes or corrects him.

Faithful are the wounds caused by a friend The trustworthiness of a friend's rebuke is spoken of as if the sadness that his rebuke causes is trustworthy. Alternate translation: "Though it causes sadness, a friend's rebuke is trustworthy" but many are the kisses of an enemy It can be stated clearly that the enemy's kisses are not trustworthy. Alternate translation: "but the enemy's many kisses are not trustworthy" or "but an enemy may try to deceive you by kissing you many times" or Proverbs 27:7

A person who has eaten to the full "A person who is satisfied" or "A person who has eaten enough to be full"

rejects even a honeycomb A honeycomb would normally be desirable, but not to the person who has already eaten enough to be satisfied. every bitter thing is sweet "everything that is bitter tastes sweet"

Proverbs 27:8 Like a bird that wanders from its nest is a man who strays from where he lives

The words "wanders" and "strays" mean the same thing in this verse. Proverbs 27:9

Perfume The word "perfume" here means a desirable oil or ointment. make the heart rejoice Here "the heart" represents the feelings or emotions of a person. Alternate translation: "make a person feel joyful" or "make a person glad" the sweetness of a friend comes from his sincere counsel Possible meanings are 1) "sweetness" represents kindness. Alternate translation: "we recognize our friend's kindness by his counsel" or 2) "sweetness" represents what we appreciate about a person. Alternate translation: "what we appreciate about a friend is his advice"

Proverbs 27:10 your brother's house Here the word "brother" is a general reference to relatives, such as members of the same tribe, clan, or people group. calamity extreme troubles and misfortune

Proverbs 27:11 make my heart rejoice Here the "heart" represents the person's feelings or emotions. Alternate translation: "make me feel joyful" or "make me glad"

then I will give back an answer to the one who mocks me Here "answer" does not mean to answer a question. It means to respond or to reply to someone who is mocking. How this relates to the clause before it can be made clear. Alternate translation: "then I will reply to the one who mocks me by telling him about you"

mocks makes fun of someone, especially in a cruel way Proverbs 27:12

The prudent sees trouble and hides himself, but the naive go on and suffer for it. See how you translated a similar phrase in Proverbs 22:3. The prudent This nominal adjective refers to any prudent person. See how you translated "prudent" in [Proverbs 12:16]

the naive

This nominal adjective refers to any naive person. To be naive is to lack experience and to not be mature.

Proverbs 27:13

Take a garment of one who has put up security for a stranger

When lending money, a lender would take something from the borrower, such as a garment, as a guarantee of repayment. He would return it after the money was repaid. If the borrower was too poor, someone else could give something to the lender as a guarantee for him. See how you translated this in [Proverbs 20:16]

who has put up security

This means for someone to give something to a lender as a guarantee that what was borrowed will be paid. See how you translated this in [Proverbs 20:16]

hold it in pledge

To "hold something in pledge" means to hold on to something that someone has given as a pledge, or promise, that he will pay a debt. See how you translated this in [Proverbs 20:16]

Proverbs 27:14

Whoever gives his neighbor a blessing

"If anyone gives his neighbor a blessing"

that blessing will be considered to be a curse

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "the neighbor will consider that blessing to be a curse"

Proverbs 27:15

quarreling

This means making people angry with each other or causing strong disagreements between people.

the constant dripping

The implied information is that it is rain that is constantly dripping. Alternate translation: "the constant dripping of rain"

a rainy day

"a day of continual rain"

Proverbs 27:16

restraining her is like restraining the wind, or trying to catch oil in your right hand

The implied information is that it is as difficult or useless to try and restrain her as it is to try to restrain the wind or catch oil in your hand restraining her

"holding her back" or "keeping her under control." The implied information is that it is trying to stop her from quarreling. Alternate translation: "restraining her from quarreling" restraining the wind

"holding back the wind" or "keeping the wind under control"

Proverbs 27:17

Iron sharpens iron; in the same way, a man sharpens his friend.

These two phrases are comparing how iron and a man can be improved. Alternate translation: "As iron can sharpen another piece of iron, so a man's character is improved by contact with his friend"

Proverbs 27:18

who tends

"who takes care of"

the one who protects his master will be honored

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "a master will honor the one who protects him"

Proverbs 27:19

a person's heart

Here this means a person's thoughts. Alternate translation: "what a person thinks"

Proverbs 27:20

Abaddon

This is a name that means "destroyer." Alternate translation: "the Destroyer"

are never satisfied

"are never filled up"

a man's eyes

Here the "eyes" represent a man's desires. Alternate translation: "a man's desires"

Proverbs 27:21

A crucible is for silver and a furnace is for gold

This refers to how gold and silver are refined. A metal is refined by heating it to a high temperature so that it melts and the impurities may be removed. See how you translated the very similar phrase in [Proverbs 17:3]

crucible

a container used for heating substances to very high temperatures furnace

an oven that can be made extremely hot a person is tested when he is praised

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"when one praises a person, they are also testing that person"

Proverbs 27:22

Even if you crush a fool ... yet his foolishness will not leave him

This means that even if a fool is made to suffer hardship or pain

pestle

a hard tool with a rounded end, used for crushing things in a bowl

Proverbs 27:23

Be sure you know the condition of your flocks and be concerned about your herds

These two phrases have basically the same meaning and are used together for emphasis.

your flocks

"flocks of sheep"

your herds

"herds of goats"

Proverbs 27:24

Does a crown endure for all generations?

This question expects a negative answer to make the point that the reign of earthly rulers does not last forever. This can be expressed as a statement. Alternate translation: "A crown does not endure for all generations"

a crown

Here "crown" is a metonym for a king's rule over his kingdom. Alternate translation: "a king's rule"

Proverbs 27:25

the new growth appears

Chapter 28

"the new sprouts appear" or "the new grass starts to grow"
Proverbs 27:26

Connecting Statement:

Verses 26 and 27 go together with verses 23 to 25 as one proverb.

Those lambs will provide your clothing

The implied information is that the wool

the goats will provide the price of the field

The implied information is that the money received by selling the goats will be enough to buy a field. Alternate translation: "selling your goats will provide the price of the field"

Proverbs 27:27

nourishment for your servant girls

The implied information is that there will also be enough goats' milk to feed the servant girls. Alternate translation:

"there will be goat's milk to nourish your servant girls"

nourishment

"food"

Chapter 28

¹ The wicked people run away when no one chases them, but righteous people are as bold as a young lion.

² Because of the transgression of a land, it has many rulers, but with a man of understanding and knowledge, it will last a long time.

³ A poor person who oppresses other poor people is like a beating rain that leaves no food.

⁴ Those who abandon the law praise wicked people, but those who keep the law fight against them.

⁵ Evil men do not understand justice,
but those who seek Yahweh understand everything.

⁶ It is better for a poor person who walks in his integrity than for a rich person who is crooked in his ways.

⁷ He who keeps the law is a son who has understanding, but one who is a companion of gluttons shames his father.

⁸ The one who makes his fortune by usury and interest gathers his wealth for another who will be gracious to the poor.

⁹ If one turns away his ear from hearing the law,
even his prayer is an abomination.

¹⁰ Whoever misleads the upright into an evil way will fall into his own pit,

but the blameless will have a good inheritance.

¹¹ The rich person may be wise in his own eyes, but a poor person who has understanding will find him out.

¹² When the righteous triumph, there is great glory;
but when the wicked arise, people are sought out.

¹³ The one who hides his sins will not prosper, but the one who confesses them and abandons them will be shown mercy.

¹⁴ The one who always lives with reverence is blessed,
but whoever hardens his heart will fall into trouble.

¹⁵ Like a roaring lion or a charging bear is a wicked ruler over poor people.

¹⁶ The ruler who lacks understanding is a cruel oppressor, but the one who hates unjust gain will prolong his days.

¹⁷ If a man is burdened with a person's blood, he will be a fugitive until death and no one will help him.

¹⁸ Whoever walks with integrity will be kept safe, but the one whose way is crooked will suddenly fall.

¹⁹ The one who works his land will have plenty of food, but whoever follows worthless pursuits will have plenty of poverty.

²⁰ A faithful man will have great blessings, but the one who gets rich quickly will not go unpunished.

²¹ It is not good to show partiality,

but for a piece of bread a man will do wrong.

²² A stingy man hurries after riches, but he does not know that poverty will come upon him.

²³ Whoever disciplines someone, afterward will find more favor from him than from the one who flatters him with his tongue.

²⁴ Whoever robs his father and his mother and says, "That is no sin," he is the companion of the one who destroys.

²⁵ A greedy man stirs up conflict,
but the one who trusts in Yahweh will prosper.

²⁶ One who trusts in his own heart is a fool,
but whoever walks in wisdom will be delivered.

²⁷ The one who gives to the poor will lack nothing, but whoever closes his eyes to them will receive many curses.

²⁸ When the wicked arise, people hide themselves;
but when they perish, the righteous increase.

Proverbs 28 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 28 continues the second section of the book (Chapter 25-29) which is attributed to Solomon.

Special concepts in this chapter

Themes

There are individual proverbs that run along common themes, often including contrasting elements: wise/foolish, money, lazy/diligent, truth telling, wicked/righteous, sluggard, pride/humility, integrity/crookedness. (See: wise, foolish and evil and righteous)

Links:

Proverbs 28:1 Notes

Proverbs 28:1

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 28:2

Because of the transgression of a land

The abstract noun "transgression" can be translated as a verb. Alternate translation: "Because of how a land transgresses"

the transgression of a land

This is a metonym for the sins of the people living in a land.
Alternate translation: "the transgression of the people of a land"

with a man of understanding and knowledge

The implied information is that this man is a ruler or leader. The abstract nouns "understanding" and "knowledge" can be translated as verbs. Alternate translation: "with a man who understands and knows how to rule"

Proverbs 28:3

who oppresses

"who severely mistreats"

like a beating rain that leaves no food

The poor man who oppresses other poor people is compared to a rain that falls so hard that it leaves no crop to harvest.

beating rain

This is a metaphor for a rain coming down hard enough to cause crops to be driven down. Alternate translation:

"damaging rain"

Proverbs 28:4

abandon the law

"reject God's law" or "refuse to obey the law"

those who keep the law

To "keep the law" means to do what God's law requires.

Alternate translation: "those who obey God's law"

fight against them

"struggle against them." This means to strongly oppose or resist them.

Proverbs 28:5

Evil men

Here "men" means people in general. Alternate translation: "People who do evil things"

do not understand justice

The abstract noun "justice" can be expressed as an adjective. Alternate translation: "do not understand what is just"

those who seek Yahweh

Those who want to know Yahweh and please him are spoken of as if they are literally seeking to find Yahweh. understand everything

The implied information is that those who seek Yahweh understand all about justice. Alternate translation:

"completely understand what is just"

Proverbs 28:6

It is better for a poor person ... than for a rich person

"It is better to be a poor person ... than it is to be a rich person"

walks in his integrity

This represents a person living a life of integrity. The abstract noun "integrity" can be expressed as an adverb. Alternate translation: "walks honestly" or "lives honestly"

who is crooked in his ways

Rich people who are dishonest are spoken of as if they walk on crooked or twisted paths. Alternate translation: "who is not honest in what he does"

Proverbs 28:7

He who keeps the law

To "keep the law" means to do what God's law requires.

Alternate translation: "He who obeys God's law"

a son who has understanding

The abstract noun "understanding" can be expressed as a verb. Alternate translation: "a son who understands"

of gluttons

"of people who eat too much." A "glutton" is a person who often eats and drinks excessively.

shames his father

"puts his father to shame" or "dishonors his father"

Proverbs 28:8

makes his fortune

"increases his wealth"

usury and interest

"forcing people who have borrowed money from him to pay back more than they borrowed" interest

money that a borrower pays for the use of someone else's money gathers his wealth

"brings his wealth together"

for another

"for another person"

Proverbs 28:9

If one

"If a person"

turns away his ear from hearing the law

This represents the whole person turning away from and rejecting God's law. Alternate translation: "turns away from hearing and obeying the law"

even his prayer is an abomination

"even his prayer is offensive to God." This can be written in active form. Alternate translation: "God detests even his prayer"

abomination

See how you translated this in Proverbs 3:32.

Proverbs 28:10

Whoever misleads the upright into an evil way

This is a metaphor for leading upright people in an evil direction. Alternate translation: "Whoever causes the upright to go in an evil direction"

Whoever misleads ... evil way will fall

"If anyone misleads ... evil way, he will fall"

the upright

This refers to upright persons in general. This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "upright people" or "righteous people" or "honest people"

will fall into his own pit

"will fall into the trap that he has dug." This is a metaphor for ending up in the same bad place as others had been led toward. Alternate translation: "will end up in the same evil place toward which he guided other people"

the blameless

This refers to blameless persons in general. This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "blameless persons" will have a good inheritance

"will inherit what is good"

Proverbs 28:11

be wise in his own eyes

The eyes represent seeing, and seeing represents thoughts or judgment. Alternate translation: "be wise in his own thoughts" or "think he is wise"

who has understanding

The abstract noun "understanding" can be expressed as a verb. Alternate translation: "who understands"

will find him out

This is an idiom that means the poor person will be able to determine whether or not the rich person is really wise. Alternate translation: "will see his true nature" or "will see what he is truly like"

Proverbs 28:12

the righteous

This refers to righteous persons in general. This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "righteous people" triumph

"succeed"

when the wicked arise

This is an idiom that means when the wicked gain power or start to rule. Alternate translation: "when the wicked rise to power"

the wicked

This refers to wicked people in general. Alternate translation: "wicked people"

people are sought out

You may need to make explicit that those who "are sought out" have hidden themselves to escape from the wicked. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "they seek people out" or "they seek out the people who hide from them"

Proverbs 28:13

hides his sins

"covers his sins." This is the opposite of confessing and forsaking sins, and is spoken of as covering sins rather than bringing them into the open

will not prosper

"will not succeed" or "will not advance"

the one who confesses them and abandons them will be shown mercy

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "God will show mercy to the one who confesses and forsakes them"

Proverbs 28:14

The one who always lives with reverence is blessed

This can be expressed in active form. Alternate translation: "God will bless the one who always lives with reverence"

lives with reverence

The abstract noun "reverence" can be expressed as an adjective. Alternate translation: "lives a reverent life" reverence

This refers to deeply respecting Yahweh and showing that respect by obeying him.

whoever hardens his heart

"the one who hardens his heart"

hardens his heart

This is an idiom that means to be stubborn or unwilling to obey God. Alternate translation: "refuses to obey God" will fall into trouble

This represents ending up in misery and distress. Alternate translation: "will end up in trouble"

Proverbs 28:15

Like a roaring lion or a charging bear is a wicked ruler over poor people

Poor people who are helpless against an evil ruler are compared to people who have a lion roaring at them or a bear attacking them.

a charging bear

A bear is a large, furry, dangerous animal that walks on four legs and has sharp claws and teeth.

Proverbs 28:16

The ruler who lacks understanding

The abstract noun "understanding" can be translated as a verb. Alternate translation: "The ruler who does not understand"

oppressor

a person who treats people harshly and makes their lives very difficult

the one who hates unjust gain

The abstract noun "unjust gain" can be translated as a verb. Possible meanings are that this person 1) hates other people's unjust gain. Alternate translation: "the one who becomes angry when other people gain dishonestly" Or 2) he would never want to be dishonest. Alternate translation: "the one who hates gaining dishonestly"

the one

This phrase can refer to 1) the "ruler" or 2) any person.

prolong his days

Possible meanings are 1) this is an idiom that means his living for more time. Alternate translation: "live longer" or 2) this is an idiom that means extending the length of his reign. Alternate translation: "rule for a longer time"

Proverbs 28:17

is burdened with a person's blood

Here "blood" is a metonym for the murder or violent death of an innocent person in which blood is shed. Alternate translation: "is guilty because he has murdered someone" fugitive a person who is running away to avoid being captured until death

"until he dies." This means for the rest of his life. Alternate translation: "all of his life"

Proverbs 28:18

Whoever walks with integrity will be kept safe

This can be expressed in active form. Alternate translation: "God will keep safe anyone who walks with integrity"

Whoever

"Anyone who"

walks with integrity

This represents a person living a life of integrity. The abstract noun "integrity" can be expressed as an adverb. Alternate translation: "walks honestly" or "lives honestly" the one whose way is crooked

A dishonest person is spoken of as if he walks on crooked or twisted paths. Alternate translation: "the one who does not live honestly"

will suddenly fall

What will happen to a dishonest person is spoken of as if he suddenly fell down. Alternate translation: "will suddenly be ruined" or "will suddenly perish"

Proverbs 28:19

works his land

This means to till, sow, and care for his crops.

whoever follows

"anyone who follows"

follows worthless pursuits

"chases after worthless projects." The person who is busy doing things that do not produce anything is spoken of as chasing after useless things.

will have plenty of poverty

The person following worthless pursuits is spoken of as getting the opposite of plenty of food. The abstract noun "poverty" can be translated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "will be very poor"

Proverbs 28:20

the one who gets rich quickly will not go unpunished

The double negative "will not go unpunished" is used for emphasis. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "God will certainly punish the one who gets rich quickly"

the one who gets rich quickly

The implied information is that this person gains wealth by unfaithful or dishonest means. Alternate translation: "the one who tries to get rich quickly"

Proverbs 28:21

for a piece of bread a man will do wrong

"A piece of bread" here is an exaggeration for a very small bribe or reward. Alternate translation: "a man will sin for very little gain"

do wrong

"sin"

Proverbs 28:22

A stingy man

"A selfish man." This is a person who does not like to share his possessions or spend money.

hurries after riches

The stingy man is spoken of as if he was chasing after wealth. Alternate translation: "is greedy for riches" poverty will come upon him

The result of being stingy is spoken of as if poverty was overtaking the stingy person. The abstract noun "poverty" can be translated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "he will suddenly become poor"

Proverbs 28:23

Whoever disciplines someone, afterward will find more favor from him than from the one who flatters him with his tongue

This can be stated in active form, with the abstract noun "favor" being expressed as a verb. Alternate translation: "A person will favor the one who disciplines him more than he favors the person who flatters him with his tongue"

Whoever disciplines

"If a person disciplines" disciplines

trains people to obey a set of guidelines for moral behavior flatters him with his tongue

The tongue here represents speaking. Alternate translation: "flatters him with words" flatters

praises someone in a manner that is not sincere, or praises someone about things that are not true

Proverbs 28:24

Whoever robs

"The one who robs"

says, "That is no sin," he

This can be expressed as an indirect quotation. Alternate translation: "says that it is not a sin, he"

the companion of Possible meanings are: 1) "the friend of" or 2) an idiom that means having the same character as. Alternate translation: "the same kind of person as"

Proverbs 28:25

A greedy man

a person who selfishly wants more things, money or food than what he needs stirs up conflict

The action of the greedy man is spoken of as if he were stirring up or awakening conflict. Alternate translation: "causes conflict"

Proverbs 28:26

One who trusts in his own heart

Depending on one's self is spoken of as trusting in one's own heart. Alternate translation: "The person who relies on himself"

whoever walks

"any person who walks"

walks in wisdom

Possible meanings are 1) this is an idiom that means to live wisely. Alternate translation: "lives wisely" or 2) this is an idiom that means to follow the teachings of wise people.

Alternate translation: "follows wise teachings"

Proverbs 28:27

The one

"The person"

the poor

This refers to poor people in general. Alternate translation: "poor people"

lack nothing

This double negative is used for emphasis. Alternate translation: "have everything they need"

whoever closes his eyes to them will receive many curses

This can be stated in active form. Possible meanings are 1) they will receive many curses from the poor. Alternate translation: "the poor will give many curses to whoever closes his eyes to them" or 2) they will receive many curses from people in general. Alternate translation: "people will give many curses to whoever closes his eyes to the poor" or 3) they will receive many curses from God. Alternate translation: "God will give many curses to whoever closes his eyes to the poor"

whoever closes

"anyone who closes"

closes his eyes to

Closing the eyes represents not responding to the needs of the poor. Alternate translation: "ignores" or "chooses not to help"

Proverbs 28:28

When the wicked arise

This is an idiom that means when wicked people gain power or start to rule. Alternate translation: "When the wicked rise to power"

the wicked

This refers to wicked persons in general. This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "wicked people"

Chapter 29

people hide themselves

This is an exaggeration for doing everything they can to avoid having wicked people harm them. Alternate translation: "people go into hiding" perish

Possible meanings are 1) "go away" or 2) "fall from power" or 3) "are destroyed."

the righteous

This refers to righteous persons in general. This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "righteous people" increase

Possible meanings are 1) "multiply" or 2) "rise to power."

Chapter 29

¹ A person who has received many rebukes but who stiffens his neck will be broken in a moment beyond healing.

² When righteous people increase, the people rejoice, but when a wicked person is the ruler, the people sigh.

³ Whoever loves wisdom makes his father rejoice,
but he who keeps company with prostitutes destroys his wealth.

⁴ The king establishes the land by justice, but the one who demands bribes throws it down.

⁵ A man who flatters his neighbor is spreading a net for his feet.

⁶ In the sin of an evil person is a trap, but the righteous person sings and rejoices.

⁷ The righteous person knows the rights of the poor;
the wicked person does not understand such knowledge.

⁸ Mockers set a city on fire,
but those who are wise turn away wrath.

⁹ When a wise person has a legal dispute with a fool,
he rages and laughs, and there will be no rest.

¹⁰ Men of bloodshed hate the one who is blameless and seek the life of the upright.

¹¹ A fool brings forth all his spirit,
but a wise man soothes it back.

¹² If a ruler pays attention to lies,
all his officials will be wicked.

¹³ The poor person and the oppressor are similar,
for Yahweh gives light to the eyes of them both.

¹⁴ If a king judges the poor by the truth,
his throne will be established forever.

¹⁵ The rod and correction give wisdom, but a child freed from discipline puts his mother to shame.

¹⁶ When wicked people are in power, transgression increases, but righteous people will see the downfall of those wicked people.

¹⁷ Discipline your son and he will give you rest;
he will bring delight into your life.

¹⁸ Where there is no prophetic vision the people run wild, but the one who keeps the law is blessed.

¹⁹ A slave will not be corrected by words, for though he understands, there will be no response.

²⁰ Do you see a man who is hasty in his words?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.

²¹ One who pampers his slave from youth,
at the end of it there will be trouble.

²² An angry person stirs up strife and a master of rage commits many sins.

²³ A person's pride brings him low,
but one who has a humble spirit will be given honor.

²⁴ One who shares with a thief hates his own life;
he hears the curse and says nothing.

²⁵ The fear of man makes a snare,
but the one who trusts in Yahweh will be protected.

²⁶ Many are those who seek the face of the ruler, but from Yahweh is justice for a person.

²⁷ An unjust man is an abomination to righteous people, but the one whose way is upright is an abomination to the wicked person.

Proverbs 29 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 29 concludes the second section of the book (Chapter 25-29) which is attributed to Solomon.

Special concepts in this chapter

Themes

There are individual proverbs that run along common themes, often including contrasting elements: wise/foolish, money, lazy/diligent, truth telling, wicked/righteous, sluggard, pride/humility, integrity/crookedness. (See: wise, foolish and evil and righteous)

Links:

Proverbs 29:1 Notes

Proverbs 29:1

who stiffens his neck

A person becoming stubborn is spoken of as if he stiffens his neck. Alternate translation: "who becomes stubborn" or "who refuses to listen"

will be broken in a moment

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "God will suddenly break him" beyond healing

"and no one will be able to heal him." Sickness is a metaphor for any kind of bad situation. Alternate translation: "and no one will be able to help him"

Proverbs 29:2

the people sigh

The people let out long, loud breaths that show that they are weary and sad. Alternate translation: "the people will be weary and sad"

Proverbs 29:3

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 29:4

establishes the land

makes the land peaceful so the king can rule for a long time by justice

The abstract noun "justice" can be translated as a noun phrase. Alternate translation: "by doing what is just" or "by making just laws"

Proverbs 29:5

flatters his neighbor knowingly tells his neighbor things that are not true so that the neighbor will do what the speaker wants him to do spreading a net for his feet

The writer compares the flattery of a person to setting that person up to being caught in a trap. Alternate translation: "setting a trap to catch that person"

Proverbs 29:6

In the sin of an evil person is a trap

When an evil person sins, it is as if he is stepping into a trap. He desires to do evil to other people, but God will use what he does to punish him.

Proverbs 29:7

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 29:8

set a city on fire

Here the word "city" represents the people who live in the city. Mockers causing the people to experience turmoil and possibly to become violent is spoken of as if they set the city on fire. Alternate translation: "create turmoil for the people of a city"

turn away wrath

This idiom means to cause angry people no longer to be angry. Alternate translation: "calm the wrath of angry people"

Proverbs 29:9

has a legal dispute with a fool

A "legal dispute" is where two people or groups go to a judge so he can make a decision that the government will enforce. Alternate translation: "goes to court with a fool" or "sues a fool"

he rages and laughs

The fool becomes very angry and tries to keep the wise person from speaking or the court judge from judging. rages

This means to be loud and excited and to move with powerful movements like a strong storm. Alternate translation: "yells angrily"

there will be no rest

"they will not be able to settle the problem"

Proverbs 29:10

Men of bloodshed

"Bloodshed" here is a metonym for murder, and it describes "men." Alternate translation: "Murderous men" or "People who are happy when they commit murder"

seek the life of

This idiom means to "want to kill."

the upright

This refers to upright persons in general. This nominal adjective can be stated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "upright people" or "righteous people" or "honest people"

Proverbs 29:11

brings forth all his spirit

He has no self-control. He lets everyone know what he is thinking and feeling, especially when he is angry.

a wise man soothes it back

This line is not clear, but the idea is clearly that the wise man does the opposite of what the fool does: he quiets and holds back his anger and calms himself down so that he can control what he says and does.

Proverbs 29:12

pays attention

"listens." See how you translated this in Proverbs 17:4.

all his officials will be wicked

The actions of the ruler are spoken of by stating the result they will cause. Alternate translation: "it is as if he is teaching his officials to be wicked"

Proverbs 29:13

oppressor

a person who treats people harshly and makes their lives very difficult

Yahweh gives light to the eyes of them both

This idiom means "Yahweh makes both of them alive."

Proverbs 29:14

his throne

The throne is a metonym for the kingdom he rules from his throne. Alternate translation: "his kingdom"

Proverbs 29:15

The rod and correction give wisdom

The writer speaks as if a rod and correction were people who could give wisdom as a physical gift. Alternate translation: "If a parent uses the rod on his child and corrects him, the child will become wise" or "If parents discipline their child and tell him when he has done wrong, the child will learn to live wisely"

The rod

Parents in Israel used wooden rods as instruments to discipline children by striking them. Alternate translation: "discipline"

correction

When a person gives correction to another person, he tells that person that he does not approve of what that other person is doing and he expects the person to change his behavior.

Proverbs 29:16

transgression increases

The abstract noun "transgression" can be translated as a verb. Alternate translation: "more people will transgress and their sins will become worse"

the downfall of those wicked people

The abstract noun "downfall" can be translated with the verb "fall," which is a metaphor for losing the power to rule. Alternate translation: "those wicked people fall" or "those wicked people lose their power to rule"

Proverbs 29:17

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 29:18

the one who keeps the law is blessed

This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "God will bless the one who keeps the law"

Proverbs 29:19

A slave will not be corrected by words

This can be translated in active form. "You will not be able to correct a slave simply by talking to him"

Proverbs 29:20

Do you see a man who is hasty in his words?

The writer is using a question to get the reader's attention. Alternate translation: "You should notice what happens to a man who is hasty in his words."

Proverbs 29:21

who pampers his slave

"who allows his slave to avoid work and who treats his slave better than he treats other slaves"

at the end of it
 "at the end of the slave's youth" or "when the slave is grown"
 there will be trouble
 These words translate a Hebrew word whose meaning no one knows for sure. Some understand it to mean that the slave will be weak, others that the slave will rule the household.
 Proverbs 29:22
 stirs up strife
 Causing people to argue more is spoken of as if it were stirring up or awakening arguments. The abstract noun "strife" can be stated as "argue." See how you translated similar words in [Proverbs 15:18]
 a master of rage
 This idiom means "a person who becomes angry easily."
 Proverbs 29:23
 one who has a humble spirit will be given honor
 This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "men will give honor to a person who has a humble spirit" or "a person who has a humble spirit will receive honor from men" or "Yahweh will cause men to honor a person who has a humble spirit"
 Proverbs 29:24
 hates his own life
 "becomes his own enemy"
 he hears the curse and says nothing Possible meanings are 1) people have put the "one who shares with a thief" under oath to tell the truth about what he knows about what the thief stole, and he knows he will be punished if he tells the truth. Alternate translation: "he does not dare to testify under oath" or 2) people do not know who the thief is but they call on God to curse the thief, and the "one who shares" is afraid to confess and so come out from under the curse because he is afraid of the thief. Alternate translation: "he says nothing even after people have cursed him"

 Proverbs 29:25
 The fear of man makes a snare
 Being afraid of what other people might do is spoken of as stepping into a trap. Alternate translation: "Anyone who is afraid of what other people might do to him is like a person who has become snared in a trap" a snare
 a trap that catches animals with ropes
 the one who trusts in Yahweh will be protected
 This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "Yahweh will protect the one who trusts in him"
 Proverbs 29:26
 Many are those who seek the face of the ruler
 The word "face" is a metonym for the ruler listening to people telling him what they want him to do and then doing it. Alternate translation: "Many people want their ruler to pay attention to them" from Yahweh is justice for a person
 It is Yahweh, not human rulers, who will see that people treat a person justly. The abstract noun "justice" can be stated as "just." Alternate translation: "it is Yahweh who is truly just towards a person"
 Proverbs 29:27
 an abomination
 a person whom others should hate. See how you translated this in Proverbs 3:32.

Chapter 30

- ¹The words of Agur son of Jakeh—the burden.
 This man declares to Ithiel, to Ithiel and Ucal: ¹
- ² Surely I am more like an animal than any human, and I do not have the understanding of a human being.
- ³ I have not learned wisdom,
 nor do I have knowledge of the Holy One.
- ⁴ Who has gone up to heaven and come down?
 Who has gathered up the wind in the hollow of his hands?
 Who has wrapped up the waters in a cloak?
 Who has established all the ends of the earth?
 What is his name, and what is the name of his son?
 Surely you know!
- ⁵ Every word of God is tested;
 he is a shield to those who take refuge in him.
- ⁶ Do not add to his words,
 or he will discipline you,

and you will be proved to be a liar.

⁷ Two things I ask of you;
do not withhold them from me before I die:

⁸ Put vanity and lies far away from me.
Give me neither poverty nor riches,
just let me eat the food that is my portion.

⁹ For if I have too much, I might deny you and say, "Who is Yahweh?"
Or if I become poor, I might steal and profane the name of my God.

¹⁰ Do not slander a slave before his master, or he will curse you and you will be held guilty.

¹¹ There is a generation that curses their father and does not bless their mother.

¹² There is a generation that is pure in their own eyes, and yet they are not washed of their filth.

¹³ There is a generation whose eyes are raised up,
and how high are their eyelids lifted up!

¹⁴ There is a generation whose teeth are swords and whose jawbones are knives, so they may devour the poor from the earth and the needy from among humanity.

¹⁵ The leech has two daughters:
"Give and give," they cry.

There are three things that are never satisfied,
four that never say, "Enough":

¹⁶ Sheol; the barren womb;
land that is never satisfied with water;
and the fire that never says, "Enough!"

¹⁷ The eye that mocks a father and scorns obedience to a mother will be pecked out by the ravens of the valley and will be eaten by the vultures.

¹⁸ There are three things that are too wonderful for me, four that I do not understand:

¹⁹ the way of an eagle in the sky;
the way of a snake on a rock;
the way of a ship in the heart of the sea;
and the way of a man with a young woman.

²⁰ This is the way of an adulteress:
she eats and she wipes her mouth
and says, "I have not behaved wickedly."

²¹ Under three things the earth trembles, and under four it cannot bear up:

²² a slave when he becomes king;
a fool when he is filled with food;

²³ a hated woman when she marries;
and a slave girl when she takes the place of her mistress.

²⁴ Four things on earth are small and yet they are very wise:

²⁵ the ants are creatures that are not strong,
but they prepare their food in the summer;

²⁶ the rock badgers are not mighty creatures, but they make their homes in the rocks.

²⁷ Locusts have no king,
but all of them march in rank.

²⁸ As for the lizard, you can hold it in your two hands, yet it is found in kings' palaces.

²⁹ There are three things that are stately in their stride and four that are stately in how they walk:

³⁰ a lion, strongest among wild animals—
it does not turn away from anything;

³¹ a strutting rooster; a goat;
and a king whose soldiers are beside him.

³² If you have been foolish, exalting yourself, or if you have been devising evil—
put your hand over your mouth.

³³ As churning milk makes butter and as one's nose will produce blood if it is twisted, so deeds done in anger produce conflict.

¹The second line of some ancient Greek translations of the ancient Hebrew reads This man declares: I am weary. I am weary and helpless. They appear to have translated the Hebrew names Ithiel and Ucal into the Greek as weary and helpless .

Proverbs 30 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 30 is a chapter in Proverbs attributed to Agur, who is a person otherwise unknown.

Special concepts in this chapter

Agur

His full title is Agur, Son of Jakeh. Agur comes from a Hebrew word that means "gatherer" and so some scholars believe this is not a real name, but possibly a way of referring to Solomon as a gatherer of proverbs. However, it is still prudent to simply use this as a name.

Three things and four

From verses 15 through 32, the author uses a specific technique to explain some things. He says there are three things and even four and lists items that exemplify a feature like "small and yet wise." The numbering is not meant to be so literal, but as a memory device that introduces the items. (See: wise)

Themes

The sayings of Agur address several themes including the wisdom of God compared to human wisdom (30:1-6), wicked people (30:11-14), things that are never satisfied (30:15-16), things too amazing for Agur to understand (30:18-19), things that are small but wise (30:24-28), and things that walk in a strong and proud way (30:29-31).

Links:

Proverbs 30:1 Notes

Proverbs 30:1

Agur ... Jakeh ... Ithiel ... Ucal

These are the names of men.

Agur son of Jakeh

This is the literal son of Jakeh, not a grandchild.

the burden

This is a metaphor for a message that is very important because it comes from God. Alternate translation: "the important message" to Ithiel, to Ithiel and Ucal

"to Ithiel—that is, to Ithiel and Ucal"

Proverbs 30:2

Surely

"Certainly" or "There is no doubt that"

I do not have the understanding of a human being

The abstract noun "understanding" can be translated as a verb. Alternate translation: "I do not understand anything the way human beings are supposed to understand them"

Proverbs 30:3

nor do I have knowledge of the Holy One

The abstract noun "knowledge" can be translated as a verb. Alternate translation: "nor do I really know anything about the Holy One"

Proverbs 30:4

Who has ... down? Who has ... hands? Who has ... cloak? Who has ... earth?

The writer asks these questions to get the reader thinking about how much greater Yahweh is than people. Alternate translation: "No person has ever ... down. No person has ever ... hands. No person has ever ... cloak. No person has ever ... earth." or "Who has ... down? Who has ... hands? Who has ... cloak? Who has ... earth? No one has ever done any of these things."

heaven

where God lives

gathered up the wind in the hollow of his hands

The writer speaks of the wind as if it were something that a person could catch and hold in his hand. Alternate translation: "has caught the wind in his hands"

the hollow of his hands

the way his hands are shaped when he is scooping up, for example, water or sand. "his cupped hands" gathered up

brought small scattered objects into a pile so they can be lifted has established all the ends of the earth

"has set up the limits for where the earth ends" or "has marked the boundaries for the ends of the earth"

What is his name, and what is the name of his son?

The writer uses these questions to command the reader to give an answer. Alternate translation: "Tell me his name and the name of his son, if you know them."

Surely you know!

The writer uses irony to show that neither he nor the reader know any person who can do what the "who" in the earlier questions can do. Alternate translation: "I do not think you really know anyone who can do those things."

Proverbs 30:5

is tested

Words are spoken of as if they were metals that need someone to clean the bad parts out of them. Alternate translation: "is like a precious metal from which someone has removed all the useless material"

he is a shield to those who take refuge in him

The word "shield" is a metaphor for something that protects a person. Alternate translation: "he protects those who come and ask him to protect them"

Proverbs 30:6

add to his words

say more than he has said

you will be proved to be

This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "he will prove that you are"

Proverbs 30:7

General Information:

Many translations understand this to be the beginning of a prayer.

of you

"of you, Yahweh"

Proverbs 30:8

Put vanity and lies far away from me

Possible meanings are 1) "Do not allow people to speak vanity and lies to me" or 2) "Do not allow me to speak vanity and lies"

vanity

false, useless words

Give me neither poverty nor riches

The writer speaks as if "poverty" and "riches" were physical objects that someone could give to another. They are also abstract nouns that can be stated as "poor" and "rich."

Alternate translation: "Do not allow me to be either very poor or very rich"

the food that is my portion

"the food that is properly mine" or "the food that you, Yahweh, have assigned to me"

Proverbs 30:9

if I have too much, I might deny you and say

This describes a situation that has not happened but is possible if the writer becomes rich.

if I become poor, I might steal and profane

This describes a situation that has not happened but is possible if the writer becomes poor.

I might steal and profane the name of my God

"I might steal things and that would cause people to think badly about God" or "I might harm God's reputation by stealing"

Proverbs 30:10

slander

speak falsely about another person with the desire to harm him

he will curse

"the servant will curse"

you will be held guilty

This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "people will hold you guilty"

Proverbs 30:11

There is a generation that curses

"Some people curse" or "Stay away from people who curse" a generation that curses ... and does not bless

"a generation of people who curse ... and do not bless"

Proverbs 30:12

There is a generation that is

"Some people are" or "Stay away from people who are." See how you translated similar words in Proverbs 30:11.

is pure in their own eyes

The eyes represent seeing, and seeing represents thoughts or judgment. Alternate translation: "considers themselves pure" or "believes they are pure"

they are not washed of their filth

The words "washed" and "filth" speak of God forgiving people who sin as if he were washing physical filth off of the people. This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "God has not forgiven them of their sins" filth

This should be translated with a polite term that includes human or animal vomit and waste.

Proverbs 30:13

There is a generation whose eyes

"Some people's eyes are" or "Stay away from people whose eyes are." See how you translated similar words in Proverbs 30:11.

eyes are raised up ... their eyelids lifted up

This describes people who think that they are better than other people. Their eyes show that they are proud, and the way they look at others shows that they think they are better than those other people.

Proverbs 30:14

There is a generation whose teeth are swords and whose jawbones are knives, so they may devour the poor ... and the needy

This is a metaphor for being cruel and treating poor and needy people cruelly, like an animal with sharp teeth that tears apart other animals and eats them. The sharp teeth may be a metaphor specifically for cruel words. Devouring the poor and needy may be specifically about taking poor people's possessions, leaving them even poorer.

There is a generation whose teeth

"Some people's teeth" or "Stay away from people whose teeth." See how you translated similar words in Proverbs 30:11.

jawbones

the bones of the face where teeth grow

Proverbs 30:15

The leech has two daughters

This is an example of something that always wants more. Alternate translation: "Greed has two daughters" leech

a type of worm that attaches itself to the skin and sucks blood

"Give and give" they cry

Another possible meaning is "and they are both named Give Me."

There are three things that are never satisfied, four that never say, "Enough"

This use of the numbers "three" and "four" together here is likely a poetic device. Alternate translation: "There are four things that are never satisfied, who never say, 'Enough'"

are never satisfied

This can be stated positively. Alternate translation: "always want more"

Proverbs 30:16

land that is never satisfied with water

Land that is no longer producing food because there has been no rain is spoken of as if it were a person who does not have enough water to drink.

Proverbs 30:17

The eye that mocks ... mother will be pecked out by the ravens of the valley and will be eaten by the vultures

The eye is a synecdoche for the whole person. The writer is saying that a person who mocks his parents will die alone in a wilderness and not be buried, a metaphor for dying with no friends or family to care. This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "The ravens of the valley will peck out the eyes of the person who mocks ... mother, and the vultures will eat them" or "A person who mocks ... mother will die alone, and no one will mourn their death"

scorns obedience to a mother

The word "obedience" is a metonym for the mother herself. It is also an abstract noun that can be stated as "obey."

Alternate translation: "considers his mother worthless and will not obey her"

ravens

large, shiny, black birds that eat plants and dead animals vultures

any one of several large birds that eat dead animals and have small, featherless heads

Proverbs 30:18

There are three things that are ... four that I do not understand:

The use of the numbers "three" and "four" here is likely a poetic device. Alternate translation: "There are some things that are too wonderful for me that I do not understand—four of them are:"

Proverbs 30:19

in the heart of the sea

The "heart" refers to the middle. Alternate translation: "in the middle of the sea" or "on the open sea"

Proverbs 30:20

she eats and she wipes her mouth

This seems to be both a euphemism and a metaphor for committing adultery and then taking a bath.

Proverbs 30:21

Under three things the earth trembles, and under four it cannot bear up

The use of the numbers "three" and "four" here is likely a poetic device. "There are some things that make the earth tremble, that it cannot endure. Four of these are:"

Proverbs 30:22

a fool when he is filled with food

This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "a fool who has had enough to eat"

Proverbs 30:23

a hated woman when she marries

That is, people rightly hated her before she married; once she marries, she will be worse than she was before she married. This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "a woman whom good people have hated when she marries" or "an outcast woman when she marries"

takes the place of her mistress

Possible meanings are 1) the slave girl is able to rule over the wife and children or 2) the man loves the slave girl more than he loves his wife.

mistress

This is the female form of "master," so it refers to the wife of the man of the house.

Proverbs 30:24

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 30:25

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 30:26

rock badgers

an animal with small, rounded ears, short legs, and no tail

Proverbs 30:27

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 30:28

lizard

a small reptile that has four legs, a long, slender body, and a tail

Proverbs 30:29

There are three things that are ... four that are stately in how they walk

The use of the numbers "three" and "four" here is likely a poetic device. Alternate translation: "There are some things that walk stately. Four of these are"

stately majestic or dignified, like a king

Proverbs 30:30

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 30:31

strutting rooster

an adult male chicken that walks proudly

Proverbs 30:32

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 30:33

churning

strongly stirring butter

Animal milk that someone has stirred and made thick.

Chapter 31

¹The words of King Lemuel—a burden his mother taught him.

² What, my son? What is it, son of my womb?
What do you want, son of my vows?

- ³ Do not give your strength to women,
or your ways to those who destroy kings.
- ⁴ It is not for kings, Lemuel,
it is not for kings to drink wine,
or for rulers to crave strong drink,
- ⁵ because when they drink they forget what has been decreed,
and pervert the rights of all the afflicted.
- ⁶ Give strong drink to a person who is perishing and wine to those in bitter distress.
- ⁷ He will drink and he will forget his poverty and he will not remember his trouble.
- ⁸ Speak for those who cannot speak,
for the causes of all who are perishing.
- ⁹ Speak out and judge by the measure of what is right and plead the cause of poor and needy people.
- ¹⁰ Who can find a capable wife?
Her value is far more than jewels.
- ¹¹ The heart of her husband trusts in her,
and he will never be poor.
- ¹² She does good things for him and not evil
all the days of her life.
- ¹³ She searches for wool and flax and works with the delight of her hands.
- ¹⁴ She is like the merchant ships;
she brings her food from far away.
- ¹⁵ She rises while it is night and gives food to her household, and she distributes portions to her female servants.
- ¹⁶ She considers a field and buys it;
with the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard.
- ¹⁷ She girds herself with strength and makes her arms strong.
- ¹⁸ She knows what will make a good profit for her;
all night long her lamp is not extinguished.
- ¹⁹ She puts her hands on the spindle, and her hands grasp the twisting thread.

- ²⁰ She reaches out with her hand to poor people;
she reaches out with her hands to needy people.
- ²¹ She is not afraid of the snow for her household, for all her household are clothed in scarlet.
- ²² She makes coverings for her bed,
and she wears clothes of fine purple linen.
- ²³ Her husband is known at the gates,
when he sits with the elders of the land.
- ²⁴ She makes linen garments and sells them,
and she supplies sashes to the merchants.
- ²⁵ She is clothed with strength and honor,
and she laughs at the future.
- ²⁶ She opens her mouth with wisdom and the law of kindness is on her tongue.
- ²⁷ She watches over the ways of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness.
- ²⁸ Her children rise up and call her blessed,
and her husband praises her, saying,
- ²⁹ "Many women have done well, but you surpassed them all."
- ³⁰ Elegance is deceptive, beauty is vain,
but a woman who fears Yahweh, she will be praised.
- ³¹ Give her the fruit of her hands and let her works praise her in the gates.

Proverbs 31 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Chapter 31 begins with 9 verses from King Lemuel. The last portion of this chapter is a poem about a godly wife. (See: godly)

King Lemuel

This person is unknown in Scripture, other than here. It is important to recognize that the words in this chapter are words of his mother addressed to him. They are formed like advice of a mother to her son.

Special concepts in this chapter

An acrostic poem

Verse 10 through 31 is tightly formed as a poem in the original language. There are 22 lines in the Hebrew language that each begin with a successive letter of the alphabet. However, each language will have a different set of letters. Therefore, it is important to realize this was a single composition with a single theme of a noble or godly wife.

Themes

King Lemuel advice to his son addresses themes of avoiding drinks with alcohol and of being fair and righteous (31:1-9). The final section about the godly wife addresses several themes, including the great value of a godly wife (30:10-12), her hard work (31:13-19), her generosity (31:20), her care for her family (31:21-23), and her dignity, wisdom, and fear of the Lord (31:25-31).

Links:

Proverbs 31:1 Notes

Proverbs 31:1

a burden

This phrase is a metaphor for an important message.

Alternate translation: "an important message"

Proverbs 31:2

What, my son? What is it, son of my womb? What do you want, son of my vows?

Possible meanings of the rhetorical question "What" are 1) "What are you doing?" or "You should not be doing what you are doing" or 2) "What shall I tell you?" or "Listen to what I am telling you" or 3) "Do not do the things I am about to warn you against."

my son ... son of my womb ... son of my vows

The speaker wants the hearer to notice carefully and to respect the one who is talking to him.

son of my womb

The womb is a synecdoche for the person. It is best to use a polite term for the body part in which babies grow before they are born.

son of my vows

The "vows" could be 1) the mother's marriage vows or 2) a vow after she married that if God allowed her to have a child she would dedicate him to God.

Proverbs 31:3

Do not give your strength to women

"Do not work hard trying to have sex with women," either outside of marriage or with concubines.

or your ways to those who destroy kings

"or allow those who destroy kings to advise you"

your ways

Possible meanings are 1) "the way you live your life" or 2) "the work you do"

those who destroy kings probably the immoral "women" to whom he is not to give his strength

Proverbs 31:4

Lemuel

This is the name of a man. See how you translated this in Proverbs 31:1.

Proverbs 31:5

what has been decreed

This can be translated in active form. Possible meanings are 1) "what God has decreed" or 2) "what the kings themselves have decreed" pervert the rights of all the afflicted

"deny afflicted people their legal rights" pervert

exchange good for evil

all the afflicted

"all those people whom others wrongfully harm"

Proverbs 31:6

and wine

The ellipsis can be filled in. Alternate translation: "and give wine"

in bitter distress

"who's souls are bitter" or "who are in misery"

Proverbs 31:7

his poverty

The abstract noun "poverty" can be translated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "how poor he is"

his trouble

The abstract noun "trouble" can be translated as a clause.

Alternate translation: "the bad things that are happening to him"

Proverbs 31:8

Speak for those who cannot speak

Speaking is a metonym for using words to defend innocent people. Alternate translation: "Defend those who cannot defend themselves"

for the causes of all who are perishing

The cause represents the person whose cause it is.

Alternate translation: "so that people will treat all who are perishing justly"

for the causes

The ellipsis can be filled in. Alternate translation: "speak for the causes" or "speak out for"

Proverbs 31:9

poor and needy people

These two words have basically the same meaning and are used together for emphasis. Alternate translation: "people who are poor and cannot get the things that they need"

Proverbs 31:10

Who can find a capable wife?

The writer asks a question to show that he is beginning a new section. Alternate translation: "Not many men can find a capable wife." or "Not many men can find a wife who is able to do many things well."

Her value is far more than jewels

"She is more precious than jewels"

Proverbs 31:11

he will never be poor

This litotes can be stated positively. Alternate translation: "he will always have what he needs"

Proverbs 31:12

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Proverbs 31:13

wool

sheep's hair that is used to make cloth flax

a plant whose fiber is used to make linen with the delight of her hands

Possible meanings are that the word "delight" describes 1) how she feels as she works, "gladly with her hands," or 2) how she feels about the wool and flax, "with her hands on things that she enjoys working with"

Proverbs 31:14

merchant

someone who buys and sells

Proverbs 31:15

distributes portions to her female servants

Possible meanings are 1) "gives the right amount of food to her female servants" or 2) "tells her female servants what work each of them is to do that day."

Proverbs 31:16

the fruit of her hands

The money she has earned from the work she did with wool and flax

Proverbs 31:17

She girds herself with strength

Putting on clothes is a metonym for preparing for work.
Alternate translation: "She prepares herself for hard physical work"

makes her arms strong

"she strengthens her arms by doing her work"

Proverbs 31:18

all night long her lamp is not extinguished

This is probably an exaggeration: she works late into the night, but not from dusk to dawn. Alternate translation: "She burns a lamp through the night as she works"

Proverbs 31:19

spindle

a thin rod or stick with pointed ends that is used in making thread

Proverbs 31:20

reaches out with her hand to poor

The hand is a metonym for the help the woman uses her hand to give. Alternate translation: "helps poor" reaches out with her hands to These words translate the same words translated "puts her hands on" in Proverbs 31:19.

Proverbs 31:21

are clothed in scarlet

Here "scarlet" does not refer to the color of the cloth, but that the clothing is expensive and warm. Alternate translation: "have expensive, warm clothing" scarlet

The color red, but with a hint of orange.

Proverbs 31:22

linen

cloth made of flax yarn

Proverbs 31:23

Her husband is known

This can be translated in active form. The verb "know" is a metonym for respect. Alternate translation: "People respect her husband"

when he sits with the elders of the land
to make laws and settle arguments

Proverbs 31:24

linen

cloth made from flax yarn sashes

long pieces of cloth worn around the waist or over one shoulder

Proverbs 31:25

She is clothed with strength and honor

Having strength and honor is spoken of as if the woman were wearing them. This can be translated in active form. The abstract nouns "strength" and "honor" can be translated by an adjective and a verb, respectively. Alternate translation: "Everyone can see that she is strong, and so they honor her"

laughs at the future

This is probably an exaggeration to show that she is not afraid. Alternate translation: "is not afraid of what will happen in the future"

Proverbs 31:26

opens her mouth with wisdom

The act of opening her mouth is a metonym for speaking. The abstract noun "wisdom" can be translated as an adverb or an adjective. Alternate translation: "she speaks wisely" or "she speaks wise words"

the law of kindness is on her tongue

The phrase "on her tongue" refers to her speaking, as the tongue is part of the mouth. The phrase "the law of kindness" refers to her teaching people to be kind.

Alternate translation: "she teaches people to be kind"

Proverbs 31:27

watches over the ways of her household

The word "ways" refers to the way people live. Alternate translation: "makes sure her whole family lives in a way that pleases God" does not eat the bread of idleness

To "eat the bread of" something means to do something.

Alternate translation: "she is not idle" idleness

doing nothing and being lazy

Proverbs 31:28

rise up and

Possible meanings are 1) literally "stand up and" or 2) as a metonym, "actively."

call her blessed saying that good things have happened to her because she has done good things. This can be translated as a direct quote. Alternate translation: "congratulate her" or "say, 'Yay, Mom!'"

Proverbs 31:29

you surpassed

"you have done better than"

Proverbs 31:30

Elegance is deceptive

The abstract noun "elegance" can be translated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "A gracious woman can deceive people" or "A woman with good manners could really be evil" See how you translated this in [Proverbs 11:16]

beauty is vain

The abstract noun "beauty" can be translated as an adjective. Alternate translation: "a woman who is beautiful now will not always be beautiful"

she will be praised

This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "people will praise her"

Proverbs 31:31

the fruit of her hands

The money she has earned from the work she did with wool and flax

let her works praise her in the gates

She will be praised for her works, not by her works. Those "in the gates" are the important people of the city who conduct business and legal affairs near the gates of the city. Alternate translation: "may the important people of the city praise her because of the works she has done"

Ecclesiastes

Chapter 1

¹These are the words of the Teacher, the descendant of David and king in Jerusalem.

² "Meaningless! Meaningless! says the Teacher.
"Absolutely meaningless!
Everything is meaningless!"

³ What profit does a man gain from all the work that he labors at under the sun?

⁴ One generation goes, and another generation comes,
but the earth remains forever.

⁵ The sun rises, and it goes down and hurries back to the place where it rises again.

⁶ The wind blows south and circles around to the north, always going around along its pathway and coming back again.

⁷ All the rivers flow into the sea,
but the sea is never full.
To the place where the rivers go,
there they go again.

⁸ Everything becomes wearisome, and no one can explain it.
The eye is not satisfied by what it sees,
nor is the ear fulfilled by what it hears.

⁹ Whatever has been is what will be,
and whatever has been done is what will be done.
There is nothing new under the sun.

¹⁰ Is there anything about which it may be said,
'Look, this is new'?
Whatever exists has already existed for a long time, during ages which came long before us.

¹¹ No one seems to remember the things that happened in ancient times, and the things that happened much later and that will happen in the future will not likely be remembered either."

¹²I am the Teacher, and I have been king over Israel in Jerusalem. ¹³I applied my mind to study and to search out by wisdom everything that is done under heaven. That search is a burdensome task that God has given to the children of mankind to be busy with. ¹⁴I have seen all the deeds that are done under the sun, and look, they all are meaningless and chasing the wind.

¹⁵ The twisted cannot be straightened!
The missing cannot be counted!

¹⁶I have spoken to my heart, saying, "Look, I have acquired greater wisdom than all who were before me in Jerusalem. My mind has seen great wisdom and knowledge."¹⁷So I applied my heart to know wisdom and also madness and folly. I came to understand that this also was an attempt to shepherd the wind.

¹⁸ For in the abundance of wisdom there is much frustration, and he who increases knowledge increases sorrow.

Ecclesiastes 1 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations set poetry farther to the right than the rest of the text to show that it is poetry. The ULB does this with the poetry in 1:2-11 and 15.

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

Tone

The tone of this chapter is sad, or depressing. The author believes that everything in life is pointless. The metaphors in this chapter all describe the idea that nothing ever changes. This is also known as "fatalism."

Links:

Ecclesiastes 1:1 Notes Ecclesiastes intro

Ecclesiastes 1:1

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Ecclesiastes 1:2

"Meaningless! Meaningless! says the Teacher. "Absolutely meaningless! Everything is meaningless!"

This speaks of how everything in life vanishes and has no lasting value as if everything were like a disappearing vapor or breeze. Alternate translation: "'Like a vapor of mist vanishes and like a breeze in the wind disappears,' says the Teacher, 'everything vanishes and has no lasting value.'"

Ecclesiastes 1:3

What profit does a man gain from all the work that he labors at under the sun?

The author uses this rhetorical question to cause the reader to think deeply about important things. This question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "A man seems to gain no lasting benefit from all the work that he labors at under the sun." or "People seem to gain no lasting benefit from all the work that they labor at under the sun." under the sun

This refers to things that are done on earth. Alternate translation: "on the earth"

Ecclesiastes 1:4

General Information:

The writer is presenting the natural order of life as he understands it.

Ecclesiastes 1:5

hurries back to the place

This speaks of how the sun sets at the end of the day and is soon ready to rise again, as if it were a person that quickly ran from the place where it sets to the place from which it rises. Alternate translation: "quickly returns to the place" or "quickly goes to the place"

Ecclesiastes 1:6

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Ecclesiastes 1:7

General Information:

The writer continues with observations about the natural order.

Ecclesiastes 1:8

Everything becomes wearisome

"Everything becomes tiring." Since man is unable to explain these things, it becomes useless to try.

The eye is not satisfied by what it sees

Here the "eye" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "A person is not satisfied by what his eyes see" nor is the ear fulfilled by what it hears

Here the "ear" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "nor is a person content by what his ears hear" Ecclesiastes 1:9

General Information:

There is nothing new regarding man and his activities. whatever has been done is what will be done

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "whatever has happened before is what will happen again" under the sun

This refers to things that are done on earth. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:3]

Ecclesiastes 1:10

Is there anything about which it may be said, 'Look, this is new'?

This rhetorical question is asked to emphasize that man cannot say there is anything new. This can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "There is nothing about which it may be said, 'Look, this is new.'"

about which it may be said

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "about which someone may say"

Ecclesiastes 1:11

that will happen in the future

"the things that will happen in the future"

will not likely be remembered either

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "people will not likely remember them either"

Chapter 2

Ecclesiastes 1:12

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Ecclesiastes 1:13

I applied my mind

Here the author refers to himself by his "mind" to emphasize his thoughts. Alternate translation: "I determined" or "I applied myself" to study and to search out

These two phrases mean the same thing and emphasize how diligently he studied.

under heaven

This refers to things that are done on earth. Alternate translation: "on the earth"

children of mankind

"human beings"

Ecclesiastes 1:14

all the deeds that are done

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "everything that people do"

under the sun

This refers to things that are done on earth. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:3]

look

The author uses this word to draw attention to what he says next. Alternate translation: "indeed" or "really"

chasing the wind

The author says that everything that people do is as useless as if they were trying to control the wind. Alternate translation: "are as useless as trying to control the wind"

Ecclesiastes 1:15

The twisted cannot be straightened! The missing cannot be counted

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"People cannot straighten things that are twisted! They cannot count what is not there"

Ecclesiastes 1:16

I have spoken to my heart

Here the author refers to himself by his "heart" to emphasize his feelings. Alternate translation: "I have spoken to myself"

My mind has seen

Here the author refers to himself by his "mind" to emphasize what he has learned. Alternate translation: "I have gained" or "I have learned"

Ecclesiastes 1:17

I applied my heart

Here the author refers to himself by his "heart" to emphasize his feelings. Alternate translation: "I determined" or "I applied myself"

madness and folly

The words "madness" and "folly" share similar meanings and refer to foolish thinking and behavior, respectively.

an attempt to shepherd the wind

The author says learning wisdom and madness and folly is as useless as trying to control the wind. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:14]

Ecclesiastes 1:18

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Chapter 2

¹I said in my heart, "Come now, I will test you with happiness. So enjoy pleasure." But look, this also is meaningless.²I said about laughter, "It is crazy," and about pleasure, "What use is it?"

³I explored in my heart how to gratify myself with wine. I let my mind guide me with wisdom although I was still holding on to folly. I wanted to find out what is good for the children of mankind to do under heaven during the days of their lives.

⁴I accomplished great things. I built for myself houses and planted for myself vineyards.⁵I built for myself gardens and parks, and I planted all kinds of fruit trees in them.⁶I created pools of water to water a forest where trees were grown.

⁷I purchased male slaves and female slaves; I had slaves born in my palace. I also had large herds and flocks of livestock, much more than any king who ruled before me in Jerusalem.⁸I also accumulated for myself silver and gold, the treasures of kings and provinces. I got singers, both male and female, and many concubines, the delight of the children of men. ¹

⁹So I became greater and wealthier than all who were before me in Jerusalem, and my wisdom remained with me.

¹⁰ Whatever my eyes desired, I did not withhold from them.

I did not withhold my heart from any pleasure, because my heart rejoiced in all my labor and pleasure was my reward for all my labor.

¹¹ Then I looked on all the deeds that my hands had accomplished, and on the labor that I had done,
but again, everything was meaningless—like chasing the wind.
There was no profit under the sun in it.

¹² Then I turned to consider wisdom, and also madness and folly.
For what more can the man who becomes the next king do than what the king has already done?

¹³ Then I began to understand that wisdom has advantages over folly, just as light is more profitable than darkness.

¹⁴ The wise man uses his eyes in his head to see where he is going,
but the fool walks in darkness,
although I know
the same event happens to all of them.

¹⁵ Then I said in my heart,
"What happens to the fool, will also happen to me.
So what difference does it make if I am very wise?"
I concluded in my heart,
"This too is meaningless."

¹⁶ For the wise man, like the fool, is not remembered for very long.
In the days to come everything will have been long forgotten.
The wise man dies just like the fool dies.

¹⁷ So I detested life because all the work done under the sun was evil to me. This was because everything is meaningless—like chasing the wind. ¹⁸ I hated all my toil for which I had toiled under the sun because I must leave it behind to the man who comes after me.

¹⁹ For who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will be master over everything under the sun that my labor and wisdom have built. This also is meaningless. ²⁰ So I began to give my heart to despair over all the labor that I had done under the sun.

²¹ For there might be someone who labors with wisdom, knowledge, and skill, but he will leave everything he has to a man who has not made any of it. This also is meaningless—a great injustice. ²² What profit does a man gain from all the work and from the striving of heart that he labors at under the sun? ²³ Every day his work is painful and stressful, so at night his soul does not find rest. This also is meaningless.

²⁴ There is nothing better for a person than to simply eat and drink and find enjoyment in his labor. I saw that this truth comes from the hand of God. ²⁵ For who can eat or who can have any kind of pleasure apart from God?

²⁶ For to a person who pleases him, God gives wisdom and knowledge and joy. However, to the sinner he gives the work of gathering and storing up so that he may give it away to someone who pleases God. This also is meaningless—like chasing the wind.

¹ Many modern translations interpret the last part of this verse in different ways: and many concubines, and everything that pleases men or and everything that pleases people .

Ecclesiastes 2 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations set poetry farther to the right than the rest of the text to show that it is poetry. The ULB does this with the poetry in 2:10-16.

Special concepts in this chapter

Pleasures

When the author thought about the pointlessness of life, he decided to fill it with pointless pleasures. He believed that this type of living would have no effect on the world. Therefore, he indulged in every type of pleasure.

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

Assumed knowledge

It is assumed that the author is going to reject the way of living in this chapter. He is certainly not encouraging this way of living even though he does not say this explicitly.

Links:

Ecclesiastes 2:1 Notes

Ecclesiastes 2:1

I said in my heart

Here the author refers to himself by his "heart" to emphasize his feelings. Alternate translation: "I said to myself"

I will test you with happiness

Here the word "you" refers to himself. The word "happiness" can be expressed as an adjective. Alternate translation: "I will test myself with things that make me happy"

So enjoy pleasure

The word "pleasure" can be expressed as a verb. Alternate translation: "So I will enjoy things that please me"

this also is meaningless

"this also only lasted for a short time, like a temporary breeze"

Ecclesiastes 2:2

I said about laughter, "It is crazy,"

The direct quotation can be translated as an indirect quotation. Alternate translation: "I said that laughter is crazy"

laughter

If your language has a special word for laughter about meaningless things, you might want to use it here.

What use is it?

The author uses a rhetorical question to emphasize that pleasure is useless. Alternate translation: "It is useless."

Ecclesiastes 2:3

I explored in my heart

This speaks of thinking hard for a long time as if it were exploring. Also, the author speaks of his feelings and his thoughts as if they were his "heart." Alternate translation: "I thought hard about" to gratify myself with wine

"to use wine to make myself happy"

I let my mind guide me with wisdom

Here the author speaks of using the wisdom that he had been taught to guide himself as if this wisdom were a person who guided him. Alternate translation: "I thought about the things that wise people had taught me"

under heaven

This refers to things that are done on earth. Alternate translation: "on the earth"

during the days of their lives

"during the time that they are alive"

Ecclesiastes 2:4

I built for myself houses and planted for myself vineyards

The writer probably told people to do the work for him. Alternate translation: "I had people build houses and plant vineyards for me"

Ecclesiastes 2:5

I built for myself gardens and parks, and I planted

The writer probably told people to do the work. Alternate translation: "I had people build for me gardens and parks; I had them plant"

gardens and parks

These two words share similar meanings and refer to beautiful orchards of fruit trees.

Ecclesiastes 2:6

I created

The writer probably told people to do the work. Alternate translation: "I had them create"

to water a forest

"to provide water for a forest"

forest where trees were grown

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "forest where trees grew"

Ecclesiastes 2:7

I had slaves born in my palace

"I had slaves that were born in my palace" or "My slaves bore children and they also were my slaves"

much more than any king

The understood verb may be supplied. Alternate translation: "much more than any other king had"

Ecclesiastes 2:8

the treasures of kings and provinces

This refers to the gold and other wealth that neighboring countries were forced to pay to the king of Israel. Alternate translation: "that I acquired from the treasures of kings and the rulers of provinces"

provinces

Here "provinces" represents the rulers of the provinces.

Alternate translation: "the rulers of provinces"

and many concubines, the delight of the children of men

This means that he had many concubines that he enjoyed sleeping with, as any man enjoys sleeping with women.

Alternate translation: "I greatly enjoyed many concubines, as would delight any man"

Ecclesiastes 2:9

than all who were before me in Jerusalem

This refers to all the previous rulers of Jerusalem. Alternate translation: "than all the kings who had ruled before me in Jerusalem"

my wisdom remained with me

This is an idiom. "I continued to act wisely" or "I continued to be wise"

Ecclesiastes 2:10

Whatever my eyes desired ... from them

Here the author refers to himself by his "eyes" to emphasize what he sees. Alternate translation: "Whatever I saw and desired ... from myself"

I did not withhold from them

This can be stated positively. Alternate translation: "I got for them"

I did not withhold my heart from any pleasure

Here the author refers to himself by his "heart" to emphasize his desires. This can be stated positively and the word "pleasure" can be expressed as a verb. Alternate translation: "I did not keep myself from any pleasure" or "I allowed myself to enjoy everything that made me happy"

my heart rejoiced

Here the author refers to himself by his "heart" to emphasize his desires. Alternate translation: "I rejoiced"

Ecclesiastes 2:11

all the deeds that my hands had accomplished

Here the author refers to himself by his "hands." Alternate translation: "all that I had accomplished"

the labor that I had done

"the hard work that I had done"

like chasing the wind

The author says that everything that people do is as useless as if they were trying to control the wind. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:14]

There was no profit under the sun in it

"But it had no profit under the sun"

under the sun

This refers to things that are done on earth. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:3]

Ecclesiastes 2:12

madness and folly

The words "madness" and "folly" have similar meanings and refer to foolish thinking and behavior, respectively. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:17]

For what more can the man who becomes the next king do than what the king has already done?

The author uses this rhetorical question to emphasize his point that the next king will not be able to do anything more valuable than what he had already done. This question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "For the next king who comes after the king can do nothing that a king before him has not already done."

the man who becomes the next king

"the man who succeeds the current king" or "the next king who comes after me"

Ecclesiastes 2:13

wisdom has advantages over folly, just as light is more profitable than darkness

This speaks of how wisdom is better than folly by comparing it to how light makes life better for people than darkness does.

Ecclesiastes 2:14

The wise man uses his eyes in his head to see where he is going

This speaks of a wise man making wise decisions as walking and paying attention to where he is going.

Alternate translation: "The wise man is like a person who uses his eyes to see where he is going"

uses his eyes in his head to see

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "pays attention and looks to see" the fool walks in darkness

This compares a fool making bad decisions to someone walking in darkness. Alternate translation: "the fool is like a person who walks in the dark"

the same event

death

Ecclesiastes 2:15

I said in my heart

Here the author refers to himself by his "heart" to emphasize his feelings. Alternate translation: "I said to myself"

So what difference does it make if I am very wise?

The author uses this rhetorical question to emphasize that there is no benefit to being wise. This question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "So it makes no difference if I am very wise."

I concluded in my heart

Here the author refers to himself by his "heart" to emphasize his feelings. Alternate translation: "I concluded" Ecclesiastes 2:16

For the wise man, like the fool, is not remembered for very long

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"People do not remember the wise man for very long, just as they do not remember the fool for very long"

everything will have been long forgotten

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"people will have long forgotten everything"

Ecclesiastes 2:17

all the work done

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "all the work that people do"

was evil to me

"troubled me"

like chasing the wind

The author says everything that people do is as useless as if they were trying to control the wind. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:14]

under the sun

This refers to things that are done on earth. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:3]

Ecclesiastes 2:18

all my toil for which I had toiled

The word "toil" here is a metonym for the results of toiling.

Alternate translation: "everything I had gained from toiling"

to the man who comes after me

"to the man who inherits it after me"

Ecclesiastes 2:19

For who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool?

The author uses this rhetorical question to emphasize that no one knows the character the man who will inherit his wealth. Alternate translation: "For no one knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool."

he will be

The word "he" refers to the author's heir.

under the sun

This refers to things that are done on earth. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:3]

that my labor and wisdom have built

Here the author's "labor" and "wisdom" represent himself and the things he did in his wisdom. He probably had help with the literal buildings. Alternate translation: "that I worked very hard and wisely to build"

Ecclesiastes 2:20

I began to give my heart to despair

Here the author refers to himself by his "heart" to emphasize his feelings. Alternate translation: "I began to despair" or "I began to lose all hope"

Ecclesiastes 2:21

who labors with wisdom, knowledge, and skill

"who works wisely and skillfully, using the things that he has learned"

who has not made any of it

"who has not worked for any of it"

a great injustice

"a great disaster"

Ecclesiastes 2:22

Chapter 3

What profit does a man gain from all the work and from the striving of heart that he labors at under the sun?

The author uses a rhetorical question to cause the reader to think deeply about important things. Translate "what profit does a man gain from all the work" as you did in [Ecclesiastes 1:3]

under the sun

This refers to things that are done on earth. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:3]

Ecclesiastes 2:23

painful and stressful

These two words mean basically the same thing and emphasize how difficult the person's work is.

his soul does not find rest

Here man's mind is referred to as his "soul" to emphasize his deep thoughts. Alternate translation: "his mind does not rest" or "he continues to worry"

Ecclesiastes 2:24

the hand of God

Here God is represented by his "hand" to emphasize how he provides for people. Alternate translation: "from God" Ecclesiastes 2:25

For who can eat or who can have any kind of pleasure apart from God?

The author uses this rhetorical question to emphasize that no pleasure can be had without God's provision. This question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "For no one can eat or have any kind of pleasure apart from God."

Ecclesiastes 2:26

so that he may give it away to someone who pleases God

Possible meanings for the word "he" are 1) God or 2) the sinner. This also can be translated without making it clear who it is that gives the things that the sinner stored.

Alternate translation: "so that the one who pleases God may have it"

like chasing the wind

The author speaks of everything that people do as being useless as if they were trying to control the wind. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:14]

Chapter 3

¹ For everything there is an appointed time, and a season for every matter under heaven.

² There is a time to be born and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to pull up plants,

³ a time to kill and a time to heal,
a time to tear down and a time to build up.

⁴ There is a time to weep and a time to laugh,
a time to mourn and a time to dance,

⁵ a time to throw away stones and a time to gather stones, a time to embrace other people, and a time to refrain from embracing.

⁶ There is a time to look for things and a time to stop looking,
a time to keep things and a time to throw away things,

⁷ a time to tear clothing and a time to repair clothing,
a time to keep silent and a time to speak.

⁸ There is a time to love and a time to hate,
a time for war and a time for peace.

⁹What profit does the worker gain in his labor?¹⁰I have seen the work that God has given to human beings to complete.

¹¹God has made everything suitable for its own time. He has also placed eternity in their hearts. But mankind cannot understand the deeds that God has done, from their beginning all the way to their end.

¹²I know that there is nothing better for a person than to rejoice and to do good so long as he lives—¹³and that everyone should eat and drink, and should understand how to find enjoyment in his labor. This is God's gift to mankind.

¹⁴I know that whatever God does lasts forever. Nothing can be added to it or taken away, because it is God who has done it so that people will approach him with honor.

¹⁵ Whatever exists has already existed;
whatever will exist has already existed.
God makes human beings seek hidden things. ¹

¹⁶I have seen the wickedness that is under the sun, where there should be justice,
and in place of righteousness, wickedness was there.

¹⁷I said in my heart,
"God will judge
the righteous and the wicked
at the right time for every matter and every deed."

¹⁸I said in my heart, "God tests human beings to show them that they are like animals."

¹⁹For the fate of the children of mankind and the fate of animals is the same. The death of one is like the death of the other. The breath is the same for all of them. There is no advantage for mankind over the animals. Everything is meaningless.²⁰ Everything is going to the same place. Everything comes from the dust, and everything returns to the dust.

²¹Who knows whether the spirit of mankind goes upward and the spirit of animals goes downward into the earth? ²²So again I realized that there is nothing better for a person than to enjoy his work, for that is his assignment. Who can bring him back to see what happens after him?

¹Instead of God makes human beings seek hidden things, other modern translations interpret this line in different ways.

²Some modern translations have Who knows the spirit of mankind, which goes upward, and the spirit of animals, which goes downward into the earth?

Ecclesiastes 3 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations set poetry farther to the right than the rest of the text to show that it is poetry. The ULB does this with the poetry in 3:1-8 and 3:15.

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Parallelism

The chapter uses parallelism with the phrase, "a time to." This gives the quotation a poetic style. Their overall purpose is to show that Yahweh directs the events of the world and therefore, they have purpose.

Links:

Ecclesiastes 3:1 Notes

Ecclesiastes 3:1

General Information:

The writer uses merisms to describe various aspects of life from one extreme to the other.

every matter

"every event" or "every activity" or "everything that can happen"

under heaven

This refers to things that are done on earth. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:3]

Ecclesiastes 3:2

a time to pull up plants

Possible meanings are 1) "a time to harvest" or 2) "a time to uproot."

Ecclesiastes 3:3

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Ecclesiastes 3:4

General Information:

The writer continues with merisms to describe various aspects of life from one extreme to the other.

Ecclesiastes 3:5

embrace

to hold someone in your arms to show love or friendship

Ecclesiastes 3:6

General Information:

The writer continues with merisms to describe various aspects of life from one extreme to the other.

Ecclesiastes 3:7

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Ecclesiastes 3:8

General Information:

The writer concludes using merisms to describe various aspects of life from one extreme to the other.

Ecclesiastes 3:9

What profit does the worker gain in his labor?

This is a thought-provoking question to focus the reader on the next discussion topic. Translate "What profit does ... gain" as you did in [Ecclesiastes 1:3]

Ecclesiastes 3:10

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Ecclesiastes 3:11

God has made everything suitable for its own time

"God has fixed a time that is right for everything to happen"

Chapter 4

or "God has set a time that is right for each thing to happen:
placed eternity in their hearts

Here the word "their" refers to human beings. Here the "hearts" of the people represent their thoughts and desires.
Alternate translation: "placed eternity in the hearts of human beings" or "caused people to think about eternal things"

from their beginning all the way to their end

This refers to the beginning and the end and all that is in between.

Ecclesiastes 3:12

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Ecclesiastes 3:13

should understand how to find enjoyment

"should learn how to enjoy" or "should enjoy"

Ecclesiastes 3:14

Nothing can be added to it or taken away

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "No one can add anything to or take anything away from it"

Ecclesiastes 3:15

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Ecclesiastes 3:16

I have seen the wickedness ... wickedness was there

These two phrases mean the same thing and emphasize how common wicked behavior is.

in place of righteousness

"where there should be righteousness"

under the sun

This refers to things that are done on earth. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:3]

Ecclesiastes 3:17

I said in my heart

Here the author refers to himself by his "heart" to emphasize his feelings. Alternate translation: "I said to myself"

the righteous and the wicked

This refers to righteous and wicked people. Alternate translation: "those who are righteous and those who are wicked" or "the righteous people and the wicked people"

every matter and every deed

These two phrases mean basically the same thing and refer to every action that people do.

Ecclesiastes 3:18

I said in my heart

Here the author refers to himself by his "heart" to emphasize his feelings. Alternate translation: "I said to myself"

they are like animals

Here the author says that human beings are like animals. In the next verse the author explains clearly how humans are like animals.

Ecclesiastes 3:19

is the same

"is the same for both of them"

The breath is the same for all of them

"All of them breathe same"

There is no advantage for mankind over the animals

"Mankind is no better off than the animals"

Ecclesiastes 3:20

Everything is going to the same place

This means that all people and all animals die and decay and become part of the soil. Alternate translation:

"Everything dies and goes to the same place" dust

soil

Ecclesiastes 3:21

Who knows whether the spirit ... into the earth?

The author asks this rhetorical question to emphasize that no one truly knows what happens after people and animals die. This question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "No one knows whether the spirit ... into the earth."

Ecclesiastes 3:22

there is nothing better for a person than to See how you translated this phrase in Ecclesiastes 3:12.

Who can bring him back to see what happens after him?

The author uses this rhetorical question to emphasize that no one will see what happens after he dies. This question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "No one of us knows what happens to us after we die."

Chapter 4

¹Once again I thought about all the oppression that is done under the sun.

And behold, the tears of oppressed people,
and they had no one to comfort them!
Power was in the hand of their oppressors,
and there was no one to comfort them!

² So I considered those who are already dead
more fortunate than the living, who are still alive.

³ However, more fortunate than both of them is the one who has not yet lived, the one who has not seen any of the evil acts that are done under the sun.

⁴Then I saw that every act of labor and every skillful work became the envy of one's neighbor. This also is meaningless—like chasing the wind.

⁵ The fool folds his hands and does not work,
so his food is his own flesh.

⁶ But better is a handful of profit with quiet work than two handfuls with the labor that tries to shepherd the wind.

⁷I returned and I saw something meaningless under the sun.

⁸ There is the kind of man who is alone.
He does not have a companion, no son or brother,
and yet there is no end to all his work,
and his eyes are not satisfied with gaining wealth.
He wonders, "For whom am I toiling and depriving myself of pleasure?"
This also is meaningless—
a bad situation.

⁹ Two people work better than one;
together they can earn a good wage for their labor.

¹⁰ For if one falls,
the other can lift up his friend.
However, woe to the one who is alone when he falls
if there is no one to lift him up.

¹¹ If two lie down together, they can be warm,
but how can one be warm alone?

¹² One man alone can be overpowered, but two can withstand an attack,
and a three-strand rope is not quickly broken.

¹³It is better to be a poor but wise youth than an old and foolish king who no longer knows how to listen to warnings.¹⁴This is true even if the young man becomes king from prison, or even if he was born poor in his kingdom.

¹⁵I saw everyone who was alive and was walking around under the sun, along with a youth who was to rise up to take his place.¹⁶There is no end to all the people who want to obey the new king, but later many of them will no longer praise him. Surely this also is meaningless—like chasing the wind.

Ecclesiastes 4 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations set poetry farther to the right than the rest of the text to show that it is poetry. The ULB does this with the poetry in 4:1-3, 4:5-6, and 4:8-12.

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Irony

The teacher looks at the oppression in the world and is saddened by it, but he is the king and has the power to change things. He also laments being alone even though he has many wives, children, and concubines.

Links:

Ecclesiastes 4:1 Notes

Ecclesiastes 4:1

under the sun

This refers to things that are done on earth. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:3]

behold, the tears

"I looked and I saw"

the tears of oppressed people

Here "tears" represent weeping. Alternate translation: "the oppressed people were weeping"

Power was in the hand of their oppressors

This means that their oppressors were powerful. Here their "hand" represents what they possess. Alternate translation: "Their oppressors were powerful"

Ecclesiastes 4:2

the living, who are still alive

The word "living" is a nominal adjective that refers to people who are living. The phrase "those who are still alive" means the same thing as "the living." Alternate translation: "the people who are still alive"

Ecclesiastes 4:3

more fortunate than both of them is the one who has not yet lived

"the one who has not yet been born is better off than both of them"

both of them

This refers to those who are dead and to those who are alive. Alternate translation: "both those who are dead and those who are living"

under the sun

This refers to things that are done on earth. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:3]

Ecclesiastes 4:4

became the envy of one's neighbor

The word "envy" may be expressed as an adjective.

Alternate translation: "made one's neighbor envious"

the envy of one's neighbor possible meanings are 1) The neighbor envies the object his neighbor made, or 2) the neighbor envies the skills his neighbor has.

like chasing the wind

The author speaks of everything that people do as being useless as if they were trying to control the wind. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:14]

Ecclesiastes 4:5

The fool folds his hands and does not work

To fold the hands is a gesture of laziness and is another way of saying that the person refuses to work. Alternate translation: "The fool refuses to work"

so his food is his own flesh

This speaks of a person destroying himself as if he were eating his own body. Alternate translation: "as a result, he causes his own ruin" or "and as a result, he destroys himself"

Ecclesiastes 4:6

a handful

"a small amount"

two handfuls

"a large amount." It is understood that this refers to profit gained. Alternate translation: "two handfuls of profit" or "a large amount of profit"

that tries to shepherd the wind

The author speaks of everything that people do as being useless as if they were trying to control the wind. See how you translated a similar phrase in [Ecclesiastes 1:14]

Ecclesiastes 4:7

I returned and I saw something meaningless

Possible meanings for "returned" are 1) he returned to thinking. Alternate translation: "I thought again and I saw something meaningless" or 2) he returned to seeing something meaningless. Alternate translation: "Again I saw something meaningless"

under the sun

This refers to things that are done on earth. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:3]

Ecclesiastes 4:8

no son or brother

This person has no family. Alternate translation: "he has no family"

his eyes are not satisfied

Here the whole person is represented by his "eyes" to emphasize his desires. Alternate translation: "he is not satisfied"

For whom am I toiling and depriving myself of pleasure

"Will anyone benefit from me working hard and not enjoying myself"

Ecclesiastes 4:9

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Ecclesiastes 4:10

woe to the one who is alone when he falls

"the person who is alone when he falls is really in trouble"

Ecclesiastes 4:11

If two lie down together, they can be warm

The writer speaks of two people keeping each other warm on a cold night. Alternate translation: "If two people lie down together at night, they can be warm"

how can one be warm alone?

This refers to a person lying down. The author uses this rhetorical question to emphasize that two people can keep each other warm but one person cannot. This question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "a person cannot be warm when he is alone." or "a person who lies down alone cannot be warm."

Ecclesiastes 4:12

One man alone can be overpowered

This can be written in active form. Alternate translation:

"Someone can overpower a person who is alone"

but two

"but two people"

withstand an attack

"defend themselves against an attack"

a three-strand rope

This speaks of three people together being stronger as if they were a three-strand rope. Alternate translation: "three people are even stronger, like a three-strand rope that"

Chapter 5

a three-strand rope is not quickly broken

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:
"people cannot easily break a rope made with three strands"

Ecclesiastes 4:13

wise youth

"wise young man"

who no longer knows how

Here knowing represents willingness. Alternate translation:
"who is no longer willing"

Ecclesiastes 4:14

from prison

"after being in prison"

he was born poor in his kingdom

This means that he had poor parents. Alternate translation:

"he was born to poor parents who lived in the land that he will someday rule"

Ecclesiastes 4:15

General Information:

Instead of choosing the wise youth, the people choose the king's son, who may not be any wiser.

alive ... walking around

The words "alive" and "walking around" mean basically the same thing and are combined to emphasize living people.

under the sun

This refers to things that are done on earth. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:3]

Ecclesiastes 4:16

There is no end to all the people

This is an exaggeration used to emphasize a large number of people. Alternate translation: "There are very many people"

like chasing the wind

The author speaks of everything that people do as being useless as if they were trying to control the wind. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:14]

Chapter 5

¹Guard your steps when you go to the house of God. Go near to listen rather than to offer the sacrifice of fools, who do not understand that they are doing what is wrong.

² Do not be too quick to speak with your mouth, and do not let your heart be too quick to bring any matter up before God.

God is in heaven,
but you are on earth,
so let your words be few.

³ If you have too many things to do and worry about, you will probably have bad dreams.
The more words you speak, the more foolish things you will probably say.

⁴When you make a vow to God, do not delay to do it, for God has no pleasure in fools. Do what you vow you will do.⁵It is better not to make a vow than to make one that you do not carry out.

⁶Do not allow your mouth to cause your flesh to sin. Do not say to the priest's messenger, "That vow was a mistake." Why make God angry by vowing falsely, provoking God to destroy the work of your hands?⁷For when there are many dreams and many words, they are meaningless. Instead, fear God!

⁸When you see the poor being oppressed and robbed of just and right treatment in your province, do not be astonished as if no one knows, because there are people in power who watch those under them, and there are even higher ones over them.⁹In addition, the produce of the land is for everyone, and the king himself takes produce from the fields.

¹⁰ Whoever loves silver will not be satisfied with silver, nor will he who loves wealth be satisfied with his income.
This, too, is meaningless.

¹¹ As prosperity increases,
so also do the people who consume it.
What advantage in wealth is there to the owner except to watch it with his eyes?

¹² The sleep of a laborer is sweet,
whether he eats little or a lot,
but the wealth of a rich person does not allow him to sleep well.

- ¹³There is an evil that I have seen under the sun:
riches hoarded by the owner, resulting in his own misery.
- ¹⁴When the rich man loses his wealth through bad luck,
his own son, one whom he has fathered, is left with nothing in his hands.
- ¹⁵As a man comes from his mother's womb,
so also he will leave naked.
He can take none of the fruits of his labor
in his hand.
- ¹⁶Another evil is
that as a person comes, so he goes away.
So what profit is there for him who labors for the wind?
- ¹⁷During his days he eats with darkness and is greatly distressed with sickness and anger.

¹⁸Look, what I have seen to be good and suitable is for a person to eat and drink and to find enjoyment in his labor as he labors under the sun during the days of this life that God has given him. For this is man's assignment.

¹⁹Every person to whom God has given riches and wealth and the ability to receive his share and rejoice in his labor—this is a gift from God.²⁰For he does not call to mind very often the days of his life, because God makes him keep busy with the things that he enjoys doing.

Ecclesiastes 5 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations set poetry farther to the right than the rest of the text to show that it is poetry. The ULB does this with the poetry in 5:2-3, and 5:10-17.

Special concepts in this chapter

Materialism

The author describes the pointlessness of pursuing material things. This is known as "materialism." Those who pursue after things will always want more. At the end of their life, they will not be able to use these things.

Links:

Ecclesiastes 5:1 Notes

Ecclesiastes 5:1

Guard your steps

Here "steps" are a metonym for a person's conduct.

Alternate translation: "Be careful how you conduct yourself"

Ecclesiastes 5:2

Do not be too quick ... do not let your heart be too quick

These two phrases mean the same thing and emphasize that you should think first before you speak to God about a matter.

to speak with your mouth

Here the phrase "with your mouth" emphasizes and describes a person speaking. Alternate translation: "to speak"

do not let your heart

Here a person is represented by his "heart" to emphasize his emotions and desires. Alternate translation: "do not" let your words be few

"do not say too much"

Ecclesiastes 5:3

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Ecclesiastes 5:4

do not delay to do it, for God has no pleasure in fools

It is implied that it is foolish to delay in fulfilling a vow that you have made to God. Alternate translation: "do not foolishly delay in doing it, because God is not pleased with foolish people"

Ecclesiastes 5:5

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Ecclesiastes 5:6

Do not allow your mouth to cause your flesh to sin

Here a person's "mouth" represents a person's speech, and the person himself is represented by his "flesh." Alternate translation: "Do not let what you say cause you to sin"

Why make God angry by vowing falsely, provoking God to destroy the work of your hands?

The author uses this rhetorical question to emphasize that it is foolish to make a vow that you will not keep. This question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "It would be foolish to make God angry by vowing falsely, provoking God to destroy the work of your hands."

destroy the work of your hands

Here a person is represented by his "hands." Alternate translation: "destroy everything you do"

Ecclesiastes 5:7

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Ecclesiastes 5:8

the poor being oppressed and robbed

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "people oppressing the poor and robbing them"

the poor

This refers to poor people. Alternate translation: "those who are poor" or "poor people"

just and right treatment

The words "just" and "right" mean basically the same thing and refer to the kind of treatment that people deserve.

Alternate translation: "fair treatment"

do not be astonished as if no one knows, because there are people

"do not be surprised, for there are people

there are people in power

"there are people with authority"

even higher ones over them

There are other men who rule over the men in authority.

Alternate translation: "men who have even more authority than they do"

Ecclesiastes 5:9

the produce of the land ... produce from the fields

The word "produce" may be expressed as a verb. Alternate translation: "the food that the land produces ... crops from the fields"

Ecclesiastes 5:10

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Ecclesiastes 5:11

As prosperity increases

The word "prosperity" may be expressed as an adjective.

Alternate translation: "As a person becomes more prosperous"

so also do the people who consume it Possible meanings are 1) "so also the person spends more money" or 2) "so also there will be more people who use his wealth."

who consume it

This speaks of people spending wealth as if they were "eating" it. Alternate translation: "who use it"

What advantage in wealth is there to the owner except to watch it with his eyes?

The author uses this rhetorical question to emphasize that the wealthy do not benefit from their wealth. This question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "The only benefit that the owner has from wealth is that he can look at it"

Ecclesiastes 5:12

The sleep of a laborer is sweet

This speaks of a person's sleep being fulfilling and peaceful as if it were sweet like something he eats. Alternate translation: "The sleep of a laborer is peaceful"

whether he eats little or a lot

"whether he eats a little bit of food or a lot of food"

but the wealth of a rich person does not allow him to sleep well

"but the wealth of a rich person keeps him awake at night."

This speaks of a rich person not being able to sleep because he is worried about his money as if his money were a person that would not allow him to sleep. Alternate translation: "but rich people do not sleep well because they worry about their money"

Ecclesiastes 5:13

under the sun

This refers to things that are done on earth. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:3]

riches hoarded by the owner

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "an owner hoards riches"

Ecclesiastes 5:14

through bad luck

Possible meanings are 1) "through misfortune" or 2) "through a bad business deal."

his own son, one whom he has fathered, is left with nothing in his hands

Here the phrase "in his hands" represents ownership. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "he leaves no possession for his own son"

Ecclesiastes 5:15

As a man comes from his mother's womb ... he will leave naked

It is implied that a man is naked when he is born. In addition to being without clothing, here the word "naked" emphasizes that people are born without any possessions. Alternate translation: "As a man is naked and owns nothing when he is born ... he will leave this life the same way"

comes from his mother's womb

"is born"

he will leave

This refers to dying. Alternate translation: "he will die"

He can take none of the fruits of his labor in his hand

Here a man's possessions are spoken of as if they are fruit that he grew with his labor. Alternate translation: "He can not take any of his possessions with him"

Ecclesiastes 5:16

as a person comes, so he goes away

This refers to the birth and death of a person and expresses the same idea as the previous verse. This refers to women as well as men. Alternate translation: "as people bring nothing into the world when they are born, so they take nothing with them when they die and leave this world"

So what profit is there for him who labors for the wind?

The writer uses this rhetorical question to emphasize that there is no benefit in working for the wind. This question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "No one gets any profit in laboring for the wind."

Chapter 6

labors for the wind

Possible meanings are 1) This speaks of the person receiving no lasting profit as if he were trying to control the wind. Alternate translation: "tries to shepherd the wind" or "work that is as useless as trying to shepherd the wind" or 2) This implies that the person only receives the air that he breathes as his profit. Alternate translation: "labors to receive the air he breathes"

Ecclesiastes 5:17

During his days he eats with darkness

This speaks of a person mourning throughout his life as if he always ate in darkness. Here "darkness" represents sadness and mourning. Alternate translation: "He spends his life in mourning and sadness"

his days

Here a person's "days" represent his life. Alternate translation: "his life" is greatly distressed with sickness and anger

The words "sickness" and "anger" can be expressed as adjectives. Alternate translation: "suffers greatly, being sick and angry"

Ecclesiastes 5:18

Look

The author uses this word here to draw his reader's attention to what he says next. Alternate translation: "Pay attention" or "Listen" what I have seen to be good and suitable

Here the words "good" and "suitable" mean basically the same thing. The second intensifies the meaning of the first. Alternate translation: "what I have seen to be the best thing to do"

under the sun

This refers to things that are done on earth. See how you translated this in Ecclesiastes 1:3. Alternate translation: "on the earth"

during the days of this life that God has given him

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "as long as God allows him to live"

For this is man's assignment

Possible meanings are 1) "For this is man's reward" or 2)

"For these are the things that he allows man to do"

Ecclesiastes 5:19

riches and wealth

These two words mean basically the same thing. They refer to money and the things that a person can buy with money. to receive his share

"to accept what he is given"

Ecclesiastes 5:20

he does not call to mind

Here the word "he" refers to the person to whom God has given a gift. The phrase "call to mind" is an idiom. Alternate translation: "he does not remember" or "he does not think about" the days of his life

This refers to the things that happened during his lifetime.

This can be stated clearly. Alternate translation: "the things that have happened during his lifetime"

keep busy

"stay busy"

Chapter 6

¹There is an evil that I have seen under the sun, and it weighs heavy on men.²God gives riches, wealth, and honor to a man so that he lacks nothing that he desires for himself, but then God gives him no ability to enjoy them. Instead, a stranger enjoys them. This is meaningless and a terrible affliction.

³If a man fathers a hundred children and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, but if his heart is not satisfied with good and he is not buried, then I say that a baby that is born dead is better off than he is.⁴Such a baby is born without meaning and passes away in darkness, and its name is covered in darkness.

⁵Although this child does not see the sun or know anything, it has rest even though that man did not.⁶Even if a man should live for two thousand years but does not learn to enjoy good things, he goes to the same place as everyone else.

⁷ All a man's labor is for his mouth, yet his appetite is not satisfied.

⁸ Indeed, what advantage has the wise person over the fool?
What advantage does the poor man have even if he knows how to act in front of other people?

⁹ What the eye sees is better than what the soul wanders after.
This also is meaningless—
like chasing the wind.

¹⁰ Whatever has existed has already been given its name, and what mankind is like has already been known.

So it has become useless for a man to dispute with the one who is stronger than he is.

¹¹ The more words there are,
the more meaningless they become.
What advantage is that to a man?

¹²For who knows what is good for a person in life, during the few and meaningless days he passes through like a shadow?
Who can tell a person what will happen under the sun after he is gone?

Ecclesiastes 6 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations set poetry farther to the right than the rest of the text to show that it is poetry. The ULB does this with the poetry in 6:7-11.

Special concepts in this chapter

Satisfaction

While a person may be given a great many things, they are worthless and provide no sense of satisfaction or peace. It is assumed that only Yahweh can provide these things to man. Solomon is depressed that he had everything he could have ever wanted in life, but they were not enough to give him satisfaction or peace.

Links:

Ecclesiastes 6:1 Notes

Ecclesiastes 6:1

it weighs heavy on men

Here evil is spoken of as something that is a heavy load to carry. Alternate translation: "it causes hardship for people"

Ecclesiastes 6:2

riches, wealth

These two words mean basically the same thing. They refer to money and the things that a person can buy with money. he lacks nothing

This is a double negative. Alternate translation: "he has everything"

God gives him no ability

"God does not give him the ability"

Ecclesiastes 6:3

fathers a hundred children

"fathers 100 children." This is also applicable to people with fewer than 100 children. Alternate translation: "fathers many children"

lives many years, so that the days of his years are many

These two phrases mean basically the same thing and are combined for emphasis. Alternate translation: "lives many years" his heart is not satisfied with good

This refers to a man by his "heart" to emphasize his feelings. Alternate translation: "he is not content with good things"

he is not buried

This can be stated in active form. Possible meanings are 1) "no one buries him at all" or 2) he receives no honor, "no one buries him properly."

Ecclesiastes 6:4

Such a baby is born without meaning

"Such a baby is born for nothing"

passes away in darkness

This speaks of the death of the baby being as unexplainable as "darkness." Alternate translation: "dies unexplainably"

its name is covered in darkness

This speaks of no one knowing the baby's name as if it were a hidden object. Alternate translation: "no one knows its name"

Ecclesiastes 6:5

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Ecclesiastes 6:6

Even if a man should live for two thousand years

This exaggerates the great number of years a man might live to show that it does not matter how long a person lives if he does not enjoy the good things in life.

two thousand years

"2,000 years"

he goes to the same place as everyone else

This means that he dies like all other people. Alternate translation: "he dies and go to the same place as everyone else" or "he goes to the grave just like everyone else"

Ecclesiastes 6:7

is for his mouth

Here putting food in a man's mouth represents feeding him. Alternate translation: "is to put food in his mouth" or "is to feed him"

his appetite is not satisfied

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "he does not satisfy his appetite"

Ecclesiastes 6:8

what advantage has the wise person over the fool?

Chapter 7

The author uses this rhetorical question to emphasize that a wise person does not have any more lasting benefits than a fool. This question can be written as a statement.
Alternate translation: "it seems the wise person has no advantage over the fool."

What advantage does the poor man have even if he knows how to act in front of other people?

The author uses this rhetorical question to emphasize that a poor man does not have any more lasting benefits than someone else. This question can be written as a statement.
Alternate translation: "The poor man has no advantage even if he knows how to act in front of other people."

how to act

"how to conduct himself"

Ecclesiastes 6:9

What the eye sees

A person can see these things because he already has them.

Alternate translation: "What a person has"

what the soul wanders after

This refers to things that a person wants but does not have.

Alternate translation: "what a person wants but does not have"

meaningless ... chasing the wind

Both phrases are metaphors that emphasize the idea of things being useless and futile.

chasing the wind

The author speaks of everything that people do as being useless, as if they were trying to control the wind. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:14]

Ecclesiastes 6:10

Whatever has existed has already been given its name

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"People have already named everything that exists"

what mankind is like has already been known

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"people already know what mankind is like"

the one who is stronger than he is

"God, who is the stronger than he is"

Ecclesiastes 6:11

The more words there are

"The more words that people speak"

the more meaningless they become

The more a person speaks, the more likely he will speak about meaningless things. Alternate translation: "the more meaningless those words are"

What advantage is that to a man?

The author uses this rhetorical question to emphasize that there is no advantage for a man to talk a lot. This question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "That is no advantage to a man."

Ecclesiastes 6:12

For who knows what is good for a person ... he passes through like a shadow?

The author uses this rhetorical question to emphasize that no person truly knows what is good for man. This question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "No one knows what is good for a person ... he passes through like a shadow."

in life, during the few and meaningless days he passes through like a shadow

This speaks of how life passes quickly by saying that it is like a shadow that quickly disappears. The phrase "numbered days" emphasizes that a person's life is short. Alternate translation: "during his futile, short life, which he passes through as quickly as a shadow passes by"

Who can tell a person ... after he is gone?

The author uses this rhetorical question to emphasize that no one knows what will happen after a person dies. This question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "No one can tell a person ... after he is gone."

what will happen under the sun

This refers to things that are done on earth. See how you translated "under the sun" in [Ecclesiastes 1:3]

after he is gone

This is a polite expression for death. Alternate translation: "after he dies"

Chapter 7

¹ A good name is better than costly perfume, and the day of death is better than the day of birth.

² It is better to go to a house of mourning than to a house of feasting, for mourning comes to all people at the end of life,
so living people must take this to heart.

³ Grief is better than laughter, for after sadness of face comes gladness of heart.

⁴ The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning,
but the heart of fools is in the house of feasting.

⁵ It is better to listen to the rebuke of the wise than to listen to the song of fools.

Chapter 7

- ⁶ For like the crackling of thorns burning under a pot,
so also is the laughter of fools.
This too is meaningless.
- ⁷ Extortion certainly makes a wise man foolish, and a bribe corrupts the heart.
- ⁸ Better is the end of a matter than the beginning;
and the people patient in spirit are better than the proud in spirit.
- ⁹ Do not be quick to anger in your spirit, for anger resides in the hearts of fools.
- ¹⁰ Do not say, "Why were the days of old better than these?"
For it is not because of wisdom that you ask this question.
- ¹¹ Wisdom, like an inheritance, is good.
It benefits those who see the sun.
- ¹² For wisdom provides protection as money can provide protection, but the advantage of knowledge is that wisdom gives life to whoever has it.
- ¹³ Consider the deeds of God:
Who can straighten out anything he has made crooked?
- ¹⁴ When times are good, live happily in that good,
but when times are bad, consider this:
God has allowed both
to exist side by side.
For this reason, no one will find out anything that is coming after him.
- ¹⁵ In my meaningless life I have seen everything.
There is a righteous person who perishes in spite of his righteousness, and there is a wicked person who lives a long life in spite of his evil deeds.
- ¹⁶ Do not be self-righteous,
wise in your own eyes.
Why should you destroy yourself?
- ¹⁷ Do not be too wicked or foolish.
Why should you die before your time?
- ¹⁸ It is good that you should take hold of this wisdom, and that you should not let go of righteousness.
For the person who fears God will meet all his obligations. ¹
- ¹⁹ Wisdom is powerful in the wise man, more than ten rulers in a city.

- ²⁰ There is not a righteous man on earth who does good and never sins.
- ²¹ Do not listen to every word that is spoken,
because you might hear your servant curse you.
- ²² For very many times, your heart knows,
even you have cursed others.
- ²³ All this have I proven by wisdom. I said,
"I will be wise,"
but it was more than I could be.
- ²⁴ Wisdom is far off and very deep.
Who can find it?
- ²⁵ I turned my heart to learn and examine and seek wisdom and the explanations of reality, and to understand that evil is stupid
and that folly is madness.
- ²⁶ I found that more bitter than death is any woman whose heart is full of snares and nets, and whose hands are chains.
Whoever pleases God will escape from her,
but the sinner will be caught by her.
- ²⁷ "Consider what I have discovered," says the Teacher.
"I have been adding one discovery to another in order to find an explanation of reality.
- ²⁸ This is what I am still looking for,
but I have not found it.
I did find one righteous man among a thousand,
but a woman among all those I did not find.
- ²⁹ I have discovered only this:
God created humanity upright,
but they have gone away looking for many difficulties."

¹Instead of will meet all his obligations , many modern translations have different interpretations of this difficult passage.

Ecclesiastes 7 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations set poetry farther to the right than the rest of the text to show that it is poetry. The ULB does this with the poetry in 7:1-26.

Special concepts in this chapter

Advice

This chapter gives a series of disconnected pieces of advice. Translators should not try to smooth the transitions between these pieces of advice. The advice in these statements do not apply in every situation. Therefore, they should be seen as "good ideas."

Links:

Ecclesiastes 7:1 Notes

Ecclesiastes 7:1

A good name

Here a person's "name" is used to represent their reputation. Alternate translation: "A good reputation"

Ecclesiastes 7:2

must take this to heart

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "must think seriously about this"

Ecclesiastes 7:3

sadness of face

This refers to being sad. Alternate translation: "an experience that makes a person sad" gladness of heart

Here the word "heart" refers to a person's thoughts and emotions. "Gladness" describes either 1) the state of the emotions of being happy and peaceful or 2) the ability to understand the truth. Alternate translation: "right thinking"

Ecclesiastes 7:4

The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning

Here wise people are referred to by their "hearts." This speaks of the wise person mourning as being in a house of mourning. Alternate translation: "Wise people think deeply about death"

but the heart of fools is in the house of feasting

Here foolish people are referred to by their "hearts." This speaks of foolish people thinking only about what makes them happy as being in a house of feasting. Alternate translation: "but foolish people think only about enjoying themselves"

the house of mourning ... the house of feasting

These phrases refer to what happens in these places.

Ecclesiastes 7:5

to the rebuke of the wise

The word "rebuke" can be expressed as a verb. Alternate translation: "when wise people rebuke you" to listen to the song of fools

"to listen to fools sing"

Ecclesiastes 7:6

For like the crackling of thorns burning under a pot, so also is the laughter of fools

This speaks of how listening to fools talk and laugh will teach you nothing, as if their speech and laughter were the sound of burning thorns. Alternate translation: "For listening to the laughter of fools will not teach a man any more than if he were listening to the crackling of thorns burning under a pot"

Ecclesiastes 7:7

Extortion

This refers to forcing someone to give money or other valuable items to another so that the other person does not harm him. It is considered wrong.

makes a wise man foolish

Possible meanings are 1) "turns the wise man into a foolish man" or 2) "makes the advice of the wise man appear to be foolish advice."

corrupts the heart

Here the word "heart" refers to the mind. Alternate translation: "ruins a person's ability to think and judge rightly"

Ecclesiastes 7:8

the people patient in spirit are better than the proud in spirit

Here the word "spirit" refers to a person's attitude.

Alternate translation: "patient people are better than proud people" or "a patient attitude is better than a prideful attitude"

Ecclesiastes 7:9

Do not be quick to anger in your spirit

Here the word "spirit" refers to a person's attitude.

Alternate translation: "Do not become angry quickly" or

"Do not have a bad temper" anger resides in the hearts of fools

This speaks of a person being full of anger as if the anger lived inside him. This speaks of the anger being in the person's heart because the "heart" is thought to be the source of a person's emotions. Alternate translation: "foolish people are full of anger"

Ecclesiastes 7:10

Why were the days of old better than these?

The person asks this rhetorical question in order to complain about the present time. This question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "Things were better in the past than they are now."

it is not because of wisdom that you ask this question

Here the author uses irony to rebuke the person's question.

Alternate translation: "if you were wise you would not ask this question"

Ecclesiastes 7:11

those who see the sun

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "those who are alive"

Ecclesiastes 7:12

the advantage of knowledge is that wisdom gives life

Possible meanings are 1) that the writer uses the words "knowledge" and "wisdom" to mean the same thing, or 2) "the advantage of knowing wisdom is that it gives life."

gives life to whoever has it

This speaks of how wisdom helps to preserve a person's life as if it gave life to that person. When a person is wise he makes good decisions that help him to live a more prosperous and longer life. Alternate translation: "preserves a person's life" or "helps a person to make good decisions and to live a longer life"

Ecclesiastes 7:13

Who can straighten out anything he has made crooked?

The author uses this rhetorical question to emphasize that no one can change something that God has done. This can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "No one can straighten out anything he has made crooked."

Ecclesiastes 7:14

When times are good ... when times are bad

The word "times" is an idiom for "things happening."
Alternate translation: "When good things happen ... when bad things happen"

live happily in that good

"be happy about those good things"

both to exist side by side

The phrase "side by side" is an idiom that means "this one" and "this one." Alternate translation: "both to exist" or "there to be both good and bad"

anything that is coming after him

Possible meanings are 1) "anything that happens in the future" or 2) "anything that happens to him after he dies."

Ecclesiastes 7:15

There is a righteous person who perishes in spite of his righteousness, and there is a wicked person who lives a long life in spite of his evil deeds.

The phrases "righteous person" and "wicked person" refer to any righteous or wicked person or people. "There are righteous people who perish in spite of their righteousness, and there are wicked people who live a long life in spite of their evil deeds."

in spite of his righteousness

"even though he is righteous"

in spite of his evil deeds

"even though he is evil"

Ecclesiastes 7:16

self-righteous, wise in your own eyes

These two phrases mean basically the same thing and are combined for emphasis.

Do not be self-righteous

"Do not think that you are more righteous than you actually are"

wise in your own eyes

The eyes represent seeing, and seeing represents thoughts or judgment. Alternate translation: "being wise in your own opinion" or "being wise according to your own judgement"

Why should you destroy yourself?

The writer uses this rhetorical question to emphasize that being self-righteous destroys a person. Alternate translation: "There is no reason to destroy yourself." or "If you think this way you will destroy yourself."

Ecclesiastes 7:17

Why should you die before your time?

The author uses this rhetorical question to emphasize that there is no reason for people to do things that will cause them to die early. This question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "There is no reason for you to die sooner than you should."

Ecclesiastes 7:18

take hold of this wisdom

This speaks of striving to be wise as if "wisdom" were an object that a person could hold on to. Alternate translation: "commit yourself to this wisdom"

you should not let go of righteousness

This speaks of striving to be righteous as if "righteousness" were an object that a person could hold on to. Alternate translation: "you should not stop trying to be righteous" or "you should keep trying to be righteous" will meet all his obligations

"will do everything that God expects of him"

Ecclesiastes 7:19

Wisdom is powerful in the wise man, more than ten rulers in a city

"Wisdom makes a man powerful; it makes him more powerful than ten rulers in a city"

Ecclesiastes 7:20

does good and never sins

"does good things and does not sin"

Ecclesiastes 7:21

every word that is spoken

This can be written in active form. Alternate translation:

"everything that people say"

Ecclesiastes 7:22

For very many times, your heart knows, even you have cursed others

"For even you have cursed others very many times, and your heart knows it." The words "many times" placed at the beginning of the sentence and the word "even" before "you" emphasize that the reader is guilty and has been guilty many times.

your heart knows

The heart here is a metonym for the ability to think. "you certainly know."

Ecclesiastes 7:23

All this have I proven here the word "this" refers to all of the things the author has written about. Alternate translation: "All this that I have already written about have I proven"

it was more than I could be

"it was beyond my ability to understand" or "but I was not able to do it"

Ecclesiastes 7:24

far off and very deep

This speaks of wisdom being difficult to understand as if it were something located far away or in a very deep place.

Alternate translation: "difficult to understand"

Who can find it?

The writer uses this rhetorical question to emphasize the difficulty in understanding wisdom. This question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "No one can understand it."

Ecclesiastes 7:25

I turned my heart

Here the word "heart" refers to the mind. Also, here the word "turned" is an idiom. Alternate translation: "I directed my thoughts" or "I determined" the explanations of reality

"the reason for things." This word "explanations" can be expressed as a verb. Alternate translation: "how to explain various things in life"

Ecclesiastes 7:26

any woman whose heart is full of snares and nets, and whose hands are chains

The writer says that the seductive woman is like traps that hunters use to catch animals. The author speaks of a woman being seductive as if she traps men like a hunter traps animals. Her "heart" represents her thoughts and emotions. Alternate translation: "any woman who traps men by seducing them"

snares and nets

Chapter 8

These two words both refer to ways in which people trap animals to emphasize how the woman traps men.

whose hands are chains

Here the word "hands" refers to her power and control.

This speaks of her being seductive as if hands were chains that she bound people with. Alternate translation: "from whom no one can escape"

the sinner will be caught by her

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "she will capture the sinner"

Ecclesiastes 7:27

adding one discovery to another

The word "discovery" can be expressed as a verb. The word "adding" here is used as an idiom. Alternate translation: "discovering one thing after another"

in order to find an explanation of reality

This word "explanation" can be expressed as a verb. See how the phrase "explanations of reality" is translated in [Ecclesiastes 7:25]

Ecclesiastes 7:28

one righteous man among a thousand

"1 righteous man among 1,000." Only one righteous man was found in a group of 1,000 people.

a woman among all those

There were no righteous women found in a group of 1,000 people.

Ecclesiastes 7:29

they have gone away looking for many difficulties

Possible meanings are 1) "they have made many sinful plans" or 2) "they have made their own lives difficult."

they have gone away

Here the word "they" refers to "humanity." This speaks of humanity changing from being upright to not being upright as if they were going from one place to another.

Chapter 8

¹ Who is a wise man?

Who knows what the events in life mean?

Wisdom in a man causes his face to shine,
and the hardness of his face is changed.

²I advise you to obey the king's command because of God's oath to protect him.³Do not hurry out of his presence, and do not stand in support of something wrong, for the king does whatever he desires.⁴The king's word rules, so who will say to him, "What are you doing?"

⁵ Whoever keeps the king's commands avoids harm.

A wise man's heart recognizes the proper course and time of action.

⁶ For every matter there is a correct response and a time to respond, because the troubles of man are great.

⁷ No one knows what is coming next.
Who can tell him what is coming?

⁸ No one has power over the wind to restrain it, ¹ and so, no one has power over the day of his death.
No one is discharged from the army during a battle, and wickedness will not rescue those who are its slaves.

⁹I have realized all this; I have applied my heart to every kind of work that is done under the sun. There is a time when a person exercises authority over another person to that person's hurt. ²

¹⁰So I saw the wicked buried publicly. They were taken from the holy area and buried and were praised by people in the city where they had done their wicked deeds. This also is meaningless. ³

¹¹When a sentence against an evil crime is not executed quickly, it entices the hearts of human beings to do evil.

¹²Even though a sinner does evil a hundred times and still lives a long time, yet I know that it will be better for those who respect God, for those who stand before him and show him respect.¹³But it will not go well for a wicked man; his life will not be prolonged. His days are like a fleeting shadow because he does not honor God.

¹⁴There is something else meaningless that is done on the earth: there are righteous people who get what the wicked deserve, and there are wicked people who get what the righteous deserve. I said this too is meaningless.¹⁵So I recommend enjoyment, because a man has no better thing under the sun than to eat and drink and to be merry. It is happiness that will accompany him in his labor for all the days of his life that God has given him under the sun.

¹⁶When I applied my heart to know wisdom and to understand the work that is done on the earth, work often done without sleep for the eyes at night or in the day,¹⁷ then I considered all of God's deeds, and that man cannot understand the work that is done under the sun. No matter how much a man labors to find the answers, he will not find them. Even though a wise man might believe he knows, he really does not.

¹⁶Some scholars translate the Hebrew as: No one is ruler over the wind so as to stop the wind .

¹⁷Some modern translations have to his own hurt .

¹⁸Many modern translations have different interpretations of this difficult verse: I saw wicked people come and go into the holy place. They proudly spoke in the city about the things they had done. This also is meaningless . Other modern translations have I saw wicked people come and go into the holy place. They were praised in the city for the things they had done. This also is meaningless .

Ecclesiastes 8 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations set poetry farther to the right than the rest of the text to show that it is poetry. The ULB does this with the poetry in 8:1 and 8:5-8.

Special concepts in this chapter

Wisdom

Solomon, known for his wisdom, gives a detailed description of wisdom. True wisdom is seeking to honor God. This is the only thing that lasts. (See: wise)

Links:

Ecclesiastes 8:1 Notes

Ecclesiastes 8:1

Who is a wise man? Who knows what the events in life mean?

The writer asks these as leading questions to provide the answer in what he says next.

causes his face to shine

This means that the person's face will show that he has wisdom. Alternate translation: "shows on his face"

the hardness of his face

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "his harsh appearance" is changed

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "changes"

Ecclesiastes 8:2

God's oath to protect him

"the oath you made before God to protect him"

Ecclesiastes 8:3

Do not hurry out of his presence

Possible meanings are 1) not to be hasty to physically leave the king's presence or 2) This is a metaphor that speaks of being loyal to the king as being in his presence. Alternate translation: "Do not abandon the king"

Ecclesiastes 8:4

The king's word rules

"What the king says is the law"

who will say to him

This rhetorical question emphasizes that no one will ask the king the following question. This question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "no one can say to him"

What are you doing?

This rhetorical question is a rebuke. This question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "You should not be doing what you are doing."

Ecclesiastes 8:5

A wise man's heart recognizes

Here a man is represented by his "heart" to emphasize his thoughts. Alternate translation: "A wise man recognizes" the proper course and time of action

"the correct time to do things and the right way to do them"

Ecclesiastes 8:6

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Ecclesiastes 8:7

Who can tell him what is coming?

This rhetorical question emphasizes that no one knows what will happen in the future. This question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "No one can tell him what is coming."

Ecclesiastes 8:8

No one has power over the wind to restrain it ... no one has power over the day of his death

Just as no one has the ability to stop the wind from blowing, no one can continue living when it is time to die.

the day of his death

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "when he will die"

No one is discharged from the army

This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "No army discharges anyone" or "No army allows soldiers to leave" wickedness will not rescue those who are its slaves

This speaks of wickedness as if it were a master who had slaves. Alternate translation: "evil people will not be saved by doing what is evil"

Ecclesiastes 8:9

I have applied my heart

Here the author refers to himself by his "heart" to emphasize his feelings. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:17]

every kind of work that is done

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "every kind of work that people do"

under the sun

This refers to things that are done on earth. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:3]

There is a time when a person exercises authority over another person to that person's hurt

Sometimes one person will oppress another and cause that second person to be hurt.

Ecclesiastes 8:10

the wicked buried publicly

This can be stated in active form. Evil people that died were given honorable burials. Alternate translation: "people bury the wicked publicly"

They were taken from the holy area and buried and were praised by people

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "People took them from the holy area and buried them and praised them"

Ecclesiastes 8:11

When a sentence against an evil crime is not executed quickly

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"When people in authority do not quickly execute a sentence against an evil crime"

entices the hearts of human beings

Here people are represented by their "hearts" to emphasize their will and desires. Alternate translation: "entices human beings"

Ecclesiastes 8:12

a hundred times

"100 times"

it will be better for those who respect God

The phrase "it will be better" is an idiom. Alternate translation: "life will be better for those who respect God" who respect God ... who stand before him and show him respect

These two phrases mean basically the same thing and are combined to emphasize people respecting God.

Ecclesiastes 8:13

his life will not be prolonged

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "God will not prolong his life"

His days are like a fleeting shadow

This speaks of how the wicked man's life passes quickly by saying that it is like a shadow that quickly disappears.

Alternate translation: "His days will pass as quickly as a shadow disappears"

His days are

"His life is"

Ecclesiastes 8:14

something else meaningless that is done on the earth

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"another meaningless thing that people do on the earth"

Ecclesiastes 8:15

under the sun

This refers to things that are done on earth. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:3]

for all the days of his life that God has given him

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "for as long as God allows him to live"

Ecclesiastes 8:16

I applied my heart

Here the author refers to himself by his "heart" to emphasize his feelings. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:17]

the work that is done on the earth

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "the work that people do on the earth"

without sleep for the eyes

Here a person is represented by his "eyes." Alternate translation: "without sleeping"

Ecclesiastes 8:17

the work that is done under the sun

Possible meanings are 1) "the work that God does under the sun" or 2) "the work that God allows people to do under the sun."

under the sun

This refers to things that are done on earth. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:3]

Chapter 9

¹So all of this I laid to my heart, to make it clear, and I concluded that the righteous and the wise, and all that they do, are in the hand of God, but no one knows whether love or hate awaits him.

²Everyone has the same fate. The same fate awaits righteous people and wicked, the good, ¹ the clean and the unclean, and the one who sacrifices and the one who does not sacrifice.

As good people will die,
so also will the sinner.

As the one who swears will die,
so also will the man who fears to make an oath.

³There is an evil fate for everything that is done under the sun, the same event happens to them all. The hearts of human beings are full of evil, and madness is in their hearts while they live. So after that they go to the dead.

⁴Whoever is joined with all the living has hope—even a live dog is better than a dead lion.

⁵ For those who are alive know they will die, but the dead do not know anything.

They no longer have any reward because their memory is forgotten.

⁶ Their love, hatred,
and envy have vanished long ago.
They will never have a place again in anything done under the sun.

⁷Go your way, eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a happy heart, for God approves of your deeds.⁸Let your clothes be always white and your head anointed with oil.

⁹Enjoy life with the wife whom you love all the days of this meaningless life that God has given you under the sun—all your meaningless days. For this is your reward in life for your difficult work that you labored in under the sun.

¹⁰Whatever your hand finds to do, work at it with your strength, because there is no work or explanation or knowledge or wisdom in Sheol, where you are going.

¹¹Again I saw under the sun:
the race is not to the swift,
nor is the battle to the strong,
nor does food come to the wise,
nor riches to the intelligent,
nor favor to those with knowledge,
but time and chance happen to them all.

¹²Surely, no one knows when his time will come.
As fish are caught in a deadly net,
or birds are caught in a snare,
the children of human beings are ensnared by evil times that suddenly fall upon them.

¹³I have also seen wisdom under the sun in a way that seemed great to me.¹⁴There was a small city with only a few men in it, and a great king came against it, he surrounded it and built great siege ramps against it.¹⁵Now in the city was found a poor, wise man, who by his wisdom saved the city. Yet later, no one remembered that same poor man.

¹⁶So I concluded, "Wisdom is better than strength, but the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard."

¹⁷ The words of wise people spoken quietly are heard better than the shouts of any ruler among fools.

¹⁸ Wisdom is better than weapons of war,
but one sinner can ruin much good.

Some modern translations follow ancient translations which have the good and the bad . In this way, they make the phrase complete. Translators may decide to imitate them.

Ecclesiastes 9 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations set poetry farther to the right than the rest of the text to show that it is poetry. The ULB does this with the poetry in 9:2, 5-6, and 11-12.

Special concepts in this chapter

Judgment

This chapter explains that there is one thing that awaits all people: judgment. When people die, they will all face Yahweh's judgment. (See: judge)

Links:

Ecclesiastes 9:1 Notes

Ecclesiastes 9:1

all of this I laid to my heart

"I thought very deeply about all this"

in the hand of God

Here the word "hand" refers to power and authority.

Alternate translation: "under God's control"

whether love or hate awaits him

This speaks of "love" and "hate" as if they are people that may come to visit someone else. Alternate translation:

"whether he will experience love or hate"

Ecclesiastes 9:2

righteous people and wicked

This refers to all people, emphasizing the two opposites of righteous and wicked people.

wicked ... the good ... the clean and the unclean

All of these phrases refer to people. Alternate translation:

"wicked people ... good people ... clean people and unclean people"

the clean and the unclean

This refers to all people, emphasizing the two opposites of clean and unclean people.

the clean

A person who is acceptable for God's purposes is spoken of as if the person were physically clean.

the unclean

A person who is not acceptable for God's purposes is spoken of as if the person were physically unclean.

the one who sacrifices and the one who does not sacrifice

This refers to all people, emphasizing the two opposites of those who sacrifice and those who do not.

As good people ... so also will the sinner

This refers to all people, emphasizing the two opposites of good people and sinners.

will the sinner ... will the man who fears to make an oath

It is understood that this refers to people dying. Alternate translation: "the sinner will die ... the man who fears to make an oath will die"

the one who swears ... so also will the man who fears to make an oath

This refers to all people, emphasizing the two opposites of those who swear oaths and those who do not.

Ecclesiastes 9:3

everything that is done

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"everything that happens"

under the sun

This refers to things that are done on earth. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:3]

the same event

death

The hearts of human beings are full of evil, and madness is in their hearts

Here the word "hearts" refers to the thoughts and emotions.

Alternate translation: "Human beings are full of evil, and their thoughts are of madness" madness

"folly"

they go to the dead

The phrase "the dead" refers to dead people. Here dead people represent the place where people go after they die.

Alternate translation: "they go to the place where dead people are" or "they die and go to the grave"

Ecclesiastes 9:4

the living

This refers to people who are alive. Alternate translation: "who are alive"

even a live dog is better than a dead lion

A dog was considered a lowly animal while a lion was considered a noble animal. This speaks of it being better to be lowly and alive than to be considered noble and dead.

Alternate translation: "As lowly as a dog is, it is better to be a dog and to be alive than to be noble like a lion and to be dead"

Ecclesiastes 9:5

the dead

This refers to people who are dead. Alternate translation: "those who are dead"

their memory is forgotten

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"people will forget them"

Ecclesiastes 9:6

Their love, hatred, and envy

This refers to the love, hatred, and envy that the dead people showed others when they were alive.

anything done

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"anything that people do"

under the sun

This refers to things that are done on earth. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:3]

Ecclesiastes 9:7

eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a happy heart

These two phrases share similar meanings and emphasize the importance of enjoying the basic activities of life.

your bread

This refers to food in general. Alternate translation: "your food" drink your wine with a happy heart

Here the word "heart" refers to the emotions. Alternate translation: "drink your wine joyfully"

Ecclesiastes 9:8

Let your clothes be always white and your head anointed with oil

Wearing white clothes and anointing one's head with oil were both signs of gladness and celebration.

your head anointed with oil

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"anoint your head with oil"

Ecclesiastes 9:9

Enjoy life with the wife whom you love

One should love the wife he has. Alternate translation:

"Since you have a wife whom you love, live happily with her"

under the sun

This refers to things that are done on earth. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:3]

your ... days

"your ... lifetime"

this is your reward

The word "that" refers to living happily with his wife.

Ecclesiastes 9:10

Whatever your hand finds to do

Here a person is represented by his "hand" since a person often uses his hands to work. Alternate translation: "Whatever you are able to do"

there is no work or explanation or knowledge or wisdom

The nouns "work," "explanation," and "knowledge" can be expressed as verbs. Alternate translation: "the dead do not work or explain or know or have wisdom"

Ecclesiastes 9:11

under the sun

This refers to things that are done on earth. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:3]

the race is not to the swift, nor is the battle to the strong

"the race is not always won by the swift, nor is the battle always won by the strong"

the swift ... the strong ... the wise ... the intelligent

These words are used to describe persons with those qualities. Alternate translation: "the quickest person ... the strongest person ... the wisest person ... the most intelligent person"

but time and chance happen to them all

This is an idiom. It means that all people experience things that they do not expect, are out of their control, and may not seem fair or right. Alternate translation: "but at certain times, unexpected things happen to them all"

Ecclesiastes 9:12

when his time will come

This refers to when a person dies. Alternate translation: "when he will die" or "when the time of his death will come"

fish are caught ... birds are caught ... the children of human beings are ensnared

This speaks of people dying when they do not expect it, in the same way that people catch animals and kill them when they do not expect it.

the children of human beings are ensnared by evil times

This can be stated in active form. Also, this speaks of people experiencing disaster and unfortunate times as if they were being imprisoned or trapped. Alternate translation: "evil times are coming upon the children of human beings" that suddenly fall upon them

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "at times when they do not expect them to happen" or "that suddenly happen to them"

Ecclesiastes 9:13

under the sun

This refers to things that are done on earth. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:3]

Ecclesiastes 9:14

a great king came against it

Here the "king" represents himself and his whole army.

Alternate translation: "a great king and his army"

great siege ramps

This refers to dirt ramps the army built up against the city walk so that they could climb up and attack the city.

Ecclesiastes 9:15

in the city was found a poor, wise man

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "in the city, people found a poor, wise man" or "a poor, wise man lived in the city"

Ecclesiastes 9:16

the poor man's wisdom is despised

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "people despise the poor man's wisdom"

his words are not heard

this can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"they do not listen to what he says" or "they do not take his advice"

Ecclesiastes 9:17

The words of wise people spoken quietly are heard better

Here "heard" represents understanding. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "It is easier to understand the words that wise people speak quietly"

Ecclesiastes 9:18

General Information:

This page has intentionally been left blank.

Chapter 10

¹ As dead flies cause perfume to stink, so a little folly can outweigh wisdom and honor.

² The heart of a wise person tends to the right,
but the heart of a fool tends to the left.

³ When a fool walks down a road,
his thinking is deficient,
proving to everyone he is a fool.

⁴ If the emotions of a ruler rise up against you,
do not leave your work.
Calm can quiet down great outrage.

⁵ There is an evil that I have seen under the sun,

a kind of error that comes from a ruler:

- ⁶ Fools are given leadership positions,
while wealthy men are given low positions.
- ⁷ I have seen slaves riding horses, and princes walking on the ground like slaves.
- ⁸ The one who digs a pit will fall into it, and whoever breaks through a wall may be bitten by a snake.
- ⁹ Whoever cuts out stones can be hurt by them,
and the man who chops wood is endangered by it.
- ¹⁰ If an iron blade is dull, and a man does not sharpen it,
then he must use more strength,
but wisdom provides an advantage for success.
- ¹¹ If a snake bites before it is charmed,
then there is no advantage for the charmer.
- ¹² The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious,
but the lips of a fool consume him.
- ¹³ As words begin to flow from a fool's mouth, foolishness comes out,
and at the end his mouth flows with wicked madness.
- ¹⁴ A fool multiplies words,
but no one knows what is coming.
Who knows what is coming after him?
- ¹⁵ The toil of fools wearies them,
so that they do not even know the road to town.
- ¹⁶ Woe to you, land, if your king is a young boy,
and if your leaders begin feasting in the morning!
- ¹⁷ But blessed are you, land, if your king is the son of nobles, and if your leaders eat at the right time,
for strength, and not for drunkenness!
- ¹⁸ Because of laziness the roof sinks in,
and because of idle hands the house leaks.
- ¹⁹ People prepare food for laughter,
wine brings enjoyment to life,
and money fills the need for everything.

²⁰ Do not curse the king, not even in your mind,
and do not curse rich people in your bedroom.
For a bird of the sky might carry your words;
whatever has wings can spread the matter.

Ecclesiastes 10 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations set poetry farther to the right than the rest of the text to show that it is poetry. The ULB does this with the poetry in all of chapter 10.

Special concepts in this chapter

Advice

This chapter gives a series of disconnected pieces of advice. Translators should not try to smooth the transitions between these pieces of advice. The advice in these statements do not apply in every situation. Therefore, they should be seen as "good ideas."

Links:

Ecclesiastes 10:1 Notes

Ecclesiastes 10:1

As dead flies ... so a little folly

Just as flies can ruin perfume, so folly can ruin a person's reputation for wisdom and honor. This speaks of how a little folly can ruin a person's reputation in the same way that a few dead flies ruin perfume.

a little folly can outweigh wisdom and honor

This speaks of how a person acting foolishly can ruin his reputation as if his folly could weigh more than his wisdom and honor. Alternate translation: "committing a little folly can ruin a person's wisdom and honor"

Ecclesiastes 10:2

The heart of a wise person ... the heart of a fool

Here the word "heart" refers to the mind or will. Alternate translation: "The way a wise person thinks ... the way a fool thinks"

tends to the right ... tends to the left

Here the words "right" and "left" refer to what is right and wrong. Alternate translation: "tends to doing what is right ... tends to doing what is wrong"

Ecclesiastes 10:3

his thinking is deficient

This refers to the way that he acts. Alternate translation: "he is stupid"

Ecclesiastes 10:4

If the emotions of a ruler rise up against you

Here a ruler is represented by his "emotions" Alternate translation: "If a ruler becomes angry with you"

Calm can quiet down great outrage

"By remaining calm you may cause an outraged person to become quiet." Many modern translations read, "Calm can undo great offenses"

Ecclesiastes 10:5

under the sun

This refers to things that are done on earth. See how you translated this in [Ecclesiastes 1:3]

Ecclesiastes 10:6

Fools are given leadership positions

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"Rulers give positions of leadership to fools"

wealthy men are given low positions

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"they give low positions to wealthy men"

wealthy

If your language has a word for people who are wealthy because they are wise, you might want to use it here.

low positions

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "unimportant positions"

Ecclesiastes 10:7

princes walking on the ground like slaves

Slaves were usually forced to walk and were not permitted to ride.

walking on the ground

If the words "on the ground" here would cause confusion, since on the ground is where most people walk, you can omit them.

Ecclesiastes 10:8

whoever breaks through a wall may be bitten by a snake

This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation:

"a snake may bite whoever breaks through a wall"

a snake

This refers to a snake that was hiding inside the wall.

Ecclesiastes 10:9

cuts out stones

This refers working in a quarry and cutting larger stones.

can be hurt by them

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"those stones can hurt him"

is endangered by it

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "the wood may injure him"

Ecclesiastes 10:10

wisdom provides an advantage for success

A wise person would have sharpened his blade and would not have had to work so hard.

Ecclesiastes 10:11

before it is charmed

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:
"before the snake charmer charms it"

Ecclesiastes 10:12

The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious

Here the wise man's speech is represented by his "mouth." Alternate translation: "The things that a wise man says are gracious"

the lips of a fool consume him

Here the fool's speech is represented by his "lips." This speaks of the fool destroying himself by his speech as if it were eating him. Alternate translation: "The things that a foolish man says destroy him"

Ecclesiastes 10:13

As words begin to flow from a fool's mouth

A fool's speech is represented by his "mouth." Alternate translation: "As a fool begins to speak" at the end his mouth flows with wicked madness

A fool's speech is represented by his "mouth." Alternate translation: "as he finishes talking, he speaks wicked madness"

Ecclesiastes 10:14

multiplies words

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "keeps on talking"

what is coming

"what will happen in the future"

Who knows what is coming after him?

The writer asks this question to emphasize that no one knows what will happen in the future after one's death.

This question can be written as a statement. Alternate translation: "No one knows what is coming after him." or "No one knows what will happen after he dies."

Ecclesiastes 10:15

wearies them

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "Fools become weary by their toil" or "Fools feel tired by the work that they do"

so that they do not even know the road to town

Possible meanings are 1) "so much that he is unable to find the road to town." That the foolish person becomes so tired from working too hard that he is unable to find his way anywhere, or 2) "because he does not even know the way to town." That the foolish person becomes tired from working too hard because he does not know enough to go home.

Ecclesiastes 10:16

Woe to you, land

The writer is speaking to the people of the nation as if they were the land itself, and he is speaking to the land as if it were a person.

if your king is a young boy

This means that the king is inexperienced or immature.

begin feasting in the morning

This implies that the leaders are more concerned with having a good time than with leading the nation.

Ecclesiastes 10:17

blessed are you, land

The writer is speaking to the people of the nation as if they were the land itself, and he is speaking to the land as if it were a person.

king is the son of nobles

This implies that the son has been trained by his elders in the customs of being a good king. Alternate translation:

"king has trained by nobles"

for strength, and not for drunkenness

This explains why the blessed leaders eat.

Ecclesiastes 10:18

Because of laziness the roof sinks in

A lazy person does not keep up on the regular house maintenance. Alternate translation: "Because a lazy person does not repair his house, the roof sinks in"

because of idle hands

Here a person is represented by his "hands" Alternate translation: "because of an idle person" or "because the person is idle"

the house leaks

Here the roof is represented by the whole house. Alternate translation: "the roof leaks"

Ecclesiastes 10:19

People prepare food for laughter

The word "laughter" can be expressed as a verb. Alternate translation: "People prepare food in order to laugh"

wine brings enjoyment to life

The word "enjoyment" can be expressed as a verb.

Alternate translation: "wine helps people to enjoy life"

money fills the need for everything Possible meanings are 1) "money provides for every need" or 2) "money provides for both food and wine"

Ecclesiastes 10:20

not even in your mind

A person's thoughts are represented by the person's "mind."

Alternate translation: "not even in your thoughts"

rich people in your bedroom

"rich people when you are in your bedroom." This means that you should not curse rich people even when you are in a private place where no one else will hear.

For a bird of the sky ... can spread the matter

These two lines mean basically the same thing and are combined for emphasis. This speaks of people finding out what you have said as if a small bird would hear what you say and tell other people. Alternate translation: "For a bird may hear what you say and tell the matter to other people"

Chapter 11

¹ Send out your bread on the waters, for you will find it again after many days.

² Share it with seven, even eight people, for you do not know what disasters are coming on the earth.

³ If the clouds are full of rain,
they empty themselves on the earth, and if a tree falls toward the south or toward the north,
wherever the tree falls, there it will remain.

⁴ He who watches the wind might not plant, and he who watches the clouds might not harvest.

⁵ As you do not know the path of the wind, nor how a baby's bones grow in the pregnant womb, ¹
so also you cannot comprehend the work of God, who created everything.

⁶ In the morning plant your seed;
until the evening, work with your hands as needed,
for you do not know which will prosper,
whether morning or evening, or this or that,
or whether they will both alike be good.

⁷ Truly the light is sweet, and it is a pleasant thing for the eyes to see the sun.

⁸ If someone lives many years,
let him rejoice in all of them,
but let him think about the coming days of darkness,
for they will be many.
Everything to come is meaningless.

⁹ Take joy, young man, in your youth, and let your heart be joyful in the days of your youth.
Pursue the good desires of your heart,
and whatever is within the sight of your eyes.
However, know that God will bring you into judgment for all these things.

¹⁰ Drive anger away from your heart, and ignore any pain in your body,
because youth and its strength are meaningless.

¹Some modern translations have As you do not know the path of the spirit to the baby's bones in the pregnant womb .

Ecclesiastes 11 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations set poetry farther to the right than the rest of the text to show that it is poetry. The ULB does this with the poetry in all of chapter 11.

Special concepts in this chapter

Advice

This chapter gives a series of disconnected pieces of advice. Translators should not try to smooth the transitions between these pieces of advice. The advice in these statements do not apply in every situation. Therefore, they should be seen as

"good ideas."

Links:

Ecclesiastes 11:1 Notes

Ecclesiastes 11:1

Send out your bread on the waters, for you will find it again after many days

Possible meanings are 1) this is a metaphor that means a person should be generous with his possessions and will then receive generously from others , or 2) that a person should invest his resources overseas and will make a profit from it.

Ecclesiastes 11:2

Share it with seven, even eight people

Possible meanings are 1) to share your possessions with many people, or 2) to invest your resources in multiple places.

seven, even eight people

"7, even 8 people." This is an idiom that means "numerous" people. Alternate translation: "numerous people" or "multiple people"

what disasters are coming on the earth

Disasters happening is spoken of as if disasters were something that come to a place. Here "on the earth" may imply that these disasters happen to the person who is commanded to share. Alternate translation: "what disasters may happen in the world" or "what bad things may happen to you"

Ecclesiastes 11:3

the clouds are full of rain

"the clouds are dark with rain"

empty themselves on the earth

"empty themselves on the ground"

toward the south or toward the north

Here "south" and "north" represent any direction. Alternate translation: "in any direction"

Ecclesiastes 11:4

He who watches the wind might not plant

Possible meanings are 1) "Any farmer who pays attention to the wind will not plant when the wind is blowing in the wrong direction" or 2) "Any farmer who pays too much attention to the wind will never plant"

he who watches the clouds might not harvest

Possible meanings are 1) "any farmer who pays attention to the clouds will not harvest when it is about to rain" or 2) "any farmer who pays too much attention to the clouds will never harvest"

Ecclesiastes 11:5

As you do not know the path of the wind

This speaks of wind blowing as if wind traveled on a path. Alternate translation: "As you do not know where the wind comes from or where it goes"

how a baby's bones grow

Possible meanings are 1) Here "bones" is a synecdoche representing the baby as a whole. Alternate translation: "how a baby grows" or 2) literally, "how the bones of a baby grow"

Ecclesiastes 11:6

work with your hands

Here "hands" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "keep on working"

whether morning or evening, or this or that

These two phrases mean basically the same thing and emphasize that the person's work may prosper, no matter what time he has done it. Alternate translation: "whether the seed that you planted in the morning or the seed that you planted in the evening"

Ecclesiastes 11:7

light is sweet

Here the word "light" refers to being able to see the sun and therefore being alive. And, this speaks of the joy of being alive as if the light had a sweet taste. Alternate translation: "it is a joy to be able to see the sun" or "being alive is delightful"

for the eyes to see the sun

The "eyes" represent the whole person. This phrase means basically the same thing as the previous phrase. Alternate translation: "for a person to see the sun" or "to be alive"

Ecclesiastes 11:8

let him rejoice in all of them

"he should enjoy them all" or "he should rejoice without ceasing in all of them"

the coming days of darkness

Future time is spoken of as if the "days are coming" And, here the word "darkness" refers to death. Alternate translation: "how many days that he will be dead"

for they will be many

Here the word "they" refers to the "days of darkness"

Alternate translation: "for he will be dead for many more days than he is alive" or "for he will be dead forever"

Everything to come is meaningless

Possible meanings are 1) Alternate translation: "No one knows what will happen after he dies" or 2) Alternate translation: "Everything to come is meaningless"

Everything to come

Possible meanings are 1) "Everything that happens after death" or 2) "Everything that happens in the future"

Ecclesiastes 11:9

Take joy, young man, in your youth, and let your heart be joyful in the days of your youth

These two phrases mean basically the same thing and are combined to emphasize that the man should be happy while he is young.

let your heart be joyful

Here the word "heart" represents the emotions. Alternate translation: "be joyful"

Pursue the good desires of your heart

Here the word "heart" may represent the mind or emotions. Alternate translation: "Pursue the good things that you desire" or "Pursue the good things that you have determined to pursue"

whatever is within the sight of your eyes

Chapter 12

Here "eyes" represent the whole person. Alternate translation: "whatever you see that you desire" or "whatever you see to be best"
God will bring you into judgment for all these things
The abstract noun "judgment" can be stated as "judge" or "make you account" Alternate translation: "God will judge you for all these things" or "God will make you account for all of your actions"
Ecclesiastes 11:10
Drive anger away from your heart

Refusing to be angry is spoken of as if anger were something that can be forced away. Also, "heart" represents a person's emotions. Alternate translation: "Refuse to be angry"
because youth and its strength are meaningless
The authors speaks of things as being useless and meaningless as if they were "vapor" Just as vapor disappears and does not last, the author speaks of things having no lasting value. See how you translated "vapor" in [Ecclesiastes 1:14]

Chapter 12

¹ Also call to mind your Creator in the days of your youth,
before the days of difficulty come,
and before the years arrive when you say,
"I have no pleasure in them";

² do this before the light of the sun and the moon and the stars grows dark, and dark clouds return after the rain.

³ That will be the time when the palace guards will tremble, and strong men are bent over,
and the women who grind cease because they are few,
and those who look through windows become dim.

⁴ That will be the time when the doors are shut in the street, and the sound of grinding stops,
when men are startled at the voice of a bird,
and the singing of girls' voices fades away.

⁵ That will be the time when men become afraid of heights and of terrors along the road,
and when the almond tree blossoms,
and when grasshoppers drag themselves along,
and when natural desires fail.
Then the man goes to his eternal home
and the mourners go around in the streets.

⁶ Call to mind your Creator before the silver cord is cut, or the golden bowl is crushed,
or the pitcher is shattered at the spring,
or the water wheel is broken at the cistern,

⁷ before the dust returns to the earth where it came from,
and the spirit returns to God who gave it.

⁸ "Meaningless! Meaningless!" says the Teacher.
"Everything is meaningless!"

⁹The Teacher was wise and he taught the people knowledge. He studied and searched out and set in order many proverbs.

¹⁰The Teacher sought to write using vivid, upright words of truth.

¹¹The words of wise people are like goads. Like nails driven deeply are the words of the masters in collections of their proverbs, which are taught by one shepherd.

¹²My son, be warned about something more. The making of many books has no end, and much study brings weariness to the body.

¹³ The end of the matter
after everything has been heard,
is that you must fear God and keep his commandments,
for this is the whole duty of mankind.

¹⁴ For God will bring every deed into judgment,
along with every hidden thing,
whether it is good or evil.

Ecclesiastes 12 General Notes

Structure and formatting

Some translations set poetry farther to the right than the rest of the text to show that it is poetry. The ULB does this with the poetry in 12:1-7 and 12:13-14.

Special concepts in this chapter

Advice

This chapter gives a series of disconnected pieces of advice. Translators should not try to smooth the transitions between these pieces of advice. The advice in these statements do not apply in every situation. Therefore, they should be seen as "good ideas."

Yahweh

At the end of a very impressive life, Solomon looks back and sees that the only real lasting thing in this world is Yahweh. The purpose of his life was to honor Yahweh, something he should have done far more throughout his life. Therefore, he felt that his life was wasted.

Links:

Ecclesiastes 12:1 Notes

Ecclesiastes 12:1

call to mind

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "remember"

before the days of difficulty come

Future time is spoken of as if the "days are coming"

Alternate translation: "before you experience difficult times" or "before bad things happen to you"

before the years arrive when you say, "I have no pleasure in them"

Future time is spoken of as if "years arrive" Alternate translation: "before you become old when you say, 'I no longer enjoy being alive'"

Ecclesiastes 12:2

do this before the light of the sun ... after the rain

Growing old and dying is spoken of as if the sun and moon go dark and dark clouds return. Alternate translation: "do this before it seems to you that the light of the sun ... after the rain"

Ecclesiastes 12:3

General Information:

The writer describes a house in which various activities stop. This appears to be a metaphor for the human body as it becomes old.

strong men are bent over

"strong men become weak"

the women who grind cease because they are few

"the women who grind grain stop grinding grain because there are few of them"

those who look through windows become dim

Possible meanings of this metaphor, where "windows" represents the old person's eyes, are 1) the old person himself can no longer see clearly. Alternate translation:

"those who try to see can only see dimly." Or 2) what the old person sees is no longer clear. Alternate translation: "the people whom they see looking at them are dim"

Ecclesiastes 12:4

General Information:

The writer continues his metaphor.

the doors are shut in the street

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"people shut the doors that lead to the street"

when men are startled at the voice of a bird

It is implied that the voice of the birds startle the men awake. This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "when the voice of a bird startles men awake"

the singing of girls' voices fades away

Here "girls" may be a metaphor for the birds. Alternate translation: "the songs of the birds fade away"

Ecclesiastes 12:5

General Information:

The writer continues his metaphor.

terrors along the road

The word "terrors" is a metonym for things that cause

Chapter 1

people terror. Alternate translation: "things along the road that frighten them" when the almond tree blossoms

The "almond tree" is a tree that blossoms in the winter with white flowers.

when grasshoppers drag themselves along

A grasshopper is a large, straight-winged insect with long, jointed back legs that give it the ability to jump a long way. Here it can only drag itself because it has gotten old and weak.

when natural desires fail

The abstract noun "desires" can be stated as a verb.

Alternate translation: "when people no longer desire what they once did naturally"

Then the man goes to his eternal home

This refers to death. Alternate translation: "Then the man goes to the place of the dead forever" or "Then the person dies and never returns to life"

the mourners go around in the streets

Possible meanings are 1) that mourners go around in the streets to attend a funeral, or 2) that mourners go around in the streets to the house of the person who is about to die.

Ecclesiastes 12:6

Call to mind

This is an idiom. Alternate translation: "Remember"

before the silver cord is cut ... or the water wheel is broken at the cistern

The writer speaks of dying as if it were one of these various broken items. Death will break the body just as suddenly as people accidentally break these items while they are using them.

the silver cord is cut

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "someone cuts the silver cord"

the golden bowl is crushed

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "someone crushes the golden bowl"

the pitcher is shattered

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "someone shatters the pitcher"

the water wheel is broken

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation: "someone breaks the water wheel"

Ecclesiastes 12:7

dust returns to the earth

Here the word "dust" refers to the human body that has decomposed.

Ecclesiastes 12:8

Meaningless

Or "vapor."

the Teacher

See how you translated this in Ecclesiastes 1:1.

Ecclesiastes 12:9

searched out and set in order

"thought much about and arranged" or "thought much about and wrote down"

Ecclesiastes 12:10

using vivid ... words

The Teacher wanted the words to be pleasurable to the listener. They bring pleasure because they are well written, not because they are comforting.

Ecclesiastes 12:11

The words of wise people ... taught by one shepherd

The writer speaks of the teacher who uses his words to instruct people as if the teacher were a shepherd who uses his tools to lead his flock.

The words of wise people are like goads

This is a simile. Alternate translation: "Wise people encourage people to act, like a sharp stick encourages an animal to move"

Like nails driven deeply are the words of the masters in collections of their proverbs

This is a simile. Alternate translation: "Like you can depend on a nail that a person drives firmly into a piece of wood, so you can depend on the words of the masters in collections of their proverbs" the words of the masters in collections of their proverbs

"the wise words collected in their proverbs" or "the sayings of the wise"

which are taught by one shepherd

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"which one shepherd teaches"

Ecclesiastes 12:12

be warned about something more

Possible meanings are 1) these words refer to what follows or 2) these words refer to the material in verse 11, "be careful of anything in addition to that."

The making of many books has no end

The noun phrase "the making" can be stated as a verb.

Alternate translation: "People will never stop making many books" brings weariness to the body

Here "body" represents the whole person. Alternate translation: "makes the person tired"

Ecclesiastes 12:13

The end of the matter

"The final conclusion on the matter"

after everything has been heard

This can be stated in active form. Alternate translation:

"after you have heard everything"

Ecclesiastes 12:14

along with every hidden thing

Things done in secret is spoken of as if they were an object that was hidden. Alternate translation: "along with everything that people do in secret"

Song of Songs

Chapter 1

¹The Song of Songs, which is Solomon's.

² Oh, that he would kiss me with the kisses of his mouth, for your love is better than wine.

³ Your anointing oils have a pleasing fragrance;
your name is like flowing perfume,
so the young women love you.

⁴ Take me with you, and we will run.
The king has brought me into his rooms.

We are glad; We rejoice about you;
let us praise your love; it is better than wine.
It is right for the other women to love you.

⁵ I am dark but lovely, you daughters of Jerusalem—
dark like the tents of Kedar,
lovely like the curtains of Solomon.

⁶ Do not stare at me because I am dark, because the sun has scorched me.
My mother's sons were angry with me;
they made me keeper of the vineyards,
but my own vineyard I have not kept.

⁷ Tell me, you whom my soul loves,
where do you feed your flock?
Where do you rest your flock at noontime?
Why should I be like someone who wanders beside the flocks of your companions?

⁸ If you do not know, most beautiful among women,
follow the tracks of my flock,
and pasture your young goats near the shepherds' tents.

⁹ I compare you, my love, to a mare among Pharaoh's chariot horses.

¹⁰ Your cheeks are beautiful with ornaments, your neck with strings of jewels.

¹¹ We will make for you gold ornaments with silver studs.

¹² While the king lay on his couch, my nard emitted its fragrance.

¹³ My beloved is to me like a bag of myrrh that spends the night lying between my breasts.

¹⁴ My beloved is to me like a cluster of henna flowers in the vineyards of En Gedi.

¹⁵ Listen, you are beautiful, my love;
listen, you are beautiful;
your eyes are doves.

¹⁶ Listen, you are handsome, my beloved, how handsome.
The lush plants are our bed.

¹⁷ The beams of our house are cedars;
our rafters are firs.

Song of Songs 1 General Notes

Special concepts in this chapter

Kisses

The kisses in this chapter are a type of kiss that was only done between a husband and a wife. It is an intimate kiss.

Love and affection

This chapter is centered on the feelings of love, affection, and attraction. Different cultural standards may make translation difficult and the translator may use euphemisms to avoid offending people.

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Metaphors

In the ancient Near East, it was common to describe a woman using metaphors involving animals. In many cultures today, this can be considered offensive. Different metaphors of beauty are used in different cultures.

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

"I am dark"

In the ancient Near East, rich people usually had lighter skin because they did not need to work outside in the sun. This young woman had to work out in the sun, and her skin became darker than it was when she was younger.

Links:

Song of Songs 1:1 Notes Song of Songs intro

Song of Solomon 1:1

General Information:

See: and

General Information:

Throughout the book, it is not always clear who is speaking or who they are speaking to. We have notes telling who some scholars think the speakers are.

The Song of Songs

"The Best Song" or "The Most Excellent Song"

which is Solomon's

Possible meanings are "which is about Solomon" or "which Solomon composed."

Song of Solomon 1:2

Oh, that he would kiss me with the kisses of his mouth

The woman thinks this or says this to herself.

your love is better than wine

"The ways you show you love me are better than wine." The woman says this to the man.

Song of Solomon 1:3

General Information:

The woman continues speaking to the man.

Your anointing oils

"The oils that you put on your body"

have a pleasing fragrance

"smell wonderful"

your name is like flowing perfume

Perfume has a good smell that spreads as the air moves.

The name is either a metonym for 1) the person's reputation, what other people think of him. Here the speaker says that people always think that the hearer is a good person, or 2) the person himself.

Song of Solomon 1:4

Take

"Pull" or "Drag." Here the woman describes herself as being like a captive who is willing to follow her captor.

with you ... about you ... your love ... to love you.

The word "you" and "your" in this verse is masculine singular, so it refers to the man.

we will run

The word "we" refers to the young woman together with the man.

The king has brought me into his rooms.

The king is the man that the woman loves. The woman is probably talking to herself.

Chapter 1

We are glad ... We rejoice ... let us praise

The woman speaks of herself as if she were more than one person. Some versions change the pronoun to "I" as the UDB does. Other versions present these as the words of the woman's friends speaking about either the woman or the man.

about you

"because of you"

It is right for the other women to love you

"Women who love you are doing as they should do"

Song of Solomon 1:5

General Information:

In 1:5-6 the woman speaks to the to the other women.

I am dark but lovely

"My skin is dark, but I am still beautiful" or "Even though my skin is dark, I am beautiful"

dark like the tents of Kedar

The nomadic tribes in Kedar used black goat skins to build their homes. The woman is comparing her skin to these tents.

lovely like the curtains of Solomon

Solomon produced beautiful curtains either for his own palace or for the Temple. She says that her skin is beautiful.

Song of Solomon 1:6

scorched

This exaggeration for "burned" or "made black" refers to the sun changing her skin from light to dark.

My mother's sons

"My half-brothers." These brothers probably had the same mother as the woman but not the same father.

made me keeper of the vineyards

"forced me to take care of the vineyards"

but my own vineyard I have not kept

The woman compares herself to a vineyard. Alternate translation: "but I have not been able to take care of myself"

Song of Solomon 1:7

General Information:

In 1:7 the woman speaks to the man.

my soul loves

The soul is a metonym for the person. Alternate translation: "I love" feed your flock

"graze your flocks"

rest your flock

"have your flock lie down"

Why should I be like someone who wanders beside the flocks of your companions?

The woman asks this question to emphasize that she has a closer relationship to the man than other women do. This question can be translated as a statement. Alternate translation: "Tell me so that I will not need to wander around among the flocks of your companions when I am looking for you."

who wanders

"who goes all around." She does not want to have to look for the man. Perhaps she is afraid other men will think she is a prostitute looking for business.

your companions

"your friends" or "your co-workers"

Song of Solomon 1:8

General Information

In 1:8-11 the man speaks to the woman.

most beautiful among women

"you who are the most beautiful of all women"

follow the tracks of my flock

"follow along behind the flock"

tracks

marks of the hooves of the flock on the ground pasture your young goats

"graze your young goats" or "let your young goats eat"

Song of Solomon 1:9

General Information:

The man continues speaking to the woman.

I compare you, my love, to a mare among Pharaoh's chariot horses

The Jews of those days considered horses beautiful, and the Pharaoh's horses would have been the most beautiful he could find. The man considers the young woman beautiful.

Alternate translation: "My love, you are as beautiful as any of Pharaoh's chariot horses"

my love

"you whom I love"

Pharaoh's chariot horses

"the horses that pull Pharaoh's chariots"

Song of Solomon 1:10

Your cheeks are beautiful with ornaments

These ornaments could be 1) jewels hanging from a band around the head or 2) earrings or 3) a metaphor for her long hair.

Song of Solomon 1:11

We will make

The man speaks as if he were many people. Some versions change this to singular "I." Other versions take these to be the words of the woman's friends.

with silver studs

"with spots of silver"

Song of Solomon 1:12

General Information

In 1:12-14 the woman speaks to herself.

lay on his couch

"sat eating his special meal." This probably refers to one of the couches on which people would lie around a table at a banquet. You could translate using the common word for what people do with their bodies when they eat special meals.

nard

an oil that people got from the expensive nard or spikenard (valerian plant with small pink or white flowers) and used to make their skin soft and to have a pleasant odor.

emitted its fragrance

"gave off its good smell"

Song of Solomon 1:13

My beloved is to me like a bag of myrrh ... breasts

Women would place a small bag or pouch of myrrh on a necklace so it would lie between their breasts and they could enjoy its pleasant fragrance. This woman enjoys having her beloved close to her. She adds "to me" to show that she does not expect anyone else to enjoy her beloved in this way. Alternate translation: "I enjoy my beloved as much as I enjoy having a bag of myrrh ... breasts"

Chapter 2

My beloved

This phrase refers to the man whom the woman loves. In some languages it may be more natural for her to refer to him as "my lover." Alternate translation: "My dear one" or "My lover"

lying between my breasts

If this phrase would offend your readers, you could use a euphemism. Alternate translation: "close to me"

Song of Solomon 1:14

My beloved is to me like a cluster of henna flowers

Henna flowers have a fragrance that people enjoy. The woman enjoys her beloved. She adds "to me" to show that she does not expect anyone else to enjoy her beloved in this way. Alternate translation: "I enjoy my beloved as much as I enjoy the smell of clusters of henna flowers"

henna flowers

flowers from a small desert tree that people used as a perfume

Song of Solomon 1:15

General Information

In 1:15 the man speaks to the woman.

Listen, you

"Pay attention, because what I am about to say is both true and important: you"

my love

"you whom I love." See how you translated this in Song of Songs 1:9

your eyes are doves

Possible meaning are 1) the Israelites considered doves to be gentle and soft birds, and the man considers the woman's eyes beautiful because the way the woman looks at him makes him think she is gentle. Alternate translation: "you are very gentle" or 2) the man is speaking of the woman's white eyeballs or the shape of her eyes as being like the shape of a dove.

Song of Solomon 1:16

General Information

In 1:16-17 the woman speaks to the man.

Listen, you

"Pay attention, because what I am about to say is both true and important: you"

handsome

Use the word in your language that describes a good-looking man.

my beloved

This phrase refers to the man whom the woman loves. In some languages it may be more natural for her to refer to him as "my lover." See how you translated this in Song of Songs 1:13. Alternate translation: "my dear one" or "my lover"

lush plants are our bed

This speaks of the lush plants as if they were a bed.

Alternate translation: "lush plants are what we lie down on to sleep"

The lush plants

plants that are green, moist, and grow abundantly

Song of Solomon 1:17

The beams of our house are cedars; our rafters are firs

The woman describes the forest as though it were a house in which they were lying down.

beams ... rafters

Possible meanings are 1) "beams" refers to large logs used to support everything above the walls and "rafters" refers to the large pieces of wood to which the roof is attached or 2) "beams" refers to the rafters and "rafters" refers to the strips attached to the beams, onto which the builders attached the roofing materials.

cedars ... firs

Cedars were large and strong trees. The word translated "firs" is a general term for trees like cedars but smaller. If cedar and fir trees are unknown in your area, you could use general terms for the tallest and strongest trees.

Chapter 2

¹ I am a meadow flower of Sharon, a lily of the valleys.

² As a lily among thorns,
so is my love among the young women.

³ As an apricot tree among the trees of the forest,
so is my beloved among the young men.
I sit down under his shadow with great delight,
and his fruit is sweet to my taste.

⁴ He brought me to the house of wine, and his banner over me was love.

⁵ Revive me with raisin cakes and refresh me with apricots,
for I am weak with love.

- ⁶ His left hand is under my head, and his right hand embraces me.
- ⁷ I want you to swear, daughters of Jerusalem,
by the gazelles and the does of the fields,
that you will not awaken or arouse love
until she pleases.
- ⁸ There is the sound of my beloved! Listen, here he comes, leaping over the mountains,
jumping over the hills.
- ⁹ My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag;
look, he is standing behind our wall,
gazing through the window,
peering through the lattice.
- ¹⁰ My beloved spoke to me and said,
"Arise, my love;
My beautiful one, come away with me.
- ¹¹ Look, the winter is past;
the rain is over and gone.
- ¹² The flowers have appeared in the land;
the time for pruning and the singing of birds has come,
and the sound of the doves is heard in our land.
- ¹³ The fig tree ripens her green figs,
and the vines are in blossom;
they give off their fragrance.
Arise, my love, my beautiful one, and come away.
- ¹⁴ My dove, in the clefts of the rock,
in the secret clefts of the mountain crags, let me see your face.
Let me hear your voice,
for your voice is sweet,
and your face is lovely."
- ¹⁵ Catch the foxes for us,
the little foxes that spoil vineyards,
for our vineyard is in blossom.
- ¹⁶ My beloved is mine, and I am his;
he grazes among the lilies with pleasure.
- ¹⁷ Go away, my beloved,
before the day breathes and the shadows flee away.
Go away; be like a gazelle or a young stag on the rugged mountains.

Song of Songs 2 General Notes

Important figures of speech in this chapter

Metaphor

Women are compared to flowers in this chapter. This metaphor may describe a woman's beauty and delicacy.

Euphemisms

It is possible that some of the metaphors used in this chapter are actually euphemisms. These euphemisms would refer to sex or the physical love between a husband and a wife.

Links:

Song of Songs 2:1 Notes

Song of Solomon 2:1

General Information:

See: and

General Information:

Throughout the book, it is not always clear who is speaking or who they are speaking to. We have notes telling who some scholars think the speakers are. In 2:1 the woman speaks to the man.

I am a meadow flower of Sharon

The woman speaks as if she were one of many flowers in a land known for beautiful flowers.

Sharon

the name of a land that is flat, has no trees, and grows many different kinds of grasses and flowers

lily of the valleys

The woman speaks as if she were one of many flowers in a land known for beautiful flowers.

lily

a sweet smelling flower that grows in places where there is much water. See how you translated this in Song of Songs 2:1-2.

valleys

flat areas between mountains and near water

Song of Solomon 2:2

General Information

In 2:2 the man speaks to the woman.

As a lily among thorns ... young women

A flower is much more beautiful than a thorn bush. The man thinks the woman is much more beautiful than the other women.

my love

"you whom I love." See how you translated this in Song of Songs 1:9.

the young women

"the other young women"

Song of Solomon 2:3

General Information

In 2:3-4 the woman speaks to herself.

As an apricot tree ... the young men

People enjoy the fruit of an apricot tree, but the trees of the forest do not bear fruit. The woman enjoys being with the man, but not with the other young men.

apricot tree

a tree that produces a small yellow fruit that is very sweet.

If your readers will not know what this is, you could use the word for another fruit tree or the general word "fruit tree."

the forest

The Hebrew word here refers to land where trees grow for which people have no use.

my beloved

This phrase refers to the man whom the woman loves. In some languages it may be more natural for her to refer to him as "my lover." See how you translated this in Song of Songs 1:13. Alternate translation: "my dear one" or "my lover"

I sit down under his shadow with great delight

The woman finds great joy and comfort in being so near to the man.

his fruit is sweet to my taste

The woman enjoys eating sweet fruit, and she enjoys being near to the man.

Song of Solomon 2:4

the house of wine

Possible meanings are 1) the very large room where the king would serve many people large meals with wine or 2) a small booth in a vineyard where the man and woman could be alone together.

his banner over me was love

Possible meanings are 1) the banner is a metonym for a military escort. And, the military escort is a metaphor that represents the man's love which gives courage to the woman who was nervous to enter the large room where the king served many people. Alternate translation: "but his loving protection guided me and gave me courage" or 2) the woman knew that the man wanted to make love to her from the way he looked at her. Alternate translation: "he looked at me lovingly" or "when he looked at me, I knew he wanted to make love to me" or 3) they made love. Alternate translation: "he lovingly covered me"

Song of Solomon 2:5

General Information

In 2:5 the woman speaks to the man.

Revive me

"Return my strength" or "Give me energy"

with raisin cakes

"by giving me raisin cakes to eat." Raisin cakes were cakes made of dried grapes pressed together.

refresh me with apricots

"support me by giving me apricots" or "help me by giving me apricots"

for I am weak with love

The woman speaks of feeling weak because her love is so strong as if love were a kind of sickness. Alternate translation: "because my love is so strong that I feel feeble" Song of Solomon 2:6

General Information

In 2:6 the woman speaks to herself.

left hand ... right hand

"left arm ... right arm"

embraces me

"holds me"

Song of Solomon 2:7

General Information

In 2:7 the woman speaks to the other women.

daughters of Jerusalem

"young women of Jerusalem." These young women could not hear her and were not present, but the woman speaks as if they were present and could hear her.

by the gazelles and the does of the fields

Although the daughters of Jerusalem could not hear her, the woman speaks to them as if they could hear saying that the gazelles and the does will punish them they break their promise.

the gazelles

These are animals that look like deer and move quickly.

does

female deer

of the fields

"that live in the countryside." This was land that has not been farmed.

will not awaken or arouse love until she pleases

Here "love" is spoken of as if it were a person asleep that does not want to be awakened. This is a metaphor that represents the man and woman who do not want to be disturbed until they are finished making love. Alternate translation: "will not disturb us until we have finished making love"

will not awaken or arouse

If your language has only one word for waking people out of sleep, you could combine these words. Alternate translation: "will not awaken"

Song of Solomon 2:8

General Information:

In 2:8-14 the woman is speaking either to herself or to the daughters of Jerusalem.

Listen

Possible meanings are 1) "Listen carefully to what I am about to say." You could use a word in your language that tells the hearer to listen carefully, or 2) "Listen so you can hear him coming."

my beloved

This phrase refers to the man whom the woman loves. In some languages it may be more natural for her to refer to him as "my lover." See how you translated this in Song of Songs 1:13. Alternate translation: "my dear one" or "my lover"

leaping ... jumping

The woman shows that she is excited to see the man come by using as few words as possible to describe what he is doing. Your language may have a different way of showing that the speaker is excited about what is happening.

leaping over the mountains, jumping over the hills

"leaping on the mountains, running quickly on the hills."

The woman speaks of the man as if he were "a gazelle or a young stag"

Song of Solomon 2:9

gazing ... peering

The woman shows that she is excited to see the man come by using as few words as possible to describe what he is doing. Your language may have a different way of showing that the speaker is excited about what is happening.

like a gazelle or a young stag

Gazelles and young stags move quickly over rough ground.

The woman imagines the man coming as fast as he can to be with her. You could translate using animals in your language that people think of as fast.

a gazelle

This is an animal that looks like a deer and moves quickly.

Translate as the singular of "the gazelles" as in Song of Songs 2:7.

a young stag

"a young male deer"

look

"listen carefully" or "what I am about to say is important."

You could use a word in your language that tells the hearer to listen carefully.

behind our wall

"on the other side of our wall." The woman is in a house and the man is outside the house.

our wall

The word "our" refers to the woman and the other people in the house with her. If she is speaking to herself, it is inclusive, but if she is speaking to the daughters of Jerusalem, whether she is referring to herself and her companions or to herself only in plural, as in "We are glad ... We rejoice ... let us celebrate"

gazing through the window

"he stares in through the windows"

peering through the lattice

"he peeks through the lattice"

lattice

a cover for a window or some other entrance that someone has made by weaving long strips of wood together. Lattices have holes that people can look through.

Song of Solomon 2:10

My beloved

This phrase refers to the man whom the woman loves. In some languages it may be more natural for her to refer to him as "my lover." See how you translated this in Song of Songs 1:13. Alternate translation: "My dear one" or "My lover"

Arise, my love

"Get out of bed, my love"

my love

"you whom I love." See how you translated this in Song of Songs 1:9

Song of Solomon 2:11

Look

"Listen carefully" or "What I am about to say is important."
You could use a word in your language that tells the hearer to listen carefully.

the winter is past; the rain is over and gone

In winter it is too cold and wet to make love outside, but the cold, wet time has passed.

the winter is past

Winter is the cold time of year when plants do not grow and people prefer to stay inside their houses. You could use the term in your language for that time of year.

the rain is over and gone

In Israel it only rains during the winter. The rain here is cold and unpleasant, not the refreshing rain of the hot season.

Song of Solomon 2:12

The flowers have appeared

"People can see flowers"

in the land

"all over this land"

for pruning

for cutting off branches from a plant so that it will produce more fruit or look better

the singing of birds

"for birds to sing"

the sound of the doves is heard

This can be translated in active form. Alternate translation: "people can hear the sound of doves" or "the doves are cooing"

Song of Solomon 2:13

The fig tree ripens her green figs

The tree is spoken of as if it were actively causing its fruit to ripen. This is a collective singular and can be translated as a plural. Alternate translation: "The figs on the trees are becoming ripe"

vines are in blossom

"vines are flowering" or "vines have flowers"

they give off

The word "they" refers to the blossoms on the vines.

their fragrance

"their sweet smell"

my love

"you whom I love." See how you translated this in Song of Songs 1:9

Song of Solomon 2:14

General Information:

The man is speaking.

My dove

The Israelites considered doves beautiful birds with pleasant voices. The man thinks the woman's face and voice are beautiful. If calling a woman a "dove" would be offensive, you could leave out the metaphor. Alternate translation: "My beautiful woman"

the clefts

large cracks in the side of mountain rocks large enough for people to hide in the mountain crags

"the steep rocks on the sides of the mountains"

your face

Some versions translate this as "your appearance" or "your form" or "what you look like."

Song of Solomon 2:15

Catch

This is plural, as if the woman is speaking to more than one man, but most versions translate who she is speaking to as the man, so you could translate this as singular.

the foxes

These animals look like small dogs and were often used in love poetry to represent eager young men who would spoil a young woman.

for us ... our vineyard

The words "us" and "our" could possibly be 1) exclusive, referring to the woman herself, as in [Song of Songs 1:4]

foxes

Another possible meaning is "jackals." A jackal is a type of thin wild dog with long legs.

the little foxes that spoil

Foxes spoil or destroy vineyards by digging holes and eating vines and grapes. This could be a metaphor for young men who spoil young women.

in blossom

This implies that the vineyard is healthy and the grapes have appeared, but they are not ready for harvest. This could be a metaphor for a young lady ready for marriage and bearing children. See how you translated this in Song of Songs 2:13.

Song of Solomon 2:16

General Information:

The woman speaks about the man.

My beloved is mine

"My beloved belongs to me"

I am his

"I belong to him"

he grazes

"feeds" or "eats grass." The woman speaks of the man as if he were "a gazelle or a young stag"

lilies

sweet-smelling flowers that grow in places where there is much water. Translate as the plural of "lily" in Song of Songs 2:1.

Song of Solomon 2:17

General Information

The woman speaks to the man.

my beloved

This phrase refers to the man whom the woman loves. In some languages it may be more natural for her to refer to him as "my lover." See how you translated this in Song of Songs 1:13. Alternate translation: "my dear one" or "my lover"

before the day breathes

"before dawn" or "before daybreak"

the shadows flee away

The woman describes the shadows as though they were running away from the light of the sun. Alternate translation: "the shadows disappear"

like a gazelle or a young stag

See how you translated this in Song of Songs 2:9.

gazelle

Chapter 3

an animal that looks like a deer and moves quickly.
Translate as the singular of "gazelles" as in Song of Songs 2:7.
stag

an adult male deer
rugged mountains
"rocky mountains" or "rough mountains"

Chapter 3

- ¹ At night on my bed
I was longing for him whom my soul loves;
I looked for him, but I could not find him.
- ² I said to myself, "I will get up and go through the city,
through the streets and squares;
I will search for him whom my soul loves."
I searched for him, but I did not find him.
- ³ The watchmen found me
as they were making their rounds in the city.
I asked them, "Have you seen him whom my soul loves?"
- ⁴ It was only a little while after I had passed them that I found him whom my soul loves.
I held on to him and would not let him go until I had brought him into my mother's house, into the bedroom of the one who had conceived me.
- ⁵ I want you to swear, daughters of Jerusalem,
by the gazelles and the does of the fields,
that you will not awaken or arouse love
until she pleases.
- ⁶ What is that coming up from the wilderness
like a column of smoke,
perfumed with myrrh and frankincense,
with all the powders sold by merchants?
- ⁷ Look, it is the bed of Solomon;
sixty warriors surround it—
the mighty men of Israel.
- ⁸ All of them are skilled with a sword and are experienced in warfare.
Every man has his sword at his side,
armed against the terrors of the night.
- ⁹ King Solomon made himself a sedan chair of the wood from Lebanon.
- ¹⁰ Its posts were made of silver;
the back was made of gold,
and the seat of purple cloth.
Its interior was decorated with love
by the daughters of Jerusalem.
- ¹¹ Go out, daughters of Zion,

and gaze on King Solomon, bearing the crown with which his mother crowned him on his wedding day, on the day of the joy of his heart.

Song of Songs 3 General Notes

Special concepts in this chapter

Longing

This chapter describes a feeling of longing, or the waiting in anticipation of the one you love.

Other possible translation difficulties in this chapter

Metaphors

In the ancient Near East, it was common to describe a woman using metaphors involving animals. In many cultures today, this can be considered offensive. Different metaphors of beauty are used in different cultures.

Links:

Song of Songs 3:1 Notes

Song of Solomon 3:1

General Information:

Throughout the book, it is not always clear who is speaking or who they are speaking to. We have notes telling who some scholars think the speakers are. In 3:1-4 The woman speaks to herself.

I was longing for him ... could not find him

"I had a strong desire to be with him ... loves, but he was not there"

him whom my soul loves

The soul is a metonym for the whole person. Here it makes a stronger statement of the woman's love for the man than "my beloved"

Song of Solomon 3:2

go through the city

"walk through the city"

through the streets and squares

The word "squares" indicates the center area of a town where streets or roads come together. It is often an area where people sell items, a market, and a place where people come together to talk.

will search

"will to look for"

Song of Solomon 3:3

watchmen

men who have the job of keeping guard of the town at night to keep the people safe

as they were making their rounds in the city

"who were walking around the city on the walls"

him whom my soul loves

The soul is a metonym for the whole person. Here it makes a stronger statement of the woman's love for the man than "my beloved"

Song of Solomon 3:4

the bedroom

"the room for sleeping"

the one who had conceived me

This is a metonym for her mother.

Song of Solomon 3:5

General Information:

In 3:5 the woman speaks to the other women. Translate this verse as in Song of Songs 2:7.

daughters of Jerusalem

"young women of Jerusalem." These young women could not hear her and were not present, but the woman speaks as if they were present and could hear her.

by the gazelles and the does of the fields

Although the daughters of Jerusalem are not there to hear her, the woman is telling them that the gazelles and the does will punish them they break their promise.

the gazelles

animals that look like deer and move quickly.

does

female deer

of the fields

"that live in the countryside." This refers to land that has not been farmed.

will not awaken or arouse love until she pleases

Here "love" is spoken of as if it were a person asleep that does not want to be awakened. This is a metaphor that represents the man and woman who do not want to be disturbed until they are finished making love. See how you translated these words in [Song of Songs 2:7]

will not awaken or arouse

If your language has only one word for waking people out of sleep, you could combine these words. Alternate translation: "will not awaken"

Song of Solomon 3:6

General Information:

In 3:6-10 the woman speaks to herself about sixty men coming with Solomon from the wilderness to Jerusalem.

What is that coming up from the wilderness

The group of people is traveling from the wilderness to Jerusalem. They must go up in order to reach Jerusalem because the wilderness is low in the Jordan valley and Jerusalem is high in the mountains.

What is that

Many versions translate this "Who is that."

Chapter 4

like a column of smoke

The dust looked like smoke from far away because the people raised much dust in the air as they traveled.

perfumed with myrrh and frankincense

"with the sweet smell of myrrh and frankincense"

with all the powders sold by merchants

The words "perfumed with" are understood from the previous phrase. They can be repeated here. Alternate translation: "perfumed with all the powders sold by merchants" or "and with the sweet smell of all the powders that merchants sell"

powders

a fine dust made by crushing something solid

Song of Solomon 3:7

Look

"Listen carefully" or "What I am about to say is important."

